REHOBOAM AND JEROBOAM DIVIDE THE KINGDOM

The discontent and unrest that existed in Solomon's kingdom was like a powder keg awaiting a spark. When Solomon died, the occasion for the explosion came because of the foolish insensitivity of his son Rehoboam. The 10 northern tribes revolted against Rehoboam and appointed Jeroboam as their king.

Israel (northern kingdom)

Jeroboam established his capital at Tirzah. He was succeeded by his son Nadab, but the dynasty was soon cut off by Nadab's assassination.

Nadab besieged the Philistine city of Gibbethon, but during the siege was assassinated by his successor Baasha (1 Kin. 15:27).

Judah (southern kingdom)

Rehoboam fought border wars against Jeroboam, probably over the territory of Benjamin which was a buffer zone between the two kingdoms (1 Kin. 14:30).

Abijah (or Abijam), son of Rehoboam, continued the border wars against Jeroboam

Moses' Flight and Return to Egypt

Moses fled from Pharaoh through the Sinai desert and settled in the land of Midian. In the vicinity of Horeb, located by tradition in the Sinai Peninsula, God revealed Himself in the burning bush and called Moses to go back to Egypt. Moses met Aaron at Horeb, and together they returned to Pharaoh's court in Rameses.

INTRODUCTION

The Bible was not written at one time nor by one author. The books of the Old and New Testaments were written over a period of more than 1,000 years, and their contents cover a variety of ancient peoples and cultures. If we are to understand and appropriate the Bible's message today, we need some sense of the historical and cultural context in which its diverse parts appeared. We read the words of the Bible today under entirely different circumstances than those under which they were written. To neglect the historical and cultural background of the biblical books is to risk misunderstanding them.

Unfortunately for modern readers, the individual books of the Bible do not always provide the information necessary to understand the Bible's historical and cultural background. At the time that these books were written, readers would have already been familiar with the world the writings describe. But thousands of years later, the events and customs that the original readers would have recognized immediately are often confusing and only dimly understood by modern readers.

The Chronological Study Bible will take you on a journey through the history and culture of the Bible. It will allow you to step back into biblical times and discover the world out of which the Bible grew. It will help you follow the flow of events in the Scriptures and see where sacred and secular history converge into one story of salvation. You will learn how sacred history fits into the context of secular history—why an event happened, how events relate to each other, as well as the cultural, religious, political, and geographical background that influenced the events.

Features for Historical and Cultural Learning

Several features of The Chronological Study Bible will help you understand the history and culture of the Bible.

Chronological Bible Text The entire New King James Version text is rearranged according to the time of the events narrated in each book or passage. Every verse of the Bible is located in one of nine epochs of time.

Transition Commentary Transition Comments explain the placement and chronology of related passages of the Bible. You will learn how different Bible passages relate to each other and how they relate to the history of the ancient Near East and the Greco-Roman world. For instance, chapters 7 and 26 of the Book of Jeremiah preserve two versions of a single sermon. In The Chronological Study Bible, these chapters appear together under "Jeremiah's Temple Sermon" (p. 709), along with one of Jeremiah's confessions that responds to the persecution he experienced as a result of his preaching.

Epoch Introductions An "epoch" is a period of time that is characterized by peculiar features or events. The Chronological Study Bible will lead you through nine epochs, beginning with Epoch 1 (from creation up to Israel's patriarchs) and finishing with Epoch 9 (the church age and the visions of the end time). Introductions to each epoch discuss the peoples of that time and reveal what archaeology and the biblical literature tell us concerning the period.

Historical Overviews The Bible story unfolds over thousands of years. Historical Overviews provide descriptions of the changing times, helping you to form a mental view of the steps along the way. You will learn the importance of happenings from "The Beginnings of Human Civilization" (p. 2) to "Apocalyptic Writings and the End Time" (p. 1408).

Background Notes At many points, the world we read about in the Bible is related to the world outside the Bible. Background Notes provide information on the events, the customs, the religions, the literature, the politics, the places, and the persons with which the people of Bible times were familiar. For example, in "The Flood Through Other Eyes" (p. 9) you will learn of great flood stories that were told and retold throughout the ancient Near East.

Daily Life Have you ever wondered what life was really like for Bible peoples? Many of their customs differ greatly from ours today. Daily Life insights will acquaint you with topics such as "Cults and Supernatural" and "Politics and Government." In "Marriage and Family" (pp. 38, 59) you will see why being the firstborn son was a privileged position in the ancient family.

Time Panels It is easier to grasp the passage of time when events are plotted along a time line. Time Panels treat significant topics of the Bible, such as "Paul Becomes a Missionary" (p. 1275), which shows the important occurrences of Paul's life between his conversion and his earliest missionary journeys.

Time Capsules While the Bible offers some information for determining the dates of particular events, many more events of ancient history find no mention whatsoever in Scripture. Time Capsules provide dates for important episodes and occasions, grouping events inside and outside of the Bible within specific time periods. The list of happenings in "Time Capsule 522 to 520 B.C." (p. 942) and "Time Capsule 518 to 500 B.C." (p. 946) shows why the reign of Darius I in Persia was an opportune time for the Jews to rebuild and rededicate the Jerusalem temple. The Time Capsules appear in chronological order throughout The Chronological Study Bible, but no attempt has been made to locate them at the exact chronological time of the Bible text. Because of uncertainties in establishing an exact date for the Bible narratives, the Time Capsules have been placed only within the approximate time period of a narrative.

Time Charts How can you organize for your study the years and years of time that relate to what you read in Scripture? Time Charts provide visual overviews of important chronological topics in the Bible. The final pages of the New Testament warn of Jerusalem's demise, and "The Fate of Jerusalem" (p. 1417) charts Jerusalem's rocky course of events from the temple's desecration by Antiochus IV to the city being renamed Aelia Capitolina as a Roman colony.

Maps Maps provide knowledge of the geography of biblical times. Dozens of in-text maps appear throughout The Chronological Study Bible showing the Bible lands as the ancient peoples knew them. In "The Hyksos Empire" (p. 57) you will see that during patriarchal times foreigners ruled a region encompassing Egypt as well as Palestine, which was then known as "Retenu."

Scripture References References at the top of each page help you locate the Bible passages appearing on a particular page. On each page with scripture, the first and last verse starting on that page are indicated.

Cultural and Historical Topics Are you interested in the lives of ancient peoples? Do you want to learn about their daily customs? The gods and goddesses they worshiped? The places where they lived and worked? The writings they read? The peoples, rulers, and nations that affected their lives? Cultural and Historical Topics (p. 1431) will help you locate such information in the Background Notes.

Glossary The Background Notes mention certain names, places, and things that are unfamiliar to us today. The brief descriptions and explanations of these subjects in the Glossary (p. 1449) provide clarification when you need it.

Concordance and Index of Scripture Passages A 195-page concordance (including people and places) allows you to look up passages by the words they contain (p. 1469). The Index of Scripture Passages (p. 1665) follows the concordance, and provides a guide to page numbers for all of the Bible passages in the chronological arrangement.

Reading a Chronological Text

This study Bible's attempt to rearrange the Bible text in the order of the events it narrates will probably highlight some difficulties that many Bible readers have never noticed. The Bible as it really is, not as we have imaginatively harmonized it in our minds, may be a bit unsettling at first. But to recognize such problems will only help readers better appreciate the efforts of serious biblical scholars to interpret the Bible. One goal of The Chronological Study Bible is to help Bible readers join the scholars' quest for historical truth.

Rearranging the Bible is, of course, a fallible human effort. Even those who have earned advanced degrees in the various fields of biblical studies would disagree on any particular rearrangement. The editors of The Chronological Study Bible have been forced at times to make hard decisions, to choose one location at the neglect of another that is equally plausible. In such instances, an honest effort has been made to acknowledge another possible arrangement and to present its case fairly. This allows readers to decide the issues for themselves.

In the case of debated issues The Chronological Study Bible avoids presenting a single, biased perspective. Rather, it treats evenhandedly the entire spectrum of credible opinion on disputed matters. It takes with equal seriousness the views of traditional, conservative Bible students and those of modern, critical scholarship. No attempt is made to persuade readers that one particular view is correct; that determination is ultimately their prayerful and thoughtful responsibility.

Rearranging the order of the Bible's books may appear to some readers to be a violation of the integrity of the Bible. The goal of The Chronological Study Bible is not to replace the time-honored canonical arrangement, but instead to honor time as the setting in which the biblical record appeared. Readers who study this Bible will return to their traditional Bibles better equipped to read them. No longer will its words be disconnected holy pronouncements out of the blue. They will be seen for what they really are: words "fitly spoken ... like apples of gold in settings of silver" (Prov. 25:11). To acquire a sense of the flow of the Bible's story will put flesh and blood on its message.

READING THEOLOGICAL HISTORY

One goal of The Chronological Study Bible is to help readers acquire a greater appreciation for the historical dimensions of the biblical message. The Bible is not a theology book arranged according to topics: God, man, sin, salvation, etc. Nor is it simply a chronicle of events from creation to the final consummation. Historical events are often the Bible's subject matter, but these events are always reported from a particular perspective. That perspective is theological history. It is in the arena of history that God has chosen to make Himself known.

History and the Old Testament

The Old Testament is centered in history. It describes historical events and is addressed, at one level at least, to a specific historical audience: the Hebrew people. This makes the faith taught in the Bible very different from the beliefs of other ancient Near Eastern peoples.

The peoples surrounding the Hebrews built their religious beliefs on the rhythms of nature. The world had visible patterns, but to its inhabitants these rhythms were unexplainable, uncontrollable, and therefore attributed to the gods. There were gods to represent all the phenomena of nature: gods of the sun, moon, rain, storms, rivers, seas, and the earth itself. The typical religious expression of such religion was the myth, a story that explained these unexplainable features of nature. For instance, almost every people had a myth of a deity who was dead for part of the year and alive for the rest of the year—a story that explained the recurring cycle of the seasons.

The God of the Old Testament is very different. Most importantly, He is one God. All the phenomena that other peoples regarded as gods are simply the creations of the one God. In the other religions of the ancient Near East, nature was divine; in the Bible, God both created nature and was more than nature. The God of the Bible deals with His creation not in recurring, regular patterns, but in one-time, extraordinary moments of self-revelation. Moreover, these moments when God acts on earth are not described in vague, mythic language (“long ago, in the land of the gods”), but occur in real time, in recognizable locations on earth.

For this reason, the Old Testament's primary mode of communication is not myth, but history. Israel was not interested in describing how God acts in continual repetition in nature; Israel wanted to tell how God had performed unique, one-time actions in human history. They wanted to tell how at specific moments in history, God chose Abraham, blessed Jacob, and saved Abraham's and Jacob's descendants from slavery in Egypt. They wanted to tell how God established His chosen king over Israel, how God allowed that kingdom to be destroyed, and how once again God rescued His people from captivity. To tell their very different sort of faith, the Israelites used the art of history writing, and the Old Testament itself contains some of the very earliest examples of this art.

Of course, not all of the Old Testament consists of history writing. But even the parts of the Old Testament that are not history writing themselves usually appear in some historical context. The oracles, speeches, and poetry of the prophets are not history, but they are addressed to real people in real historical situations. They recall God's mighty acts of the historical past; they promise that God can and will act in history again. Books of wisdom and philosophy that do not speak of history at all, like Proverbs and Ecclesiastes, are nevertheless identified with the historical context of King Solomon's court. Even the psalms, intended for regular repetition in public worship, often provide a historical background, such as Ps. 3, superscribed as “A Psalm of David when he fled from Absalom his son.”

Israel understood God as a God who acts in history, and for this reason almost every religious utterance was read in light of the history of God's mighty acts. Therefore, to understand the Old Testament as it is meant to be understood, the reader must have some grasp of the historical events that lie behind each chapter and book. Unless the reader knows the history of Israel and the ancient Near East, the Bible will always be to some extent a closed book.

The New Testament and the Old

The Old Testament was the Bible of the New Testament writers. Old Testament images and concepts filled their minds. Allusions to the Old Testament appear on nearly every page of their writings. The teaching of the Old Testament was basic to their thought.

These New Testament writers also believed that Christ was God's final revelation, the One who brought the earlier revelation into proper focus (Heb. 1:1, 2). Indeed, the risen Christ Himself had explained to His disciples how He fulfilled the Scriptures (Luke 24:27). Thus New Testament writers understood Him to be the One who brought to completion God's plan of salvation recorded in the early chapters of Genesis.

History writing in the New Testament is certainly a theological history. The authors believed that the purpose and meaning of history could be found in Christ. Therefore, the history of which they wrote was salvation history. God's earlier saving works looked forward to the Cross. God's bringing His people out of Egypt became a pattern for Christ's atoning work. At the Passover meal commemorating this deliverance from bondage, Christ made the bread and wine symbols of His death and of the new covenant (Luke 22:19, 20). History had reached its highest point in Him. So Paul, the most influential teacher of Christianity, wrote about the Jesus who appeared to him on the Damascus Road, describing the risen Christ as the one "through whom are all things, and through whom we live" (1 Cor. 8:6).

The Message and the Historical Setting

While both the Old and New Testaments present their message on a historical frame, the message takes precedence to the historical setting. The writers of biblical history did not write in the same manner as a modern historian. Ancient history writers were not as interested in "when something happened" as they were in the meaning of the events they were recounting. Therefore the reader of biblical history must be aware that many of the concerns that dominate modern history writing (specific dates, discussions of natural causes) simply were not very important to most of the biblical writers.

REARRANGING THE BIBLE'S CANONICAL ORDER

The individual books included in the Old and New Testaments as authoritative are called "the canon." For some readers, the placement of these books in our English Bibles (called "canonical order") is slightly confusing, since it does not always follow chronological order. Rather, it follows the order of the Latin Vulgate translated by Jerome in the 4th century A.D.

A reader can follow the Old Testament chronology easily for the first dozen books (Genesis through 2 Kings), but after that the chronological order often disappears. The books of Chronicles through Esther backtrack and retell many of the events already described. Portions of the books of Psalms and Proverbs refer to times that are centuries apart, and the prophetic writings, speaking of widely different times, are not presented in straight chronological order.

The New Testament reader also faces some chronological uncertainty. The life of Jesus appears in four Gospels, and while all four Gospels report information about Jesus in general chronological order, none do so strictly. Certain sayings or events appear in differing sequences in the various Gospels. Each of the authors had a slightly different purpose and audience in mind, and structured his materials in order to achieve the greatest effectiveness. Determining the events of Paul's life is not simple since the information from his letters does not always connect directly with the narrative of the Book of Acts.

Thus the canonical order presents a dilemma. To understand the Bible the reader must understand something of the history to which the Bible refers. At the same time, though, that historical background is not readily apparent from the order of the books in the Bible itself. The Chronological Study Bible makes the Bible's historical background more accessible by rearranging the Bible text according to nine epochs of time.

Moving Whole Books. To begin with, whole books of the Bible are relocated according to the historical time period narrated in the books. This reordering disrupts the canonical order of the books, and though this might seem irreverent to some people, it actually continues an ancient practice. The order of books in the Septuagint (the Greek Old Testament) differs from that of the older Hebrew Bible, and some of the Septuagint reordering is reflected in our English Old Testaments.

The early Greek translators, thinking a chronological order would make more sense, moved such books as Ruth, Ezra, and Nehemiah from their positions in the Hebrew manuscripts. The Book of Ruth does not appear after the Book of Judges in the Hebrew Bible, but near the end of the Bible. The books of Ezra and Nehemiah come before the books of Chronicles, even though they narrate events occurring later in time than those narrated by Chronicles. When the Old Testament was translated into Greek during the Hellenistic era (336–37 B.C.), the confusing chronology of the Hebrew Bible was changed by relocating several of these books. The Book of Ruth, which tells of events during the final years of the judges, was inserted between the books of Judges and 1 Samuel, while Ezra and Nehemiah were placed after 2 Chronicles.

Moving Portions of Books. Chronological confusion is not restricted to the order of whole books, however. The contents of certain individual books are not in chronological order, making it difficult for a modern reader to comprehend the historical context. So in addition to reordering whole books, even the contents of individual books have been rearranged—quite extensively in books like Isaiah and Jeremiah—to follow a chronological outline.

Combining Portions of Books. Moreover, various books have been woven together. For instance, the historical books of Kings and Chronicles are often interrupted by prophetic books or passages that pertain to the time described in the history. The four Gospels are combined into one presentation following the sequence of the Gospel of Mark. Certain of Paul's letters are inserted into the Book of Acts.

Principles of Rearrangement

Rearranging the biblical books chronologically is by no means easily accomplished, since Bible scholars differ on almost every important point of chronology. The rearrangement in The Chronological Study Bible is based on two distinct chronological goals. First, it provides a relative chronology, placing related events together without fixed dates. For instance, the prophet Amos spoke in the northern kingdom of Israel during the reign of Jeroboam II, and so the history of Jeroboam II is read alongside the words of Amos that refer to Jeroboam's time. Second, The Chronological Study Bible provides an absolute chronology tied to historical information and fixed dates (or at least tentative dates). An absolute chronology enables readers to place the biblical history in the larger context of world history.

There are imposing difficulties with any attempt to construct either relative or absolute chronologies. Many biblical passages offer no chronological specificity. Even among books and passages that provide some indication of a specific historical context, the intended context is not always clear. For instance, the oracle of Jer. 14 is dated to the time of “the droughts,” and Jeremiah's original audience supposedly had no trouble identifying this time. Modern readers, however, are not so fortunate: Were these droughts during the reign of King Josiah or King Jehoiakim or King Zedekiah? Jeremiah's prophetic career spans the reigns of all three kings. In the Book of Joel another prophet responds to a locust plague that ravaged the land of Judah. But when was that plague? Different scholars place Joel in at least three different centuries. All one can do in selecting a time period for the Book of Joel is to look at clues within the prophecy itself and then, in all humility, guess.

Difficulties vary with the different books of the Bible because those books differ from each other in the type of chronological issues they raise. The Chronological Study Bible addresses the unique problems of each portion of the Bible.

Genesis Through Joshua

The books of the Bible that narrate the earliest events do not provide specific years or refer to specific events or names that can be dated by other means. Even such a central figure as the individual who was Egypt's pharaoh during the Exodus is never referred to by name. Moreover, the years that are given are often suspiciously round numbers—like 40 years, which may be simply a symbolic number representing one generation.

Due to this lack of specific chronological information, scholars disagree widely on exactly when to date many events of early Israelite history. The Hebrews' exodus from Egypt, for example, is dated by many scholars in the 15th century B.C., whereas other scholars place it 200 years later, during the 13th century. The choice of either of these dates does not affect the chronological sequence of the narrative: by either date the Exodus precedes the conquest. So in The Chronological Study Bible both dates are given without stating any preference. The dates of the Exodus, wilderness wandering, and the conquest under Joshua are interrelated; consequently, the date a person favors for the Exodus determines the dating of the other two events.

The Exodus and Wilderness Wandering

When presenting relative chronology, the passages of the Bible are ordered according to the history that is narrated in the passage, not according to the time of the book's writing. For instance, the books of Exodus through Deuteronomy narrate the events of Israel's departure from Egypt and the subsequent wilderness wanderings. In The Chronological Study Bible, these books appear in the historical context of the Exodus, although many scholars argue that parts of these books were written much later. Regardless of when these books were written, their narrative can be appreciated as marvelous literature telling a story set in the time of the Hebrew exodus from Egypt.

Samuel, Kings, and Chronicles

The books of 1 and 2 Kings represent historical accounts that were evidently put together in their current form during the Babylonian exile (597–539 B.C.). Yet, because they narrate events as far back in time as the death of King David (about 970 B.C.), the books of Kings are not located in The Chronological Study Bible during their time of writing (the Exile), but rather are divided up and associated with the various historical eras which they narrate.

The history of the Israelite kingdoms is recounted in two full-length histories. The first is recorded in the books of Samuel and Kings, and the second appears in the books of Chronicles. The two histories are very similar; indeed, 1 and 2 Chronicles often quote directly from the earlier history of Samuel/Kings. Yet there are some marked differences in perspective. Whereas Samuel and Kings emphasize the religious leadership of prophets, Chronicles emphasizes the role of the priests. In order to present both historical accounts in their entirety, while staying as close as possible to chronological order, the two histories alternate. The account of a particular historical time appears first as told in Samuel or Kings, being labeled "Prophetic Account." Then the same history as told in Chronicles follows, being labeled "Priestly Account." This dual history begins at the reign of King Saul and continues until the destruction of Jerusalem, at which time a single chronological account resumes.

The Kings of the Divided Monarchy

Israel and Judah kept careful records of the lengths of reign of their rulers. The Bible's dates for the kings are relative dates, cross-referencing them to each other: for instance, Ahab became king of Israel in the 38th year of Asa king of Judah (1 Kin. 16:29). Since no definite year is given for the beginning of Asa's reign, however, this information alone is not enough to establish Ahab's dates.

An additional problem occurs when the years of reign are totaled. When the years given for the kings of Israel and Judah are added up, Israel's totals do not always correspond to Judah's. These apparent inconsistencies may appear for various reasons. When one king dies and another is crowned, is that year counted twice—as the last year of the deceased king and also as the first year of the new king? When a crown prince rules as regent while his royal father is still alive, as happens more than once, are the years of the coregency counted in the reigns of both kings? These questions make it difficult to utilize the years of reign in calculating an overall chronology. To provide a consistent presentation, The Chronological Study Bible adapts the system of dates for the kings found in The Mysterious Numbers of the Hebrew Kings by Edwin R. Thiele.

In the later history of Israel, the dates are much more certain, though a few chronological problems remain. Occasionally a biblical historian will recount some event out of chronological order, usually to make a theological point. For instance, the very last event described in the life of Hezekiah king of Judah is his entertaining of ambassadors from Babylon (2 Kin. 20:12–19; Is. 39:1–8). Evidence from both inside and outside of the Bible reveals that that event actually occurred earlier, certainly not just before Hezekiah's death (2 Kin. 20:21). The biblical historian evidently moved the account to the end because of the prophet Isaiah's warning about Babylon. During Hezekiah's reign, God had delivered Judah from Assyria, but the historian foreshadows a coming time when God would allow Judah to fall to Babylon. Emphasizing chronological order, The Chronological Study Bible restores such temporal displacements to their probable chronological contexts.

The Prophets

Other biblical books also concern the time covered by the Samuel/Kings and Chronicles double history. In The Chronological Study Bible most of the prophetic books are inserted at the appropriate historical points in the "Prophetic Account." Several groups of psalms as well as the words of the priestly prophet Ezekiel appear within the "Priestly Account." Books are inserted within the Prophetic and the Priestly accounts according to the events which are narrated or prophesied, not according to the times when the books were written. The Book of Jonah, for instance, is often thought to have been composed some time in the Persian era (559–331 B.C.), but events in the book are set in the lifetime of the prophet Jonah, who lived centuries earlier, during the reign of Jeroboam II (793–753 B.C.). Thus, the Book of Jonah appears in the context of Jeroboam's reign.

Other prophetic passages speak of times later than the traditional date of composition for the passage itself. For example, parts of the Book of Isaiah refer to events that took place centuries after the prophet Isaiah lived. Though Isaiah prophesied in Jerusalem during the 8th century B.C., the passage of Is. 44:28; 45:1 refers by name to Cyrus, a Persian king who lived in the 6th century. For this reason, some chapters from the Book of Isaiah appear in the time of Cyrus (539–530 B.C.). While scholars disagree whether these chapters were written by Isaiah of Jerusalem or by a later prophet during the 6th century, they agree that the 6th century is the time to which these chapters refer.

The Book of Ezekiel provides many dates, most of which indicate when the prophet received a message from God. To calculate his dates Ezekiel began counting from the exile of Jehoiachin to Babylon in 597 B.C. Each date is expressed as a "year of King Jehoiachin's captivity" (Ezek. 1:2) or a "year of our captivity" (Ezek. 33:21). In providing modern equivalents for Ezekiel's dates, The Chronological Study Bible follows the system of dates compiled in Babylonian Chronology 626 B.C.–A.D. 75 by R. A. Parker and W. H. Dubberstein.

The Book of Jeremiah

The Book of Jeremiah, perhaps the most radically rearranged book in The Chronological Study Bible, is a prime example of a book that lacks chronological order in its canonical form. As one of the most history-conscious of the prophetic books, Jeremiah refers specifically to individual kings and officials and even includes several historical narratives. At the same time, though, these history-minded oracles and historical narratives are not presented in anything resembling chronological order. Even the historical narratives of Jer. 25–29; 32–40 skip back and forth in time (see Jer. 25:1; 26:1; 32:1; 36:1). Thus although the Book of Jeremiah is only understandable in light of the historical events surrounding the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B.C., simply reading the book from start to finish does not give the reader that necessary understanding.

Messianic Prophecies

Messianic prophecies raise a question as to the time period to which a particular prophecy refers. The New Testament takes great care to demonstrate that many Old Testament passages ultimately refer to the person and work of Jesus Christ. It would make sense to locate such Old Testament passages at pertinent places in the life of Jesus. This has not been done, however. Without denying that messianic prophecies are ultimately fulfilled in Christ, most of them also have significance for their original Old Testament time period. For instance, the promise in Is. 7:14, “Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son,” is quoted in Matt. 1:23 as a reference to Christ’s virgin birth. In the context of Is. 7, though, the promise is a part of the prophet Isaiah’s larger message to Judah’s king Ahaz, providing a sign that he should not fear the nations of Syria and Israel, for they would soon be destroyed (Is. 7:16). This prophecy has significance for more than one time period, and in The Chronological Study Bible appears in its original context, during the reign of Ahaz, even though its prophetic significance extends to the later context at the birth of Christ.

Wisdom Literature and Psalms

Some of the most hotly contested debates among Old Testament scholars concern the date when this or that passage was composed. Fortunately, The Chronological Study Bible only seeks to place biblical passages according to the setting described, a question about which there is more agreement. Even so, complete scholarly consensus still is not possible, and sometimes it is not certain to which time period various passages refer.

The wisdom literature of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Job is an example of such chronological uncertainty. While most of the Old Testament is centered in history, these writings are an exception. Wisdom speaks of universal, practical matters that apply to all people of all nations in all ages. A proverb like “Hatred stirs up strife, But love covers all sins” (Prov. 10:12), for example, applies just as well to every age. Most of the Book of Proverbs and all of the Book of Ecclesiastes are associated with the court of King Solomon, the revered head of the wisdom movement in Israel. So in The Chronological Study Bible these passages appear in Solomon’s time. Some sections of Proverbs and the whole Book of Job, however, defy chronological placement. For this reason, these writings are separated from the chronology and located, somewhat arbitrarily, in the Babylonian exile.

The psalms also intentionally resist chronological placement. For the most part, they do not refer to any one time, but rather speak in general language, providing words for worship in the temple. Some psalms do have superscriptions that associate them with particular events—usually from the life of David—and these superscriptions have determined the placement of certain psalms. Most of the psalms, however, are timeless, and without a historical context to follow can be placed only in reaction to their content. David’s hymns of praise appear, as a block, in a time when David praised God: when he brought the Ark of the Covenant into Jerusalem (1 Chr. 15:29). On the other hand, David’s laments appear at a time when David lamented: during a plague (1 Chr. 21:30). Other psalms appear in other historical contexts, from the fall of Jerusalem (Ps. 89) to the Babylonian captivity (Ps. 137) to the rebuilding of Jerusalem under Nehemiah (Ps. 120–134).

The Gospels

A challenging task faces us when we attempt to arrange the Gospels into a chronological presentation of Jesus' life. If early Christian tradition is correct, Mark's Gospel was not written to provide a sequential account of the events in Jesus' life. If the other Synoptic Gospels—Matthew and Luke—are related to Mark, as most scholars believe, they are not organized primarily along chronological lines either. What has long been recognized about John's Gospel is probably also true of the Synoptic Gospels: the Gospel writers' theological interests and their communities' practical needs were more decisive than historical concerns.

None of the Gospels satisfy our modern expectations of a biography of Jesus. This is not the fault of the Gospel writers; they had different purposes for writing, which will disappoint those whose only interest is history. But when we do ask historical questions, what, for example, should we conclude about the Gospel authors reporting events in the life of Jesus in different sequences?

The Synoptic Problem

The first three Gospels are called the Synoptic Gospels. The word "Synoptic" comes from two Greek words meaning "seen together." Matthew, Mark, and Luke tell the story of Jesus in essentially the same sequence and in nearly identical terms. The similarities are especially obvious when these three Gospels are compared with John. But equally striking are their conspicuous differences when compared closely with each other. This creates what scholars call the "Synoptic Problem": How can both similarities and differences be satisfactorily explained?

Similarities might be explained by appeal to the Gospels' divine inspiration. But this fails to account for their differences. Virtually all scholars today agree that the similarities among the Synoptic Gospels are so close as to require a literary explanation. That is, either all three copied from a lost earlier gospel or two of the Gospels depended on the third.

Other gospels did exist, which are called "apocryphal" because the church never accepted them. The apocryphal gospels were never widely used. Some were rejected because they seemed to promote false doctrines. Others were dismissed as merely fanciful speculations designed to answer the curious questions of those familiar with the canonical Gospels. In any case, none of the apocryphal gospels that survive explain the similarities among the canonical Gospels.

Various theories have been proposed to explain how the Gospels might have depended on each other. St. Augustine proposed the theory that Matthew was the earliest Gospel and that Luke and Mark used it in writing theirs. Many modern scholars espouse a similar view. But since the 19th century most scholars have presumed that Mark was the earliest Gospel. Even assuming that Mark was written first still does not account for all the similarities among the Synoptic Gospels. To offer more explanation, most scholars assume that, in addition to Mark, Matthew and Luke depended on a now-lost source. This hypothetical source is generally called "Q," an abbreviation for the German word Quelle, meaning "source."

Both ancient tradition and scholarly opinion seem to agree that Mark was the earliest Gospel. Since we cannot be certain of the exact sequence of events, the life of Jesus in The Chronological Study Bible follows Mark's order. Additional information provided by the other Gospels is arranged in what seems to be the most plausible order around Mark's framework.

Acts of the Apostles

The second task in rearranging the New Testament books is to construct a chronology of important events that occurred during the lives of the apostles and during the early years of the Christian church. The Book of Acts and the New Testament letters serve as the basis for the chronology of the church age. References to the political leaders during this time help pinpoint certain dates.

The Book of Acts is the one book of the New Testament which traces the development of the early church after the ascension of Jesus. Standing between the Gospels and the New Testament letters, Acts is a bridge between the life of Jesus and the ministry of the apostle Paul. As such, the narrative of Acts is one source of historical information about the early church.

There is little doubt that the Book of Acts and the Gospel of Luke come from the same author. Since the author does not identify himself by name, scholars have ascribed the authorship of both books to Luke, the companion of Paul (2 Tim. 4:11). Luke was closely associated with many events of Paul's mission, and this results in greater vividness in the latter half of Acts. At places (see Acts 16:10–17), the narrative changes to the first person ("we"), indicating that Luke was personally present. Nevertheless, some scholars believe that the books of Luke and Acts were written by an anonymous writer who was later identified with Luke. Also questioned is whether Luke is a reliable historian, since his primary motive for writing was not to record history, but to inform his audience of the triumphant course of the gospel, beginning in Jesus and continuing in the church (Acts 1:1). Thus, other scholars look to Paul's letters for a chronology of his ministry.

Paul's Letters

Paul the apostle was the earliest and most influential interpreter of Christ's message and teaching. As an early Christian missionary, Paul founded and corresponded with several early Christian churches. Using Paul's letters, however, to determine a chronology of events in his life is difficult. The letters do not provide any specific dates or a sequence of events, but only offer pieces of information which scholars try to relate to the narrative of Acts. To make the task more difficult, scholars cannot agree on the sequence in which Paul wrote his letters, nor on whether all of the letters accredited to Paul were actually written by him.

The New Testament letters follow the general custom and form of letters which became an important form of communication in the Greek-speaking world about 300 years before the birth of Jesus. The Roman government provided postal service only for official documents, so private letters were sent by special messengers or friendly travelers. Letters normally were sent to designated parties, although some were "open" or circular letters. Paul's letters, with the possible exception of Ephesians, were addressed to specific congregations.

Ancient letters normally followed a pattern which included: (1) an introduction, listing the names of sender and recipient, followed by a formal greeting inquiring about the recipient's health and a thanksgiving formula; (2) a body, or purpose for writing; and (3) a conclusion, consisting of appropriate remarks and a farewell. Paul's letters follow this pattern, with some exceptions. Paul replaced the bland greeting of inquiry about health with a salutation combining Christian grace and Hebrew peace. His thanksgiving was likewise more than a formality; it was a sincere expression of gratitude for the well-being of his congregations. He also omitted the farewell in favor of personal greetings or a benediction.

Since Paul's letters do not provide a sequence of events, The Chronological Study Bible follows the narrative sequence of Acts. In the Old Testament, books were rearranged based on the description of the narrative. Since the New Testament letters describe themselves as communication written from a particular sender to intended recipients, individual letters have been placed according to this description, if possible. In canonical Bibles, the Pauline letters are arranged in the New Testament according to length, from the longest (Romans) to the shortest (Philemon). In The Chronological Study Bible they have been arranged, as much as possible, according to information given in the salutations, greetings, and bodies of the letters.

The Prison Epistles

The Book of Acts ends with Paul in prison in Rome. Four letters—Philippians, Philemon, Colossians, and Ephesians—are known as the Prison Epistles, since all make reference to Paul being in prison. Paul, however, was imprisoned in Caesarea and possibly in Ephesus, besides Rome, so the placement of any one of the Prison Epistles must be considered tentative.

The Pastoral Letters

The chronology from Paul's imprisonment on is drawn from inferences in the New Testament letters, which have been arranged in The Chronological Study Bible according to their salutations, where possible. The Pastoral Letters—1 and 2 Timothy and Titus—have been placed according to the belief of some that Paul was released from Roman imprisonment to continue missionary work in Macedonia. If Paul was martyred while in prison, however, possibly in A.D. 64, these letters would have been compiled much later, by an unknown editor.

The Last New Testament Writings

The final books of the New Testament offer little help in determining a chronology. According to tradition, Peter was martyred in A.D. 64, so the letters of 1 and 2 Peter have been placed in The Chronological Study Bible just before that time. Those who think one or both of the letters were written by an unknown author would place them later. Writings such as Hebrews and the letters of 1, 2, and 3 John indicate some time in the last half of the 1st century A.D., but a more precise dating is impossible. The Book of Revelation appears last in The Chronological Study Bible. Its contents are not limited to a specific time; the author wrote about God's plan for his own day and for the far future.

NEW KING JAMES VERSION

The Bible Text

The format of the New King James Version is designed to enhance the vividness and devotional quality of the Holy Scriptures:

- Subject headings assist the reader to identify topics and transitions in the biblical content.
- Words or phrases in italics indicate expressions in the original language which require clarification by additional English words.
- Oblique type* in the New Testament indicates a quotation from the Old Testament.
- Prose is divided into paragraphs to indicate the structure of thought.
- Poetry is structured as contemporary verse to reflect the poetic form and beauty of the passage in the original language.
- The covenant name of God was usually translated from the Hebrew as “LORD” or “GOD” (using capital letters as shown) in the King James Old Testament. This tradition is maintained. In the present edition the name is so capitalized whenever the covenant name is quoted in the New Testament from a passage in the Old Testament.

The Old Testament Text

For the New King James Version the Old Testament text used was the 1967/1977 Stuttgart edition of the Biblia Hebraica, with frequent comparisons being made with the Bomberg edition of 1524–25. The Septuagint (Greek) Version of the Old Testament and the Latin Vulgate also were consulted. In addition to referring to a variety of ancient versions of the Hebrew Scriptures, the New King James Version draws on the resources of relevant manuscripts from the Dead Sea caves. In the few places where the Hebrew was so obscure that the 1611 King James was compelled to follow one of the versions, but where information is now available to resolve the problems, the New King James Version follows the Hebrew text. Significant variations are recorded in the footnotes.

The New Testament Text

The King James New Testament was based on the traditional text of the Greek-speaking churches, first published in 1516, and later called the Textus Receptus or Received Text. Although based on the relatively few available manuscripts, these were representative of many more which existed at the time but only became known later. One viewpoint of New Testament scholarship holds that the Byzantine Text that largely supports the Textus Receptus has as much right as the Alexandrian or any other tradition to be weighed in determining the text of the New Testament.

Since the 1880s most contemporary translations of the New Testament have relied upon a relatively few manuscripts discovered chiefly in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Such translations depend primarily on two manuscripts, Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus, because of their greater age. The Greek text obtained by using these sources and the related papyri (our most ancient manuscripts) is known as the Alexandrian Text. The Critical Text (so called because it is edited according to specific principles of textual criticism) depends heavily upon the Alexandrian type of text.

A third viewpoint of New Testament scholarship favors a text based on the consensus of the majority of existing Greek manuscripts. This text is called the Majority Text. Most of these manuscripts are in substantial agreement. Even though many are late, and none is earlier than the fifth century, usually their readings are verified by papyri, ancient versions, quotations from the early church fathers, or a combination of these. The Majority Text is similar to the Textus Receptus, but it corrects those readings which have little or no support in the Greek manuscript tradition.

Because the New King James Version is the fifth revision of a historic document translated from specific Greek texts, the editors decided to retain the traditional text in the body of the New Testament and to indicate major Critical and Majority Text variant readings in the footnotes. Although these variations are duly indicated in the footnotes of the present edition, it is most important to emphasize that fully eighty-five percent of the New Testament text is the same in the Textus Receptus, the Alexandrian Text, and the Majority Text.

New King James Footnotes

Significant explanatory notes, alternate translations, and cross-references, as well as New Testament citations of Old Testament passages, are supplied in the footnotes.

Important textual variants in the Old Testament are identified in a standard form.

The textual notes in the present edition of the New Testament make no evaluation of readings, but do clearly indicate the manuscript sources of readings. They objectively present the facts without such tendentious remarks as “the best manuscripts omit” or “the most reliable manuscripts read.” Such notes are value judgments that differ according to varying viewpoints on the text. By giving a clearly defined set of variants the New King James Version benefits readers of all textual persuasions.

1. NU-Text

These variations from the traditional text generally represent the Alexandrian or Egyptian type of text described previously in “The New Testament Text.” They are found in the Critical Text published in the twenty-seventh edition of the Nestle-Aland Greek New Testament (N) and in the United Bible Societies’ fourth edition (U), hence the acronym, “NU-Text.”

2. M-Text

This symbol indicates points of variation in the Majority Text from the traditional text, as also previously discussed in “The New Testament Text.” It should be noted that M stands for whatever reading is printed in the published Greek New Testament According to the Majority Text, whether supported by overwhelming, strong, or only a divided majority textual tradition.

The textual notes reflect the scholarship of the past 150 years and will assist the reader to observe the variations between the different manuscript traditions of the New Testament. Such information is generally not available in English translations of the New Testament.

EPOCH ONE

BEFORE THE PATRIARCHS

Humankind's earliest ancestors appear in what is called "prehistory"—before events were recorded.

Then humans pioneered writing, and "history" began.

CREATION—2000 B.C.

The Bible begins its story with the accounts of creation and of humankind's early history. The epoch extending from undatable creation to about 2000 B.C. witnessed the beginning both of life itself and of humankind's first civilizations. This is the time before the patriarchs Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, long before Israel became a specific people. It is the time of humankind's earliest ancestors.

The very earliest part of this epoch is called "prehistory" because it covers the story of humans before there were recorded events. The advent of writing around 3000 B.C. eventually ended "prehistory," as humans began preserving information concerning their economies, laws, and religions. The various written documents of this period, including lists of kings, inscriptions from buildings, and historical epics, mark the start of the historical era.

ARCHAEOLOGY AND THE PAST

Archaeologists arrange historical and cultural evidence according to the most vital metal of each period, such as stone, copper, bronze, or iron. The earliest period, called the Stone Age, is divided into the Old Stone, Middle Stone, and New Stone ages. A later period, the Bronze Age, is also divided into the Early Bronze, Middle Bronze, and Late Bronze ages. The dates for these periods are approximate, of course, because cultural changes always come gradually. Very early dates are based on theories of evolution and geology, and interpreters of the Bible differ on how such dates relate to the creation accounts in Genesis.

Old Stone Age	before 10,000 B.C.
Middle Stone Age	10,000 to 8000 B.C.
New Stone Age	8000 to 4000 B.C.
Copper-Stone Age	4000 to 3000 B.C.
Early Bronze Age	3000 to 2000 B.C.

The Old Stone Age is designated by the name "Paleolithic." It was an age of hunting and food-gathering. People lived in caves or temporary shelters. They made implements of flint or chipped stone, and subsisted from what they could gather from nature itself.

The Middle Stone Age is called the Mesolithic period. It was a transitional stage to a food-producing economy. During this period real settlements first appeared, and there was an evolution in the arts of civilization.

The New Stone Age, or Neolithic period, is distinguished by several advances. One of the most notable, the invention of pottery, divides the New Stone Age into a prepottery period (c. 8000–5500 B.C.) and a pottery period (c. 5500–4000 B.C.). Other developments included agriculture, textiles, and the domestication of animals.

The Copper-Stone Age, or Chalcolithic period, saw a transition to a significant use of copper. At some sites from this period, dwellings were underground, entered by shafts from the surface and connected by tunnels. Copper working was found in the many pits, ovens, and fireplaces common in such sites.

The Early Bronze Age is the period in which we leave "prehistory" and enter the "historical" period. This is the period in which written records appear. The Mesopotamians pioneered writing, but Egypt was quick to recognize the benefits of it. At the site of Arad in Palestine, archaeologists have uncovered a potsherd bearing the signature of Narmer, who is often identified with Menes, the pharaoh of Egypt's first dynasty.

THE PEOPLES AND GROUPS

The story of the Bible is linked with the histories of two great lands: Mesopotamia and Egypt. In Mesopotamia two different cultures developed, one in the south and the other in the north.

The earliest known inhabitants of Mesopotamia lived in the southern part, the land of Sumer or southern Babylonia. Known as Sumerians, this culture greatly influenced all of the ancient Near East, including the Israelites. The Sumerians developed a township system of government, consisting of city-states, in which the temple of the local deity was the center of economic, cultural, and religious life.

In northern Babylonia lived the Accadians. This culture took its name from the town of Agade, also known as Accad. The Accadian culture did not develop the independent city-state system of the south, but seems to have existed as a single territory. While there were temples, the palace and household played the more important role in the Accadian economy. Around 2300 B.C. a northerner named Sargon of Agade was able to unify north and south Babylonia.

Egypt was a land divided into two kingdoms: Lower Egypt around the Nile Delta and Upper Egypt of the Nile Valley. Egypt's prehistory or predynastic period witnessed the development of rulership by pharaohs. This period ended around 3000 B.C. with the unification of Lower and Upper Egypt by the ruler Menes, resulting in the First Dynasty. During the following Archaic period, the country came to accept a divine monarchy in which the pharaoh was considered the incarnation of the sky god Horus. Later pharaohs of the Old Kingdom, beginning about 2700 B.C., became famous for their pyramids.

THE BIBLICAL LITERATURE

The Book of Genesis is usually divided at Gen. 12, where the story of the patriarch Abraham begins. The chapters of Gen. 1—11, which concern the time before the patriarchs, are called "primeval history" because they relate the first ages of the world. Primeval history tells of a time much different from what the patriarchs would later experience, and from what humans experience now.

The major narratives of this primeval history give an account of creation, a great Flood, and the tower at Babel. The creation account (Gen. 1—3) describes the creation of all things, including humankind. The newly created humans rebel against God, resulting in their expulsion from the Garden of Eden. The Flood account (Gen. 6—9) tells of the continued evil in human hearts, the Flood, and God's judgment upon humanity. The redemption of Noah's family offers a new beginning. Following the Flood, Gen. 11 narrates the spread of the human race and its arrogant attempt to build a tower to the heavens. God confuses their languages, forcing them to disperse.

THE BEGINNINGS OF HUMAN CIVILIZATION

Biblical and secular historians agree that human civilization began in the ancient Near East. The earliest large communities developed in Mesopotamia (modern Iraq and Iran) and in Egypt. Palestine, where biblical Israel is found, lies along the best road between Mesopotamia and Egypt, and so the Bible's own history appropriately begins with these two civilization centers.

The task of assigning specific dates to this ancient history is difficult and uncertain, but scholars have placed the first human settlements as early as 7,000 to 8,000 years before Christ. Although dating the early events of civilization is elusive, we can at least follow the general stages by which human communities developed.

Advances in technology made it possible for humans to live in large communities. First they developed stone tools, then discovered how to make clay vessels, how to extract and use copper ore, and, by about 3000 B.C., how to use bronze. In terms of food and support, humans moved from small family groups hunting and gathering their food to larger nomadic clans tending domesticated animals. Farming developed next, and by 3000 B.C. people in Mesopotamia and Egypt were using sophisticated irrigation techniques to harness the regular floods of the Tigris, Euphrates, and Nile rivers. Now for the first time, food could be produced in large supply, enough to support cities and even empires.

The period from 3000 to 2000 B.C. (called the Early Bronze Age) saw the development of several such empires: the civilizations of Sumer, Accad, and Ur in Mesopotamia and the Old Kingdom of Egypt. Towering monuments testify to the amazing technological sophistication of these cultures. This was the age of the great pyramids in Egypt and of similar structures in Mesopotamia, called ziggurats. These ancient peoples worshiped many gods: gods of light, darkness, skies, seas, the land, the sun, the moon and stars, plants, and animals. Ancient writings from this time describe not only these gods, but also the creation of the world and a great flood.

Scholars have placed the first human settlements as early as 7,000 to 8,000 years before Christ.

TRANSITION

The Book of Genesis

The Old Testament as a whole chronicles the history of the nation of Israel. This nation does not emerge as an entity, though, until the Book of Exodus, when God appears to the twelve tribes at Sinai. Genesis, then, is the prologue to the history of Israel. Chapters 1—11 tell about the creation and earliest history of all humankind, and chs. 12—50 describe God's working within the chosen family of Abraham, from whom Israel descended.

Within the theological narratives of Gen. 1—11 are several brief comments that reflect the advancing civilizations of Mesopotamia and Egypt. There are conflicts between hunters and shepherds and between shepherds and farmers. Humans develop technology and craftsmanship and establish the first cities. Chapter 11 describes humanity's technical skill (and vaulting ambition) in its account of a tower, or ziggurat, in the plains of Shinar (Mesopotamia). As in the Mesopotamian and Egyptian writings, there are stories of creation and of a worldwide flood.

Genesis, along with the books of Exodus through Deuteronomy, has traditionally been attributed to Moses. Many scholars retain this view today, but others, noting abrupt changes in vocabulary and style and certain perspectives that appear to come from a later time, argue that the book contains several sources and traditions, some much older than others. In either case, whether written entirely by Moses or composed from 900 to 400 B.C. of various ancient strands, the Book of Genesis is a recounting of Israel's origins by one who knew that all this was leading to God's choice of Israel as "a special treasure . . . above all people" (Ex. 19:5).

Genesis

The Story of Creation

1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup>The earth was without form, and void; and darkness was<sup>a</sup> on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

<sup>3</sup>Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. <sup>4</sup>And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. So the evening and the morning were the first day.

<sup>6</sup>Then God said, "Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." <sup>7</sup>Thus God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament; and it was so. <sup>8</sup>And God called the firmament Heaven. So the evening and the morning were the second day.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear"; and it was so. <sup>10</sup>And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters He called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb that yields seed, and the fruit tree that yields fruit according to its kind, whose seed is in itself, on the earth"; and it was so. <sup>12</sup>And the earth brought forth grass, the herb that yields seed according to its kind, and the tree that yields fruit, whose seed is in itself according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup>So the evening and the morning were the third day.

<sup>14</sup>Then God said, "Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs and seasons, and for days and years; <sup>15</sup>and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth"; and it was so. <sup>16</sup>Then God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He made the stars also. <sup>17</sup>God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth, <sup>18</sup>and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup>So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

<sup>24</sup>Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind: cattle and creeping thing and beast of the earth, each according to its kind"; and it was so. <sup>25</sup>And God made the beast of the earth according to its kind, cattle according to its kind, and everything that creeps on the earth according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup>Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all<sup>a</sup> the earth

THE CREATOR GOD IS NOT SUN OR MOON (GEN. 1:16)

In Gen. 1:16 the two great lights created by God are called the “greater light” and “lesser light.” The words “sun” and “moon” were not omitted by accident from this verse. The writer of Genesis was aware that two prominent gods worshiped in the ancient Near East were the sun and the moon.

In Egypt the sun was associated with several important gods, including Amon-Re, Re, and Aton. Egyptians believed that the sun, as the god Re, created the world by his own personified power. One of Re’s “eyes” was the moon god Tefnut. Another Egyptian god was Ptah, who was also considered the creator of all things. Ptah’s two eyes were the sun and moon.

In Mesopotamia the sun god Shamash was worshiped as the benefactor of the oppressed. Night was seen as the passing of the sun to the netherworld or underworld. Ancient peoples prayed to the hidden sun for mediation between the dead and the living.

Canaanite worshippers knew the sun as Shemesh. The appearance of this god’s name in place names, such as Beth Shemesh (1 Sam. 6:12), hints at the importance of Shemesh to the polytheistic Canaanites. While they also worshiped the moon, a moon god was only of secondary importance in their pantheon of deities.

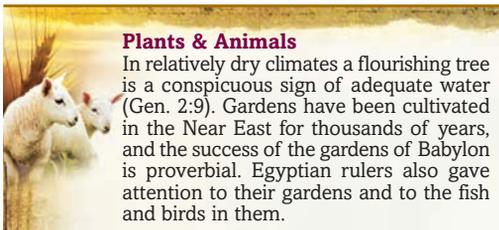

The author of Gen. 1:14–19 makes the case that the Creator of the world is on a different plane than the sun or the moon. They are only the “greater” and “lesser” lights. No one should acknowledge them as deities or confuse them with the true God. They are simply creations of the creator God.

and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.”<sup>27</sup> So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.<sup>28</sup> Then God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

<sup>29</sup> And God said, “See, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food.”<sup>30</sup> Also, to every beast of the earth, to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food”; and it was so.<sup>31</sup> Then God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 <sup>1</sup> Thus the heavens and the earth, and all the host of them, were finished.<sup>2</sup> And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.<sup>3</sup> Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.

<sup>4</sup> This is the history<sup>a</sup> of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,<sup>5</sup> before any plant of the field was in the earth and before any herb of the field had grown. For the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to till the ground;<sup>6</sup> but a

In relatively dry climates a flourishing tree is a conspicuous sign of adequate water (Gen. 2:9). Gardens have been cultivated in the Near East for thousands of years, and the success of the gardens of Babylon is proverbial. Egyptian rulers also gave attention to their gardens and to the fish and birds in them.

mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground.

<sup>7</sup> And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

Life in God’s Garden

<sup>8</sup> The LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed.<sup>9</sup> And out of the ground the LORD God made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life was also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

<sup>10</sup> Now a river went out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it parted and became four riverheads.<sup>11</sup> The name of the first is Pishon; it is the one which skirts the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.<sup>12</sup> And the gold of that land is good. Bdelium and the onyx stone are there.<sup>13</sup> The name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one which goes around the whole land of Cush.<sup>14</sup> The name of the third river is Hiddekel;<sup>a</sup> it is the one which goes toward the east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to tend and keep it.<sup>16</sup> And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, “Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;<sup>17</sup> but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.”

<sup>18</sup> And the LORD God said, “It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him.”<sup>19</sup> Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name.<sup>20</sup> So

CREATION BY CONQUEST IN BABYLON (GEN. 1:26-29)

In the Neo-Babylonian Empire (626–539 B.C.), the fourth day of the New Year’s celebration was highlighted by reciting the Enuma Elish, a liturgical text relating the creation of the physical world. This Babylonian poem was originally composed sometime before or during the reign of Nebuchadnezzar I (1133–1116 B.C.) to glorify Marduk as the divine ruler and establisher of order in the universe.

According to the Babylonian epic, before the world existed there were only Apsu and Tiamat, the god and goddess of fresh and salt water. Apsu and Tiamat give birth to deities, and the noise of these younger gods upsets them so much that they plot to slay their children. However, Ea, god of wisdom, discovers the plan and kills Apsu before the slaughter of the gods can be carried out. From the corpse of the slain god, Ea creates a home for himself and his spouse, the goddess Damkina. Here Ea and Damkina bear a son—Marduk.

Meanwhile, Tiamat, finding her husband slain and her peace disturbed by the gods’ continuing noise, creates for herself an army of venomous monsters. She musters this horrendous force, appointing Kingu as leader, to kill off the younger gods and wreak revenge for the death of Apsu. Overhearing this scheme, Ea is overwhelmed by the coming terror. All the younger deities assemble to discuss their fate; all appear hopeless. Then the youthful Marduk volunteers to defend the gods.

In the ensuing battle all the hordes of monsters are killed, ending with the deaths of Kingu and Tiamat herself. Marduk divides the corpse of Tiamat, providing for two heavens and the earth. From the blood of Kingu, Marduk creates humans.

Some aspects of creation in the Babylonian epic have counterparts in the Genesis creation story (Gen. 1:1—2:4a). The sun and moon are treated as physical, created entities and not as deities. Light is created before other objects. The heavens are populated with the sun, moon, and stars in order to mark off the months, days, and festivals. Humans are created only at the end of creation. Yet also important are the theological differences. In the Babylonian story, humans were created as slaves for the gods, so that the deities would not have to work anymore. Genesis offers a much higher estimation of the worth of humanity in the eyes of God (Gen. 1:26–29).

Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper comparable to him.

<sup>22</sup>Then the rib which the LORD God had taken from man He made into a woman, and He brought her to the man.

<sup>23</sup>And Adam said:

“This is now bone of my bones
And flesh of my flesh;
She shall be called Woman,
Because she was taken out of Man.”

<sup>24</sup>Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.

<sup>25</sup>And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

The Temptation and Fall of Man

3 <sup>1</sup>Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, “Has God indeed said, ‘You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?’”

<sup>2</sup>And the woman said to the serpent, “We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden; <sup>3</sup>but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.’”

<sup>4</sup>Then the serpent said to the woman, “You will not surely die. <sup>5</sup>For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup>So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate. <sup>7</sup>Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings.

<sup>8</sup>And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, “Where are you?”

WHERE WAS EDEN? (GEN. 2:10–14)

The Book of Genesis states that God planted a garden “eastward in Eden” (Gen. 2:8). The name “Eden” is used not only for the region where God placed the garden (2:10), but also for the garden itself (2:15). For centuries biblical commentators have speculated on the location of Eden, studying the description of the garden for possible hints.

The garden is associated with four rivers: Pishon, Gihon, Hiddekel, and Euphrates (2:10–14). The last two of these rivers are known, Hiddekel being the Hebrew name for the Tigris River. Thus the mention of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers would suggest a location for Eden somewhere in Mesopotamia.

Unfortunately, the other rivers, Pishon and Gihon, are obscure and defy absolute placement. Pishon was in the land of Havilah (2:11), which has been associated with Arabia (Gen. 25:18), as well as with India. Gihon was in Cush (2:13), which was an ancient name for the area south of Egypt. Some scholars have argued that Pishon and Gihon represent the Indus and Nile rivers, but others contend that they may have been canals.

To the ancient writer of Genesis, Eden was a place blessed with an abundant supply of water. Unfortunately, this writer’s description of Eden’s rivers will not help us pinpoint a location for Eden itself.

<sup>10</sup>So he said, “I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself.”

<sup>11</sup>And He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?”

<sup>12</sup>Then the man said, “The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate.”

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?”

The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD God said to the serpent:

“Because you have done this,
You are cursed more than all cattle,
And more than every beast of the field;
On your belly you shall go,
And you shall eat dust
All the days of your life.
<sup>15</sup> And I will put enmity
Between you and the woman,
And between your seed and her Seed;
He shall bruise your head,
And you shall bruise His heel.”

<sup>16</sup>To the woman He said:

“I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception;
In pain you shall bring forth children;
Your desire shall be for your husband,
And he shall rule over you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then to Adam He said, “Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat of it’:

“Cursed is the ground for your sake;
In toil you shall eat of it
All the days of your life.
<sup>18</sup> Both thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you,
And you shall eat the herb of the field.
<sup>19</sup> In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread
Till you return to the ground,
For out of it you were taken;
For dust you are,
And to dust you shall return.”

<sup>21</sup>Also for Adam and his wife the LORD God made tunics of skin, and clothed them.

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever”— <sup>23</sup>therefore the LORD God sent him out of the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken. <sup>24</sup>So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Cain Murders Abel

4<sup>1</sup>Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, and said, “I have acquired a man from the LORD.”<sup>2</sup>Then she bore again, this time his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.<sup>3</sup>And in the process of time it came to pass that Cain brought an offering of the fruit of the ground to the LORD.<sup>4</sup>Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat. And the LORD respected Abel and his offering,<sup>5</sup>but He did not respect Cain and his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? <sup>7</sup>If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin lies at the door. And its desire is for you, but you should rule over it.”

<sup>8</sup>Now Cain talked with Abel his brother;<sup>a</sup> and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?”

He said, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”

<sup>10</sup>And He said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood cries out to Me from the ground.<sup>11</sup>So now you are cursed from the earth, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.<sup>12</sup>When you till the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you. A fugitive and a vagabond you shall be on the earth.”

<sup>13</sup>And Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is greater than I can bear!<sup>14</sup>Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall be hidden from Your face; I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, and it will happen that anyone who finds me will kill me.”

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD said to him, “Therefore,<sup>a</sup> whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” And the LORD set a mark on Cain, lest anyone finding him should kill him.

Science & Technology

True bronze (Gen. 4:22) is an alloy of copper and tin. Iron is an element that in its pure state is soft. Its usefulness for making tools and weapons did not appear until it could be reliably combined with carbon to make steel. It was still rare in the time of Pharaoh Tutankhamun (1336–1327 B.C.). One dagger with an iron blade was discovered in his tomb.

The Family of Cain

<sup>16</sup>Then Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and dwelt in the land of Nod on the east of Eden.<sup>17</sup>And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son—Enoch.<sup>18</sup>To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad begot Mehujael, and Mehujael begot Methushael, and Methushael begot Lamech.

<sup>19</sup>Then Lamech took for himself two wives: the name of one was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah.<sup>20</sup>And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock.<sup>21</sup>His brother’s name was Jubal. He was the father of all those who play the harp and flute.<sup>22</sup>And as for Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, an instructor of every craftsman in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.

“Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
Wives of Lamech, listen to my speech!
For I have killed a man for wounding me,
Even a young man for hurting me.
<sup>24</sup> If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold,
Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold.”

A New Son

<sup>25</sup>And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, “For God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed.”<sup>26</sup>And as for Seth, to him also a son was born; and he named him Enosh.<sup>a</sup> Then men began to call on the name of the LORD.

TRANSITION

Records of the Descendants

Genesis 1—11 tells much of its story by means of genealogies. At the end of the Cain and Abel account is a list of eight descendants of Cain (Gen. 4:17–22), among whom are the ancestors of pastoral nomads (v. 20), musicians (v. 21), and metalworkers (v. 22). In Gen. 5 the line of Adam’s descendants through Seth is given, breaking off just before the Flood. Finally, in Gen. 10 the peoples of the earth are listed under the three sons of Noah, categorized according to clans, languages, location, and nationality.

It is possible, using the numbers of these lists, to add up the years and thus date the creation of the world at about 4004 B.C. Such computations were published in A.D. 1650–1654 by the Archbishop James Ussher. Many scholars, though, argue that modern historical dating and chronological specificity were foreign to the ancient mind and suggest that the exact numbers should not be read so mechanically. Furthermore, the numbers themselves vary in different text traditions, showing many disagreements between the Hebrew Bible, Samaritan Pentateuch, and the Septuagint (Greek Old Testament).

Thus different interpreters treat the genealogies in different ways. Some add up the successive generations, as did Ussher, to arrive at a date for creation sometime around 4004 B.C. Others take the genealogies as the schemes of ancient mathematicians, with different purposes, and accept that a date for the creation of the world is impossible to determine.

The Family of Adam

5:1 This is the book of the genealogy of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in the likeness of God. <sup>2</sup>He created them male and female, and blessed them and called them Mankind in the day they were created. <sup>3</sup>And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth. <sup>4</sup>After he begot Seth, the days of Adam were eight hundred years; and he had sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.

<sup>6</sup>Seth lived one hundred and five years, and begot Enosh. <sup>7</sup>After he begot Enosh, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup>So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

<sup>9</sup>Enosh lived ninety years, and begot Cainan.<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>After he begot Cainan, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup>So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

<sup>12</sup>Cainan lived seventy years, and begot Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup>After he begot Mahalalel, Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>So all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

<sup>15</sup>Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and begot Jared. <sup>16</sup>After he begot Jared, Mahalalel lived eight hundred and thirty years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup>So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died.

<sup>18</sup>Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and begot Enoch. <sup>19</sup>After he begot Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>So all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years; and he died.

<sup>21</sup>Enoch lived sixty-five years, and begot Methuselah. <sup>22</sup>After he begot Methuselah, Enoch walked with God three hundred years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>23</sup>So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years. <sup>24</sup>And Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.

<sup>25</sup>Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and begot Lamech. <sup>26</sup>After he begot Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup>So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; and he died.

<sup>28</sup>Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and had a son. <sup>29</sup>And he called his name Noah, saying, "This one will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed." <sup>30</sup>After he begot Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years, and had sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup>So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years; and he died.

THE SUMERIAN KING LIST (GEN. 5:1-32)

The Sumerian King List is a text from southern Mesopotamia, written sometime very early in the 2nd millennium B.C. The list presumably follows a tradition going back to the early 3rd millennium B.C. It has interesting parallels with the genealogical list in Gen. 5.

In its existing form, the Sumerian King List is a propaganda text designed by the kings of Isin to affirm their rule as legitimate. It delineates the history of Sumer (and Accad) by showing the succession of dynasties (or cities) from the beginning of time to the writer's present. Each monarch in the early period rules for a very lengthy period (thousands of years on the average). Similarly, six of Adam's descendants listed in Gen. 5 lived in excess of 900 years (e.g., Gen. 5:5, 8, 11).

The King List abruptly and tersely mentions the great flood, which cuts the dynastic lines in half. Interestingly, after the flood, the reigns of the monarchs begin to decrease from thousands to hundreds of years. Gilgamesh, the famous hero from Uruk, ruled a mere 126 years. The lengths of reigns finally fall within the normal span of a human lifetime. Likewise, the genealogy of Gen. 11:10-26 shows a continual diminishing of the human lifespan after the Genesis Flood.

The Sumerian literary tradition, like the biblical record, contains the account that humankind lived to an advanced age in pre-Flood antiquity. Both also agree in general that ages began to decline immediately after the Flood until, finally, modern lifespans were experienced. This shared characteristic of the Sumerian and biblical records lends credibility to the view that both cultures came from the same literary setting or environment.

THE FLOOD THROUGH OTHER EYES (GEN. 6:5–7)

Divine destruction of the world by means of a flood is a motif known in cultures from around the world. Most of these stories appear to have had their origin in the biblical account (Gen. 6:5–9:29). However, the ancient Near East has numerous myths of the great flood which are separate retellings of the same event.

Mesopotamian stories of the flood are first found written in the Sumerian language, in the earliest known literature (3rd millennium B.C.). A variety of retellings produced a number of versions. The two most famous flood stories outside the Bible are the Gilgamesh Epic and the story of Atrahasis.

Numerous other references and renditions of the flood are found scattered throughout the classical literature and other texts of the ancient Near East. The flood itself divides the history of the world into the period before it occurred and the current age. Things now are not as they were then.

The Wickedness and Judgment of Man

6 <sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them, <sup>2</sup>that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

<sup>3</sup>And the LORD said, “My Spirit shall not strive<sup>a</sup> with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.” <sup>4</sup>There were giants on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD<sup>a</sup> saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. <sup>7</sup>So the LORD said, “I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, creeping thing and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them.” <sup>8</sup>But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

Noah Pleases God

<sup>11</sup>The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. <sup>12</sup>So God looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.

The Ark Prepared

<sup>13</sup>And God said to Noah, “The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; and behold, I will destroy them with the earth. <sup>14</sup>Make yourself an ark of gopherwood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and outside with pitch. <sup>15</sup>And this is how you shall make it: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>16</sup>You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it to a cubit from above; and set the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third decks. <sup>17</sup>And behold, I Myself am bringing floodwaters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die. <sup>18</sup>But I will establish My covenant with

WHEN THE GODS TIRE OF NOISY HUMANS (GEN. 7:1)

The story of Atrahasis, written during the reign of Ammisaduqa, king of Babylon (1646–1626 B.C.), is a variant of the Gilgamesh Epic. The title of the Atrahasis story means “When the gods like man.” Yet the story, like that of the Genesis Flood story (Gen. 7:4), tells of the gods destroying much of humankind.

The reason given in this story for the flood was that the humans on the earth had become too numerous and their noise was disturbing the gods. The deities planned several devices to reduce the population including drought, plague, and famine, but each time the people survived. Finally, a flood was devised from which the people could not escape. It was Ea who warned the hero, Atrahasis, to save the animals and craftsmen in a boat, which he then did.

The humans had previously fed the gods by their sacrifices. As the seven days and nights of the flood raged and humans died, the deities became hungry and thirsty. Thus they were happy to have some people survive the flood.

The Mesopotamian legend contrasts with the ethical emphasis in Genesis. The Mesopotamian gods destroyed humans because they were noisy, yet wanted some humans left for service. The God of Genesis destroyed humans because they were wicked and corrupt (Gen. 6:5–7, 11–13). He allowed Noah and his family to live because they were righteous (Gen. 7:1).

you; and you shall go into the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons’ wives with you. <sup>19</sup>And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. <sup>20</sup>Of the birds after their kind, of animals after their kind, and of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every kind will come to you to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup>And you shall take for yourself of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather it to yourself; and it shall be food for you and for them.”

<sup>22</sup>Thus Noah did; according to all that God commanded him, so he did.

TRANSITION

How Long Was Noah in the Ark?

The narrator of the Flood tradition offers several dates, indicating when certain events took place. The time frame of these dates, cited by year, month, and day based on Noah’s age, has Noah, his family, and the animals confined in the ark for more than a year—371 days.

In Gen. 7:11–8:19 are five dates. The first instance at 7:11 marks when the rain began. Five months later, the ark rested on Ararat (8:4). Two and a half months later the mountains were seen (8:5). After another three months Noah removed the covering of the ark (8:13). Finally, Noah, his family, and the animals went out of the ark 57 days later (8:14–19). The days between each date, assuming 30-day months as the narrator appears to do, are 150 + 74 + 90 + 57, totaling 371 days.

Genesis

The Great Flood

7:1 Then the LORD said to Noah, “Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation. <sup>2</sup>You shall take with you seven each of every clean animal, a male and his female; two each of animals that are unclean, a male and his female; <sup>3</sup>also seven each of birds of the air, male and female, to keep the species alive on the face of all the earth. <sup>4</sup>For after seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and I will destroy from the face of the earth all living things that I have made.” <sup>5</sup>And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him. <sup>6</sup>Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters were on the earth.

<sup>7</sup>So Noah, with his sons, his wife, and his sons’ wives, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood. <sup>8</sup>Of clean animals, of animals that are unclean, of birds, and of everything that creeps on the earth, <sup>9</sup>two by two they went into the ark to Noah, male and female, as God had commanded Noah. <sup>10</sup>And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth. <sup>11</sup>In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened. <sup>12</sup>And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.

<sup>13</sup>On the very same day Noah and Noah’s sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and Noah’s wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark—<sup>14</sup>they and every beast after its kind, all cattle after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort. <sup>15</sup>And they went into the ark to Noah, two by two, of all flesh in which is the breath of life. <sup>16</sup>So those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.

WHEN THE BIRD DOES NOT RETURN (GEN. 8:6–12)

Both similarities and differences exist between the biblical Flood story in Gen. 6–9 and the Mesopotamian flood legend known as the Gilgamesh Epic. Among the similarities are the birds—doves, ravens, sparrows—that are sent out to determine if the floodwaters have receded (Gen. 8:6–12).

Though the Gilgamesh flood story appears already in the mid-3rd millennium Sumerian stories, the epic account most widely known comes from the library of the Assyrian king Ashurbanipal (668–627 B.C.). The story is related by the flood survivor, Utnapishtim, at the edge of the world, where Gilgamesh (king of Uruk around 2600 B.C.) had sought him to discover how to become immortal.

There is no reason given in this account for the decision by the council of the gods to destroy the earth. However, Ea, the god of wisdom, realizing that destruction was a mistake, warns Utnapishtim that a flood is coming. Utnapishtim tears down his house and builds a boat, into which he gathers animals in pairs, seeds of all plants, his relatives, and skilled craftsmen. The deities unleash the flood as a weapon for seven days, destroying everything which is not in the boat and terrifying themselves as well.

After the divine flood ceased, the boat rested on a mountaintop in the Zagros Mountains. Utnapishtim releases first a dove, then a sparrow, both of whom return without finding a place to land, and lastly a raven, who does not return. The flood is finally over and everything is allowed to leave the boat and repopulate the earth.

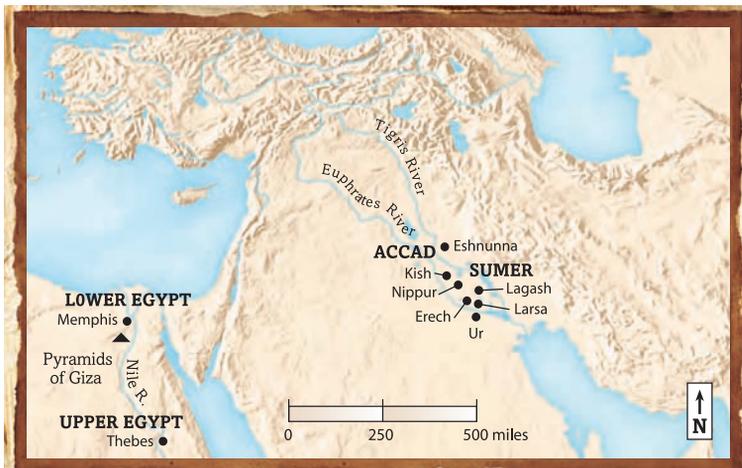

and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered. <sup>20</sup>The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered. <sup>21</sup>And all flesh died that moved on the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man. <sup>22</sup>All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit<sup>a</sup> of life, all that was on the dry land, died. <sup>23</sup>So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive. <sup>24</sup>And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Noah's Deliverance

8 <sup>1</sup>Then God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. <sup>2</sup>The fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were also stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained. <sup>3</sup>And the waters receded continually from the earth. At the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters decreased. <sup>4</sup>Then the ark rested in the seventh month, the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup>And 7:22 <sup>a</sup>Septuagint and Vulgate omit of the spirit.

The Ancient Near East after 3000 B.C.

During the 3rd millennium Lower and Upper Egypt were united. Egypt's Old Kingdom (2700–2160 B.C.) produced the great pyramids, such as those at Giza. In Mesopotamia, the land of Sumer developed a system of independent city-states. Toward the end of the millennium this city-state rule was replaced by a more extensive territorial rule centered in Accad.

EGYPT'S FIRST DYNASTIES

When the Egyptian priest Manetho (c. 305–285 B.C.) wrote a history of Egypt in Greek, he divided the history of the kings into 30 periods known as “dynasties.” Manetho’s dynasties are still used as an outline for Egypt’s history, but have been divided into larger historical periods. The 1st and 2nd Dynasties are Egypt’s formative age; the 3rd through 8th Dynasties are her pyramid age.

The Archaic Period The Dynasties

3000–2700 B.C. 1st and 2nd Dynasties. Menes is the traditional founder of the 1st Dynasty. He unified the two predynastic kingdoms of Lower and Upper Egypt.

The Old Kingdom The Dynasties

2700–2600 B.C. 3rd Dynasty. Pyramid age begins with the Step Pyramid of Pharaoh Djoser in 2650 B.C.

2600–2500 B.C. 4th Dynasty. The Great Pyramid becomes one of the seven wonders of the world.

2500–2350 B.C. 5th Dynasty. The sun god Re of Heliopolis is considered the father of the living ruler. The god Osiris is the god of the dead.

the waters decreased continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

<sup>6</sup>So it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made. <sup>7</sup>Then he sent out a raven, which kept going to and fro until the waters had dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup>He also sent out from himself a dove, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground. <sup>9</sup>But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her, and drew her into the ark to himself. <sup>10</sup>And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark. <sup>11</sup>Then the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive leaf was in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth. <sup>12</sup>So he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not return again to him anymore.

<sup>13</sup>And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, that the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and indeed the surface of the ground was dry. <sup>14</sup>And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dried.

<sup>15</sup>Then God spoke to Noah, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons’ wives with you. <sup>17</sup>Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you: birds and cattle and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.” <sup>18</sup>So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives with him. <sup>19</sup>Every animal, every creeping thing, every bird, and whatever creeps on the earth, according to their families, went out of the ark.

God’s Covenant with Creation

<sup>20</sup>Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD smelled a soothing aroma. Then the LORD said in His heart, “I will never again curse the ground for man’s sake, although the

GOD’S BOW OR A GODDESS’S NECKLACE (GEN. 9:8–17)

The Genesis Flood narrative closes with a promise by God that the destruction of the human race would not occur again. In Gen. 9:8–17 the covenant between God and Noah represents a binding commitment between God and humans. God initiates a covenant never to destroy humanity with water again, and the sign of this covenant forever is God’s rainbow placed in the sky.

At the end of the Mesopotamian flood narratives there are also speeches made by the deities that humans will not be destroyed again. There is also a sign established in the sky as a reminder. However, the purpose and context is quite different from that of the biblical Flood story. In both the Gilgamesh Epic and the story of Atrahasis the flood ends with the majority of gods glad to have the terror over.

The reaction of the deities varied. Ellil, the warrior god, is furious over the survival of the few remaining humans. On the other hand, the goddess Ninhursag (Nintu or Ishtar in some renditions), the goddess of both human and divine children, is devastated that her children have been destroyed. In an appeal made in highest heaven, Ninhursag declares that this deed by the gods is an evil against her and that her grief must be appeased. She takes the “big flies,” created by Anu, makes them into a necklace, and sets it up as a daily reminder to the gods never to destroy the people, on whom the gods depend, again.

In the Mesopotamian flood narrative the covenant was made solely on the divine level, and the sign was for the gods alone. In Genesis God’s rainbow is a visible sign of His covenant promises to Noah, to Noah’s descendants, and to all living creatures of the earth (Gen. 9:12, 17).

imagination of man’s heart is evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done.

22 “While the earth remains,
Seedtime and harvest,
Cold and heat,
Winter and summer,
And day and night
Shall not cease.”

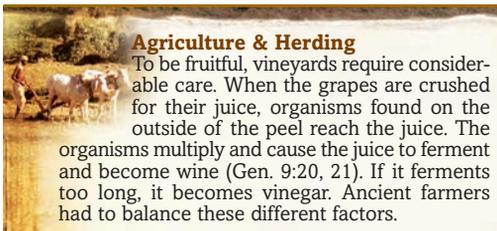

9 <sup>1</sup>So God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.” <sup>2</sup>And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the air, on all that move on the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand. <sup>3</sup>Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green herbs. <sup>4</sup>But you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood. <sup>5</sup>Surely for your lifeblood I will demand a reckoning; from the hand of every beast I will require it, and from the hand of man. From the hand of every man’s brother I will require the life of man.

6 “Whoever sheds man’s blood,
By man his blood shall be shed;
For in the image of God
He made man.
7 And as for you, be fruitful and multiply;
Bring forth abundantly in the earth
And multiply in it.”

<sup>8</sup>Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying: <sup>9</sup>“And as for Me, behold, I establish My covenant with you and with your descendants<sup>a</sup> after you, <sup>10</sup>and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth. <sup>11</sup>Thus I establish My covenant with you: Never

Agriculture & Herding

To be fruitful, vineyards require considerable care. When the grapes are crushed for their juice, organisms found on the outside of the peel reach the juice. The organisms multiply and cause the juice to ferment and become wine (Gen. 9:20, 21). If it ferments too long, it becomes vinegar. Ancient farmers had to balance these different factors.

THE FIRST WORLD EMPIRE (GEN. 10:8–10)

The city of Accad was one of the major urban centers in central Mesopotamia and, according to Gen. 10:10, one of the first cities in the kingdom of the legendary Nimrod. Although the precise location has not been found, Accad was most likely near Babylon.

The Sumerian name of the city was Agade. A certain Sargon of Agade (c. 2350 B.C.) founded the city and made it the capital of an early Semitic dynasty. Sargon and his successors (notably his grandson Naram-Sin) were able to control all of the Tigris-Euphrates basin and claimed to have even reached the Mediterranean Sea. The dynasty of Agade lasted for about two centuries and was in fact the first world empire. Evidently the city was then destroyed and not subsequently reoccupied. A Sumerian text from the late 3rd millennium B.C., The Curse of Agade, commemorates the city's demise.

The term "Accad" survived after the city was gone. The title "Sumer and Accad" continued to be used for the region of southern Mesopotamia until the late Achaemenid period (4th century B.C.). The language of the Semitic-speaking peoples of Accad is now known as "Accadian." Later peoples of Mesopotamia, including the Assyrians and Babylonians, employed Accadian as the written language of the region. Accadian texts have been discovered dating as late as the 1st century A.D.

Their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.

"Cursed be Canaan;
A servant of servants
He shall be to his brethren."

THE FIRST MAJOR CITY (GEN. 10:10)

Erech is the biblical form of Uruk, a Sumerian city on the Euphrates River in ancient Mesopotamia. Although the name “Erech” is cited only in Gen. 10:10 and Ezra 4:9, its historical importance far exceeds its scant mention in the Bible. Uruk (Erech) played a role in the origin of urbanization, as well as being one of the great religious centers of Mesopotamia.

Archaeological investigations have confirmed that the Ubaidian people, early inhabitants of Sumer, founded two villages in this area before 4000 B.C. By 3700 B.C. the two centers fused together to create Uruk, the first urban site in world history.

The first evidence of public architecture, cylinder seals, and the origins of writing come from this city. Building projects at Uruk included the earliest known ziggurat, a holy mound at the top of which was the White Temple. Cylinder seals, which were used to mark ownership, spread from Uruk throughout the ancient world. Picture writing (dated to about 3200 B.C.) expressed ideas through a series of pictures. This writing would later evolve into the script known as cuneiform, used first by the Sumerians, early inhabitants of the Tigris-Euphrates valley.

Religion was prominent in Uruk. An, the chief deity, was the head of the Sumerian pantheon of gods. Inanna, the goddess of love, was believed to bring fertility and prosperity to Sumer through her marriage to the god Dumuzi. The exploits of Gilgamesh, a legendary king of Uruk (c. 2600 B.C.), in search of immortality mention many of the Sumerian gods and goddesses.

Late in the 4th millennium the population of Uruk began to expand their culture, controlling major trade routes and the surrounding regions economically. It is not clear whether this also resulted in political domination. However, Uruk is the second city named in the Sumerian King List, a document that traces the succession of cities which ruled Sumer after the flood.

Uruk had a long history, existing until Hellenistic times (the end of the 1st millennium B.C.). Its longevity is apparent from the two occurrences of Erech in the Bible. It is mentioned very early as part of Nimrod’s post-Flood kingdom (Gen. 10:8–10). Much later in time it is one of the cities and nations writing against Jerusalem during the reign of the Persian ruler Artaxerxes I (465–424 B.C.; Ezra 4:9).

“Blessed be the LORD,
The God of Shem,
And may Canaan be his servant.
27 May God enlarge Japheth,
And may he dwell in the tents of Shem;
And may Canaan be his servant.”

28And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. 29So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

13Mizraim begot Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, 14Pathrusim, and Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines and Caphtorim).

BABEL AND ITS TOWER (GEN. 11:1–9)

Babel was one of the chief cities in Nimrod's kingdom (Gen. 10:8–10). The term "Babel" is the Hebrew form of the name "Babylon," the city on the Euphrates River in central Mesopotamia.

The city has a very ancient past. It is first mentioned by the Accadian king Sargon (c. 2350 B.C.), who, according to tradition, burned it. Shar-kali-sharri (c. 2200 B.C.) restored its temple tower. Hammurabi (1792–1750 B.C.), a king of the 1st Dynasty of Babylon, made it his capital city. Unfortunately, archaeologists have been able to find evidence only as far back as the period of the Neo-Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar II (605 B.C. and later). The rising water table in the area has prevented much research into earlier periods.

Babel has received much attention over its tower (Gen. 11:4, 5). It likely was a staged temple tower, the distinctive Mesopotamian structure known by the Sumerian term "ziggurat." Ziggurats were developed in the 3rd millennium B.C. at Uruk (Erech) and Ur in Babylonia, as well as at Nineveh, and consisted of smaller and smaller stages or stories built on top of each other.

Those who believe the tower at Babel refers to temple ruins from Mesopotamia point especially to Etemenanki, the ziggurat of the Marduk temple in Babylon. A Babylonian text describes it as having a base of 295 feet square with seven platforms over 108 feet high. The top platform had a temple where the god met with humanity. Access was achieved by ramps or stairways.

In Genesis the tower was never completed (Gen. 11:8). The Etemenanki did not fare much better. It was repaired by the Assyrian king Esarhaddon (680–669 B.C.), severely damaged in the Assyrian civil war (652–648 B.C.), restored again by Nebuchadnezzar II (605–562 B.C.), but destroyed by the Persian king Xerxes I in 472 B.C. Alexander the Great (323 B.C.) cleared the area to rebuild it, but died prematurely.

A millennium is a period of 1,000 years. Scholars of ancient history often refer to millennia (or millennia) when speaking of time before the Common Era or Christian Era (before the year A.D. 1). The setting of the Old Testament books from the patriarchs through the prophet Malachi extends from the end of the 3rd millennium B.C. through most of the 1st millennium.

Millennium Designation	Range of Dates
3rd millennium B.C.	3000 to 2000 B.C.
2nd millennium B.C.	2000 to 1000 B.C.
1st millennium B.C.	1000 to 1 B.C.

and from these the nations were divided on the earth after the flood.

The Tower of Babel

11 Now the whole earth had one language and one speech. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there. <sup>3</sup>Then they said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. <sup>4</sup>And they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth.”

<sup>5</sup>But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD said, “Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they propose to do will be withheld from them. <sup>7</sup>Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another’s speech.” <sup>8</sup>So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city. <sup>9</sup>Therefore its name is called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Shem’s Descendants

Terah’s Descendants

<sup>28</sup>And Haran died before his father Terah in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldeans. <sup>29</sup>Then Abram and Nahor took wives: the name of Abram’s wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor’s wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah. <sup>30</sup>But Sarai was barren; she had no child.

<sup>31</sup>And Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram’s wife, and they went out with them from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan; and they came to Haran and dwelt there. <sup>32</sup>So the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

EPOCH TWO

THE PATRIARCHS, ISRAEL'S ANCESTORS

God chose from among the nations of the world a man, named Abraham, to whom He revealed Himself. In response, Abraham chose to be God's servant.

2000—1500 B.C.

The term “patriarch” refers to the founder or ruler of a tribe, family, or clan. The Israelites traced their ancestry to one man—“the patriarch Abraham” (Is. 51:2; Heb. 7:4). They laid claim to Canaan based on the covenant God made with their first three patriarchs—Abraham, Isaac, Jacob—to “possess the land” (Deut. 1:8). The phrase “the patriarchs” eventually referred to Jacob’s twelve sons as well (Acts 7:8, 9). Thus among figures of the Bible, the patriarchs were the ancestors of the Israelites from Abraham to Jacob’s son Joseph.

Exact dates for the period in which the patriarchs lived cannot be established. The events of the patriarchal narratives in Genesis cannot be synchronized with any events outside of the Bible. As a result, scholars have suggested dates for the patriarchs ranging from 2000 B.C. to as late as 1200 B.C. The biblical context places Abraham long before Moses. In the genealogy of Ex. 6:16–20, Moses is the great-great-grandson of Jacob, who himself was the grandson of Abraham. The line of descent—Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Levi, Kohath, Amram, Moses—would set Abraham somewhere around 2000 to 1900 B.C.

ARCHAEOLOGY AND THE PAST

The Middle Bronze Age (2000–1500 B.C.) produced one of the more archaeologically rewarding sites that have been discovered in Mesopotamia. The city of Mari owed its importance to being a focal point on caravan routes crossing the Syrian desert and linking Mari with Syria and the Mediterranean coasts, as well as with Assyria and Babylonia. In addition to the temple of Ishtar, the Mesopotamian goddess, and a ziggurat (or temple tower), archaeologists found a royal palace containing almost 300 rooms.

Some 20,000 clay tablets, known as the Mari letters, were dug up, which shed much light on the ancient biblical world. These documents were written in Accadian and date from the time of Hammurabi (c. 1750 B.C.). Some of the documents are diplomatic correspondence between Mari’s king Zimri-Lim and Babylon’s Hammurabi, who eventually destroyed Mari.

The Mari tablets refer to terms often associated with the patriarchs. The term “Habiru,” found both at Mari and in the Nuzi texts, has been compared to Abraham being named a “Hebrew” (Gen. 14:13). The seminomadic group called “Bene-yamina” at Mari bears a similar name to the Israelite name “Benjamin.” Mari also sheds light on the Amorites. Nahor, Haran, Mari, Qatna, and Ugarit all appear as Amorite cities with Amorite kings.

Another discovery related to the patriarchs dates from around the change from Middle Bronze (2000–1500 B.C.) to Late Bronze (1500–1200 B.C.). Numerous clay tablets from the city of Nuzi are thought to illuminate customs and local practices found in the patriarchal narratives. Nuzi was a Hurrian city, and it was sometime after 1550 B.C. that the Hurrians established themselves in upper Mesopotamia and northern Syria, rapidly expanding to form the powerful kingdom of Mitanni.

Exact dates for Nuzi are difficult to determine, although the Nuzi tablets are usually dated between 1400 and 1330 B.C. The similarities of social and legal customs between the Nuzi texts and the patriarchal stories have led some scholars to place the patriarchs themselves after 1550 B.C. The Nuzi customs, however, may reflect social conditions of centuries before Nuzi, as well as those of much later times in the 1st millennium. Rather than demonstrating a date for the patriarchs, the Nuzi texts provide insights into cultural customs that help us understand daily life in the 2nd millennium B.C.

THE PEOPLES AND GROUPS

The dynasty of Sargon of Agade lasted for only about a century before it declined. Mesopotamia experienced a period of anarchy, partly caused by invasions of the Gutians, foreigners from the Zagros Mountains. The strongest dynasty to emerge during this unstable time was the 3rd Dynasty of Ur, founded by Ur-Nammu about 2112 B.C. The connections that existed between Ur and various Syrian cities form one possible setting for Abraham's journeys.

Eventually, Ur too declined. The Ur empire collapsed with the invasion of the Elamites, bringing an end to Sumerian civilization. Tribes of Semitic peoples, called Amorites, migrated into Mesopotamia from the west in large numbers. Capturing major regions, they established Amorite dynasties in various city-states. Both Shamshi-Adad I (c. 1813–1781 B.C.), ruler of Asshur, and Hammurabi of Babylon (1792–1750 B.C.) were Amorite kings.

In Egypt, a period of decline and civil war ended gradually during the Middle Kingdom. King Amenemhet I of Thebes (1963–1934 B.C.) convinced the princes of the land to give their allegiance to him as the true heir to Egypt's throne. Another pharaoh, Sesostri III (1862–1843 B.C.) established a central government by restraining the powers of Egypt's provincial rulers and families.

Unity in Egypt continued for more than 200 years. Eventually, however, the country experienced a second period of weakness in which rival dynasties competed for control of limited areas. The most important of these dynasties was the Hyksos, who gained control of Lower Egypt, establishing a capital at Avaris. Toward the end of the Middle Bronze Age, King Kamose of Thebes broke the power of the Hyksos, and his younger brother Ahmose eventually drove them from Egypt.

THE BIBLICAL LITERATURE

The second part of the Book of Genesis, chs. 12–50, tells the stories of Israel's patriarchs. The events from the lives of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (chs. 12–38) take place primarily in Canaan, although Abraham originated in Mesopotamia (Ur and Haran). The traditions concerning these ancestors are grouped into cycles of stories around Abraham (12:1–25:18) and around Jacob (25:19–36:43). Isaac appears in the Abraham and Jacob cycles, with much of his story in Gen. 26.

Abraham enters into covenant with God and is given the promise that he and his descendants will become a blessing to all humanity. In the stories of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebekah, Jacob and Leah and Rachel, and Joseph, the fulfillment of God's promises takes concrete form. The life of Joseph (chs.

37–50) is set primarily in Egypt, and in that foreign place we see God's unfailing providence and His determination to keep His promise to Abraham.

THE CHANGING OF THE EMPIRES

After about 2200 B.C. the great empires of the Early Bronze Age fell apart. Political instability and unrest spread throughout Egypt and Mesopotamia at the close of this age and the beginning of the Middle Bronze Age (2000–1500 B.C.).

In Egypt, the Old Kingdom was followed by over a century of political and social disarray. During this time, known in Egyptian history as the First Intermediate Period (2160–2010 B.C.), bedouins from Asia were able to infiltrate the Nile Delta. Civil strife between Egypt's city-states ended in 2040, when Mentuhotep II from Thebes reunified the land and began the prosperous and stable Middle Kingdom, which lasted until about 1786 B.C.

In Mesopotamia, no great empire arose to replace the 3rd Dynasty of Ur after that city-state fell in 2004 B.C. Smaller kingdoms such as Isin, Larsa, Assyria, Mari, and Babylon took turns dominating each other for brief periods. The greatest of these was the kingdom of Hammurabi I of Babylon (1792–1750 B.C.), whose famous law code parallels many of the Israelite laws. Hammurabi eventually brought all of Mesopotamia under Babylonian control. Even this kingdom was brief, though, declining during the rule of Hammurabi's son.

The instability of the time resulted partly from the appearance throughout the ancient Near East of a new ethnic group, the Amurru, or Amorites. This large group of Semitic people had personal names and customs that resemble those of the biblical Hebrews. Their influence was so pervasive that even some Mesopotamian kings had Amorite names.

After 2000 B.C. Amorites inhabited Palestine. Some settled in villages and established their own city-states, others lived as seminomadic shepherds, and still others lived on the fringes of society as warlike outcasts. Such outsiders, referred to as "Habiru," usually served as slaves or mercenaries to others, but on occasion fought their own battles.

Amorites worshiped many gods, but each city or clan identified its own particular deity. In Mesopotamia, in cities influenced by the Amorites, there even appeared prophets of these local gods, using language very similar to that of the much later Old Testament prophets. Away from the cities, among the seminomadic shepherds, great stress was given to the god of the clan's forefathers. Worship usually involved animal sacrifice, but child sacrifice was also common.

The instability of the time resulted partly from the appearance of the Amurru, or Amorites.

TRANSITION

Abram the Amorite

The accounts of the patriarchs in Gen. 12—50 fit within the setting of Mesopotamia at this time. Abram was surely from an Amorite family, and that family's migration from Ur to Haran (in Syria) to southern Palestine follows the general pattern of the Amorite expansion. The patriarchs' way of life corresponds to that of the seminomadic shepherds, although occasionally they acted like the more warlike Habiru, as when Abram leads his men to battle in Gen. 14. The God who speaks to Abram is seen at least partly as the God of the clan, referred to often as "the God of the fathers" (Ex. 3:13).

Although Abram's relationship with his God follows many of the Amorite patterns, it also differs from Amorite religion in significant ways. For instance, Abram's God repudiates child sacrifice (Gen. 22). Moreover, God is not just a local clan deity. Although He makes a covenant with a particular family, that covenant exists in order to bless "all the families of the earth" (Gen. 12:3).

•Genesis 12:1—15:21

Genesis

Promises to Abram

12 :1 Now the LORD had said to Abram:

"Get out of your country,
From your family
And from your father's house,
To a land that I will show you.
2 I will make you a great nation;
I will bless you
And make your name great;
And you shall be a blessing.
3 I will bless those who bless you,
And I will curse him who curses you;
And in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

<sup>4</sup>So Abram departed as the LORD had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup>Then Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they departed to go to the land of Canaan. So they came to the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, as far as the terebinth tree of Moreh.<sup>a</sup> And the Canaanites were then in the land.

<sup>7</sup>Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." And there he built an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup>And he moved from there to the mountain east of Bethel, and he pitched his tent with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; there he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>So Abram journeyed, going on still toward the South.<sup>a</sup>

THE GREAT PYRAMID AT GIZA (GEN. 12:14)

The famous pyramids at Giza functioned as individual tombs for some of the monarchs of Egypt's Old Kingdom (2700–2160 B.C.). Earliest among the monumental pyramid tombs appears to have been the Step Pyramid of Pharaoh Djoser (c. 2650 B.C.). The monarchs of the 4th Dynasty (2600–2500 B.C.), Khufu and his successor Khafre, built huge pyramids in imitation of the Step Pyramid. The Great Pyramid is slightly over 480 feet high, and each of the four sides at the base is about 756 feet wide. Such massive monuments demonstrate the great architectural precision and excellence of the Egyptian Old Kingdom.

The patriarch Abram traveled to Egypt during a time of famine in Canaan (Gen. 12:10). Exact dates for Abram's life are unknown, but scholars often place him around 2000 or 1900 B.C. Thus, the Great Pyramid at Giza was already centuries old when Abram and Sarai visited Egypt (Gen. 12:10—13:1).

THE HABIRU—REFUGEES OR OUTLAWS? (GEN. 14:13)

The Habiru (also spelled Hapiru) were a class of fugitives found in the ancient Near East from about 2000 to 1000 B.C. Some of the Habiru were refugees who fled their homelands, while others included brigands, malcontents, and socially maladjusted individuals. Their geographic horizon extended from southern Mesopotamia, Anatolia, and Syro-Palestine to Egypt.

The obvious similarity between the words “Habiru” and “Hebrew” has led some to equate the Habiru with the early Israelites. Unfortunately, the original meaning of the Accadian term “Habiru” has never been satisfactorily determined. Most scholars, however, believe it concerns either refugees forced to leave their own land, or armed brigands who caused problems for local populations.

The Habiru are described at length in a great variety of texts, ranging from the Amarna letters in Egypt to the Hittite archives in central Anatolia. The Mari tablets describe the Habiru as brigands who were very mobile. The Nuzi documents identify them as foreigners who served the citizens of Nuzi. In all these texts, the Habiru are foreign to the Near Eastern society in which they are trying to survive. Some survived as servants or laborers; others as outlaws.

Abram was called “the Hebrew” (Gen. 14:13). In this context, he could be acting as an armed brigand with his own army to help his nephew Lot (14:14–16). On the other hand, David and his men are also called “Hebrews” (1 Sam. 29:3) when, in flight from King Saul, they sought refuge among the Philistines (1 Sam. 27:1–4). Although “Hebrew” is clearly an ethnic term in the Bible, it may have been originally a term describing the social condition of persons in flight or of those in armed gangs. Abram could have been called “the Hebrew” simply because of his status as a foreigner in Canaan.

that he said to Sarai his wife, “Indeed I know that you are a woman of beautiful countenance. <sup>12</sup>Therefore it will happen, when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, ‘This is his wife’; and they will kill me, but they will let you live. <sup>13</sup>Please say you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that I<sup>a</sup> may live because of you.”

<sup>14</sup>So it was, when Abram came into Egypt, that the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup>The princes of Pharaoh also saw her and commended her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken to Pharaoh’s house. <sup>16</sup>He treated Abram well for her sake. He had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female servants, female donkeys, and camels.

<sup>17</sup>But the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife. <sup>18</sup>And Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? <sup>19</sup>Why did you say, ‘She is my sister’? I might have taken her as my wife. Now therefore, here is your wife; take her and go your way.” <sup>20</sup>So Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they sent him away, with his wife and all that he had.

Abram Inherits Canaan

13 <sup>1</sup>Then Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, to the South. <sup>2</sup>Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. <sup>3</sup>And he went on his journey from the South as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, <sup>4</sup>to the place of the altar which he had made there at first. And there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks and herds and tents. <sup>6</sup>Now the land was not able to support them, that they might dwell together, for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together. <sup>7</sup>And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram’s livestock and the herdsmen of Lot’s livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites then dwelt in the land.

<sup>8</sup>So Abram said to Lot, “Please let there be no strife between you and me, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are brethren. <sup>9</sup>Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me. If you take the left, then I will go to the right; or, if you go to the right, then I will go to the left.”

<sup>10</sup>And Lot lifted his eyes and saw all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere (before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah) like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you go toward Zoar. <sup>11</sup>Then Lot chose for himself all the plain of Jordan, and Lot journeyed east. And they separated from each

ABRAM'S CEREMONY AND A HITTITE RITUAL (GEN. 15:9, 10)

In a covenant ceremony Abram was instructed to cut animals in halves and arrange the pieces opposite each other (Gen. 15:9, 10). Abram's animal ritual has a literary parallel in a Hittite text from Anatolia, dated after the mid-2nd millennium B.C.

The Hittite text describes a ritual of purification to be used after a military defeat. The troops are required to perform the ritual "behind a river," where a man, a goat, a puppy, and a small pig are cut in half. The sections, thus divided, are arranged oppositely parallel on one side and on the other. In front of this array a gate of an unknown type of wood is built. Fires are lit on both sides of the arranged pieces. Then the troops are obliged to pass between the fires and are sprinkled with water upon reaching the bank of the river.

The procedure is not mentioned in any official Hittite state cult, but is recorded in the royal archives. Its similarities with the ceremony in Genesis, although superficial, show a common ritual tradition.

other. <sup>12</sup>Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain and pitched his tent even as far as Sodom. <sup>13</sup>But the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinful against the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him: "Lift your eyes now and look from the place where you are—northward, southward, eastward, and westward; <sup>15</sup>for all the land which you see I give to you and your descendants<sup>a</sup> forever. <sup>16</sup>And I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth; so that if a man could number the dust of the earth, then your descendants also could be numbered. <sup>17</sup>Arise, walk in the land through its length and its width, for I give it to you."

<sup>18</sup>Then Abram moved his tent, and went and dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre,<sup>a</sup> which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to the LORD.

Lot's Captivity and Rescue

<sup>5</sup>In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him came and attacked the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim, <sup>6</sup>and the Horites in their mountain of Seir, as far as El Paran, which is by the wilderness. <sup>7</sup>Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and attacked all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who dwelt in Hazezon Tamar.

<sup>13</sup>Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, for he dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre<sup>a</sup> the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner; and they were allies with Abram. <sup>14</sup>Now when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants who were born in his own house, and went in pursuit as far as Dan. <sup>15</sup>He divided his forces against them by night, and he and his servants attacked them and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup>So he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the people.

PASSING BETWEEN THE HALVES (GEN. 15:17–21)

There are no adequate modern parallels to the broad-ranging meanings of the term “covenant” as used in the Bible. The closest parallel probably resides in marriage, where a public gathering solemnizes an agreement between two people.

The type of covenant presented in the Bible is most often between two parties. The superior party was known as the suzerain; the inferior party as the vassal. Both the suzerain and vassal had specific responsibilities. Primarily, in ancient societies the suzerain provided protection for the vassal, while the vassal supported the suzerain with taxes and was loyal in time of war.

The Lord and Abram joined themselves in a suzerain and vassal covenant (Gen. 15:18). Like similar ancient Near Eastern covenants they held a public ceremony to ratify their relationship. The sacrifice of animals and a meal (15:9, 10) were typical components of covenant ceremonies, as were the promises of both parties. Abram’s part of this agreement was to “believe” in the Lord (15:6), which meant to worship no other gods. The Lord promised Abram to make his descendants as numerous as the stars (15:5) and provide a homeland for them (15:18).

Two differences between ancient Near Eastern covenants and the Gen. 15 covenant are striking. Usually the list of the vassal’s duties and responsibilities was much larger than that of the suzerain’s. In fact, a covenant, including the duties of the vassal, was imposed on the vassal by the suzerain. In the Gen. 15 covenant almost nothing is said about Abram’s responsibilities. The focus is on what the Lord promised to Abram, not what Abram promised the Lord.

In the second difference it was usually the vassal who cut the animals in two parts and walked between them (15:10, 17). The ritual symbolically demonstrated what would happen to the vassal if the covenant was broken. The “burning torch” passing between the pieces of flesh in the Gen. 15 covenant (15:17) was obviously a representation of the Lord. The symbolism of Him passing between the cut sacrifices implies that He would die before He would allow His covenant with Abram to fail.

Abram and Melchizedek

<sup>18</sup>Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was the priest of God Most High. <sup>19</sup>And he blessed him and said:

“Blessed be Abram of God Most High,
Possessor of heaven and earth;
<sup>20</sup> And blessed be God Most High,
Who has delivered your enemies into your hand.”

And he gave him a tithe of all.

<sup>21</sup>Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the persons, and take the goods for yourself.”

<sup>22</sup>But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have raised my hand to the LORD, God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup>that I will take nothing, from a thread to a sandal strap, and that I will not take anything that is yours, lest you should say, ‘I have made Abram rich’—

God’s Covenant with Abram

15 <sup>1</sup>After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, “Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward.”

<sup>2</sup>But Abram said, “Lord GOD, what will You give me, seeing I go childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?” <sup>3</sup>Then Abram said, “Look, You have given me no offspring; indeed one born in my house is my heir!”

<sup>4</sup>And behold, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, “This one shall not be your heir, but one who will come from your own body shall be your heir.” <sup>5</sup>Then He brought him outside and said, “Look now toward heaven, and count the stars if you are able to number them.” And He said to him, “So shall your descendants be.”

<sup>6</sup>And he believed in the LORD, and He accounted it to him for righteousness.

<sup>7</sup>Then He said to him, “I am the LORD, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to inherit it.”

<sup>8</sup>And he said, “Lord GOD, how shall I know that I will inherit it?”

<sup>9</sup>So He said to him, “Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he brought all these to Him and cut them in two, down the middle, and placed each piece opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. <sup>11</sup>And when the vultures came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

<sup>12</sup>Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, horror and great darkness fell upon him. <sup>13</sup>Then He said to Abram: “Know certainly that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them, and they will afflict them four hundred years. <sup>14</sup>And also the nation whom they serve I will judge; afterward they shall come out with great possessions. <sup>15</sup>Now as for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you shall be buried at a good old age. <sup>16</sup>But in the fourth generation they shall return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete.”

<sup>17</sup>And it came to pass, when the sun went down and it was dark, that behold, there appeared a smoking oven and a burning torch that passed between those pieces. <sup>18</sup>On the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: “To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates—<sup>19</sup>the Kenites, the Kenezites, the Kadmonites, <sup>20</sup>the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, <sup>21</sup>the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.”

The Birth of Ishmael

None of the events of the patriarchs can be synchronized with any dates known from non-biblical sources. Nevertheless, Genesis does provide a brief chronological outline of Abraham's life. Abram was 75 years old when he left Haran in Mesopotamia and journeyed to Canaan with his wife Sarai (Gen. 12:4, 5). After living 10 years in Canaan, Sarai made use of a typical ancient Near Eastern custom for a barren wife. In this custom, the wife authorized her husband to obtain children by her personal slave (Gen. 16:3). Thus, Abram at age 86 fathered Ishmael through Sarai's maid Hagar (16:16).

Sarai's barrenness continued for 13 more years, but God intervened before Abram, now 99 years old (Gen. 17:1), could announce Ishmael as his legal heir. Changing Abram's name to Abraham, and Sarai's to Sarah, God promised a child by Sarah (17:5, 15, 16).

• Genesis 16:1—20:18

Genesis

Hagar and Ishmael

16 :1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. And she had an Egyptian maidservant whose name was Hagar. <sup>2</sup>So Sarai said to Abram, “See now, the LORD has restrained me from bearing children. Please, go in to my maid; perhaps I shall obtain children by her.” And Abram heeded the voice of Sarai. <sup>3</sup>Then Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan. <sup>4</sup>So he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress became despised in her eyes.

<sup>5</sup>Then Sarai said to Abram, “My wrong be upon you! I gave my maid into your embrace; and when she saw that she had conceived, I became despised in her eyes. The LORD judge between you and me.”

<sup>6</sup>So Abram said to Sarai, “Indeed your maid is in your hand; do to her as you please.” And when Sarai dealt harshly with her, she fled from her presence.

<sup>7</sup>Now the Angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur. <sup>8</sup>And He said, “Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from, and where are you going?”

She said, “I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai.”

<sup>9</sup>The Angel of the LORD said to her, “Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hand.” <sup>10</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD said to her, “I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, so that they shall not be counted for multitude.” <sup>11</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to her:

“Behold, you are with child,
And you shall bear a son.

You shall call his name Ishmael,

Because the LORD has heard your affliction.

<sup>12</sup> He shall be a wild man;

His hand shall be against every man,

And every man's hand against him.

And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.”

<sup>13</sup>Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, You-Are-the-God-Who-Sees; for she said, “Have I also here seen Him who sees me?” <sup>14</sup>Therefore the well was called Beer Lahai Roi;<sup>a</sup> observe, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

<sup>15</sup>So Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. <sup>16</sup>Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

The Sign of the Covenant

17 <sup>1</sup>When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am Almighty God; walk before Me and be blameless. <sup>2</sup>And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.” <sup>3</sup>Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying: <sup>4</sup>“As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. <sup>5</sup>No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations. <sup>6</sup>I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. <sup>7</sup>And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and your descendants after you. <sup>8</sup>Also I give to you and your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.”

<sup>9</sup>And God said to Abraham: “As for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations. <sup>10</sup>This is My covenant which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you: Every male child among you shall be circumcised; <sup>11</sup>and you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between Me and you. <sup>12</sup>He who is eight days old among you shall be circumcised, every male child in your generations, he who is born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not your descendant. <sup>13</sup>He who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money must be circumcised, and My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup>And the uncircumcised male child, who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.”

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. <sup>16</sup>And I will bless her and also give you a son by her; then I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples shall be from her.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, “Shall a child be born to a man who is one hundred years old? And shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?” <sup>18</sup>And Abraham said to God, “Oh, that Ishmael might live before You!”

<sup>19</sup>Then God said: “No, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his descendants after him. <sup>20</sup>And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall beget twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. <sup>21</sup>But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this set time next year.” <sup>22</sup>Then He finished talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

<sup>23</sup>So Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very same day, as God had said to him. <sup>24</sup>Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>25</sup>And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup>That very same day Abraham was circumcised, and his son Ishmael; <sup>27</sup>and all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

The Son of Promise

18 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamre,<sup>a</sup> as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup>So he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing by him; and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the ground, <sup>3</sup>and said, “My Lord, if I have now found favor in Your sight, do not pass on by Your servant. <sup>4</sup>Please let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. <sup>5</sup>And I will bring a morsel of bread, that you may refresh your hearts. After that you may pass by, inasmuch as you have come to your servant.”

They said, “Do as you have said.”

Daily Life & Customs

Circumcision is a minor operation that removes a piece of skin from the male organ. It was practiced in several nations of the ancient Near East, including Egypt. But for Israel it was a sign of membership in the community and was required of every male (Gen. 17:10, 11). Traditionally it was performed with a flint knife.

ABRAHAM'S LIFE (LATE EXODUS)

<sup>6</sup>So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, “Quickly, make ready three measures of fine meal; knead it and make cakes.” <sup>7</sup>And Abraham ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, gave it to a young man, and he hastened to prepare it. <sup>8</sup>So he took butter and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree as they ate.

So he said, “Here, in the tent.”

<sup>10</sup>And He said, “I will certainly return to you according to the time of life, and behold, Sarah your wife shall have a son.”

(Sarah was listening in the tent door which was behind him.) <sup>11</sup>Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age; and Sarah had passed the age of child-bearing.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, “After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?”

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Shall I surely bear a child, since I am old?’ <sup>14</sup>Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.”

<sup>15</sup>But Sarah denied it, saying, “I did not laugh,” for she was afraid.

And He said, “No, but you did laugh!”

Abraham Intercedes for Sodom

<sup>16</sup>Then the men rose from there and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them on the way. <sup>17</sup>And the LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing, <sup>18</sup>since Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? <sup>19</sup>For I have known him, in order that he may command his children and his household after him, that they keep the way of the LORD, to do righteousness and justice, that the LORD may bring to Abraham what He has spoken to him.” <sup>20</sup>And the LORD said, “Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grave, <sup>21</sup>I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it that has come to Me; and if not, I will know.”

<sup>22</sup>Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>And Abraham came near and said, “Would You also destroy the righteous with the wicked? <sup>24</sup>Suppose there were fifty righteous within the city; would You also destroy the place and not spare it for the fifty righteous that were in it? <sup>25</sup>Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked; far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?”

<sup>26</sup>So the LORD said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Abraham answered and said, “Indeed now, I who am but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: <sup>28</sup>Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous; would You destroy all of the city for lack of five?”

So He said, “If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it.”

<sup>29</sup>And he spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose there should be forty found there?”

So He said, “I will not do it for the sake of forty.”

<sup>30</sup>Then he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty should be found there?”

So He said, “I will not do it if I find thirty there.”

<sup>31</sup>And he said, “Indeed now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: Suppose twenty should be found there?”

So He said, “I will not destroy it for the sake of twenty.”

<sup>32</sup>Then he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there?”

18:11 <sup>a</sup>Literally the manner of women had ceased to be with Sarah

And He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of ten."<sup>33</sup> So the LORD went His way as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

Sodom's Depravity

19 Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground. <sup>2</sup>And he said, "Here now, my lords, please turn in to your servant's house and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way."

And they said, "No, but we will spend the night in the open square."

<sup>3</sup>But he insisted strongly; so they turned in to him and entered his house. Then he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

<sup>4</sup>Now before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house. <sup>5</sup>And they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may know them carnally."

<sup>6</sup>So Lot went out to them through the doorway, shut the door behind him, <sup>7</sup>and said, "Please, my brethren, do not do so wickedly! <sup>8</sup>See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, since this is the reason they have come under the shadow of my roof."

<sup>9</sup>And they said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one came in to stay here, and he keeps acting as a judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them." So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door. <sup>10</sup>But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door. <sup>11</sup>And they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

<sup>12</sup>Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city—take them out of this place! <sup>13</sup>For we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the face of the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it."

<sup>14</sup>So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, "Get up, get out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city!" But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking.

<sup>15</sup>When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot to hurry, saying, "Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city." <sup>16</sup>And while he lingered, the men took hold of his hand, his wife's hand, and the hands of his two daughters, the LORD being merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city. <sup>17</sup>So it came to pass, when they had brought them outside, that he<sup>a</sup> said, "Escape for your life! Do not look behind you nor stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be destroyed."

<sup>18</sup>Then Lot said to them, "Please, no, my lords! <sup>19</sup>Indeed now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have increased your mercy which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, lest some evil overtake me and I die. <sup>20</sup>See now, this city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one; please let me escape there (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live."

<sup>21</sup>And he said to him, "See, I have favored you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken. <sup>22</sup>Hurry, escape there. For I cannot do anything until you arrive there."

Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

<sup>23</sup>The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar. <sup>24</sup>Then the LORD rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the LORD out of the heavens. <sup>25</sup>So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

<sup>26</sup>But his wife looked back behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

<sup>27</sup>And Abraham went early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Then he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain; and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land which went up like the smoke of a furnace. <sup>29</sup>And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had dwelt.

The Descendants of Lot

<sup>30</sup>Then Lot went up out of Zoar and dwelt in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him; for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. And he and his two daughters dwelt in a cave. <sup>31</sup>Now the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man on the earth to come in to us as is the custom of all the earth. <sup>32</sup>Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father.” <sup>33</sup>So they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

<sup>34</sup>It happened on the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, “Indeed I lay with my father last night; let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father.”

<sup>35</sup>Then they made their father drink wine that night also. And the younger arose and lay with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

<sup>36</sup>Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father. <sup>37</sup>The firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day. <sup>38</sup>And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi; he is the father of the people of Ammon to this day.

Abraham and Abimelech

20 <sup>1</sup>And Abraham journeyed from there to the South, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar. <sup>2</sup>Now Abraham said of Sarah his wife, “She is my sister.” And Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

<sup>3</sup>But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, “Indeed you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man’s wife.”

<sup>4</sup>But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, “Lord, will you slay a righteous nation also? <sup>5</sup>Did he not say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And she, even she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this.”

<sup>6</sup>And God said to him in a dream, “Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart. For I also withheld you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, restore the man’s wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all who are yours.”

<sup>8</sup>So Abimelech rose early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were very much afraid. <sup>9</sup>And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? How have I offended you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done.” <sup>10</sup>Then Abimelech said to Abraham, “What did you have in view, that you have done this thing?”

<sup>11</sup>And Abraham said, “Because I thought, surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will kill me on account of my wife. <sup>12</sup>But indeed she is truly my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. <sup>13</sup>And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father’s house, that I said to her, ‘This is your kindness that you should do for me: in every place, wherever we go, say of me, ‘He is my brother.’”

<sup>14</sup>Then Abimelech took sheep, oxen, and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham; and he restored Sarah his wife to him.

<sup>15</sup>And Abimelech said, “See, my land is before you; dwell where it pleases you.” <sup>16</sup>Then to Sarah he said, “Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; indeed this vindicates you<sup>a</sup> before all who are with you and before everybody.” Thus she was rebuked.

<sup>17</sup>So Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female servants. Then they bore children; <sup>18</sup>for the LORD had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

TRANSITION

The Birth of Isaac

Both Abraham (Gen. 17:17) and Sarah (18:11, 12) laughed in disbelief that a couple well past childbearing age should bear a son. Yet in fulfillment of God’s promise, Abraham, age 100, fathered Isaac through his wife Sarah, age 90 (Gen. 17:17; 21:1–5). Sarah’s first concern was for her new son’s status as Abraham’s heir, a status threatened by Hagar’s son Ishmael (21:9, 10). Ishmael was now about 14 years old, being 13 at his circumcision (17:24, 25).

An ancient Near Eastern law code describes the practice of giving one’s maid as a second wife (see “The Birth of Ishmael” at Gen. 16:1). The law provided protection for children born to the second wife. It prohibited the disinheritance of a firstborn son of a slave wife (Ishmael) in the event that the barren upper-class wife should later bear a son (Isaac). However, the upper-class wife’s son would supersede the slave wife’s son as the legal “firstborn.” Furthermore, the slave wife and her children could be offered their freedom, in which case they forfeited their inheritance. Isaac did become Abraham’s heir, representing one case in which a younger son received the inheritance and blessing.

A SLAVE OF A WIFE BECOMES A MOTHER! (GEN. 21:9–11)

Sarai's condition of childlessness caused her to give her female servant to Abram for procreation (Gen. 16:1–3). It is obvious from Sarai's words, "perhaps I shall obtain children by her" (16:2), that she saw herself as the one who would be providing any eventual son from this union, even though the servant Hagar would be the mother of the child.

Ancient marriage contracts obligated wives to provide a son for the married couple. Contracts dating from the mid-2nd millennium B.C. have been discovered in the city of Nuzi which specify that if a wife bore no male child she had the obligation to provide a child via a female servant. If a child was thus born to a servant, the child would be considered the child of the wife in regards to the contract. Thus, even a barren wife could fulfill her marital contract.

Abram's reluctance to send Hagar away, when Sarai became jealous of her (Gen. 21:9–11), reflects another aspect of the Nuzi tablets. Servants who provided such children were not supposed to be sent away, but rather treated favorably. So it was that it took the voice of God to convince Abram to listen to Sarai's desire (21:12).

Genesis

Isaac Is Born

21 :1 And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had spoken. <sup>2</sup>For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. <sup>3</sup>And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him—whom Sarah bore to him—Isaac. <sup>4</sup>Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. <sup>5</sup>Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. <sup>6</sup>And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and all who hear will laugh with me." <sup>7</sup>She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

Hagar and Ishmael Depart

<sup>8</sup>So the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned.

<sup>9</sup>And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, scoffing. <sup>10</sup>Therefore she said to Abraham, "Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, namely with Isaac." <sup>11</sup>And the matter was very displeasing in Abraham's sight because of his son.

<sup>12</sup>But God said to Abraham, "Do not let it be displeasing in your sight because of the lad or because of your bondwoman. Whatever Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice; for in Isaac your seed shall be called. <sup>13</sup>Yet I will also make a nation of the son of the bondwoman, because he is your seed."

<sup>14</sup>So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water; and putting it on her shoulder, he gave it and the boy to Hagar, and sent her away. Then she departed and wandered in the Wilderness of Beersheba. <sup>15</sup>And the water in the skin was used up, and she placed the boy under one of the shrubs. <sup>16</sup>Then she went and sat down across from him at a distance of about a bowshot; for she said to herself, "Let me not see the death of the boy." So she sat opposite him, and lifted her voice and wept.

<sup>17</sup>And God heard the voice of the lad. Then the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said to her, "What ails you, Hagar? Fear not, for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is. <sup>18</sup>Arise, lift up the lad and hold him with your hand, for I will make him a great nation."

<sup>19</sup>Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the lad a drink. <sup>20</sup>So God was with the lad; and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. <sup>21</sup>He dwelt in the Wilderness of Paran; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

A Covenant with Abimelech

<sup>22</sup>And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, "God is with you in all that you do. <sup>23</sup>Now therefore, swear to me by God that you will not deal falsely with me, with my offspring, or with my posterity; but that according to the kindness that I have done to you, you will do to me and to the land in which you have dwelt."

<sup>25</sup>Then Abraham rebuked Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech's servants had seized. <sup>26</sup>And Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor had I heard of it until today." <sup>27</sup>So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant. <sup>28</sup>And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

<sup>29</sup>Then Abimelech asked Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs which you have set by yourselves?"

<sup>30</sup>And he said, "You will take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that they may be my witness that I have dug this well.”<sup>31</sup>Therefore he called that place Beersheba,<sup>a</sup> because the two of them swore an oath there.

<sup>32</sup>Thus they made a covenant at Beersheba. So Abimelech rose with Phichol, the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines. <sup>33</sup>Then Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. <sup>34</sup>And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines many days.

Tamarisk tree in Revivim, Israel. Abraham planted a tamarisk and “called on the name of the LORD” (Genesis 21:33).

Abraham’s Faith Confirmed

22 <sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, “Abraham!”

And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>2</sup>Then He said, “Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you.”

<sup>3</sup>So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup>Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off. <sup>5</sup>And Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey; the lad<sup>a</sup> and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you.”

<sup>6</sup>So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together. <sup>7</sup>But Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, “My father!”

And he said, “Here I am, my son.”

Then he said, “Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?”

<sup>8</sup>And Abraham said, “My son, God will provide for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering.” So the two of them went together.

<sup>9</sup>Then they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, upon the wood. <sup>10</sup>And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

<sup>11</sup>But the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!”

So he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>12</sup>And He said, “Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>14</sup>And Abraham called the name of the place, The-LORD-Will-Provide;<sup>a</sup> as it is said to this day, “In the Mount of the LORD it shall be provided.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of heaven, <sup>16</sup>and said: “By Myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son— <sup>17</sup> blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies. <sup>18</sup>In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.” <sup>19</sup>So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.

The Family of Nahor

Religion & Worship

In the Bible, human sacrifice is regarded as one of the worst offenses against God and humankind (Gen. 22:12). It was one of the reasons the Canaanites were condemned. Archaeologists have dug up urns with ashes and the bones of children from the sacred precincts of Carthage. Apparently, the Carthaginians sacrificed children as part of their religion.

BUSINESS DOCUMENTS AT EBLA (GEN. 23:7–20)

The narrative in Gen. 23:7–20 is a picture of business being transacted during the late 3rd or early 2nd millennium B.C. Abraham purchases a property which is then deeded as his possession. Ancient texts dealing with business and commercial matters, as well as other types of texts, have been discovered at Ebla, a Semitic city-state in northern Syria that flourished from about 2400 to 2250 B.C.—prior to Abraham's time.

Although not mentioned in Scripture, Ebla casts its shadow over the history of northern Canaan. In the 3rd millennium B.C., Ebla controlled northern Canaan. By the time of Abraham (c. 2000 B.C.) this large urban center was long past its prime. Yet it was still an important center in the region.

Discoveries at Ebla, though not directly related to Scripture, have been invaluable in providing a larger context for understanding the cultural environment of the narratives in Genesis. Many of the personal names found at Ebla reveal a linguistic type very similar to that of the Old Testament patriarchs. Personal names discovered at Ebla include Ab-ra-mu (Abram), E-sa-um (Esau), Sa-u-lum (Saul), and Da-'u-dum (David).

The recording of business transactions was part of life in the ancient Near East, just as it is today. This is evident at Ebla where the largest portion of the texts found were administrative or business texts. More business recording is apparent in the narrative of Gen. 23: the deeding of the field of Ephron to Abraham would refer to a written deed of purchase that was signed by the purchaser and witnesses (23:17–20).

Sarah's Death and Burial

23 Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah.<sup>2</sup>So Sarah died in Kirjath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

<sup>3</sup>Then Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying, “I am a foreigner and a visitor among you. Give me property for a burial place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.”

<sup>5</sup>And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him, “Hear us, my lord: You are a mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place, that you may bury your dead.”

<sup>8</sup>And he spoke with them, saying, “If it is your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and meet with Ephron the son of Zohar for me, <sup>9</sup>that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he has, which is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me at the full price, as property for a burial place among you.”

<sup>10</sup>Now Ephron dwelt among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of the sons of Heth, all who entered at the gate of his city, saying, <sup>11</sup>“No, my lord, hear me: I give you the field and the cave that is in it; I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I give it to you. Bury your dead!”

<sup>12</sup>Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land; <sup>13</sup>and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, “If you will give it, please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury my dead there.”

<sup>14</sup>And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, <sup>15</sup>“My lord, listen to me; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between you and me? So bury your dead.” <sup>16</sup>And Abraham listened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed out the silver for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, currency of the merchants.

<sup>17</sup>So the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, which were within all the surrounding borders, were deeded <sup>18</sup>to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.

<sup>19</sup>And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>So the field and the cave that is in it were deeded to Abraham by the sons of Heth as property for a burial place.

A Bride for Isaac

24 <sup>1</sup>Now Abraham was old, well advanced in age; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. <sup>2</sup>So Abraham said to the oldest servant of his house, who ruled over all that he had, “Please, put your hand under my thigh, <sup>3</sup>and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell; <sup>4</sup>but you shall go to my country and to my family, and take a wife for my son Isaac.”

<sup>5</sup>And the servant said to him, “Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this

MY SERVANT IS MY HEIR! (GEN. 24:2, 3)

When God promised Abram that his descendants were to grow into a great nation, He was addressing Abram's complaint in Gen. 15:2, 3. Abram was childless, so his property would have to go to a stranger. Eliezer, a man from Damascus, was going to be his heir (15:2), and it only maximized Abram's dilemma that Eliezer was his servant.

Tablets discovered in the ancient city of Nuzi reveal that childless couples regularly selected a servant as a replacement son. It was the duty of this servant to care for his adopted parents when they grew old and to perform the burial rites when they died. For his service the servant became the heir to the parents' property.

Ancient contracts have been found that specify the duties of an adopted son, and describe the relationship of the adoptee to any natural son born at a later time. Usually the natural son assumed the firstborn status. However, the adopted son was still treated well and not forsaken.

The relationship between Abram and Eliezer was a common relationship for that time. When Abram grew old, he made Eliezer his heir, probably with the usual stipulation that if a natural son was born, Eliezer would take second place. But even after the birth of Abram's sons, Ishmael and Isaac, Eliezer still maintained an important status in the household. He controlled all that Abram possessed (Gen. 24:2) and, as the oldest and most trusted of Abram's servants, even had the important task of selecting Isaac's wife (24:3).

land. Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?"

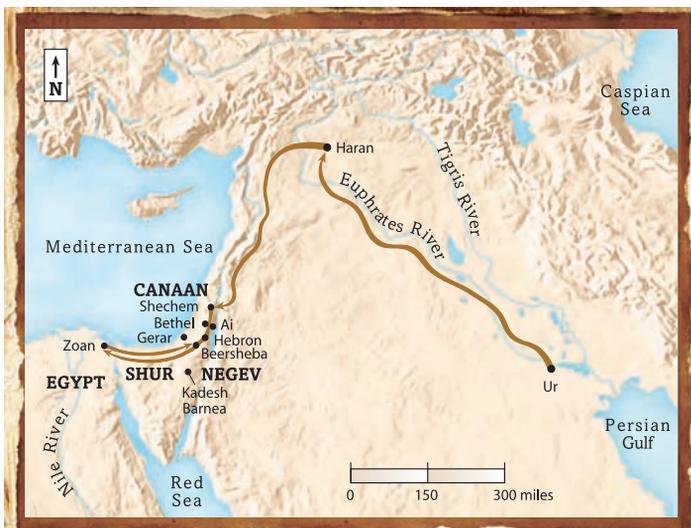

<sup>6</sup>But Abraham said to him, "Beware that you do not take my son back there. <sup>7</sup>The LORD God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, 'To your descendants<sup>a</sup> I give this land,' He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. <sup>8</sup>And if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be released from this oath; only do not take my son back there." <sup>9</sup>So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

<sup>10</sup>Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed, for all his master's goods were in his hand. And he arose and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Haran. <sup>11</sup>And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water. <sup>12</sup>Then he said, "O LORD God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup>Behold, here I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. <sup>14</sup>Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, 'Please let down your pitcher that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I will also give you camels a drink'—let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. And by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master."

<sup>15</sup>And it happened, before he had finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. <sup>16</sup>Now the young woman was very beautiful to behold, a virgin; no man had known her. And she went down to the well, filled her

Journeys of Abraham

Abraham's birthplace has long been identified with Sumerian Ur in southern Mesopotamia. Ur may have sponsored colonies in northern Mesopotamia in the vicinity of Haran, from which Abraham's family possibly originated.

At Shechem in central Canaan, Abraham received the promise of God concerning the new land (Gen. 12:7). Famine, caused by unpredictable rains in Canaan, forced Abraham to Egypt, which was watered by the Nile River. Yet he would return to the land of promise.

pitcher, and came up. <sup>17</sup>And the servant ran to meet her and said, “Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher.”

<sup>18</sup>So she said, “Drink, my lord.” Then she quickly let her pitcher down to her hand, and gave him a drink. <sup>19</sup>And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking.” <sup>20</sup>Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. <sup>21</sup>And the man, wondering at her, remained silent so as to know whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

<sup>22</sup>So it was, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden nose ring weighing half a shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels of gold, <sup>23</sup>and said, “Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please, is there room in your father’s house for us to lodge?”

<sup>24</sup>So she said to him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, Milcah’s son, whom she bore to Nahor.” <sup>25</sup>Moreover she said to him, “We have both straw and feed enough, and room to lodge.”

<sup>26</sup>Then the man bowed down his head and worshiped the LORD. <sup>27</sup>And he said, “Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His mercy and His truth toward my master. As for me, being on the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master’s brethren.” <sup>28</sup>So the young woman ran and told her mother’s household these things.

<sup>32</sup>Then the man came to the house. And he unloaded the camels, and provided straw and feed for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. <sup>33</sup>Food was set before him to eat, but he said, “I will not eat until I have told about my errand.”

And he said, “Speak on.”

<sup>34</sup>So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant. <sup>35</sup>The LORD has blessed my master greatly, and he has become great; and He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup>And Sarah my master’s wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and to him he has given all that he has. <sup>37</sup>Now my master made me swear, saying, ‘You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell; <sup>38</sup>but you shall go to my father’s house and to my family, and take a wife for my son.’ <sup>39</sup>And I said to my master, ‘Perhaps the woman will not follow me.’ <sup>40</sup>But he said to me, ‘The LORD, before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and prosper your way; and you shall take a wife for my son from my family and from my father’s house. <sup>41</sup>You will be clear from this oath when you arrive among my family; for if they will not give her to you, then you will be released from my oath.’

<sup>42</sup>“And this day I came to the well and said, ‘O LORD God of my master Abraham, if You will now prosper the way in which I go, <sup>43</sup>behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass that when the virgin comes out to draw water, and I say to her, “Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,” <sup>44</sup>and she says to me, “Drink, and I will draw for your camels also,”—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master’s son.’

<sup>45</sup>“But before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah, coming out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, ‘Please let me drink.’ <sup>46</sup>And she made haste and let her pitcher down from her shoulder, and said, ‘Drink, and I will give your camels a drink also.’ So I drank, and she gave the camels a drink also. <sup>47</sup>Then I asked her, and said, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ And she said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor’s son, whom Milcah bore to him.’ So I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. <sup>48</sup>And I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD

Science & Technology

Gold can be found in nature as a metal, either pure or mixed with silver and copper. It is easily worked and does not corrode. It has been used as a measure of value from early times, and is a perennial symbol of wealth and rank (Gen. 24:22). Where there were no banks, gold could take the place of savings accounts.

DATING ABRAHAM FROM THE EXODUS

It is not known exactly when the patriarchs lived. The events narrated in Genesis cannot be synchronized with any events outside of the Bible. This has led scholars to propose dates for Abraham from about 2000 B.C. to as late as 1200 B.C. Others have used figures from the Bible to calculate Abraham's time backward from the Exodus.

Years

Chronological Information in Scripture

75	Abraham is 75 when leaving Haran (Gen. 12:4)
25	Abraham is 100 when Isaac is born (Gen. 21:5)
60	Isaac is 60 (and Abraham 160) when Jacob is born (Gen. 25:26)
130	These figures represent a period of 290 years between Abraham's birth and Jacob's arrival in Egypt.
430	Israel's stay in Egypt is reported to be 430 years (Ex. 12:40), a number that is rounded to 400 in Gen. 15:13.

Following the early date for the Exodus in 1446 B.C., Abraham's birth is calculated at 2166 B.C. (1446 + 290 + 430 = 2166), and his death 175 years later at 1991 B.C.

Following the late date for the Exodus in 1275 B.C., Abraham's birth is calculated at 1995 B.C. (1275 + 290 + 430 = 1995), and his death at 1820 B.C.

God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the way of truth to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. <sup>49</sup>Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."

<sup>50</sup>Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, "The thing comes from the LORD; we cannot speak to you either bad or good. <sup>51</sup>Here is Rebekah before you; take her and go, and let her be your master's son's wife, as the LORD has spoken."

<sup>52</sup>And it came to pass, when Abraham's servant heard their words, that he worshiped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth. <sup>53</sup>Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver, jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.

<sup>54</sup>And he and the men who were with him ate and drank and stayed all night. Then they arose in the morning, and he said, "Send me away to my master."

the young woman stay with us a few days, at least ten; after that she may go."

<sup>56</sup>And he said to them, "Do not hinder me, since the LORD has prospered my way; send me away so that I may go to my master."

<sup>57</sup>So they said, "We will call the young woman and ask her personally." <sup>58</sup>Then they called Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?"

And she said, "I will go."

<sup>60</sup>And they blessed Rebekah and said to her:

"Our sister, may you become

The mother of thousands of ten thousands;
And may your descendants possess
The gates of those who hate them."

<sup>61</sup>Then Rebekah and her maids arose, and they rode on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed.

<sup>62</sup>Now Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, for he dwelt in the South. <sup>63</sup>And Isaac went out to meditate in the field in the evening; and he lifted his eyes and looked, and there, the camels were coming. <sup>64</sup>Then Rebekah lifted her eyes, and when she saw Isaac she dismounted from her camel; <sup>65</sup>for she had said to the servant, "Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?"

The servant said, "It is my master." So she took a veil and covered herself.

<sup>66</sup>And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. <sup>67</sup>Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent; and he took Rebekah and she became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

TRANSITION

The Close of Abraham's Life

Genesis presents a concluding summary of Abraham's story before beginning that of his son Isaac and grandson Jacob. Abraham, who was 100 years old when Isaac was born, was 140 when Isaac married (Gen. 25:20) and 160 when Isaac fathered Jacob (25:26). Sometime during the 38 years between Sarah's death (Gen. 23:1) and his own, Abraham married Keturah (25:1), one of his concubines.

Ancient Near Eastern custom was for a man to divide his property among his sons before death. The major portion went to Isaac, Abraham's second son, born to his full wife Sarah, with smaller gifts to the other sons (25:5, 6). The Hebrew patriarch died at age 175 (25:7).

• Genesis 25:1—36:43

Genesis

Abraham and Keturah

25:1 Abraham again took a wife, and her name was Keturah.<sup>2</sup> And she bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.<sup>3</sup> Jokshan begot Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.<sup>4</sup> And the sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoah, Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

<sup>5</sup>And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac.<sup>6</sup> But Abraham gave gifts to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had; and while he was still living he sent them eastward, away from Isaac his son, to the country of the east.

Abraham's Death and Burial

<sup>7</sup>This is the sum of the years of Abraham's life which he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years.<sup>8</sup> Then Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, an old man and full of years, and was gathered to his people.<sup>9</sup> And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite,<sup>10</sup> the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife.<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass, after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac dwelt at Beer Lahai Roi.

The Families of Ishmael and Isaac

were the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: The first-born of Ishmael, Nebajoth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,<sup>14</sup> Mishma, Dumah, Massa,<sup>15</sup> Hadar,<sup>a</sup> Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.<sup>16</sup> These were the sons of Ishmael and these were their names, by their towns and their settlements, twelve princes according to their nations.<sup>17</sup> These were the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred and thirty-seven years; and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.<sup>18</sup> (They dwelt from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt as you go toward Assyria.) He died in the presence of all his brethren.

<sup>23</sup>And the LORD said to her:

"Two nations are in your womb,
Two peoples shall be separated from your body;
One people shall be stronger than the other,
And the older shall serve the younger."

<sup>27</sup>So the boys grew. And Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a mild man, dwelling in tents.<sup>28</sup> And Isaac loved Esau because he ate of his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Esau Sells His Birthright

<sup>29</sup>Now Jacob cooked a stew; and Esau came in from the field, and he was weary.<sup>30</sup> And Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am weary." Therefore his name was called Edom.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>31</sup>But Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright as of this day."

<sup>32</sup>And Esau said, "Look, I am about to die; so what is this birthright to me?"

<sup>33</sup>Then Jacob said, "Swear to me as of this day."

BURIED IN THE CAVE OF MACHPELAH (GEN. 25:9, 10)

Abraham purchased a field from a Hittite man named Ephron to bury his wife Sarah (Gen. 23:4). His interest in the field was due to the presence of a cave on that property (23:9), making this the only account in the Old Testament of using a cave as a burial site.

Abraham's purchase of the cave of Machpelah began a burial tradition continued by his descendants. Not only was Sarah buried in the cave, but Abraham himself was buried there when he died (Gen. 25:9, 10). Abraham's son Isaac was living nearby in Hebron shortly before his death (Gen. 35:27; see 23:19), and was buried in the cave along with Rebekah his wife (Gen. 49:31). Isaac's son Jacob buried his wife Leah there, and was himself interred in the cave of Machpelah by his sons, who returned his body from Egypt for that purpose (Gen. 49:29–33; 50:13).

Caves were usually used not as burial sites, but as places of refuge. When Lot and his daughters fled Sodom and had nowhere else to live, they inhabited a cave (Gen. 19:30). Five Amorite kings who were fighting against the Israelites fled during the battle to hide in the cave at Makkedah (Josh. 10:16). Because hiding from King Saul occupied much of David's early military life, he seems to have spent more time living in a cave than anywhere else (1 Sam. 22:1; 24:1–3). Even Elijah, when he ran from the angry Queen Jezebel, found refuge in a desert cave (1 Kin. 19:13).

In ancient times caves were only infrequently used for burials. In some periods cadavers were buried in the floor of houses, but during most periods tombs were carved from the soft limestone rock in the Palestinian hills or dug into the dirt. Most often burials were grouped together, much like our modern tradition of cemeteries. Like the cave of Machpelah, burials were often family affairs, and burial sites were used for generations.

With little effort ancient peoples could utilize caves as ready-made houses or storage areas. It seems that only rarely would they give up this use of caves by making them burial sites. Perhaps, due to Abraham's "landlessness" as a foreigner (23:4), his only recourse was to purchase a plot of land for the burial of his family, and the cave was a ready-made tomb for that purpose.

So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup>And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then he ate and drank, arose, and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Isaac and Abimelech

26 <sup>1</sup>There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, in Gerar.

<sup>2</sup>Then the LORD appeared to him and said: "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land of which I shall tell you. <sup>3</sup>Dwell in this land, and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and your descendants I give all these lands, and I will perform the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. <sup>4</sup>And I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands; and in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed; <sup>5</sup>because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws."

<sup>6</sup>So Isaac dwelt in Gerar. <sup>7</sup>And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, "She is my sister"; for he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," because he thought, "lest the men of the place kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to behold." <sup>8</sup>Now it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through a window, and saw, and there was Isaac, showing endearment to Rebekah his wife. <sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, "Quite obviously she is your wife; so how could you say, 'She is my sister'?"

Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die on account of her.'"

<sup>10</sup>And Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might soon have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us." <sup>11</sup>So Abimelech charged all his people, saying, "He who touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death."

<sup>17</sup>Then Isaac departed from there and pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. <sup>18</sup>And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He called them by the names which his father had called them.

with him. <sup>21</sup>Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also. So he called its name Sitnah.<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup>And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called its name Rehoboth,<sup>a</sup> because he said, “For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.”

<sup>23</sup>Then he went up from there to Beersheba. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD appeared to him the same night and said, “I am the God of your father Abraham; do not fear, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for My servant Abraham’s sake.” <sup>25</sup>So he built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD, and he pitched his tent there; and there Isaac’s servants dug a well.

<sup>26</sup>Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath, one of his friends, and Phichol the commander of his army. <sup>27</sup>And Isaac said to them, “Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?”

<sup>28</sup>But they said, “We have certainly seen that the LORD is with you. So we said, ‘Let there now be an oath between us, between you and us; and let us make a covenant with you, <sup>29</sup>that you will do us no harm, since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing to you but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessing of the LORD.’”

<sup>30</sup>So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank. <sup>31</sup>Then they arose early in the morning and swore an oath with one another; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

<sup>32</sup>It came to pass the same day that Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water.” <sup>33</sup>So he called it Shebah.<sup>a</sup> Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba<sup>b</sup> to this day.

<sup>34</sup>When Esau was forty years old, he took as wives Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. <sup>35</sup>And they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

Isaac Blesses Jacob

27 <sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass, when Isaac was old and his eyes were so dim that he could not see, that he called Esau his older son and said to him, “My son.”

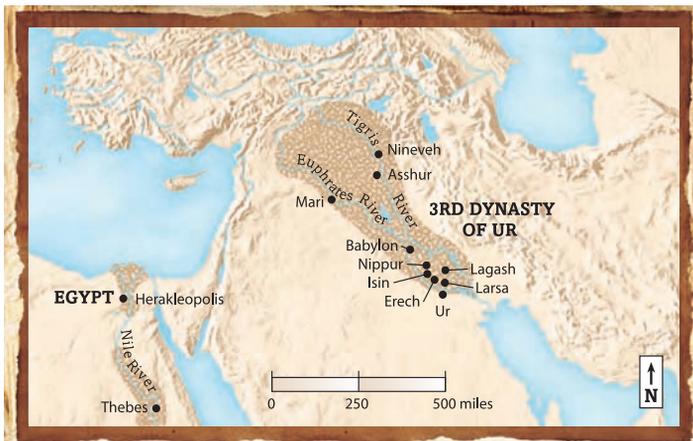

And he answered him, “Here I am.”

<sup>2</sup>Then he said, “Behold now, I am old. I do not know the day of my death. <sup>3</sup>Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me. <sup>4</sup>And make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die.”

<sup>5</sup>Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game and to bring it. <sup>6</sup>So Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, “Indeed I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, <sup>7</sup>‘Bring me game and make savory food for me, that I may eat it and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.’ <sup>8</sup>Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to what I command you. <sup>9</sup>Go now to the flock and bring me from there two choice kids of the goats, and I will make savory food from them for your father, such as he loves. <sup>10</sup>Then you shall take it to your father, that he may eat it, and that he may bless you before his death.”

<sup>11</sup>And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, “Look, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth-skinned man. <sup>12</sup>Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be a deceiver to him; and I shall bring a curse on myself and not a blessing.”

Changing Empires of the Near East

In Egypt the Old Kingdom was followed by civil strife between Herakleopolis and Thebes. Thebes eventually reunited Egypt in 2040 B.C. In Mesopotamia, Ur-Nammu founded the 3rd Dynasty of Ur (2112–2004 B.C.). As this great city-state declined, smaller kingdoms, such as Isin, Larsa, Asshur, Mari, and Babylon, asserted their independence from Ur’s control.

<sup>13</sup>But his mother said to him, “Let your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get them for me.” <sup>14</sup>And he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made savory food, such as his father loved. <sup>15</sup>Then Rebekah took the choice clothes of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son. <sup>16</sup>And she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck. <sup>17</sup>Then she gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

And he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”

<sup>19</sup>Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn; I have done just as you told me; please arise, sit and eat of my game, that your soul may bless me.”

<sup>20</sup>But Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?”

And he said, “Because the LORD your God brought it to me.”

<sup>21</sup>Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not.” <sup>22</sup>So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, “The voice is Jacob’s voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.” <sup>23</sup>And he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands; so he blessed him.

<sup>24</sup>Then he said, “Are you really my son Esau?”

He said, “I am.”

<sup>25</sup>He said, “Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son’s game, so that my soul may bless you.” So he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank. <sup>26</sup>Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come near now and kiss me, my son.” <sup>27</sup>And he came near and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him and said:

“Surely, the smell of my son
Is like the smell of a field
Which the LORD has blessed.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore may God give you
Of the dew of heaven,

Of the fatness of the earth,
And plenty of grain and wine.
<sup>29</sup> Let peoples serve you,
And nations bow down to you.
Be master over your brethren,
And let your mother’s sons bow down to you.
Cursed be everyone who curses you,
And blessed be those who bless you!”

Esau’s Lost Hope

<sup>30</sup>Now it happened, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup>He also had made savory food, and brought it to his father, and said to his father, “Let my father arise and eat of his son’s game, that your soul may bless me.”

So he said, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”

<sup>33</sup>Then Isaac trembled exceedingly, and said, “Who? Where is the one who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I have blessed him—and indeed he shall be blessed.”

<sup>34</sup>When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me—me also, O my father!”

<sup>35</sup>But he said, “Your brother came with deceit and has taken away your blessing.”

<sup>36</sup>And Esau said, “Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now look, he has taken away my blessing!” And he said, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”

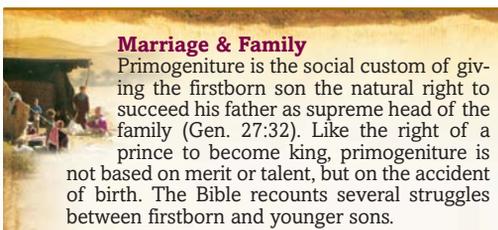

<sup>37</sup>Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, “Indeed I have made him your master, and all his brethren I have given to him as servants; with grain and wine I have sustained him. What shall I do now for you, my son?”

<sup>38</sup>And Esau said to his father, “Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me—me also, O my father!” And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

<sup>39</sup>Then Isaac his father answered and said to him:

“Behold, your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth,

And of the dew of heaven from above.
<sup>40</sup> By your sword you shall live,
And you shall serve your brother;
And it shall come to pass, when you become restless,

Marriage & Family

Primogeniture is the social custom of giving the firstborn son the natural right to succeed his father as supreme head of the family (Gen. 27:32). Like the right of a prince to become king, primogeniture is not based on merit or talent, but on the accident of birth. The Bible recounts several struggles between firstborn and younger sons.

That you shall break his yoke from your neck.”

Jacob Escapes from Esau

<sup>41</sup>So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then I will kill my brother Jacob.”

<sup>42</sup>And the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, “Surely your brother Esau comforts himself concerning you by intending to kill you. <sup>43</sup>Now therefore, my son, obey my voice: arise, flee to my brother Laban in Haran. <sup>44</sup>And stay with him a few days, until your brother’s fury turns away, <sup>45</sup>until your brother’s anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of you both in one day?”

<sup>46</sup>And Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth; if Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these who are the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?”

28 <sup>1</sup>Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, and said to him: “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>Arise, go to Padan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father; and take yourself a wife from there of the daughters of Laban your mother’s brother.

<sup>3</sup> “May God Almighty bless you,
And make you fruitful and multiply you,
That you may be an assembly of peoples;
<sup>4</sup> And give you the blessing of Abraham,
To you and your descendants with you,
That you may inherit the land
In which you are a stranger,
Which God gave to Abraham.”

<sup>5</sup>So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Padan Aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Esau Marries Mahalath

<sup>6</sup>Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Padan Aram to take himself a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,” <sup>7</sup>and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Padan Aram. <sup>8</sup>Also Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please his father

Isaac. <sup>9</sup>So Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.

Jacob’s Vow at Bethel

<sup>10</sup>Now Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup>So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep. <sup>12</sup>Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

<sup>13</sup>And behold, the LORD stood above it and said: “I am the LORD God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and your descendants. <sup>14</sup>Also your descendants shall be as the dust of the earth; you shall spread abroad to the west and the east, to the north and the south; and in you and in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed. <sup>15</sup>Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it.” <sup>17</sup>And he was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!”

<sup>18</sup>Then Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put at his head, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it. <sup>19</sup>And he called the name of that place Bethel;<sup>a</sup> but the name of that city had been Luz previously. <sup>20</sup>Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me, and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on, <sup>21</sup>so that I come back to my father’s house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God. <sup>22</sup>And this stone which I have set as a pillar shall be God’s

THE MARI TABLET TOWNS (GEN. 28:10)

It is not known exactly when the patriarchs lived. Estimates for dating Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob range from about 2100 to 1800 B.C. Such dates would locate the patriarchal period sometime before, or simultaneous with, the Mari tablets, which themselves have been placed between 1813 and 1760 B.C.

Mari was once a powerful city located about halfway between Babylon and the Mediterranean Sea. Situated on the banks of the Euphrates River, Mari became rich through trading. Although the city is not named in the Bible, it is well known today because a large archive of official documents, now called the Mari tablets, was discovered there.

More than 20,000 clay tablets written in the Accadian language were dug up at the excavation site. The royal palace of Zimri-Lim, the last king of Mari, had more than 300 rooms, and it was in these rooms that archaeologists found the tablets.

Mari was very powerful for several hundred years, up to 1760 B.C., when it was destroyed by Hammurabi of Babylon. Hammurabi took away many documents, especially treaties and works on religion, before he abandoned the library. What remains is an extensive record dealing with many aspects of government.

The royal palace kept all kinds of administrative records, including lists of supplies, purchases, and expenses. Supplies and accounts for the women of the palace and the harem were kept separately. There are many letters to and from other cities.

The Mari tablets frequently mention the cities of Nahor and Haran. Both Abraham (Gen. 11:31) and Jacob (27:43; 28:10) lived in Haran at separate times during their lives. Abraham's servant is reported to have traveled to Nahor (24:10). Since cities mentioned in the Mari tablets are also named in the patriarchal stories, it is possible that the tablets reflect aspects of the culture known by the patriarchs.

house, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You.”

Jacob Meets Rachel

29 <sup>1</sup>So Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of the people of the East. <sup>2</sup>And he looked, and saw a well in the field; and behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. A large stone was on the well's mouth. <sup>3</sup>Now all the flocks would be gathered there; and they would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well's mouth.

<sup>4</sup>And Jacob said to them, “My brethren, where are you from?”

And they said, “We are from Haran.”

<sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, “Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?”

And they said, “We know him.”

<sup>6</sup>So he said to them, “Is he well?”

And they said, “He is well. And look, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep.”

<sup>7</sup>Then he said, “Look, it is still high day; it is not time for the cattle to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them.”

<sup>8</sup>But they said, “We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.”

<sup>9</sup>Now while he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess. <sup>10</sup>And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. <sup>11</sup>Then Jacob kissed

Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. <sup>12</sup>And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's relative and that he was Rebekah's son. So she ran and told her father.

<sup>13</sup>Then it came to pass, when Laban heard the report about Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. So he told Laban all these things. <sup>14</sup>And Laban said to him, “Surely you are my bone and my flesh.” And he stayed with him for a month.

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

<sup>15</sup>Then Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what should your wages be?”

<sup>16</sup>Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. <sup>17</sup>Leah's eyes were delicate, but Rachel was beautiful of form and appearance.

<sup>18</sup>Now Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, “I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter.”

<sup>19</sup>And Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me.” <sup>20</sup>So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed only a few days to him because of the love he had for her.

<sup>21</sup>Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to her.” <sup>22</sup>And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast. <sup>23</sup>Now it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her. <sup>24</sup>And Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah as a maid. <sup>25</sup>So it came to pass in the morning, that behold, it was Leah. And he said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served you? Why then have you deceived me?”

<sup>26</sup>And Laban said, “It must not be done so in our country, to give the younger before the first-born. <sup>27</sup>Fulfill her week, and we will give you this one also for the service which you will serve with me still another seven years.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Jacob did so and fulfilled her week. So he gave him his daughter Rachel as wife also. <sup>29</sup>And Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as a maid. <sup>30</sup>Then Jacob also went in to Rachel, and he also loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served with Laban still another seven years.

The Children of Jacob

<sup>31</sup>When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, He opened her womb; but Rachel was barren. <sup>32</sup>So Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben,<sup>a</sup> for she said, “The LORD has surely looked on my affliction. Now therefore, my husband will love me.” <sup>33</sup>Then she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Because the LORD has heard that I am unloved, He has therefore given me this son also.” And she called his name Simeon.<sup>a</sup> <sup>34</sup>She conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Now this time my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore his name was called Levi.<sup>a</sup> <sup>35</sup>And she conceived again and bore a son, and said,

“Now I will praise the LORD.” Therefore she called his name Judah.<sup>a</sup> Then she stopped bearing.

30 <sup>1</sup>Now when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and said to Jacob, “Give me children, or else I die!”

<sup>2</sup>And Jacob's anger was aroused against Rachel, and he said, “Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”

<sup>3</sup>So she said, “Here is my maid Bilhah; go in to her, and she will bear a child on my knees, that I also may have children by her.” <sup>4</sup>Then she gave him Bilhah her maid as wife, and Jacob went in to her. <sup>5</sup>And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son. <sup>6</sup>Then Rachel said, “God has judged my case; and He has also heard my voice and given me a son.” Therefore she called his name Dan.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Now Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son's mandrakes.”

<sup>15</sup>But she said to her, “Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes also?”

JACOB IN EGYPT (EARLY EXODUS)

And Rachel said, “Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>16</sup>When Jacob came out of the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” And he lay with her that night.

<sup>17</sup>And God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son. <sup>18</sup>Leah said, “God has given me my wages, because I have given my maid to my husband.” So she called his name Issachar.<sup>a</sup> <sup>19</sup>Then Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son. <sup>20</sup>And Leah said, “God has endowed me with a good endowment; now my husband will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons.” So she called his name Zebulun.<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>Afterward she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

<sup>22</sup>Then God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb. <sup>23</sup>And she conceived and bore a son, and said, “God has taken away my reproach.” <sup>24</sup>So she called his name Joseph,<sup>a</sup> and said, “The LORD shall add to me another son.”

Jacob’s Agreement with Laban

<sup>25</sup>And it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my country. <sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service which I have done for you.”

<sup>27</sup>And Laban said to him, “Please stay, if I have found favor in your eyes, for I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake.” <sup>28</sup>Then he said, “Name me your wages, and I will give it.”

<sup>29</sup>So Jacob said to him, “You know how I have served you and how your livestock has been with me. <sup>30</sup>For what you had before I came was little, and it has increased to a great amount; the LORD has blessed you since my coming. And now, when shall I also provide for my own house?”

<sup>31</sup>So he said, “What shall I give you?”

And Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flocks: <sup>32</sup>Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from there all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and these shall be my wages. <sup>33</sup>So my righteousness will answer for me in time to come, when the subject of my wages comes before you: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the lambs, will be considered stolen, if it is with me.”

<sup>34</sup>And Laban said, “Oh, that it were according to your word!” <sup>35</sup>So he removed that day the male goats that were speckled and spotted, all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had some white in it, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and gave them into the hand of his sons. <sup>36</sup>Then he put three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.

<sup>37</sup>Now Jacob took for himself rods of green poplar and of the almond and chestnut trees, peeled white strips in them, and exposed the white which was in the rods. <sup>38</sup>And the rods which he had peeled, he set before the flocks in the gutters, in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, so that they should conceive when they came to drink. <sup>39</sup>So the flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted. <sup>40</sup>Then Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face toward the streaked and all the brown in the flock of Laban; but he put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them with Laban’s flock.

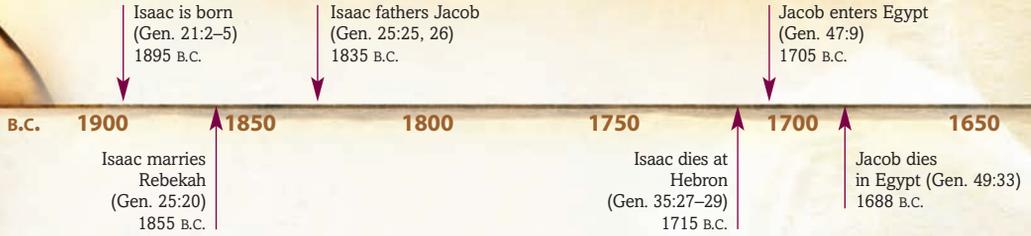

<sup>41</sup>And it came to pass, whenever the stronger livestock conceived, that Jacob placed the rods before the eyes of the livestock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods. <sup>42</sup>But when the flocks were feeble, he did not put them in; so the feebler were Laban’s and the stronger Jacob’s. <sup>43</sup>Thus the man became exceedingly prosperous, and had large flocks, female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Jacob Flees from Laban

31 Now Jacob heard the words of Laban’s sons, saying, “Jacob has taken away all that was our father’s, and from what was our father’s he has acquired all this wealth.” <sup>2</sup>And Jacob saw the countenance of Laban, and indeed it was not favorable toward him as before. <sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to Jacob, “Return to the land of your fathers and to your family, and I will be with you.”

<sup>4</sup>So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field, to his flock, <sup>5</sup>and said to them, “I see your father’s countenance, that it is not favorable toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup>And you know that with all my might I have served your father. <sup>7</sup>Yet your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to hurt me. <sup>8</sup>If he said thus: ‘The speckled shall be your wages,’ then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said thus: ‘The streaked shall be your wages,’ then all the flocks bore streaked. <sup>9</sup>So God has taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.

<sup>10</sup>“And it happened, at the time when the flocks conceived, that I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams which leaped upon the flocks were streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted. <sup>11</sup>Then the Angel of God spoke to me in a dream, saying, ‘Jacob.’ And I said, ‘Here I am.’ <sup>12</sup>And He said, ‘Lift your eyes now and see, all the rams which leap on the flocks are streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted; for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you. <sup>13</sup>I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar and where you made a vow to Me. Now arise, get out of this land, and return to the land of your family.’”

<sup>14</sup>Then Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, “Is there still any portion or inheritance for us in our father’s house? <sup>15</sup>Are we not considered strangers by him? For he has sold us, and also completely consumed our money. <sup>16</sup>For all these riches which God has taken from our father are really ours and our children’s; now then, whatever God has said to you, do it.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Jacob rose and set his sons and his wives on camels. <sup>18</sup>And he carried away all his livestock and all his possessions which he had gained, his acquired livestock which he had gained in Padan Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan. <sup>19</sup>Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel had stolen the household idols that were her father’s. <sup>20</sup>And Jacob stole away, unknown to Laban the Syrian, in that he did not tell him that he intended to flee. <sup>21</sup>So he fled with all that he had. He arose and crossed the river, and headed toward the mountains of Gilead.

Laban Pursues Jacob

<sup>22</sup>And Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had fled. <sup>23</sup>Then he took his brethren with him and pursued him for seven days’ journey, and he overtook him in the mountains of Gilead. <sup>24</sup>But God had come to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said to him, “Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.”

<sup>26</sup>And Laban said to Jacob: “What have you done, that you have stolen away unknown to me, and carried away my daughters like captives taken with the sword? <sup>27</sup>Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me, and not tell me; for I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with timbrel and harp? <sup>28</sup>And you did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters. Now you have done foolishly in so doing. <sup>29</sup>It is in

Health & Medicine

A mandrake (Gen. 30:14) is a small plant that blooms in the spring and has roots resembling a person’s legs. It was by reputation an aphrodisiac, or aid to physical passion. Plants get their reputations as medicines or potions sometimes from science and sometimes from tradition or superstition, or from a mixture of these.

FAMILY LEADERSHIP AND HOUSEHOLD GODS (GEN. 31:30–34)

One of the most curious stories of the patriarchal accounts is the theft of Laban's gods by his daughter Rachel (Gen. 31:19). What makes this story seem so out of place is that these gods are never mentioned again after this episode, nor were they mentioned previously. Another oddity is Laban's insistence on finding the gods (31:33–35). After all, they were probably made of clay like the hundreds of household gods that have been found in archaeological excavations and had little intrinsic value.

Laban's accusation provoked reaction from Jacob centered on his mistreatment while with Laban (31:38–41). Jacob went so far as to claim that it was God alone who provided his wealth; he got nothing from Laban (31:42). Laban disputed that claim and suggested that all that Jacob possessed, including his wives, was actually Laban's (31:43). Certainly the two men could not agree on who owned what!

Conciliation was reached by making a covenant and establishing a boundary between Laban and Jacob (31:44–52). Since it was Laban who suggested the pillar of stones as a protective barrier, we can suppose that he had some fear of Jacob, even though it was Laban who had until this time been pursuing Jacob.

The story presents various puzzles: Laban's determination to recover the household gods; both men's claim of ownership of the wives, children and flocks; Laban's initiation of a boundary. Understanding these puzzles is helped by evidence that household gods served a purpose in addition to that of worship. Information gathered from one ancient tablet found at the 2nd millennium B.C. city of Nuzi suggests that, at times, household gods were used as evidence of family leadership.

The claim to leadership enlightens some aspects of this story. It explains why Rachel stole the gods: to give her husband the position of tribal leader. Why Laban was so insistent on getting them back: to make sure one of his own sons would become the family chief. Why Laban wanted to erect a boundary between Jacob and himself: to make sure that Jacob never returned with the household gods to claim the first rights to the family holdings.

my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.'<sup>30</sup>And now you have surely gone because you greatly long for your father's house, but why did you steal my gods?<sup>29</sup>

<sup>31</sup>Then Jacob answered and said to Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I said, 'Perhaps you would take your daughters from me by force.'<sup>32</sup>With whomever you find your gods, do not let him live. In the presence of our brethren, identify what I have of yours and take it with you." For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jacob was angry and rebuked Laban, and Jacob answered and said to Laban: "What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued me?<sup>37</sup>Although you have searched all my things, what part of your household things have you found? Set it here before my brethren and your brethren, that they may judge between us both!<sup>38</sup>These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock.<sup>39</sup>That which was tor<sup>n</sup> by beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it. You required it from my hand, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.<sup>40</sup>There I was! In the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep departed from my eyes.<sup>41</sup>Thus I have been in your house twenty years; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.<sup>42</sup>Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night."

Laban's Covenant with Jacob

<sup>43</sup>And Laban answered and said to Jacob, "These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and this flock is my flock; all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?<sup>44</sup>Now therefore, come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me."

LABAN OF ARAM-NAHARAIM (GEN. 31:47)

Padan Aram, also known as Aram-naharaim, was the home of Laban, a descendant of Abraham’s brother Nahor (Gen. 28:2). Meaning literally “Aram between the Rivers,” Aram-naharaim was the geographic name for upper Mesopotamia—the region between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers. Egyptian sources, including the Amarna archives from the 14th century, referred to the region as Naharina (without the ‘Aram’ prefix). English translations often translate it as “Mesopotamia” (Deut. 23:4).

Laban is described as an “Aramean” (Gen. 28:5, translated “Syrian” in the NKJV). The ethnic group known as the Arameans are not mentioned as inhabitants of this area until the 12th century B.C. But in the early 1st millennium B.C. numerous Aramean states were found in eastern Syria, and many individual Aramean tribes were causing great difficulty for both the Assyrian and Babylonian kingdoms in Mesopotamia.

When Laban speaks the words “Jegar Sahadutha,” he is saying “Heap of Witness” in the Aramaic language (Gen. 31:47). Until the 1st millennium, Aramaic (a Semitic language closely related to biblical Hebrew) was spoken primarily by people from Aramean states. The Assyrians found Aramaic a convenient language for administering their conquered areas, thus it became an official language in portions of the Neo-Assyrian Empire from the 8th century on. The use of Aramaic spread until it later became the international language of commerce during the period of the Persian Empire’s dominance (c. 559–331 B.C.).

The figure of Laban from upper Mesopotamia represents a people that had great influence on their world. The Arameans did not establish major kingdoms, as did the Assyrians and Babylonians. Nevertheless, the adjective “Aramean” was used long after the Aramean political states no longer existed. They left their mark through their language. Although Aramaic was later replaced by Greek in the Mediterranean world, the language continued to be used in the Near East by the Parthians (after 200 B.C.) and could be found as far east as India. It was the primary language of Palestine during the time of Jesus.

when we are absent one from another. <sup>50</sup>If you afflict my daughters, or if you take other wives besides my daughters, although no man is with us—see, God is witness between you and me!”

<sup>51</sup>Then Laban said to Jacob, “Here is this heap and here is this pillar, which I have placed between you and me. <sup>52</sup>This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you, and you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. <sup>53</sup>The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their father judge between us.” And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac. <sup>54</sup>Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brethren to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night on the mountain. <sup>55</sup>And early in the morning Laban arose, and kissed his sons and daughters and blessed them. Then Laban departed and returned to his place.

Esau Comes to Meet Jacob

32 <sup>1</sup>So Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. <sup>2</sup>When Jacob saw them, he said, “This is God’s camp.” And he called the name of that place Mahanaim.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Then the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he also is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.” <sup>7</sup>So Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies. <sup>8</sup>And he said, “If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it, then the other company which is left will escape.”

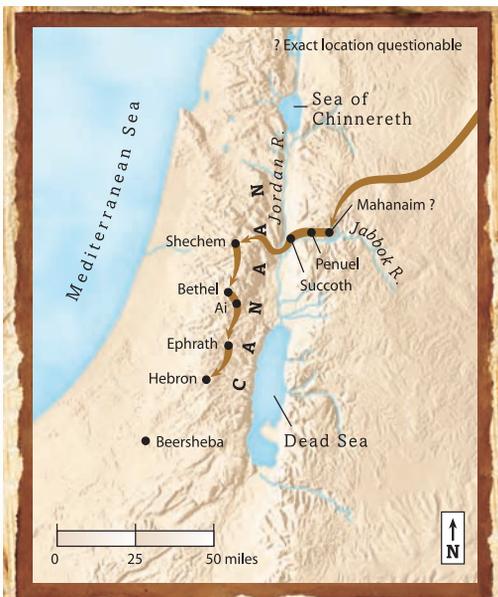

<sup>9</sup>Then Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your family, and I will deal well with you’: <sup>10</sup>I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth which You have shown Your servant; for I crossed over this Jordan with my staff, and now I have become two companies. <sup>11</sup>Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the <sup>13</sup>So he lodged there that same night, and took what came to his hand as a present for Esau his brother: <sup>14</sup>two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, <sup>15</sup>thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals. <sup>16</sup>Then he delivered them to the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass over before me, and put some distance between successive drives.” <sup>17</sup>And he commanded the first one, saying, “When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going? Whose are these in front of you?’ <sup>18</sup>then you shall say, ‘They are your servant Jacob’s. It is a present sent to my lord Esau; and behold, he also is behind us.’” <sup>19</sup>So he commanded the second, the third, and all who followed the drives, saying, “In this manner you shall speak to Esau when you find him; <sup>20</sup>and also say, ‘Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us.’” For he said, “I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me.” <sup>21</sup>So the present went on over before him, but he himself lodged that night in the camp.

Jacob Returns to Canaan

After 20 years in northern Mesopotamia, Jacob returned to Canaan. He encountered the angels of God at Mahanaim and wrestled with a messenger of God at Penuel.

Wrestling with God

But he said, “I will not let You go unless You bless me!”

<sup>27</sup>So He said to him, “What is your name?”

He said, “Jacob.”

<sup>28</sup>And He said, “Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel;<sup>a</sup> for you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Jacob asked, saying, “Tell me Your name, I pray.”

And He said, “Why is it that you ask about My name?” And He blessed him there.

Jacob and Esau Meet

33 <sup>1</sup>Now Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and there, Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants. <sup>2</sup>And he put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last. <sup>3</sup>Then he crossed over before them and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

<sup>4</sup>But Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept. <sup>5</sup>And he lifted his eyes and saw the women and children, and said, “Who are these with you?”

So he said, “The children whom God has graciously given your servant.” <sup>6</sup>Then the maidservants came near, they and their children, and bowed down. <sup>7</sup>And Leah also came near with her children, and they bowed down. Afterward Joseph and Rachel came near, and they bowed down.

<sup>8</sup>Then Esau said, “What do you mean by all this company which I met?”

And he said, “These are to find favor in the sight of my lord.”

<sup>9</sup>But Esau said, “I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself.”

<sup>10</sup>And Jacob said, “No, please, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present from my hand, inasmuch as I have seen your face as though I had seen the face of God, and you were pleased with me. <sup>11</sup>Please, take my blessing that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough.” So he urged him, and he took it.

<sup>12</sup>Then Esau said, “Let us take our journey; let us go, and I will go before you.”

<sup>13</sup>But Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are weak, and the flocks and herds which are nursing are with me. And if the men should drive them hard one day, all the flock will die. <sup>14</sup>Please let my lord go on ahead before his servant. I will lead on slowly at a pace which the livestock that go before me, and the children, are able to endure, until I come to my lord in Seir.”

<sup>15</sup>And Esau said, “Now let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.”

But he said, “What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.” <sup>16</sup>So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir. <sup>17</sup>And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.<sup>a</sup>

Jacob Comes to Canaan

<sup>18</sup>Then Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram; and he pitched his tent before the city. <sup>19</sup>And he bought the parcel of land, where he had pitched his tent, from the children of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for one hundred pieces of money. <sup>20</sup>Then he erected an altar there and called it El Eloe Israel.<sup>a</sup>

The Dinah Incident

34 <sup>1</sup>Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. <sup>2</sup>And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her and lay with her, and violated her. <sup>3</sup>His soul was strongly attracted to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young woman and spoke kindly to the young woman. <sup>4</sup>So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, “Get me this young woman as a wife.”

<sup>5</sup>And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter. Now his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Jacob held his peace until they came. <sup>6</sup>Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. <sup>7</sup>And the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it; and the men were grieved and very angry, because he had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob’s daughter, a thing which ought not to be done. <sup>8</sup>But Hamor spoke with them, saying, “The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. <sup>9</sup>And make marriages with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters to yourselves. <sup>10</sup>So you shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you. Dwell and trade in it, and acquire possessions for yourselves in it.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Shechem said to her father and her brothers, “Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give. <sup>12</sup>Ask me ever so much dowry and gift, and I will give according to what you say to me; but give me the young woman as a wife.”

and Hamor his father, and spoke deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister. <sup>14</sup>And they said to them, “We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a reproach to us. <sup>15</sup>But on this condition we will consent to you: If you will become as we are, if every male of you is circumcised, <sup>16</sup>then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us; and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. <sup>17</sup>But if you will not heed us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and be gone.”

<sup>20</sup>And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city, and spoke with the men of their city, saying: <sup>21</sup>“These men are at peace with us. Therefore let them dwell in the land and trade in it. For indeed the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us as wives, and let us give them our daughters. <sup>22</sup>Only on this condition will the men consent to dwell with us, to be one people: if every male among us is circumcised as they are circumcised. <sup>23</sup>Will not their livestock, their property, and every animal of theirs be ours? Only let us consent to them, and they will dwell with us.” <sup>24</sup>And all who went out of the gate of his city heeded Hamor and Shechem his son; every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

<sup>25</sup>Now it came to pass on the third day, when they were in pain, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brothers, each took his sword and came boldly upon the city and killed all the males. <sup>26</sup>And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem’s house, and went out. <sup>27</sup>The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because their sister had been defiled. <sup>28</sup>They took their sheep, their oxen, and their donkeys, what was in the city and what was in the field, <sup>29</sup>and all their wealth. All their little ones and their wives they took captive; and they plundered even all that was in the houses.

<sup>30</sup>Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have troubled me by making me obnoxious among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and since I am few in number, they will gather themselves together against me and kill me. I shall be destroyed, my household and I.”

<sup>31</sup>But they said, “Should he treat our sister like a harlot?”

Jacob’s Return to Bethel

35 <sup>1</sup>Then God said to Jacob, “Arise, go up to Bethel and dwell there; and make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother.”

<sup>2</sup>And Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, “Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, and change your garments. <sup>3</sup>Then let us arise and go up to Bethel; and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me in the way which I have gone.” <sup>4</sup>So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the terebinth tree which was by Shechem.

<sup>5</sup>And they journeyed, and the terror of God was upon the cities that were all around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob. <sup>6</sup>So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. <sup>7</sup>And he built an altar there and called the place El Bethel,<sup>a</sup> because there God appeared to him when he fled from the face of his brother.

<sup>9</sup>Then God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Padan Aram, and blessed him. <sup>10</sup>And God said to him, “Your name is Jacob; your name shall not be called Jacob anymore, but Israel shall be your name.” So He called his name Israel. <sup>11</sup>Also God said to him: “I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall proceed from you, and kings shall come from your body. <sup>12</sup>The land which I gave Abraham and Isaac I give to you; and to your descendants after you I give this land.” <sup>13</sup>Then God went up from him in the place where He talked with him. <sup>14</sup>So Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it. <sup>15</sup>And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Bethel.

Architecture & Building

Pillars of stone are the oldest kind of monument (Gen. 35:14). There are more than 3,000 stone pillars at Carnac, France, from before 2000 B.C. When no writing accompanies a pillar, its meaning usually cannot be recovered. The pyramids and obelisks of Egypt are in effect elaborations of the pillar. Not all carved obelisks have writing on them.

BENJAMIN—SONS OF THE SOUTH (GEN. 35:18)

Benjamin was the youngest son of the biblical patriarch Jacob. Among the twelve tribes of Israel, the tribe of Benjamin bears his name as its tribal ancestor. Members of this tribe are thus called “Benjaminites” or “Benjaminites,” among whom the most famous were Saul, the first king of Israel (1 Sam. 9:1, 2), and Paul the apostle (Phil. 3:4, 5).

In the biblical narrative of Benjamin’s birth, the baby is named by the mother as she was dying in childbirth. The name Rachel gave her son, “Ben-Oni,” means “son of my sorrow.” But the father, Jacob, named the baby “Benjamin” (Gen. 35:18). The English syllables “jamin” translate a Hebrew word meaning “right hand” or “south.” (In Israel, the south is on the right-hand side as a person faces the east.) Thus the name “Benjamin” meant “son of the right hand” or “son of the south.”

Another tribe with a similar name is known from ancient times. Clay tablets from the Amorite site of Mari in Syria give evidence that a tribe called “Bene-yamina” existed around 1800 B.C. The Bene-yamina were an unruly seminomadic group that were causing concern for Mari’s king, Zimri-Lim.

The original meaning of the names “Benjamin” and “Bene-yamina” is undeniably the same; both mean literally “sons of the south.” Nevertheless, there is no connection between the Israelite tribe and the tribe mentioned in the Mari sources. However, the similar names do suggest that both groups had a Semitic heritage and that “Benjamin” may very well have been a popular name for tribes in the Middle Bronze Age (2000–1500 B.C.).

when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath, Rachel labored in childbirth, and she had hard labor. <sup>17</sup>Now it came to pass, when she was in hard labor, that the midwife said to her, “Do not fear; you will have this son also.” <sup>18</sup>And so it was, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she called his name Ben-Oni;<sup>a</sup> but his father called him Benjamin.<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). <sup>20</sup>And Jacob set a pillar on her grave, which is the pillar of Rachel’s grave to this day.

<sup>21</sup>Then Israel journeyed and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder. <sup>22</sup>And it happened, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father’s concubine; and Israel heard about it.

Jacob’s Twelve Sons

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve: <sup>23</sup>the sons of Leah were Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun; <sup>24</sup>the sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin; <sup>25</sup>the sons of Bilhah, Rachel’s maidservant, were Dan and Naphtali; <sup>26</sup>and the sons of Zilpah, Leah’s maidservant, were Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Padan Aram.

Death of Isaac

<sup>27</sup>Then Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, or Kirjath Arba<sup>a</sup> (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had dwelt. <sup>28</sup>Now the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years. <sup>29</sup>So Isaac breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people, being old and full of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

The Family of Esau

<sup>12</sup>Now Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz, Esau’s son, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Adah, Esau’s wife.

<sup>14</sup>These were the sons of Aholibamah, Esau’s wife, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon. And she bore to Esau: Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah.

THE HORITES OF MOUNT SEIR (GEN. 36:21)

At one time, Seir and Edom were possibly two separate geographical regions. Seir was a mountainous region; Edom was part of the Transjordanian plateau. Eventually Seir became a part of the Edomite state, and the names “Seir” and “Edom” came to be used interchangeably.

Two different peoples—the Horites and the Edomites—lived in this area known as Seir and Edom. The Horite genealogy in Gen. 36:20–30 is distinct from the Edomite genealogy in Gen. 36:9–19. The Horites appear to have been a more pastoral people, different from the agricultural Edomites. In the Bible the Horites are described as a group of tribes who inhabited the mountains of Seir until they were displaced by the Edomites (Gen. 14:6; Deut. 2:12, 22).

When in the 19th century scholars discovered a people called the Hurrians, they assumed a connection between Hurrians and the biblical Horites. But Hurrians were a cultural and political force in north Syria and the Tigris area, and their whereabouts in the northern regions does not correspond with the Horite association with Mount Seir.

The Horites should not be confused with either the Edomites or the Hurrians. All that can be determined about them now is that they were very early inhabitants of Seir.

The Chiefs of Edom

<sup>17</sup>These were the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, and Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

<sup>18</sup>And these were the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jaalam, and Chief Korah. These were the chiefs who descended from Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah. <sup>19</sup>These were the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these were their chiefs.

The Sons of Seir

These were the chiefs of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.

The Kings of Edom

<sup>31</sup>Now these were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel: <sup>32</sup>Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah. <sup>33</sup>And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place. <sup>34</sup>When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. <sup>35</sup>And when Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who attacked Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Avith. <sup>36</sup>When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. <sup>37</sup>And when Samlah died, Saul of Rehoboth-by-the-River reigned in his place. <sup>38</sup>When Saul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. <sup>39</sup>And when Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor died, Hadar<sup>c</sup> reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pau.<sup>b</sup> His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

The Chiefs of Esau

EGYPT IN THE MIDDLE BRONZE AGE

The spread of the Amorite peoples evidently reached even to Egypt. After several prosperous centuries, the Middle Kingdom of Egypt ended, and the land again began to break up politically. In the Second Intermediate Period (1786–1550 B.C.) of Egyptian history, as in the First Intermediate Period, foreigners entered Egypt from Asia and settled in the Nile Delta (see “The Changing of the Empires” at Gen. 12:1). Eventually, Egypt fell under the control of these outsiders, a Semitic people, known as the Hyksos (meaning “foreign chiefs”). Although much despised by the native Egyptians, the Hyksos maintained their control from about 1648 to 1540 B.C., even expanding Egypt’s control north into Palestine, which became an Egyptian province.

TRANSITION

Joseph—a Hebrew in Egypt

The significance of the Hyksos dynasty for the Joseph narratives of Gen. 37–50 is debated. Some claim that Joseph’s rise to power and the Hebrews’ entry into Egypt took place during this time, while others say that the patriarchs must have entered Egypt earlier. In either case, an Egyptian dynasty with Semitic roots would have been a less hostile environment for the Hebrews, and might have contributed to their growth upon arriving there (Ex. 1:7).

Genesis

Joseph Dreams of Greatness

37:1 Now Jacob dwelt in the land where his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>This is the history of Jacob.

Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the lad was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father’s wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to his father.

<sup>3</sup>Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. Also he made him a tunic of many colors. <sup>4</sup>But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.

<sup>5</sup>Now Joseph had a dream, and he told it to his brothers; and they hated him even more. <sup>6</sup>So he said to them, “Please hear this dream which I have dreamed: <sup>7</sup>There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Then behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and indeed your sheaves stood all around and bowed down to my sheaf.”

<sup>8</sup>And his brothers said to him, “Shall you indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have dominion over us?” So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

<sup>9</sup>Then he dreamed still another dream and told it to his brothers, and said, “Look, I have dreamed another dream. And this time, the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bowed down to me.”

<sup>10</sup>So he told it to his father and his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him,

“What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall your mother and I and your brothers indeed come to bow down to the earth before you?” <sup>11</sup>And his brothers envied him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Joseph Sold by His Brothers

<sup>12</sup>Then his brothers went to feed their father’s flock in Shechem. <sup>13</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, “Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, I will send you to them.”

So he said to him, “Here I am.”

<sup>14</sup>Then he said to him, “Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me.” So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem.

<sup>15</sup>Now a certain man found him, and there he was, wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, “What are you seeking?”

<sup>16</sup>So he said, “I am seeking my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding their flocks.”

<sup>17</sup>And the man said, “They have departed from here, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’” So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.

<sup>18</sup>Now when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him. <sup>19</sup>Then they said to one another, “Look, this dreamer is coming! <sup>20</sup>Come therefore, let us now kill him and cast him into some pit; and we shall say, ‘Some wild beast has devoured him.’ We shall see what will become of his dreams!”

<sup>21</sup>But Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, “Let us not kill him.” <sup>22</sup>And Reuben said to them, “Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit which is in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him”—that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father.

<sup>23</sup>So it came to pass, when Joseph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the tunic of many colors that was on him. <sup>24</sup>Then they took him and cast him into a pit. And the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

<sup>25</sup>And they sat down to eat a meal. Then they lifted their eyes and looked, and there was a company of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry them down to Egypt.

<sup>26</sup>So Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is there if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?

<sup>27</sup>Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother and our flesh.” And his brothers listened. <sup>28</sup>Then Midianite traders passed by; so the brothers pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup>Then Reuben returned to the pit, and indeed Joseph was not in the pit; and he tore his clothes. <sup>30</sup>And he returned to his brothers and said, “The lad is no more; and I, where shall I go?”

<sup>31</sup>So they took Joseph’s tunic, killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the tunic in the blood. <sup>32</sup>Then they sent the tunic of many colors, and they brought it to their father and said, “We have found this. Do you know whether it is your son’s tunic or not?”

<sup>33</sup>And he recognized it and said, “It is my son’s tunic. A wild beast has devoured him. Without doubt Joseph is torn to pieces.” <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob tore his clothes, put sackcloth on his waist, and mourned for his son many days. <sup>35</sup>And all his sons and all his daughters arose to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, and he said, “For I shall go down into the grave to my son in mourning.” Thus his father wept for him.

Joseph Goes to Egypt

Joseph searched for his brothers, eventually finding them at Dothan. His brothers sold him to a caravan of Midianites passing by en route from Gilead to Egypt.

Judah and Tamar

38 <sup>1</sup>It came to pass at that time that Judah departed from his brothers, and visited a certain Adullamite whose name was Hirah. <sup>2</sup>And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua, and he married her and went in to her. <sup>3</sup>So she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er. <sup>4</sup>She conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan. <sup>5</sup>And she conceived yet again and bore a son, and called his name Shelah. He was at Chezib when she bore him.

<sup>6</sup>Then Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. <sup>7</sup>But Er, Judah’s firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD killed him. <sup>8</sup>And Judah said to Onan, “Go in to your brother’s wife and marry her, and raise up an heir to your brother.” <sup>9</sup>But Onan knew that the heir would not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in to his brother’s wife, that he emitted on the ground, lest he should give an heir to his brother. <sup>10</sup>And the thing which he did displeased the LORD; therefore He killed him also.

<sup>11</sup>Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, “Remain a widow in your father’s house till my son Shelah is grown.” For he said, “Lest he also die like his brothers.” And Tamar went and dwelt in her father’s house.

<sup>12</sup>Now in the process of time the daughter of Shua, Judah’s wife, died; and Judah was comforted, and went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. <sup>13</sup>And it was told Tamar, saying, “Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.” <sup>14</sup>So she took off her widow’s garments, covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place which was on the way to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given to him as a wife. <sup>15</sup>When Judah saw her, he thought she was a harlot, because she had covered her face. <sup>16</sup>Then he turned to her by the way, and said, “Please let me come in to you”; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.

So she said, “What will you give me, that you may come in to me?”

<sup>17</sup>And he said, “I will send a young goat from the flock.”

So she said, “Will you give me a pledge till you send it?”

THE OLD BABYLONIAN PERIOD

Mesopotamia during the Old Babylonian period was characterized by various warring dynasties, each struggling for power over one another. Before this time, the strongest empire of southern Babylonia had been the 3rd Dynasty of Ur. The Ur dynasty was succeeded by others—primarily Isin and Larsa. Yet even these two dynasties did not last, eventually falling to Hammurabi, the greatest ruler of the time.

So she said, “Your signet and cord, and your staff that is in your hand.” Then he gave them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him. <sup>19</sup>So she arose and went away, and laid aside her veil and put on the garments of her widowhood.

<sup>20</sup>And Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman’s hand, but he did not find her. <sup>21</sup>Then he asked the men of that place, saying, “Where is the harlot who was openly by the roadside?”

And they said, “There was no harlot in this place.”

<sup>22</sup>So he returned to Judah and said, “I cannot find her. Also, the men of the place said there was no harlot in this place.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Judah said, “Let her take them for herself, lest we be shamed; for I sent this young goat and you have not found her.”

<sup>24</sup>And it came to pass, about three months after, that Judah was told, saying, “Tamar your daughter-in-law has played the harlot; furthermore she is with child by harlotry.”

So Judah said, “Bring her out and let her be burned!”

<sup>25</sup>When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, “By the man to whom these belong, I am with child.” And she said, “Please determine whose these are—the signet and cord, and staff.”

<sup>26</sup>So Judah acknowledged them and said, “She has been more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shelah my son.” And he never knew her again.

<sup>27</sup>Now it came to pass, at the time for giving birth, that behold, twins were in her womb.

<sup>28</sup>And so it was, when she was giving birth, that the one put out his hand; and the midwife took a scarlet thread and bound it on his hand, saying, “This one came out first.” <sup>29</sup>Then it happened, as he drew back his hand, that his brother came out unexpectedly; and she said, “How did you break through? This breach be upon you!” Therefore his name was called Perez.<sup>a</sup> <sup>30</sup>Afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet thread on his hand. And his name was called Zerah.

Joseph a Slave in Egypt

39 <sup>1</sup>Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. And Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there. <sup>2</sup>The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. <sup>3</sup>And his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made all he did to prosper in his hand. <sup>4</sup>So Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him. Then he made him overseer of his house, and all that he had he put under his authority. <sup>5</sup>So it was, from the time that he had made him overseer of his house and all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian’s house for Joseph’s sake; and the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had in the house and in the field. <sup>6</sup>Thus he left all that he had in Joseph’s hand, and he did not know what he had except for the bread which he ate.

Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance.

<sup>7</sup>And it came to pass after these things that his master’s wife cast longing eyes on Joseph, and she said, “Lie with me.”

<sup>8</sup>But he refused and said to his master’s wife, “Look, my master does not know what is

JOSEPH GOES TO EGYPT (GEN. 39:1, 2)

After arriving in Egypt, Joseph became a slave of the Egyptian officer Potiphar (Gen. 39:1), but this slave's fortunes changed dramatically. Joseph's rise to power saw him become first the overseer of Potiphar's house (39:4), but eventually a ruler over all of Egypt, second in power to the Egyptian pharaoh himself (41:39–43). One possible setting for the Joseph story is the period when the Hyksos people ruled Egypt.

Before the Hyksos arrived, Egypt had been a united country. Under the 12th Dynasty (1963–1786 B.C.) Egypt enjoyed a flourishing mining industry and agricultural program, as well as a new capital established near Memphis by Pharaoh Amenemhet I. Another pharaoh, Sesostris III, was able to organize a strong central government for Egypt by controlling the families who ruled Egypt's territories.

Sometime after the 12th Dynasty the country began to fragment. Various rulers set up their own dynasties over portions of Egypt and ruled at the same time. The 13th Dynasty (1786–1633 B.C.) established a new capital at Thebes, while the 14th Dynasty (1786–1602 B.C.) consisted of several rulers in the Delta who proclaimed themselves “kings.”

The political upheaval made Egypt ripe for the invasion of the Hyksos people, who subjugated the country and placed their own capital at Avaris in the Delta region. The Hyksos dynasty lasted more than a century (1648–1540 B.C.).

The ethnic background of the Hyksos is one reason for setting the Joseph story during this period. These invaders were a mixture of Semitic and Asiatic peoples. In an Egypt ruled by such foreigners, it is possible that someone like Joseph, himself being Semitic and foreign, could rise from a servant to a position of high office.

with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand. <sup>9</sup>There is no one greater in this house than I, nor has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?”

<sup>10</sup>So it was, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he did not heed her, to lie with her or to be with her.

<sup>16</sup>So she kept his garment with her until his master came home. <sup>17</sup>Then she spoke to him with words like these, saying, “The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came in to me to mock me; <sup>18</sup>so it happened, as I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me and fled outside.”

<sup>19</sup>So it was, when his master heard the words which his wife spoke to him, saying, “Your servant did to me after this manner,” that his anger was aroused. <sup>20</sup>Then Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were confined. And he was there in the prison. <sup>21</sup>But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him mercy, and He gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. <sup>22</sup>And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison; whatever they did there, it was his doing. <sup>23</sup>The keeper of the prison did not look into anything that was under Joseph's authority,<sup>a</sup> because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made it prosper.

The Prisoners' Dreams

<sup>5</sup>Then the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, had a dream, both of them, each man's dream in one night and each man's dream with its own interpretation. <sup>6</sup>And Joseph came in to them in the morning and looked at them, and saw that they

Beliefs & Ideas

The name of Perez is explained by an incident at his birth (Gen. 38:29). In the Bible, names are often connected with memorable facts about the person named. In this case, the Hebrew word for “breach” is related to the name Perez. Ancient people thought that a person's name gave access to, or power over, that person.

39:23 <sup>a</sup>Literally his hand

THE TALE OF TWO BROTHERS (GEN. 39:7–18)

Joseph's troubles with Potiphar's wife (Gen. 39:7–18) have a literary parallel in a folk tale from Egypt's New Kingdom (c. 1550–1069 B.C.). At best, the similarities between the Tale of Two Brothers and the Joseph story are superficial and confined to a few details. Nevertheless, both stories share a common plot.

The main characters in the Tale of Two Brothers are gods. Anubis asks his younger brother Bata to help him with the yearly sowing. While back home fetching grain, Bata is approached by Anubis's wife, who desires sexual relations with him. Like Joseph, Bata is appalled by the offer and leaves in haste. The wife makes it look as if she has been assaulted by Bata.

Readers of the 2nd millennium were familiar with this plot. An innocent servant or shepherd receives a sexual invitation from a seductive wife. His innocency triumphs by his refusal to participate, at which point he incurs the anger and false accusations of the wife. Though innocent, he must flee.

were sad. <sup>7</sup>So he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in the custody of his lord's house, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?"

<sup>8</sup>And they said to him, "We each have had a dream, and there is no interpreter of it."

So Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell them to me, please."

<sup>9</sup>Then the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "Behold, in my dream a vine was before me, <sup>10</sup>and in the vine were three branches; it was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes. <sup>11</sup>Then Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

<sup>12</sup>And Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days. <sup>13</sup>Now within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your place, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand according to the former manner, when you were his butler. <sup>14</sup>But remember me when it is well with you, and please show kindness to me; make mention of me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house. <sup>15</sup>For indeed I was stolen away from the land of the Hebrews; and also I have done nothing here that they should put me into the dungeon."

<sup>16</sup>When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and there were three white baskets on my head. <sup>17</sup>In the uppermost basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

<sup>18</sup>So Joseph answered and said, "This is the interpretation of it: The three baskets are three days. <sup>19</sup>Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head from you and hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from you."

<sup>20</sup>Now it came to pass on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants. <sup>21</sup>Then he restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand. <sup>22</sup>But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. <sup>23</sup>Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Pharaoh's Dreams

41 <sup>1</sup>Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river. <sup>2</sup>Suddenly there came up out of the river seven cows, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow. <sup>3</sup>Then behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly and gaunt, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the river. <sup>4</sup>And the ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke. <sup>5</sup>He slept and dreamed a second time; and suddenly seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, plump and good. <sup>6</sup>Then behold, seven thin heads, blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them. <sup>7</sup>And the seven thin heads devoured the seven plump and full heads. So Pharaoh awoke, and indeed, it was a dream. <sup>8</sup>Now it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.

EGYPT'S SEVEN LEAN YEARS (GEN. 41:25–32)

Pharaoh's dreams involved seven fat cows and seven plump heads of grain which were devoured by seven ugly cows and seven thin heads, respectively (Gen. 41:1–7). In Joseph's interpretation, the ugly cows and thin heads symbolized seven years of famine (41:25–32). The record of the seven lean years in Egypt appears to have an antecedent in Egyptian literature.

A text called The Tradition of the Seven Lean Years in Egypt is attributed to Djoser, a pharaoh of the 3rd Dynasty of Egypt's Old Kingdom (c. 2650 B.C.). The text of this Egyptian story as it now exists came from scribes during the reign of Ptolemy V (204–180 B.C.), a ruler of the Macedonian dynasty established by the successors of Alexander the Great. While this text is much later than the account in Genesis, it is possible that it had been copied from an earlier text.

The Egyptian text recounts a letter that Djoser wrote to his overseer in Elephantine in southern Egypt, lamenting the fact that the "Nile has not come in my time for a space of seven years." Consequently grain was scarce, fruits were dried up, and "every man robbed his companion."

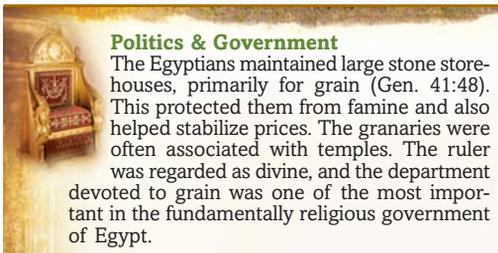

Imhotep, the renowned vizier or chief minister to Djoser, proceeds to tell him about the god Khnum, who resides at the birthplace of the Nile, namely Elephantine. Pharaoh Djoser then has a dream in which the god tells him that the Nile would soon "pour forth for you." Thus, plants would again grow and starvation would cease. The pharaoh awoke refreshed and presumably then drafted the text for his official at Elephantine.

<sup>9</sup>Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying: "I remember my faults this day. <sup>10</sup>When Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker, <sup>11</sup>we each had a dream in one night, he and I. Each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream. <sup>12</sup>Now there was a young Hebrew man with us there, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams for us; to each man he interpreted according to his own dream. <sup>13</sup>And it came to pass, just as he interpreted for us, so it happened. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him."

<sup>14</sup>Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon; and he shaved, changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream, to interpret it."

<sup>16</sup>So Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace."

Politics & Government

The Egyptians maintained large stone storehouses, primarily for grain (Gen. 41:48). This protected them from famine and also helped stabilize prices. The granaries were often associated with temples. The ruler was regarded as divine, and the department devoted to grain was one of the most important in the fundamentally religious government of Egypt.

<sup>17</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph: "Behold, in my dream I stood on the bank of the river. <sup>18</sup>Suddenly seven cows came up out of the river, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow. <sup>19</sup>Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such ugliness as I have never seen in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven, the fat cows. <sup>21</sup>When they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were just as ugly as at the beginning. So I awoke. <sup>22</sup>Also I saw in my dream, and suddenly seven heads came up on one stalk, full and good. <sup>23</sup>Then behold, seven heads, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them. <sup>24</sup>And the thin heads devoured the seven good heads. So I told this to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

of the famine following, for it will be very severe. <sup>32</sup>And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

Joseph’s Rise to Power

<sup>37</sup>So the advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants. <sup>38</sup>And Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?”

<sup>39</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Inasmuch as God has shown you all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you. <sup>40</sup>You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be ruled according to your word; only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you.” <sup>41</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.”

<sup>46</sup>Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>47</sup>Now in the seven plentiful years the ground brought forth abundantly. <sup>48</sup>So he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities; he laid up in every city the food of the fields which surrounded them. <sup>49</sup>Joseph gathered very much grain, as the sand of the sea, until he stopped counting, for it was immeasurable.

<sup>50</sup>And to Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On, bore to him. <sup>51</sup>Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasse:<sup>a</sup> “For God has made me forget all my toil and all my father’s house.” <sup>52</sup>And the name of the second he called Ephraim:<sup>a</sup> “For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.”

The Hyksos Empire

After taking control of Lower Egypt, the Hyksos established a capital at Avaris. King Kamose of Thebes eventually broke the power of the Hyksos, and his younger brother Ahmose I drove them from Egypt. In 1540 B.C. Ahmose began a 3-year siege of Sharuhen, the Hyksos stronghold in south Palestine. At this time, Egyptian texts refer to the land of Palestine as “Retenu.”

<sup>53</sup>Then the seven years of plenty which were in the land of Egypt ended, <sup>54</sup>and the seven years of famine began to come, as Joseph had said. The famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. <sup>55</sup>So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. Then Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, do.” <sup>56</sup>The famine was over all the face of the earth, and Joseph opened all the storehouses<sup>a</sup> and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine became severe in the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup>So all countries came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all lands.

Joseph’s Brothers Go to Egypt

42 <sup>1</sup>When Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, “Why do you look at one another?” <sup>2</sup>And he said, “Indeed I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down to that place and buy for us there, that we may live and not die.”

<sup>3</sup>So Joseph’s ten brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt. <sup>4</sup>But Jacob did not send Joseph’s brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, “Lest some calamity befall him.” <sup>5</sup>And the sons of Israel went to buy grain among those who journeyed, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

<sup>6</sup>Now Joseph was governor over the land; and it was he who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph’s brothers came and bowed down before him with their faces to the earth. <sup>7</sup>Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted as a stranger to them and spoke roughly to them. Then he said to them, “Where do you come from?”

And they said, “From the land of Canaan to buy food.”

<sup>8</sup>So Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. <sup>9</sup>Then Joseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them, and said to them, “You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land!”

<sup>10</sup>And they said to him, “No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. <sup>11</sup>We are all one man’s sons; we are honest men; your servants are not spies.”

<sup>12</sup>But he said to them, “No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land.”

<sup>14</sup>But Joseph said to them, “It is as I spoke to you, saying, ‘You are spies!’ <sup>15</sup>In this manner you shall be tested: By the life of Pharaoh, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here. <sup>16</sup>Send one of you, and let him bring your brother; and you shall be kept in prison, that your words may be tested to see whether there is any truth in you; or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies!” <sup>17</sup>So he put them all together in prison three days.

<sup>18</sup>Then Joseph said to them the third day, “Do this and live, for I fear God: <sup>19</sup>If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined to your prison house; but you, go and carry grain for the famine of your houses. <sup>20</sup>And bring your youngest brother to me; so your words will be verified, and you shall not die.”

And they did so. <sup>21</sup>Then they said to one another, “We are truly guilty concerning our brother, for we saw the anguish of his soul when he pleaded with us, and we would not hear; therefore this distress has come upon us.”

41:56 <sup>a</sup>Literally all that was in them

<sup>22</sup>And Reuben answered them, saying, “Did I not speak to you, saying, ‘Do not sin against the boy’; and you would not listen? Therefore behold, his blood is now required of us.” <sup>23</sup>But they did not know that Joseph understood them, for he spoke to them through an interpreter. <sup>24</sup>And he turned himself away from them and wept. Then he returned to them again, and talked with them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

The Brothers Return to Canaan

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph gave a command to fill their sacks with grain, to restore every man’s money to his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. Thus he did for them. <sup>26</sup>So they loaded their donkeys with the grain and departed from there. <sup>27</sup>But as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed at the encampment, he saw his money; and there it was, in the mouth of his sack. <sup>28</sup>So he said to his brothers, “My money has been restored, and there it is, in my sack!” Then their hearts failed them and they were afraid, saying to one another, “What is this that God has done to us?”

<sup>29</sup>Then they went to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them, saying: <sup>30</sup>“The man who is lord of the land spoke roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country. <sup>31</sup>But we said to him, ‘We are honest men; we are not spies. <sup>32</sup>We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is with our father this day in the land of Canaan.’ <sup>33</sup>Then the man, the lord of the country, said to us, ‘By this I will know that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me, take food for the famine of your households, and be gone. <sup>34</sup>And bring your youngest brother to me; so I shall know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. I will grant your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.’”

<sup>35</sup>Then it happened as they emptied their sacks, that surprisingly each man’s bundle of money was in his sack; and when they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>And Jacob their father said to them, “You have bereaved me: Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take Benjamin. All these things are against me.”

<sup>37</sup>Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “Kill my two sons if I do not bring him back to you; put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you.”

<sup>38</sup>But he said, “My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone. If any calamity should befall him along the way in which you go, then you would bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave.”

Joseph’s Brothers Return with Benjamin

43 <sup>1</sup>Now the famine was severe in the land. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, “Go back, buy us a little food.”

<sup>3</sup>But Judah spoke to him, saying, “The man solemnly warned us, saying, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’ <sup>4</sup>If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. <sup>5</sup>But if you will not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’”

<sup>6</sup>And Israel said, “Why did you deal so wrongfully with me as to tell the man whether you had still another brother?”

<sup>7</sup>But they said, “The man asked us pointedly about ourselves and our family, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?’ And we told him according to these words. Could we possibly have known that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

<sup>8</sup>Then Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones. <sup>9</sup>I myself will be surety for him; from my hand you shall require him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever. <sup>10</sup>For if we had not lingered, surely by now we would have returned this second time.”

<sup>11</sup>And their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this: Take some of the best fruits of the land in your vessels and carry down a present for the man—a little balm and a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds. <sup>12</sup>Take double money in your hand, and take back in your hand the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight. <sup>13</sup>Take your brother also, and arise, go back to the man. <sup>14</sup>And may God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may release your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved, I am bereaved!”

Marriage & Family

Joseph seated his brothers in order of their age (Gen. 43:33). Rights of inheritance were almost inflexibly linked to the order of birth. In society as a whole, age was regarded as a title to respect. Contempt for one’s parents or elders was a serious offense, in certain cases calling for extreme punishment (Ex. 21:17; Lev. 19:32).

and arose and went down to Egypt; and they stood before Joseph. <sup>16</sup>When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Take these men to my home, and slaughter an animal and make ready; for these men will dine with me at noon.” <sup>17</sup>Then the man did as Joseph ordered, and the man brought the men into Joseph’s house.

<sup>18</sup>Now the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph’s house; and they said, “It is because of the money, which was returned in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may make a case against us and seize us, to take us as slaves with our donkeys.”

<sup>19</sup>When they drew near to the steward of Joseph’s house, they talked with him at the door of the house, <sup>20</sup>and said, “O sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food; <sup>21</sup>but it happened, when we came to the encampment, that we opened our sacks, and there, each man’s money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; so we have brought it back in our hand. <sup>22</sup>And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.”

<sup>23</sup>But he said, “Peace be with you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>24</sup>So the man brought the men into Joseph’s house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed. <sup>25</sup>Then they made the present ready for Joseph’s coming at noon, for they heard that they would eat bread there.

<sup>26</sup>And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed down before him to the earth. <sup>27</sup>Then he asked them about their well-being, and said, “Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?”

<sup>29</sup>Then he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, and said, “Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?” And he said, “God be gracious to you, my son.” <sup>30</sup>Now his heart yearned for his brother; so Joseph made haste and sought somewhere to weep. And he went into his chamber and wept there. <sup>31</sup>Then he washed his face and came out; and he restrained himself, and said, “Serve the bread.”

<sup>32</sup>So they set him a place by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat food with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. <sup>33</sup>And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked in astonishment at one another. <sup>34</sup>Then he took servings to them from before him, but Benjamin’s serving was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

Joseph’s Cup

44 <sup>1</sup>And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, “Fill the men’s sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man’s money in the mouth of his sack. <sup>2</sup>Also put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his grain money.” So he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. <sup>3</sup>As soon as the morning dawned, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. <sup>4</sup>When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, “Get up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you repaid evil for good? <sup>5</sup>Is not this the one from which my lord drinks, and with which he indeed practices divination? You have done evil in so doing.’”

<sup>6</sup>So he overtook them, and he spoke to them these same words. <sup>7</sup>And they said to him, “Why does my lord say these words? Far be it from us that your servants should do such a thing. <sup>8</sup>Look, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord’s house? <sup>9</sup>With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my lord’s slaves.”

<sup>10</sup>And he said, “Now also let it be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and you shall be blameless.” <sup>11</sup>Then each man speedily let down his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack. <sup>12</sup>So he searched. He began with the oldest and left off with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack. <sup>13</sup>Then they tore their clothes, and each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.

<sup>14</sup>So Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there; and they fell before him on the ground. <sup>15</sup>And Joseph said to them, "What deed is this you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly practice divination?"

<sup>16</sup>Then Judah said, "What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; here we are, my lord's slaves, both we and he also with whom the cup was found."

<sup>17</sup>But he said, "Far be it from me that I should do so; the man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall be my slave. And as for you, go up in peace to your father."

Judah Intercedes for Benjamin

<sup>18</sup>Then Judah came near to him and said: "O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's hearing, and do not let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even like Pharaoh. <sup>19</sup>My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?' <sup>20</sup>And we said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, who is young; his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother's children, and his father loves him.' <sup>21</sup>Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.' <sup>22</sup>And we said to my lord, 'The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.' <sup>23</sup>But you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.'

<sup>24</sup>"So it was, when we went up to your servant my father, that we told him the words of my lord. <sup>25</sup>And our father said, 'Go back and buy us a little food.' <sup>26</sup>But we said, 'We cannot go down; if our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we may not see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' <sup>27</sup>Then your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons; <sup>28</sup>and the one went out from me, and I said, "Surely he is torn to pieces"; and I have not seen him since. <sup>29</sup>But if you take this one also from me, and calamity befalls him, you shall bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave.'

<sup>30</sup>"Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since his life is bound up in the lad's life, <sup>31</sup>it will happen, when he sees that the lad is not with us, that he will die. So your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave. <sup>32</sup>For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him back to you, then I shall bear the blame before my father forever.' <sup>33</sup>Now therefore, please let your servant remain instead of the lad as a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers. <sup>34</sup>For how shall I go up to my father if the lad is not with me, lest perhaps I see the evil that would come upon my father?"

Joseph Revealed to His Brothers

45 <sup>1</sup>Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, "Make everyone go out from me!" So no one stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. <sup>2</sup>And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard it.

<sup>3</sup>Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph; does my father still live?" But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence. <sup>4</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near to me." So they came near. Then he said: "I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. <sup>5</sup>But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. <sup>6</sup>For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting. <sup>7</sup>And God sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. <sup>8</sup>So now it was not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>"Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph: "God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not tarry. <sup>10</sup>You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your children, your children's children, your flocks and your herds, and all that you have. <sup>11</sup>There I will provide for you, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty; for there are still five years of famine.'"

<sup>12</sup>"And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my mouth that speaks to you. <sup>13</sup>So you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and you shall hurry and bring my father down here."

<sup>14</sup>Then he fell on his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. <sup>15</sup>Moreover he kissed all his brothers and wept over them, and after that his brothers talked with him.

<sup>16</sup>Now the report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Joseph's brothers have come." So it pleased Pharaoh and his servants well. <sup>17</sup>And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and depart; go to the land of Canaan. <sup>18</sup>Bring your father and your households and come to me; I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land. <sup>19</sup>Now you are commanded—do this: Take carts out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives; bring your father and come. <sup>20</sup>Also do not be concerned about your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.”

<sup>21</sup>Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them carts, according to the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the journey. <sup>22</sup>He gave to all of them, to each man, changes of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments. <sup>23</sup>And he sent to his father these things: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and food for his father for the journey. <sup>24</sup>So he sent his brothers away, and they departed; and he said to them, “See that you do not become troubled along the way.”

<sup>25</sup>Then they went up out of Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father. <sup>26</sup>And they told him, saying, “Joseph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt.” And Jacob’s heart stood still, because he did not believe them. <sup>27</sup>But when they told him all the words which Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived. <sup>28</sup>Then Israel said, “It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

Jacob’s Journey to Egypt

46 <sup>1</sup>So Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. <sup>2</sup>Then God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, “Jacob, Jacob!”

And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>3</sup>So He said, “I am God, the God of your father; do not fear to go down to Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there. <sup>4</sup>I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up again; and Joseph will put his hand on your eyes.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Jacob arose from Beersheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, their little ones, and their wives, in the carts which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. <sup>6</sup>So they took their livestock and their goods, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went to Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him. <sup>7</sup>His sons and his sons’ sons, his daughters and his sons’ daughters, and all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.

these to Jacob: seven persons in all.

<sup>26</sup>All the persons who went with Jacob to Egypt, who came from his body, besides Jacob's sons' wives, were sixty-six persons in all. <sup>27</sup>And the sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt were two persons. All the persons of the house of Jacob who went to Egypt were seventy.

Jacob Settles in Goshen

<sup>28</sup>Then he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to point out before him the way to Goshen. And they came to the land of Goshen. <sup>29</sup>So Joseph made ready his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel; and he presented himself to him, and fell on his neck and wept on his neck a good while.

<sup>30</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup>Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and say to him, 'My brothers and those of my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. <sup>32</sup>And the men are shepherds, for their occupation has been to feed livestock; and they have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.' <sup>33</sup>So it shall be, when Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?' <sup>34</sup>that you shall say, 'Your servants' occupation has been with livestock from our youth even till now, both we and also our fathers,' that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

Genesis

47 :1 Then Joseph went and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, their flocks and their herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; and indeed they are in the land of Goshen." <sup>2</sup>And he took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup>Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?"

And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers." <sup>4</sup>And they said to Pharaoh, "We have come to dwell in the land, because your servants have no pasture for their flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

<sup>5</sup>Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>6</sup>The land of Egypt is before you. Have your father and brothers dwell in the best of the land; let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know any competent men among them, then make them chief herdsmen over my livestock."

<sup>7</sup>Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob and set him before Pharaoh; and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. <sup>8</sup>Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How old are you?"

<sup>9</sup>And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage." <sup>10</sup>So Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

<sup>11</sup>And Joseph situated his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup>Then Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father's household with bread, according to the number in their families.

Joseph Deals with the Famine

<sup>13</sup>Now there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine. <sup>14</sup>And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

<sup>15</sup>So when the money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For the money has failed."

TRANSITION

Jacob Enters Egypt

Jacob's journey from Canaan to Egypt is summarized in Gen. 47:27: "So Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt . . . and multiplied exceedingly." This event marks the move of the Israelite people from Canaan, the Promised Land, to Egypt, the land of slavery. As such, it became part of Israel's basic statement of faith. Israel's faith started with the retelling of her historical origins, often beginning with Jacob's descent to Egypt. For instance, the ritual retelling of Deut. 26:5-9 begins "My father was a Syrian, about to perish, and he went down to Egypt . . ."

Jacob was 130 years old when he entered Egypt (Gen. 47:9). This figure is sometimes used to relate Abraham to the Israelite sojourn in Egypt. Abraham fathered Isaac when he was 100 years old (Gen. 21:5). Isaac fathered Jacob 60 years later (Gen. 25:26). Adding the numbers makes a passing of 290 years between Abraham's birth and this entry into Egypt (100 + 60 + 130 = 290).

• Genesis 47:1—50:26

BLESSED ARE THE BLESSED (GEN. 47:7, 10)

Bestowing a blessing on another was a common act in the ancient Near East. Inherent in the blessing process was the assumption, by both parties, that the one doing the blessing was superior to the one being blessed. Such superiority arose from a relationship to God, who was considered the source of the blessing. God occasionally gave a blessing directly (Gen. 2:3; 32:26).

To pronounce a blessing was not thought of as merely a ceremonial event. Rather the pronouncement was seen as actually conferring a specific change in status. Since the name and power of God was used, the blessing, once given, could not be retracted, even if bestowed by deceit. Once Isaac mistakenly pronounced the blessing for the firstborn son upon Jacob, his younger son (Gen. 27:27–29), he could not reverse the action in order to bless Esau, his firstborn (27:33–37).

A subordinate could also bless. Years later, Jacob, a foreigner in Egypt, blessed the pharaoh of Egypt. Since many died at a young age, old age was a sign that God's power resided with the one having a long life. Thus, Jacob, an old man, was superior to the younger pharaoh, who could benefit from Jacob's blessing him (Gen. 47:7, 10). Sometimes the Bible describes humans as "blessing" God (e.g., Ps. 34:1; 115:17, 18). In these cases "blessing God" probably conveys the idea of giving all that a human can rightfully give to God—praise.

<sup>16</sup>Then Joseph said, "Give your livestock, and I will give you bread for your livestock, if the money is gone." <sup>17</sup>So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the cattle of the herds, and for the donkeys. Thus he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year.

<sup>18</sup>When that year had ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is gone; my lord also has our herds of livestock. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands. <sup>19</sup>Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants of Pharaoh; give us seed, that we may live and not die, that the land may not be desolate."

<sup>20</sup>Then Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for every man of the Egyptians sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh's. <sup>21</sup>And as for the people, he moved them into the cities,<sup>a</sup> from one end of the borders of Egypt to the other end. <sup>22</sup>Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had rations allotted to them by Pharaoh, and they ate their rations which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their lands.

<sup>23</sup>Then Joseph said to the people, "Indeed I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land. <sup>24</sup>And it shall come to pass in the harvest that you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. Four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and for your food, for those of your households and as food for your little ones."

<sup>25</sup>So they said, "You have saved our lives; let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants." <sup>26</sup>And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have one-fifth, except for the land of the priests only, which did not become Pharaoh's.

Joseph's Vow to Jacob

<sup>27</sup>So Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions there and grew and multiplied exceedingly. <sup>28</sup>And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the length of Jacob's life was one hundred and forty-seven years. <sup>29</sup>When the time drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "Now if I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt, <sup>30</sup>but let me lie with my fathers; you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place."

And he said, "I will do as you have said."

<sup>31</sup>Then he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him. So Israel bowed himself on the head of the bed.

Jacob Blesses Joseph's Sons

48 <sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass after these things that Joseph was told, "Indeed your father is sick"; and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>And Jacob was told, "Look, your son Joseph is coming to you"; and Israel strengthened himself and sat up on the bed.

Politics & Government

The Egyptian state supervised a bureaucracy capable of building pyramids and temples that required thousands of workers and years of effort. They kept meticulous records of commodities and of disbursements of food and drink to workers (Gen. 47:24). There were no coins, but they had standardized loaves of bread.

47:21 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, and Vulgate read made the people virtual slaves.

<sup>3</sup>Then Jacob said to Joseph: “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, <sup>4</sup>and said to me, ‘Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a multitude of people, and give this land to your descendants after you as an everlasting possession.’ <sup>5</sup>And now your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. <sup>6</sup>Your offspring whom you beget after them shall be yours; they will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance. <sup>7</sup>But as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).”

And he said, “Please bring them to me, and I will bless them.” <sup>10</sup>Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, so that he could not see. Then Joseph brought them near him, and he kissed them and embraced them. <sup>11</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, “I had not thought to see your face; but in fact, God has also shown me your offspring!”

“God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,
The God who has fed me all my life long to this day, <sup>16</sup> The Angel who has redeemed me from all evil, Bless the lads;
Let my name be named upon them,
And the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac;
And let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.”

head. <sup>18</sup>And Joseph said to his father, “Not so, my father, for this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head.”

<sup>19</sup>But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations.”

<sup>20</sup>So he blessed them that day, saying, “By you Israel will bless, saying, ‘May God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh!’ ” And thus he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, “Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup>Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and my bow.”

Jacob’s Last Words to His Sons

49 <sup>1</sup>And Jacob called his sons and said, “Gather together, that I may tell you what shall befall you in the last days:

- 2 “Gather together and hear, you sons of Jacob,
And listen to Israel your father.
- 3 “Reuben, you are my firstborn,
My might and the beginning of my strength,
The excellency of dignity and the excellency of power.
- 4 Unstable as water, you shall not excel,
Because you went up to your father’s bed;
Then you defiled it—
He went up to my couch.
- 5 “Simeon and Levi are brothers;
Instruments of cruelty are in their dwelling place.
- 6 Let not my soul enter their council;
Let not my honor be united to their assembly;
For in their anger they slew a man,
And in their self-will they hamstringed an ox.
- 7 Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce;
And their wrath, for it is cruel!
I will divide them in Jacob
And scatter them in Israel.
- 8 “Judah, you are he whom your brothers shall praise;
Your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies;
Your father’s children shall bow down before you.

THE TWELVE TRIBES OF ISRAEL (GEN. 46:1–27)

Each tribe was a social group composed of many clans and families, together with their dependents, outside the ties of blood kinship, who had become associated with the group through covenant, marriage, adoption, or slavery. Israel was an association of twelve tribes, designated by the names of the ancestors from whom they were descended (Deut. 27:12–13; Ezek. 48:1–35). The historical origins of the tribal units may be traced to the Book of Genesis. Jacob, whose name was later changed to Israel (Gen. 32:28), was the father of 12 sons (Gen. 29:31—30:24; 35:18, 22–26). The sons of Jacob, excluding Levi and Joseph but including Joseph's sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, were the ancestors of the later tribal units in the nation's history. The development of the tribes begins with the events described in the Book of Exodus.

The sons of Jacob, together with their father and families, migrated to Egypt to join their brother Joseph and to escape the famine in Canaan (Gen. 46:1–27; Ex. 1:16). They grew significantly in number for the next 400 years (Gen. 15:13; Ex. 12:40). Then the descendants of Jacob's sons left Egypt in the Exodus under the leadership of Moses. They were joined by many who were not descendants of Jacob. The Exodus people are thus characterized as a "mixed multitude" (Ex. 12:38; Num. 11:4).

The number of dependents, those not of blood kinship, continued to increase as the tribal units developed. Moses' father-in-law, whose clan joined Israel in the wilderness, was a Midianite (Num. 10:29). Caleb, who figured prominently in the conquest of the land of Canaan, was called a Kenizzite (Josh. 14:13–14). Later the Calebites were given an inheritance among the tribe of Judah (Josh. 15:13).

The tribal confederation with its institutions reached its highest form during the period recorded in the books of Joshua and Judges. The rigidity of Israel's tribal structure did weaken somewhat with the establishment of the United Kingdom under David and Solomon. But tribal organization and association was maintained throughout later biblical history (Luke 2:36; Acts 4:36; Rom. 11:1; Heb. 7:14).

- 9 Judah is a lion's whelp;
From the prey, my son, you have gone up.
He bows down, he lies down as a lion;
And as a lion, who shall rouse him?
- 10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah,
Nor a lawgiver from between his feet,
Until Shiloh comes;
And to Him shall be the obedience of the people.

And his teeth whiter than milk.
- 13 "Zebulun shall dwell by the haven of the sea;
He shall become a haven for ships,
And his border shall adjoin Sidon.
- 14 "Issachar is a strong donkey,
Lying down between two burdens;
15 He saw that rest was good,
And that the land was pleasant;
He bowed his shoulder to bear a burden,
And became a band of slaves.
- 16 "Dan shall judge his people
As one of the tribes of Israel.
- 17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way,
A viper by the path,
That bites the horse's heels
So that its rider shall fall backward.

- 25 By the God of your father who will help
you,
And by the Almighty who will bless you
With blessings of heaven above,
Blessings of the deep that lies beneath,
Blessings of the breasts and of the womb.
- 26 The blessings of your father
Have excelled the blessings of my ancestors,
Up to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills.
They shall be on the head of Joseph,
And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.

<sup>27</sup> “Benjamin is a ravenous wolf;
In the morning he shall devour the prey,
And at night he shall divide the spoil.”

<sup>28</sup>All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them. And he blessed them; he blessed each one according to his own blessing.

Jacob's Death and Burial

<sup>29</sup>Then he charged them and said to them: “I am to be gathered to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>30</sup>in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite as a possession for a burial place. <sup>31</sup>There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried Leah. <sup>32</sup>The field and the cave that is there were purchased from the sons of Heth.” <sup>33</sup>And when Jacob had finished commanding his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

50 <sup>1</sup>Then Joseph fell on his father's face and wept over him, and kissed him. <sup>2</sup>And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel. <sup>3</sup>Forty days were required for him, for such are the days required for those who are embalmed; and the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

<sup>4</sup>Now when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, “If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the hearing of Pharaoh, saying, <sup>5</sup>‘My father made me swear, saying, “Behold, I am dying; in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me.” Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come back.’”

<sup>7</sup>So Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, <sup>8</sup>as well as all the house of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's house. Only their little ones, their flocks, and their herds they left in the land of Goshen. <sup>9</sup>And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very great gathering.

<sup>10</sup>Then they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and they mourned there with a great and very solemn lamentation. He observed seven days of mourning for his father. <sup>11</sup>And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, “This is a deep mourning of the Egyptians.” Therefore its name was called Abel Mizraim,<sup>a</sup> which is beyond the Jordan.

<sup>12</sup>So his sons did for him just as he had commanded them. <sup>13</sup>For his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as property for a burial place. <sup>14</sup>And after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who went up with him to bury his father.

Today the modern city of el-Khalil (Hebron) is built up around the site of Machpelah. The cave was once protected by a Christian church but is now marked by a Muslim mosque.

Joseph Reassures His Brothers

<sup>15</sup>When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “Perhaps Joseph will hate us, and may actually repay us for all the evil which we did to him.” <sup>16</sup>So they sent messengers to Joseph, saying, “Before your father died he commanded, saying, <sup>17</sup>‘Thus you shall say to Joseph: “I beg you, please forgive the trespass of your brothers and their sin; for they did evil to you.”’ Now, please, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of your father.” And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

<sup>18</sup>Then his brothers also went and fell down before his face, and they said, “Behold, we are your servants.”

<sup>19</sup>Joseph said to them, “Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup>But as for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many people alive. <sup>21</sup>Now therefore, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones.” And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

50:11 <sup>a</sup>Literally Mourning of Egypt

Death of Joseph

<sup>22</sup>So Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his father's household. And Joseph lived one hundred and ten years. <sup>23</sup>Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. The children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were also brought up on Joseph's knees.

<sup>24</sup>And Joseph said to his brethren, "I am dying; but God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land to the land of which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." <sup>25</sup>Then Joseph took an oath from the children of Israel, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here." <sup>26</sup>So Joseph died, being one hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

Beliefs & Ideas

Egyptian ideas about death and the afterlife emphasized preserving the dead body from decay (Gen. 50:26). The climate of Egypt is very dry, and the Egyptians were able to preserve bodies by drying them completely. This they did by burying them in natron, a naturally found combination of baking soda and sodium carbonate.

EPOCH THREE

THE RISE OF A UNIFIED PEOPLE

God miraculously delivered His people from the hands of the strongest nation of that day. These dramatic events would forever be proof that the Israelites were God's people.

1500—1200 B.C.

The Exodus marks the beginning of Israel as a people. The patriarchs were, at most, an extended family, rather than a people. More such families undoubtedly moved to Egypt either because of famine, or because of the migrations of peoples all over the Middle East. When a dynasty of strong pharaohs returned to power, these “foreigners” were oppressed and put to forced labor. The escape of a large band of these slaves under the leadership of Moses was a new beginning for the Israelites. Their experiences in the years of wandering in the wilderness—along with the great covenant ceremony at Mount Sinai—began to mold them into both a distinct religious entity and the nucleus of a nation. Their entry into Canaan and the struggle to maintain a separate identity in the face of cultural and religious temptations strengthened their sense of being a people.

ARCHAEOLOGY AND THE PAST

The oldest written records of significance for Palestine come from the Late Bronze Age (1500–1200 B.C.). The Amarna letters were part of the royal archive of Amenhotep IV, also known as Akhenaten (1352–1336 B.C.). Akhenaten was more interested in religious reform than in foreign policy. He abandoned Egyptian activity in Palestine to pursue the introduction of monotheism, based on the worship of the sun god, Aten.

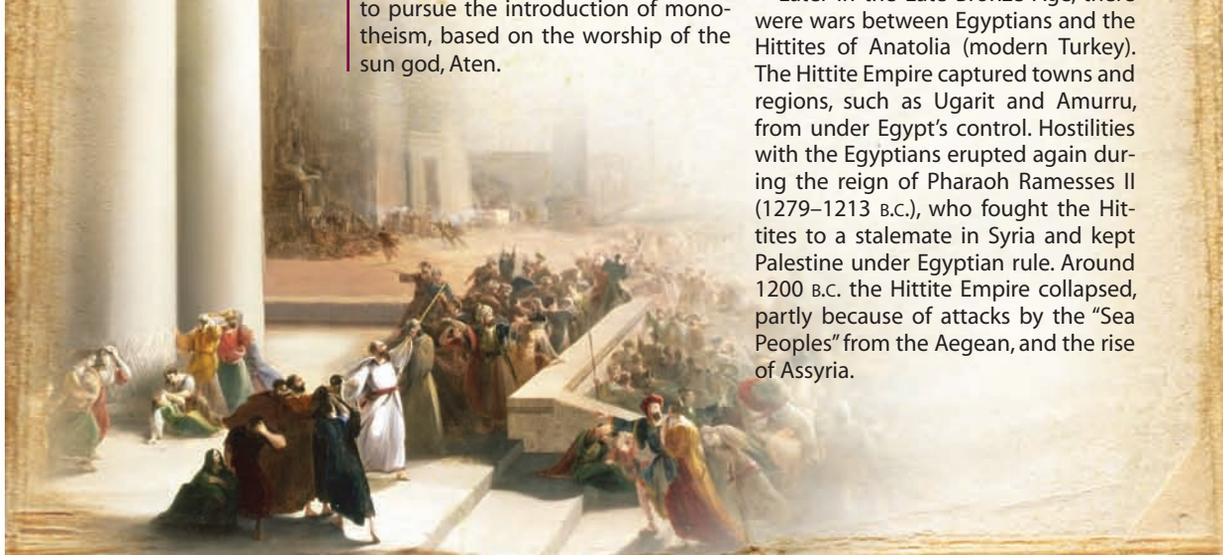

Akhenaten's disinterest in administering the Egyptian empire resulted in turmoil and civil war in Palestine, and the Amarna letters reflect this disorder. Without the stabilizing influence of the Egyptian military, the kings of the city-states were increasing their own power at the expense of their neighbors. There were also raids by a people called the Habiru. Many of the Amarna letters appeal to the pharaoh for aid against the incursions of these Habiru.

Other writings from the Late Bronze Age reflect a time of Egyptian power. An inscription of Merenptah, who ruled Egypt from 1213 to 1203 B.C., includes the first mention of Israel in Egyptian documents. Merenptah commemorates his victories over the Libyans and other foreigners, boasting that all the peoples of Asia had submitted. One line reads, “Israel is laid waste, his seed is not.”

THE PEOPLES AND GROUPS

Early in this period, Egyptian armies marched through Palestine into Syria, where they clashed with the Hurrians of Mitanni (in modern Iraq). The greatest political accomplishment of the Hurrians was the Mitanni Empire, which ruled Assyria and lasted until the reign of Shalmaneser I of Assyria (1273–1244 B.C.). They were even more important culturally, with their writings found from Assyria to Asia Minor to Egypt.

Later in the Late Bronze Age, there were wars between Egyptians and the Hittites of Anatolia (modern Turkey). The Hittite Empire captured towns and regions, such as Ugarit and Amurru, from under Egypt's control. Hostilities with the Egyptians erupted again during the reign of Pharaoh Ramesses II (1279–1213 B.C.), who fought the Hittites to a stalemate in Syria and kept Palestine under Egyptian rule. Around 1200 B.C. the Hittite Empire collapsed, partly because of attacks by the “Sea Peoples” from the Aegean, and the rise of Assyria.

Two ethnic or political groups played roles in Israel's history during the Late Bronze Age—the Midianites and Canaanites. The Midianites lived in northwest Arabia, along the Gulf of Aqaba. They were shepherds but also copper miners and traders. Moses fled to the land of Midian, where he married into the family of Jethro, a priest of Midian (Ex. 18). Much later, a related tribe of Midianites were involved in the Israelite worship of Baal of Peor (Num. 25:16–18). The incident led to hostilities between Israel and Midian during the time of Moses (Num. 31:1–8).

The Canaanites were the inhabitants of Palestine west of the Jordan at the time of Joshua's invasion. They are first mentioned in an inscription of Amenhotep II (1427–1400 B.C.), and also in the Amarna letters. Originally, the term probably applied either to a Hurrian military aristocracy, or to a class of merchants. By the time of Joshua, the Canaanites were a mixed group of people. In the Old Testament the term “Canaanites” sometimes refers to all the people who lived west of Jordan. Other times the term is restricted to the Phoenicians who lived along the coast.

THE BIBLICAL LITERATURE

The biblical books of Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, and Joshua relate the rise of the Israelites from slaves in Egypt to a unified people. The theme of these books is God's mighty acts on behalf of His people in the historical and political events of the Late Bronze Age. Though the focus of the biblical books is on God's activity, and the response of Israel to that activity, we still catch glimpses of the larger world of the Late Bronze Age.

Several pivotal events shaped Israel as a people. The Book of Exodus focuses on their escape from Egypt under the leadership of Moses and the making of the great covenant at Mount Sinai. The books of Leviticus and Numbers continue with the covenant, relating more divine instructions from Mount Sinai. Numbers also narrates the experiences the Israelites faced before coming to the Promised Land, most significantly the wilderness wanderings. Finally they were at the doorstep of Canaan. The Book of Deuteronomy is written as Moses' farewell speeches to the people of Israel. They would enter the land under a new generation of leaders, which is the story of the Book of Joshua.

EGYPT AND THE EXODUS

At last an Egyptian dynasty arose to expel the hated Hyksos rulers and begin the last great period of prosperity for ancient Egypt, the New Kingdom (c. 1550–1069 B.C.). Perhaps from a desire to keep all foreigners at bay, the kings of this time were more expansionist than were previous Egyptian dynasties. King Thutmose III (1479–1425 B.C.), for instance, expanded Egypt's boundaries through Palestine as far as the Euphrates River. These gains in Syria were soon challenged by an enemy from the north, the empire of the Hittites in Asia Minor.

One of Thutmose's descendants, Amenhotep IV (1352–1336 B.C.), is an especially remarkable New Kingdom ruler. Rejecting the many gods of Egyptian religion, this king worshiped one god, the sun god named Aten. He changed his own name to Akhenaten and built a new capital at Amarna. Letters found in the ruins of Amarna show that the city-states of Palestine were in varying degrees of rebellion during Akhenaten's reign. His religious reforms died when he did.

Another New Kingdom ruler, Ramesses II (1279–1213 B.C.), was especially notable for his many building projects. Egyptian sources suggest that Ramesses expanded the old Hyksos capital Avaris and renamed it “Raamses” after himself. The city became the royal residence for the 19th and 20th Dynasties. Ramesses reigned for more than 60 years, but his successors inherited a weaker Egypt and never equaled his glory.

The Book of Exodus

The Hebrews' exodus from bondage in Egypt is the defining event both in Israel's emergence as a nation and in the shape of that nation's faith. The Book of Exodus devotes about equal space to the events and to the ensuing covenant. The first half (chs. 1–19) tells the history, from Moses' birth through the Exodus itself up to Israel's climactic encounter with God on Mount Sinai. The second half of the book (chs. 20–40) consists mostly of God's instructions to His covenant people—both general, like the Ten Commandments, and specific, like the instructions for building the tabernacle, Israel's tent shrine.

It is no denial of the divine origin of this covenant to note how it is couched in the language and customs of its day. For instance, it is interesting to note that the covenant's emphasis on one God was preceded by the failed reforms of Akhenaten. Or again, the pattern for the giving of the covenant in Ex. 19–24 follows a very common Hittite treaty pattern, beginning with a prologue and continuing with a list of expectations (chs. 20–23), then concluding with a ratification ceremony (ch. 24).

Exodus

Israel's Suffering in Egypt

<sup>8</sup>Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. <sup>9</sup>And he said to his people, “Look, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we; <sup>10</sup>come, let us deal shrewdly with them, lest they multiply, and it happen, in the event of war, that they also join our enemies and fight against us, and so go up out of the land.” <sup>11</sup>Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh supply cities, Pithom and Raamses. <sup>12</sup>But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were in dread of the children of Israel. <sup>13</sup>So the Egyptians made the children of Israel serve with rigor. <sup>14</sup>And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage—in mortar, in brick, and in all manner of service in the field. All their service in which they made them serve was with rigor.

<sup>15</sup>Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of one was Shiphrah and the name of the other Puah; <sup>16</sup>and he said, “When you do the duties of a midwife for the Hebrew women, and see them on the birthstools, if it is a son, then you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live.” <sup>17</sup>But the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the male children alive. <sup>18</sup>So the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this thing, and saved the male children alive?”

<sup>19</sup>And the midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are lively and give birth before the midwives come to them.”

<sup>20</sup>Therefore God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew very mighty. <sup>21</sup>And so it was, because the midwives feared God, that He provided households for them.

1:5 <sup>a</sup>Literally who came from the loins of <sup>b</sup>Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint read seventy-five (compare Acts 7:14).

Moses Is Born

2<sup>1</sup>And a man of the house of Levi went and took as wife a daughter of Levi. <sup>2</sup>So the woman conceived and bore a son. And when she saw that he was a beautiful child, she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup>But when she could no longer hide him, she took an ark of bulrushes for him, daubed it with asphalt and pitch, put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the river's bank. <sup>4</sup>And his sister stood afar off, to know what would be done to him.

<sup>5</sup>Then the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river. And her maidens walked along the riverside; and when she saw the ark among the reeds, she sent her maid to get it. <sup>6</sup>And when she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the baby wept. So she had compassion on him, and said, “This is one of the Hebrews' children.”

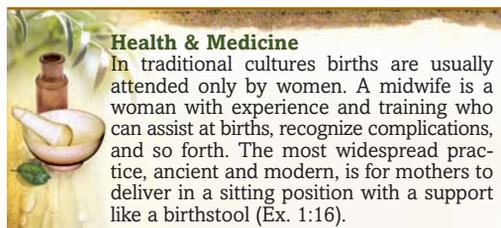

<sup>7</sup>Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, “Shall I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?”

<sup>8</sup>And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, “Go.” So the maiden went and called the child's mother. <sup>9</sup>Then Pharaoh's daughter said to her, “Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed him. <sup>10</sup>And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. So she called his name Moses,<sup>a</sup> saying, “Because I drew him out of the water.”

Moses Flees to Midian

<sup>11</sup>Now it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out to his brethren and looked at their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brethren. <sup>12</sup>So he looked this way and that way, and when he saw no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. <sup>13</sup>And when he went out the second day, behold, two Hebrew men were fighting, and he said to the one who did the wrong, “Why are you striking your companion?”

<sup>14</sup>Then he said, “Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?”

Health & Medicine

In traditional cultures births are usually attended only by women. A midwife is a woman with experience and training who can assist at births, recognize complications, and so forth. The most widespread practice, ancient and modern, is for mothers to deliver in a sitting position with a support like a birthstool (Ex. 1:16).

THE BIRTH OF SARGON (Ex. 2:1–10)

The birth story of Moses (Ex. 2:1–10) resembles a familiar theme in the ancient Near Eastern folklore: the exposure and rescue of an infant son, and his subsequent ascent to a position of royalty. One of the most famous versions of this theme is the birth legend of Sargon of Accad, a ruler in central Mesopotamia around 2350 B.C.

Although many legends of Sargon abound, the earliest record of these is from the late 8th century B.C. Some scholars maintain that the text was composed to commemorate the feats of a namesake of the Accadian Sargon—Sargon II of Assyria (721–705 B.C.).

According to the story, Sargon was born to a high priestess and an unknown father. Sargon's birth was kept secret, and his mother set him in a basket among bulrushes, where he was found by a drawer of water. From these humble beginnings, Sargon is said to have been granted the love of Ishtar, the goddess of love and war. The goddess's love is regarded as a token of Sargon's title to the throne. The apparent similarities between the Sargon and Moses birth accounts, though fascinating, are nevertheless superficial.

So Moses feared and said, “Surely this thing is known!”<sup>15</sup>When Pharaoh heard of this matter, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh and dwelt in the land of Midian; and he sat down by a well.

<sup>23</sup>Now it happened in the process of time that the king of Egypt died. Then the children of Israel groaned because of the bondage, and they cried out; and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. <sup>24</sup>So God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. <sup>25</sup>And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God acknowledged them.

Moses in Midian

Within the official boundaries of the Egyptian empire, in Palestine and the arid Sinai Peninsula, lived a diverse group called the Midianites. These people appeared sometime around the 13th century B.C. and were known as traders (cf. Gen. 37:36) and metalworkers. Less clearly known is their religion, but there is some evidence that they worshiped in tent shrines in the desert. The tabernacle that Moses was commanded to build (Ex. 26) may be related to Midianite practices. Moses' father-in-law Reuel (Ex. 2:18) was, after all, a priest of Midian. Elsewhere the names Jethro (Ex. 3:1) and Hobab (Judg. 4:11) are also given for the father-in-law of Moses.

• Exodus 2:16—6:30

Exodus

2:16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. And they came and drew water, and they filled the troughs to water their father's flock. <sup>17</sup>Then the shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

<sup>18</sup>When they came to Reuel their father, he said, “How is it that you have come so soon today?”

<sup>19</sup>And they said, “An Egyptian delivered us from the hand of the shepherds, and he also drew enough water for us and watered the flock.”

<sup>20</sup>So he said to his daughters, “And where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses was content to live with the man, and he gave Zipporah his daughter to Moses.

Moses at the Burning Bush

3<sup>1</sup>Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock to the back of the desert, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup>And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed. <sup>3</sup>Then Moses said, “I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn.”

<sup>4</sup>So when the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!”

And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>5</sup>Then He said, “Do not draw near this place. Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground.” <sup>6</sup>Moreover He said, “I am the God of your father—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon God.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said: “I have surely seen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows. <sup>8</sup>So I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites. <sup>9</sup>Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. <sup>10</sup>Come now, therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.”

<sup>11</sup>But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?”

<sup>12</sup>So He said, “I will certainly be with you. And this shall be a sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Moses said to God, “Indeed, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What is His name?’ what shall I say to them?”

<sup>14</sup>And God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And He said, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’” <sup>15</sup>Moreover God said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: ‘The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My memorial to all generations.’” <sup>16</sup>Go and gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them, ‘The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared to me, saying, ‘I have surely visited you and seen what is done to you in Egypt; <sup>17</sup>and I have said I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.’” <sup>18</sup>Then they will heed your voice; and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt; and you shall say to him, ‘The LORD God of the Hebrews has met with us; and now, please, let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’” <sup>19</sup>But I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not even by a mighty hand. <sup>20</sup>So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders which I will do in its midst; and after that he will let you go. <sup>21</sup>And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be, when you go, that you shall not go empty-handed. <sup>22</sup>But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, namely, of her who dwells near her house, articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters. So you shall plunder the Egyptians.”

Miraculous Signs for Pharaoh

4 <sup>1</sup>Then Moses answered and said, “But suppose they will not believe me or listen to my voice; suppose they say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’”

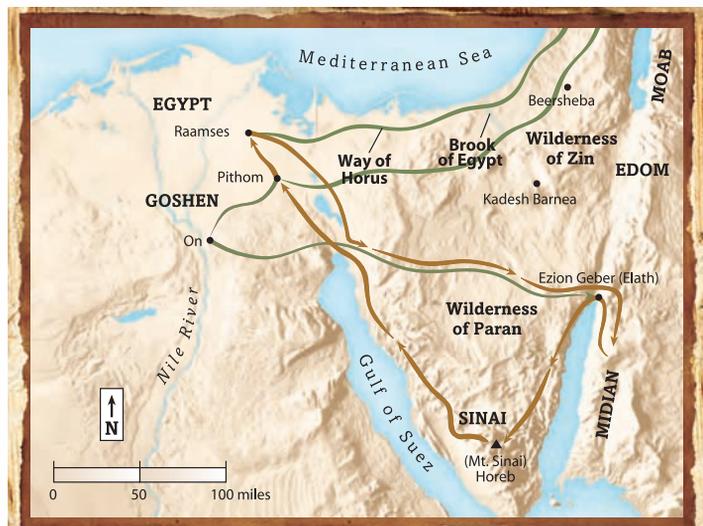

<sup>2</sup>So the LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?”

He said, “A rod.”

<sup>3</sup>And He said, “Cast it on the ground.” So he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out your hand and take it by the tail” (and he reached out his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand), <sup>5</sup>“that they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the

Moses' Flight and Return to Egypt

Moses fled from Pharaoh through the Sinai desert and settled in the land of Midian. In the vicinity of Horeb, located by tradition in the Sinai Peninsula, God revealed Himself in the burning bush and called Moses to go back to Egypt. Moses met Aaron at Horeb, and together they returned to Pharaoh's court in Raamses.

ENMERKAR AND THE HEAVY MOUTH (Ex. 4:10–16)

Among the objections Moses raised against his going to Pharaoh (Ex. 3:11) was that he considered himself “slow of speech and slow of tongue” (Ex. 4:10). In the Hebrew language this condition is expressed literally as “heavy of mouth” and “heavy of tongue.” Moses’ difficulties in speech are not unprecedented in ancient Near Eastern literature.

Enmerkar, the Sumerian king of Uruk and third successor to the famous Gilgamesh, is the main character of Enmerkar and the Lord of Aratta, an epic written in Sumerian near the end of the 3rd millennium B.C. In the brief passage, a messenger is unable to comprehend a message given to him by Enmerkar, and thus unable to verbally deliver it. Like Moses, Enmerkar was “slow in speech,” expressed in the epic as “heavy of mouth.” Therefore, the king of Uruk invented writing by putting the message on a piece of clay.

This epic seems to explain the origin of writing, implying that writing did not exist before Enmerkar (c. 2700–2500 B.C.). In actuality, writing preceded Enmerkar by at least 500 years.

God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”

<sup>6</sup>Furthermore the LORD said to him, “Now put your hand in your bosom.” And he put his hand in his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, like snow. <sup>7</sup>And He said, “Put your hand in your bosom again.” So he put his hand in his bosom again, and drew it out of his bosom, and behold, it was restored like his other flesh. <sup>8</sup>“Then it will be, if they do not believe you, nor heed the message of the first sign, that they may believe the message of the latter sign. <sup>9</sup>And it shall be, if they do not believe even these two signs, or listen to your voice, that you shall take water from the river<sup>a</sup> and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take from the river will become blood on the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses said to the LORD, “O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant; but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.”

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD said to him, “Who has made man’s mouth? Or who makes the mute, the deaf, the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD? <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say.”

<sup>13</sup>But he said, “O my Lord, please send by the hand of whomever else You may send.”

<sup>14</sup>So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and He said: “Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And look, he is also coming out to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.

<sup>15</sup>Now you shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you what you shall do. <sup>16</sup>So he shall be your spokesman to the people. And he himself shall be as a mouth for you, and you shall be to him as God. <sup>17</sup>And you shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.”

Moses Goes to Egypt

<sup>18</sup>So Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brethren who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive.”

And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

<sup>19</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses in Midian, “Go, return to Egypt; for all the men who sought your life are dead.” <sup>20</sup>Then Moses took his wife and his sons and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “When you go back to Egypt, see that you do all those wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in your hand. But I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup>Then you shall say to Pharaoh, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Israel is My son, My firstborn.’” <sup>23</sup>So I say to you, let My son go that he may serve Me. But if you refuse to let him go, indeed I will kill your son, your firstborn.” ’ ’

<sup>24</sup>And it came to pass on the way, at the encampment, that the LORD met him and sought to kill him. <sup>25</sup>Then Zipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son and cast it at Moses<sup>a</sup> feet, and said, “Surely you are a husband of blood to me!” <sup>26</sup>So He let him go. Then she said, “You are a husband of blood!”—because of the circumcision.

<sup>27</sup>And the LORD said to Aaron, “Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.” So he went and met him on the mountain of God, and kissed him. <sup>28</sup>So Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which He

EGYPT AND THE NEW KINGDOM

The Egyptian priest Manetho (c. 305–285 B.C.) describes the destructive invasion of Egypt by the Hyksos people, who seized control of Egypt and made Avaris, in the Delta region, their new capital.

The Dynasties

13th–17th Dynasties. The weakening of the 13th Dynasty (1786–1633 B.C.) began a period in which rival dynasties vied for power.

In the Delta several rulers proclaimed themselves “kings,” representing the 14th Dynasty.

The Hyksos dynasty controlled only Lower Egypt, while the kings of the Upper Nile Valley stood firm in their own local domains.

The Dynasties

18th–20th Dynasties. The Egyptian kings Kamose and Ahmose I expelled the Hyksos from Egypt, beginning Egypt’s “New Kingdom.”

18th Dynasty. Amenhotep I named himself after the god Amen or Amon. This universal god was linked with the sun god Re, and worshiped as Amon-Re.

19th Dynasty. Seti I began new wars of conquest that pushed Egypt into Palestine, driving back the Hittites.

20th Dynasty. Ramesses III fought off invasions by the Sea Peoples.

had commanded him. <sup>29</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. <sup>30</sup>And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. Then he did the signs in the sight of the people. <sup>31</sup>So the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel and that He had looked on their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshiped.

First Encounter with Pharaoh

5 <sup>1</sup>Afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Let My people go, that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness.’”

<sup>2</sup>And Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, nor will I let Israel go.”

<sup>3</sup>So they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go three days’ journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why do you take the people from their work? Get back to your labor.” <sup>5</sup>And Pharaoh said, “Look, the people of the land are many now, and you make them rest from their labor!”

the quota of bricks which they made before. You shall not reduce it. For they are idle; therefore they cry out, saying, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’ <sup>9</sup>Let more work be laid on the men, that they may labor in it, and let them not regard false words.”

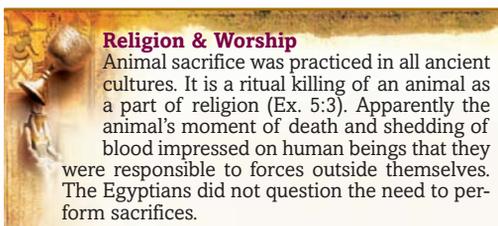

<sup>10</sup>And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out and spoke to the people, saying, “Thus says Pharaoh: ‘I will not give you straw. <sup>11</sup>Go, get yourselves straw where you can find it; yet none of your work will be reduced.’”

<sup>12</sup>So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw. <sup>13</sup>And the taskmasters forced them to hurry, saying, “Fulfill your work, your daily quota, as when there was straw.” <sup>14</sup>Also the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten and were asked, “Why have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and today, as before?”

<sup>15</sup>Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, “Why are you dealing thus with your servants? <sup>16</sup>There is no straw given to your servants, and they say to

Religion & Worship

Animal sacrifice was practiced in all ancient cultures. It is a ritual killing of an animal as a part of religion (Ex. 5:3). Apparently the animal’s moment of death and shedding of blood impressed on human beings that they were responsible to forces outside themselves. The Egyptians did not question the need to perform sacrifices.

us, 'Make brick!' And indeed your servants are beaten, but the fault is in your own people."

<sup>17</sup>But he said, "You are idle! Idle! Therefore you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.'" <sup>18</sup>Therefore go now and work; for no straw shall be given you, yet you shall deliver the quota of bricks." <sup>19</sup>And the officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble after it was said, "You shall not reduce any bricks from your daily quota."

<sup>20</sup>Then, as they came out from Pharaoh, they met Moses and Aaron who stood there to meet them. <sup>21</sup>And they said to them, "Let the LORD look on you and judge, because you have made us abhorrent in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us."

Israel's Deliverance Assured

<sup>22</sup>So Moses returned to the LORD and said, "Lord, why have You brought trouble on this people? Why is it You have sent me?" <sup>23</sup>For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people; neither have You delivered Your people at all."

6 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh. For with a strong hand he will let them go, and with a strong hand he will drive them out of his land."

<sup>2</sup>And God spoke to Moses and said to him: "I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup>I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty, but by My name LORD<sup>a</sup> I was not known to them. <sup>4</sup>I have also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, in which they were strangers. <sup>5</sup>And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant. <sup>6</sup>Therefore say to the children of Israel: I am the LORD; I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, I will rescue you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments. <sup>7</sup>I will take you as My people, and I will be your God. Then you shall know that I am the LORD your God who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup>And I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and I will give it to you as a heritage: I am the LORD." <sup>9</sup>So Moses spoke thus to the children of Israel; but they did not heed Moses, because of anguish of spirit and cruel bondage.

<sup>12</sup>And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, "The children of Israel have not heeded me. How then shall Pharaoh heed me, for I am of uncircumcised lips?"

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, and gave them a command for the children of Israel and for Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

The Family of Moses and Aaron

<sup>14</sup>These are the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. These are the families of Reuben. <sup>15</sup>And the sons of Simeon were Jemuel,<sup>a</sup> Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These are the families of Simeon. <sup>16</sup>These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were one hundred and thirty-seven. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimi according to their families. <sup>18</sup>And the sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were one hundred and thirty-three. <sup>19</sup>The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of Levi according to their generations.

<sup>20</sup>Now Amram took for himself Jochebed, his father's sister, as wife; and she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were one hundred and thirty-seven. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri. <sup>22</sup>And the sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Zithri. <sup>23</sup>Aaron took to himself Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahshon, as wife; and she bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>24</sup>And the sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These are the families of the Korahites. <sup>25</sup>Eleazar, Aaron's son, took for himself one of the daughters of Putiel as wife; and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites according to their families.

<sup>26</sup>These are the same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies." <sup>27</sup>These are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These are the same Moses and Aaron.

Aaron Is Moses' Spokesman

<sup>28</sup>And it came to pass, on the day the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>29</sup>that the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, "I am the LORD. Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you."

<sup>30</sup>But Moses said before the LORD, "Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh heed me?"

TRANSITION

From Egypt to Midian to Egypt

The life of Moses is viewed by tradition in three periods: early life in Egypt; sojourn in Midian; appearance before Pharaoh in Egypt. The ages recorded for Moses in different biblical passages make each of the three periods to be 40 years long.

The first period, beginning with Moses' birth, ended abruptly when he was forced to flee Egypt. The Book of Exodus defines this time only as "when Moses was grown" (Ex. 2:11). However, Stephen's sermon survey of Israel's history makes Moses "forty years old" at this time (Acts 7:23).

The second period, during which Moses found refuge in Midian, ended with Moses' return to Egypt, accompanied by Aaron. The Book of Exodus reports Moses to have been 80 years old when he and 83-year-old Aaron first approached Pharaoh (Ex. 7:7). Stephen's sermon agrees, placing the burning bush experience 40 years after Moses fled to Midian.

The last period of Moses' life ends, of course, with his death. That Moses was 80 when he stood before Pharaoh is consistent both with his age of 120 when he died (Deut. 34:7) and with the 40 years of wandering in the wilderness (Num. 14:33–35).

• Exodus 7:1—12:36

Exodus

7:1 So the LORD said to Moses: "See, I have made you as God to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. <sup>2</sup>You shall speak all that I command you. And Aaron your brother shall tell Pharaoh to send the children of Israel out of his land. <sup>3</sup>And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup>But Pharaoh will not heed you, so that I may lay My hand on Egypt and bring My armies and My people, the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. <sup>5</sup>And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch out My hand on Egypt and bring out the children of Israel from among them."

<sup>6</sup>Then Moses and Aaron did so; just as the LORD commanded them, so they did. <sup>7</sup>And Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Aaron's Miraculous Rod

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>9</sup>"When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, 'Show a miracle for yourselves,' then you shall say to Aaron, 'Take your rod and cast it before Pharaoh, and let it become a serpent.'" <sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, just as the LORD commanded. And Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

<sup>11</sup>But Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers; so the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. <sup>12</sup>For every man threw down his rod, and they became serpents. But Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. <sup>13</sup>And Pharaoh's heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

The First Plague: Waters Become Blood

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD said to Moses: "Pharaoh's heart is hard; he refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup>Go to Pharaoh in the morning, when he goes out to the water, and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand. <sup>16</sup>And you shall say to him, 'The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, "Let My people go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness"; but indeed, until now you would not hear! <sup>17</sup>Thus says the LORD: "By this you shall know that I am the LORD. Behold, I will strike the waters which are in the river with the rod that is in my hand, and they shall be turned to blood. <sup>18</sup>And the fish that are in the river shall die, the river shall stink, and the Egyptians will loathe to drink the water of the river.'" "

<sup>19</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Take your rod and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their streams, over their rivers, over their ponds, and over all their pools of water, that they may become blood. And there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in buckets of wood and pitchers of stone.'" <sup>20</sup>And Moses and Aaron did so, just as the LORD commanded. So he lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants. And all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. <sup>21</sup>The fish that were in the river died, the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink the water of the river. So there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>Then the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments; and Pharaoh's heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, as the LORD had said. <sup>23</sup>And Pharaoh turned and went into his house. Neither was his heart moved by this. <sup>24</sup>So all the Egyptians dug all around the river for water to drink, because they could not drink the water of the river. <sup>25</sup>And seven days passed after the LORD had struck the river.

The Second Plague: Frogs

8<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: "Let My people go, that they may serve

DUELING DEITIES: MAGIC AND MAGICIANS IN EGYPT (Ex. 7:11)

Throughout the ancient Near East magicians were important members of royal courts. Magic was a means by which power could be transferred from the gods to humans. Magicians were well-educated, literate persons, who had studied the incantations and actions that were needed to cause gods or demons to honor human requests. Their official services were needed for understanding the will of the gods, bringing down curses on treaty-breakers, or creating catastrophes for enemies.

Egypt's magical traditions are the best known to us of all the traditions of the ancient world. This is partly because other civilizations were impressed by the Egyptian traditions, but mostly because a wealth of their magical texts have survived in the desert. The Egyptian magical texts extend in time from the Pyramid Texts (3rd millennium B.C.) to the end of the Roman Empire, and include incantations, amulets, secret signs, certain geometric shapes, acrostic word patterns, and the names of famous persons.

In Exodus, Moses is presented as directing the plagues in the same manner as the Egyptians understood their magic to work. Through the miracles Moses conveyed the power of his God. The Egyptian magicians, however, were engaged in the same enterprise. When they turned rods into snakes, water into blood, or called frogs out of the Nile, they believed it was the power of their gods working through them (Ex. 7:10, 11).

Pharaoh's magicians were unimpressed with Moses and his God as long as they were able to do the same tricks through their magical arts. But when they could not produce gnats, the Egyptians expressed their admiration for Moses with the words "This is the finger of God" (Ex. 8:18, 19), which quotes an actual Egyptian magical phrase. In this way they acknowledged that Moses' God was greater than their gods.

Me. <sup>2</sup>But if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all your territory with frogs. <sup>3</sup>So the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your house, into your bedroom, on your bed, into the houses of your servants, on your people, into your ovens, and into your kneading bowls. <sup>4</sup>And the frogs shall come up on you, on your people, and on all your servants." " "

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.'" <sup>6</sup>So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, "Entreat the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD."

<sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Pharaoh, "Accept the honor of saying when I shall intercede for you, for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, that they may remain in the river only."

<sup>10</sup>So he said, "Tomorrow." And he said, "Let it be according to your word, that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God. <sup>11</sup>And the frogs shall depart from you, from your houses, from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only."

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup>So the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards, and out of the fields. <sup>14</sup>They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank. <sup>15</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

The Third Plague: Lice

<sup>16</sup>So the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.'" <sup>17</sup>And they did so. For Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and it became lice on man and beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>18</sup>Now the magicians so worked with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not. So there were lice on man and beast. <sup>19</sup>Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God." But Pharaoh's heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had said.

The Fourth Plague: Flies

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, "Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh as he comes out to the water. Then say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: "Let My people go, that they may serve Me. <sup>21</sup>Or else, if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you and your servants, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they stand. <sup>22</sup>And in that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there, in order that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the land. <sup>23</sup>I will make a difference" between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall be.”<sup>24</sup> And the LORD did so. Thick swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh, into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was corrupted because of the swarms of flies.

8:23 <sup>a</sup>Literally set a ransom (compare Exodus 9:4 and 11:7)

<sup>25</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God in the land.”

<sup>26</sup>And Moses said, “It is not right to do so, for we would be sacrificing the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. If we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, then will they not stone us? <sup>27</sup>We will go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He will command us.”

<sup>28</sup>So Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Intercede for me.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses said, “Indeed I am going out from you, and I will entreat the LORD, that the swarms of flies may depart tomorrow from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. But let Pharaoh not deal deceitfully anymore in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>30</sup>So Moses went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained. <sup>32</sup>But Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also; neither would he let the people go.

The Fifth Plague: Livestock Diseased

9<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me. <sup>2</sup>For if you refuse to let them go, and still hold them. <sup>3</sup>Behold, the hand of the LORD will be on your cattle in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the oxen, and on the sheep—a very severe pestilence. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD will make a difference between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt. So nothing shall die of all that belongs to the children of Israel.’”<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD appointed a set time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.”

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died. <sup>7</sup>Then Pharaoh sent, and indeed, not even one of the livestock of the Israelites was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh became hard, and he did not let the people go.

The Sixth Plague: Boils

<sup>8</sup>So the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take for yourselves handfuls of ashes from a furnace, and let Moses scatter it toward the heavens in the sight of Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>And it will become fine dust in all the land of Egypt, and it will cause boils that break out in sores on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt.”<sup>10</sup> Then they took ashes from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses scattered them toward heaven. And they caused boils that break out in sores on man and beast. <sup>11</sup>And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians. <sup>12</sup>But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh; and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

The Seventh Plague: Hail

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: “Let My people go, that they may serve Me, <sup>14</sup>for at this time I will send all My plagues to your very heart, and on your servants and on your people, that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup>Now if I had stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, then you would have been cut off from the earth. <sup>16</sup>But indeed for this purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be declared in all the earth. <sup>17</sup>As yet you exalt yourself against My people in that you will not let them go. <sup>18</sup>Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause very heavy hail to rain down, such as has not been in Egypt since its founding until now. <sup>19</sup>Therefore send now and gather your livestock and all that you have in the field, for the hail shall come down on every man and every animal which is found in the field and is not brought home; and they shall die.’”

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt—on man, on beast, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.” <sup>23</sup>And Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire darted to the ground. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt. <sup>24</sup>So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, so very heavy that there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. <sup>25</sup>And the hail struck throughout the whole land of Egypt, all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail struck every herb of the field and broke every tree of the field. <sup>26</sup>Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no hail.

<sup>27</sup>And Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and my people and I are wicked. <sup>28</sup>Entreat the LORD, that there may be no more mighty thundering and hail, for it is enough. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.”

<sup>29</sup>So Moses said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, that you may know that the earth is the LORD’s. <sup>30</sup>But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not yet fear the LORD God.”

<sup>31</sup>Now the flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was in the head and the flax was in bud. <sup>32</sup>But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they are late crops.

<sup>33</sup>So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh and spread out his hands to the LORD; then the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth. <sup>34</sup>And when Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunder had ceased, he sinned yet more; and he hardened his heart, he and his servants. <sup>35</sup>So the heart of Pharaoh was hard; neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

The Eighth Plague: Locusts

10 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his servants, that I may show these signs of Mine before him, <sup>2</sup>and that you may tell in the hearing of your son and your son’s son the mighty things I have done in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, that you may know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses and Aaron came in to Pharaoh and said to him, “Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me. <sup>4</sup>Or else, if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory. <sup>5</sup>And they shall cover the face of the earth, so that no one will be able to see the earth; and they shall eat the residue of what is left, which remains to you from the hail, and they shall eat every tree which grows up for you out of the field. <sup>6</sup>They shall fill your houses, the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians—which neither your fathers nor your fathers’ fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.’” And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup>Then Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed?”

<sup>8</sup>So Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God. Who are the ones that are going?”

<sup>9</sup>And Moses said, “We will go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we will go, for we must hold a feast to the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, “The LORD had better be with you when I let you and your little ones go! Beware, for evil is ahead of you. <sup>11</sup>Not so! Go now, you who are men, and serve the LORD, for that is what you desired.” And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land—all that the hail has left.” <sup>13</sup>So Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. When it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. <sup>14</sup>And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and rested on all the territory of Egypt. They were very severe; previously there had been no such locusts as they, nor shall there be such after them. <sup>15</sup>For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they ate every herb of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. So there remained nothing green on the trees or on the plants of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you. <sup>17</sup>Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and entreat

Agriculture & Herding

Flax was grown mainly for its fibers, from which linen is made (Ex. 9:31). Spelt is a food grain similar to wheat, but it can grow in less fertile soil. Wheat and barley both have been grown in Egypt since 5000 B.C., and in Palestine since about 8000 B.C. All Egyptian agriculture depends on the Nile for water.

WHERE WAS THE RED SEA? (Ex. 10:19)

The Hebrew slaves escaped Egypt by way of the Red Sea. In antiquity this Red Sea also included the Gulf of Suez and the Gulf of Aqaba, the two gulfs into which it splits. The precise location of the Exodus crossing has been debated by scholars since antiquity without any agreement on a possible site.

The Red Sea is called Yam Suph in Hebrew, which is often translated as “sea of reeds.” The Sea of Reeds would refer to the marshes where bulrushes or reeds grow plentifully. In a number of Old Testament passages, Yam Suph is associated with the Gulf of Aqaba, which marked the southern tip of King Solomon’s empire (1 Kin. 9:26; Ex. 23:31). Yet in other passages Yam Suph probably refers to the Gulf of Suez, since the narrative indicates a body of water bordering on Egypt (Ex. 10:19; 13:18).

Although traditionally translated as “Red Sea,” the Hebrew term Yam Suph probably means “Sea of Reeds.” In various passages, Yam Suph is identified as the sea of the Exodus (Ex. 15:4, 22), where the Israelites crossed over on dry ground, escaping the Egyptians who were drowned. Nevertheless, the geographical location of this sea remains ambiguous, since descriptions of Yam Suph reflect the geography of Egypt as the biblical writer knew it. The majority of scholars favor a location somewhere in the eastern Delta region of Egypt, but the true location is still undetermined.

the LORD your God, that He may take away from me this death only.”<sup>18</sup> So he went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD.<sup>19</sup> And the LORD turned a very strong west wind, which took the locusts away and blew them into the Red Sea. There remained not one locust in all the territory of Egypt.<sup>20</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

The Ninth Plague: Darkness

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, darkness which may even be felt.”<sup>22</sup> So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.<sup>23</sup> They did not see one another; nor did anyone rise from his place for three days. But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

<sup>24</sup>Then Pharaoh called to Moses and said, “Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be kept back. Let your little ones also go with you.”

<sup>25</sup>But Moses said, “You must also give us sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.<sup>26</sup> Our livestock also shall go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind. For we must take some of them to serve the LORD our God, and even we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we arrive there.”

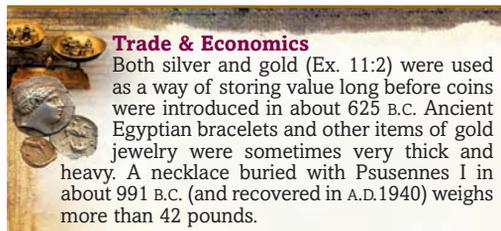

<sup>27</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let them go.<sup>28</sup> Then Pharaoh said to him, “Get away from me! Take heed to yourself and see my face no more! For in the day you see my face you shall die!”

<sup>29</sup>So Moses said, “You have spoken well. I will never see your face again.”

Death of the Firstborn Announced

11<sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will surely drive you out of here altogether.<sup>2</sup> Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbor and every woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold.”<sup>3</sup> And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh’s servants and in the sight of the people.

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt; and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the female servant who is behind the handmill, and all the firstborn of the animals.’<sup>6</sup> Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was not like it before, nor shall be like it again.<sup>7</sup> But against none of the children of Israel shall a dog move its tongue, against man or beast, that you may know that the LORD does make a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.’<sup>8</sup> And all these your servants shall come down to me and

Trade & Economics

Both silver and gold (Ex. 11:2) were used as a way of storing value long before coins were introduced in about 625 B.C. Ancient Egyptian bracelets and other items of gold jewelry were sometimes very thick and heavy. A necklace buried with Psusennes I in about 991 B.C. (and recovered in A.D. 1940) weighs more than 42 pounds.

ORIGINS OF THE PASSOVER MEAL (EX. 12:8)

Certain elements of the Passover ritual can be traced to ceremonies that celebrated the new agricultural year in farming cultures. These elements include a sacrifice to be eaten by the community, the eating of the new crop, bitter herbs, unleavened bread, thanksgiving for not dying during the period between harvests, and, of course, a new start. The Israelites would have known about these celebrations from farming in the Nile Delta.

God revealed through Moses a new meaning for the Israelite meal. Now the feast would symbolize salvation from Egyptian slavery and from death. The angel of death “passed over” the houses of the Israelites when He killed the firstborn of the Egyptians (Ex. 12:12, 13). The meal was to be prepared and eaten in haste, with the people ready to leave at a moment’s notice. There was not time for bread to rise or for meat to be cooked slowly, so the lamb was to be roasted quickly over the fire (Ex. 12:8–10).

To this day the Passover Seder is celebrated by all Jewish families throughout the world. It is prepared and eaten according to the rules of Ex. 12. As the meal is eaten, the story of Passover is related—not as something which happened long ago to ancestors, but always as happening now. It is now that God brings every person who partakes of the meal to freedom and to salvation. The feast establishes identity: we are the people of God, because God did these things for us. Anticipating the coming of God’s Messiah, Jewish tradition added to the service a place at the table for Elijah should the prophet come “this year” to proclaim the advent of the Messiah.

bow down to me, saying, ‘Get out, and all the people who follow you!’ After that I will go out.” Then he went out from Pharaoh in great anger.

<sup>9</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not heed you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.” <sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh; and the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

The Passover Instituted

12 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup>“This month shall be your beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you. <sup>3</sup>Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: ‘On the tenth of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household. <sup>4</sup>And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to each man’s need you shall make your count for the lamb. <sup>5</sup>Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats. <sup>6</sup>Now you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight. <sup>7</sup>And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it. <sup>8</sup>Then they shall eat the flesh on that night; roasted in fire, with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs they shall eat it. <sup>9</sup>Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted in fire—its head with its legs and its entrails. <sup>10</sup>You shall let none of it remain until morning, and what remains of it until morning you shall burn with fire. <sup>11</sup>And thus you shall eat it: with a belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. So you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD’s Passover.

<sup>12</sup>For I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>So this day shall be to you a memorial; and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by an everlasting ordinance. <sup>15</sup>Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel. <sup>16</sup>On the first day there shall be a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on them; but that which everyone must eat—that only may be prepared by you. <sup>17</sup>So you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this same day I will have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an everlasting ordinance. <sup>18</sup>In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening. <sup>19</sup>For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses, since whoever eats what is leavened, that same person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a stranger or a native of the land. <sup>20</sup>You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwellings you shall eat unleavened bread.’”

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb. <sup>22</sup>And you shall take a

EGYPT AND ITS GOLD (Ex. 12:35, 36)

Gold and silver were considered precious metals from the beginning of history. In Egyptian society, the king or pharaoh (as he was called) had the power to concentrate wealth for himself. According to Egyptian custom, when kings or queens were buried their treasure went with them into the ground. This custom sometimes allows us to see from an Egyptian tomb what kind of wealth the deceased ruler possessed, of which gold was usually included.

Such was the case when archaeologists discovered the tomb of the Egyptian pharaoh Tutankhamun with its treasure intact. The tomb contained all kinds of furniture, clothing, and other articles. The coffin of the king himself was made of solid gold about  $\frac{1}{8}$  inch thick and was over 6 feet long, weighing 243 pounds (or about 4 talents).

The wealth of Tutankhamun's tomb is indicative of the wealth that the Hebrews must have observed while in Egypt. Tutankhamun became king in 1336 B.C., which places him about a 100 years before or after the Hebrew exodus from Egypt. The date of the Exodus is debated, but scholars locate it at either 1446 B.C. or later around 1275 B.C. When the Hebrews had an opportunity to take something of Egypt with them, Egyptian gold must have been hard to resist (Ex. 12:35, 36).

bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning. <sup>23</sup>For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you. <sup>24</sup>And you shall observe this thing as an ordinance for you and your sons forever. <sup>25</sup>It will come to pass when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, just as He promised, that you shall keep this service. <sup>26</sup>And it shall be, when your children say to you, 'What do you mean by this service?' <sup>27</sup>that you shall say, 'It is the Passover sacrifice of the LORD, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our households.'" So the people bowed their heads and worshiped. <sup>28</sup>Then the children of Israel went away and did so; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

The Tenth Plague: Death of the Firstborn

<sup>29</sup>And it came to pass at midnight that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of livestock. <sup>30</sup>So Pharaoh rose in the night, he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

The Exodus

<sup>31</sup>Then he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise, go out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel. And go, serve the LORD as you have said. <sup>32</sup>Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also."

<sup>33</sup>And the Egyptians urged the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste. For they said, "We shall all be dead." <sup>34</sup>So the people took their dough before it was leavened, having their kneading bowls bound up in their clothes on their shoulders. <sup>35</sup>Now the children of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, and they had asked from the Egyptians articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing. <sup>36</sup>And the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they granted them what they requested. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

TRANSITION

The Exodus Begun

The actual date of the Exodus has been much debated. The two most frequently proposed possibilities are about 200 years apart: (1) in the 15th century B.C. during the reign of Thutmose III (1479–1425 B.C.) and (2) in the 13th century B.C. under Ramesses II (1279–1213 B.C.). The 15th-century date fits the numbers given in 1 Kin. 6:1 which places the Exodus 480 years before Solomon's temple, which would be about 1446 B.C. A 13th-century date, around 1275 B.C., seems to better fit other evidence (e.g., the building of the city of Raamses mentioned in Ex. 1:11) but requires understanding the 480 years of 1 Kings as a symbolic number.

Both dates place the Exodus in times of clear Egyptian supremacy, however, and this may be the essential point. The fact that the Book of Exodus does not name the Egyptian king—the very fact that so frustrates historians—is peculiarly appropriate in a book that tells how the ruler of the world’s greatest empire is humbled before the mighty arm of Israel’s God.

• Exodus 12:37—18:27

Exodus

12:37 Then the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children. <sup>38</sup>A mixed multitude went up with them also, and flocks and herds—a great deal of livestock. <sup>39</sup>And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Egypt; for it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared provisions for themselves.

<sup>40</sup>Now the sojourn of the children of Israel who lived in Egypt<sup>40</sup> was four hundred and thirty years. <sup>41</sup>And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years—on that very same day—it came to pass that all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup>It is a night of solemn observance to the LORD for bringing them out of the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD, a solemn observance for all the children of Israel throughout their generations.

Passover Regulations

bones. <sup>47</sup>All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. <sup>48</sup>And when a stranger dwells with you and wants to keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as a native of the land. For no uncircumcised person shall eat it. <sup>49</sup>One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you.”

<sup>50</sup>Thus all the children of Israel did; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. <sup>51</sup>And it came to pass, on that very same day, that the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their armies.

The Firstborn Consecrated

13 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Mine.”

The Feast of Unleavened Bread

<sup>3</sup>And Moses said to the people: “Remember this day in which you went out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out of this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>4</sup>On this day you are going out, in the month Abib. <sup>5</sup>And it shall be, when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month. <sup>6</sup>Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the

The Route of the Exodus

Two routes have been proposed for the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt. A northern route moves east from Rameses along the northern Sinai coast. The southern route passes Succoth, continuing to the lower region of the Sinai Peninsula.

THE ROAD THROUGH PHILISTIA (Ex. 13:17)

There were three ancient routes between Asia and Egypt. One route went from Elath near Ezion Geber (1 Kin. 9:26) across the Sinai Peninsula to the area of the Suez around the city of On (Heliopolis). Another route stretched from near Beersheba in the Negev to the area of the Suez. The route most commonly used, however, especially by Egyptian armies, was the “way of the land of the Philistines” (Ex. 13:17).

In Egypt this roadway was called the “way of Horus,” named for Egypt’s earliest state god. The way of Horus was a coastal route that left Egypt from the northeast. It ran along the northern reaches of the Sinai Peninsula, and along the coast of Canaan. If a traveler was going toward Damascus, he would cut inland passing Megiddo and then down the Jezreel Valley to Hazor and from there cross into Transjordan. More northerly destinations would continue along the coast. The route did not actually lie within sight of the Mediterranean Sea, since the land closest to the water was marshy. Instead it lay inland a few miles where the soil was firmer.

The biblical name “way of the land of the Philistines” alludes to the coastal area where the Philistines lived and through which the way of Horus passed. From the point of view of the Israelites, the way of Horus came and went through Philistia and was, thus, the “way of the land of the Philistines.” In later times, when the Philistines were not a distinguishable people, this route was known simply as the “way of the sea” (Is. 9:1).

LORD. <sup>7</sup>Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. And no leavened bread shall be seen among you, nor shall leaven be seen among you in all your quarters. <sup>8</sup>And you shall tell your son in that day, saying, ‘This is done because of what the LORD did for me when I came up from Egypt.’ <sup>9</sup>It shall be as a sign to you on your hand and as a memorial between your eyes, that the LORD’s law may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

The Law of the Firstborn

<sup>11</sup>“And it shall be, when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you, <sup>12</sup>that you shall set apart to the LORD all that open the womb, that is, every firstborn that comes from an animal which you have; the males shall be the LORD’s. <sup>13</sup>But every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem. <sup>14</sup>So it shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is this?’ that you shall say to him, ‘By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>15</sup>And it came to pass, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of beast. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all males that open the womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.’ <sup>16</sup>It shall be as a sign on your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.”

The Wilderness Way

<sup>17</sup>Then it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, “Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt.” <sup>18</sup>So God led the people around by way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up in orderly ranks out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had placed the children of Israel under solemn oath, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here with you.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>20</sup>So they took their journey from Succoth and camped in Etham at the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so as to go by day and night. <sup>22</sup>He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day or the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

The Red Sea Crossing

14 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn and camp before Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, opposite Baal Zephon; you shall camp before it by the sea. <sup>3</sup>For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, ‘They are bewildered by the land; the wilderness has closed them in.’ <sup>4</sup>Then I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, so that he will pursue them; and I will gain honor

TWO DATES FOR THE EXODUS

Two dating schemes have been proposed for the Exodus from Egypt—an “early” date and a “late” date. The early scheme considers the 480 years of 1 Kin. 6:1 to be a precise note of time; the late scheme considers it to be a symbolic figure, not an actual one.

A 15th-Century Exodus

When: Approximately 1446 B.C.

Ruling Pharaoh: Thutmose III (1479–1425 B.C.)

Reasons: 1 Kin. 6:1 states that the Exodus occurred 480 years before Solomon began building the temple.

Solomon, who reigned from 970 to 930 B.C., began the temple in the 4th year of his reign (about 966 B.C.).

The Exodus would then have occurred 480 years before 966 B.C., placing it in 1446 B.C.

A 13th-Century Exodus

When: Approximately 1275 B.C.

Ruling Pharaoh: Ramesses II (1279–1213 B.C.)

Reasons: Ex. 1:11 states that the Hebrew slaves built the supply cities, Pithom and Raamses.

Egyptian sources suggest that Pharaoh Ramesses renamed the city of Raamses after himself.

The 480 years of 1 Kin. 6:1 is a symbolic number, representing 12 generations of 40 years each.

over Pharaoh and over all his army, that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD.” And they did so.

<sup>5</sup>Now it was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled, and the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned against the people; and they said, “Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?” <sup>6</sup>So he made ready his chariot and took his people with him. <sup>7</sup>Also, he took six hundred choice chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt with captains over every one of them. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the children of Israel; and the children of Israel went out with boldness. <sup>9</sup>So the Egyptians pursued them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and overtook them camping by the sea beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

<sup>10</sup>And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them. So they were very afraid, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Then they said to Moses, “Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you so dealt with us, to bring us up out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup>Is this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying, ‘Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians?’ For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness.”

<sup>13</sup>And Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever. <sup>14</sup>The LORD will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace.”

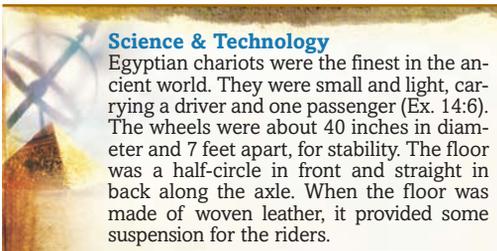

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Why do you cry to Me? Tell the children of Israel to go forward. <sup>16</sup>But lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it. And the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. <sup>17</sup>And I indeed will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them. So I will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, his chariots, and his horsemen. <sup>18</sup>Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gained honor for Myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen.”

<sup>19</sup>And the Angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud went from before them and stood behind them. <sup>20</sup>So it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. Thus it was a cloud and darkness to the one, and it gave light by night to the other, so that the one did not come near the other all that night.

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea into dry land, and the waters were divided. <sup>22</sup>So

Science & Technology

Egyptian chariots were the finest in the ancient world. They were small and light, carrying a driver and one passenger (Ex. 14:6). The wheels were about 40 inches in diameter and 7 feet apart, for stability. The floor was a half-circle in front and straight in back along the axle. When the floor was made of woven leather, it provided some suspension for the riders.

the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. <sup>23</sup>And the Egyptians pursued and went after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come back upon the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen." <sup>27</sup>And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and when the morning appeared, the sea returned to its full depth, while the Egyptians were fleeing into it. So the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. <sup>28</sup>Then the waters returned and covered the chariots, the horsemen, and all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. Not so much as one of them remained. <sup>29</sup>But the children of Israel had walked on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

<sup>30</sup>So the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. <sup>31</sup>Thus Israel saw the great work which the LORD had done in Egypt; so the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD and His servant Moses.

The Song of Moses

15 <sup>1</sup>Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying:

- "I will sing to the LORD,
For He has triumphed gloriously!
The horse and its rider
He has thrown into the sea!
<sup>2</sup> The LORD is my strength and song,
And He has become my salvation;
He is my God, and I will praise Him;
My father's God, and I will exalt Him.
<sup>3</sup> The LORD is a man of war;
The LORD is His name.
<sup>4</sup> Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has cast into the sea;
His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.
<sup>5</sup> The depths have covered them;
They sank to the bottom like a stone.
<sup>6</sup> "Your right hand, O LORD, has become glorious in power;
Your right hand, O LORD, has dashed the enemy in pieces.
<sup>7</sup> And in the greatness of Your excellence
You have overthrown those who rose against You;
You sent forth Your wrath;
It consumed them like stubble.
<sup>8</sup> And with the blast of Your nostrils
The waters were gathered together;
The floods stood upright like a heap;
The depths congealed in the heart of the sea.

GOD AMONG THE WARRIOR DEITIES (Ex. 15:1–21)

The Song of Moses and Miriam in Ex. 15:1–21 is a victory song like those sung in many cultures in the ancient world. God is praised as a warrior going out to fight for Israel.

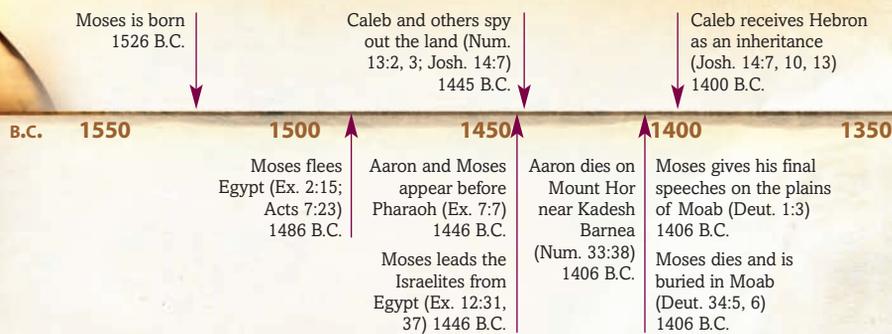

In the faith of the ancient world, armies did not go to battle alone. The deity or deities of the army fought in heaven and on earth against the opposing army and its gods. Nearly every culture had a deity of war. The Canaanite goddess Anath bedecked herself with parts of corpses from slain soldiers. The Mesopotamian goddess Ishtar led armies, along with the patron deities of the warring cities. All gods who were responsible for particular cities were expected to be able to defend their territory.

So Israel's God, bringing His people out of Egypt, is depicted in song as having defeated the army (and thus also the gods) of the Egyptians by Himself. The use of water to destroy enemies is ancient. Songs about the defeat of the Sumerian city of Ur early in the 2nd millennium B.C. tell about floods and roaring rivers sent by the gods to destroy the city. In Israel's song God picks up chariots and riders and throws them into the water like so many toys (Ex. 15:1, 4).

The language, symbols and imagery of Israel's song are those commonly used for war deities in the ancient Near East. Israel's enemies near and far are terrified (Ex. 15:14–16). Terror, or fear, was assumed to be a separate substance which went before the deity, defeating enemies even before the god arrived. The people of the victorious deity are established in their proper place, and the winning god is enthroned as ruler over the vanquished deities (15:16–18).

The peoples around Israel would understand such phrases familiar to ancient civilization. Thus, they would recognize the victory song of Moses and Miriam as praise for the work of a warrior deity who was mightier than any other deity ("Who is like You, O LORD, among the gods?" Ex. 15:11).

MOSES AND THE PROMISED LAND (EARLY EXODUS)

9 The enemy said, 'I will pursue,
I will overtake,
I will divide the spoil;
My desire shall be satisfied on them.
I will draw my sword,
My hand shall destroy them.'

10 You blew with Your wind,
The sea covered them;
They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

11 "Who is like You, O LORD, among the gods?
Who is like You, glorious in holiness,
Fearful in praises, doing wonders?
12 You stretched out Your right hand;
The earth swallowed them.
13 You in Your mercy have led forth
The people whom You have redeemed;
You have guided them in Your strength
To Your holy habitation.

14 "The people will hear and be afraid;
Sorrow will take hold of the inhabitants of Philistia.
15 Then the chiefs of Edom will be dismayed;
The mighty men of Moab,
Trembling will take hold of them;
All the inhabitants of Canaan will melt away.
16 Fear and dread will fall on them;
By the greatness of Your arm
They will be as still as a stone,
Till Your people pass over, O LORD,
Till the people pass over
Whom You have purchased.
17 You will bring them in and plant them
In the mountain of Your inheritance,
In the place, O LORD, which You have made
For Your own dwelling,
The sanctuary, O LORD, which Your hands have established.

18 "The LORD shall reign forever and ever."

<sup>19</sup>For the horses of Pharaoh went with his chariots and his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them. But the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

The Song of Miriam

<sup>20</sup>Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took the timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. <sup>21</sup>And Miriam answered them:

"Sing to the LORD,
For He has triumphed gloriously!
The horse and its rider
He has thrown into the sea!"

Bitter Waters Made Sweet

<sup>22</sup>So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea; then they went out into the Wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness and found no water. <sup>23</sup>Now when they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah.<sup>a</sup> <sup>24</sup>And the people complained against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?" <sup>25</sup>So he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree. When he cast it into the waters, the waters were made sweet.

There He made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there He tested them,<sup>26</sup>and said, "If you diligently heed the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in His sight, give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians. For I am the LORD who heals you."

MOSES AND THE PROMISED LAND (LATE EXODUS)

<sup>27</sup>Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there by the waters.

Bread from Heaven

16 <sup>1</sup>And they journeyed from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they departed from the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>Then the whole congregation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup>And the children of Israel said to them, “Oh, that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat and when we ate bread to the full! For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you. And the people shall go out and gather a certain quota every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in My law or not. <sup>5</sup>And it shall be on the sixth day that they shall prepare what they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.”

<sup>6</sup>Then Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, “At evening you shall know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD; for He hears your complaints against the LORD. But what are we, that you complain against us?” <sup>8</sup>Also Moses said, “This shall be seen when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to the full; for the LORD hears your complaints which you make against Him. And what are we? Your complaints are not against us but against the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses spoke to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the children of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your complaints.’” <sup>10</sup>Now it came to pass, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>12</sup>“I have heard the complaints of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’”

<sup>13</sup>So it was that quails came up at evening and covered the camp, and in the morning the dew lay all around the camp. <sup>14</sup>And when the layer of dew lifted, there, on the surface of the wilderness, was a small round substance, as fine as frost on the ground. <sup>15</sup>So when the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was.

And Moses said to them, “This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat. <sup>16</sup>This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: ‘Let every man gather it according to each one’s need, one omer for each person, according to the number of persons; let every man take for those who are in his tent.’”

The quails that fell upon the Israelite camp were most likely a migrating flock. When the tired birds landed to rest, it was easy for the people to catch them.

<sup>17</sup>Then the children of Israel did so and gathered, some more, some less. <sup>18</sup>So when they measured it by omer, he who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack. Every man had gathered according to each one's need. <sup>19</sup>And Moses said, "Let no one leave any of it till morning." <sup>20</sup>Notwithstanding they did not heed Moses. But some of them left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. And Moses was angry with them. <sup>21</sup>So they gathered it every morning, every man according to his need. And when the sun became hot, it melted.

<sup>22</sup>And so it was, on the sixth day, that they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. <sup>23</sup>Then he said to them, "This is what the LORD has said: "Tomorrow is a Sabbath rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake today, and boil what you will boil; and lay up for yourselves all that remains, to be kept until morning." <sup>24</sup>So they laid it up till morning, as Moses commanded; and it did not stink, nor were there any worms in it. <sup>25</sup>Then Moses said, "Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field. <sup>26</sup>Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none."

<sup>27</sup>Now it happened that some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather, but they found none. <sup>28</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, "How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws? <sup>29</sup>See! For the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore He gives you on the sixth day bread for two days. Let every man remain in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day." <sup>30</sup>So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup>And the house of Israel called its name Manna.<sup>a</sup> And it was like white coriander seed, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

<sup>32</sup>Then Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: 'Fill an omer with it, to be kept for your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.'" <sup>33</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, "Take a pot and put an omer of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations."

it up before the Testimony, to be kept. <sup>35</sup>And the children of Israel ate manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan. <sup>36</sup>Now an omer is one-tenth of an ephah.

Water from the Rock

17 <sup>1</sup>Then all the congregation of the children of Israel set out on their journey from the Wilderness of Sin, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup>Therefore the people contended with Moses, and said, "Give us water, that we may drink."

So Moses said to them, "Why do you contend with me? Why do you tempt the LORD?"

<sup>3</sup>And the people thirsted there for water, and the people complained against Moses, and said, "Why is it you have brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?"

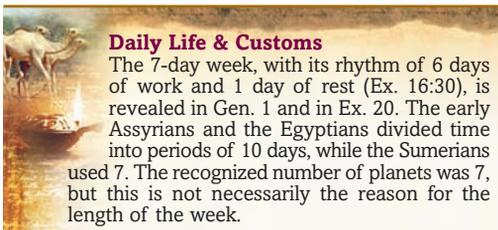

<sup>4</sup>So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me!"

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, "Go on before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. Also take in your hand your rod with which you struck the river, and go. <sup>6</sup>Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink."

And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. <sup>7</sup>So he called the name of the place Massah<sup>a</sup> and Meribah,<sup>b</sup> because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

Victory over the Amalekites

<sup>8</sup>Now Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim. <sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Joshua, "Choose us some men and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand." <sup>10</sup>So Joshua did as Moses said to him, and fought with Amalek. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup>And so it was, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. <sup>12</sup>But Moses' hands became heavy; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. <sup>13</sup>So Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Daily Life & Customs

The 7-day week, with its rhythm of 6 days of work and 1 day of rest (Ex. 16:30), is revealed in Gen. 1 and in Ex. 20. The early Assyrians and the Egyptians divided time into periods of 10 days, while the Sumerians used 7. The recognized number of planets was 7, but this is not necessarily the reason for the length of the week.

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this for a memorial in the book and recount it in the hearing of Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.”

<sup>15</sup>And Moses built an altar and called its name, The-LORD-Is-My-Banner;<sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup>for he said, “Because the LORD has sworn: the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.”

Jethro's Advice

18 <sup>1</sup>And Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people—that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, <sup>3</sup>with her two sons, of whom the name of one was Gershom (for he said, “I have been a stranger in a foreign land”)<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>and the name of the other was Eliezer<sup>a</sup> (for he said, “The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh”); <sup>5</sup>and Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness, where he was encamped at the mountain of God. <sup>6</sup>Now he had said to Moses, “I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her.”

<sup>7</sup>So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and kissed him. And they asked each other about their well-being, and they went into the tent. <sup>8</sup>And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had come upon them on the way, and how the LORD had delivered them. <sup>9</sup>Then Jethro rejoiced for all the good which the LORD had done for Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup>And Jethro said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>11</sup>Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the gods; for in the very thing in which they behaved proudly, He was above them.” <sup>12</sup>Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took<sup>a</sup> a burnt offering and other sacrifices to offer to God. And Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

<sup>13</sup>And so it was, on the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people; and the people stood before Moses from morning until evening. <sup>14</sup>So when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did for the people, he said, “What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit, and all the people stand before you from morning until evening?”

<sup>15</sup>And Moses said to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to inquire of God. <sup>16</sup>When they have a difficulty, they come to me, and I judge between one and another; and I make known the statutes of God and His laws.”

<sup>17</sup>So Moses' father-in-law said to him, “The thing that you do is not good. <sup>18</sup>Both you and these people who are with you will surely wear yourselves out. For this thing is too much for you; you are not able to perform it by yourself. <sup>19</sup>Listen now to my voice; I will give you counsel, and God will be with you: Stand before God for the people, so that you may bring the difficulties to God. <sup>20</sup>And you shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and show them the way in which they must walk and the work they must do. <sup>21</sup>Moreover you shall select from all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>22</sup>And let them judge the people at all times. Then it will be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they themselves shall judge. So it will be easier for you, for they will bear the burden with you. <sup>23</sup>If you do this thing, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all this people will also go to their place in peace.”

<sup>24</sup>So Moses heeded the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said. <sup>25</sup>And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people: rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>26</sup>So they judged the people at all times; the hard cases they brought to Moses, but they judged every small case themselves.

<sup>27</sup>Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way to his own land.

WHERE THE GODS LIVE: SACRED MOUNTAINS (Ex. 19:2, 3)

Where heaven and earth met, humans and deities could come together. On the physical landscape of the ancient world, this meant mountains. Since ancient people thought deities actually lived on the peak of a sacred mountain, they built temples or altars on or near the mountain in honor of the gods.

So it was all over the Near East. The Canaanites and Phoenicians believed their gods lived on actual mountains near their cities. At Ugarit, El lived on Mount Zaphon. In Ex. 19:20, Israel's God Yahweh lives on Mount Sinai. Later, the Judeans believed Yahweh took up His residence on Mount Zion in Jerusalem, while the Samaritans said He lived on Mount Gerizim near Samaria. In the flat river valleys of Mesopotamia, worshippers of various deities built their own mountains, called ziggurats. The most famous ziggurat was that of Babylon, Etemenanki.

The appearance of the deity (called "theophany") at the sacred mountain often was accompanied by thunder, lightning, earthquakes, clouds, loud noises, lesser deities, and terror. Many of these characteristics are present in the description of God coming down on Sinai (Ex. 19:16–19).

Usually only priests were willing to risk experiencing such presence of the god. The actual appearance of the deity itself was thought to be dangerous to people who had not properly prepared themselves. The people of Israel were carefully prepared for the visit of God to the mountain (Ex. 19:10–13). Despite preparations, they were too terrified to actually meet God, and so Moses served as intermediary between God and the people (Ex. 19:23–25; 20:18–21).

TRANSITION

At Mount Sinai

The Israelites arrived at Mount Sinai in the 3rd month following their exodus from Egypt (Ex. 19:1). Here they would remain for several months while God's glory rested on the mountain. They completed work on the tabernacle in the 1st month of the 2nd year of the Exodus (Ex. 40:17), thus one year after leaving Egypt (Ex. 12:2, 3).

• Exodus 19:1—40:38

Exodus

Israel at the Mountain

19:1 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai. <sup>2</sup>For they had departed from Rephidim, had come to the Wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness. So Israel camped there before the mountain.

<sup>3</sup>And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: <sup>4</sup>'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself. <sup>5</sup>Now therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine. <sup>6</sup>And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel."

<sup>7</sup>So Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD commanded him. <sup>8</sup>Then all the people answered together and said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do." So Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I come to you in the thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever."

So Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes. <sup>11</sup>And let them be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people. <sup>12</sup>You shall set bounds for the people all around, saying, 'Take heed to yourselves that you do not go up to the mountain or touch its base. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death. <sup>13</sup>Not a hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot with an arrow; whether man or beast, he shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come near the mountain."

<sup>14</sup>So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup>And he said to the people, "Be ready for the third day; do not come near your wives."

<sup>16</sup>Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup>And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. <sup>18</sup>Now Mount Sinai was

Geography & Environment

The Sinai Peninsula is a triangle of land between Egypt and Israel, about 125 miles east to west and 200 miles north to south. The traditional location of Mount Sinai (Ex. 19:18) is toward the south at Jebel Musa, a mountain 7,500 feet in altitude. This tradition is not early. The peninsula as a whole is inhospitable, desert land.

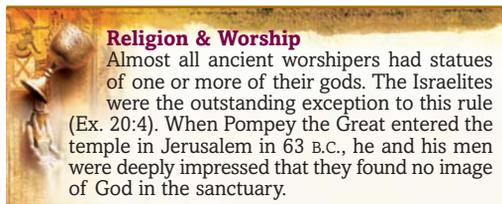

completely in smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire. Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain<sup>e</sup> quaked greatly. <sup>19</sup>And when the blast of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by voice. <sup>20</sup>Then the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Go down and warn the people, lest they break through to gaze at the LORD, and many of them perish. <sup>22</sup>Also let the priests who come near the LORD consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break out against them.”

<sup>23</sup>But Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai; for You warned us, saying, ‘Set bounds around the mountain and consecrate it.’”

<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD said to him, “Away! Get down and then come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest He break out against them.” <sup>25</sup>So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Religion & Worship

Almost all ancient worshippers had statues of one or more of their gods. The Israelites were the outstanding exception to this rule (Ex. 20:4). When Pompey the Great entered the temple in Jerusalem in 63 B.C., he and his men were deeply impressed that they found no image of God in the sanctuary.

The Ten Commandments

20 <sup>1</sup>And God spoke all these words, saying: <sup>2</sup>“I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

<sup>4</sup> “You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; <sup>5</sup>you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, <sup>6</sup>but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

<sup>7</sup> “You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.

- <sup>8</sup> “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. <sup>9</sup>Six days you shall labor and do all your work, <sup>10</sup>but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates. <sup>11</sup>For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.
- <sup>12</sup> “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
- <sup>13</sup> “You shall not murder.
- <sup>14</sup> “You shall not commit adultery.
- <sup>15</sup> “You shall not steal.
- <sup>16</sup> “You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

The People Afraid of God’s Presence

<sup>18</sup>Now all the people witnessed the thunders, the lightning flashes, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw it, they trembled and stood afar off. <sup>19</sup>Then they said to Moses, “You speak with us, and we will hear; but let not God speak with us, lest we die.”

<sup>20</sup>And Moses said to the people, “Do not fear; for God has come to test you, and that His fear may be before you, so that you may not sin.”

<sup>21</sup>So the people stood afar off, but Moses drew near the thick darkness where God was.

The Law of the Altar

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: ‘You have seen that I have talked with you from heaven. <sup>23</sup>You shall not make anything to be with Me—gods of

The Law Concerning Servants

21 <sup>1</sup>‘Now these are the judgments which you shall set before them: <sup>2</sup>If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years; and in the seventh he shall go out free and pay nothing. <sup>3</sup>If he comes in by himself, he shall go out by himself; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him. <sup>4</sup>If his master has given him a wife, and she has borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master’s, and he shall go out by himself. <sup>5</sup>But if the servant plainly says, ‘I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,’ <sup>6</sup>then his master shall bring him to the judges. He shall also bring him to the door, or to the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him forever.

<sup>7</sup>‘And if a man sells his daughter to be a female slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves do. <sup>8</sup>If she does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt deceitfully with her. <sup>9</sup>And if he has betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of daughters. <sup>10</sup>If he takes another wife, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, and her marriage rights. <sup>11</sup>And if he does not do these three for her, then she shall go out free, without paying money.

The Law Concerning Violence

<sup>12</sup>‘He who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death. <sup>13</sup>However, if he did not lie in wait, but God delivered him into his hand, then I will appoint for you a place where he may flee.

<sup>14</sup>‘But if a man acts with premeditation against his neighbor, to kill him by treachery, you shall take him from My altar, that he may die.

<sup>15</sup>‘And he who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

<sup>16</sup>‘He who kidnaps a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, shall surely be put to death.

<sup>17</sup>‘And he who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

<sup>18</sup>‘If men contend with each other, and one strikes the other with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die but is confined to his bed, <sup>19</sup>if he rises again and walks about outside with his staff, then he who struck him shall be acquitted. He shall only pay for the loss of his time, and shall provide for him to be thoroughly healed.

<sup>20</sup>‘And if a man beats his male or female servant with a rod, so that he dies under his hand, he shall surely be punished. <sup>21</sup>Notwithstanding, if he remains alive a day or two, he shall not be punished; for he is his property.

<sup>22</sup>‘If men fight, and hurt a woman with child, so that she gives birth prematurely, yet no harm follows, he shall surely be punished accordingly as the woman’s husband imposes on him; and he shall pay as the judges determine. <sup>23</sup>But if any harm follows, then you shall give life for life, <sup>24</sup>eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, <sup>25</sup>burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

THE OX THAT GORED (EX. 21:28–32)

Certain laws found in the Law of Moses concern subject matter that is treated quite similarly in the laws of other ancient Near Eastern cultures. One example is the law dealing with an ox that gores a human causing personal injury or death (Ex. 21:28–32). A “goring-ox” law was not unique to Israel; at least four other ancient Near Eastern traditions had legislation on this issue.

The earliest appearance of ox-goring laws comes from Eshnunna, an early Old Babylonian period site (c. 2017–1793 B.C.) on the Diyala River in Mesopotamia. Such laws are also found in the Code of Hammurabi, a set of legal promulgations from Babylon (c. 1792–1750 B.C.). In these laws, there is no stipulation to stone an ox that gored habitually. The owner, rather, was heavily fined, especially if the ox had not been previously dehorned. In Israel, owners were also fined (21:30–32), but the ox was stoned (21:28).

Other examples of ox-goring legislation show that such laws existed over a long period of time. One letter comes from the Old Babylonian city of Mari on the Syrian side of the Euphrates River. The Mari tablets date from around 1813 to 1760 B.C., and demonstrate that goring-ox laws were actually put into practice in Syro-Mesopotamia during the time of the biblical patriarchs. Another letter from Nuzi in northern Mesopotamia places similar laws a few centuries later (c. 1450–1330 B.C.).

Apparently, Israel shared in a tradition of laws that were common in the ancient Near East. In the case of the goring-ox laws, Israel and the Old Babylonian cultures shared the principle of negligence and liability. Owners who failed to safeguard against potentially dangerous situations were held responsible (21:29).

THE CODE OF HAMMURABI (Ex. 22:16, 17)

Babylon's king Hammurabi (1792–1750 B.C.) is best known for his law code. The Code of Hammurabi (as it is called) contains 282 laws and has numerous parallels with Scripture. Few of the laws, however, were ever cited in existing Old Babylonian court cases. At any rate, the collection of laws therein is incomplete and ignores many subjects. Hammurabi did not create these laws; rather, they appear to be a collection of diverse traditions.

The format of the Code of Hammurabi shows a similarity with laws in Exodus, Leviticus, and Deuteronomy. Both the Code of Hammurabi and the Covenant Code, found in Ex. 20:22–23:33, have a series of laws structured in an “if . . . then” format. These laws begin with the word “if,” introducing a description of a potentially criminal situation. The format continues with the word “then,” offering a description of the penalty. This format or style of law is often called case law since its format describes particular cases or situations.

The “if . . . then” format of the Code of Hammurabi appears frequently in the Covenant Code (with and without the word “then”; Ex. 22:8, 16, 17). The similarities of these two codes (and others) show there was a widespread legal tradition in the 2nd millennium B.C. In fact a number of situations mentioned in the Hammurabi code are virtually duplicated in the Mosaic code, often with different penalties.

The Code of Hammurabi shares parallels with scriptural laws recorded in Exodus, Leviticus, and Deuteronomy.

<sup>26</sup>“If a man strikes the eye of his male or female servant, and destroys it, he shall let him go free for the sake of his eye. <sup>27</sup>And if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female servant, he shall let him go free for the sake of his tooth.

Animal Control Laws

<sup>28</sup>“If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, then the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be acquitted. <sup>29</sup>But if the ox tended to thrust with its horn in times past, and it has been made known to his owner, and he has not kept it confined, so that it has killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death. <sup>30</sup>If there is imposed on him a sum of money, then he shall pay to redeem his life, whatever is imposed on him. <sup>31</sup>Whether it has gored a son or gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him. <sup>32</sup>If the ox gores a male or female servant, he shall give to their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

<sup>33</sup>“And if a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls in it, <sup>34</sup>the owner of the pit shall make it good; he shall give money to their owner, but the dead animal shall be his.

<sup>35</sup>“If one man's ox hurts another's, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the money from it; and the dead ox they shall also divide. <sup>36</sup>Or if it was known that the ox tended to thrust in time past, and its owner has not kept it confined, he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead animal shall be his own.

Responsibility for Property

22 <sup>1</sup>“If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, he shall restore five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep. <sup>2</sup>If the thief is found breaking in, and he is struck so that he dies, there shall be no guilt for his bloodshed. <sup>3</sup>If the sun has risen on him, there shall be guilt for his bloodshed. He should make full restitution; if he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. <sup>4</sup>If the theft is certainly found alive in his hand, whether it is an ox or donkey or sheep, he shall restore double.

<sup>5</sup>“If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed, and lets loose his animal, and it feeds in another man's field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

<sup>6</sup>“If fire breaks out and catches in thorns, so that stacked grain, standing grain, or the field is consumed, he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

<sup>7</sup>“If a man delivers to his neighbor money or articles to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house, if the thief is found, he shall pay double. <sup>8</sup>If the thief is not found, then the master of the house shall be brought to the judges to see whether he has put his hand into his neighbor's goods.

<sup>9</sup>“For any kind of trespass, whether it concerns an ox, a donkey, a sheep, or clothing, or for any kind of lost thing which another claims to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before

The law that requires a penalty equal to the damage caused by the crime is called Lex talionis. This is a Latin term that means “law of retaliation.” The idea is familiar to most people through its expression in the Hebrew Bible (Ex. 21:24). Some ancient codes called for penalties greater than the injury to be repaid.

the judges; and whomever the judges condemn shall pay double to his neighbor. <sup>10</sup>If a man delivers to his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies, is hurt, or driven away, no one seeing it, <sup>11</sup>then an oath of the LORD shall be between them both, that he has not put his hand into his neighbor's goods; and the owner of it shall accept that, and he shall not make it good. <sup>12</sup>But if, in fact, it is stolen from him, he shall make restitution to the owner of it. <sup>13</sup>If it is torn to pieces by a beast, then he shall bring it as evidence, and he shall not make good what was torn.

<sup>14</sup>And if a man borrows anything from his neighbor, and it becomes injured or dies, the owner of it not being with it, he shall surely make it good. <sup>15</sup>If its owner was with it, he shall not make it good; if it was hired, it came for its hire.

Moral and Ceremonial Principles

<sup>21</sup>You shall neither mistreat a stranger nor oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child. <sup>23</sup>If you afflict them in any way, and they cry at all to Me, I will surely hear their cry; <sup>24</sup>and My wrath will become hot, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

<sup>25</sup>If you lend money to any of My people who are poor among you, you shall not be like a moneylender to him; you shall not charge him interest. <sup>26</sup>If you ever take your neighbor's garment as a pledge, you shall return it to him before the sun goes down. <sup>27</sup>For that is his only covering, it is his garment for his skin. What will he sleep in? And it will be that when he cries to Me, I will hear, for I am gracious.

<sup>29</sup>You shall not delay to offer the first of your ripe produce and your juices. The firstborn of your sons you shall give to Me. <sup>30</sup>Likewise you shall do with your oxen and your sheep. It shall be with its mother seven days; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

<sup>31</sup>And you shall be holy men to Me: you shall not eat meat torn by beasts in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Justice for All

23 <sup>1</sup>You shall not circulate a false report. Do not put your hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. <sup>2</sup>You shall not follow a crowd to do evil; nor shall you testify in a dispute so as to turn aside after many to pervert justice. <sup>3</sup>You shall not show partiality to a poor man in his dispute.

<sup>4</sup>If you meet your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again. <sup>5</sup>If you see the donkey of one who hates you lying under its burden, and you would refrain from helping it, you shall surely help him with it.

<sup>6</sup>You shall not pervert the judgment of your poor in his dispute. <sup>7</sup>Keep yourself far from a false matter; do not kill the innocent and righteous. For I will not justify the wicked. <sup>8</sup>And you shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the discerning and perverts the words of the righteous.

<sup>9</sup>Also you shall not oppress a stranger, for you know the heart of a stranger, because you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

The Law of Sabbaths

<sup>10</sup>Six years you shall sow your land and gather in its produce, <sup>11</sup>but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave, the beasts of the field may eat. In like manner you shall do with your vineyard and your olive grove. <sup>12</sup>Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female servant and the stranger may be refreshed.

<sup>13</sup>And in all that I have said to you, be circumspect and make no mention of the name of other gods, nor let it be heard from your mouth.

Three Annual Feasts

<sup>14</sup>Three times you shall keep a feast to Me in the year: <sup>15</sup>You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread (you shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt; none shall appear before Me empty); <sup>16</sup>and the Feast of Harvest, the firstfruits of your labors which you have sown in the field; and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you have gathered in the fruit of your labors from the field.

<sup>18</sup>“You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread; nor shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until morning. <sup>19</sup>The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

The Angel and the Promises

<sup>20</sup>“Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. <sup>21</sup>Beware of Him and obey His voice; do not provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions; for My name is in Him. <sup>22</sup>But if you indeed obey His voice and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries. <sup>23</sup>For My Angel will go before you and bring you in to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off. <sup>24</sup>You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their works; but you shall utterly overthrow them and completely break down their sacred pillars.

<sup>25</sup>“So you shall serve the LORD your God, and He will bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you. <sup>26</sup>No one shall suffer miscarriage or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.

<sup>27</sup>“I will send My fear before you, I will cause confusion among all the people to whom you come, and will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. <sup>28</sup>And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before you. <sup>29</sup>I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the beasts of the field become too numerous for you. <sup>30</sup>Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased, and you inherit the land. <sup>31</sup>And I will set your bounds from the Red Sea to the sea, Philistia, and from the desert to the River.<sup>a</sup> For I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you. <sup>32</sup>You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. <sup>33</sup>They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against Me. For if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.”

Israel Affirms the Covenant

24 <sup>1</sup>Now He said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship from afar. <sup>2</sup>And Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near; nor shall the people go up with him.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, “All the words which the LORD has said we will do.” <sup>4</sup>And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD. And he rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Then he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And Moses took half the blood and put it in basins, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar. <sup>7</sup>Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read in the hearing of the people. And they said, “All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient.” <sup>8</sup>And Moses took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and said, “This is the blood of the covenant which the LORD has made with you according to all these words.”

On the Mountain with God

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses went up, also Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, <sup>10</sup>and they saw the God of Israel. And there was under His feet as it were a paved work of sapphire stone, and it was like the very heavens in its clarity. <sup>11</sup>But on the nobles of the children of Israel He did not lay His hand. So they saw God, and they ate and drank.

Me on the mountain and be there; and I will give you tablets of stone, and the law and commandments which I have written, that you may teach them.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses arose with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up to the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup>And he said to the elders, “Wait here for us until we come back to you. Indeed, Aaron and Hur are with you. If any man has a difficulty, let him go to them.” <sup>15</sup>Then Moses went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain.

<sup>16</sup>Now the glory of the LORD rested on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. <sup>17</sup>The sight of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel. <sup>18</sup>So Moses went into the midst of the cloud and went up into the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Offerings for the Sanctuary

25 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring Me an offering. From everyone who gives it willingly with his heart you shall take My offering. <sup>3</sup>And this is the offering which you shall take from them: gold, silver, and bronze; <sup>4</sup>blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats’ hair; <sup>5</sup>ram skins dyed red, badger skins, and acacia wood; <sup>6</sup>oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense; <sup>7</sup>onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate. <sup>8</sup>And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them. <sup>9</sup>According to all that I show you, that is, the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furnishings, just so you shall make it.

The Ark of the Testimony

<sup>10</sup>“And they shall make an ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits shall be its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>11</sup>And you shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out you shall overlay it, and shall make on it a molding of gold all around. <sup>12</sup>You shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four corners; two rings shall be on one side, and two rings on the other side. <sup>13</sup>And you shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>14</sup>You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, that the ark may be carried by them. <sup>15</sup>The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it. <sup>16</sup>And you shall put into the ark the Testimony which I will give you.

<sup>17</sup>“You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits shall be its length and a cubit and a half its width. <sup>18</sup>And you shall make two cherubim of gold; of hammered work you shall make them at the two ends of the mercy seat. <sup>19</sup>Make one cherub at one end, and the other cherub at the other end; you shall make the cherubim at the two ends of it of one piece with the mercy seat. <sup>20</sup>And the cherubim shall stretch out their wings above, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and they shall face one another; the faces of the cherubim shall be toward the mercy seat. <sup>21</sup>You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the Testimony that I will give you. <sup>22</sup>And there I will meet with you, and I will speak with you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the Testimony, about everything which I will give you in commandment to the children of Israel.

The Table for the Showbread

<sup>23</sup>“You shall also make a table of acacia wood; two cubits shall be its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>24</sup>And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a molding of gold all around. <sup>25</sup>You shall make for it a frame of a handbreadth all around, and you shall make a gold molding for the frame all around. <sup>26</sup>And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that are at its four legs. <sup>27</sup>The rings shall be close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table. <sup>28</sup>And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them. <sup>29</sup>You shall make its dishes, its pans, its pitchers, and its bowls for pouring. You shall make them of pure gold. <sup>30</sup>And you shall set the showbread on the table before Me always.

The Gold Lampstand

<sup>31</sup>“You shall also make a lampstand of pure gold; the lampstand shall be of hammered work. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its ornamental knobs, and flowers shall be of one piece. <sup>32</sup>And six branches shall come out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side. <sup>33</sup>Three bowls shall be made like almond blossoms on one branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond

The ark was a portable chest made of wood and covered with gold (Ex. 25:10). To this extent it resembles portable chests made by the Egyptians, displaying their skill in woodwork and decoration. The chests also provide examples of the way objects were carried with parallel bars arranged for the porters.

blossoms on the other branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower—and so for the six branches that come out of the lampstand. <sup>34</sup>On the lampstand itself four bowls shall be made like almond blossoms, each with its ornamental knob and flower. <sup>35</sup>And there shall be a knob under the first two branches of the same, a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, according to the six branches that extend from the lampstand. <sup>36</sup>Their knobs and their branches shall be of one piece; all of it shall be one hammered piece of pure gold. <sup>37</sup>You shall make seven lamps for it, and they shall arrange its lamps so that they give light in front of it. <sup>38</sup>And its wick-trimmers and their trays shall be of pure gold. <sup>39</sup>It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these utensils. <sup>40</sup>And see to it that you make them according to the pattern which was shown you on the mountain.

The Tabernacle

26 <sup>1</sup>Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine woven linen and blue, purple, and scarlet thread; with artistic designs of cherubim you shall weave them. <sup>2</sup>The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits. And every one of the curtains shall have the same measurements. <sup>3</sup>Five curtains shall be coupled to one another, and the other five curtains shall be coupled to one another. <sup>4</sup>And you shall make loops of blue yarn on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set, and likewise you shall do on the outer edge of the other curtain of the second set. <sup>5</sup>Fifty loops you shall make in the one curtain, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the curtain that is on the end of the second set, that the loops may be clasped to one another. <sup>6</sup>And you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains together with the clasps, so that it may be one tabernacle.

<sup>7</sup>You shall also make curtains of goats' hair, to be a tent over the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains. <sup>8</sup>The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; and the eleven curtains shall all have the same measurements. <sup>9</sup>And you shall couple five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the sixth curtain at the forefront of the tent. <sup>10</sup>You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain of the second set. <sup>11</sup>And you shall make fifty bronze clasps, put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one. <sup>12</sup>The remnant that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. <sup>13</sup>And a cubit on one side and a cubit on the other side, of what remains of the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and on that side, to cover it.

the tabernacle. <sup>24</sup>They shall be coupled together at the bottom and they shall be coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus it shall be for both of them. They shall be for the two corners. <sup>25</sup>So there shall be eight boards with their sockets of silver—sixteen sockets—two sockets under each of the boards.

<sup>36</sup>You shall make a screen for the door of the tabernacle, woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver. <sup>37</sup>And you shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be gold, and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

Religion & Worship

Ancient altars from the Middle East were often provided with projections on the four corners, called horns in the Bible (Ex. 27:2). Possibly these horns were used to hold the animal on the altar, as Ps. 118:27 would suggest. The bull was honored in different religions and the horn is a symbol of divine strength. But Exodus says nothing of this.

The Altar of Burnt Offering

27 <sup>1</sup>You shall make an altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide—the altar shall be square—and its height shall be three cubits. <sup>2</sup>You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it. And you shall overlay it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>Also you shall make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze. <sup>4</sup>You shall make a grate for it, a network of bronze; and on the network you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners. <sup>5</sup>You shall put it under the rim of the altar beneath, that the network may be midway up the altar. <sup>6</sup>And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>The poles shall be put in the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar to bear it. <sup>8</sup>You shall make it hollow with boards; as it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.

The Court of the Tabernacle

<sup>9</sup>You shall also make the court of the tabernacle. For the south side there shall be hangings for the court made of fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long for one side. <sup>10</sup>And its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets shall be bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be silver. <sup>11</sup>Likewise along the length of the north side there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, with its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of bronze, and the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver.

<sup>16</sup>For the gate of the court there shall be a screen twenty cubits long, woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver. It shall have four pillars and four sockets. <sup>17</sup>All the pillars around the court shall have bands of silver; their hooks shall be of silver and their sockets of bronze. <sup>18</sup>The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, the width fifty throughout, and the height five cubits, made of fine woven linen, and its sockets of bronze. <sup>19</sup>All the utensils of the tabernacle for all its service, all its pegs, and all the pegs of the court, shall be of bronze.

The Care of the Lampstand

<sup>20</sup>And you shall command the children of Israel that they bring you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to cause the lamp to burn continually. <sup>21</sup>In the tabernacle of meeting, outside the veil which is before the Testimony, Aaron and his sons shall tend it from evening until morning before the LORD. It shall be a statute forever to their generations on behalf of the children of Israel.

Garments for the Priesthood

28 <sup>1</sup>Now take Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister to Me as priest, Aaron and Aaron's sons: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup>And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty. <sup>3</sup>So you shall speak to all who are gifted artisans, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments, to consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as priest. <sup>4</sup>And these are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, an ephod, <sup>a</sup>a robe, a skillfully woven tunic, a turban, and a sash. So they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, that he may minister to Me as priest.

The Ephod

<sup>5</sup>They shall take the gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and the fine linen, <sup>6</sup>and they shall make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, artistically worked. <sup>7</sup>It shall have two shoulder straps joined at its two edges, and so it shall be joined together. <sup>8</sup>And the intricately woven band of the ephod, which is on it, shall be of the same workmanship, made of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen.

<sup>9</sup>Then you shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel: <sup>10</sup>six of their names on one stone and six names on the other stone, in order of their birth. <sup>11</sup>With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. You shall set them in settings of gold. <sup>12</sup>And you shall put the two stones on the shoulders of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. So Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders as a memorial. <sup>13</sup>You shall also make settings of gold, <sup>14</sup>and you shall make two chains of pure gold like braided cords, and fasten the braided chains to the settings.

The Breastplate

<sup>15</sup>You shall make the breastplate of judgment. Artistically woven according to the workmanship of the ephod you shall make it: of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, you shall make it. <sup>16</sup>It shall be doubled into a square: a span shall be its length, and a span shall be its width. <sup>17</sup>And you shall put settings of stones

<sup>26</sup>You shall make two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which is on the inner side of the ephod. <sup>27</sup>And two other rings of gold you shall make, and put them on the two shoulder straps, underneath the ephod toward its front, right at the seam above the intricately woven band of the ephod. <sup>28</sup>They shall bind the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod, using a blue cord, so that it is above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and so that the breastplate does not come loose from the ephod.

<sup>29</sup>So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastplate of judgment over his heart, when he goes into the holy place, as a memorial before the LORD continually. <sup>30</sup>And you shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim, <sup>a</sup>and they shall be over Aaron's heart when he goes in before the LORD. So Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel over his heart before the LORD continually.

Other Priestly Garments

<sup>31</sup>You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue. <sup>32</sup>There shall be an opening for his head in the middle of it; it shall have a woven binding all around its opening, like the opening in a coat of mail, so that it does not tear. <sup>33</sup>And upon its

Culture & Society

Precious and semiprecious stones (Ex. 28:18) were valued for their transparency, color, and polish. Little was known about their hardness or chemical composition. The color may be apparent from the name or context, but it is usually impossible to know much more. Diamonds and rubies were probably not used because they were too hard to polish.

28:4 <sup>a</sup>That is, an ornamented vest 28:30 <sup>a</sup>Literally the Lights and the Perfections (compare Leviticus 8:8) hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, all around its hem, and bells of gold between them all around: <sup>34</sup>a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe all around. <sup>35</sup>And it shall be upon Aaron when he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he goes into the holy place before the LORD and when he comes out, that he may not die.

HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

<sup>37</sup>And you shall put it on a blue cord, that it may be on the turban; it shall be on the front of the turban. <sup>38</sup>So it shall be on Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things which the children of Israel hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall always be on his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>You shall skillfully weave the tunic of fine linen thread, you shall make the turban of fine linen, and you shall make the sash of woven work.

<sup>40</sup>For Aaron's sons you shall make tunics, and you shall make sashes for them. And you shall make hats for them, for glory and beauty. <sup>41</sup>So you shall put them on Aaron your brother and on his sons with him. You shall anoint them, consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to Me as priests. <sup>42</sup>And you shall make for them linen trousers to cover their nakedness; they shall reach from the waist to the thighs. <sup>43</sup>They shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they come into the tabernacle of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy place, that they do not incur iniquity and die. It shall be a statute forever to him and his descendants after him.

Aaron and His Sons Consecrated

29 <sup>1</sup>And this is what you shall do to them to hallow them for ministering to Me as priests: Take one young bull and two rams without blemish, <sup>2</sup>and unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil (you shall make them of wheat flour). <sup>3</sup>You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams.

<sup>4</sup>And Aaron and his sons you shall bring to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and you shall wash them with water. <sup>5</sup>Then you shall take the garments, put the tunic on Aaron, and the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the intricately woven band of the ephod. <sup>6</sup>You shall put the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban. <sup>7</sup>And you shall take the anointing oil, pour it on his head, and anoint him. <sup>8</sup>Then you shall bring his sons and put tunics on them. <sup>9</sup>And you shall gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and put the hats on them. The priesthood shall be theirs for a perpetual statute. So you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.

<sup>26</sup>Then you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion. <sup>27</sup>And from the ram of the consecration you shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering which is waved, and the thigh of the heave offering which is raised, of that which is for Aaron and of that which is for his sons. <sup>28</sup>It shall be from the children of Israel for Aaron and his sons by a statute forever. For it is a heave offering; it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, that is, their heave offering to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed in them and to be consecrated in them. <sup>30</sup>That son who becomes priest in his place shall put them on for seven days, when he enters the tabernacle of meeting to minister in the holy place.

<sup>35</sup>Thus you shall do to Aaron and his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. Seven days you shall consecrate them. <sup>36</sup>And you shall offer a bull every day as a sin offering for atonement. You shall cleanse the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it. <sup>37</sup>Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and sanctify it. And the altar shall be most holy. Whatever touches the altar must be holy.<sup>a</sup>

The Daily Offerings

<sup>38</sup>Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs of the first year, day by day continually. <sup>39</sup>One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight. <sup>40</sup>With the one lamb shall be one-tenth of an ephah of flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering. <sup>41</sup>And the other lamb you shall offer at twilight; and you shall offer with it the grain offering and the drink offering, as in the morning, for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>42</sup>This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet you to speak with you. <sup>43</sup>And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by My glory. <sup>44</sup>So I will consecrate the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. I will also consecrate both Aaron and his sons to minister to Me as priests. <sup>45</sup>I will dwell among the children of Israel and will be their God. <sup>46</sup>And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

The Altar of Incense

30 <sup>14</sup>You shall make an altar to burn incense on; you shall make it of acacia wood. <sup>2</sup>A cubit shall be its length and a cubit its width—it shall be square—and two cubits shall be its height. Its horns shall be of one piece with it. <sup>3</sup>And you shall overlay its top, its sides all around, and its horns with pure gold; and you shall make for it a molding of gold all around. <sup>4</sup>Two gold rings you shall make for it, under the molding on both its sides. You shall place them on its two sides, and they will be holders for the poles with which to bear it. <sup>5</sup>You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>6</sup>And you shall put it before the veil that is before the ark of the Testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.

The Ransom Money

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>12</sup>“When you take the census of the children of Israel for their number, then every man shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD, when you number them, that there may be no plague among them when you number them. <sup>13</sup>This is what everyone among those who are numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel is twenty gerahs). The half-shekel shall be an offering to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Everyone included among those who are numbered,

Trade & Economics

Spices (Ex. 30:34) were an important part of trade and commerce. They were imported from Arabia and from as far away as India, which could be reached from Egypt by sea. Most were plant products, such as gums and resins. Onycha was taken from a mollusk that lives in the Red Sea. Its exotic origin adds to its perceived value.

from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when you give an offering to the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves. <sup>16</sup>And you shall take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of meeting, that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.”

The Bronze Laver

<sup>17</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>18</sup>“You shall also make a laver of bronze, with its base also of bronze, for washing. You shall put it between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. And you shall put water in it, <sup>19</sup>for Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet in water from it. <sup>20</sup>When they go into the tabernacle of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to the LORD, they shall wash with water, lest they die. <sup>21</sup>So they shall wash their hands and their feet, lest they die. And it shall be a statute forever to them—to him and his descendants throughout their generations.”

The Holy Anointing Oil

<sup>22</sup>Moreover the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>23</sup>“Also take for yourself quality spices—five hundred shekels of liquid myrrh, half as much sweet-smelling cinnamon (two hundred and fifty shekels), two hundred and fifty shekels of sweet-smelling cane, <sup>24</sup>five hundred shekels of cassia, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and a hin of olive oil. <sup>25</sup>And you shall make from these a holy anointing oil, an ointment compounded according to the art of the perfumer. It shall be a holy anointing oil. <sup>26</sup>With it you shall anoint the tabernacle of meeting and the ark of the Testimony; <sup>27</sup>the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense; <sup>28</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base. <sup>29</sup>You shall consecrate them, that they may be most holy; whatever touches them must be holy.<sup>a</sup> <sup>30</sup>And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister to Me as priests.

<sup>31</sup>“And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations. <sup>32</sup>It shall not be poured on man’s flesh; nor shall you make any other like it, according to its composition. It is holy, and it shall be holy to you. <sup>33</sup>Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on an outsider, shall be cut off from his people.’”

The Incense

<sup>34</sup>And the LORD said to Moses: “Take sweet spices, stacte and onycha and galbanum, and pure frankincense with these sweet spices; there shall be equal amounts of each. <sup>35</sup>You shall make of these an incense, a compound according to the art of the perfumer, salted, pure, and holy. <sup>36</sup>And you shall beat some of it very fine, and put some of it before the Testimony in the tabernacle of meeting where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you. <sup>37</sup>But as for the incense which you shall make, you shall not make any for yourselves, according to its composition. It shall be to you holy for the LORD. <sup>38</sup>Whoever makes any like it, to smell it, he shall be cut off from his people.”

Artisans for Building the Tabernacle

31 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“See, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>3</sup>And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, <sup>4</sup>to design artistic works, to work in gold, in silver, in bronze, <sup>5</sup>in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all manner of workmanship.

<sup>6</sup>“And I, indeed I, have appointed with him Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and I have put wisdom in the hearts of all the gifted artisans, that they may make all that I have commanded you: <sup>7</sup>the tabernacle of meeting, the ark of the Testimony and the mercy seat that is on it, and all the furniture of the tabernacle— <sup>8</sup>the table and its utensils, the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense, <sup>9</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base— <sup>10</sup>the garments of ministry,<sup>a</sup> the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests, <sup>11</sup>and the anointing oil and sweet incense for the holy place. According to all that I have commanded you they shall do.”

The Sabbath Law

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Speak also to the children of Israel, saying: ‘Surely My Sabbaths you shall keep, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you. <sup>14</sup>You shall keep the Sabbath, therefore, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work on it, that person shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>15</sup>Work shall be done for six days, but the seventh is the Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD.

Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. <sup>16</sup>Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant. <sup>17</sup>It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>And when He had made an end of speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

The Gold Calf

32 <sup>1</sup>Now when the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, the people gathered together to Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make us gods that shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.”

<sup>2</sup>And Aaron said to them, “Break off the golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.” <sup>3</sup>So all the people broke off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup>And he received the gold from their hand, and he fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made a molded calf.

Then they said, “This is your god, O Israel, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!”

<sup>5</sup>So when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made a proclamation and said, “Tomorrow is a feast to the LORD.” <sup>6</sup>Then they rose early on the next day, offered burnt offerings,

CALVES, COWS, AND BULLS REPRESENTING THE DIVINE (Ex. 32:1–4)

The stories of Aaron molding the golden calf (Ex. 32:1–4) and Jeroboam building the golden calves for his new temples at Bethel and Dan (1 Kin. 12:28–31) are similar. Aaron's action, at the insistence of the people, came only 40 days after they received the commandments not to worship other gods nor to make images for worship. In almost no time the Israelites broke the rules given them by God. Similarly, God gave Jeroboam the northern kingdom with the provision that he be faithful to God. Jeroboam immediately broke the same commandments as the Israelites did in the wilderness.

But why make a calf? Cattle were common images for deities in the ancient Near East. In Egypt, Hathor, a very popular goddess, was represented as a cow, as a woman with cow horns or ears or both, and as a human with a cow's head. The usual manner of depicting a male deity in Syria-Palestine was to represent him either as a bull or with some features of a bull—usually horns. In Babylon the bull images of Hadad lined the main processional street.

The golden calf was possibly the representation of a Canaanite deity. Both El or Baal are connected with bulls in the Ugaritic texts. No large images of cattle deities have been recovered from Syria-Palestine, but a number of small bull images from the time of the Israelite occupation of the land demonstrate that larger statues could likely have been realistically fashioned in standing positions. If the golden calf represents a Canaanite god, such worship was a blatant rejection of Israel's God.

There is another possibility. In the ancient Near East, bulls, as well as other animals, were sometimes intended not as an image of the deity itself, but as mounts for the god who was understood to be present. Jeroboam's golden calves could have served the same purpose as the cherubim in the temple at Jerusalem. But even this would have been a rejection of the proper worship of Israel's God.

and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Go, get down! For your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt have corrupted themselves. <sup>8</sup>They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molded calf, and worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘This is your god, O Israel, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!’” <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and indeed it is a stiff-necked people! <sup>10</sup>Now therefore, let Me alone, that My wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them. And I will make of you a great nation.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Moses pleaded with the LORD his God, and said: “LORD, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>12</sup>Why should the Egyptians speak, and say, ‘He brought them out to harm them, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth?’ Turn from Your fierce wrath, and relent from this harm to Your people. <sup>13</sup>Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Your own self, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of I give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’”<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>So the LORD relented from the harm which He said He would do to His people.

<sup>15</sup>And Moses turned and went down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the Testimony were in his hand. The tablets were written on both sides; on the one side and on the other they were written. <sup>16</sup>Now the tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets.

<sup>17</sup>And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a noise of war in the camp.”

<sup>18</sup>But he said:

“*It is not the noise of the shout of victory,
Nor the noise of the cry of defeat,
But the sound of singing I hear.*”

<sup>19</sup>So it was, as soon as he came near the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing. So Moses' anger became hot, and he cast the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain. <sup>20</sup>Then he took the calf which they had made, burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder; and he scattered it on the water and made the children of Israel drink it. <sup>21</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, “What did this people do to you that you have brought so great a sin upon them?”

<sup>22</sup>So Aaron said, “Do not let the anger of my lord become hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil. <sup>23</sup>For they said to me, ‘Make us gods that shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’ <sup>24</sup>And I said to them, ‘Whoever has any gold, let them break it off.’ So they gave it to me, and I cast it into the fire, and this calf came out.”

<sup>30</sup>Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses said to the people, “You have committed a great sin. So now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.” <sup>31</sup>Then Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Oh, these people have committed a great sin, and have made for themselves a god of gold! <sup>32</sup>Yet now, if You will forgive their sin—but if not, I pray, blot me out of Your book which You have written.”

<sup>33</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. <sup>34</sup>Now therefore, go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Behold, My Angel shall go before you. Nevertheless, in the day when I visit for punishment, I will visit punishment upon them for their sin.”

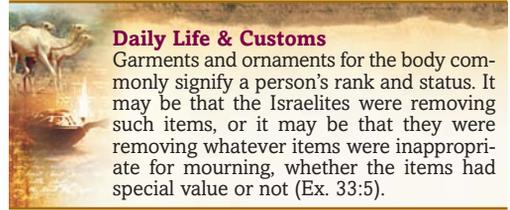

<sup>35</sup>So the LORD plagued the people because of what they did with the calf which Aaron made.

The Command to Leave Sinai

33 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Depart and go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘To your descendants I will give it.’ <sup>2</sup>And I will send My Angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanite and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite. <sup>3</sup>Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, lest I consume you on the way, for you are a stiff-necked people.”

<sup>4</sup>And when the people heard this bad news, they mourned, and no one put on his ornaments. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD had said to Moses, “Say to the children of Israel, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. I could come up into your midst in one moment and consume you. Now therefore, take off your ornaments, that I may know what to do to you.’” <sup>6</sup>So the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.

Daily Life & Customs

Garments and ornaments for the body commonly signify a person’s rank and status. It may be that the Israelites were removing such items, or it may be that they were removing whatever items were inappropriate for mourning, whether the items had special value or not (Ex. 33:5).

Moses Meets with the Lord

<sup>7</sup>Moses took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and called it the tabernacle of meeting. And it came to pass that everyone who sought the LORD went out to the tabernacle of meeting which was outside the camp. <sup>8</sup>So it was, whenever Moses went out to the tabernacle, that all the people rose, and each man stood at his tent door and watched Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle. <sup>9</sup>And it came to pass, when Moses entered the tabernacle, that the pillar of cloud descended and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses. <sup>10</sup>All the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the tabernacle door, and all the people rose and worshiped, each man in his tent door. <sup>11</sup>So the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp, but his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tabernacle.

The Promise of God’s Presence

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses said to the LORD, “See, You say to me, ‘Bring up this people.’ But You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight.’ <sup>13</sup>Now therefore, I pray, if I have found grace in Your sight, show me now Your way, that I may know You and that I may find grace in Your sight. And consider that this nation is Your people.”

<sup>14</sup>And He said, “My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to Him, “If Your Presence does not go with us, do not bring us up from here. <sup>16</sup>For how then will it be known that Your people and I have found grace in Your sight, except You

FORBIDDEN RELIGIOUS OBJECTS (Ex. 34:13)

Altars, sacred pillars, and wooden images appear in the Bible as a recurring group of banned religious objects (Ex. 34:13). All three were common in the religious world of Syria-Palestine including Canaan.

Altars were used for making sacrifices to the god of the area. They were constructed where the deity was felt to be present, sometimes along with a temple, a shrine, or an open sanctuary. Many of the numerous ancient altars discovered in Palestine are carefully carved with stone horns on the four top corners. A depression was often carved around the outer top area to catch blood so that it could be ritually sprinkled on the altar itself, a standard sacrificial ritual. Only when devoted to God and restricted to certain locations were altars acceptable for Israel.

Sacred pillars were standing slabs of stone, sometimes carved, which stood in religious centers as representatives of deities. Such cultic items dating from the 3rd millennium B.C. have been recovered from Syria-Palestine. The tops often were shaped into a curve, and sometimes a divine symbol was carved into one of the flat surfaces. They functioned as divine images. Thus, to allow sacred pillars to remain standing would have breached the commandment not to worship other gods (Ex. 20:3).

The Hebrew Asherim, translated as “wooden images,” were representations of the goddess Asherah. Because of the impermanence of wood and the lack of Old Testament descriptions, the form of the Asherim is uncertain. Some suggest these items were sacred trees or representations of sacred trees. Others suppose they were wooden objects made by humans, possibly poles or images. Since the Asherim stood for the goddess Asherah, it is understandable that the Judahites and Israelites were told to cut down, splinter, and burn them (Deut. 7:5; 12:3).

The many warnings against these forbidden objects suggest the appeal that Canaanite culture had for Judah and Israel. Incorporating indigenous religion into their worship of God posed a constant danger.

go with us? So we shall be separate, Your people and I, from all the people who are upon the face of the earth.”

<sup>17</sup>So the LORD said to Moses, “I will also do this thing that you have spoken; for you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name.”

<sup>18</sup>And he said, “Please, show me Your glory.”

<sup>19</sup>Then He said, “I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.” <sup>20</sup>But He said, “You cannot see My face; for no man shall see Me, and live.” <sup>21</sup>And the LORD said, “Here is a place by Me, and you shall stand on the rock. <sup>22</sup>So it shall be, while My glory passes by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by. <sup>23</sup>Then I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back; but My face shall not be seen.”

Moses Makes New Tablets

34 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and I will write on these tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you broke. <sup>2</sup>So be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to Me there on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup>And no man shall come up with you, and let no man be seen throughout all the mountain; let neither flocks nor herds feed before that mountain.”

<sup>4</sup>So he cut two tablets of stone like the first ones. Then Moses rose early in the morning and went up Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him; and he took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

<sup>5</sup>Now the LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD passed before him and proclaimed, “The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth, <sup>7</sup>keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children’s children to the third and the fourth generation.”

<sup>8</sup>So Moses made haste and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped. <sup>9</sup>Then he said, “If now I have found grace in Your sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray, go among us, even though we are a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as Your inheritance.”

The Covenant Renewed

<sup>10</sup>And He said: “Behold, I make a covenant. Before all your people I will do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among whom you are shall see the work of the LORD. For it is an awesome thing that I will do with you. <sup>11</sup>Observe what I command you this day. Behold, I am driving out from before you the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite. <sup>12</sup>Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be a snare in your midst. <sup>13</sup>But you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and cut down their wooden images <sup>14</sup>(for you shall worship no other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God),<sup>15</sup>lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they play the harlot with their gods and make sacrifice to their gods, and one of them invites you and you eat of his sacrifice,<sup>16</sup>and you take of his daughters for your sons, and his daughters play the harlot with their gods and make your sons play the harlot with their gods.

<sup>18</sup>“The Feast of Unleavened Bread you shall keep. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the appointed time of the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you came out from Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>“All that open the womb are Mine, and every male firstborn among your livestock, whether ox or sheep. <sup>20</sup>But the firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you will not redeem him, then you shall break his neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem.

“And none shall appear before Me empty-handed.

<sup>21</sup>“Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.

<sup>23</sup>“Three times in the year all your men shall appear before the Lord, the LORD God of Israel. <sup>24</sup>For I will cast out the nations before you and enlarge your borders; neither will any man covet your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

<sup>26</sup>“The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

<sup>27</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write these words, for according to the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.” <sup>28</sup>So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.<sup>a</sup>

The Shining Face of Moses

<sup>29</sup>Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses’ hand when he came down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with

Him. <sup>30</sup>So when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. <sup>31</sup>Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses talked with them. <sup>32</sup>Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them as commandments all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. <sup>33</sup>And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. <sup>34</sup>But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take the veil off until he came out; and he would come out and speak to the children of Israel whatever he had been commanded. <sup>35</sup>And whenever the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses’ face shone, then Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

Sabbath Regulations

35 <sup>1</sup>Then Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said to them, “These are the words which the LORD has commanded you to do: <sup>2</sup>Work shall be done for six days, but the seventh day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to death. <sup>3</sup>You shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings on the Sabbath day.”

Offerings for the Tabernacle

<sup>4</sup>And Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying: <sup>5</sup>“Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it as an offering to the LORD: gold, silver, and bronze; <sup>6</sup>blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats’ hair; <sup>7</sup>ram skins dyed red, badger skins, and acacia wood; <sup>8</sup>oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense; <sup>9</sup>onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.

Articles of the Tabernacle

<sup>10</sup>All who are gifted artisans among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded: <sup>11</sup>the tabernacle, its tent, its covering, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; <sup>12</sup>the ark and its poles, with the mercy seat, and the veil of the covering; <sup>13</sup>the table and its poles, all its utensils, and the showbread; <sup>14</sup>also the lampstand for the light, its utensils, its lamps, and the oil for the light; <sup>15</sup>the incense altar, its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, and the screen for the door at the entrance of the tabernacle; <sup>16</sup>the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles, all its utensils, and the laver and its base; <sup>17</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court; <sup>18</sup>the pegs of the tabernacle, the pegs of the court, and their cords; <sup>19</sup>the garments of ministry,<sup>a</sup> for ministering in the holy place—the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests.’ ”

The Tabernacle Offerings Presented

<sup>20</sup>And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. <sup>21</sup>Then everyone came whose heart was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, and they brought the LORD’s offering for the work of the tabernacle of meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments. <sup>22</sup>They came, both men and women, as many as had a willing heart, and brought earrings and nose rings, rings and necklaces, all jewelry of gold, that is, every man who made an offering of gold to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>And every man, with whom was found blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, goats’ hair, red skins of rams, and badger skins, brought them. <sup>24</sup>Everyone who offered an offering of silver or bronze brought the LORD’s offering. And everyone with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. <sup>25</sup>All the women who were gifted artisans spun yarn with their hands, and brought what they had spun, of blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine linen. <sup>26</sup>And all the women whose hearts stirred with wisdom spun yarn of goats’ hair. <sup>27</sup>The rulers brought onyx stones, and the stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate, <sup>28</sup>and spices and oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. <sup>29</sup>The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to the LORD, all the men and women whose hearts were willing to bring material for all kinds of work which the LORD, by the hand of Moses, had commanded to be done.

The Artisans Called by God

<sup>30</sup>And Moses said to the children of Israel, “See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; <sup>31</sup>and He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom and understanding, in knowledge and all manner of workmanship, <sup>32</sup>to design artistic works, to work in gold and silver and bronze, <sup>33</sup>in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all manner of artistic workmanship.

<sup>34</sup>And He has put in his heart the ability to teach, in him and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>35</sup>He has filled them with skill to do all manner of work of the engraver and the designer and the tapestry maker, in blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine linen, and of the weaver—those who do every work and those who design artistic works.

36 <sup>1</sup>“And Bezalel and Aholiab, and every gifted artisan in whom the LORD has put wisdom and understanding, to know how to do all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, shall do according to all that the LORD has commanded.”

The People Give More than Enough

<sup>2</sup>Then Moses called Bezalel and Aholiab, and every gifted artisan in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, everyone whose heart was stirred, to come and do the work. <sup>3</sup>And they received from Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of making the sanctuary. So they continued bringing to him freewill offerings every morning. <sup>4</sup>Then all the craftsmen who were doing all the work of the sanctuary came, each from the work he was doing, <sup>5</sup>and they spoke to Moses, saying, “The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded us to do.”

<sup>6</sup>So Moses gave a commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the offering of the sanctuary.”

And the people were restrained from bringing, <sup>7</sup>for the material they had was sufficient for all the work to be done—indeed too much.

Building the Tabernacle

<sup>8</sup>Then all the gifted artisans among them who worked on the tabernacle made ten curtains woven of fine linen, and of blue, purple, and scarlet thread; with artistic designs of cherubim they made them. <sup>9</sup>The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the curtains were all the same size. <sup>10</sup>And he coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled to one another. <sup>11</sup>He made loops of blue yarn on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set; likewise he did on the outer edge of the other curtain of the second set. <sup>12</sup>Fifty loops he made on one curtain, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain on the end of the second set; the loops held one curtain to another. <sup>13</sup>And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains to one another with the clasps, that it might be one tabernacle.

made to go under the twenty boards: two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons. <sup>25</sup>And for the other side of the tabernacle, the north side, he made twenty boards <sup>26</sup>and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under each of the boards. <sup>27</sup>For the west side of the tabernacle he made six boards. <sup>28</sup>He also made two boards for the two back corners of the tabernacle. <sup>29</sup>And they were coupled at the bottom and coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus he made both of them for the two corners. <sup>30</sup>So there were eight boards and their sockets—sixteen sockets of silver—two sockets under each of the boards.

<sup>35</sup>And he made a veil of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen; it was worked with an artistic design of cherubim. <sup>36</sup>He made for it four pillars of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.

<sup>37</sup>He also made a screen for the tabernacle door, of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver, <sup>38</sup>and its five pillars with their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their rings with gold, but their five sockets were bronze.

Making the Ark of the Testimony

37 <sup>1</sup>Then Bezazel made the ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits was its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>2</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold all around it. <sup>3</sup>And he cast for it four rings of gold to be set in its four corners: two rings on one side, and two rings on the other side of it. <sup>4</sup>He made poles of

A THRONE FOR GOD (Ex. 37:1–9)

The ark of the covenant was an object that reminded the Israelites of the presence of God in their midst. Although some nomadic peoples used small traveling casks for worship, no ancient people had a sacred object that compares to Israel's large box with its heavy adornment and sculptured cherubim on the lid (Ex. 37:1–9).

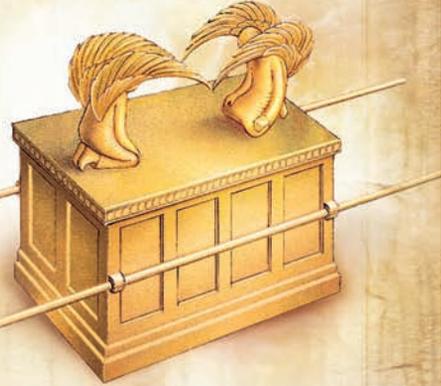

There are various ideas as to what the ark represents, often relating to each other in meaning. It has been described as a container or chest, as a portable throne for Israel's God, or as an extension of God's presence.

The construction of the ark is described in the shape of a chest, measuring 45 inches long by 27 inches wide by 27 inches tall (Ex. 37:1). As such, it served as a container to hold items. Similar to the temple thrones of gods in Egypt and the foundation deposits of temples in Mesopotamia, the ark also bore the words of the deity: the tablets of the Ten Commandments. Other items contained within the ark were Aaron's rod and a jar of manna (Heb. 9:4).

As a portable throne the ark provided the place where God would "sit" in the presence of the Israelites. The cherubim on the ark (Ex. 37:7) were not images of God, but rather divine attendants. They represented the type of throne which seated rulers and deities along the eastern Mediterranean coast as far back as the 2nd millennium B.C. A king sitting upon a cherubim throne is pictured in the sarcophagus of Ahiiram, king of Byblos in the 10th century B.C.

Some scholars think that the ark represented the "footstool" of God's throne, rather than the throne itself. King David referred to the ark as a "footstool" (1 Chr. 28:2). The cherubim throne of Ahiiram had a box-shaped footstool, and the Canaanite god El also had a footstool.

The ark was a symbol of the invisible presence of God. The possession of the ark in battle represented both the presence and the favor of God (1 Sam. 4:3–7). Its capture by the Philistines meant that the favor of God had been lost as well (1 Sam. 4:19–22).

acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>5</sup>And he put the poles into the rings at the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. <sup>6</sup>He also made the mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits was its length and a cubit and a half its width. <sup>7</sup>He made two cherubim of beaten gold; he made them of one piece at the two ends of the mercy seat: <sup>8</sup>one cherub at one end on this side, and the other cherub at the other end on that side. He made the cherubim at the two ends of one piece with the mercy seat. <sup>9</sup>The cherubim spread out their wings above, and covered the mercy seat with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

Making the Table for the Showbread

<sup>10</sup>He made the table of acacia wood; two cubits was its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>11</sup>And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold all around it. <sup>12</sup>Also he made a frame of a handbreadth all around it, and made a molding of gold for the frame all around it. <sup>13</sup>And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that were at its four legs. <sup>14</sup>The rings were close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table. <sup>15</sup>And he made the poles of acacia wood to bear the table, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>16</sup>He made of pure gold the utensils which were on the table: its dishes, its cups, its bowls, and its pitchers for pouring.

Making the Gold Lampstand

<sup>17</sup>He also made the lampstand of pure gold; of hammered work he made the lampstand. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its ornamental knobs, and its flowers were of the same piece. <sup>18</sup>And six branches came out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side. <sup>19</sup>There were three bowls made like almond blossoms on one branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond blossoms on the other branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower—and so for the six branches coming out of the lampstand. <sup>20</sup>And on the lampstand itself were four bowls made like almond blossoms, each with its ornamental knob and flower. <sup>21</sup>There was a knob under the first two branches of the same, a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, according to the six branches extending from it. <sup>22</sup>Their knobs and their branches were of one piece; all of it was one hammered piece of pure gold. <sup>23</sup>And he made its seven lamps, its wick-trimmers, and its trays of pure gold. <sup>24</sup>Of a talent of pure gold he made it, with all its utensils.

Religion & Worship

The lampstand (Ex. 37:17) was removed from Jerusalem by the Roman army in A.D. 70. It is depicted on the arch of Titus in Rome as part of a parade of spoils taken by the victorious soldiers. This was probably not the original lamp, but in any case it too is now lost. The seven-branched lampstand continues as a symbol of Judaism.

Making the Altar of Incense

<sup>25</sup>He made the incense altar of acacia wood. Its length was a cubit and its width a cubit—it was square—and two cubits was its height. Its horns were of one piece with it. <sup>26</sup>And he overlaid it with pure gold: its top, its sides all around, and its horns. He also made for it a molding of gold all around it. <sup>27</sup>He made two rings of gold for it under its molding, by its two corners on both sides, as holders for the poles with which to bear it. <sup>28</sup>And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

Making the Anointing Oil and the Incense

<sup>29</sup>He also made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

Making the Altar of Burnt Offering

38 <sup>1</sup>He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood; five cubits was its length and five cubits its width—it was square—and its height was three cubits. <sup>2</sup>He made its horns on its four corners; the horns were of one piece with it. And he overlaid it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>He made all the utensils for the altar: the pans, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans; all its utensils he made of bronze. <sup>4</sup>And he made a grate of bronze network for the altar, under its rim, midway from the bottom. <sup>5</sup>He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating, as holders for the poles. <sup>6</sup>And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>Then he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to bear it. He made the altar hollow with boards.

Making the Bronze Laver

<sup>8</sup>He made the laver of bronze and its base of bronze, from the bronze mirrors of the serving women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Making the Court of the Tabernacle

<sup>9</sup>Then he made the court on the south side; the hangings of the court were of fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long. <sup>10</sup>There were twenty pillars for them, with twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver. <sup>11</sup>On the north side the hangings were one hundred cubits long, with twenty pillars and their twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver. <sup>12</sup>And on the west side there were hangings of fifty cubits, with ten pillars and their ten sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver. <sup>13</sup>For the east side the hangings were fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup>The hangings of one side of the gate were fifteen cubits long, with their three pillars and their three sockets, <sup>15</sup>and the same for the other side of the court gate; on this side and that were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets. <sup>16</sup>All the hangings of the court all around were of fine woven linen. <sup>17</sup>The sockets for the pillars were bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver, and the overlay of their capitals was silver; and all the pillars of the court had bands of silver. <sup>18</sup>The screen for the gate of the court was woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen. The length was twenty cubits, and the height along its width was five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the court. <sup>19</sup>And there were four pillars with their four sockets of bronze; their hooks were silver, and the overlay of their capitals and their bands was silver. <sup>20</sup>All the pegs of the tabernacle, and of the court all around, were bronze.

Materials of the Tabernacle

<sup>21</sup>This is the inventory of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, which was counted according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>22</sup>Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>23</sup>And with him was Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and designer, a weaver of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine linen.

<sup>24</sup>All the gold that was used in all the work of the holy place, that is, the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>25</sup>And the silver from those who were numbered of the congregation was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary: <sup>26</sup>a bekah for each man (that is, half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary), for everyone included in the numbering from twenty years old and above, for six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty men. <sup>27</sup>And from the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary and the bases of the veil: one hundred sockets from the hundred talents, one talent for each socket. <sup>28</sup>Then from the one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and made bands for them.

<sup>29</sup>The offering of bronze was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels. <sup>30</sup>And with it he made the sockets for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, and all the utensils for the altar,<sup>31</sup> the sockets for the court all around, the bases for the court gate, all the pegs for the tabernacle, and all the pegs for the court all around.

Making the Garments of the Priesthood

39 <sup>1</sup>Of the blue, purple, and scarlet thread they made garments of ministry,<sup>4</sup> for ministering in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Ephod

<sup>2</sup>He made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen. <sup>3</sup>And they beat the gold into thin sheets and cut it into threads, to work it in with the blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and the fine linen, into artistic designs. <sup>4</sup>They made shoulder straps for it to couple it together; it was coupled together at its two edges. <sup>5</sup>And the intricately woven band of his ephod that was on it was of the same workmanship, woven of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup>And they set onyx stones, enclosed in settings of gold; they were engraved, as signets are engraved, with the names of the sons of Israel. <sup>7</sup>He put them on the shoulders of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Breastplate

<sup>8</sup>And he made the breastplate, artistically woven like the workmanship of the ephod, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen. <sup>9</sup>They made the breastplate square by doubling it; a span was its length and a span its width when doubled. <sup>10</sup>And they set in it four rows of stones: a row with a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald was the first row; <sup>11</sup>the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond; <sup>12</sup>the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>13</sup>the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in settings of gold in their mountings. <sup>14</sup>There were twelve stones according to the names of the sons of Israel: according to their names, engraved like a signet, each one with its own name according to the twelve tribes. <sup>15</sup>And they made chains for the breastplate at the ends, like braided cords of pure gold. <sup>16</sup>They also made two settings of gold and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>17</sup>And they put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate. <sup>18</sup>The two ends of the two braided chains they fastened in the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the front. <sup>19</sup>And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which was on the inward side of the ephod. <sup>20</sup>They made two other gold rings and put them on the two shoulder straps, underneath the ephod toward its front, right at the seam above the intricately woven band of the ephod. <sup>21</sup>And they bound the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it would be above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate would not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Other Priestly Garments

<sup>30</sup>Then they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it an inscription like the engraving of a signet:

HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

<sup>31</sup>And they tied to it a blue cord, to fasten it above on the turban, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Work Completed

<sup>32</sup>Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished. And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did. <sup>33</sup>And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, its

Science & Technology

Gold is the most malleable and ductile of metals. This means that it can be hammered into very thin sheets (Ex. 39:3), thinner than a piece of paper. Gold can be easily worked into different shapes and does not corrode. These characteristics help account for its value.

pillars, and its sockets; <sup>34</sup>the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of badger skins, and the veil of the covering; <sup>35</sup>the ark of the Testimony with its poles, and the mercy seat; <sup>36</sup>the table, all its utensils, and the showbread; <sup>37</sup>the pure gold lampstand with its lamps (the lamps set in order), all its utensils, and the oil for light; <sup>38</sup>the gold altar, the anointing oil, and the sweet incense; the screen for the tabernacle door; <sup>39</sup>the bronze altar, its grate of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the laver with its base; <sup>40</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, the screen for the court gate, its cords, and its pegs; all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting; <sup>41</sup>and the garments of ministry,<sup>a</sup> to minister in the holy place: the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister as priests.

<sup>42</sup>According to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work. <sup>43</sup>Then Moses looked over all the work, and indeed they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, just so they had done it. And Moses blessed them.

The Tabernacle Erected and Arranged

40 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting. <sup>3</sup>You shall put in it the ark of the Testimony, and partition off the ark with the veil. <sup>4</sup>You shall bring in the table and arrange the things that are to be set in order on it; and you shall bring in the lampstand and light its lamps. <sup>5</sup>You shall also set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the Testimony, and put up the screen for the door of the tabernacle. <sup>6</sup>Then you shall set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup>And you shall set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water in it. <sup>8</sup>You shall set up the court all around, and hang up the screen at the court gate.

<sup>9</sup>“And you shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it; and you shall hallow it and all its utensils, and it shall be holy. <sup>10</sup>You shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar. The altar shall be most holy. <sup>11</sup>And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and consecrate it.

<sup>12</sup>“Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of meeting and wash them with water. <sup>13</sup>You shall put the holy garments on Aaron, and anoint him and consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as priest. <sup>14</sup>And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics. <sup>15</sup>You shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may minister to Me as priests; for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.”

<sup>16</sup>Thus Moses did; according to all that the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

<sup>17</sup>And it came to pass in the first month of the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was raised up. <sup>18</sup>So Moses raised up the tabernacle, fastened its sockets, set up its boards, put in its bars, and raised up its pillars. <sup>19</sup>And he spread out the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>20</sup>He took the Testimony and put it into the ark, inserted the poles through the rings of the ark, and put the mercy seat on top of the ark. <sup>21</sup>And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, hung up the veil of the covering, and partitioned off the ark of the Testimony, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Cloud and the Glory

Ancient treaties from the time of Moses have a recognizable form. Usually there is a provision for keeping the text of the treaty. In this case, the tablets of the law were deposited in the ark of the Testimony (Ex. 40:20), putting them at the center of the priestly rituals. Possibly the two tablets were identical, each a complete text of the law.

tabernacle. <sup>35</sup>And Moses was not able to enter the tabernacle of meeting, because the cloud rested above it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup>Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would go onward in all their journeys. <sup>37</sup>But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not journey till the day that it was taken up. <sup>38</sup>For the cloud of the LORD was above the tabernacle by day, and fire was over it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

TRANSITION

The Book of Leviticus

Leviticus continues God's covenant instructions on Mount Sinai, begun in Ex. 20. The name "Leviticus" comes from the many laws and regulations of the book that concern the rights and duties of priests (who were of the tribe of Levi).

Certain clearly defined bodies of laws can be identified in the book. The first seven chapters prescribe the laws of sacrifices; chs. 11—15 distinguish between what is clean and unclean; ch. 16 describes the Day of Atonement; and the various laws of chs. 17—26 are unified by the distinct refrain "You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy" (Lev. 19:2).

The entire Book of Leviticus is set in a relatively brief period of time. Only a month and a half passes between the erection of the tabernacle at Mount Sinai and the Hebrews' departure from Sinai. The tabernacle was finished on the 1st day of the 1st month in the 2nd year of the Exodus (Ex. 40:17); the departure was on the 20th day of the 2nd month of the same year (Num. 10:11, 12). Depending on whether the Hebrews left Egypt in the 15th or 13th century, the 2nd year of the Exodus would be about 1445 or 1274 B.C. (see "Egypt and the Exodus" at Ex. 1:1).

The content of Leviticus, however, extends beyond this short month and a half in the wilderness. Many of the laws clearly pertain to a time after the Israelites had entered their land, for instance, the laws for planting fields and cleansing houses. Partly for this reason, some suggest that at least the current form of the book was actually composed later than its context would suggest, perhaps from several different law codes. Of course, those who accept the traditional attribution of the first five books of the Bible to Moses disagree and understand these passages simply as laws given for a future time.

The animal sacrifices described so carefully in Leviticus fit properly in the historical context of the book. Animal sacrifice was universal in ancient Near Eastern religion, so Israel's sacrifice of animals is hardly surprising. More striking, though, is the absolute prohibition against the equally common practice of child sacrifice (see Lev. 18:21).

The Burnt Offering

1 :1 Now the LORD called to Moses, and spoke to him from the tabernacle of meeting, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When any one of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of the livestock—of the herd and of the flock.

<sup>3</sup>If his offering is a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish; he shall offer it of his own free will at the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Then he shall put his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him. <sup>5</sup>He shall kill the bull before the LORD; and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>6</sup>And he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces. <sup>7</sup>The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay the wood in order on the fire. <sup>8</sup>Then the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire upon the altar; <sup>9</sup>but he shall wash its entrails and its legs with water. And the priest shall burn all on the altar as a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>If his offering is of the flocks—of the sheep or of the goats—as a burnt sacrifice, he shall bring a male without blemish. <sup>11</sup>He shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD; and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar. <sup>12</sup>And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat; and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire upon the altar; <sup>13</sup>but he shall wash the entrails and the legs with water. Then the priest shall bring it all and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>And if the burnt sacrifice of his offering to the LORD is of birds, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves or young pigeons. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; its blood shall be drained out at the side of the altar. <sup>16</sup>And he shall remove its crop with its feathers and cast it beside the altar on the east side, into the place for ashes. <sup>17</sup>Then he shall split it at its wings, but shall not divide it completely; and the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

The Grain Offering

2 <sup>1</sup>When anyone offers a grain offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour. And he shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it. <sup>2</sup>He shall bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests, one of whom shall take from it his handful of fine flour and oil with all the frankincense. And the priest shall burn it as a memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>The rest of the grain offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is most holy of the offerings to the LORD made by fire.

<sup>4</sup>And if you bring as an offering a grain offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. <sup>5</sup>But if your offering is a grain offering baked in a pan, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil. <sup>6</sup>You shall break it in pieces and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

<sup>7</sup>If your offering is a grain offering baked in a covered pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>8</sup>You shall bring the grain offering that is made of these things to the LORD. And when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup>Then the priest shall take from the grain offering a memorial portion, and burn it on the altar. It is an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And what is left of the grain offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is most holy of the offerings to the LORD made by fire.

<sup>11</sup>No grain offering which you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven, for you shall burn no leaven nor any honey in any offering to the LORD made by fire. <sup>12</sup>As for the offering of the firstfruits, you shall offer them to the LORD, but they shall not be burned on the altar for a sweet aroma. <sup>13</sup>And every offering of your grain offering you shall season with salt; you shall not allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your grain offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.

<sup>14</sup>If you offer a grain offering of your firstfruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the grain offering of your firstfruits green heads of grain roasted on the fire, grain beaten from full heads. <sup>15</sup>And you shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it. It is a grain offering. <sup>16</sup>Then the priest shall burn the memorial portion: part of its beaten grain and part of its oil, with all the frankincense, as an offering made by fire to the LORD.

The Peace Offering

3 <sup>1</sup>When his offering is a sacrifice of a peace offering, if he offers it of the herd, whether male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. <sup>2</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of meeting; and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood all around on the altar. <sup>3</sup>Then he shall offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire to the

LORD. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, <sup>4</sup>the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove; <sup>5</sup>and Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is on the wood that is on the fire, as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Then he shall offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as an offering made by fire to the LORD, its fat and the whole fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone. And the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, <sup>10</sup>the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove; <sup>11</sup>and the priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

The Sin Offering

4 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If a person sins unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which ought not to be done, and does any of them, <sup>3</sup>if

Salt has a symbolic meaning in the sacrificial system (Lev. 2:13). It is a common substance and is an essential ingredient in bread.

Leaven was not used in sacrifices but salt was required. The Bible does not explain the meaning of these symbols. Leaven is often said to be a symbol of decay, but its normal use is to improve bread, not destroy it.

the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, then let him offer to the LORD for his sin which he has sinned a young bull without blemish as a sin offering. <sup>4</sup>He shall bring the bull to the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, lay his hand on the bull's head, and kill the bull before the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood and bring it to the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>6</sup>The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil of the sanctuary. <sup>7</sup>And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood of the bull at the base of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>8</sup>He shall take from it all the fat of the bull as the sin offering. The fat that covers the entrails and all the fat which is on the entrails, <sup>9</sup>the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove, <sup>10</sup>as it was taken from the bull of the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn them on the altar of the burnt offering. <sup>11</sup>But the bull's hide and all its flesh, with its head and legs, its entrails and offal— <sup>12</sup>the whole bull he shall carry outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

<sup>13</sup>Now if the whole congregation of Israel sins unintentionally, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done something against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which should not be done, and are guilty; <sup>14</sup>when the sin which they have committed becomes known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for the sin, and bring it before the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>15</sup>And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD. Then the bull shall be killed before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>The anointed priest shall bring some of the bull's blood to the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>17</sup>Then the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, in front of the veil. <sup>18</sup>And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of meeting; and he shall pour the remaining blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>19</sup>He shall take all the fat from it and burn it on the altar. <sup>20</sup>And he shall do with the bull as he did with the bull as a sin offering; thus he shall do with it. So the priest shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. <sup>21</sup>Then he shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is a sin offering for the assembly.

<sup>22</sup>When a ruler has sinned, and done something unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD his God in anything which should not be done, and is guilty, <sup>23</sup>or if his sin which he has committed comes to his knowledge, he shall bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a male without blemish. <sup>24</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it at the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. <sup>26</sup>And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of the peace offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>27</sup>If anyone of the common people sins unintentionally by doing something against any of the commandments of the LORD in anything which ought not to be done, and is guilty, <sup>28</sup>or if his sin which he has committed comes to his knowledge, then he shall bring as his offering a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has committed. <sup>29</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering. <sup>30</sup>Then the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all the remaining blood at the base of the altar. <sup>31</sup>He shall remove all its fat, as fat is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a sweet aroma to the LORD. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

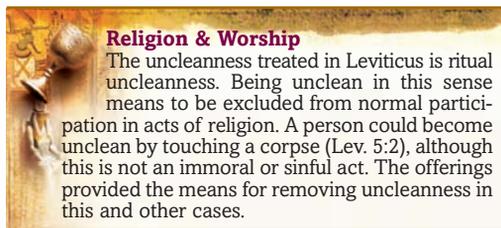

<sup>32</sup>If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish. <sup>33</sup>Then he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it as a sin offering at the place where they kill the burnt offering. <sup>34</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all the remaining blood at the base of the altar. <sup>35</sup>He shall remove all its fat, as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offering. Then the priest shall burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. So the priest shall make atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

Religion & Worship

The uncleanness treated in Leviticus is ritual uncleanness. Being unclean in this sense means to be excluded from normal participation in acts of religion. A person could become unclean by touching a corpse (Lev. 5:2), although this is not an immoral or sinful act. The offerings provided the means for removing uncleanness in this and other cases.

The Trespass Offering

5 <sup>1</sup>If a person sins in hearing the utterance of an oath, and is a witness, whether he has seen or known of the matter—if he does not tell it, he bears guilt.

<sup>2</sup>Or if a person touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean beast, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and he is unaware of it, he also shall be unclean and guilty. <sup>3</sup>Or if he touches human uncleanness—whatever uncleanness with which a man may be defiled, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty.

<sup>4</sup>Or if a person swears, speaking thoughtlessly with his lips to do evil or to do good, whatever it is that a man may pronounce by an oath, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty in any of these matters.

<sup>5</sup>And it shall be, when he is guilty in any of these matters, that he shall confess that he has sinned in that thing; <sup>6</sup>and he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

<sup>7</sup>If he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring to the LORD, for his trespass which he has committed, two turtledoves or two young pigeons: one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup>And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it completely. <sup>9</sup>Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>And he shall offer the second as a burnt offering according to the prescribed manner. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>11</sup>But if he is not able to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his offering one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup>Then he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as a memorial portion, and burn it on the altar according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. It is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him, for his sin that he has committed in any of these matters; and it shall be forgiven him. The rest shall be the priest's as a grain offering.'"

Offerings with Restitution

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>15</sup>"If a person commits a trespass, and sins unintentionally in regard to the holy things of the LORD, then he shall bring to the LORD as his trespass offering a ram without blemish from the flocks, with your valuation in shekels of silver according to the shekel of the sanctuary, as a trespass offering. <sup>16</sup>And he shall make restitution for the harm that he has done in regard to the holy thing, and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. So the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>17</sup>"If a person sins, and commits any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD, though he does not know it, yet he is guilty and shall bear his iniquity. <sup>18</sup>And he shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a trespass offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him regarding his ignorance in which he erred and did not know it, and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>19</sup>It is a trespass offering; he has certainly trespassed against the LORD."

6<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“If a person sins and commits a trespass against the LORD by lying to his neighbor about what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or about a pledge, or about a robbery, or if he has extorted from his neighbor, <sup>3</sup>or if he has found what was lost and lies concerning it, and swears falsely—in any one of these things that a man may do in which he sins: <sup>4</sup>then it shall be, because he has sinned and is guilty, that he shall restore what he has stolen, or the thing which he has extorted, or what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or the lost thing which he found, <sup>5</sup>or all that about which he has sworn falsely. He shall restore its full value, add one-fifth more to it, and give it to whomever it belongs, on the day of his trespass offering. <sup>6</sup>And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a trespass offering, to the priest. <sup>7</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven for any one of these things that he may have done in which he trespasses.”

The Law of the Burnt Offering

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>9</sup>“Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering shall be on the hearth upon the altar all night until morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it. <sup>10</sup>And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen trousers he shall put on his body, and take up the ashes of the burnt offering which the fire has consumed on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. <sup>11</sup>Then he shall take off his garments, put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. <sup>12</sup>And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order on it; and he shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>13</sup>A fire shall always be burning on the altar; it shall never go out.

The Law of the Grain Offering

<sup>14</sup>“This is the law of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron shall offer it on the altar before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>He shall take from it his handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, with its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the grain offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a sweet aroma, as a memorial to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And the remainder of it Aaron and his sons shall eat; with unleavened bread it shall be eaten in a holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of meeting they shall eat it. <sup>17</sup>It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of My offerings made by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup>All the males among the children of Aaron may eat it. It shall be a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings made by fire to the LORD. Everyone who touches them must be holy.’”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>19</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>20</sup>“This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they shall offer to the LORD, beginning on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a daily grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it at night. <sup>21</sup>It shall be made in a pan with oil. When it is mixed, you shall bring it in. The baked pieces of the grain offering you shall offer for a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>22</sup>The priest from among his sons, who is anointed in his place, shall offer it. It is a statute forever to the LORD. It shall be wholly burned. <sup>23</sup>For every grain offering for the priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten.”

The Law of the Sin Offering

<sup>24</sup>Also the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>25</sup>“Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It is most holy. <sup>26</sup>The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. In a holy place it shall be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>27</sup>Everyone who touches its flesh must be holy.’<sup>a</sup> And when its blood is sprinkled on any garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled, in a holy place. <sup>28</sup>But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a bronze pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water. <sup>29</sup>All the males among the priests may eat it. It is most holy. <sup>30</sup>But no sin offering from which any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of meeting, to make atonement in the holy place,<sup>a</sup> shall be eaten. It shall be burned in the fire.

Science & Technology

Pottery was a common product of many cultures. The objects made of clay are baked to make them hard and permanent. Quality is determined by the type of clay and by the heat and evenness of firing. The firing process requires experience and skill. Still, the whole process is cheap enough that even in ancient times some pottery vessels were intended to be disposable (Lev. 6:28).

The Law of the Trespass Offering

7 <sup>1</sup>Likewise this is the law of the trespass offering (it is most holy): <sup>2</sup>In the place where they kill the burnt offering they shall kill the trespass offering. And its blood he shall sprinkle all around on the altar. <sup>3</sup>And he shall offer from it all its fat. The fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails, <sup>4</sup>the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove; <sup>5</sup>and the priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a trespass offering. <sup>6</sup>Every male among the priests may eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy. <sup>7</sup>The trespass offering is like the sin offering; there is one law for them both: the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it. <sup>8</sup>And the priest who offers anyone's burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered. <sup>9</sup>Also every grain offering that is baked in the oven and all that is prepared in the covered pan, or in a pan, shall be the priest's who offers it. <sup>10</sup>Every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron, to one as much as the other.

The Law of Peace Offerings

vow or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offers his sacrifice; but on the next day the remainder of it also may be eaten; <sup>17</sup>the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day must be burned with fire. <sup>18</sup>And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering is eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, nor shall it be imputed to him; it shall be an abomination to him who offers it, and the person who eats of it shall bear guilt.

<sup>19</sup>The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. And as for the clean flesh, all who are clean may eat of it. <sup>20</sup>But the person who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that belongs to the LORD, while he is unclean, that person shall be cut off from his people. <sup>21</sup>Moreover the person who touches any unclean thing, such as human uncleanness, an unclean animal, or any abominable unclean thing,<sup>a</sup> and who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that belongs to the LORD, that person shall be cut off from his people.' "

Fat and Blood May Not Be Eaten

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>23</sup>Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'You shall not eat any fat, of ox or sheep or goat. <sup>24</sup>And the fat of an animal that dies naturally, and the fat of what is torn by wild beasts, may be used in any other way; but you shall by no means eat it. <sup>25</sup>For whoever eats the fat of the animal of which men offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, the person who eats it shall be cut off from his people. <sup>26</sup>Moreover you shall not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, whether of bird or beast. <sup>27</sup>Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.' "

The Portion for Aaron and His Sons

<sup>28</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>29</sup>Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offering to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offering. <sup>30</sup>His own hands shall bring the offerings made by fire to the LORD. The fat with the breast he shall bring, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>31</sup>And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. <sup>32</sup>Also the right thigh you shall give to the priest as a heave offering from the sacrifices of your peace offerings. <sup>33</sup>He among the sons of Aaron, who offers the blood of the peace offering and the fat, shall have the right thigh for his part. <sup>34</sup>For the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering I have taken from the children of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons from the children of Israel by a statute forever.’”

<sup>35</sup>This is the consecrated portion for Aaron and his sons, from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, on the day when Moses presented them to minister to the LORD as priests. <sup>36</sup>The LORD commanded this to be given to them by the children of Israel, on the day that He anointed them, by a statute forever throughout their generations.

<sup>37</sup>This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the trespass offering, the consecrations, and the sacrifice of the peace offering, <sup>38</sup>which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day when He commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Aaron and His Sons Consecrated

8 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, the anointing oil, a bull as the sin offering, two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread; <sup>3</sup>and gather all the congregation together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.”

<sup>10</sup>Also Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them. <sup>11</sup>He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver and its base, to consecrate them. <sup>12</sup>And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

Cults & Supernatural

The Urim and Thummim (Lev. 8:8) were apparently some kind of lot that could be used to obtain an answer from God about certain questions (Num. 27:21). In the surrounding cultures, a common method of looking for such answers was to try to read them from the inside parts of a sacrificed animal, especially the liver. The Romans observed the flights of birds.

<sup>18</sup>Then he brought the ram as the burnt offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, <sup>19</sup>and Moses killed it. Then he sprinkled the blood all around on the altar. <sup>20</sup>And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burned the head, the pieces, and the fat. <sup>21</sup>Then he washed the entrails and the legs in water. And Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>22</sup>And he brought the second ram, the ram of consecration. Then Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, <sup>23</sup>and Moses killed it. Also he took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron’s right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>24</sup>Then he brought Aaron’s sons. And Moses put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. And Moses sprinkled the blood all around on the altar. <sup>25</sup>Then he took the fat and the fat tail, all the fat that was on the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh; <sup>26</sup>and from the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD he took one unleavened cake, a cake of bread anointed with oil, and one wafer, and put them on the fat and on the right thigh; <sup>27</sup>and he put all these in Aaron’s hands and in his sons’ hands, and waved them as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar, on the burnt offering. They were consecration offerings for a sweet aroma. That was an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>29</sup>And Moses took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before the LORD. It was Moses’ part of the ram of consecration, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

8:8 <sup>a</sup>Literally the Lights and the Perfections (compare Exodus 28:30) and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he consecrated Aaron, his garments, his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

<sup>31</sup>And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, “Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of consecration offerings, as I commanded, saying, ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it.’<sup>32</sup>What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire.<sup>33</sup>And you shall not go outside the door of the tabernacle of meeting for seven days, until the days of your consecration are ended. For seven days he shall consecrate you.<sup>34</sup>As he has done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do, to make atonement for you.<sup>35</sup>Therefore you shall stay at the door of the tabernacle of meeting day and night for seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, so that you may not die; for so I have been commanded.”<sup>36</sup>So Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

The Priestly Ministry Begins

9 <sup>1</sup>It came to pass on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel.<sup>2</sup>And he said to Aaron, “Take for yourself a young bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.<sup>3</sup>And to the children of Israel you shall speak, saying, ‘Take a kid of the goats as a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering,<sup>4</sup>also a bull and a ram as peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you.’”

<sup>5</sup>So they brought what Moses commanded before the tabernacle of meeting. And all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.<sup>6</sup>Then Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded you to do, and the glory of the LORD will appear to you.”<sup>7</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, “Go to the altar, offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. Offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them, as the LORD commanded.”

<sup>8</sup>Aaron therefore went to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.<sup>9</sup>Then the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him. And he dipped his finger in the blood, put it on the horns of the altar, and poured the blood at the base of the altar.<sup>10</sup>But the fat, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe from the liver of the sin offering he burned on the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses.<sup>11</sup>The flesh and the hide he burned with fire outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup>And he killed the burnt offering; and Aaron’s sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar.<sup>13</sup>Then they presented the burnt offering to him, with its pieces and head, and he burned them on the altar.<sup>14</sup>And he washed the entrails and the legs, and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then he brought the people’s offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and killed it and offered it for sin, like the first one.<sup>16</sup>And he brought the burnt offering and offered it according to the prescribed manner.<sup>17</sup>Then he brought the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar, besides the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

<sup>18</sup>He also killed the bull and the ram as sacrifices of peace offerings, which were for the people. And Aaron’s sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar,<sup>19</sup>and the fat from the bull and the ram—the fatty tail, what covers the entrails and the kidneys, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver;<sup>20</sup>and they put the fat on the breasts. Then he burned the fat on the altar;<sup>21</sup>but the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved as a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.

<sup>22</sup>Then Aaron lifted his hand toward the people, blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and peace offerings.<sup>23</sup>And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of meeting, and came out and blessed the people. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people,<sup>24</sup>and fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

The Profane Fire of Nadab and Abihu

10 <sup>1</sup>Then Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it, put incense on it, and offered profane fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them.<sup>2</sup>So fire went out from the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

RIGHT OR WRONG RITUAL: LIFE OR DEATH (LEV. 10:1–7)

In the modern western world we tend to think of religious rituals as the procedures by which a group of people worship God. It is not a crisis of faith if some part of a ritual is not done exactly right. But in the ancient world the ritual was considered something to be performed correctly. The ritual, properly performed, was proper religion. To make an error in the prescribed forms of the rite was not just a mistake, but an act of impiety.

The priests, who were anointed and set apart to perform the rituals, were expected to live by a more stringent set of rules than were ordinary people. They had to memorize all the liturgy, hymns, and words for every religious service. The ancient world held services for the deities every day of the year, and so specialists were needed among the priesthood who could handle any service. These priests, it was believed, were chosen by the deity being worshiped.

Nadab and Abihu, Aaron's sons, were legitimate priests who chose on their own not to follow the ritual that was sanctioned by God (Lev. 10:1). Their deviation appears minor in the eyes of the modern western world; they simply lit their incense censers with a fire from an unapproved source. But for this breach of worship they were both destroyed by divine fire (10:2).

Israelites and Judahites would have understood these deaths as the proper consequence. A priest was supposed to follow the proper ritual, since the ritual was the way deity was honored and respected (10:3). Nadab's and Abihu's evil was their decision to determine for themselves right and wrong ways to worship. Even mourning for these dead priests was denied, lest it be seen as condoning their sin (10:6, 7).

<sup>3</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke, saying:

'By those who come near Me
I must be regarded as holy;
And before all the people
I must be glorified.'

So Aaron held his peace.

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp." <sup>5</sup>So they went near and carried them by their tunics out of the camp, as Moses had said.

<sup>6</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons, "Do not uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, lest you die, and wrath come upon all the people. But let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled. <sup>7</sup>You shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of meeting, lest you die, for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you." And they did according to the word of Moses.

Conduct Prescribed for Priests

grain offering that remains of the offerings made by fire to the LORD, and eat it without leaven beside the altar; for it is most holy. <sup>13</sup>You shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due, of the sacrifices made by fire to the LORD; for so I have been commanded. <sup>14</sup>The breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering you shall eat in a clean place, you, your sons, and your daughters with you; for they are your due and your sons' due, which are given from the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The thigh of the heave offering and the breast of the wave offering they shall bring with the offerings of fat made by fire, to offer as a wave offering before the LORD. And it shall be yours and your sons' with you, by a statute forever, as the LORD has commanded."

<sup>16</sup>Then Moses made careful inquiry about the goat of the sin offering, and there it was—burned up. And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying, <sup>17</sup>"Why have you not eaten the sin offering in a holy place, since it is most holy, and God has given it to you to bear the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? <sup>18</sup>See! Its blood was not brought inside the holy place;<sup>a</sup> indeed you should have eaten it in a holy place, as I commanded."

<sup>19</sup>And Aaron said to Moses, "Look, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, and such things have befallen me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?" <sup>20</sup>So when Moses heard that, he was content.

Foods Permitted and Forbidden

11 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘These are the animals which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth: <sup>3</sup>Among the animals, whatever divides the hoof, having cloven hooves and chewing the cud—that you may eat. <sup>4</sup>Nevertheless these you shall not eat among those that chew the cud or those that have cloven hooves: the camel, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you; <sup>5</sup>the rock hyrax, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you; <sup>6</sup>the hare, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you; <sup>7</sup>and the swine, though it divides the hoof, having cloven hooves, yet does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. <sup>8</sup>Their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. They are unclean to you.

<sup>9</sup>These you may eat of all that are in the water: whatever in the water has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the rivers—that you may eat. <sup>10</sup>But all in the seas or in the rivers that do not have fins and scales, all that move in the water or any living thing which is in the water, they are an abomination to you. <sup>11</sup>They shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination. <sup>12</sup>Whatever in the water does not have fins or scales—that shall be an abomination to you.

locust after its kind, the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind. <sup>23</sup>But all other flying insects which have four feet shall be an abomination to you.

Unclean Animals

<sup>29</sup>These also shall be unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the mole, the mouse, and the large lizard after its kind; <sup>30</sup>the gecko, the monitor lizard, the sand reptile, the sand lizard, and the chameleon. <sup>31</sup>These are unclean to you among all that creep. Whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening. <sup>32</sup>Anything on which any of them falls, when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it is any item of wood or clothing or skin or sack, whatever item it is, in which any work is done, it must be put in water. And it shall be unclean until evening; then it shall be clean. <sup>33</sup>Any earthen vessel into which any of them falls you shall break; and whatever is in it shall be unclean: <sup>34</sup>in such a vessel, any edible food upon which water falls becomes unclean, and any drink that may be drunk from it becomes unclean. <sup>35</sup>And everything on which a part of any such carcass falls shall be unclean; whether it is an oven or cooking stove, it shall be broken down; for they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you. <sup>36</sup>Nevertheless a spring or a cistern, in which there is plenty of water, shall be clean, but

Plants & Animals

The rationale for the distinctions between clean and unclean animals has been the subject of speculation. One suggestion is that unclean animals include those whose locomotion is improper or irregular, like the bat, which is a mammal that flies. Fish without fins are unclean (Lev. 11:10), as are animals that “creep” on the ground (11:41).

whatever touches any such carcass becomes unclean. <sup>37</sup>And if a part of any such carcass falls on any planting seed which is to be sown, it remains clean. <sup>38</sup>But if water is put on the seed, and if a part of any such carcass falls on it, it becomes unclean to you.

<sup>39</sup>And if any animal which you may eat dies, he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until evening. <sup>40</sup>He who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

<sup>41</sup>And every creeping thing that creeps on the earth shall be an abomination. It shall not be eaten. <sup>42</sup>Whatever crawls on its belly, whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet among all creeping things that creep on the earth—these you shall not eat, for they are an abomination. <sup>43</sup>You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps; nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, lest you be defiled by them. <sup>44</sup>For I am the LORD your God. You shall therefore consecrate yourselves, and you shall be holy; for I am holy. Neither shall you defile yourselves with any creeping thing that creeps on the earth. <sup>45</sup>For I am the LORD who brings you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

<sup>46</sup>This is the law of the animals and the birds and every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth, <sup>47</sup>to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten.’”

The Ritual After Childbirth

12 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If a woman has conceived, and borne a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her customary impurity she shall be unclean. <sup>3</sup>And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>She shall then continue in the blood of her purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary until the days of her purification are fulfilled.

<sup>5</sup>But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her customary impurity, and she shall continue in the blood of her purification sixty-six days.

<sup>6</sup>When the days of her purification are fulfilled, whether for a son or a daughter, she shall bring to the priest a lamb of the first year as a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle-dove as a sin offering, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>7</sup>Then he shall offer it before the LORD, and make atonement for her. And she shall be clean from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who has borne a male or a female.

<sup>8</sup>And if she is not able to bring a lamb, then she may bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons—one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be clean.’”

The Law Concerning Leprosy

13 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup>“When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling, a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes on the skin of his body like a leprous<sup>a</sup> sore, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests. <sup>3</sup>The priest shall examine the sore on the skin of the body; and if the hair on the sore has turned white, and the sore appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a leprous sore. Then the priest shall examine him, and pronounce him unclean. <sup>4</sup>But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his body, and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the sore seven days. <sup>5</sup>And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day; and indeed if the sore appears to be as it was, and the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall isolate him another seven days. <sup>6</sup>Then the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and indeed if the sore has faded, and the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab, and he shall wash his clothes and be clean. <sup>7</sup>But if the scab should at all spread over the skin, after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again. <sup>8</sup>And if the priest sees that the scab has indeed spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is leprosy.

<sup>9</sup>When the leprous sore is on a person, then he shall be brought to the priest. <sup>10</sup>And the priest shall examine him; and indeed if the swelling on the skin is white, and it has turned the hair white, and there is a spot of raw flesh in the swelling, <sup>11</sup>it is an old leprosy on the skin of his body. The priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

unclean. <sup>15</sup>And the priest shall examine the raw flesh and pronounce him to be unclean; for the raw flesh is unclean. It is leprosy. <sup>16</sup>Or if the raw flesh changes and turns white again, he shall come to the priest. <sup>17</sup>And the priest shall examine him; and indeed if the sore has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean who has the sore. He is clean.

<sup>29</sup>“If a man or woman has a sore on the head or the beard, <sup>30</sup>then the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed if it appears deeper than the skin, and there is in it thin yellow hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a scaly leprosy of the head or beard. <sup>31</sup>But if the priest examines the scaly sore, and indeed it does not appear deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale seven days. <sup>32</sup>And on the seventh day the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed

if the scale has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the scale does not appear deeper than the skin, <sup>33</sup>he shall shave himself, but the scale he shall not shave. And the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale another seven days. <sup>34</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall examine the scale; and indeed if the scale has not spread over the skin, and does not appear deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean. <sup>35</sup>But if the scale should at all spread over the skin after his cleansing, <sup>36</sup>then the priest shall examine him; and indeed if the scale has spread over the skin, the priest need not seek for yellow hair. He is unclean. <sup>37</sup>But if the scale appears to be at a standstill, and there is black hair grown up in it, the scale has healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

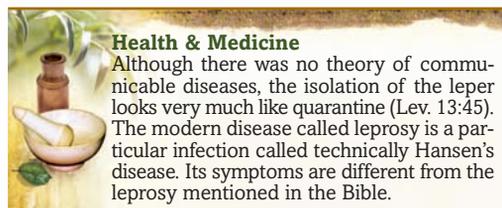

<sup>38</sup>“If a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, specifically white bright spots, <sup>39</sup>then the priest shall look; and indeed if the bright spots on the skin of the body are dull white, it is a white spot that grows on the skin. He is clean.

<sup>40</sup>“As for the man whose hair has fallen from his head, he is bald, but he is clean. <sup>41</sup>He whose hair has fallen from his forehead, he is bald on the forehead, but he is clean. <sup>42</sup>And if there is on the bald head or bald forehead a reddish-white sore, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead. <sup>43</sup>Then the priest shall examine it; and indeed if the swelling of the sore is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy on the skin of the body, <sup>44</sup>he is a leprous man. He is unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his sore is on his head.

<sup>45</sup>“Now the leper on whom the sore is, his clothes shall be torn and his head bare; and he shall cover his mustache, and cry, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’ <sup>46</sup>He shall be unclean. All the days he has the sore he shall be unclean. He is unclean, and he shall dwell alone; his dwelling shall be outside the camp.

The Law Concerning Leprous Garments

<sup>47</sup>“Also, if a garment has a leprous plague<sup>a</sup> in it, whether it is a woolen garment or a linen garment, <sup>48</sup>whether it is in the warp or woof of linen or wool, whether in leather or in anything

Health & Medicine

Although there was no theory of communicable diseases, the isolation of the leper looks very much like quarantine (Lev. 13:45). The modern disease called leprosy is a particular infection called technically Hansen's disease. Its symptoms are different from the leprosy mentioned in the Bible.

13:47 <sup>a</sup>A mold, fungus, or similar infestation, and so in verses 47–59 made of leather,<sup>49</sup> and if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it is a leprous plague and shall be shown to the priest.<sup>50</sup> The priest shall examine the plague and isolate that which has the plague seven days.<sup>51</sup> And he shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, in the leather or in anything made of leather, the plague is an active leprosy. It is unclean.<sup>52</sup> He shall therefore burn that garment in which is the plague, whether warp or woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of leather, for it is an active leprosy; the garment shall be burned in the fire.

<sup>53</sup>“But if the priest examines it, and indeed the plague has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather,<sup>54</sup> then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which is the plague; and he shall isolate it another seven days.<sup>55</sup> Then the priest shall examine the plague after it has been washed; and indeed if the plague has not changed its color, though the plague has not spread, it is unclean, and you shall burn it in the fire; it continues eating away, whether the damage is outside or inside.<sup>56</sup> If the priest examines it, and indeed the plague has faded after washing it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, whether out of the warp or out of the woof, or out of the leather.<sup>57</sup> But if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it is a spreading plague; you shall burn with fire that in which is the plague.<sup>58</sup> And if you wash the garment, either warp or woof, or whatever is made of leather, if the plague has disappeared from it, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.

<sup>59</sup>“This is the law of the leprous plague in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp or woof, or in anything made of leather, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean.”

The Ritual for Cleansing Healed Lepers

14<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

the scarlet and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.<sup>7</sup> And he shall sprinkle it seven times on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose in the open field.<sup>8</sup> He who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, and shall stay outside his tent seven days.<sup>9</sup> But on the seventh day he shall shave all the hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows—all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes and wash his body in water, and he shall be clean.

<sup>10</sup>“And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and one log of oil.<sup>11</sup> Then the priest who makes him clean shall present the man who is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.<sup>12</sup> And the priest shall take one male lamb and offer it as a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.<sup>13</sup> Then he shall kill the lamb in the place where he kills the sin offering and the burnt offering, in a holy place; for as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy.<sup>14</sup> The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.<sup>15</sup> And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand.<sup>16</sup> Then the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.<sup>17</sup> And of the rest of the oil in his hand, the priest shall put some on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the trespass offering.<sup>18</sup> The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>“Then the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he shall kill the burnt offering.<sup>20</sup> And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

<sup>21</sup>“But if he is poor and cannot afford it, then he shall take one male lamb as a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, one-tenth

RITUALS AGAINST FUNGUS (LEV. 14:33–53)

Israel's laws included regulations for dealing with a "leprous plague in a house" (Lev. 14:33–53). The Hebrew word translated "leprous plague" (14:33) is generic, pertaining to various infestations. When used to describe the deterioration of garments (Lev. 13:47) and houses, it probably refers to decay caused by fungus, mildew, mold, or dry rot.

In Israel, any house that was discolored with mildew caused by fungus-producing organisms was quarantined (14:36–38). The structure had to be cleansed both physically and ritually. Affected areas of stone were scraped, or replaced and remortared (14:40–42). If efforts were successful, the priest pronounced the house clean and performed a purification ritual (14:48–53).

This Mosaic dictum for quarantining and cleansing infected houses can be compared with two texts from Mesopotamia. One is a quotation from a Babylonian omen series, which prescribes a ritual to the Babylonian gods Ea and Ishum. Another ritual is mentioned in a letter to Esarhaddon, the king of Assyria from 680 to 669 B.C.

The omen reads, "If there is a fungus in a man's house, on the outer north wall, the owner of the house will die and his house will be scattered." In order to avert the evil, the individual is told to gather the fungus (in a particular manner) and burn it with a torch, placing mud and gypsum around it. The person then must recite an incantation to Ea (the god of wisdom) and slaughter a sheep to the god Ishum. Holy water is thrown on the person while another incantation is recited. Thus, the evil of the omen will be thwarted.

A letter to Esarhaddon confirms to the king the existence of a prayer and a ritual for two types of fungus that had appeared on the inner courtyard of the temple of Nabu. The author of the letter states that a technician, meaning a priest, will perform the appropriate ritual several times on the next morning.

of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, a log of oil,<sup>22</sup> and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford: one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.<sup>23</sup> He shall bring them to the priest on the eighth day for his cleansing, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, before the LORD.<sup>24</sup> And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.<sup>25</sup> Then he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.<sup>26</sup> And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.<sup>27</sup> Then the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD.<sup>28</sup> And the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass offering.<sup>29</sup> The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.<sup>30</sup> And he shall offer one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, such as he can afford—<sup>31</sup>such as he is able to afford, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, with the grain offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before the LORD.<sup>32</sup> This is the law for one who had a leprous sore, who cannot afford the usual cleansing."

The Law Concerning Leprous Houses

<sup>33</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:<sup>34</sup> "When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give you as a possession, and I put the leprous plague<sup>a</sup> in a house in the land of your possession,<sup>35</sup> and he who owns the house comes and tells the priest, saying, 'It seems to me that there is some plague in the house,'<sup>36</sup> then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes into it to examine the plague, that all that is in the house may not be made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to examine the house.<sup>37</sup> And he shall examine the plague; and indeed if the plague is on the walls of the house with ingrained streaks, greenish or reddish, which appear to be deep in the wall,<sup>38</sup> then the priest shall go out of the house, to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.<sup>39</sup> And the priest shall come again on the seventh day and look; and indeed if the plague has spread on the walls of the house,<sup>40</sup> then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which is the plague, and they shall cast them into an unclean place outside the city.<sup>41</sup> And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside, all around, and the dust that they scrape off they shall pour out in an unclean place outside the city.<sup>42</sup> Then they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other mortar and plaster the house.

<sup>43</sup>"Now if the plague comes back and breaks out in the house, after he has taken away the stones, after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered,<sup>44</sup> then the priest shall come and look; and indeed if the plague has spread in the house, it is an active leprosy in the house. It is unclean.<sup>45</sup> And he shall break down the house, its stones, its timber, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall carry them outside the city to an unclean place. <sup>46</sup>Moreover he who goes into the house at all while it is shut up shall be unclean until evening. <sup>47</sup>And he who lies down in the house shall wash his clothes, and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

<sup>48</sup>But if the priest comes in and examines it, and indeed the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. <sup>49</sup>And he shall take, to cleanse the house, two birds, cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>50</sup>Then he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water; <sup>51</sup>and he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup>And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and the running water and the living bird, with the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet. <sup>53</sup>Then he shall let the living bird loose outside the city in the open field, and make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

The Law Concerning Bodily Discharges

15 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean. <sup>3</sup>And this shall be his uncleanness in regard to his discharge—whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body is stopped up by his discharge, it is his uncleanness. <sup>4</sup>Every bed is unclean on which he who has the discharge lies, and everything on which he sits shall be unclean. <sup>5</sup>And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>6</sup>He who sits on anything on which he who has the discharge sat shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>7</sup>And he who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup>If he who has the discharge spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup>Any saddle on which he who has the discharge rides shall be unclean. <sup>10</sup>Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening. He who carries any of those things shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>11</sup>And whomever the one who has the discharge touches, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>12</sup>The vessel of earth that he who has the discharge touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

<sup>13</sup>And when he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count for himself seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes, and bathe his body in running water; then he shall be clean. <sup>14</sup>On the eighth day he shall take for himself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and give them to the priest. <sup>15</sup>Then the priest shall offer them, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD because of his discharge.

<sup>16</sup>If any man has an emission of semen, then he shall wash all his body in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>17</sup>And any garment and any leather on which there is semen, it shall be washed with water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>18</sup>Also, when a woman lies with a man, and there is an emission of semen, they shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>19</sup>If a woman has a discharge, and the discharge from her body is blood, she shall be set apart seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until evening. <sup>20</sup>Everything that she lies on during her impurity shall be unclean; also everything that she sits on shall be unclean. <sup>21</sup>Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup>And whoever touches anything that she sat on shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. <sup>23</sup>If anything is on her bed or on anything on which she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until evening. <sup>24</sup>And if any man lies with her at all, so that her impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

<sup>28</sup>But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. <sup>29</sup>And on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>30</sup>Then the priest shall offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the discharge of her uncleanness.

<sup>31</sup>Thus you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness when they defile My tabernacle that is among them. <sup>32</sup>This is the law for one who has a discharge, and for him who emits semen and is unclean thereby, and for her who is indisposed because of her customary impurity, and for one who has a discharge, either man or woman, and for him who lies with her who is unclean.”

Leviticus

16 :1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered profane fire before the LORD, and died; <sup>2</sup>and the LORD said to Moses: “Tell Aaron your brother not to come at just any time into the Holy Place inside the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark, lest he die; for I will appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

<sup>3</sup>Thus Aaron shall come into the Holy Place: with the blood of a young bull as a sin offering, and of a ram as a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>He shall put the holy linen tunic and the linen trousers on his body; he shall be girded with a linen sash, and with the linen turban he shall be attired. These are holy garments. Therefore he shall wash his body in water, and put them on. <sup>5</sup>And he shall take from the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats as a sin offering, and one ram as a burnt offering.

<sup>6</sup>“Aaron shall offer the bull as a sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house. <sup>7</sup>He shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>8</sup>Then Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats: one lot for the

The Day of Atonement

A description of the Day of Atonement, the most sacred event in the year, appears in Lev. 16 and also in Lev. 23:26–32. Postbiblical Judaism referred to this annual observance as “the day” or “the great day.” In the New Testament Paul calls it “the Fast” (Acts 27:9). It was observed on the 10th day of the 7th month, Tishri, corresponding to October. See “Israel’s Feasts” at Lev. 23:1.

• Leviticus 16:1—22:33

ANIMALS THAT CARRY AWAY SIN (LEV. 16:7–10)

The Day of Atonement, observed on the 10th day of the 7th month, was the most sacred event in the year (Lev. 16:29, 34). One of the rituals for this annual day of fasting involved the cleansing of the sanctuary with blood. This was the only time in the year when the high priest entered the Most Holy Place to appear before the mercy seat (16:11–17). The other ritual involved the sending away of the scapegoat (16:7–10, 20–22).

In the scapegoat ritual, the scapegoat was sent into the wilderness. First, however, the priest placed his hands on the goat and confessed the sins of his people. The ritual symbolized the “removal” or “taking away” of the people’s sin (16:21, 22).

The general form of the scapegoat ritual, as described in Leviticus, is not unique to Israel. Rituals from Anatolia and Mesopotamia attempt to appease an angry deity by using animals to carry away a plague or other evil suffering. A Hittite text from the mid-2nd millennium B.C. outlines what a monarch should do in case there is pestilence in his land caused by fighting in enemy territory.

In the Hittite ritual, the king is required to take an enemy bull (or ewe), “decorate the bull’s ears with earrings and (fasten on it) red wool, green wool, black wool, and white wool.” The bull is then driven into the enemy country, with the recitation, “Whatever god of the enemy country has caused this pestilence (if it be a male god), I have given thee a lusty, decorated bull with earrings. Be thou content with it. This bull shall take back the pestilence to the enemy country.” An identical ceremony is performed with the ewe if the enemy’s deity is a female.

In the Israelite ritual two goats were used. One was designated for the Lord and offered as a sin offering (16:9). The other goat, the scapegoat, bore the people’s iniquities (16:22). In this ritual Israel released a live animal to carry away impurities, as other cultures did to eliminate sicknesses or sorceries.

LORD and the other lot for the scapegoat. <sup>9</sup>And Aaron shall bring the goat on which the LORD's lot fell, and offer it as a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>But the goat on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make atonement upon it, and to let it go as the scapegoat into the wilderness.

<sup>11</sup>And Aaron shall bring the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house, and shall kill the bull as the sin offering which is for himself. <sup>12</sup>Then he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, with his hands full of sweet incense beaten fine, and bring it inside the veil. <sup>13</sup>And he shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of incense may cover the mercy seat that is on the Testimony, lest he die. <sup>14</sup>He shall take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the mercy seat on the east side; and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

<sup>15</sup>Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, bring its blood inside the veil, do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat and before the mercy seat. <sup>16</sup>So he shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, for all their sins; and so he shall do for the tabernacle of meeting which remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness. <sup>17</sup>There shall be no man in the tabernacle of meeting when he goes in to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself, for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD, and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar all around. <sup>19</sup>Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, cleanse it, and consecrate it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>And when he has made an end of atoning for the Holy Place, the tabernacle of meeting, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat. <sup>21</sup>Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, concerning all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and shall send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a suitable man. <sup>22</sup>The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to an uninhabited land; and he shall release the goat in the wilderness.

<sup>23</sup>Then Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of meeting, shall take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there. <sup>24</sup>And he shall wash his body with water in a holy place, put on his garments, come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people. <sup>25</sup>The fat of the sin offering he shall burn on the altar. <sup>26</sup>And he who released the goat as the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp. <sup>27</sup>The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be carried outside the camp. And they shall burn in the fire their skins, their flesh, and their offal. <sup>28</sup>Then he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.

<sup>29</sup>This shall be a statute forever for you: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether a native of your own country or a stranger who dwells among you. <sup>30</sup>For on that day the priest shall make atonement for you, to cleanse you, that you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD. <sup>31</sup>It is a sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall afflict your souls. It is a statute forever. <sup>32</sup>And the priest, who is anointed and consecrated to minister as priest in his father's place, shall make atonement, and put on the linen clothes, the holy garments; <sup>33</sup>then he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary,<sup>a</sup> and he shall make atonement for the tabernacle of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly. <sup>34</sup>This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year." And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Sanctity of Blood

17 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, 'This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying: <sup>3</sup>'Whatever man of the house of Israel who

Beliefs & Ideas

The treatment of the scapegoat illustrates clearly how sins are transferred to the sacrificial animal by the laying on of hands by the priest (Lev. 16:21). The ritual described here is the origin of our idea of a "scapegoat." Sending a live animal away instead of killing it is a unique feature of the Day of Atonement.

kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp, <sup>4</sup>and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting to offer an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, the guilt of bloodshed shall be imputed to that man. He has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people, <sup>5</sup>to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to the priest, and offer them as peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and burn the fat for a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>They shall no more offer their sacrifices to demons, after whom they have played the harlot. This shall be a statute forever for them throughout their generations.”

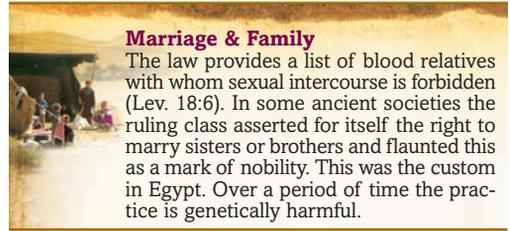

<sup>8</sup>“Also you shall say to them: ‘Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, <sup>9</sup>and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to offer it to the LORD, that man shall be cut off from among his people.

<sup>10</sup>“And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people. <sup>11</sup>For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul.’ <sup>12</sup>Therefore I said to the children of Israel, ‘No one among you shall eat blood, nor shall any stranger who dwells among you eat blood.’

<sup>13</sup>“Whatever man of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who hunts and catches any animal or bird that may be eaten, he shall pour out its blood and cover it with dust; <sup>14</sup>for it is the life of all flesh. Its blood sustains its life. Therefore I said to the children of Israel, ‘You shall not eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off.’

<sup>15</sup>“And every person who eats what died naturally or what was torn by beasts, whether he is a native of your own country or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. Then he shall be clean. <sup>16</sup>But if he does not wash them or bathe his body, then he shall bear his guilt.”

Marriage & Family

The law provides a list of blood relatives with whom sexual intercourse is forbidden (Lev. 18:6). In some ancient societies the ruling class asserted for itself the right to marry sisters or brothers and flaunted this as a mark of nobility. This was the custom in Egypt. Over a period of time the practice is genetically harmful.

<sup>6</sup>None of you shall approach anyone who is near of kin to him, to uncover his nakedness: I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup>The nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother you shall not uncover. She is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>8</sup>The nakedness of your father’s wife you shall not uncover; it is your father’s nakedness. <sup>9</sup>The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or elsewhere, their nakedness you shall not uncover. <sup>10</sup>The nakedness of your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, their nakedness you shall not uncover; for theirs is your own nakedness. <sup>11</sup>The nakedness of your father’s wife’s daughter, begotten by your father—she is your sister—you shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>12</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s sister; she is near of kin to your father. <sup>13</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister, for she is near of kin to your mother. <sup>14</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s brother. They are near of kin to her. It is wickedness. <sup>18</sup>Nor shall you take a woman as a rival to her sister, to uncover her nakedness while the other is alive.

Moral and Ceremonial Laws

19 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

<sup>3</sup>Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and keep My Sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>4</sup>Do not turn to idols, nor make for yourselves molded gods: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup>And if you offer a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, you shall offer it of your own free will. <sup>6</sup>It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day. And if any remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire. <sup>7</sup>And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination. It shall not be accepted. <sup>8</sup>Therefore every-one who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the hallowed offering of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>9</sup>When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest. <sup>10</sup>And you shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather every grape of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>11</sup>You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another. <sup>12</sup>And you shall not swear by My name falsely, nor shall you profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>You shall not cheat your neighbor, nor rob him. The wages of him who is hired shall not remain with you all night until morning. <sup>14</sup>You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>You shall do no injustice in judgment. You shall not be partial to the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty. In righteousness you shall judge your neighbor. <sup>16</sup>You shall not go about as a talebearer among your people; nor shall you take a stand against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>You shall not hate your brother in your heart. You shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him. <sup>18</sup>You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Whoever lies carnally with a woman who is betrothed to a man as a concubine, and who has not at all been redeemed nor given her freedom, for this there shall be scourging; but they shall not be put to death, because she was not free. <sup>21</sup>And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, a ram as a trespass offering. <sup>22</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed. And the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

<sup>23</sup>When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as uncircumcised. Three years it shall be as uncircumcised to you. It shall not be eaten. <sup>24</sup>But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be

TECHNICAL PROPHECY SEEKS DIVINE KNOWLEDGE (LEV. 19:26)

Ancient people considered it important to know the will of the gods—on demand, if necessary. So there were specialists in the art of determining a deity's will through rituals or through the specialists' deep knowledge of the secret meaning of natural phenomena. Such specialized practices, which included divination and soothsaying, were aimed at foretelling the future and thus can be called "technical prophecy."

Most of what we know about divination and soothsaying comes from Mesopotamia—Babylonia and Assyria. Mesopotamian technical prophecy was carried out by highly educated, trained priests. A number of tablets survive which tell how to read natural events to determine the will of the gods. Wind, water, the blowing of grain, the appearance of animals, the position of the stars and planets, and indeed almost any natural occurrence had its divine meaning.

In a different method, Mesopotamian priests could obtain particular information by performing sacrifices. Archaeologists have found large numbers of clay models of livers taken from sheep sacrificed for the purpose of divination. By reading the bumps on the liver the priests could determine the answers to questions. The answers were then recorded on these clay models.

The peoples around Israel also sought knowledge from the gods. Sacred oracles from Syria-Palestine are found in Greek records such as De Dea Syria from the 2nd century A.D. These records indicate that answers to the questions of worshipers came through sounds from the openings of caves or from the flying of gods' statues (which skeptics claimed were rigged with ropes).

The Israelites themselves were forbidden to divine the will of God through these technical methods. They were allowed the oracular items called Urim and Thummim (Deut. 33:8; 1 Sam. 14:41), but Israel's law clearly instructed them not to "practice divination or soothsaying" (Lev. 19:26). For the Israelites the divine will would be disclosed by God through vision, dream, or prophet, and the Israelite worshiper was free to petition God for such revelation.

holy, a praise to the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>26</sup>You shall not eat anything with the blood, nor shall you practice divination or soothsaying. <sup>27</sup>You shall not shave around the sides of your head, nor shall you disfigure the edges of your beard. <sup>28</sup>You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor tattoo any marks on you: I am the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>Do not prostitute your daughter, to cause her to be a harlot, lest the land fall into harlotry, and the land become full of wickedness.

<sup>30</sup>You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary: I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>Give no regard to mediums and familiar spirits; do not seek after them, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>32</sup>You shall rise before the gray headed and honor the presence of an old man, and fear your God: I am the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>And if a stranger dwells with you in your land, you shall not mistreat him. <sup>34</sup>The stranger who dwells among you shall be to you as one born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>35</sup>You shall do no injustice in judgment, in measurement of length, weight, or volume. <sup>36</sup>You shall have honest scales, honest weights, an honest ephah, and an honest hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>37</sup>Therefore you shall observe all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform them: I am the LORD.' "

Penalties for Breaking the Law

20 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Again, you shall say to the children of Israel: 'Whoever of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who gives any of his descendants to Molech, he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones. <sup>3</sup>I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from his people, because he has given some of his descendants to Molech, to defile My sanctuary and profane My holy name. <sup>4</sup>And if the people of the land should in any way hide their eyes from the man, when he gives some of his descendants to Molech, and they do not kill him, <sup>5</sup>then I will set My face against that man and against his family; and I will cut him off from his people, and all who prostitute themselves with him to commit harlotry with Molech.

<sup>6</sup>And the person who turns to mediums and familiar spirits, to prostitute himself with them, I will set My face against that person and cut him off from his people. <sup>7</sup>Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>And you shall keep My statutes, and perform them: I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

Culture & Society

There is undeniable evidence from Carthage in North Africa that the sacrifice of children was carried on there regularly. Sacrifice of adult human beings was the state religion of the Aztecs. It is sometimes said that human sacrifice never really occurred. The Law of Moses shows that it was a temptation at least (Lev. 20:2).

<sup>9</sup>For everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother. His blood shall be upon him.

<sup>22</sup>You shall therefore keep all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform them, that the land where I am bringing you to dwell may not vomit you out. <sup>23</sup>And you shall not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am casting out before you; for they commit all these things, and therefore I abhor them. <sup>24</sup>But I have said to you, "You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from the peoples. <sup>25</sup>You shall therefore distinguish between clean animals and unclean, between unclean birds and clean, and you shall not make yourselves abominable by beast or by bird, or by any kind of living thing that creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. <sup>26</sup>And you shall be holy to Me, for I the LORD am holy, and have separated you from the peoples, that you should be Mine.

<sup>27</sup>"A man or a woman who is a medium, or who has familiar spirits, shall surely be put to death; they shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon them."

Cults & Supernatural

The medium or spiritist is someone who pretends to find out things, especially about the future, through contact with dead persons or other kinds of spirits from the realm of the dead (Lev. 20:27). This is a common sort of magic that appears with many variations of method, in ancient and modern times. The Bible subjects it to ridicule and forbids it.

Regulations for Conduct of Priests

21 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: 'None shall defile himself for the dead among his people, <sup>2</sup>except for his relatives who are nearest to him: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, and his brother; <sup>3</sup>also his virgin sister who is near to him, who has had no husband, for her he may defile himself. <sup>4</sup>Otherwise he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

<sup>5</sup>They shall not make any bald place on their heads, nor shall they shave the edges of their beards nor make any cuttings in their flesh. <sup>6</sup>They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, for they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy. <sup>7</sup>They shall not take a wife who is a harlot or a defiled woman, nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband; for the priest is holy to his God. <sup>8</sup>Therefore you shall consecrate him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy. <sup>9</sup>The daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the harlot, she profanes her father. She shall be burned with fire.

<sup>14</sup>A widow or a divorced woman or a defiled woman or a harlot—these he shall not marry; but he shall take a virgin of his own people as wife. <sup>15</sup>Nor shall he profane his posterity among his people, for I the LORD sanctify him.’ ”

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>17</sup>“Speak to Aaron, saying: ‘No man of your descendants in succeeding generations, who has any defect, may approach to offer the bread of his God. <sup>18</sup>For any man who has a defect shall not approach: a man blind or lame, who has a marred face or any limb too long, <sup>19</sup>a man who has a broken foot or broken hand, <sup>20</sup>or is a hunchback or a dwarf, or a man who has a defect in his eye, or eczema or scab, or is a eunuch. <sup>21</sup>No man of the descendants of Aaron the priest, who has a defect, shall come near to offer the offerings made by fire to the LORD. He has a defect; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. <sup>22</sup>He may eat the bread of his God, both the most holy and the holy; <sup>23</sup>only he shall not go near the veil or approach the altar, because he has a defect, lest he profane My sanctuaries; for I the LORD sanctify them.’ ”

22 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to Aaron and his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they do not profane My holy name by what they dedicate to Me: I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Say to them: ‘Whoever of all your descendants throughout your generations, who goes near the holy things which the children of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he has uncleanness upon him, that person shall be cut off from My presence: I am the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Whatever man of the descendants of Aaron, who is a leper or has a discharge, shall not eat the holy offerings until he is clean. And whoever touches anything made unclean by a corpse, or a man who has had an emission of semen, <sup>5</sup>or whoever touches any creeping thing by which he would be made unclean, or any person by whom he would become unclean, whatever his uncleanness may be— <sup>6</sup>the person who has touched any such thing shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat the holy offerings unless he washes his body with water. <sup>7</sup>And when the sun goes down he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat the holy offerings, because it is his food. <sup>8</sup>Whatever dies naturally or is torn by beasts he shall not eat, to defile himself with it: I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>They shall therefore keep My ordinance, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby, if they profane it: I the LORD sanctify them.

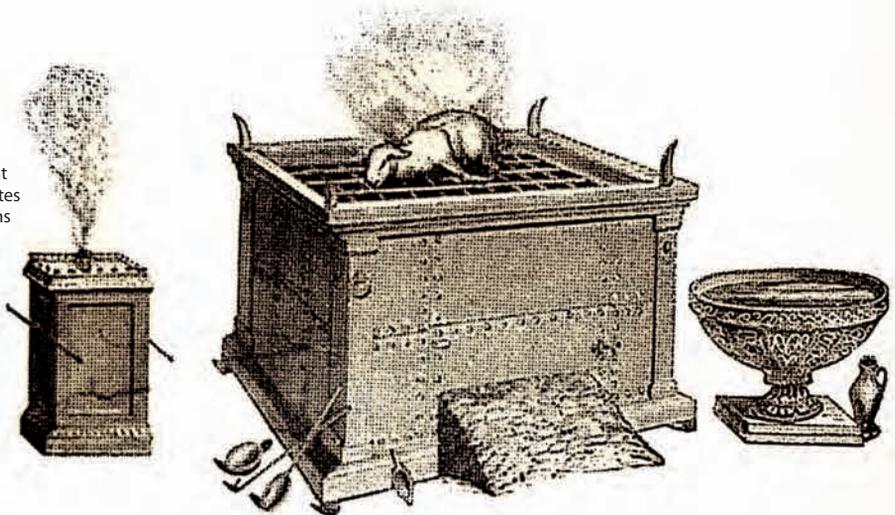

<sup>10</sup>No outsider shall eat the holy offering; one who dwells with the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat the holy thing. <sup>11</sup>But if the priest buys a person with his money, he may eat it; and one who is born in his house may eat his food. <sup>12</sup>If the priest’s daughter is married to an outsider, she may not eat of the holy offerings. <sup>13</sup>But if the priest’s daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat her father’s food; but no outsider shall eat it.

<sup>14</sup>And if a man eats the holy offering unintentionally, then he shall restore a holy offering to the priest, and add one-fifth to it. <sup>15</sup>They shall not profane the holy offerings of the children of Israel, which they offer to the LORD, <sup>16</sup>or allow them to bear the guilt of trespass when they eat their holy offerings; for I the LORD sanctify them.’ ”

Offerings Accepted and Not Accepted

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>18</sup>“Speak to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, who offers his sacrifice for any of his vows or for any of his freewill offerings, which they offer to the LORD as a burnt offering—<sup>19</sup>you shall offer of your own free will a male without blemish from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats. <sup>20</sup>Whatever has a defect, you shall not offer, for it shall not be acceptable on your behalf. <sup>21</sup>And whoever offers a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, to fulfill his vow, or a freewill offering from the cattle or the sheep, it must be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no defect in it. <sup>22</sup>Those that are blind or broken or maimed, or have an ulcer or eczema or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Either a bull or a lamb that has any limb too long or too short you may offer as a freewill offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

<sup>24</sup>You shall not offer to the LORD what is bruised or crushed, or torn or cut; nor shall you make any offering of them in your land. <sup>25</sup>Nor from a foreigner's hand shall you offer any of these as the bread of your God, because their corruption is in them, and defects are in them. They shall not be accepted on your behalf.' ”

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>27</sup>“When a bull or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall be seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day and thereafter it shall be accepted as an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Whether it is a cow or ewe, do not kill both her and her young on the same day. <sup>29</sup>And when you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, offer it of your own free will. <sup>30</sup>On the same day it shall be eaten; you shall leave none of it until morning: I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>“Therefore you shall keep My commandments, and perform them: I am the LORD. <sup>32</sup>You shall not profane My holy name, but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel. I am the LORD who sanctifies you, <sup>33</sup>who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.”

Israel's Feasts

In addition to the Sabbath (Lev. 23:3), Lev. 23 describes seven sacred festivals of the Hebrew calendar that were observed before the Babylonian exile. These feasts were occasions for nationwide gatherings which called the people to public worship.

Passover (23:5) and the Feast of Unleavened Bread (23:6–8) occurred in Abib (also called Nisan), the 1st month (March–April) of the sacred year. Combined they were one of Israel's three annual pilgrimage festivals for which every adult male was required to present himself at the tabernacle, and later, the temple. Passover may have been celebrated for one day at the beginning of the week-long Feast of Unleavened Bread, as it is in modern Judaism.

Firstfruits (23:9–21) was celebrated twice during the year as an expression of gratitude to God for His provision in the harvest. The first celebration occurred on the day following the Sabbath at the time of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This fell during the barley harvest, sometime between the 16th and 22nd days of the 1st month (Abib). The second celebration occurred 50 days later during the Feast of Weeks.

The Feast of Weeks (23:15–22), also known as Harvest (Ex. 23:16), occurred 50 days after the offering of firstfruits at the barley harvest. Held in connection with the wheat harvest, this one-day celebration during the 3rd month (Sivan) involved the firstfruits observation as well as other sacrifices. It was the second festival with required attendance at the temple.

The Feast of Trumpets (23:23–25) was the first of three holy days of the 7th month (Tishri). It was a sacred celebration of the new civil year, calling attention to judgment for sin, and the need for penitence and forgiveness.

The Day of Atonement (23:26–32) was the second holy day of the 7th month. On this day sacrifice was made for the sin of the whole nation; thus, it was a time of true repentance and faith preparing for the Feast of Tabernacles.

The Feast of Tabernacles (23:33–36; or Booths, vv. 39–43), the third holy day of the 7th month, was celebrated at the end of the grape harvest in September–October. Also known as Ingathering (Ex. 23:16), it was a time for great joy when all harvests were completed. It was also the third feast requiring a pilgrimage to Jerusalem.

The Feast of Firstfruits

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land which I give to you, and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest. <sup>11</sup>He shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted on your behalf; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it. <sup>12</sup>And you shall offer on that day, when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Its grain offering shall be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD, for a sweet aroma; and its drink offering shall be of wine, one-fourth of a hin. <sup>14</sup>You shall eat neither bread nor parched grain nor fresh grain until the same day that you have brought an offering to your God; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Sabbaths shall be completed. <sup>16</sup>Count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer a new grain offering to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>You shall bring from your dwellings two wave loaves of two-tenths of an ephah. They shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven. They are the firstfruits to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs of the first year, without blemish, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be as a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats as a sin offering, and two male lambs of the first year as a sacrifice of a peace offering. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. <sup>21</sup>And you shall proclaim on the same day that it is a holy convocation to you. You shall do no customary work on it. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

<sup>22</sup>“When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field when you reap, nor shall you gather any gleanings from your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I am the LORD your God.’”

The Feast of Trumpets

seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a sabbath-rest, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. <sup>25</sup>You shall do no customary work on it; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD.’ ”

The Day of Atonement

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>27</sup>“Also the tenth day of this seventh month shall be the Day of Atonement. It shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>And you shall do no work on that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement for you before the LORD your God. <sup>29</sup>For any person who is not afflicted in soul on that same day shall be cut off from his people. <sup>30</sup>And any person who does any work on that same day, that person I will destroy from among his people. <sup>31</sup>You shall do no manner of work; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. <sup>32</sup>It shall be to you a sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict your souls; on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall celebrate your sabbath.”

The Feast of Tabernacles

<sup>33</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>34</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days to the LORD. <sup>35</sup>On the first day there shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work on it. <sup>36</sup>For seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day you shall have a holy convocation, and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a sacred assembly, and you shall do no customary work on it.

<sup>37</sup>“These are the feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering and a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, everything on its day— <sup>38</sup>besides the Sabbaths of the LORD, besides your gifts, besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings which you give to the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>Also on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD for seven days; on the first day there shall be a sabbath-rest, and on the eighth day a sabbath-rest. <sup>40</sup>And you shall take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of beautiful trees, branches of palm trees, the boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days. <sup>41</sup>You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. You shall celebrate it in the seventh month. <sup>42</sup>You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All who are native Israelites shall dwell in booths, <sup>43</sup>that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.’ ”

Daily Life & Customs

Olives grow on small trees that live for many years. The oil is removed by crushing the fruit. Like honey, olive oil does not spoil in storage. It was commonly used as lamp oil (Lev. 24:2). A wick partly submerged in a small pool of oil burns like the wick of a wax candle. More oil can be added easily without blowing out the flame.

Care of the Tabernacle Lamps

24 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually. <sup>3</sup>Outside the veil of the Testimony, in the tabernacle of

The Feast of Weeks occurs during the barley harvest.

HAMMURABI'S "EYE FOR AN EYE" (LEV. 24:19, 20)

The punishments of Israel's legal system sometimes were based on a system of physical retaliation. The corporal punishments sentenced on the guilty offender were comparable to the injuries which the victim suffered. As the Law of Moses states, "so shall it be done to him" (Lev. 24:19), whether "eye for eye" or "tooth for tooth" (24:20).

Sometimes this law of "eye for eye, tooth for tooth" (Ex. 21:23–25) is considered to be primitive retaliations. It was designed, however, to protect the helpless from unfair reprisal by the powerful. Once a person had been judged guilty, justice was performed with complete impartiality. The rich man did not receive a lesser sentence for the same crime as did the poor man. This principle of physical reprisal may have come to Israel through the Amorites, as is suggested by laws from a prominent Amorite king.

Hammurabi (or Hammurapi) was the sixth king (1792–1750 B.C.) of the 1st Dynasty of Babylon. During his long reign Babylon rose to prominence in southern Mesopotamia. He was part of a group of Amorite rulers, some of whom had taken Babylon before his time. By the end of his reign, Hammurabi was successful in uniting the entire Tigris-Euphrates valley, although much of his empire was lost within a generation after his death.

A collection of laws that were sponsored by this Amorite king, now known as the Code of Hammurabi, reflect the same principle of retaliation found in the Law of Moses. If a citizen injured another citizen's eye or tooth, Hammurabi's code states: "his eye shall be destroyed" or "his tooth shall be knocked out." Such retribution is not found in law codes of the Sumerians and Hittites, nor in the Laws of Eshnunna. Possibly it comes from a time when Amorite tribes populated both Babylonia and Palestine.

meeting, Aaron shall be in charge of it from evening until morning before the LORD continually; it shall be a statute forever in your generations. <sup>4</sup>He shall be in charge of the lamps on the pure gold lampstand before the LORD continually.

The Bread of the Tabernacle

The Penalty for Blasphemy

<sup>10</sup>Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and this Israelite woman's son and a man of Israel fought each other in the camp. <sup>11</sup>And the Israelite woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD and cursed; and so they brought him to Moses. (His mother's name was Shelomith the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) <sup>12</sup>Then they put him in custody, that the mind of the LORD might be shown to them.

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>14</sup>"Take outside the camp him who has cursed; then let all who heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

<sup>15</sup>"Then you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin. <sup>16</sup>And whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall certainly stone him, the stranger as well as him who is born in the land. When he blasphemes the name of the LORD, he shall be put to death.

<sup>23</sup>Then Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and they took outside the camp him who had cursed, and stoned him with stones. So the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Sabbath Years and Year of Jubilee

Every 7th year was the Sabbath Year, in which the land was to lie fallow (Lev. 25:4). Among other things this practice would prevent soil depletion and the subsequent impoverishment of the farmer. The Year of Jubilee came every 50th year (Lev. 25:9, 11). Possibly no systematic harvesting of the produce of the fields was permitted during the 7th or Jubilee years. Although people might eat such produce in the fields (25:6, 7, 12), their regular meals were to come from the excess of the previous years (25:21).

PROTECTING THE WEAK IN THE JUBILEE YEAR (LEV. 25:8–17)

Every 50th year in Israel was the Year of Jubilee (Lev. 25:11–13). The provisions of this sacred time were intended to maintain economic equality and prevent the concentration of wealth in the hands of a few. In the Jubilee year, if property were not already redeemed, it was to be restored to the original owner (25:25–28). This prevented the creation of great hereditary estates that would have reduced the families of small landholders to the status of serfs.

The concept of the Jubilee year in Lev. 25 bears a general similarity to the suspension of debts, which was a widespread phenomenon in the Old Babylonian period (c. 2017–1595 B.C.). While the Old Babylonian peoples lived a few centuries before Israel inhabited Canaan, they too were concerned about the equitable distribution of land and the resultant wealth.

An Old Babylonian literary text (in the form of a letter) describes the conduct of judges during the suspension of debts on behalf of the sun god Shamash. The judges of two city-states, Babylon and nearby Sippar, met at Sippar to read the lawsuits of Sippar citizens. Also to be read were the sale documents for fields, houses, and orchards, which became invalid during the suspension of debts (the jubilee).

In both cultures there was an awareness that the accumulation of land could result in the oppression of those who were socially and economically weak. In the Old Babylonian letter, an individual who had been subsequently wronged wrote to the officials, asking that “the weak not be handed over to the strong in the presence of my lord, and for the strong not to oppress the weak.” Israel’s God Yahweh included a command amongst the stipulations of the Jubilee year: “you shall not oppress one another” (25:14, 17).

Leviticus

The Sabbath of the Seventh Year

25:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a sabbath to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather its fruit; <sup>4</sup>but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath to the LORD. You shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard. <sup>5</sup>What grows of its own accord of your harvest you shall not reap, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine, for it is a year of rest for the land. <sup>6</sup>And the sabbath produce of the land shall be food for you: for you, your male and female servants, your hired man, and the stranger who dwells with you, <sup>7</sup>for your livestock and the beasts that are in your land—all its produce shall be for food.

The Year of Jubilee

<sup>8</sup>And you shall count seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years; and the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years. <sup>9</sup>Then you shall cause the trumpet of the Jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement you shall make the trumpet to sound throughout all your land. <sup>10</sup>And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you; and each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you shall return to his family. <sup>11</sup>That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee to you; in it you shall neither sow nor reap what grows of its own accord, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine. <sup>12</sup>For it is the Jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat its produce from the field.

<sup>13</sup>In this Year of Jubilee, each of you shall return to his possession. <sup>14</sup>And if you sell anything to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor’s hand, you shall not oppress one another. <sup>15</sup>According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor, and according to the number of years of crops he shall sell to you. <sup>16</sup>According to the multitude of years you shall increase its price, and according to the fewer number of years you shall diminish its price; for he sells to you according to the number of the years of the crops. <sup>17</sup>Therefore you shall not oppress one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

Provisions for the Seventh Year

<sup>18</sup>So you shall observe My statutes and keep My judgments, and perform them; and you will dwell in the land in safety. <sup>19</sup>Then the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill, and dwell there in safety.

<sup>20</sup>And if you say, “What shall we eat in the seventh year, since we shall not sow nor gather in our produce?” <sup>21</sup>Then I will command My blessing on you in the sixth year, and it will bring forth produce enough for three years. <sup>22</sup>And you shall sow in the eighth year, and eat old produce until the ninth year; until its produce comes in, you shall eat of the old harvest.

Redemption of Property

<sup>23</sup>The land shall not be sold permanently, for the land is Mine; for you are strangers and sojourners with Me. <sup>24</sup>And in all the land of your possession you shall grant redemption of the land.

redeeming relative comes to redeem it, then he may redeem what his brother sold. <sup>26</sup>Or if the man has no one to redeem it, but he himself becomes able to redeem it, <sup>27</sup>then let him count the years since its sale, and restore the remainder to the man to whom he sold it, that he may return to his possession. <sup>28</sup>But if he is not able to have it restored to himself, then what was sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the Year of Jubilee; and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his possession.

<sup>29</sup>If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year he may redeem it. <sup>30</sup>But if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee. <sup>31</sup>However the houses of villages which have no wall around them shall be counted as the fields of the country. They may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee. <sup>32</sup>Nevertheless the cities of the Levites, and the houses in the cities of their possession, the Levites may redeem at any time. <sup>33</sup>And if a man purchases a house from the Levites, then the house that was sold in the city of his possession shall be released in the Jubilee; for the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel. <sup>34</sup>But the field of the common-land of their cities may not be sold, for it is their perpetual possession.

Lending to the Poor

<sup>35</sup>If one of your brethren becomes poor, and falls into poverty among you, then you shall help him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you. <sup>36</sup>Take no usury or interest from him; but fear your God, that your brother may live with you. <sup>37</sup>You shall not lend him your money for usury, nor lend him your food at a profit. <sup>38</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

The Law Concerning Slavery

<sup>39</sup>And if one of your brethren who dwells by you becomes poor, and sells himself to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a slave. <sup>40</sup>As a hired servant and a sojourner he shall be with you, and shall serve you until the Year of Jubilee. <sup>41</sup>And then he shall depart from you—he and his children with him—and shall return to his own family. He shall return to the possession of his fathers. <sup>42</sup>For they are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves. <sup>43</sup>You shall not rule over him with rigor, but you shall fear your God. <sup>44</sup>And as for your

male and female slaves whom you may have—from the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves. <sup>45</sup>Moreover you may buy the children of the strangers who dwell among you, and their families who are with you, which they beget in your land; and they shall become your property. <sup>46</sup>And you may take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them as a possession; they shall be your permanent slaves. But regarding your brethren, the children of Israel, you shall not rule over one another with rigor.

<sup>47</sup>Now if a sojourner or stranger close to you becomes rich, and one of your brethren who dwells by him becomes poor, and sells himself to the stranger or sojourner close to you, or to a member of the stranger's family, <sup>48</sup>after he is sold he may be redeemed again. One of his brothers may redeem him; <sup>49</sup>or his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him; or anyone who is near of kin to him in his family may redeem him; or if he is able he may redeem himself. <sup>50</sup>Thus he shall reckon with him who bought him: The price of his release shall be according to the number of years, from the year that he was sold to him until the Year of Jubilee; it shall be according to the time of a hired servant for him. <sup>51</sup>If there are still many years remaining, according to them he shall repay the price of his redemption from the money with which he was bought. <sup>52</sup>And if there remain but a few years until the Year of Jubilee, then he shall reckon with him, and according to his years he shall repay him the price of his redemption. <sup>53</sup>He shall be with him as a yearly hired servant, and he shall not rule with rigor over him in your sight. <sup>54</sup>And if he is not redeemed in these years, then he shall be released in the Year of Jubilee—he and his children with him. <sup>55</sup>For the children of Israel are servants to Me; they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Promise of Blessing and Retribution

26 <sup>1</sup>You shall not make idols for yourselves; neither a carved image nor a sacred pillar shall you rear up for yourselves; nor shall you set up an engraved stone in your land, to bow down to it; for I am the LORD your God.

I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> ‘If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments, and perform them, <sup>4</sup> then I will give you rain in its season, the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

<sup>5</sup> Your threshing shall last till the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last till the time of sowing; you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

<sup>6</sup> I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid; I will rid the land of evil beasts, and the sword will not go through your land.

<sup>7</sup> You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you.

<sup>8</sup> Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword before you.

<sup>9</sup> ‘For I will look on you favorably and make you fruitful, multiply you and confirm My covenant with you.

<sup>11</sup> I will set My tabernacle among you, and My soul shall not abhor you.

<sup>12</sup> I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people.

<sup>13</sup> I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; I have broken the bands of your yoke and made you walk upright.

Plants & Animals

The largest herds of domestic animals were sheep and goats. These could be attacked and killed by wolves and lions (Lev. 26:6), and also by birds of prey. Like the lion, the Syrian bear was dangerous to human beings. It reaches over 500 pounds in weight and would inspire terror in anyone it threatened.

<sup>14</sup> ‘But if you do not obey Me, and do not observe all these commandments,

<sup>15</sup> and if you despise My statutes, or if your soul abhors My judgments, so that you do not perform all My commandments, but break My covenant,

<sup>16</sup> I also will do this to you:
I will even appoint terror over you, wasting disease and fever which shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart.
And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

<sup>17</sup> I will set My face against you, and you shall be defeated by your enemies.
Those who hate you shall reign over you, and you shall flee when no one pursues you.

<sup>18</sup> ‘And after all this, if you do not obey Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

<sup>19</sup> I will break the pride of your power; I will make your heavens like iron and your earth like bronze.

<sup>20</sup> And your strength shall be spent in vain; for your land shall not yield its produce, nor shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.

<sup>21</sup> ‘Then, if you walk contrary to Me, and are not willing to obey Me, I will bring on you seven times more plagues, according to your sins.

<sup>22</sup> I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number; and your highways shall be desolate.

<sup>23</sup> ‘And if by these things you are not reformed by Me, but walk contrary to Me, <sup>24</sup> then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

<sup>25</sup> And I will bring a sword against you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; when you are gathered together within your cities I will send pestilence among you; and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

<sup>26</sup> When I have cut off your supply of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall bring back your bread by weight, and you shall eat and not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup> ‘And after all this, if you do not obey Me, but walk contrary to Me, 28 then I also will walk contrary to you in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.

30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and cast your carcasses on the lifeless forms of your idols; and My soul shall abhor you.

31 I will lay your cities waste and bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not smell the fragrance of your sweet aromas.

32 I will bring the land to desolation, and your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it.

33 I will scatter you among the nations and draw out a sword after you; your land shall be desolate and your cities waste.

34 Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land; then the land shall rest and enjoy its sabbaths.

35 As long as it lies desolate it shall rest—for the time it did not rest on your sabbaths when you dwelt in it.

36 'And as for those of you who are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a shaken leaf shall cause them to flee; they shall flee as though fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues.

37 They shall stumble over one another, as it were before a sword, when no one pursues; and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38 You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And those of you who are left shall waste away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; also in their fathers' iniquities, which are with them, they shall waste away.

40 'But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, with their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, and that they also have walked contrary to Me,

41 and that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if their uncircumcised hearts are humbled, and they accept their guilt—

42 then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and My covenant with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham I will remember; I will remember the land.

43 The land also shall be left empty by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them; they will accept their guilt, because they despised My judgments and because their soul abhorred My statutes.

44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, nor shall I abhor them, to utterly destroy them and break My covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God.

45 But for their sake I will remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.' ”

<sup>46</sup>These are the statutes and judgments and laws which the LORD made between Himself and the children of Israel on Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

Redeeming Persons and Property Dedicated to God

27 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When a man consecrates by a vow certain persons to the LORD, according to your valuation, <sup>3</sup>if your valuation is of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>4</sup>If it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels; <sup>5</sup>and if from five years old up to twenty years old, then your valuation for a male shall be twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels; <sup>6</sup>and if from a month old up to five years old, then your valuation for a male shall be five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver; <sup>7</sup>and if from sixty years old and above, if it is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

<sup>8</sup>But if he is too poor to pay your valuation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall set a value for him; according to the ability of him who vowed, the priest shall value him.

<sup>9</sup>If it is an animal that men may bring as an offering to the LORD, all that anyone gives to the LORD shall be holy. <sup>10</sup>He shall not substitute it or exchange it, good for bad or bad for good; and if he at all exchanges animal for animal, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be holy. <sup>11</sup>If it is an unclean animal which they do not offer as a sacrifice to the LORD, then he shall present the animal before the priest; <sup>12</sup>and the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be. <sup>13</sup>But if he wants at all to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth to your valuation.

<sup>14</sup>And when a man dedicates his house to be holy to the LORD, then the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand. <sup>15</sup>If he who dedicated it wants to redeem his house, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.

<sup>16</sup>If a man dedicates to the LORD part of a field of his possession, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it. A homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. <sup>17</sup>If he dedicates his field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand. <sup>18</sup>But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money due according to the years that remain till the Year of Jubilee, and it shall be deducted from your valuation. <sup>19</sup>And if he who dedicates the field ever wishes to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall belong to him. <sup>20</sup>But if he does not want to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed anymore; <sup>21</sup>but the field, when it is released in the Jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a devoted field; it shall be the possession of the priest.

<sup>22</sup>And if a man dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not the field of his possession, <sup>23</sup>then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation, up to the Year of Jubilee, and he shall give your valuation on that day as a holy offering to the LORD. <sup>24</sup>In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to the one who owned the land as a possession. <sup>25</sup>And all your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs to the shekel.

<sup>26</sup>But the firstborn of the animals, which should be the LORD's firstborn, no man shall dedicate; whether it is an ox or sheep, it is the LORD's. <sup>27</sup>And if it is an unclean animal, then he shall redeem it according to your valuation, and shall add one-fifth to it; or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

<sup>28</sup>Nevertheless no devoted offering that a man may devote to the LORD of all that he has, both man and beast, or the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted offering is most holy to the LORD. <sup>29</sup>No person under the ban, who may become doomed to destruction among men, shall be redeemed, but shall surely be put to death. <sup>30</sup>And all the tithes of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's. It is holy to the LORD. <sup>31</sup>If a man wants at all to redeem any of his tithes, he shall add one-fifth to it. <sup>32</sup>And concerning the tithes of the herd or the flock, of whatever passes under the rod, the tenth one shall be holy to the LORD. <sup>33</sup>He shall not inquire whether it is good or bad, nor shall he exchange it; and if he exchanges it at all, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.' "

The Book of Numbers

In the Hebrew Bible, this book is entitled "In the Wilderness." The name "Numbers" comes from the Greek translation of the Old Testament and refers specifically to the census figures given in two census reports: Num. 1:2–46 and 26:2–51.

The content of the Book of Numbers is diverse, moving back and forth between lists and laws and narratives, making it hard to identify any single outline or structure. The book begins in the same vein as Leviticus, with more divine instructions from Mount Sinai, still stressing priestly matters. These laws conclude in ch. 10, and the Israelites set out for the Promised Land.

Israel needed organization in order to reach that "land flowing with milk and honey," and God instructed Moses to take a census (Num. 1:2) so that the people would be organized both for travel and for warfare. This first census took place in the 2nd month of the 2nd year of the Exodus, either 1445 or 1274 B.C. (see "Egypt and the Exodus" at Ex. 1:1). In that same month and year, Moses and the people departed from Sinai (Num. 10:11–13).

The census numbers are surprisingly large, and interpreters have often been puzzled by them. For instance, how could 603,550 fighting men (Num. 1:45, 46) be intimidated by the tiny nation of Edom (Num. 20:14–21)? To answer such questions, many have noted that the Hebrew word for "thousand" is the same as the word for "clan." Understood that way, the numbers would be considerably lower.

The narratives of Num. 10–25 take up where those of Exodus leave off and in many ways parallel the accounts of Israel's grumbling against God in Ex. 16; 17. Indeed, the people appear even more dissatisfied in Numbers. In the end, God decrees that this complaining generation, including Moses himself, would not enter the Promised Land.

Numbers

The First Census of Israel

1:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers’ houses, according to the number of names, every male individually, <sup>3</sup>from twenty years old and above—all who are able to go to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their armies. <sup>4</sup>And with you there shall be a man from every tribe, each one the head of his father’s house.

<sup>24</sup>From the children of Gad, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>25</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Gad were forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

<sup>26</sup>From the children of Judah, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>27</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Judah were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

<sup>28</sup>From the children of Issachar, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>29</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Issachar were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

<sup>30</sup>From the children of Zebulun, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>31</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Zebulun were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

<sup>34</sup>From the children of Manasseh, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>35</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Manasseh were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

<sup>36</sup>From the children of Benjamin, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>37</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Benjamin were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

<sup>38</sup>From the children of Dan, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers’ house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>39</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

Politics & Government

A census is an official count of a population and is usually understood as an assertion of government power. Frequently its purpose is taxation. In Num. 1:2 it is a means of raising an army. By 1800 B.C. the city of Mari on the Euphrates River had a military census in its archives.

<sup>40</sup>From the children of Asher, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>41</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Asher were forty-one thousand five hundred.

<sup>42</sup>From the children of Naphtali, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war: <sup>43</sup>those who were numbered of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

<sup>54</sup>Thus the children of Israel did; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they did.

The Tribes and Leaders by Armies

2 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup>"Everyone of the children of Israel shall camp by his own standard, beside the emblems of his father's house; they shall camp some distance from the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>3</sup>On the east side, toward the rising of the sun, those of the standard of the forces with Judah shall camp according to their armies; and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be the leader of the children of Judah." <sup>4</sup>And his army was numbered at seventy-four thousand six hundred.

<sup>17</sup>"And the tabernacle of meeting shall move out with the camp of the Levites in the middle of the camps; as they camp, so they shall move out, everyone in his place, by their standards.

<sup>32</sup>These are the ones who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers’ houses. All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty. <sup>33</sup>But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>34</sup>Thus the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses; so they camped by their standards and so they broke camp, each one by his family, according to their fathers’ houses.

The Sons of Aaron

3 <sup>1</sup>Now these are the records of Aaron and Moses when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai. <sup>2</sup>And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab, the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>3</sup>These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he consecrated to minister as priests. <sup>4</sup>Nadab and Abihu had died before the LORD when they offered profane fire before the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests in the presence of Aaron their father.

The Levites Serve in the Tabernacle

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>6</sup>“Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him. <sup>7</sup>And they shall attend to his needs and the needs of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of meeting, to do the work of the tabernacle. <sup>8</sup>Also they shall attend to all the furnishings of the tabernacle of meeting, and to the needs of the children of Israel, to do the work of the tabernacle. <sup>9</sup>And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they are given entirely to him<sup>a</sup> from among the children of Israel. <sup>10</sup>So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall attend to their priesthood; but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>12</sup>“Now behold, I Myself have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of every firstborn who opens the womb among the children of Israel. Therefore the Levites shall be Mine, <sup>13</sup>because all the firstborn are Mine. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They shall be Mine: I am the LORD.”

Census of the Levites Commanded

<sup>16</sup>So Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded. <sup>17</sup>These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>18</sup>And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>20</sup>And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites by their fathers’ houses.

<sup>21</sup>From Gershon came the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimites; these were the families of the Gershonites. <sup>22</sup>Those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above—of those who were numbered there were seven thousand five hundred. <sup>23</sup>The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle westward. <sup>24</sup>And the leader of the father’s house of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael. <sup>25</sup>The duties of the children of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting included the tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, <sup>26</sup>the screen for the door of the court, the hangings of the court which are around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords, according to all the work relating to them.

<sup>27</sup>From Kohath came the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izharites, the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites. <sup>28</sup>According to the number of all the males, from a month old and above, there were eight thousand six hundred keeping charge of the sanctuary. <sup>29</sup>The families of the children of Kohath were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle. <sup>30</sup>And the leader of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. <sup>31</sup>Their duty included the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary with which they ministered, the screen, and all the work relating to them.

<sup>32</sup>And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites, with oversight of those who kept charge of the sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup>From Merari came the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these were the families of Merari. <sup>34</sup>And those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above, were six thousand two hundred. <sup>35</sup>The leader of the fathers' house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. These were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup>And the appointed duty of the children of Merari included the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, its utensils, all the work relating to them, <sup>37</sup>and the pillars of the court all around, with their sockets, their pegs, and their cords.

<sup>38</sup>Moreover those who were to camp before the tabernacle on the east, before the tabernacle of meeting, were Moses, Aaron, and his sons, keeping charge of the sanctuary, to meet the needs of the children of Israel; but the outsider who came near was to be put to death. <sup>39</sup>All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, by their families, all the males from a month old and above, were twenty-two thousand.

Levites Dedicated Instead of the Firstborn

<sup>40</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses: "Number all the firstborn males of the children of Israel from a month old and above, and take the number of their names. <sup>41</sup>And you shall take the Levites for Me—I am the LORD—instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the children of Israel." <sup>42</sup>So Moses numbered all the firstborn among the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded him. <sup>43</sup>And all the firstborn males, according to the number of names from a month old and above, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

<sup>44</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>45</sup>"Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock. The Levites shall be Mine: I am the LORD. <sup>46</sup>And for the redemption of the two hundred and seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, who are more than the number of the Levites, <sup>47</sup>you shall take five shekels for each one individually; you shall take them in the currency of the shekel of the sanctuary, the shekel of twenty gerahs. <sup>48</sup>And you shall give the money, with which the excess number of them is redeemed, to Aaron and his sons."

Duties of the Sons of Kohath

4 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup>"Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the children of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' house, <sup>3</sup>from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting.

<sup>11</sup>"Over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of badger skins; and they shall insert its poles. <sup>12</sup>Then they shall take all the utensils of service with which they minister in the sanctuary, put them in a blue cloth, cover them with a covering of badger skins, and put them on a carrying beam. <sup>13</sup>Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it. <sup>14</sup>They shall put on it all its implements with which they minister there—the firepans, the forks, the shovels, the basins, and all the utensils of the altar—and they shall spread on it a covering of badger skins, and insert its poles. <sup>15</sup>And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is set to go, then the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them; but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die.

"These are the things in the tabernacle of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry.

<sup>16</sup>"The appointed duty of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest is the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the daily grain offering, the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle, of all that is in it, with the sanctuary and its furnishings."

<sup>17</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>18</sup>"Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites; <sup>19</sup>but do this in regard to them, that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint each of them to his service and his task. <sup>20</sup>But they shall not go in to watch while the holy things are being covered, lest they die."

Duties of the Sons of Gershon

<sup>27</sup>"Aaron and his sons shall assign all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, all their tasks and all their service. And you shall appoint to them all their tasks as their duty. <sup>28</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting. And their duties shall be under the authority<sup>a</sup> of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Duties of the Sons of Merari

<sup>29</sup>"As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families and by their fathers' house. <sup>30</sup>From thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, you shall number them, everyone who enters the service to do the work of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>31</sup>And this is what they must carry as all their service for the tabernacle of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, <sup>32</sup>and the pillars around the court with their sockets, pegs, and cords, with all their furnishings and all their service; and you shall assign to each man by name the items he must carry. <sup>33</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, as all their service for the tabernacle of meeting, under the authority<sup>a</sup> of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest."

Census of the Levites

<sup>34</sup>And Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families and by their fathers' house, <sup>35</sup>from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting; <sup>36</sup>and those who were numbered by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. <sup>37</sup>These were the ones who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who might serve in the tabernacle of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

<sup>38</sup>And those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families and by their fathers' house, <sup>39</sup>from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting—<sup>40</sup>those who were numbered by their families, by their fathers' house, were two thousand six hundred and thirty. <sup>41</sup>These are the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all who might serve in the tabernacle of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.

<sup>42</sup>Those of the families of the sons of Merari who were numbered, by their families, by their fathers' house, <sup>43</sup>from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting—<sup>44</sup>those who were numbered by their families were three thousand two hundred. <sup>45</sup>These are the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

<sup>46</sup>All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and by their fathers' houses, <sup>47</sup>from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who came to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens in the tabernacle of meeting—<sup>48</sup>those who were numbered were eight thousand five hundred and eighty.

<sup>49</sup>According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, each according to his service and according to his task; thus were they numbered by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ceremonially Unclean Persons Isolated

5 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, everyone who has a discharge, and whoever becomes defiled by a corpse. <sup>3</sup>You shall put out both male and female; you shall put them outside the camp, that they may not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell.” <sup>4</sup>And the children of Israel did so, and put them outside the camp; as the LORD spoke to Moses, so the children of Israel did.

Confession and Restitution

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>6</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel: ‘When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit in unfaithfulness against the LORD, and that person is guilty, <sup>7</sup>then he shall confess the sin which he has committed. He shall make restitution for his trespass in full, plus one-fifth of it, and give it to the one he has wronged. <sup>8</sup>But if the man has no relative to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for the wrong must go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of the atonement with which atonement is made for him. <sup>9</sup>Every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring to the priest, shall be his. <sup>10</sup>And every man's holy things shall be his; whatever any man gives the priest shall be his.’ ”

Culture & Society

An ordeal is a way of deciding whether a person is innocent or guilty. Whether the person is harmed or safe under a particular trial is supposed to reveal guilt or innocence. Ordeals were common in the ancient Middle East. The Bible describes only one ordeal (Num. 5:17–28). In it, the punishment as well as the determination of guilt is referred to God (5:21, 22, 27).

Concerning Unfaithful Wives

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>12</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘If any man's wife goes astray and behaves unfaithfully toward him, <sup>13</sup>and a man lies with her carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and it is concealed that she has defiled herself, and there was no witness against her, nor was she caught— <sup>14</sup>if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife, who has defiled herself; or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife, although she has not defiled herself— <sup>15</sup>then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. He shall bring the offering required for her, one-tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, an offering for remembering, for bringing iniquity to remembrance.

authority, be free from this bitter water that brings a curse. <sup>20</sup>But if you have gone astray while under your husband's authority, and if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has lain with you"—<sup>21</sup>then the priest shall put the woman under the oath of the curse, and he shall say to the woman—"the LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh rot and your belly swell; <sup>22</sup>and may this water that causes the curse go into your stomach, and make your belly swell and your thigh rot."

Then the woman shall say, "Amen, so be it."

<sup>23</sup>Then the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall scrape them off into the bitter water. <sup>24</sup>And he shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter her to become bitter. <sup>25</sup>Then the priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman's hand, shall wave the offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar; <sup>26</sup>and the priest shall take a handful of the offering, as its memorial portion, burn it on the altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water. <sup>27</sup>When he has made her drink the water, then it shall be, if she has defiled herself and behaved unfaithfully toward her husband, that the water that brings a curse will enter her and become bitter, and her belly will swell, her thigh will rot, and the woman will become a curse among her people. <sup>28</sup>But if the woman has not defiled herself, and is clean, then she shall be free and may conceive children.

<sup>29</sup>This is the law of jealousy, when a wife, while under her husband's authority, goes astray and defiles herself, <sup>30</sup>or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon a man, and he becomes jealous of his wife; then he shall stand the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute all this law upon her. <sup>31</sup>Then the man shall be free from iniquity, but that woman shall bear her guilt.' "

The Law of the Nazirite

6 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When either a man or woman consecrates an offering to take the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to the LORD, <sup>3</sup>he shall separate himself from wine and similar drink; he shall drink neither vinegar made from wine nor vinegar made from similar drink; neither shall he drink any grape juice, nor eat fresh grapes or raisins. <sup>4</sup>All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, from seed to skin.

<sup>5</sup>All the days of the vow of his separation no razor shall come upon his head; until the days are fulfilled for which he separated himself to the LORD, he shall be holy. Then he shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. <sup>6</sup>All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body. <sup>7</sup>He shall not make himself unclean even for his father or his mother, for his brother or his sister, when they die, because his separation to God is on his head. <sup>8</sup>All the days of his separation he shall be holy to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>And if anyone dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his consecrated head, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day he shall shave it. <sup>10</sup>Then on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting; <sup>11</sup>and the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned in regard to the corpse; and he shall sanctify his head that same day. <sup>12</sup>He shall consecrate to the LORD the days of his separation, and bring a male lamb in its first year as a trespass offering; but the former days shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

Once a person decided to make himself "holy to the LORD" (Num. 6:8) for some special service, he then agreed to abstain from wine. This prohibition was so strict that it included grapes, grape juice, and raisins. Perhaps this was to guard the Nazirite from being controlled by any spirit other than God's (Prov. 20:1; Eph. 5:17, 18).

<sup>13</sup>Now this is the law of the Nazirite: When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought to the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>14</sup>And he shall present his offering to the LORD: one male lamb in its first year without blemish as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish as a sin offering, one ram without blemish as a peace offering, <sup>15</sup>a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their grain offering with their drink offerings.

<sup>16</sup>Then the priest shall bring them before the LORD and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering; <sup>17</sup>and he shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall also offer its grain offering and its drink offering. <sup>18</sup>Then the Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and shall take the hair from his consecrated head and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering.

<sup>19</sup>And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, one unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and put them upon the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his consecrated hair, <sup>20</sup>and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD; they are holy for the priest, together with the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.

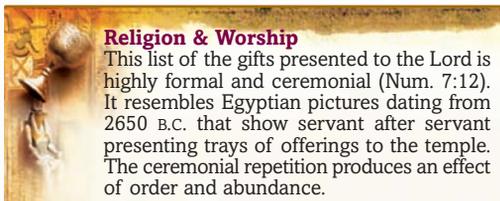

<sup>21</sup>“This is the law of the Nazirite who vows to the LORD the offering for his separation, and besides that, whatever else his hand is able to provide; according to the vow which he takes, so he must do according to the law of his separation.”

The Priestly Blessing

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>23</sup>“Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, “This is the way you shall bless the children of Israel. Say to them:

- <sup>24</sup> “The LORD bless you and keep you;
<sup>25</sup> The LORD make His face shine upon you,
 And be gracious to you;
<sup>26</sup> The LORD lift up His countenance upon you,
 And give you peace.”

<sup>27</sup>“So they shall put My name on the children of Israel, and I will bless them.”

Religion & Worship

This list of the gifts presented to the Lord is highly formal and ceremonial (Num. 7:12). It resembles Egyptian pictures dating from 2650 B.C. that show servant after servant presenting trays of offerings to the temple. The ceremonial repetition produces an effect of order and abundance.

Offerings of the Leaders

7 <sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass, when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, that he anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings, and the altar and all its utensils; so he anointed them and consecrated them. <sup>2</sup>Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' houses, who were the leaders of the tribes and over those who were numbered, made an offering. <sup>3</sup>And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; and they presented them before the tabernacle.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>5</sup>“Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the work of the tabernacle of meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service.” <sup>6</sup>So Moses took the carts and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup>Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service; <sup>8</sup>and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the authority<sup>a</sup> of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>9</sup>But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because theirs was the service of the holy things, which they carried on their shoulders.

<sup>10</sup>Now the leaders offered the dedication of-fering for the altar when it was anointed; so the leaders offered their offering before the altar. <sup>11</sup>For the LORD said to Moses, “They shall offer their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar.”

<sup>12</sup>And the one who offered his offering on the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, from the tribe of Judah. <sup>13</sup>His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; <sup>14</sup>one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>15</sup>one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering; <sup>16</sup>one kid of the goats as a sin offering; <sup>17</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

offering; <sup>20</sup>one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>21</sup>one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering; <sup>22</sup>one kid of the goats as a sin offering; <sup>23</sup>and as the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nethanel the son of Zuar.

<sup>24</sup>On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, leader of the children of Zebulun, presented an offering. <sup>25</sup>His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; <sup>26</sup>one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>27</sup>one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering; <sup>28</sup>one kid of the goats as a sin offering; <sup>29</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; <sup>44</sup>one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>45</sup>one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering; <sup>46</sup>one kid of the goats as a sin offering; <sup>47</sup>and as the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

<sup>84</sup>This was the dedication offering for the altar from the leaders of Israel, when it was anointed: twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, and twelve gold pans. <sup>85</sup>Each silver platter weighed one hundred and thirty shekels and each bowl seventy shekels. All the silver of the vessels weighed two thousand four hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>86</sup>The twelve gold pans full of incense weighed ten shekels apiece, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the pans weighed one hundred and twenty shekels. <sup>87</sup>All the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve young bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs in their first year twelve, with their grain offering, and the kids of the goats as a sin offering twelve. <sup>88</sup>And all the oxen for the sacrifice of peace offerings were twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, and the lambs in their first year sixty. This was the dedication offering for the altar after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup>Now when Moses went into the tabernacle of meeting to speak with Him, he heard the voice of One speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim; thus He spoke to him.

Arrangement of the Lamps

8 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Speak to Aaron, and say to him, ‘When you arrange the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand.’” <sup>3</sup>And Aaron did so; he arranged the lamps to face toward the front of the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>4</sup>Now this workmanship of the lampstand was hammered gold; from its shaft to its flowers it was hammered work. According to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Cleansing and Dedication of the Levites

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>6</sup>“Take the Levites from among the children of Israel and cleanse them ceremonially. <sup>7</sup>Thus you shall do to them to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purification on them, and let them shave all their body, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean. <sup>8</sup>Then let them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull as a sin offering. <sup>9</sup>And you shall bring the Levites before the tabernacle of meeting, and you shall gather together the whole congregation of the children of Israel. <sup>10</sup>So you shall bring the Levites before the LORD, and the children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites; <sup>11</sup>and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD like a wave offering from the children of Israel, that they may perform the work of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Then the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the young bulls, and you shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>“And you shall stand the Levites before Aaron and his sons, and then offer them like a wave offering to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be Mine. <sup>15</sup>After that the Levites shall go in to service the tabernacle of meeting. So you shall cleanse them and offer them like a wave offering. <sup>16</sup>For they are wholly given to Me from among the children of Israel; I have taken them for Myself instead of all who open the womb, the firstborn of all the children of Israel. <sup>17</sup>For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are Mine, both man and beast; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them to Myself. <sup>18</sup>I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the children of Israel. <sup>19</sup>And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the work for the children of Israel in the tabernacle of meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel, that there be no plague among the children of Israel when the children of Israel come near the sanctuary.”

departing Egypt (Num. 9:1–5). Because the Passover was so important to the Israelite community, those who were not able to observe it in the 1st month were permitted to do so in the 2nd month (9:6, 7, 9, 11). Only 6 days after this second observance, Israel departed from Mount Sinai (10:12).

The Second Passover

9:1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Let the children of Israel keep the Passover at its appointed time. <sup>3</sup>On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time. According to all its rites and ceremonies you shall keep it.” <sup>4</sup>So Moses told the children of Israel that they should keep the Passover. <sup>5</sup>And they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, at twilight, in the Wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did.

<sup>6</sup>Now there were certain men who were defiled by a human corpse, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day; and they came before Moses and Aaron that day. <sup>7</sup>And those men said to him, “We became defiled by a human corpse. Why are we kept from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the children of Israel?”

<sup>8</sup>And Moses said to them, “Stand still, that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you.”

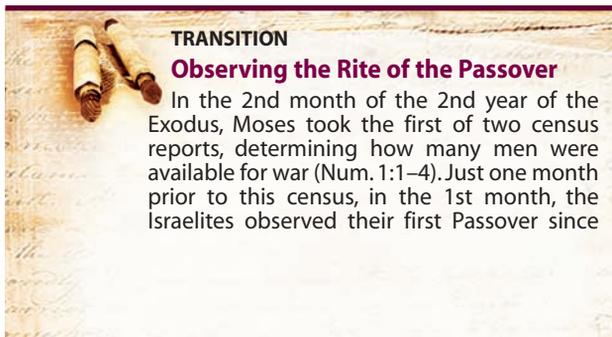

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘If any one of you or your posterity is unclean because of a corpse, or is far away on a journey, he may still keep the LORD’s Passover. <sup>11</sup>On the fourteenth day of the second month, at twilight, they may keep it. They shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. <sup>12</sup>They shall leave none of it until morning, nor break one of its bones. According to all the ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it. <sup>13</sup>But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, and ceases to keep the Passover, that same person shall be cut off from among his people, because he did not bring the offering of the LORD at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.

<sup>14</sup>And if a stranger dwells among you, and would keep the LORD’s Passover, he must do so according to the rite of the Passover and according to its ceremony; you shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger and the native of the land.’”

TRANSITION

Observing the Rite of the Passover

In the 2nd month of the 2nd year of the Exodus, Moses took the first of two census reports, determining how many men were available for war (Num. 1:1–4). Just one month prior to this census, in the 1st month, the Israelites observed their first Passover since

The Cloud and the Fire

<sup>15</sup>Now on the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the Testimony; from evening until morning it was above the tabernacle like the appearance of fire. <sup>16</sup>So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night. <sup>17</sup>Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, after that the children of Israel would journey; and in the place where the cloud settled, there the children of Israel would pitch their tents. <sup>18</sup>At the command of the LORD the children of Israel would journey, and at the command of the LORD they would camp; as long as the cloud stayed above the tabernacle they remained encamped. <sup>19</sup>Even when the cloud continued long, many days above the tabernacle, the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD and did not journey. <sup>20</sup>So it was, when the cloud was above the tabernacle a few days: according to the command of the LORD they would remain encamped, and according to the command of the LORD they would journey. <sup>21</sup>So it was, when the cloud remained only from evening until morning: when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they would journey; whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud was taken up, they would journey. <sup>22</sup>Whether it was two days, a month, or a year that the cloud remained above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would remain encamped and not journey; but when it was taken up, they would journey. <sup>23</sup>At the command of the LORD they remained encamped, and at the command of the LORD they journeyed; they kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Two Silver Trumpets

10 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Make two silver trumpets for yourself; you shall make them of hammered work; you shall use them for calling the congregation and for directing the movement of the camps. <sup>3</sup>When they blow both of them, all the congregation shall gather before you at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>4</sup>But if they blow only one, then the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, shall gather to you. <sup>5</sup>When you sound the advance, the camps that lie on the east side shall then begin their journey. <sup>6</sup>When you sound the advance the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall begin their journey; they shall sound the call for them to begin their journeys. <sup>7</sup>And when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but not sound the advance. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and these shall be to you as an ordinance forever throughout your generations.

<sup>9</sup>“When you go to war in your land against the enemy who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies. <sup>10</sup>Also in the day of your gladness, in your appointed feasts, and at the beginning of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be a memorial for you before your God: I am the LORD your God.”

Arts & Literature

Trumpets are wind instruments that can be made from shells or animal horns (Num. 10:2). They are known from very early times. Two metal trumpets, one made of silver, were buried with the pharaoh Tutankhamun in 1327 B.C. The trumpet seems to be a favorite signaling device for soldiers.

Departure from Sinai

<sup>11</sup>Now it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle of the Testimony. <sup>12</sup>And the children of Israel set out from the Wilderness of Sinai on their journeys; then the cloud settled down in the Wilderness of Paran. <sup>13</sup>So they started out for the first time according to the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

<sup>17</sup>Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set out, carrying the tabernacle.

<sup>28</sup>Thus was the order of march of the children of Israel, according to their armies, when they began their journey.

<sup>29</sup>Now Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel<sup>a</sup> the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well; for the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

<sup>30</sup>And he said to him, "I will not go, but I will depart to my own land and to my relatives."

<sup>31</sup>So Moses said, "Please do not leave, inasmuch as you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you can be our eyes. <sup>32</sup>And it shall be, if you go with us—indeed it shall be—that whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same we will do to you."

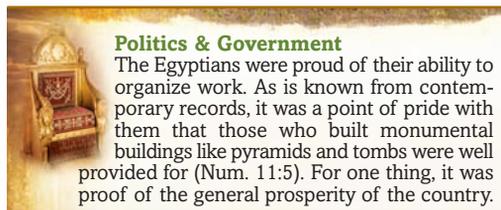

<sup>33</sup>So they departed from the mountain of the LORD on a journey of three days; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them for the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them. <sup>34</sup>And the cloud of the LORD was above them by day when they went out from the camp.

<sup>35</sup>So it was, whenever the ark set out, that Moses said:

"Rise up, O LORD!
Let Your enemies be scattered,
And let those who hate You flee before You."

<sup>36</sup>And when it rested, he said:

"Return, O LORD,
To the many thousands of Israel."

Politics & Government

The Egyptians were proud of their ability to organize work. As is known from contemporary records, it was a point of pride with them that those who built monumental buildings like pyramids and tombs were well provided for (Num. 11:5). For one thing, it was proof of the general prosperity of the country.

The People Complain

11 <sup>1</sup>Now when the people complained, it displeased the LORD; for the LORD heard it, and His anger was aroused. So the fire of the LORD burned among them, and consumed some in the outskirts of the camp. <sup>2</sup>Then the people cried out to Moses, and when Moses prayed to the LORD, the fire was quenched. <sup>3</sup>So he called the name of the place Taberah,<sup>a</sup> because the fire of the LORD had burned among them.

<sup>4</sup>Now the mixed multitude who were among them yielded to intense craving; so the children of Israel also wept again and said: "Who will give us meat to eat? <sup>5</sup>We remember the fish which we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic; <sup>6</sup>but now our whole being is dried up; there is nothing at all except this manna before our eyes!"

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, everyone at the door of his tent; and the anger of the LORD was greatly aroused; Moses also was displeased. <sup>11</sup>So Moses said to the LORD, "Why have You afflicted Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have laid the burden of all these people on me? <sup>12</sup>Did I conceive all these people? Did I beget them, that You should say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a guardian carries a nursing child,' to the land which You swore to their fathers? <sup>13</sup>Where am I to get meat to give to

EATING THE GOOD FOODS OF EGYPT (NUM. 11:5)

The fresh fish eaten by the Israelites while in Egypt was a distant memory by the time they were wandering in the wilderness. They could recall other foods that Egypt had offered: “cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic” (Num. 11:5). Now they were unhappy because they had no meat or the special foods they had enjoyed in Egypt. They complained about the lack of variety in their diet. The manna was rather bland, having the flowerlike odor of co-riander seed (Num. 11:6–9).

The delightful foods of Egypt are also mentioned in writings of that country. An Egyptian letter from the end of the New Kingdom period (1550–1069 B.C.) voices a similar bent towards the fruitful bounty at the city of Rameses. The scribe Pai-Bes writes to his master Amen-em-Opet that, upon arriving in Rameses, he found it a beautiful and pleasant district, full of fish in its ponds, grassy meadows, abundant dates, melons, leeks, onions, olives, figs, sweet wine, and many other good foods.

The Israelites had known the city of Rameses. It was one of the store cities they had built while slaves (Ex. 1:11; spelled Raameses). It was also the starting point of their exodus out of Egypt (Ex. 12:37). The ancient Egyptians called the city Per-Rameses-meri-Amon, the name used by the scribe in his letter. The scribe’s naming of “melons, leeks, onions,” along with several other foods, appears, at the very least, to authenticate the veracity of the Israelites’ complaint. Like the scribe, they too had witnessed the abundance of Rameses and Egypt.

all these people? For they weep all over me, saying, ‘Give us meat, that we may eat.’<sup>14</sup>I am not able to bear all these people alone, because the burden is too heavy for me.<sup>15</sup>If You treat me like this, please kill me here and now—if I have found favor in Your sight—and do not let me see my wretchedness!”

The Seventy Elders

<sup>16</sup>So the LORD said to Moses: “Gather to Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tabernacle of meeting, that they may stand there with you.<sup>17</sup>Then I will come down and talk with you there. I will take of the Spirit that is upon you and will put the same upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone.<sup>18</sup>Then you shall say to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the hearing of the LORD, saying, “Who will give us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt.” Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat.<sup>19</sup>You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,<sup>20</sup>but for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, “Why did we ever come up out of Egypt?”’”

<sup>21</sup>And Moses said, “The people whom I am among are six hundred thousand men on foot; yet You have said, ‘I will give them meat, that they may eat for a whole month.’<sup>22</sup>Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to provide enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to provide enough for them?”

<sup>23</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Has the LORD’s arm been shortened? Now you shall see whether what I say will happen to you or not.”

<sup>24</sup>So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and he gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tabernacle.<sup>25</sup>Then the LORD came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and placed the same upon the seventy elders; and it happened, when the Spirit rested upon them, that they prophesied, although they never did so again.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>26</sup>But two men had remained in the camp: the name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them. Now they were among those listed, but who had not gone out to the tabernacle; yet they prophesied in the camp.<sup>27</sup>And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses said to him, “Are you zealous for my sake? Oh, that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!”<sup>30</sup>And Moses returned to the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

11:25 <sup>a</sup>Targum and Vulgate read did not cease.

The Lord Sends Quail

<sup>31</sup>Now a wind went out from the LORD, and it brought quail from the sea and left them fluttering near the camp, about a day's journey on this side and about a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the ground. <sup>32</sup>And the people stayed up all that day, all night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail (he who gathered least gathered ten homers); and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp. <sup>33</sup>But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was aroused against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague. <sup>34</sup>So he called the name of that place Kibroth Hattaavah,<sup>a</sup> because there they buried the people who had yielded to craving.

Dissension of Aaron and Miriam

12 <sup>1</sup>Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married; for he had married an Ethiopian woman. <sup>2</sup>So they said, "Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us also?" And the LORD heard it. <sup>3</sup>(Now the man Moses was very humble, more than all men who were on the face of the earth.)

<sup>4</sup>Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the tabernacle of meeting!" So the three came out. <sup>5</sup>Then the LORD came down in the pillar of cloud and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they both went forward. <sup>6</sup>Then He said,

"Hear now My words:
If there is a prophet among you,
I, the LORD, make Myself known to him in a vision;
I speak to him in a dream.
<sup>7</sup> Not so with My servant Moses;
He is faithful in all My house.
<sup>8</sup> I speak with him face to face,
Even plainly, and not in dark sayings;
And he sees the form of the LORD.
Why then were you not afraid
To speak against My servant Moses?"

11:34 <sup>a</sup>Literally Graves of Craving

Then Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, a leper. <sup>11</sup>So Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord! Please do not lay this sin on us, in which we have done foolishly and in which we have sinned. <sup>12</sup>Please do not let her be as one dead, whose flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb!"

<sup>13</sup>So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, "Please heal her, O God, I pray!"

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, would she not be shamed seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp seven days, and afterward she may be received again." <sup>15</sup>So Miriam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not journey till Miriam was brought in again. <sup>16</sup>And afterward the people moved from Hazeroth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

Canaan Before the Conquest

From Kadesh Barnea the Israelites made their first attempt to penetrate the land of Canaan (Num. 13:17–20). Before the arrival of the Israelites, Canaan was divided between dozens of small, relatively independent city-states, each with its own king. After the conquests of the Egyptian pharaoh Thutmose I (1504–1492 B.C.), these Canaanite city-states were officially provinces of Egypt, but as letters from Palestine to Pharaoh Akhenaten show, Egyptian control was not always very firm.

Many of the Canaanite peoples were of Amorite descent, like the Israelites themselves, but later migrations had brought other ethnic groups into the land. Thus the Bible's frequent lists of the peoples to be conquered (Hittites, Hivites, Horites, Jebusites, Girgashites, Perizzites, etc., Num. 13:29) reflect a genuine ethnic mix. Nevertheless, the Bible often uses the term "Amorite" (or sometimes "Canaanite") in a general way, to refer to all or any of the peoples, nations, or tribes living in Palestine.

The city-states within Canaan were established and comparatively strong, while those to the east of the Jordan River were newer and weaker. Thus it makes sense that Israel established its control first in the east.

Spies Sent into Canaan

13 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel; from each tribe of their fathers you shall send a man, every one a leader among them."

LONG GONE BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN—THE NEPHILIM (NUM. 13:33)

When the Israelite scouts encountered the inhabitants of the land of Canaan, they reported that they had come across giants (Num. 13:32, 33). In their Hebrew language they referred to these giants as the Nephilim—the descendants of people who had lived before the Flood of Noah (Gen. 6:4). What frightened the spies was the immense size of their enemies: “Surely these people must descend from the intermarriage of the ‘sons of God’ and their human wives” (Gen. 6:2). The Israelites had thought the Nephilim existed only during the time before the Flood; they did not expect to find them in their own world.

The mythologies of the ancient Near East described a time, before the great flood, when things were different. In those days divinities and humans mated and produced semidivine, semihuman offspring who possessed superhuman qualities. They were the famous persons of ancient times, of which stories continued to be told (surviving in the mythologies of Egypt and Mesopotamia). These persons were considered to be stronger and larger than the current populace (see Num. 13:31).

Two of the spies, Joshua and Caleb, argued that the Nephilim were not too powerful to fight. Their size and lineage (even if they did come from the ancient deity-humans) were not matters to be taken into consideration since God had already promised the victory to the Israelites no matter what the odds (Num. 14:6–9). The people, unfortunately, voted with the other spies, being afraid to fight powerful and, perhaps, supernatural foes.

<sup>17</sup>Then Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, “Go up this way into the South, and go up to the mountains, <sup>18</sup>and see what the land is like: whether the people who dwell in it are strong or weak, few or many; <sup>19</sup>whether the land they dwell in is good or bad; whether the cities they inhabit are like camps or strongholds; <sup>20</sup>whether the land is rich or poor; and whether there are forests there or not. Be of good courage. And bring some of the fruit of the land.” Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.

<sup>21</sup>So they went up and spied out the land from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, near the entrance of Hamath. <sup>22</sup>And they went up through the South and came to Hebron; Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the descendants of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) <sup>23</sup>Then they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and there cut down a branch with one cluster of grapes; they carried it between two of them on a pole. They also brought some of the pomegranates and figs. <sup>24</sup>The place was called the Valley of Eshcol,<sup>a</sup> because of the cluster which the men of Israel cut down there. <sup>25</sup>And they returned from spying out the land after forty days.

<sup>26</sup>Now they departed and came back to Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. <sup>27</sup>Then they told him, and said: “We went to the land where you sent us. It truly flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit. <sup>28</sup>Nevertheless the people who dwell in the land are strong; the cities are fortified and very large; moreover we saw the descendants of Anak there. <sup>29</sup>The Amalekites dwell in the land of the South; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the banks of the Jordan.”

<sup>31</sup>But the men who had gone up with him said, “We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we.” <sup>32</sup>And they gave the children of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, “The land through which we have gone as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it are men of great stature. <sup>33</sup>There we saw the giants<sup>a</sup> (the descendants of Anak came from the giants); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight.”

TRANSITION

Israel in the Wilderness

The story continues through the Israelites' tragic refusal at Kadesh Barnea to enter the Promised Land and through the consequent 40 years of wandering in the wilderness (Num. 14:33–35). While Numbers describes the Israelites' journey from Sinai to Kadesh Barnea, and then to the plains of Moab, it reports almost nothing about the 40 years of wandering which intervened between their first departure from Kadesh Barnea (Num. 14:25) and their second (Num. 20:22).

These gaps in the historical record arise because Numbers is not intended to be a history of the Hebrew people. It is a record of the faithfulness of God. Despite the failures of everyone, from the least of the people to Moses himself, God is faithful to His original promise to Abraham and his descendants. This does not mean that individuals escape the consequences of their sin, only that God's redemptive purposes in the world cannot be thwarted.

Thus the stagnant 40 years while the people were simply waiting are omitted as insignificant. Only the events occurring at the beginning and the end of the 40 years are mentioned: the Israelites' defeat when they tried to enter the land on their own strength (Num. 14:45), and their request for permission to pass through Edom (Num. 20:14). Between these events are only various laws and a few stories of the disobedience of key leaders.

*NumbersIsrael Refuses to Enter Canaan

14:1 So all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept that night. <sup>2</sup>And all the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, “If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or if only we had died in this wilderness! <sup>3</sup>Why has the LORD brought us to this land to fall by the sword, that our wives and children should become victims? Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?” <sup>4</sup>So they said to one another, “Let us select a leader and return to Egypt.”

<sup>6</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes; <sup>7</sup>and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying: “The land we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land. <sup>8</sup>If the LORD delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, ‘a land which flows with milk and honey.’ <sup>9</sup>Only do not rebel against the LORD, nor fear the people of the land, for they are our bread; their protection has departed from them, and the LORD is with us. Do not fear them.”

<sup>10</sup>And all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Now the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of meeting before all the children of Israel.

Moses Intercedes for the People

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses: “How long will these people reject Me? And how long will they not believe Me, with all the signs which I have performed among them? <sup>12</sup>I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.”

<sup>13</sup>And Moses said to the LORD: “Then the Egyptians will hear it, for by Your might You brought these people up from among them, <sup>14</sup>and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, LORD, are among these people; that You, LORD, are seen face to face and Your cloud stands above them, and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup>Now if You kill these people as one man, then the nations which have heard of Your fame will speak, saying, <sup>16</sup>‘Because the LORD was not able to bring this people to the land which He swore to give them, therefore He killed them in the wilderness.’ <sup>17</sup>And now, I pray, let the power of my Lord be great, just as You have spoken, saying, <sup>18</sup>‘The LORD is longsuffering and abundant in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He by no means clears the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation.’ <sup>19</sup>Pardon the iniquity of this people, I pray, according to the greatness of Your mercy, just as You have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said: “I have pardoned, according to your word; <sup>21</sup>but truly, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD— <sup>22</sup>because all these men who have seen My glory and the signs which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have put Me to the test now these ten times, and have not heeded My voice, <sup>23</sup>they certainly shall not see the land of which I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who rejected Me see it. <sup>24</sup>But My servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit in him and has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land where he went, and his descendants shall inherit it. <sup>25</sup>Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley; tomorrow turn and move out into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea.”

THE WILDERNESS YEARS (EARLY EXODUS)

Death Sentence on the Rebels

<sup>26</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>27</sup>“How long shall I bear with this evil congregation who complain against Me? I have heard the complaints which the children of Israel make against Me. <sup>28</sup>Say to them, ‘As I live,’ says the LORD, ‘just as you have spoken in My hearing, so I will do to you: <sup>29</sup>The carcasses of you who have complained against Me shall fall in this wilderness, all of you who were numbered, according to your entire number, from twenty years old and above. <sup>30</sup>Except for Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun, you shall by no means enter the land which I swore I would make you dwell in. <sup>31</sup>But your little ones, whom you said would be victims, I will bring in, and they shall know the land which you have despised. <sup>32</sup>But as for you, your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup>And your sons shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and bear the brunt of your infidelity, until your carcasses are consumed in the wilderness. <sup>34</sup>According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, for each day you shall bear your guilt one year, namely forty years, and you shall know My rejection. <sup>35</sup>I the LORD have spoken this. I will surely do so to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. In this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.’”

<sup>36</sup>Now the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation complain against him by bringing a bad report of the land, <sup>37</sup>those very men who brought the evil report about the land, died by the plague before the LORD. <sup>38</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive, of the men who went to spy out the land.

A Futile Invasion Attempt

<sup>39</sup>Then Moses told these words to all the children of Israel, and the people mourned greatly. <sup>40</sup>And they rose early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, “Here we are, and we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned!”

<sup>41</sup>And Moses said, “Now why do you transgress the command of the LORD? For this will not succeed. <sup>42</sup>Do not go up, lest you be defeated by your enemies, for the LORD is not among you. <sup>43</sup>For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword; because you have turned away from the LORD, the LORD will not be with you.”

<sup>44</sup>But they presumed to go up to the mountaintop. Nevertheless, neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses departed from the camp. <sup>45</sup>Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwell in that mountain came down and attacked them, and drove them back as far as Hormah.

Laws of Grain and Drink Offerings

15 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you have come into the land you are to inhabit, which I am giving to you, <sup>3</sup>and you make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as a

Politics & Government

The nation-state is an invention of modern times. By contrast, the peoples mentioned in the Bible are usually tribes or single cities, often of very small size. The Amalekites (Num. 14:25) were nomads or seminomads who lived south and west of Canaan. They were traditionally enemies of the Israelites.

freewill offering or in your appointed feasts, to make a sweet aroma to the LORD, from the herd or the flock, <sup>4</sup>then he who presents his offering to the LORD shall bring a grain offering of one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of oil; <sup>5</sup>and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering you shall prepare with the burnt offering or the sacrifice, for each lamb. <sup>6</sup>Or for a ram you shall prepare as a grain offering two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil; <sup>7</sup>and as a drink offering you shall offer one-third of a hin of wine as a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>And when you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering, or as a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, or as a peace offering to the LORD, <sup>9</sup>then shall be offered with the young bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil; <sup>10</sup>and you shall bring as the drink offering half a hin of wine as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Thus it shall be done for each young bull, for each ram, or for each lamb or young goat. <sup>12</sup>According to the number that you prepare, so you shall do with everyone according to their number. <sup>13</sup>All who are native-born shall do these things in this manner, in presenting an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And if a stranger dwells with you, or whoever is among you throughout your generations, and would present an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD, just as you do, so shall he do. <sup>15</sup>One ordinance shall be for you of the assembly and for the stranger who dwells with you, an ordinance forever throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>One law and one custom shall be for you and for the stranger who dwells with you.’<sup>a</sup>

them: ‘When you come into the land to which I bring you, <sup>19</sup>then it will be, when you eat of the bread of the land, that you shall offer up a heave offering to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>You shall offer up a cake of the first of your ground meal as a heave offering; as a heave offering of the threshing floor, so shall you offer it up. <sup>21</sup>Of the first of your ground meal you shall give to the LORD a heave offering throughout your generations.

Laws Concerning Unintentional Sin

<sup>22</sup>If you sin unintentionally, and do not observe all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses— <sup>23</sup>all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day the LORD gave commandment and onward throughout your generations— <sup>24</sup>then it will be, if it is unintentionally committed, without the knowledge of the congregation, that the whole congregation shall offer one young bull as a burnt offering, as a sweet aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats as a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for the whole congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it was unintentional; they shall bring their offering, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their unintended sin. <sup>26</sup>It shall be forgiven the whole congregation of the children of Israel and the stranger who dwells among them, because all the people did it unintentionally.

<sup>27</sup>And if a person sins unintentionally, then he shall bring a female goat in its first year as a sin offering. <sup>28</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for the person who sins unintentionally, when he sins unintentionally before the LORD, to make atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>29</sup>You shall have one law for him who sins unintentionally, for him who is native-born among the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwells among them.

15:16 <sup>a</sup>Compare Exodus 12:49

Law Concerning Presumptuous Sin

<sup>30</sup>But the person who does anything presumptuously, whether he is native-born or a stranger, that one brings reproach on the LORD, and he shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>31</sup>Because he has despised the word of the LORD, and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his guilt shall be upon him.”

Penalty for Violating the Sabbath

<sup>32</sup>Now while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day. <sup>33</sup>And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation. <sup>34</sup>They put him under guard, because it had not been explained what should be done to him.

<sup>35</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “The man must surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp.” <sup>36</sup>So, as the LORD commanded Moses, all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died.

Daily Life & Customs

The tassels were made by twisting and knotting the threads of the fabric in the outer garment. This element of the garment, still used today at prayer, was assigned a mnemonic (memory) function (Num. 15:39). The permanence of the Scripture text has assured the permanence of the mnemonic sign as well.

Tassels on Garments

<sup>37</sup>Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>38</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel: Tell them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue thread in the tassels of the corners. <sup>39</sup>And you shall have the tassel, that you may look upon it and remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them, and that you may not follow the harlotry to which your own heart and your own eyes are inclined, <sup>40</sup>and that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy for your God. <sup>41</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God.”

Rebellion Against Moses and Aaron

16 <sup>1</sup>Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men; <sup>2</sup>and they rose up before Moses with some of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, representatives of the congregation, men of renown. <sup>3</sup>They gathered together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “You take too much upon yourselves, for all the congregation is holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?”

<sup>4</sup>So when Moses heard it, he fell on his face; <sup>5</sup>and he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, “Tomorrow morning the LORD will show who is His and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to Him. That one whom He chooses He will cause to come near to Him. <sup>6</sup>Do this: Take censers, Korah and all your company; <sup>7</sup>put fire in them and put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow, and it shall be that the man whom the LORD chooses is the holy one. You take too much upon yourselves, you sons of Levi!”

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you sons of Levi: <sup>9</sup>Is it a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the work of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to serve them; <sup>10</sup>and that He has brought you near to Himself, you and all your brethren, the sons of Levi, with you? And are you seeking the priesthood also? <sup>11</sup>Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD. And what is Aaron that you complain against him?”

<sup>12</sup>And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, but they said, “We will not come up! <sup>13</sup>Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you should keep acting like a prince over us? <sup>14</sup>Moreover you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!”

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, “Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I hurt one of them.”

<sup>16</sup>And Moses said to Korah, “Tomorrow, you and all your company be present before the LORD—you and they, as well as Aaron. <sup>17</sup>Let each take his censer and put incense in it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers; both you and Aaron, each with his censer.” <sup>18</sup>So every man took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it, and stood at the door of the tabernacle of meeting with Moses and Aaron. <sup>19</sup>And Korah gathered all the congregation against them at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

SINUHE VISITS A FERTILE PALESTINE (NUM. 16:12, 13)

The report of the spies that Moses was that the land Palestine “flows with milk and honey” (Num. 13:23, 27). Although the sons of Eliab questioned the truth of this report (Num. 16:12, 13), the fertility of Palestine was known long before the Israelites arrived. A similar description is found in an Egyptian text of the Middle Kingdom which covers events from the reigns of two pharaohs—Amenemhet I (1963–1934 B.C.) and Sesotris I (1943–1898 B.C.). The Tale of Sinuhe describes the travels and ordeals in Palestine of an Egyptian official by the name Sinuhe.

Sinuhe, according to the text, was a high official in the court of Pharaoh Amenemhet I. During an unstable period of change in power in Egypt, Sinuhe fled to Palestine. The land of Palestine was then called “Retenu” in Egyptian texts, and was usually thought of as northern Canaan and southern and central Syria. Sinuhe records his many trials and tribulations in the region.

On one occasion, Sinuhe settles with a certain Ammienshi, called the ruler of Upper Retenu. The Egyptian official describes the area as having figs and grapes. “It had more wine than water. Plentiful was its honey, abundant its olives. Every kind of fruit was on its trees. Barley was there, and emmer.” Milk was used in “every kind of cooking.”

The Egyptian text is the earliest account of conditions in Palestine during the period of the biblical patriarchs. It appears to accord well with descriptions found in the five books of the Pentateuch. Both the Tale of Sinuhe and the Pentateuch describe Palestine during this time as fertile but politically unstable and sparsely populated.

congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.”

<sup>22</sup>Then they fell on their faces, and said, “O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and You be angry with all the congregation?”

<sup>28</sup>And Moses said: “By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, for I have not done them of my own will. <sup>29</sup>If these men die naturally like all men, or if they are visited by the common fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me. <sup>30</sup>But if the LORD creates a new thing, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the pit, then you will understand that these men have rejected the LORD.”

<sup>31</sup>Now it came to pass, as he finished speaking all these words, that the ground split apart under them, <sup>32</sup>and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the men with Korah, with all their goods. <sup>33</sup>So they and all those with them went down alive into the pit; the earth closed over them, and they perished from among the assembly. <sup>34</sup>Then all Israel who were around them fled at their cry, for they said, “Lest the earth swallow us up also!”

<sup>37</sup>“Tell Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, to pick up the censers out of the blaze, for they are holy, and scatter the fire some distance away.

<sup>38</sup>The censers of these men who sinned against their own souls, let them be made into hammered plates as a covering for the altar. Because they presented them before the LORD, therefore they are holy; and they shall be a sign to the children of Israel.” <sup>39</sup>So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned up had presented, and they were hammered out as a covering on the altar, <sup>40</sup>to be a memorial to the children of Israel that no outsider, who is not a descendant of Aaron, should come near to offer incense before the LORD, that he might not become like Korah and his companions, just as the LORD had said to him through Moses.

Complaints of the People

<sup>41</sup>On the next day all the congregation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, saying, “You have killed the people of the LORD.” <sup>42</sup>Now it happened, when the congregation had gathered against Moses and Aaron, that they turned toward the tabernacle of meeting; and suddenly the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. <sup>43</sup>Then Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of meeting.

<sup>44</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>45</sup>“Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.”

And they fell on their faces.

<sup>46</sup>So Moses said to Aaron, “Take a censer and put fire in it from the altar, put incense on it, and take it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone out from the LORD. The plague has begun.”<sup>47</sup>Then Aaron took it as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and already the plague had begun among the people. So he put in the incense and made atonement for the people.<sup>48</sup>And he stood between the dead and the living; so the plague was stopped.<sup>49</sup>Now those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the Korah incident.<sup>50</sup>So Aaron returned to Moses at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, for the plague had stopped.

The Budding of Aaron's Rod

17<sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and get from them a rod from each father’s house, all their leaders according to their fathers’ houses—twelve rods. Write each man’s name on his rod.
<sup>3</sup>And you shall write Aaron’s name on the rod of Levi. For there shall be one rod for the head of each father’s house.
<sup>4</sup>Then you shall place them in the tabernacle of meeting before the Testimony, where I meet with you.
<sup>5</sup>And it shall be that the rod of the man whom I choose will blossom; thus I will rid Myself of the complaints of the children of Israel, which they make against you.”

<sup>6</sup>So Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and each of their leaders gave him a rod apiece, for each leader according to their fathers’ houses, twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.<sup>7</sup>And Moses placed the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness.

<sup>8</sup>Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses went into the tabernacle of witness, and behold, the rod of Aaron, of the house of Levi, had sprouted and put forth buds, had produced blossoms and yielded ripe almonds.<sup>9</sup>Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Bring Aaron’s rod back before the Testimony, to be kept as a sign against the rebels, that you may put their complaints away from Me, lest they die.”<sup>11</sup>Thus did Moses; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

<sup>12</sup>So the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Surely we die, we perish, we all perish!
<sup>13</sup>Whoever even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD must die. Shall we all utterly die?”

Duties of Priests and Levites

18<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Aaron: “You and your sons and your father’s house with you shall bear the iniquity related to the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity associated with your priesthood.
<sup>2</sup>Also bring with you your brethren of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may be joined with you and serve you while you and your sons are with you before the tabernacle of witness.
<sup>3</sup>They shall attend to your needs and all the needs of the tabernacle; but they shall not come near the articles of the sanctuary and the altar, lest they die—they and you also.
<sup>4</sup>They shall be joined with you and attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, for all the work of the tabernacle; but an outsider shall not come near you.
<sup>5</sup>And you shall attend to the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, that there may be no more wrath on the children of Israel.
<sup>6</sup>Behold, I Myself have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel; they are a gift to you, given by the LORD, to do the work of the tabernacle of meeting.
<sup>7</sup>Therefore you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything at the altar and behind the veil; and you shall serve. I give your priesthood to you as a gift for service, but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death.”

During the wilderness wandering, Aaron's rod was the only staff that produced buds, blossoms, and almonds, indicating God's choice of Aaron and his descendants as priests (Num. 17:1–10).

Offerings for Support of the Priests

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD spoke to Aaron: “Here, I Myself have also given you charge of My heave offerings, all the holy gifts of the children of Israel; I have given them as a portion to you and your sons, as an ordinance forever. <sup>9</sup>This shall be yours of the most holy things reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs, every grain offering and every sin offering and every trespass offering which they render to Me, shall be most holy for you and your sons. <sup>10</sup>In a most holy place you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you.

<sup>11</sup>“This also is yours: the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them to you, and your sons and daughters with you, as an ordinance forever. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.

<sup>12</sup>“All the best of the oil, all the best of the new wine and the grain, their firstfruits which they offer to the LORD, I have given them to you. <sup>13</sup>Whatever first ripe fruit is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.

<sup>15</sup>“Everything that first opens the womb of all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, whether man or beast, shall be yours; nevertheless the firstborn of man you shall surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem. <sup>16</sup>And those redeemed of the devoted things you shall redeem when one month old, according to your valuation, for five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs. <sup>17</sup>But the firstborn of a cow, the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and burn their fat as an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And their flesh shall be yours, just as the wave breast and the right thigh are yours.

<sup>19</sup>“All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and daughters with you as an ordinance forever; it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD with you and your descendants with you.”

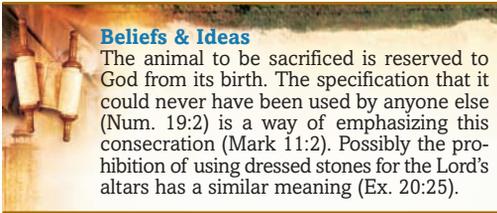

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said to Aaron: “You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.

Tithes for Support of the Levites

<sup>21</sup>“Behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tithes in Israel as an inheritance in return for the work which they perform, the work of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>22</sup>Hereafter the children of Israel shall not come near the tabernacle of meeting, lest they bear sin and die. <sup>23</sup>But the Levites shall perform the work of the tabernacle of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity; it shall be a statute forever, throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance. <sup>24</sup>For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer up as a heave offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites as an inheritance; therefore I have said to them, ‘Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.’”

The Tithes of the Levites

<sup>25</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>26</sup>“Speak thus to the Levites, and say to them: ‘When you take from the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them as your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave offering of it to the LORD, a tenth of the tithe. <sup>27</sup>And your heave offering shall be reckoned to you as though it were the grain of the threshing floor and as the fullness of the winepress. <sup>28</sup>Thus you shall also offer a heave offering to the LORD from all your tithes which you receive from the children of Israel, and you shall give the LORD’s heave offering from it to Aaron the priest. <sup>29</sup>Of all your gifts you shall offer up every heave offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, the consecrated part of them.’ <sup>30</sup>Therefore you shall say to them: ‘When you have lifted up the best of it, then the rest shall be accounted to the Levites as the produce of the threshing floor and as the produce of the winepress. <sup>31</sup>You may eat it in any place, you and your households, for it is your reward for your work in the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>32</sup>And you shall bear no sin because of it, when you have lifted up the best of it. But you shall not profane the holy gifts of the children of Israel, lest you die.’”

Beliefs & Ideas

The animal to be sacrificed is reserved to God from its birth. The specification that it could never have been used by anyone else (Num. 19:2) is a way of emphasizing this consecration (Mark 11:2). Possibly the prohibition of using dressed stones for the Lord's altars has a similar meaning (Ex. 20:25).

Laws of Purification

19 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>2</sup>“This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying: ‘Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without blemish, in which there is no defect and on which a yoke has never come. <sup>3</sup>You shall give it to Eleazar the priest, that he may take it outside the camp, and it shall be slaughtered before him; <sup>4</sup>and Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle some of its blood seven times directly in front of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>5</sup>Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight: its hide, its flesh, its blood, and its offal shall be burned. <sup>6</sup>And the priest shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet, and cast them into the midst of the fire burning the heifer. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest shall wash his clothes, he shall bathe in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp; the priest shall be unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup>And the one who burns it shall wash his clothes in water, bathe in water, and shall be unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup>Then a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and store them outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for the water of purification; <sup>10</sup>it is for purifying from sin. <sup>10</sup>And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until evening. It shall be a statute forever to the children of Israel and to the stranger who dwells among them.

<sup>11</sup>He who touches the dead body of anyone shall be unclean seven days. <sup>12</sup>He shall purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean. <sup>13</sup>Whoever touches the body of anyone who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. That person shall be cut off from Israel. He shall be unclean, because the water of purification was not sprinkled on him; his uncleanness is still on him.

<sup>20</sup>But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean. <sup>21</sup>It shall be a perpetual statute for them. He who sprinkles the water of purification shall wash his clothes; and he who touches the water of purification shall be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup>Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the person who touches it shall be unclean until evening.’”

Moses' Error at Kadesh

20 <sup>1</sup>Then the children of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miriam died there and was buried there.

<sup>2</sup>Now there was no water for the congregation; so they gathered together against Moses and Aaron. <sup>3</sup>And the people contended with Moses and spoke, saying: “If only we had died when our brethren died before the LORD! <sup>4</sup>Why have you brought up the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our animals should die here? <sup>5</sup>And why have you made us come up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? It is not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates; nor is there any water to drink.” <sup>6</sup>So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and they fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

19:9 <sup>a</sup>Literally impurity

“Hear now, you rebels! Must we bring water for you out of this rock?”<sup>11</sup> Then Moses lifted his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; and water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their animals drank.

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not believe Me, to hallow Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”

<sup>13</sup> This was the water of Meribah,<sup>a</sup> because the children of Israel contended with the LORD, and He was hallowed among them.

TRANSITION

Moab: On the Doorstep of Canaan

The narrative of Numbers concludes with the Israelites once more at Kadesh Barnea (Num. 20:1, 14). The issue now is whether this new generation would believe after their fathers had not. As they prepare to journey from Kadesh toward the plains of Moab, they are ready to hear once more God’s command to enter the land of Canaan.

The account of Aaron’s death on Mount Hor (Num. 20:22–29) indicates the 40th year after the Exodus, and thus the last year of the wilderness wandering. In the list of Israel’s wilderness journeys in ch. 33, Aaron’s death is placed in the 5th month of the 40th year after the Israelites’ departure from Egypt (Num. 33:3, 37, 38). Calculating by this tradition of Num. 33, Israel would have reached the plains of Moab either around 1406 B.C. (40 years = 1446–1406) or around 1235 B.C. (40 years = 1275–1235; see “Egypt and the Exodus” at Ex. 1:1).

The plains of Moab are the setting for the Balaam traditions. An Aramaic inscription found in the area east of the Jordan mentions a seer named Balaam. If this is the same Balaam described in Num. 22–24, then he was quite famous, which would explain King Balak’s obvious respect for his powers (Num. 22:4–6).

Passage Through Edom Refused

20:14 Now Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom. “Thus says your brother Israel: ‘You know all the hardship that has befallen us, <sup>15</sup>how our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians afflicted us and our fathers. <sup>16</sup>When we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent the Angel and brought us up out of Egypt; now here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border. <sup>17</sup>Please let us pass through your country. We will not pass through fields or vineyards, nor will we drink water from wells; we will go along the King’s Highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left until we have passed through your territory.’”

<sup>18</sup> Then Edom said to him, “You shall not pass through my land, lest I come out against you with the sword.”

<sup>19</sup> So the children of Israel said to him, “We will go by the Highway, and if I or my livestock drink any of your water, then I will pay for it; let me only pass through on foot, nothing more.”

<sup>20</sup> Then he said, “You shall not pass through.” So Edom came out against them with many men and with a strong hand. <sup>21</sup> Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory; so Israel turned away from him.

Death of Aaron

<sup>22</sup> Now the children of Israel, the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor. <sup>23</sup> And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor by the border of the land of Edom, saying: <sup>24</sup> “Aaron shall be gathered to his people, for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against My word at the water of Meribah. <sup>25</sup> Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor; <sup>26</sup> and strip Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son; for Aaron shall be gathered to his people and die there.” <sup>27</sup> So Moses did just as the LORD commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. <sup>28</sup> Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. <sup>29</sup> Now when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

Canaanites Defeated at Hormah

21<sup>1</sup> The king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South, heard that Israel was coming on the road to Atharim. Then he fought against Israel and took some of them prisoners. <sup>2</sup> So Israel made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.” <sup>3</sup> And the LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. So the name of that place was called Hormah.<sup>a</sup>

The Bronze Serpent

A QUICK CURE FOR SNAKEBITE (NUM. 21:4–9)

The bronze serpent on a pole that Moses made in the wilderness functioned as a cure for venomous snakebites (Num. 21:4–9). Scholars have suggested three explanations for what appears to be a type of magical medicine. Each of the three may express something about what the people of Israel understand concerning this serpent.

One suggestion is that the image of the fiery serpent was merely an object of sympathetic magic. The bronze serpent, representing the actual snake that bit the victim, was presented as a way of removing the poison from the snakebite. Magic amulets or charms for warding off and then curing illnesses and poisons were used everywhere in the ancient Near East. A number of copper and bronze serpent figures have been recovered, showing that the practice was widespread.

A second possibility is that the object symbolized God's power over the snakes. The bronze serpent would have been a sort of specialized worship item for those with snakebites. The "glance" toward the object would have been a plea or prayer to God for help. The bronze serpent was only an aid to the prayer, while the cure would have come from God.

Yet a third suggestion supposes the bronze serpent to have been an intermediary between God and the people. In the ancient Near East, the highest god of a pantheon could create new deities for specific purposes. The Israelites would have understood the bronze serpent as a lesser divine being created expressly to cure their particular kind of snakebites. Among the mythological texts of Ugarit (13th century B.C.) is the Legend of Keret. In this story the god El creates the goddess Shatqatu solely to cure King Keret from an illness no other deity could handle.

This third understanding possibly explains what happened later as the bronze serpent was incorporated into the Israelite worship of God. It had been created by Moses and had been part of the religious world of Israel and Judah since before the settlement in Canaan. But by the time of Hezekiah (715–686 B.C.) Judahites worshiped it as Nehushtan (2 Kin. 18:4), possibly considering it a minor deity. The people's devotion to the bronze serpent was condemned by Hezekiah, who had it destroyed.

Edom; and the soul of the people became very discouraged on the way. <sup>5</sup>And the people spoke against God and against Moses: "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and our soul loathes this worthless bread." <sup>6</sup>So the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many of the people of Israel died.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD that He take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

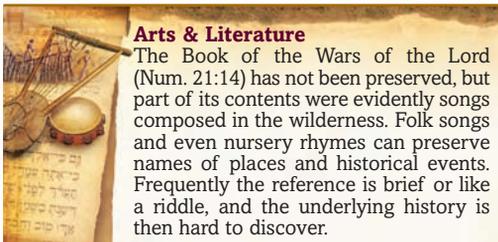

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and it shall be that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, shall live." <sup>9</sup>So Moses made a bronze serpent, and put it on a pole; and so it was, if a serpent had bitten anyone, when he looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

From Mount Hor to Moab

<sup>10</sup>Now the children of Israel moved on and camped in Oboth. <sup>11</sup>And they journeyed from Oboth and camped at Ije Abarim, in the wilderness which is east of Moab, toward the sunrise. <sup>12</sup>From there they moved and camped in the Valley of Zered. <sup>13</sup>From there they moved and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. <sup>14</sup>Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD:

"Waheb in Suphah,<sup>a</sup>
The brooks of the Arnon,
<sup>15</sup> And the slope of the brooks
That reaches to the dwelling of Ar,
And lies on the border of Moab."

Arts & Literature

The Book of the Wars of the Lord (Num. 21:14) has not been preserved, but part of its contents were evidently songs composed in the wilderness. Folk songs and even nursery rhymes can preserve names of places and historical events. Frequently the reference is brief or like a riddle, and the underlying history is then hard to discover.

21:14 <sup>a</sup>Ancient unknown places; Vulgate reads What He did in the Red Sea.

<sup>16</sup>From there they went to Beer, which is the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Gather the people together, and I will give them water.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Israel sang this song:

“Spring up, O well!

All of you sing to it—

<sup>18</sup> The well the leaders sank,
Dug by the nation’s nobles,
By the lawgiver, with their staves.”

And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah, <sup>19</sup>from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth, <sup>20</sup>and from Bamoth, in the valley that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah which looks down on the wasteland.<sup>a</sup>

King Sihon Defeated

<sup>21</sup>Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, <sup>22</sup>“Let me pass through your land. We will not turn aside into fields or vineyards; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the King’s Highway until we have passed through your territory.” <sup>23</sup>But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together and went out against Israel in the wilderness, and he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel. <sup>24</sup>Then Israel defeated him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the people of Ammon; for the border of the people of Ammon was fortified. <sup>25</sup>So Israel took all these cities, and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all its villages. <sup>26</sup>For Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and had taken all his land from his hand as far as the Arnon. <sup>27</sup>Therefore those who speak in proverbs say:

“Come to Heshbon, let it be built;
Let the city of Sihon be repaired.

<sup>28</sup> “For fire went out from Heshbon,
A flame from the city of Sihon;
It consumed Ar of Moab,
The lords of the heights of the Arnon.

<sup>29</sup> Woe to you, Moab!
You have perished, O people of Chemosh!
He has given his sons as fugitives,
And his daughters into captivity,
To Sihon king of the Amorites.

<sup>30</sup> “But we have shot at them;
Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon.

Then we laid waste as far as Nophah,
Which reaches to Medeba.”

<sup>31</sup>Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites. <sup>32</sup>Then Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took its villages and drove out the Amorites who were there.

King Og Defeated

<sup>33</sup>And they turned and went up by the way to Bashan. So Og king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. <sup>34</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Do not fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, with all his people and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.” <sup>35</sup>So they defeated him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no survivor left him; and they took possession of his land.

Balak Sends for Balaam

22 <sup>1</sup>Then the children of Israel moved, and camped in the plains of Moab on the side of the Jordan across from Jericho.

<sup>2</sup>Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. <sup>3</sup>And Moab was exceedingly afraid of the people because they were many, and Moab was sick with dread because of the children of Israel. <sup>4</sup>So Moab said to the elders of Midian, “Now this company will lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field.” And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time. <sup>5</sup>Then he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is near the River<sup>a</sup> in the land of the sons of his people,<sup>b</sup> to call him, saying: “Look, a people has come from Egypt. See, they cover the face of the earth, and are settling next to me! <sup>6</sup>Therefore please come at once, curse this people for me, for they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.”

<sup>7</sup>So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the diviner’s fee in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak. <sup>8</sup>And he said to them, “Lodge here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, as the LORD speaks to me.” So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

<sup>9</sup>Then God came to Balaam and said, “Who are these men with you?”

<sup>10</sup>So Balaam said to God, “Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying, <sup>11</sup>‘Look, a people has come out of Egypt, and they cover the face of the earth. Come now, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to overpower them and drive them out.’”

BALAAM: PROPHET FOR HIRE (NUM. 22:5, 6)

Balaam son of Beor is the famous prophet of Num. 22–24 whose services were requested by Balak, king of Moab. The Israelites were crossing through Moab at the time, and Balak was uncomfortable with such a large group of people in his land. So he called on the prophet to curse the Israelites in the name of God.

Normally a ruler would call on his own professional court prophets for such an undertaking. The blessing or cursing of neighboring kingdoms was standard duty for a court prophet. In contrast, prophets-for-hire were generally viewed unfavorably as unscrupulous persons who would say whatever their employer wished to hear. Nevertheless, Balak believed himself to be in sufficient danger to send for a famous and powerful prophet, whose work was known for its potency.

In the biblical traditions of Num. 22–24 Balaam is presented both favorably and unfavorably. Balaam, intending to keep his contract with Balak, attempted to curse the Israelites, but God kept him from doing so, insisting that Balaam bless them instead. In this way Balaam was a true prophet even in spite of himself and so, perhaps, was worthy of his fame. In a separate tradition (Num. 31:8, 16) Balaam is held responsible for the Israelite apostasy at Peor, and reported to have been killed by Israel.

An 8th-century B.C. inscription from Jordan confirms that Balaam was a renowned prophet at the time of Judah's and Israel's monarchies. The text, found at Tell Deir 'Alla, displays a heavenly pantheon, and tells how the prophet Balaam was called by the gods in the night through a vision or dream to witness to the divine will (see Num. 22:20). Thus Balaam's reliability as a prophet was remembered and recorded not only in the Bible, but also by the devotees who inscribed the Tell Deir 'Alla walls.

<sup>12</sup>And God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed."

<sup>13</sup>So Balaam rose in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, "Go back to your land, for the LORD has refused to give me permission to go with you."

<sup>14</sup>And the princes of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."

<sup>15</sup>Then Balak again sent princes, more numerous and more honorable than they. <sup>16</sup>And they came to Balaam and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: 'Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me; <sup>17</sup>for I will certainly honor you greatly, and I will do whatever you say to me. Therefore please come, curse this people for me.'"

<sup>18</sup>Then Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, "Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. <sup>19</sup>Now therefore, please, you also stay here tonight, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me."

<sup>20</sup>And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "If the men come to call you, rise and go with them; but only the word which I speak to you—that you shall do." <sup>21</sup>So Balaam rose in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.

Balaam, the Donkey, and the Angel

<sup>22</sup>Then God's anger was aroused because he went, and the Angel of the LORD took His stand in the way as an adversary against him. And he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him. <sup>23</sup>Now the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand, and the donkey turned aside out of the way and went into the field. So Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back onto the road. <sup>24</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on this side and a wall on that side. <sup>25</sup>And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she pushed herself against the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall; so he struck her again. <sup>26</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. <sup>27</sup>And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; so Balaam's anger was aroused, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

<sup>28</sup>Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

<sup>29</sup>And Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have abused me. I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you!"

<sup>30</sup>So the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden, ever since I became yours, to this day? Was I ever disposed to do this to you?"

And he said, "No."

<sup>31</sup>Then the LORD opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand; and he bowed his head and fell flat on his face. <sup>32</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to stand against you, because your way is perverse before Me. <sup>33</sup>The donkey saw Me and turned aside from Me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, surely I would also have killed you by now, and let her live."

<sup>34</sup>And Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know You stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases You, I will turn back."

<sup>35</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but only the word that I speak to you, that you shall speak." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

<sup>36</sup>Now when Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, which is on the border at the Arnon, the boundary of the territory. <sup>37</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not earnestly send to you, calling for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?"

<sup>38</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, "Look, I have come to you! Now, have I any power at all to say anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I must speak." <sup>39</sup>So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath Huzoth. <sup>40</sup>Then Balak offered oxen and sheep, and he sent some to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.

Balaam's First Prophecy

<sup>41</sup>So it was, the next day, that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the high places of Baal, that from there he might observe the extent of the people.

<sup>2</sup>And Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar. <sup>3</sup>Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you." So he went to a desolate height. <sup>4</sup>And God met Balaam, and he said to Him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered on each altar a bull and a ram."

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak." <sup>6</sup>So he returned to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, he and all the princes of Moab.

<sup>7</sup>And he took up his oracle and said:

"Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Aram,
From the mountains of the east.
'Come, curse Jacob for me,
And come, denounce Israel!'

<sup>8</sup> "How shall I curse whom God has not cursed?

And how shall I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?

<sup>9</sup> For from the top of the rocks I see him,
And from the hills I behold him;
There! A people dwelling alone,
Not reckoning itself among the nations.

<sup>10</sup> "Who can count the dust<sup>a</sup> of Jacob,
Or number one-fourth of Israel?
Let me die the death of the righteous,
And let my end be like his!"

<sup>11</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and look, you have blessed them bountifully!"

<sup>12</sup>So he answered and said, "Must I not take heed to speak what the LORD has put in my mouth?"

Balaam's Second Prophecy

<sup>13</sup>Then Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only the outer part of them, and shall not see them all; curse them for me from there." <sup>14</sup>So he brought him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, "Go back to Balak, and thus you shall speak." <sup>17</sup>So he came to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, "What has the LORD spoken?"

<sup>18</sup>Then he took up his oracle and said:

"Rise up, Balak, and hear!
Listen to me, son of Zippor!

<sup>19</sup> "God is not a man, that He should lie,
Nor a son of man, that He should repent.
Has He said, and will He not do?
Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?"

<sup>20</sup> Behold, I have received a command to bless;
He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.

<sup>21</sup> "He has not observed iniquity in Jacob,
Nor has He seen wickedness in Israel.
The LORD his God is with him,
And the shout of a King is among them.

<sup>22</sup> God brings them out of Egypt;
He has strength like a wild ox.

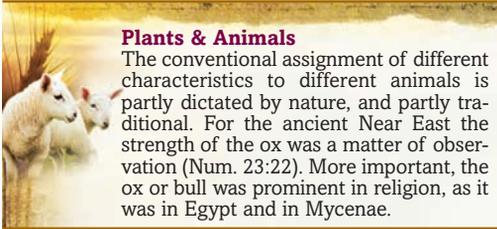

<sup>23</sup> "For there is no sorcery against Jacob,
Nor any divination against Israel.

23:10 <sup>a</sup>Or dust cloud 23:15 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Syriac reads call; Septuagint reads go and ask God.

It now must be said of Jacob
 And of Israel, ‘Oh, what God has done!’
 24 Look, a people rises like a lioness,
 And lifts itself up like a lion;
 It shall not lie down until it devours the prey,
 And drinks the blood of the slain.”

25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all!”

26 So Balaam answered and said to Balak, “Did I not tell you, saying, ‘All that the LORD speaks, that I must do?’”

Plants & Animals

The conventional assignment of different characteristics to different animals is partly dictated by nature, and partly traditional. For the ancient Near East the strength of the ox was a matter of observation (Num. 23:22). More important, the ox or bull was prominent in religion, as it was in Egypt and in Mycenae.

Balaam's Third Prophecy

27 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Please come,
 I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.” 28 So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that overlooks the wasteland.<sup>a</sup> 29 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.” 30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on every altar.

24 <sup>1</sup>Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as at other times, to seek to use sorcery, but he set his face toward the wilderness. <sup>2</sup>And Balaam raised his eyes, and saw Israel encamped according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him.

<sup>3</sup>Then he took up his oracle and said:

“The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor,
 The utterance of the man whose eyes
 are opened,

4 The utterance of him who hears the words of God,
 Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
 Who falls down, with eyes wide open:

5 “How lovely are your tents, O Jacob!
 Your dwellings, O Israel!

6 Like valleys that stretch out,
 Like gardens by the riverside,
 Like aloes planted by the LORD,
 Like cedars beside the waters.

7 He shall pour water from his buckets,
 And his seed shall be in many waters.

“His king shall be higher than Agag,
 And his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 “God brings him out of Egypt;
 He has strength like a wild ox;
 He shall consume the nations, his enemies;
 He shall break their bones
 And pierce them with his arrows.

9 “He bows down, he lies down as a lion;
 And as a lion, who shall rouse him?<sup>a</sup>

“Blessed is he who blesses you,
 And cursed is he who curses you.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Balak's anger was aroused against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, and look, you have bountifully blessed them these three times! <sup>11</sup>Now therefore, flee to your place. I said I would greatly honor you, but in fact, the LORD has kept you back from honor.”

<sup>12</sup>So Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying, <sup>13</sup>If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of the LORD, to do good or bad of my own will. What the LORD says, that I must speak?
<sup>14</sup>And now, indeed, I am going to my people.
 Come, I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the latter days.”

Balaam's Fourth Prophecy

<sup>15</sup>So he took up his oracle and said:

“The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor,
 And the utterance of the man whose eyes
 are opened;

16 The utterance of him who hears the words of God,

And has the knowledge of the Most High,
Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
Who falls down, with eyes wide open:

17 “I see Him, but not now;
 I behold Him, but not near;
 A Star shall come out of Jacob;
 A Scepter shall rise out of Israel,
 And batter the brow of Moab,
 And destroy all the sons of tumult.<sup>a</sup>

18 “And Edom shall be a possession;
 Seir also, his enemies, shall be a possession,
 While Israel does valiantly.

19 Out of Jacob One shall have dominion,
 And destroy the remains of the city.”

CHASING THE GODS OF MOAB (NUM. 25:1–9)

The Israelites had no sooner been blessed by the prophet Balaam than they turned to the worship of the god Baal of Peor (Num. 25:1–9). Balaam had attempted to curse them, but God intervened. This was another in a series of events, beginning with the Exodus itself, in which God's salvation was repaid with complaints and apostasy.

What happened at the mountain called Peor in Moab? The Israelite men, being attracted to the Moabite women, accepted an invitation to their religious festivals where Baal of Peor, the god of the mountain, was worshiped. Baal of Peor was a prominent god of the Moabites, as well as of the Midianites and Ammonites.

The Israelites “ate” at the sacrifices (Num. 25:2). Whenever people in the ancient world killed animals for food, the slaughter was done in a ritual of sacrifice. The sacrifice gave honor to the deity to whom the meal was dedicated. Eating the meat served from the sacrifice was considered an act of worship of that deity, even if there were no other rituals or religious actions involved.

The Israelites who joined in the feast not only ate the sacrifice, but also “bowed down” to the Moabite gods (25:2). The men had not just gone along with the women for sexual favors and a free meal; rather they had joined the local cult devoted to the local god. For worshiping gods other than Israel's God, the punishment was death (25:4). Leaving the corpses of the offenders exposed was a practice used also by the Assyrian armies. It both disgraced the dead and served as a warning to others.

<sup>20</sup>Then he looked on Amalek, and he took up his oracle and said:

“Amalek was first among the nations,
But shall be last until he perishes.”

<sup>21</sup>Then he looked on the Kenites, and he took up his oracle and said:

“Firm is your dwelling place,
And your nest is set in the rock;
<sup>22</sup> Nevertheless Kain shall be burned.
How long until Asshur carries you away captive?”

<sup>23</sup>Then he took up his oracle and said:

“Alas! Who shall live when God does this?
<sup>24</sup> But ships shall come from the coasts of Cyprus,<sup>a</sup>
And they shall afflict Asshur and afflict Eber,
And so shall Amalek,<sup>b</sup> until he perishes.”

<sup>25</sup>So Balaam rose and departed and returned to his place; Balak also went his way.

Israel's Harlotry in Moab

25 <sup>1</sup>Now Israel remained in Acacia Grove,<sup>a</sup> and the people began to commit harlotry with the women of Moab. <sup>2</sup>They invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods. <sup>3</sup>So Israel was joined to Baal of Peor, and the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of the people and hang the offenders before the LORD, out in the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>11</sup>“Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned back My wrath from the children of Israel, because he was zealous with My zeal among them, so that I did not consume the children of Israel in My zeal. <sup>12</sup>Therefore say, ‘Behold, I give to him My covenant of peace; <sup>13</sup>and it shall be to him and his descendants after him a covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.’”

<sup>14</sup>Now the name of the Israelite who was killed, who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father's house among the Simeonites. <sup>15</sup>And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a father's house in Midian.

The Second Census of Israel

26 <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass, after the plague, that the LORD spoke to Moses and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel from twenty years old and above, by their fathers’ houses, all who are able to go to war in Israel.” <sup>3</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho, saying: <sup>4</sup>“Take a census of the people from twenty years old and above, just as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel who came out of the land of Egypt.”

families of the sons of Gad according to those who were numbered of them: forty thousand five hundred.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Judah were Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>And the sons of Judah according to their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Parzites; of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites. <sup>22</sup>These are the families of Judah according to those who were numbered of them: seventy-six thousand five hundred.

<sup>26</sup>The sons of Zebulun according to their families were: of Sered, the family of the Sardites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites. <sup>27</sup>These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them: sixty thousand five hundred.

<sup>51</sup>These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

according to the names of the tribes of their fathers. <sup>56</sup>According to the lot their inheritance shall be divided between the larger and the smaller.”

<sup>57</sup>And these are those who were numbered of the Levites according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites. <sup>58</sup>These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, and the family of the Korathites. And Kohath begot Amram. <sup>59</sup>The name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and to Amram she bore Aaron and Moses and their sister Miriam. <sup>60</sup>To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>61</sup>And Nadab and Abihu died when they offered profane fire before the LORD.

<sup>62</sup>Now those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and above; for they were not numbered among the other children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given to them among the children of Israel.

<sup>63</sup>These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho. <sup>64</sup>But among these there was not a man of those who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they numbered the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Sinai. <sup>65</sup>For the LORD had said of them, “They shall surely die in the wilderness.” So there was not left a man of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Culture & Society

The people of Israel are listed tribe by tribe, with the sons and families carefully named (Num. 26:51). In the tribal community, the facts of descent and physical relation have a much greater or a more obvious importance than in industrial societies. The Bible figures lines of descent over hundreds of years.

Inheritance Laws

27 <sup>1</sup>Then came the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, from the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup>And they stood before Moses, before Eleazar the priest, and before the leaders and all the congregation, by the doorway of the tabernacle of meeting, saying: <sup>3</sup>“Our father died in the wilderness; but he was not in the company of those who gathered together against the LORD, in company with Korah, but he died in his own sin; and he had no sons. <sup>4</sup>Why should the name of our father be removed from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father's brothers."

26:39 <sup>a</sup>Masoretic Text reads Shephupham, spelled Shephuphan in 1 Chronicles 8:5. <sup>b</sup>Called Huppim in Genesis 46:21

<sup>6</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

<sup>7</sup>"The daughters of Zelophehad speak what is right; you shall surely give them a possession of inheritance among their father's brothers, and cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them. <sup>8</sup>And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. <sup>9</sup>If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers. <sup>10</sup>If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers. <sup>11</sup>And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the relative closest to him in his family, and he shall possess it.'" And it shall be to the children of Israel a statute of judgment, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Joshua the Next Leader of Israel

<sup>12</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses: "Go up into this Mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel. <sup>13</sup>And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was gathered. <sup>14</sup>For in the Wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, you rebelled against My command to hallow Me at the waters before their eyes." (These are the waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin.)

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying:

<sup>16</sup>"Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, <sup>17</sup>who may go out before them and go in before them, who may lead them out and bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be like sheep which have no shepherd."

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD said to Moses: "Take Joshua the son of Nun with you, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him; <sup>19</sup>set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation, and inaugurate him in their sight. <sup>20</sup>And you shall give some of your authority to him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient. <sup>21</sup>He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire before the LORD for him by the judgment of the Urim. At his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, he and all the children of Israel with him—all the congregation."

<sup>22</sup>So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation. <sup>23</sup>And he laid his hands on him and inaugurated him, just as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

Daily Offerings

28 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Command the children of Israel, and say to them, 'My offering, My food for My offerings made by fire as a sweet aroma to Me, you shall be careful to offer to Me at their appointed time.'

<sup>3</sup>"And you shall say to them, 'This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs in their first year without blemish, day by day, as a regular burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, the other lamb you shall offer in the evening, <sup>5</sup>and one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil. <sup>6</sup>It is a regular burnt offering which was ordained at Mount Sinai for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And its drink offering shall be one-fourth of a hin for each lamb; in a holy place you shall pour out the drink to the LORD as an offering. <sup>8</sup>The other lamb you shall offer in the evening; as the morning grain offering and its drink offering, you shall offer it as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.

Two unblemished male lambs were offered daily—one in the morning, one in the evening—as part of the regular burnt offering to the Lord.

ISRAEL'S SACRED TIMES

Sabbath	Every 7th day was a solemn rest from all work. Ex. 20:8–11; 31:12–17; Lev. 23:3; Deut. 5:12–15
Sabbath Year	Every 7th year was designated a “year of release” to allow the land to lie fallow. Ex. 23:10, 11; Lev. 25:1–7
Year of Jubilee	The 50th year, which followed seven Sabbath years, was to proclaim liberty to those who were servants because of debt, and to return lands to their former owners. Lev. 25:8–55; 27:17–24; Ezek. 46:17
The New Moon	The 1st day of the Hebrew 29 or 30-day month was a day of rest, special sacrifices, and the blowing of trumpets Num. 28:11–15; Ps. 81:3
Dedication (Lights or Hanukkah )	An 8-day feast in the 9th month (Chislev) commemorating the cleansing of the temple from defilement by Syria, and its rededication. John 10:22
Purim (Lots)	A feast on the 14th and 15th of the 12th month (Adar). The name comes from Babylonian Pur , meaning “lot.” Esth. 9:18–32

Sabbath Offerings

<sup>9</sup>And on the Sabbath day two lambs in their first year, without blemish, and two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, with its drink offering— <sup>10</sup>this is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, besides the regular burnt offering with its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

<sup>11</sup>At the beginnings of your months you shall present a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, without blemish; <sup>12</sup>three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram; <sup>13</sup>and one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour, mixed with oil, as a grain offering for each lamb, as a burnt offering of sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Their drink offering shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, one-third of a hin for a ram, and one-fourth of a hin for a lamb; this is the burnt offering for each month throughout the months of the year. <sup>15</sup>Also one kid of the goats as a sin offering to the LORD shall be offered, besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Offerings at Passover

<sup>16</sup>On the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast; unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days. <sup>18</sup>On the first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work. <sup>19</sup>And you shall present an offering made by fire as a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. Be sure they are without blemish. <sup>20</sup>Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah you shall offer for a bull, and two-tenths for a ram; <sup>21</sup>you shall offer one-tenth of an ephah for each of the seven lambs; <sup>22</sup>also one goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you. <sup>23</sup>You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a regular burnt offering. <sup>24</sup>In this manner you shall offer the food of the offering made by fire daily for seven days, as a sweet aroma to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering. <sup>25</sup>And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work.

Offerings at the Feast of Weeks

<sup>26</sup>Also on the day of the firstfruits, when you bring a new grain offering to the LORD at your Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work. <sup>27</sup>You shall present a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, <sup>28</sup>with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each bull, two-tenths for the one ram, <sup>29</sup>and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs; <sup>30</sup>also one kid of the goats, to make atonement for you. <sup>31</sup>Be sure they are without blemish. You shall present them with their drink offerings, besides the regular burnt offering with its grain offering.

Offerings at the Feast of Trumpets

29 <sup>1</sup>And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work. For you it is a day of blowing the trumpets. <sup>2</sup>You shall offer a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, without blemish. <sup>3</sup>Their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram, <sup>4</sup>and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs; <sup>5</sup>also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, to make atonement for you; <sup>6</sup>besides the burnt offering with its grain offering for the New Moon, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, as a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

Offerings on the Day of Atonement

<sup>7</sup>On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall afflict your souls; you shall not do any work. <sup>8</sup>You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD as a sweet aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. Be sure they are without blemish. <sup>9</sup>Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram, <sup>10</sup>and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs; <sup>11</sup>also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the sin offering for atonement, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Offerings at the Feast of Tabernacles

<sup>12</sup>On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days. <sup>13</sup>You shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year. They shall be without blemish. <sup>14</sup>Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams, <sup>15</sup>and one-tenth for each of the fourteen lambs; <sup>16</sup>also one kid of the goats as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>39</sup>These you shall present to the LORD at your appointed feasts (besides your vowed offerings and your freewill offerings) as your burnt offerings and your grain offerings, as your drink offerings and your peace offerings.’”

SWEARING TO THE GODS (NUM. 30:2)

Emar has recently become a source for the understanding of Middle-Euphrates Syria in the Late Bronze Age (c. 1500–1200 B.C.). The city of Emar (or Imar, as it was apparently known) is indirectly referred to in texts from Ebla in the 3rd millennium B.C. and from Mari in the 18th century B.C. In later centuries (from about 1350 to 1187 B.C.) Emar was a Hittite protectorate, or dependent state.

Over 2,000 cuneiform texts, mostly written in Accadian, have been found at Emar. Many of these texts share distinct literary parallels with the Old Testament, and a number of features in the Emar textual collection appear to have a direct bearing on the understanding of the biblical text. These include the Emar installation festivals, calendar, rites for the dead, and rituals for the prophetic and priestly offices.

One such parallel between Emar and the Bible concerns vows made to the deity. According to Israel's law concerning vows to God, any Israelite who "swears an oath to bind himself by some agreement" (Num. 30:2) must carry out the oath and honor the agreement. At Emar, it seems that people swore by their ancestor's gods in order to protect their property rights. The inheritance clauses of certain texts from Emar show that heirs would swear by the gods of their deceased relative. Both cultures settled legal affairs by swearing to their deities.

The Law Concerning Vows

30 <sup>1</sup>Then Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: <sup>2</sup>If a man makes a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by some agreement, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

<sup>3</sup>"Or if a woman makes a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by some agreement while in her father's house in her youth, <sup>4</sup>and her father hears her vow and the agreement by which she has bound herself, and her father holds his peace, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement with which she has bound herself shall stand. <sup>5</sup>But if her father overrules her on the day that he hears, then none of her vows nor her agreements by which she has bound herself shall stand; and the LORD will release her, because her father overruled her.

<sup>9</sup>"Also any vow of a widow or a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.

lips concerning her vows or concerning the agreement binding her, it shall not stand; her husband has made them void, and the LORD will release her. <sup>13</sup>Every vow and every binding oath to afflict her soul, her husband may confirm it, or her husband may make it void. <sup>14</sup>Now if her husband makes no response whatever to her from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or all the agreements that bind her; he confirms them, because he made no response to her on the day that he heard them. <sup>15</sup>But if he does make them void after he has heard them, then he shall bear her guilt."

<sup>16</sup>These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter in her youth in her father's house.

Marriage & Family

In making and paying vows, the father or husband had a kind of veto power over what a wife or daughter could do (Num. 30:16). But when the veto power was not exercised within the time limit, or if it did not apply, a woman could make and pay vows that had the same absolute solemnity as vows made by a male.

Vengeance on the Midianites

31 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>"Take vengeance on the Midianites for the children of Israel. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people."

<sup>3</sup>So Moses spoke to the people, saying, "Arm some of yourselves for war, and let them go against the Midianites to take vengeance for the LORD on Midian. <sup>4</sup>A thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you shall send to the war."

<sup>5</sup>So there were recruited from the divisions of Israel one thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. <sup>6</sup>Then Moses sent them to the war, one thousand from each tribe; he sent them to the war with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, with the holy articles and the signal trumpets in his hand. <sup>7</sup>And they warred against the Midianites, just as the LORD commanded Moses, and they killed all the males.<sup>8</sup> They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of those who were killed—Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. Balaam the son of Beor they also killed with the sword.

Return from the War

<sup>12</sup>Then they brought the captives, the booty, and the spoil to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.<sup>13</sup> And Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went to meet them outside the camp.<sup>14</sup> But Moses was angry with the officers of the army, with the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who had come from the battle.

<sup>15</sup>And Moses said to them: “Have you kept all the women alive?<sup>16</sup> Look, these women caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to trespass against the LORD in the incident of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.<sup>17</sup> Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man intimately.<sup>18</sup> But keep alive for yourselves all the young girls who have not known a man intimately.<sup>19</sup> And as for you, remain outside the camp seven days; whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day.<sup>20</sup> Purify every garment, everything made of leather, everything woven of goats’ hair, and everything made of wood.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to the battle, “This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses:<sup>22</sup> Only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,<sup>23</sup> everything that can endure fire, you shall put through the fire, and it shall be clean; and it shall be purified with the water of purification. But all that cannot endure fire you shall put through water.<sup>24</sup> And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.”

Division of the Plunder

<sup>25</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:<sup>26</sup> “Count up the plunder that was taken—of man and beast—you and Eleazar the priest and the chief fathers of the congregation;<sup>27</sup> and divide the plunder into two parts, between those who took part in the war, who went out to battle, and all the congregation.<sup>28</sup> And levy a tribute for the LORD on the men of war who went out to battle: one of every five hundred of the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep;<sup>29</sup> take it from their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest as a heave offering to the LORD.<sup>30</sup> And from the children of Israel’s half you shall take one of every fifty, drawn from the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep, from all the livestock, and give them to the Levites who keep charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.”<sup>31</sup> So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

fifty, drawn from man and beast, and gave them to the Levites, who kept charge of the tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>48</sup>Then the officers who were over thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near to Moses; <sup>49</sup>and they said to Moses, “Your servants have taken a count of the men of war who are under our command, and not a man of us is missing. <sup>50</sup>Therefore we have brought an offering for the LORD, what every man found of ornaments of gold: armlets and bracelets and signet rings and earrings and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.” <sup>51</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all the fashioned ornaments. <sup>52</sup>And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. <sup>53</sup>(The men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.) <sup>54</sup>And Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of meeting as a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

The Tribes Settling East of the Jordan

32 <sup>1</sup>Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock; and when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, that indeed the region was a place for livestock, <sup>2</sup>the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Shebam, Nebo, and Beon, <sup>4</sup>the country which the LORD defeated before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock.” <sup>5</sup>Therefore they said, “If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not take us over the Jordan.”

to war while you sit here? <sup>7</sup>Now why will you discourage the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them? <sup>8</sup>Thus your fathers did when I sent them away from Kadesh Barnea to see the land. <sup>9</sup>For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them. <sup>10</sup>So the LORD’s anger was aroused on that day, and He swore an oath, saying, <sup>11</sup>“Surely none of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and above, shall see the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because they have not wholly followed Me, <sup>12</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have wholly followed the LORD.” <sup>13</sup>So the LORD’s anger was aroused against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was gone. <sup>14</sup>And look! You have risen in your fathers’ place, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the fierce anger of the LORD against Israel. <sup>15</sup>For if you turn away from following Him, He will once again leave them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people.”

<sup>16</sup>Then they came near to him and said: “We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones, <sup>17</sup>but we ourselves will be armed, ready to go before the children of Israel until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones will dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>18</sup>We will not return to our homes until every one of the children of Israel has received his inheritance. <sup>19</sup>For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this eastern side of the Jordan.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Moses said to them: “If you do this thing, if you arm yourselves before the LORD for the war, <sup>21</sup>and all your armed men cross over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven out His enemies from before Him, <sup>22</sup>and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you may return and be blameless before the LORD and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>But if you do not do so, then take note, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out. <sup>24</sup>Build cities for your little ones and folds for your sheep, and do what has proceeded out of your mouth.”

<sup>25</sup>And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying: “Your servants will do as my lord commands. <sup>26</sup>Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gilead; <sup>27</sup>but your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, just as my lord says.”

<sup>28</sup>So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel. <sup>29</sup>And Moses said to them: “If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben cross over the Jordan with you, every man armed for battle before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as a possession. <sup>30</sup>But if they do not cross over armed with you, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.”

<sup>31</sup>Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying: “As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do. <sup>32</sup>We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan.”

Jazer and Jogbehah, <sup>36</sup>Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep. <sup>37</sup>And the children of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kirjathaim, <sup>38</sup>Nebo and Baal Meon (their names being changed) and Shibmah; and they gave other names to the cities which they built.

<sup>39</sup>And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it. <sup>40</sup>So Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelt in it. <sup>41</sup>Also Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its small towns, and called them Havoth Jair.<sup>a</sup> <sup>42</sup>Then Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

Israel's Journey from Egypt Reviewed

<sup>3</sup>They departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with boldness in the sight of all the Egyptians. <sup>4</sup>For the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had killed among them. Also on their gods the LORD had executed judgments.

The Approach to Transjordan

From Kadesh Barnea Moses wanted to go east through Edom and north through Moab toward Canaan. Being refused passage through both territories, he instead went south to Elath, then north and east, bypassing Edom and Moab.

east of Baal Zephon; and they camped near Migdol. <sup>8</sup>They departed from before Hahiroth<sup>a</sup> and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, went three days' journey in the Wilderness of Etham, and camped at Marah. <sup>9</sup>They moved from Marah and came to Elim. At Elim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there.

Instructions for the Conquest of Canaan

<sup>50</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho, saying, <sup>51</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>52</sup>then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their engraved stones, destroy all their molded images, and demolish all their high places; <sup>53</sup>you shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to possess. <sup>54</sup>And you shall divide the land by lot as an inheritance among your families; to the larger you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give a smaller inheritance; there everyone’s inheritance shall be whatever falls to him by lot. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers. <sup>55</sup>But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall be that those whom you let remain shall be irritants in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall harass you in the land where you dwell. <sup>56</sup>Moreover it shall be that I will do to you as I thought to do to them.’”

The Appointed Boundaries of Canaan

34 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Command the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall to you as an inheritance—the land of Canaan to its boundaries. <sup>3</sup>Your southern border shall be from the Wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom; then your southern border shall extend eastward to the end of the Salt Sea; <sup>4</sup>your border shall turn from the southern side of the Ascent of Akrabbim, continue to Zin, and be on the south of Kadesh Barnea; then it shall go on to Hazar Addar, and continue to Azmon; <sup>5</sup>the border shall turn from

THE RIVER OF EGYPT (NUM. 34:1–5)

Numbers 34 describes the boundaries of the Promised Land—Canaan—which the Israelites would inherit. The southern border extended to the “Brook of Egypt” (Num. 34:3, 5), which is also known as “the river of Egypt” (Gen. 15:18). Without thought, one could confuse this “river of Egypt” with the Nile River, since the Nile is, and always has been, the life of Egyptian history and people.

The Nile River is, at times, intended by the biblical writer, but is called simply “the River” (Is. 19:7; Nah. 3:8). The name “Nile” comes from the Greco-Roman period (after 332 B.C.) and was unknown in earlier times. The Egyptians referred to the Nile by a word equivalent to “river,” and a Hebrew modification of this Egyptian word appears most often in the Old Testament when the Nile is intended (Gen. 41:1; Ex. 1:22).

The phrases “river of Egypt” and “Brook of Egypt” are referring to the Wadi el-Arish, a river that flows from the Sinai Peninsula’s central high plateau to the low lying Mediterranean coast. Most people in ancient times came and left Egypt by traveling along the northern edge of the Sinai Peninsula. The Wadi el-Arish intersects the peninsula on its eastern edge and, thus, marked for ancient people the eastern most boundary of Egypt. That is why the phrases “river of Egypt” and “Brook of Egypt” are found where geographic boundaries are described (Gen. 15:18; Num. 34:5).

Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and it shall end at the Sea.

<sup>13</sup>Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying: “This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe. <sup>14</sup>For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and the half-tribe of Manasseh has received its inheritance. <sup>15</sup>The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this side of the Jordan, across from Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.”

The Leaders Appointed to Divide the Land

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>17</sup>“These are the names of the men who shall divide the land among you as an inheritance:

Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>18</sup>And you shall take one leader of every tribe to divide the land for the inheritance. <sup>19</sup>These are the names of the men: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; <sup>20</sup>from the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Amihud; <sup>21</sup>from the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon; <sup>22</sup>a leader from the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli; <sup>23</sup>from the sons of Joseph: a leader from the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod, <sup>24</sup>and a leader from the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan; <sup>25</sup>a leader from the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach; <sup>26</sup>a leader from the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan; <sup>27</sup>a leader from the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi; <sup>28</sup>and a leader from the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.”

Cities for the Levites

35 <sup>1</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Command the children of Israel that they give the Levites cities to dwell in from the inheritance of their possession, and you shall also give the Levites common-land around the cities. <sup>3</sup>They shall have the cities to dwell in; and their common-land shall be for their cattle, for their herds, and for all their animals. <sup>4</sup>The common-land of the cities which you will give the Levites shall extend from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits all around. <sup>5</sup>And you shall measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, on the south side two thousand cubits, on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits. The city shall be in the middle. This shall belong to them as common-land for the cities.

<sup>64</sup>Now among the cities which you will give to the Levites you shall appoint six cities of refuge, to which a manslayer may flee. And to these you shall add forty-two cities. <sup>7</sup>So all the cities you will give to the Levites shall be forty-eight; these you shall give with their common-land. <sup>8</sup>And the cities which you will give shall be from the possession of the children of Israel; from the larger tribe you shall give many, from the smaller you shall give few. Each shall give some of its cities to the Levites, in proportion to the inheritance that each receives.”

Cities of Refuge

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup>then you shall appoint cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person accidentally may flee there. <sup>12</sup>They shall be cities of refuge for you from the avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation in judgment. <sup>13</sup>And of the cities which you give, you shall have six cities of refuge. <sup>14</sup>You shall appoint three cities on this side of the Jordan, and three cities you shall appoint in the land of Canaan, which will be cities of refuge. <sup>15</sup>These six cities shall be for refuge for the children of Israel, for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them, that anyone who kills a person accidentally may flee there.

<sup>16</sup>But if he strikes him with an iron implement, so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>17</sup>And if he strikes him with a stone in the hand, by which one could die, and he does die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>18</sup>Or if he strikes him with a wooden hand weapon, by which one could die, and he does die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>19</sup>The avenger of blood himself shall put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death. <sup>20</sup>If he pushes him out of hatred or, while lying in wait, hurls something at him so that he dies, <sup>21</sup>or in enmity he strikes him with his hand so that he dies, the one who struck him shall surely be put to death. He is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

<sup>22</sup>However, if he pushes him suddenly without enmity, or throws anything at him without lying in wait, <sup>23</sup>or uses a stone, by which a man could die, throwing it at him without seeing him, so that he dies, while he was not his enemy or seeking his harm, <sup>24</sup>then the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood according to these judgments. <sup>25</sup>So the congregation shall deliver the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall return him to the city of refuge where he had fled, and he shall remain there until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil. <sup>26</sup>But if the manslayer at any time goes outside the limits of the city of refuge where he fled, <sup>27</sup>and the avenger of blood finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, he shall not be guilty of blood, <sup>28</sup>because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.

<sup>29</sup>And these things shall be a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings. <sup>30</sup>Whoever kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the testimony of witnesses; but one witness is not sufficient testimony against a person for the death penalty. <sup>31</sup>Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death. <sup>32</sup>And you shall take no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, that he may return to dwell in the land before the death of the priest. <sup>33</sup>So you shall not pollute the land where you are; for blood defiles the land, and no atonement can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it. <sup>34</sup>Therefore do not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.’”

Politics & Government

The cities of refuge had the basic purpose of preventing private revenge, or vendetta (Num. 35:12). Criminal justice was the prerogative of the state, under the ultimate authority of God, who reserved vengeance for Himself (Deut. 32:35). The cities of refuge show how God delegated the right to punish to the state, and not to private parties.

Marriage of Female Heirs

36 <sup>1</sup>Now the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the chief fathers of the children of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And they said: “The LORD commanded my lord Moses to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters. <sup>3</sup>Now if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and it will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so it will be taken from the lot of our inheritance. <sup>4</sup>And when the Jubilee of the children of Israel comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

<sup>10</sup>Just as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad; <sup>11</sup>for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to the sons of their father’s brothers. <sup>12</sup>They were married into the families of the children of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father’s family.

The Book of Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy opens where the Book of Numbers closes: the Hebrew people are on the plains of Moab across the Jordan from Jericho (Num. 36:13; Deut. 1:1). The journey from Kadesh Barnea, which is reported to take 11 days (Deut. 1:2), was now over—after 40 years in the wilderness (1:3). Of the whole generation that refused to accept God’s promise of the land of Canaan (Num. 14:26–32), only three persons were left: Joshua, Caleb and Moses.

Except for a few introductory and concluding statements referring to Moses in the third person, the Book of Deuteronomy consists of Moses’ speeches to the people of Israel on the eve of their crossing the Jordan River to capture the Promised Land. In his first speech (chs. 1–4) he reviews the history of the people’s travels from Egypt to their current place on the eastern banks of the Jordan. His second speech (chs. 5–28) summarizes the commandments that God had given on Mount Sinai, including a second presentation of the Ten Commandments in ch. 5. The name “Deuteronomy,” which is derived from Latin and means “second law,” refers to this speech. The third speech (chs. 29–33) is Moses’ farewell and includes exhortations, songs, and blessings.

The structure of the book can be compared to a common ancient Near Eastern treaty format, found especially among the Hittites (see “The Book of Exodus” at Ex. 1:1). Such treaties began with a preamble and historical prologue (in Deuteronomy, the first speech), proceeded to the conditions and stipulations of the agreement (as in Moses’ second speech), declared the blessings and curses that would result from obedience or disobedience (Deut. 27; 28), called on heavenly witnesses (31:28), and provided for the care of the treaty document (31:24–29). Again we see God and His representative speaking in language and forms that would have been familiar to the original ancient Israelite audience.

The huge influence of Deuteronomy on the rest of the Old Testament is indisputable. Its highly distinct style appears throughout the historical books and in several of the Prophets, and it was very probably the book discovered in the temple that prompted the reforms of King Josiah (2 Kin. 22). Some scholars accept Moses as the author while others do not (particularly the account of Moses’ death in ch. 34). Nevertheless, even those who consider the earlier books of Genesis through Numbers to be carefully edited composites from different sources agree on the fundamental unity of Deuteronomy.

God's Mighty Acts

In his first speech (Deut. 1:6—4:43) Moses very carefully prepared his people to obey God and enter the land. He did so by showing what had brought them to this point—both disobedience (1:19–46) and obedience (2:1—3:22). Then he reminded them of the significance of those startling events at Sinai and of God's election of them to be His special people (4:1–43). This historical recital serves as the prologue to God's covenant with His chosen people (see “Covenantal Obedience” at Deut. 4:44).

• Deuteronomy 1:5—4:43

*DeuteronomyThe Previous Command to Enter Canaan

1:5 On this side of the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying, <sup>6</sup>“The LORD our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying: ‘You have dwelt long enough at this mountain. <sup>7</sup>Turn and take your journey, and go to the mountains of the Amorites, to all the neighboring places in the plain,<sup>a</sup> in the mountains and in the lowland, in the South and on the sea-coast, to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great river, the River Euphrates. <sup>8</sup>See, I have set the land before you; go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers—to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—to give to them and their descendants after them.’

Tribal Leaders Appointed

<sup>9</sup>“And I spoke to you at that time, saying: ‘I alone am not able to bear you. <sup>10</sup>The LORD your God has multiplied you, and here you are today, as the stars of heaven in multitude. <sup>11</sup>May the LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times more numerous than you are, and bless you as He has promised you! <sup>12</sup>How can I alone bear your problems and your burdens and your complaints? <sup>13</sup>Choose wise, understanding, and knowledgeable men from among your tribes, and I will make them heads over you.’ <sup>14</sup>And you answered me and said, ‘The thing which you have told us to do is good.’ <sup>15</sup>So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and knowledgeable men, and made them heads over you, leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, leaders of tens, and officers for your tribes.

<sup>16</sup>“Then I commanded your judges at that time, saying, ‘Hear the cases between your brethren, and judge righteously between a man and his brother or the stranger who is with him. <sup>17</sup>You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid in any man's presence, for the judgment is God's. The case that is too hard for you, bring to me, and I will hear it.’ <sup>18</sup>And I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do.

Israel's Refusal to Enter the Land

<sup>19</sup>“So we departed from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw on the way to the mountains of the Amorites, as the LORD our God had commanded us. Then we came to Kadesh Barnea. <sup>20</sup>And I said to you, ‘You have come to the mountains of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us. <sup>21</sup>Look, the LORD your God has set the land before you; go up and possess it, as the LORD God of your fathers has spoken to you; do not fear or be discouraged.’

<sup>22</sup>“And every one of you came near to me and said, ‘Let us send men before us, and let them search out the land for us, and bring back word to us of the way by which we should go up, and of the cities into which we shall come.’

<sup>23</sup>“The plan pleased me well; so I took twelve of your men, one man from each tribe. <sup>24</sup>And they departed and went up into the mountains, and came to the Valley of Eshcol, and spied it out. <sup>25</sup>They also took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us; and they brought back word to us, saying, ‘It is a good land which the LORD our God is giving us.’

<sup>26</sup>“Nevertheless you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God; <sup>27</sup>and you complained in your tents, and said, ‘Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. <sup>28</sup>Where can we go up? Our brethren have discouraged our hearts, saying, ‘The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to heaven; moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.’”

<sup>29</sup>“Then I said to you, ‘Do not be terrified, or afraid of them. <sup>30</sup>The LORD your God, who goes before you, He will fight for you, according to all He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>31</sup>and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way that you went until you came to this place.’ <sup>32</sup>Yet, for all that, you did not believe the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup>who went in the way before you to search out a place for you to pitch your tents, to show you the way you should go, in the fire by night and in the cloud by day.

The Penalty for Israel's Rebellion

<sup>34</sup>“And the LORD heard the sound of your words, and was angry, and took an oath, saying,

1:7 <sup>a</sup>Hebrew arabah

<sup>35</sup>Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see that good land of which I swore to give to your fathers, <sup>36</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and his children I am giving the land on which he walked, because he wholly followed the LORD.' <sup>37</sup>The LORD was also angry with me for your sakes, saying, 'Even you shall not go in there.' <sup>38</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there. Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

<sup>39</sup>Moreover your little ones and your children, who you say will be victims, who today have no knowledge of good and evil, they shall go in there; to them I will give it, and they shall possess it. <sup>40</sup>But as for you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea.'

<sup>41</sup>"Then you answered and said to me, 'We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' And when everyone of you had girded on his weapons of war, you were ready to go up into the mountain.

<sup>42</sup>"And the LORD said to me, 'Tell them, "Do not go up nor fight, for I am not among you; lest you be defeated before your enemies."' <sup>43</sup>So I spoke to you; yet you would not listen, but rebelled against the command of the LORD, and presumptuously went up into the mountain. <sup>44</sup>And the Amorites who dwelt in that mountain came out against you and chased you as bees do, and drove you back from Seir to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>Then you returned and wept before the LORD, but the LORD would not listen to your voice nor give ear to you.

<sup>46</sup>"So you remained in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you spent there.

Trade & Economics

Coins were not struck until late in the 7th century B.C. However, it had long been possible to use pieces of gold, silver, or bronze in bartering and exchange (Deut. 2:6). Like the earliest coins, such pieces of metal were not tokens, but were used in consideration of their intrinsic value and exchanged by actual weight.

The Desert Years

2 <sup>1</sup>"Then we turned and journeyed into the wilderness of the Way of the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me, and we skirted Mount Seir for many days.

<sup>2</sup>"And the LORD spoke to me, saying: <sup>3</sup>"You have skirted this mountain long enough; turn northward. <sup>4</sup>And command the people, saying, "You are about to pass through the territory of your brethren, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. Therefore watch yourselves carefully. <sup>5</sup>Do not meddle with them, for I will not give you any of their land, no, not so much as one footstep, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession. <sup>6</sup>You shall buy food from them with money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water from them with money, that you may drink.

<sup>7</sup>"For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand. He knows your toiling through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing."

<sup>8</sup>"And when we passed beyond our brethren, the descendants of Esau who dwell in Seir, away from the road of the plain, away from Elath and Ezion Geber, we turned and passed by way of the Wilderness of Moab. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to me, 'Do not harass Moab, nor contend with them in battle, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as a possession.'

<sup>10</sup>(The Emim had dwelt there in times past, a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anakim. <sup>11</sup>They were also regarded as giants,<sup>a</sup> like the Anakim, but the Moabites call them Emim. <sup>12</sup>The Horites formerly dwelt in Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their place, just as Israel did to the land of their possession which the LORD gave them.)

<sup>13</sup>"Now rise and cross over the Valley of the Zered.' So we crossed over the Valley of the Zered. <sup>14</sup>And the time we took to come from Kadesh Barnea until we crossed over the Valley of the Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of war was consumed from the midst of the camp, just as the LORD had sworn to them. <sup>15</sup>For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp until they were consumed.

<sup>20</sup>(That was also regarded as a land of giants;<sup>a</sup> giants formerly dwelt there. But the Ammonites call them Zamzummim, <sup>21</sup>a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anakim. But the LORD destroyed them before them, and they dispossessed them and dwelt in their place,<sup>22</sup> just as He had done for the descendants of Esau, who dwelt in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them. They dispossessed them and dwelt in their place, even to this day.<sup>23</sup> And the Avim, who dwelt in villages as far as Gaza—the Caph-torim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and dwelt in their place.)

<sup>24</sup>“Rise, take your journey, and cross over the River Arnon. Look, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to possess it, and engage him in battle.<sup>25</sup> This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the nations under the whole heaven, who shall hear the report of you, and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you.’

King Sihon Defeated

<sup>30</sup>“But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass through, for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, that He might deliver him into your hand, as it is this day.

<sup>31</sup>“And the LORD said to me, ‘See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land over to you. Begin to possess it, that you may inherit his land.’<sup>32</sup> Then Sihon and all his people came out against us to fight at Jahaz.<sup>33</sup> And the LORD our God delivered him over to us; so we defeated him, his sons, and all his people.<sup>34</sup> We took all his cities at that time, and we utterly destroyed the men, women, and little ones of every city; we left none remaining.<sup>35</sup> We took only the livestock as plunder for ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we took.<sup>36</sup> From Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and from the city that is in the ravine, as far as Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us; the LORD our God delivered all to us.<sup>37</sup> Only you did not go near the land of the people of Ammon—anywhere along the River Jabbok, or to the cities of the mountains, or wherever the LORD our God had forbidden us.

King Og Defeated

3<sup>1</sup>“Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan; and Og king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.<sup>2</sup> And the LORD said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand; you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.’

<sup>3</sup>“So the LORD our God also delivered into our hands Og king of Bashan, with all his people, and we attacked him until he had no survivors remaining.<sup>4</sup> And we took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.<sup>5</sup> All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many rural towns.<sup>6</sup> And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city.<sup>7</sup> But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities we took as booty for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup>“And at that time we took the land from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were on this side of the Jordan, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon<sup>9</sup> (the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir),<sup>10</sup> all the cities of the plain, all Gilead, and all Bashan, as far as Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

<sup>11</sup>“For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the giants.<sup>a</sup> Indeed his bedstead was an iron bedstead. (Is it not in Rabbah of the people of Ammon?) Nine cubits is its length and four cubits its width, according to the standard cubit.

The Land East of the Jordan Divided

<sup>12</sup>“And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, and half the mountains of Gilead and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites.<sup>13</sup> The rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh. (All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of the giants.<sup>a</sup>)<sup>14</sup> Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and called Bashan after his own name, Havoth Jair;<sup>a</sup> to this day.)

<sup>15</sup>“Also I gave Gilead to Machir.<sup>16</sup> And to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave from Gilead as far as the River Arnon, the middle of the river as the border, as far as the River Jabbok, the border of the people of Ammon;<sup>17</sup> the plain also, with the Jordan as the border, from Chinnereth as far as the east side of the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

<sup>18</sup>“Then I commanded you at that time, saying: ‘The LORD your God has given you this land to possess. All you men of valor shall cross over armed before your brethren, the children of Israel. <sup>19</sup>But your wives, your little ones, and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall stay in your cities which I have given you, <sup>20</sup>until the LORD has given rest to your brethren as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan. Then each of you may return to his possession which I have given you.'

<sup>21</sup>'And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, 'Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so will the LORD do to all the kingdoms through which you pass. <sup>22</sup>You must not fear them, for the LORD your God Himself fights for you.'

Moses Forbidden to Enter the Land

<sup>23</sup>'Then I pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying: <sup>24</sup>O Lord GOD, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand, for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do anything like Your works and Your mighty deeds? <sup>25</sup>I pray, let me cross over and see the good land beyond the Jordan, those pleasant mountains, and Lebanon.'

<sup>26</sup>'But the LORD was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me. So the LORD said to me: 'Enough of that! Speak no more to Me of this matter. <sup>27</sup>Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift your eyes toward the west, the north, the south, and the east; behold it with your eyes, for you shall not cross over this Jordan. <sup>28</sup>But command Joshua, and encourage him and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you will see.'

Moses Commands Obedience

4 <sup>1</sup>'Now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments which I teach you to observe, that you may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you. <sup>2</sup>You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. <sup>3</sup>Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at Baal Peor; for the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men who followed Baal of Peor. <sup>4</sup>But you who held fast to the LORD your God are alive today, every one of you.

<sup>5</sup>'Surely I have taught you statutes and judgments, just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should act according to them in the land which you go to possess. <sup>6</sup>Therefore be careful to observe them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes, and say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.'

<sup>7</sup>'For what great nation is there that has God so near to it, as the LORD our God is to us, for whatever reason we may call upon Him? <sup>8</sup>And what great nation is there that has such statutes and righteous judgments as are in all this law which I set before you this day? <sup>9</sup>Only take heed to yourself, and diligently keep yourself, lest you forget the things your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. And teach them to your children and your grandchildren, <sup>10</sup>especially concerning the day you stood before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said to me, 'Gather the people to Me, and I will let them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.'

<sup>11</sup>'Then you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the midst of heaven, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of the words, but saw no form; you only heard a voice. <sup>13</sup>So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, the Ten Commandments; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone. <sup>14</sup>And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might observe them in the land which you cross over to possess.

Beware of Idolatry

Arts & Literature

The art of the ancient Near East was fundamentally at the service of the nobility, who held the powers of religion and of government. For this reason most of the persons depicted are kings or gods (Deut. 4:16). In Egypt, the statues of kings were much bigger than the statues of the gods. The Jews did not make any statues of God.

the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be His people, an inheritance, as you are this day. <sup>21</sup>Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I would not cross over the Jordan, and that I would not enter the good land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance. <sup>22</sup>But I must die in this land, I must not cross over the Jordan; but you shall cross over and possess that good land. <sup>23</sup>Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you. <sup>24</sup>For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

<sup>25</sup>“When you beget children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, and act corruptly and make a carved image in the form of anything, and do evil in the sight of the LORD your God to provoke Him to anger, <sup>26</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess; you will not prolong your days in it, but will be utterly destroyed. <sup>27</sup>And the LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD will drive you. <sup>28</sup>And there you will serve gods, the work of men’s hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell. <sup>29</sup>But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find Him if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>30</sup>When you are in distress, and all these things come upon you in the latter days, when you turn to the LORD your God and obey His voice <sup>31</sup>(for the LORD your God is a merciful God), He will not forsake you nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.

<sup>32</sup>“For ask now concerning the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and ask from one end of heaven to the other, whether any great thing like this has happened, or anything like it has been heard. <sup>33</sup>Did any people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live? <sup>34</sup>Or did God ever try to go and take for Himself a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? <sup>35</sup>To you it was shown, that you might know that the LORD Himself is God; there is none other besides Him. <sup>36</sup>Out of heaven He let you hear His voice, that He might instruct you; on earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the midst of the fire.

Cities of Refuge East of the Jordan

<sup>41</sup>Then Moses set apart three cities on this side of the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun, <sup>42</sup>that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without having hated him in time past, and that by fleeing to one of these cities he might live: <sup>43</sup>Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau for the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.

TRANSITION

Covenantal Obedience

A brief introduction (Deut. 4:44–49) describes the setting for Moses’ second speech, explaining how Israel arrived on the east side of the Jordan. The first section of the speech (chs. 5–11) summarizes the covenant obligations, and explains what the “statutes and judgments” are about and why obedience to them would be crucial for Israel to enjoy the covenant blessings. The second section (12:1–26:19) lists specific requirements, intermingling civil, ceremonial, and moral laws.

In this speech Moses reminds the people of their covenant obligations to be kept when they enter the land. It is plain, especially in chs. 6–11, that his purpose was not primarily informational, but motivational. His concern was to ensure that they would obey what they knew.

Introduction to God’s Law

4:44 Now this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel. <sup>45</sup>These are the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which Moses spoke to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt, <sup>46</sup>on this side of the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, in the land

How Is an Idol a God? (Deut. 5:8, 9)

The prohibition of Deut. 5:8, 9 reflects a world where bowing down to idols meant worshiping not just images, but deities. Representations of gods in human, animal, or abstract forms were everywhere in the ancient Near East. Scattered from Egypt through Syria-Palestine and throughout Mesopotamia were local temples housing these images.

Beliefs differed as to whether or not gods were really there in the statues. In Egypt the gods were understood to be always in heaven above the human world, yet always in the images as well. The statues were considered to be the body of the god into which the presence of the deity entered. For this reason the body was clothed, bathed, and fed as one would care for a ruler. Since heavenly deities were invisible, the statues were normally kept in the dark, inner room of the temples away from the eyes of the people. Except for feast days when the image was brought out on procession, only the attending priests were allowed into the image's presence.

In Mesopotamia the understanding of images was slightly different. The image was considered only wood, stone, or metal as long as it was being fashioned. However, once it was set up in the temple, a lengthy ritual called "opening the mouth" changed the nature of the image. Through this religious ritual the deity supposedly entered the statue so that the idol became the god and, at that point, could receive praise, bestow blessings, and grant favors. The image was understood to be a gift of the god who dwelt within it. Therefore, any image that was looted in warfare was taken as absolute proof that the favor of the deity had passed to the victors.

In contrast to the Egyptians and Mesopotamians, Israel's worship was to be imageless. The commandment in Deut. 5:8, 9 condemns the fashioning of any image: "any likeness of anything." Moreover, the commandment even forbids making an image of the God of Israel.

of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel defeated after they came out of Egypt.<sup>47</sup> And they took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, who were on this side of the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun,<sup>48</sup> from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, even to Mount Sion<sup>a</sup> (that is, Hermon),<sup>49</sup> and all the plain on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

The Ten Commandments Reviewed

5 <sup>1</sup>And Moses called all Israel, and said to them: "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to observe them. <sup>2</sup>The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. <sup>3</sup>The LORD did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, those who are here today, all of us who are alive. <sup>4</sup>The LORD talked with you face to face on the mountain from the midst of the fire. <sup>5</sup>I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up the mountain. He said: <sup>6</sup> 'I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>7</sup> 'You shall have no other gods before Me. <sup>8</sup> 'You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; <sup>9</sup>you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,<sup>10</sup> but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

- <sup>11</sup> 'You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.
- <sup>12</sup> 'Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. <sup>13</sup>Six days you shall labor and do all your work, <sup>14</sup>but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates, that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. <sup>15</sup>And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.
- <sup>16</sup> 'Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, that your days may be long, and that it may be well with you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
- <sup>17</sup> 'You shall not murder.
- <sup>18</sup> 'You shall not commit adultery.
- <sup>19</sup> 'You shall not steal.
- <sup>20</sup> 'You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

4:48 <sup>a</sup>Syriac reads Sirion (compare 3:9).

21 ‘You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife; and you shall not desire your neighbor’s house, his field, his male servant, his female servant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor’s.’

22“These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly, in the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and He added no more. And He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

The People Afraid of God’s Presence

23“So it was, when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders. 24And you said: ‘Surely the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire. We have seen this day that God speaks with man; yet he still lives. 25Now therefore, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God anymore, then we shall die. 26For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? 27You go near and hear all that the LORD our God may say, and tell us all that the LORD our God says to you, and we will hear and do it.’

28“Then the LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me: ‘I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They are right in all that they have spoken. 29Oh, that they had such a heart in them that they would fear Me and always keep all My commandments, that it might be well with them and with their children forever! 30Go and say to them, “Return to your tents.” 31But as for you, stand here by Me, and I will speak to you all the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may observe them in the land which I am giving them to possess.’

32“Therefore you shall be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. 33You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

The Greatest Commandment

6<sup>1</sup>“Now this is the commandment, and these are the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you, that you may observe them in the land which you are crossing over to possess, 2that you may fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged. 3Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe it, that it may be well with you, and that you may multiply greatly as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you—‘a land flowing with milk and honey.’<sup>a</sup>

4“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one!<sup>a</sup> 5You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.

6“And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. 7You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. 8You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. 9You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Caution Against Disobedience

10“So it shall be, when the LORD your God brings you into the land of which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you large and beautiful cities which you did not build, 11houses full of all good things, which you did not fill, hewn-out wells which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant—when you have eaten and are full— 12then beware, lest you forget the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. 13You shall fear the LORD your God and serve Him, and shall take oaths in His name. 14You shall not go after other gods, the gods of the peoples who are all around you 15(for the LORD your God is a jealous God among you), lest the anger of the LORD your God be aroused against you and destroy you from the face of the earth.

16“You shall not tempt the LORD your God as you tempted Him in Massah. 17You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, His testimonies, and His statutes which He has commanded you. 18And you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it

Beliefs & Ideas

The words beginning “Hear, O Israel” are the basic confession of Jewish faith (Deut. 6:4). They are called the Shema (the Hebrew word meaning “hear”). They have been repeated privately and in public liturgy continuously, from the time that they were first revealed until today. Written on parchment scrolls, they are attached to doorposts in a special container.

may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land of which the LORD swore to your fathers, <sup>19</sup>to cast out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.

<sup>20</sup>“When your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is the meaning of the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which the LORD our God has commanded you?’ <sup>21</sup>then you shall say to your son: ‘We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand; <sup>22</sup>and the LORD showed signs and wonders before our eyes, great and severe, against Egypt, Pharaoh, and all his household. <sup>23</sup>Then He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in, to give us the land of which He swore to our fathers. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that He might preserve us alive, as it is this day. <sup>25</sup>Then it will be righteousness for us, if we are careful to observe all these commandments before the LORD our God, as He has commanded us.’

Geography & Environment

The list of seven nations (Deut. 7:1) is a traditional list of the enemies that Israel encountered in Palestine (Josh. 3:10). The Hittites were from what is today Turkey. The Jebusites dwelt in Jerusalem and were conquered by David. “Canaanite” and “Amorite” are often used loosely to include all or most of the seven peoples.

A Chosen People

7 <sup>1</sup>“When the LORD your God brings you into the land which you go to possess, and has cast out many nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you, <sup>2</sup>and when the LORD your God delivers them over to you, you shall conquer them and utterly destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them nor show mercy to them. <sup>3</sup>Nor shall you make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter to their son, nor take their daughter for your son. <sup>4</sup>For they will turn your sons away from following Me, to serve other gods; so the anger of the LORD will be aroused against you and destroy you suddenly. <sup>5</sup>But thus you shall deal with them: you shall destroy their altars, and break down their sacred pillars, and cut down their wooden images,<sup>a</sup> and burn their carved images with fire.

<sup>6</sup>“For you are a holy people to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples on the face of the earth. <sup>7</sup>The LORD did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any other people, for you were the least of all peoples; <sup>8</sup>but because the LORD loves you, and because He would keep the oath which He swore to your fathers, the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>“Therefore know that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and mercy for a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His commandments; <sup>10</sup>and He repays those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be slack with him who hates Him; He will repay him to his face. <sup>11</sup>Therefore you shall keep the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments which I command you today, to observe them.

Blessings of Obedience

<sup>12</sup>“Then it shall come to pass, because you listen to these judgments, and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers. <sup>13</sup>And He will love you and bless you and multiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flock, in the land of which He swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>14</sup>You shall be blessed above all peoples; there shall not be a male or female barren among you or among your livestock. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will afflict you with none of the terrible diseases of Egypt which you have known, but will lay them on all those who hate you. <sup>16</sup>Also you shall destroy all the peoples whom the LORD your God delivers over to you; your eye shall have no pity on them; nor shall you serve their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

<sup>17</sup>“If you should say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?’— <sup>18</sup>you shall not be afraid of them, but you shall remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt: <sup>19</sup>the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs and the wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. <sup>20</sup>Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left, who hide themselves from you, are destroyed. <sup>21</sup>You shall not be terrified of them; for the LORD your God, the great and awesome God, is among you. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you little by little; you will be unable to destroy them at once, lest

PHARAOH, KING OF EGYPT (DEUT. 7:8)

Although the term “Pharaoh” is well known from Scripture, it was not the most common designation used by Egyptians for their monarch before the New Kingdom period (c. 1550 B.C.). In fact, it was not even used to refer to the Egyptian king until later in Egypt’s history.

The Egyptian term for “Pharaoh” means literally the “Great House.” Originally, it designated part of the large palatial complex at Memphis, one of the early capitals of Egypt in the 3rd millennium B.C. Soon thereafter, it denoted the Egyptian government itself—the king and his administration—not just the buildings from which they governed.

The process by which the king of Egypt became known as “Pharaoh” was gradual, involving various stages. In the first stage, sometime before Thutmose III became king (1479 B.C.), the title was occasionally applied to Egypt’s monarch. A more advanced stage occurred before the end of the New Kingdom period (c. 1069 B.C.) when the use of “Pharaoh” referring to the king moved from everyday speech into the official language of the country. From the time of King Shoshenq I (or Sheshonk, 945–924 B.C.), “Pharaoh” was added to the king’s official title.

The biblical writer uses the term as a common way of referring to the Egyptian king. God had delivered His people from bondage under “Pharaoh king of Egypt” (Deut. 7:8). This use reveals a knowledge of Egypt in the late 2nd and early 1st millenniums B.C.

The title “Pharaoh” highlights Israel’s climactic experience with Egypt’s king. The monarch of Egypt was considered the divine incarnation of Horus (the falcon god), as well as the son of Re (the sun god). Since Pharaoh was considered a god, the contest was between gods: the incarnate god of Egypt against the God of Israel, who spoke through His prophet Moses.

the beasts of the field become too numerous for you. <sup>23</sup>But the LORD your God will deliver them over to you, and will inflict defeat upon them until they are destroyed. <sup>24</sup>And He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you will destroy their name from under heaven; no one shall be able to stand against you until you have destroyed them. <sup>25</sup>You shall burn the carved images of their gods with fire; you shall not covet the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, lest you be snared by it; for it is an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>26</sup>Nor shall you bring an abomination into your house, lest you be doomed to destruction like it. You shall utterly detest it and utterly abhor it, for it is an accursed thing.

Remember the LORD Your God

8 <sup>1</sup>“Every commandment which I command you today you must be careful to observe, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers. <sup>2</sup>And you shall remember that the LORD your God led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you and test you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not. <sup>3</sup>So He humbled you, allowed you to hunger, and fed you with manna which you did not know nor did your fathers know, that He might make you know that man shall not live by bread alone; but man lives by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Your garments did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years. <sup>5</sup>You should know in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you.

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, that flow out of valleys and hills; <sup>8</sup>a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey; <sup>9</sup>a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing; a land whose stones are iron and out of whose hills you can dig copper. <sup>10</sup>When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you.

you out of the flinty rock; <sup>16</sup>who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers did not know, that He might humble you and that He might test you, to do you good in the end— <sup>17</sup>then you say in your heart, ‘My power and the might of my hand have gained me this wealth.’

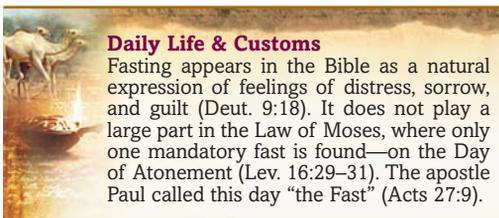

<sup>18</sup>“And you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day. <sup>19</sup>Then it shall be, if you by any means forget the LORD your God, and follow other gods, and serve them and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish. <sup>20</sup>As the nations which the LORD destroys before you, so you shall perish, because you would not be obedient to the voice of the LORD your God.

Israel's Rebellions Reviewed

9 <sup>1</sup>Hear, O Israel: You are to cross over the Jordan today, and go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to heaven, <sup>2</sup>a people great and tall, the descendants of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you heard it said, ‘Who can stand before the descendants of Anak?’ <sup>3</sup>Therefore understand today that the LORD your God is He who goes over before you as a consuming fire. He will destroy them and bring them down before you; so you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said to you.

<sup>4</sup>“Do not think in your heart, after the LORD your God has cast them out before you, saying, ‘Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land’; but it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is driving them out from before you. <sup>5</sup>It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you go in to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD your God drives them out from before you, and that He may fulfill the word which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>6</sup>Therefore understand that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a stiff-necked people.

Daily Life & Customs

Fasting appears in the Bible as a natural expression of feelings of distress, sorrow, and guilt (Deut. 9:18). It does not play a large part in the Law of Moses, where only one mandatory fast is found—on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:29–31). The apostle Paul called this day “the Fast” (Acts 27:9).

From the day that you departed from the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry enough with you to have destroyed you. <sup>9</sup>When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water. <sup>10</sup>Then the LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them were all the words which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. <sup>11</sup>And it came to pass, at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.

<sup>12</sup>“Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly; they have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a molded image.’

<sup>13</sup>“Furthermore the LORD spoke to me, saying, ‘I have seen this people, and indeed they are a stiff-necked people. <sup>14</sup>Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.’

<sup>15</sup>“So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire; and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup>And I looked, and behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God—had made for yourselves a molded calf! You had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you. <sup>17</sup>Then I took the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup>And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you committed in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger. <sup>19</sup>For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was angry with you, to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me at that time also. <sup>20</sup>And the LORD was very angry with Aaron and would have destroyed him; so I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. <sup>21</sup>Then I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it and ground it very small, until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that descended from the mountain.

<sup>22</sup>“Also at Taberah and Massah and Kibroth Hattaavah you provoked the LORD to wrath. <sup>23</sup>Likewise, when the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, ‘Go up and possess the land which I have given you,’ then you rebelled

ANNIHILATION OF THE GOLDEN CALF (DEUT. 9:21)

Moses did not want the people to forget their failure to remain devoted to Yahweh. He recalled for them the calf idol they had made, and that he had destroyed. Moses' actions in the matter possibly seem extreme: "I . . . burned it with fire and crushed it and ground it very small, until it was as fine as dust" (Deut. 9:21). Such actions, however, appear to have a parallel within Canaanite ritual.

Ritual annihilation of an enemy god was evidently common, at least in Canaan. A text from Ugarit (c. 1400–1200 B.C.), belonging to the Baal-Anath cycle of myths, describes a very similar destruction. The goddess Anath burns, grinds, and scatters the god Mot.

The Ugaritic ritual may not be the same ritual that is being described in Deut. 9:21. Nevertheless, the similarities suggest that Moses' annihilation of the idol calf was possibly a symbolic or ritualistic destruction known in Canaanite culture. It was not uncommon for Israelites and others to destroy enemy gods by breaking, burning, crushing, grinding, and scattering them, actions that possibly symbolized the utter defeat of the gods. In addition to Moses, two Judahite kings—Josiah (2 Kin. 23:4, 6, 15) and Asa (2 Chr. 15:16)—performed similar actions.

against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you did not believe Him nor obey His voice. <sup>24</sup>You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

<sup>25</sup>"Thus I prostrated myself before the LORD; forty days and forty nights I kept prostrating myself, because the LORD had said He would destroy you. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I prayed to the LORD, and said: 'O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup>Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or their sin, <sup>28</sup>lest the land from which You brought us should say, "Because the LORD was not able to bring them to the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness." <sup>29</sup>Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your outstretched arm.'

The Second Pair of Tablets

10 <sup>1</sup>"At that time the LORD said to me, 'Hew for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me on the mountain and make yourself an ark of wood. <sup>2</sup>And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; and you shall put them in the ark.'

<sup>3</sup>"So I made an ark of acacia wood, hewed two tablets of stone like the first, and went up the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. <sup>4</sup>And He wrote on the tablets according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, which the LORD had spoken to you in the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me. <sup>5</sup>Then I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are, just as the LORD commanded me."

<sup>6</sup>(Now the children of Israel journeyed from the wells of Bene Jaakan to Moserah, where Aaron died, and where he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his stead. <sup>7</sup>From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of rivers of water. <sup>8</sup>At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to Him and to bless in His name, to this day. <sup>9</sup>Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, just as the LORD your God promised him.)

<sup>10</sup>"As at the first time, I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights; the LORD also heard me at that time, and the LORD chose not to destroy you. <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, 'Arise, begin your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.'

The Essence of the Law

<sup>12</sup>"And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>13</sup>and to keep the commandments of the LORD and His statutes which I command you today for your good? <sup>14</sup>Indeed heaven and the highest heavens belong to the LORD your God, also the earth with all that is in it. <sup>15</sup>The LORD delighted only in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their descendants after them, you above all peoples, as it is this day. <sup>16</sup>Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and be stiff-necked no longer. <sup>17</sup>For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality nor takes a bribe. <sup>18</sup>He administers justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup>Therefore love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve Him, and to Him you shall hold fast, and take oaths in His name. <sup>21</sup>He is your praise, and He is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things which your eyes have seen. <sup>22</sup>Your fathers went down to Egypt with seventy persons, and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of heaven in multitude.

Love and Obedience Rewarded

11 <sup>1</sup>“Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep His charge, His statutes, His judgments, and His commandments always. <sup>2</sup>Know today that I do not speak with your children, who have not known and who have not seen the chastening of the LORD your God, His greatness and His mighty hand and His outstretched arm— <sup>3</sup>His signs and His acts which He did in the midst of Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to all his land; <sup>4</sup>what He did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and their chariots: how He made the waters of the Red Sea overflow them as they pursued you, and how the LORD has destroyed them to this day; <sup>5</sup>what He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place; <sup>6</sup>and what He did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, their households, their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel— <sup>7</sup>but your eyes have seen every great act of the LORD which He did.

<sup>8</sup>“Therefore you shall keep every commandment which I command you today, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land which you cross over to possess, <sup>9</sup>and that you may prolong your days in the land which the LORD swore to give your fathers, to them and their descendants, ‘a land flowing with milk and honey.’<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>For the land which you go to possess is not like the land of Egypt from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and watered it by foot, as a vegetable garden; <sup>11</sup>but the land which you cross over to possess is a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water from the rain of heaven, <sup>12</sup>a land for which the LORD your God cares; the eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the very end of the year.

<sup>13</sup>“And it shall be that if you earnestly obey My commandments which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>14</sup>then I<sup>a</sup> will give you the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil. <sup>15</sup>And I will send grass in your fields for your livestock, that you may eat and be filled.’ <sup>16</sup>Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>17</sup>lest the LORD's anger be aroused against you, and He shut up the heavens so that there be no rain, and the land yield no produce, and you perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is giving you.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore you shall lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. <sup>19</sup>You shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. <sup>20</sup>And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, <sup>21</sup>that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, like the days of the heavens above the earth.

<sup>22</sup>For if you carefully keep all these commandments which I command you to do—to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to hold fast to Him— <sup>23</sup>then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you will dispossess greater and mightier nations than yourselves. <sup>24</sup>Every place on which the sole of your foot treads shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the River Euphrates, even to the Western Sea,<sup>a</sup> shall be your territory. <sup>25</sup>No man shall be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will put the dread of you and the fear of you upon all the land where you tread, just as He has said to you.

<sup>26</sup>Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse: <sup>27</sup>the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you today; <sup>28</sup>and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known. <sup>29</sup>Now it shall be, when the LORD your God has brought you into the land which you go to possess, that you shall put the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal. <sup>30</sup>Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, toward the setting sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the plain opposite Gilgal, beside the terebinth trees of Moreh? <sup>31</sup>For you will cross over the Jordan and go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you will possess it and dwell in it. <sup>32</sup>And you shall be careful to observe all the statutes and judgments which I set before you today.

A Prescribed Place of Worship

12 <sup>1</sup>These are the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to observe in the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth. <sup>2</sup>You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree. <sup>3</sup>And you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and burn their wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place. <sup>4</sup>You shall not worship the LORD your God with such things.

<sup>5</sup>But you shall seek the place where the LORD your God chooses, out of all your tribes, to put His name for His dwelling place; and there you shall go. <sup>6</sup>There you shall take your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the heave offerings of your hand, your vowed offerings, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks. <sup>7</sup>And there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all to which you have put your hand, you and your households, in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

<sup>8</sup>You shall not at all do as we are doing here today—every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes— <sup>9</sup>for as yet you have not come to the rest and the inheritance which the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>10</sup>But when you cross over the Jordan and dwell in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety, <sup>11</sup>then there will be the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide. There you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the heave offerings of your hand, and all your choice offerings which you vow to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, since he has no portion nor inheritance with you. <sup>13</sup>Take heed to yourself that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see; <sup>14</sup>but in the place which the LORD chooses, in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.

<sup>15</sup>However, you may slaughter and eat meat within all your gates, whatever your heart desires, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you; the unclean and the

Religion & Worship

The religion of the Canaanites was centered on shrines located on hilltops scattered throughout the country (Deut. 12:3). The pillars or images were poles of some sort, wood or stone, sometimes decorated with carving, sometimes not (Deut. 16:21). They were not necessarily complete images like the statues of the Greeks and Romans.

11:24 <sup>a</sup>That is, the Mediterranean

clean may eat of it, of the gazelle and the deer alike. <sup>16</sup>Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it on the earth like water. <sup>17</sup>You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain or your new wine or your oil, of the firstborn of your herd or your flock, of any of your offerings which you vow, of your freewill offerings, or of the heave offering of your hand. <sup>18</sup>But you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God chooses, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all to which you put your hands. <sup>19</sup>Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.

<sup>20</sup>“When the LORD your God enlarges your border as He has promised you, and you say, ‘Let me eat meat,’ because you long to eat meat, you may eat as much meat as your heart desires. <sup>21</sup>If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, then you may slaughter from your herd and from your flock which the LORD has given you, just as I have commanded you, and you may eat within your gates as much as your heart desires. <sup>22</sup>Just as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you may eat them; the unclean and the clean alike may eat them. <sup>23</sup>Only be sure that you do not eat the blood, for the blood is the life; you may not eat the life with the meat. <sup>24</sup>You shall not eat it; you shall pour it on the earth like water. <sup>25</sup>You shall not eat it, that it may go well with you and your children after you, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD. <sup>26</sup>Only the holy things which you have, and your vowed offerings, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD chooses. <sup>27</sup>And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the meat.

<sup>28</sup>Observe and obey all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you and your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Beware of False Gods

<sup>29</sup>“When the LORD your God cuts off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you displace them and dwell in their land, <sup>30</sup>take heed to yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise.’ <sup>31</sup>You shall not worship the LORD your God in that way; for every abomination to the LORD which He hates they have done to their gods; for they burn even their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods.

<sup>32</sup>“Whatever I command you, be careful to observe it; you shall not add to it nor take away from it.

Punishment of Apostates

13 <sup>1</sup>If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder, <sup>2</sup>and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, ‘Let us go after other gods’—which you have not known—‘and let us serve them,’ <sup>3</sup>you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>4</sup>You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice; you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him. <sup>5</sup>But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken in order to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to entice you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall put away the evil from your midst.

<sup>6</sup>“If your brother, the son of your mother, your son or your daughter, the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, secretly entices you, saying, ‘Let us go and serve other gods,’ which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers, <sup>7</sup>of the gods of the people which are all around you, near to you or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth, <sup>8</sup>you shall not consent to him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare him or conceal him; <sup>9</sup>but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. <sup>10</sup>And you shall stone him with stones until he dies, because he sought to entice you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. <sup>11</sup>So all Israel shall hear and fear, and not again do such wickedness as this among you.

<sup>12</sup>If you hear someone in one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell in, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Corrupt men have gone out from among you and enticed the inhabitants of their city, saying, “Let us go and serve other gods”’—which you have not known— <sup>14</sup>then you shall inquire, search out, and ask diligently. And if it is indeed true and certain that such an abomination was committed among you, <sup>15</sup>you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it, all that is in it and its livestock—with the edge of the sword. <sup>16</sup>And you shall gather all its plunder into the middle of the street, and completely burn with fire the city and all its plunder, for the LORD your God. It shall be a heap forever; it shall not be built again. <sup>17</sup>So none of the accursed things shall remain in your hand, that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you and multiply you, just as He swore to your fathers, <sup>18</sup>because you have listened to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all His commandments which I command you today, to do what is right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Improper Mourning

14 <sup>1</sup>You are the children of the LORD your God; you shall not cut yourselves nor shave the front of your head for the dead. <sup>2</sup>For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

Clean and Unclean Meat

shall not eat their flesh or touch their dead carcasses.

<sup>9</sup>“These you may eat of all that are in the waters: you may eat all that have fins and scales. <sup>10</sup>And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.

<sup>21</sup>“You shall not eat anything that dies of itself; you may give it to the alien who is within your gates, that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner; for you are a holy people to the LORD your God.

“You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Plants & Animals

It is difficult to find a single principle that explains the rationale behind the specific assignment of animals to the clean and the unclean groups. The forbidden birds include all the birds of prey (Deut. 14:12). These birds eat food that they find already dead. This was considered objectionable for religion, though not necessarily unhealthy (Deut. 14:21).

Tithing Principles

<sup>22</sup>“You shall truly tithe all the increase of your grain that the field produces year by year. <sup>23</sup>And you shall eat before the LORD your God, in the place where He chooses to make His name abide, the tithe of your grain and your new wine and your oil, of the firstborn of your herds and your flocks, that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always. <sup>24</sup>But if the journey is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry the tithe, or if the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, when the LORD your God has blessed you, <sup>25</sup>then you shall exchange it for money, take the money in your hand, and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses. <sup>26</sup>And you shall spend that money for whatever your heart desires: for oxen or sheep, for wine or similar drink, for whatever your heart desires; you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household. <sup>27</sup>You shall not forsake the Levite who is within your gates, for he has no part nor inheritance with you.

TAXES IN UGARIT (DEUT. 14:22–29)

At the site of Tell Ras Shamra, along the Syrian coast, archaeologists discovered the northern Canaanite city of Ugarit. This city was the capital of a 2nd millennium kingdom by the same name. A fertile agricultural countryside and a flourishing port used by seagoing trade ships helped the kingdom of Ugarit become a prosperous commercial center. But the sea was also the city's downfall; Ugarit was destroyed around 1180 B.C. by the raids of the Sea Peoples. The inhabitants abandoned their homes; no village or city ever occupied the area again.

Excavations at the site of Ugarit have uncovered over 1,000 texts in an alphabetic cuneiform script, all of which come from the 14th to 12th centuries B.C. Most of the documents were written in Ugaritic, a language until recently unknown. Like biblical Hebrew, it is a Northwest Semitic language, and thus shares many linguistic characteristics with the written language of the Old Testament.

The Ugaritic texts illuminate many mythical, religious, social, and cultural elements in the Old Testament. In Deut. 14:22–29 the Israelites are required to pay a tithe of their grain produce. Similarly, some Ugaritic texts mention a tax, or tithe, in the form of royal decrees imposed on royal dependents in outlying towns subject to Ugarit. Evidently, these royal dependents were required to perform various duties as well as pay certain taxes to royal authorities. Whether there was a religious significance to this tithe, as there was with the Israelite tithe (Deut. 14:23), is not known with certainty.

<sup>28</sup>“At the end of every third year you shall bring out the tithe of your produce of that year and store it up within your gates. <sup>29</sup>And the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who are within your gates, may come and eat and be satisfied, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

Debts Canceled Every Seven Years

15 <sup>1</sup>At the end of every seven years you shall grant a release of debts. <sup>2</sup>And this is the form of the release: Every creditor who has lent anything to his neighbor shall release it; he shall not require it of his neighbor or his brother, because it is called the LORD's release. <sup>3</sup>Of a foreigner you may require it; but you shall give up your claim to what is owed by your brother, <sup>4</sup>except when there may be no poor among you; for the LORD will greatly bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance— <sup>5</sup>only if you carefully obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe with care all these commandments which I command you today. <sup>6</sup>For the LORD your God will bless you just as He promised you; you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you.

Generosity to the Poor

<sup>7</sup>“If there is among you a poor man of your brethren, within any of the gates in your land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother, <sup>8</sup>but you shall open your hand wide to him and willingly lend him sufficient for his need, whatever he needs. <sup>9</sup>Beware lest there be a wicked thought in your heart, saying, ‘The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand,’ and your eye be evil against your poor brother and you give him nothing, and he cry out to the LORD against you, and it become sin among you. <sup>10</sup>You shall surely give to him, and your heart should not be grieved when you give to him, because for this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your works and in all to which you put your hand. <sup>11</sup>For the poor will never cease from the land; therefore I command you, saying, ‘You shall open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor and your needy, in your land.’

The Law Concerning Bondservants

<sup>12</sup>“If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. <sup>13</sup>And when you send him away free from you, you shall not let him go away empty-handed; <sup>14</sup>you shall supply him liberally from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your winepress. From what the LORD has blessed you with, you shall give to him. <sup>15</sup>You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I command you this thing today. <sup>16</sup>And if it happens that he says to you, ‘I will not go away from you,’ because he loves you and your house, since he prospers with you, <sup>17</sup>then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also to your female servant you shall do likewise. <sup>18</sup>It shall not seem hard to you when you send him away free from you; for he has been worth a double hired servant in serving you six years. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

The Law Concerning Firstborn Animals

<sup>19</sup>“All the firstborn males that come from your herd and your flock you shall sanctify to the LORD your God; you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. <sup>20</sup>You and your household shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD chooses. <sup>21</sup>But if there is a defect in it, if it is lame or blind or has any serious defect, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. <sup>22</sup>You may eat it within your gates; the unclean and the clean person alike may eat it, as if it were a gazelle or a deer. <sup>23</sup>Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it on the ground like water.

The Passover Reviewed

16 <sup>1</sup>Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup>Therefore you shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, from the flock and the herd, in the place where the LORD chooses to put His name. <sup>3</sup>You shall eat no leavened bread with it; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, that is, the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste), that you may remember the day in which you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. <sup>4</sup>And no leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the meat which you sacrifice the first day at twilight remain overnight until morning.

<sup>5</sup>You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you; <sup>6</sup>but at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at twilight, at the going down of the sun, at the time you came out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And you shall roast and eat it in the place which the LORD your God chooses, and in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents. <sup>8</sup>Six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a sacred assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work on it.

The Feast of Weeks Reviewed

<sup>9</sup>You shall count seven weeks for yourself; begin to count the seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the grain. <sup>10</sup>Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses you. <sup>11</sup>You shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite who is within your gates, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who are among you, at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide. <sup>12</sup>And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall be careful to observe these statutes.

The Feast of Tabernacles Reviewed

<sup>13</sup>You shall observe the Feast of Tabernacles seven days, when you have gathered from your threshing floor and from your winepress. <sup>14</sup>And you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant and the Levite, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow, who are within your gates. <sup>15</sup>Seven days you shall keep a sacred feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you surely rejoice.

<sup>16</sup>Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles; and they shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed. <sup>17</sup>Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you.

Justice Must Be Administered

<sup>18</sup>You shall appoint judges and officers in all your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with just judgment. <sup>19</sup>You shall not pervert justice; you shall not show partiality,

APPOINTING JUST JUDGES (DEUT. 16:18–20)

The qualifications for choosing judges and officials were considered a serious matter in ancient cultures. Both Israel and Egypt had stipulations regarding the conduct of judges, emphasizing that a system of justice is only as good as the people who administer it.

Israel's law called for the selection of judges who would judge "with just judgment" (Deut. 16:18). The ideal of a just legal system was supported by prohibitions requiring that Israel's judges not "show partiality" or "take a bribe" (16:19).

The same ideal is evident in Egypt according to the Edict of Horemhab. Pharaoh Horemhab ruled for about 30 years (1323–1295 B.C.) in Egypt's 18th Dynasty, late in the 14th century B.C. For the administration of justice, the monarch looked for "people discreet and of good character, knowing how to judge the inmost thoughts, obedient to the instructions of the palace, and to the laws of the throne hall."

Horemhab claims to have taught these judges "the right course of life by guiding them to the truth." His advice to them was: "Do not associate with other people. Do not take bribes from others, for that will not turn out well." As the pharaoh advised his judges, he was clear in his warning concerning showing partiality: "Behold, (anyone) of you who makes common cause with another shall be for you as one who offends against truth."

These examples from Israel and Egypt demonstrate a common tradition in the ancient Near East about the appropriate administration of justice by legal officials. Bribes and partiality were not to be part of the system.

nor take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous. <sup>20</sup>You shall follow what is altogether just, that you may live and inherit the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>21</sup>“You shall not plant for yourself any tree, as a wooden image, near the altar which you build for yourself to the LORD your God. <sup>22</sup>You shall not set up a sacred pillar, which the LORD your God hates.

17 <sup>1</sup>“You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God a bull or sheep which has any blemish or defect, for that is an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup>“If there is found among you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, a man or a woman who has been wicked in the sight of the LORD your God, in transgressing His covenant, <sup>3</sup>who has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, either the sun or moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded, <sup>4</sup>and it is told you, and you hear of it, then you shall inquire diligently. And if it is indeed true and certain that such an abomination has been committed in Israel, <sup>5</sup>then you shall bring out to your gates that man or woman who has committed that wicked thing, and shall stone to death that man or woman with stones. <sup>6</sup>Whoever is deserving of death shall be put to death on the testimony of two or three witnesses; he shall not be put to death on the testimony of one witness. <sup>7</sup>The hands of the witnesses shall be the first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from among you.

<sup>8</sup>“If a matter arises which is too hard for you to judge, between degrees of guilt for bloodshed, between one judgment or another, or between one punishment or another, matters of controversy within your gates, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God chooses. <sup>9</sup>And you shall come to the priests, the Levites, and to the judge there in those days, and inquire of them; they shall pronounce upon you the sentence of judgment. <sup>10</sup>You shall do according to the sentence which they pronounce upon you in that place which the LORD chooses. And you shall be careful to do according to all that they order you. <sup>11</sup>According to the sentence of the law in which they instruct you, according to the judgment which they tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left from the sentence which they pronounce upon you. <sup>12</sup>Now the man who acts presumptuously and will not heed the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or the judge, that man shall die. So you shall put away the evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup>And all the people shall hear and fear, and no longer act presumptuously.

Principles Governing Kings

<sup>14</sup>“When you come to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and possess it and dwell in it, and say, ‘I will set a king over me like all the nations that are around me,’ <sup>15</sup>you shall surely set a king over you whom the LORD your God chooses; one from among your brethren you shall set as king over you; you may not set a foreigner over you, who is not your brother. <sup>16</sup>But he shall not multiply horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt to multiply horses, for the LORD has said to you, ‘You shall not return that way again.’ <sup>17</sup>Neither shall he multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and gold for himself.

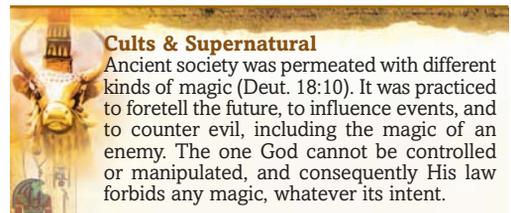

<sup>18</sup>“Also it shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book, from the one before the priests, the Levites. <sup>19</sup>And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God and be careful to observe all the words of this law and these statutes, <sup>20</sup>that his heart may not be lifted above his brethren, that he may not turn aside from the commandment to the right hand or to the left, and that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children in the midst of Israel.

The Portion of the Priests and Levites

18 <sup>1</sup>“The priests, the Levites—all the tribe of Levi—shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and His portion. <sup>2</sup>Therefore they shall have no inheritance among their brethren; the LORD is their inheritance, as He said to them.

<sup>3</sup>“And this shall be the priest’s due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it is bull or sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the cheeks, and the stomach. <sup>4</sup>The first-fruits of your grain and your new wine and your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons forever.

<sup>6</sup>“So if a Levite comes from any of your gates, from where he dwells among all Israel, and comes with all the desire of his mind to the place which the LORD chooses, <sup>7</sup>then he may serve in

Cults & Supernatural

Ancient society was permeated with different kinds of magic (Deut. 18:10). It was practiced to foretell the future, to influence events, and to counter evil, including the magic of an enemy. The one God cannot be controlled or manipulated, and consequently His law forbids any magic, whatever its intent.

OMENS, SPELLS, AND OTHER ABOMINATIONS (DEUT. 18:10, 11)

The Law of Moses banned all forms of foreign practices of divination. The various practices listed in Deut. 18:10, 11 were viewed as a subsidiary of magic. Often employed for divinatory oracles, these methods attempted to learn the will of the gods or to obtain knowledge of the future by other supernatural means. Sometimes the intent was to influence supernatural powers. All such practices were considered abominations of the Canaanite peoples (18:9, 13) and, as such, were forbidden in Israel.

All forms of divination were distinguished from inquiries of Israel's God. The use of the Urim and Thummim, the ephod, lots, and dreams were all legitimate methods of seeking Yahweh's will (1 Sam. 14:41; 23:9–12; 28:6). Divination practices, such as consulting a medium (1 Sam. 28:7–20), however, were illegitimate, even though some were believed to have power. They were not considered to be connected with the gods, but instead were seen as magic or wisdom arts, revealing secrets of God in a perverted way. Thus, the divinator trusted in signs and omens and in human wisdom rather than in God.

An example of pagan divination was teratology, the omen interpretation of birth anomalies. One omen portends: "If an anomalous birth has eight feet and two tails, a prince will seize universal kingship." Moreover, the recorder of this omen mentions a hunter who claimed that when his sow gave birth, the offspring did in fact have eight feet and two tails. Thus, this omen was preserved for posterity. In Israel, the law was clear: "There shall not be found among you . . . one who interprets omens" (18:10).

the name of the LORD his God as all his brethren the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD. <sup>8</sup>They shall have equal portions to eat, besides what comes from the sale of his inheritance.

Avoid Wicked Customs

<sup>9</sup>"When you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to follow the abominations of those nations. <sup>10</sup>There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or one who practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead. <sup>12</sup>For all who do these things are an abomination to the LORD, and because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you. <sup>13</sup>You shall be blameless before the LORD your God. <sup>14</sup>For these nations which you will dispossess listened to soothsayers and diviners; but as for you, the LORD your God has not appointed such for you.

A New Prophet Like Moses

<sup>15</sup>"The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your midst, from your brethren. Him you shall hear, <sup>16</sup>according to all you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, 'Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, nor let me see this great fire anymore, lest I die.'

<sup>17</sup>"And the LORD said to me: 'What they have spoken is good. <sup>18</sup>I will raise up for them a Prophet like you from among their brethren, and will put My words in His mouth, and He shall speak to them all that I command Him. <sup>19</sup>And it shall be that whoever will not hear My words, which He speaks in My name, I will require it of him. <sup>20</sup>But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.' <sup>21</sup>And if you say in your heart, 'How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?'— <sup>22</sup>when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

Three Cities of Refuge

19 <sup>1</sup>"When the LORD your God has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses, <sup>2</sup>you shall separate three cities for yourself in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess. <sup>3</sup>You shall prepare roads for yourself, and divide into three parts the territory of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, that any manslayer may flee there.

<sup>4</sup>"And this is the case of the manslayer who flees there, that he may live: Whoever kills his neighbor unintentionally, not having hated him in time past— <sup>5</sup>as when a man goes to the woods with his neighbor to cut timber, and his hand swings a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies—he shall flee to one of these cities and live; <sup>6</sup>lest the avenger of blood, while his anger is hot, pursue the manslayer and overtake him, because the way is long, and kill him, though he was not deserving of death, since he had not hated the victim in time past. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I command you, saying, 'You shall separate three cities for yourself.'

<sup>8</sup>"Now if the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as He swore to your fathers, and gives you the land which He promised to give to your fathers, <sup>9</sup>and if you keep all these commandments and do them, which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and to walk always in His ways, then you shall add three more cities for yourself besides these three,<sup>10</sup> lest innocent blood be shed in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and thus guilt of bloodshed be upon you.

<sup>11</sup>“But if anyone hates his neighbor, lies in wait for him, rises against him and strikes him mortally, so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities,<sup>12</sup> then the elders of his city shall send and bring him from there, and deliver him over to the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. <sup>13</sup>Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you.

Property Boundaries

<sup>14</sup>“You shall not remove your neighbor’s landmark, which the men of old have set, in your inheritance which you will inherit in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

The Law Concerning Witnesses

<sup>15</sup>“One witness shall not rise against a man concerning any iniquity or any sin that he commits; by the mouth of two or three witnesses the matter shall be established. <sup>16</sup>If a false witness rises against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing, <sup>17</sup>then both men in the controversy shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who serve in those days. <sup>18</sup>And the judges shall make careful inquiry, and indeed, if the witness is a false witness, who has testified falsely against his brother, <sup>19</sup>then you shall do to him as he thought to have done to his brother; so you shall put away the evil from among you. <sup>20</sup>And those who remain shall hear and fear, and hereafter they shall not again commit such evil among you. <sup>21</sup>Your eye shall not pity: life shall be for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Principles Governing Warfare

20 <sup>1</sup>“When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>So it shall be, when you are on the verge of battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people. <sup>3</sup>And he shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel: Today you are on the verge of battle with your enemies. Do not let your heart faint, do not be afraid, and do not tremble or be terrified because of them; <sup>4</sup>for the LORD your God is He who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’

<sup>5</sup>“Then the officers shall speak to the people, saying: ‘What man is there who has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it. <sup>6</sup>Also what man is there who has planted a vineyard and has not eaten of it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man eat of it. <sup>7</sup>And what man is there who is betrothed to a woman and has not married her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man marry her.’

<sup>8</sup>“The officers shall speak further to the people, and say, ‘What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest the heart of his brethren faint<sup>a</sup> like his heart.’ <sup>9</sup>And so it shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

<sup>10</sup>“When you go near a city to fight against it, then proclaim an offer of peace to it. <sup>11</sup>And it shall be that if they accept your offer of peace,

Bows were the most characteristic weapons of warfare in the Old Testament period, serving often as the decisive element in a battle.

Chariots served as mobile firing platforms and could bring great firepower quickly to the key point of the battle.

FINDING A DEAD BODY (DEUT. 21:1-9)

If a dead person was found in an open field, the Israelite people performed a very specific ritual (Deut. 21:1-9). In the event that an innocent person was murdered and no one was apprehended, the whole nation was held responsible. Therefore a sacrifice had to be made for all the people.

Finding a slain stranger in the open country was not a phenomenon unique to Israel. Hittite laws, compiled in the mid-2nd millennium B.C. in central Anatolia, also dealt with this issue, but with a different response than that of Deut. 21.

One Hittite law reads: "If a man is killed on the field (or) fallow of another man, in case he is a free man, he shall give field (and) fallow, house (and) 1½ lbs. of silver. In case it is a woman, he shall give 3 pounds of silver." Thus, according to Hittite law, the family of a murder victim would be compensated by the property owner of the land where the murder occurred.

Both the Israelites and Hittites had provisions regarding the community nearest to where the body of a slain person was found. In Israel, the leaders were instructed to "measure the distance from the slain man to the surrounding cities" (Deut. 21:2), and the elders of the nearest city were required to perform a ritual, killing a heifer to remove guilt from the community. The Hittites also measured: "a distance of three leagues in one direction and a distance of three leagues in the other direction." The village that fell within the measured area was required to pay compensation.

The Israelite and Hittite laws differ in some aspects. The Hittite text is devoid of the ritual significance found in Deut. 21, and therefore no provisions were made to pacify a deity that may have been offended by the death (presumably a homicide). For her part, Israel made no attempt to compensate the victim's family. Both cultures, however, had a sense of corporate responsibility, requiring certain actions of the nearest community.

and open to you, then all the people who are found in it shall be placed under tribute to you, and serve you. <sup>12</sup>Now if the city will not make peace with you, but war against you, then you shall besiege it. <sup>13</sup>And when the LORD your God delivers it into your hands, you shall strike every male in it with the edge of the sword. <sup>14</sup>But the women, the little ones, the livestock, and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you shall plunder for yourself; and you shall eat the enemies' plunder which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>15</sup>Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.

<sup>16</sup>But of the cities of these peoples which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, you shall let nothing that breathes remain alive, <sup>17</sup>but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, just as the LORD your God has commanded you, <sup>18</sup>lest they teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done for their gods, and you sin against the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>When you besiege a city for a long time, while making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them; if you can eat of them, do not cut them down to use in the siege, for the tree of the field is man's food. <sup>20</sup>Only the trees which you know are not trees for food you may destroy and cut down, to build siegeworks against the city that makes war with you, until it is subdued.

The Law Concerning Unsolved Murder

21 <sup>14</sup>If anyone is found slain, lying in the field in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him, <sup>2</sup>then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure the distance from the slain man to the surrounding cities. <sup>3</sup>And it shall be that the elders of the city nearest to the slain man will take a heifer which has not been worked and which has not pulled with a yoke. <sup>4</sup>The elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with flowing water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and they shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley. <sup>5</sup>Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; by their word every controversy and every assault shall be settled. <sup>6</sup>And all the elders of that city nearest to the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley. <sup>7</sup>Then they shall answer and say, 'Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it.' <sup>8</sup>Provide atonement, O LORD, for Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and do not lay innocent blood to the charge of Your people Israel.' And atonement shall be provided on their behalf for the blood. <sup>9</sup>So you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Female Captives

<sup>10</sup>When you go out to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hand, and you take them captive, <sup>11</sup>and you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and desire her and would take her for your wife, <sup>12</sup>then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails. <sup>13</sup>She shall put off the clothes of her captivity, remain in your house, and mourn her father and her mother a full month; after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. <sup>14</sup>And it shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall set her free, but you certainly shall not sell her for money; you shall not treat her brutally, because you have humbled her.

Firstborn Inheritance Rights

<sup>15</sup>If a man has two wives, one loved and the other unloved, and they have borne him children, both the loved and the unloved, and if the firstborn son is of her who is unloved, <sup>16</sup>then it shall be, on the day he bequeaths his possessions to his sons, that he must not bestow firstborn status on the son of the loved wife in preference to the son of the unloved, the true firstborn. <sup>17</sup>But he shall acknowledge the son of the unloved wife as the firstborn by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his.

The Rebellious Son

<sup>18</sup>If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and who, when they have chastened him, will not heed them, <sup>19</sup>then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city, to the gate of his city. <sup>20</sup>And they shall say to the elders of his city, 'This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.' <sup>21</sup>Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones; so you shall put away the evil from among you, and all Israel shall hear and fear.

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>22</sup>If a man has committed a sin deserving of death, and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree, <sup>23</sup>his body shall not remain overnight on the tree, but you shall surely bury him that day, so that you do not defile the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance; for he who is hanged is accursed of God.

22 <sup>1</sup>You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep going astray, and hide yourself from them; you shall certainly bring them back to your brother. <sup>2</sup>And if your brother is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until your brother seeks it; then you shall restore it to him. <sup>3</sup>You shall do the same with his donkey, and so shall you do with his garment; with any lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found, you shall do likewise; you must not hide yourself.

<sup>4</sup>You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fall down along the road, and hide yourself from them; you shall surely help him lift them up again.

<sup>5</sup>A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all who do so are an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>6</sup>If a bird's nest happens to be before you along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, with the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young; <sup>7</sup>you shall surely let the mother go, and take the young for yourself, that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days.

<sup>8</sup>When you build a new house, then you shall make a parapet for your roof, that you may not bring guilt of bloodshed on your household if anyone falls from it.

<sup>9</sup>You shall not sow your vineyard with different kinds of seed, lest the yield of the seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard be defiled.

Laws of Sexual Morality

<sup>13</sup>If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and detests her, <sup>14</sup>and charges her with shameful conduct, and brings a bad name on her, and says, 'I took this woman, and when I came to her I found she was not a virgin,' <sup>15</sup>then the father and mother of the young woman shall take and bring out the evidence of the young woman's virginity to the elders of the city at the gate. <sup>16</sup>And the young woman's father shall say to the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man as wife, and he detests her. <sup>17</sup>Now he has charged her with shameful conduct, saying, "I found your daughter was not a virgin," and yet these are the evidences of my daughter's virginity.' And they shall

THE SLANDERED BRIDE FROM NIPPUR (DEUT. 22:13–19)

Israelite society had laws governing how a husband could treat a new wife. The law of Deut. 22:13–19 prohibits a man from obtaining a divorce merely by questioning her virginity and slandering her name (22:14). A woman so accused was permitted to produce evidence of her fidelity. Should she be vindicated, the husband was fined 100 shekels of silver and forbidden to divorce her for the rest of his life (22:19).

Rejecting a new wife was not unique to Israel. A Sumerian marriage contract from Nippur describes a certain Enlil-issu, a priest of Enlil (the chief deity of the Sumerian pantheon). Enlil-issu took the woman Ama-sukkal as his wife, and the new wife brought 19 shekels of silver to her spouse. The contract stipulates that if Enlil-issu rejects his bride, the 19 shekels must be returned, as well as a half mina of silver (approximately 30 shekels). If the wife rejects her husband, the payment is exactly the same. No reasons are given for the potential separation.

All did not go well. Later on, the couple had their day in court, apparently before the consummation of the marriage. Ama-sukkal was not convicted of speaking against her husband, but Enlil-issu was convicted of slandering and abusing his wife, to which he responded, “You may convict me (even) more than now; (still) I will not marry her. Let them imprison me and (then) I will pay the money (instead).”

There are differences between the Israelite and Sumerian laws. The virginity of the Sumerian bride is not an issue in the Nippur contract, while virginity was the primary issue in the Israelite law. Nevertheless, we see that in both cultures a new bride was protected to some degree from being rejected unjustly, slandered, and consequently divorced.

spread the cloth before the elders of the city.<sup>18</sup> Then the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him; <sup>19</sup>and they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought a bad name on a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he cannot divorce her all his days.

<sup>20</sup>“But if the thing is true, and evidences of virginity are not found for the young woman, <sup>21</sup>then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done a disgraceful thing in Israel, to play the harlot in her father’s house. So you shall put away the evil from among you.

<sup>22</sup>“If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then both of them shall die—the man that lay with the woman, and the woman; so you shall put away the evil from Israel.

is this matter. <sup>27</sup>For he found her in the countryside, and the betrothed young woman cried out, but there was no one to save her.

<sup>28</sup>“If a man finds a young woman who is a virgin, who is not betrothed, and he seizes her and lies with her, and they are found out, <sup>29</sup>then the man who lay with her shall give to the young woman’s father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife because he has humbled her; he shall not be permitted to divorce her all his days.

Those Excluded from the Congregation

23 <sup>1</sup>“He who is emasculated by crushing or mutilation shall not enter the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation none of his descendants shall enter the assembly of the LORD forever, <sup>4</sup>because they did not meet you with bread and water on the road when you came out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia,<sup>4</sup> to curse you. <sup>5</sup>Nevertheless the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loves you. <sup>6</sup>You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever.

<sup>7</sup>“You shall not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. You shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you were an alien in his land. <sup>8</sup>The children of the third generation born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

23:4 <sup>4</sup>Hebrew Aram Naharaim

Cleanliness of the Campsite

<sup>9</sup>“When the army goes out against your enemies, then keep yourself from every wicked thing. <sup>10</sup>If there is any man among you who becomes unclean by some occurrence in the night, then he shall go outside the camp; he shall not come inside the camp. <sup>11</sup>But it shall be, when evening comes, that he shall wash with water; and when the sun sets, he may come into the camp.

<sup>12</sup>“Also you shall have a place outside the camp, where you may go out; <sup>13</sup>and you shall have an implement among your equipment, and when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and turn and cover your refuse. <sup>14</sup>For the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and give your enemies over to you; therefore your camp shall be holy, that He may see no unclean thing among you, and turn away from you.

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>15</sup>“You shall not give back to his master the slave who has escaped from his master to you. <sup>16</sup>He may dwell with you in your midst, in the place which he chooses within one of your gates, where it seems best to him; you shall not oppress him.

<sup>17</sup>“There shall be no ritual harlot<sup>a</sup> of the daughters of Israel, or a perverted<sup>b</sup> one of the sons of Israel. <sup>18</sup>You shall not bring the wages of a harlot or the price of a dog to the house of the LORD your God for any vowed offering, for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>“You shall not charge interest to your brother—interest on money or food or anything that is lent out at interest. <sup>20</sup>To a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your brother you shall not charge interest, that the LORD your God may bless you in all to which you set your hand in the land which you are entering to possess.

<sup>21</sup>“When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay to pay it; for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and it would be sin to you. <sup>22</sup>But if you abstain from vowing, it shall not be sin to you. <sup>23</sup>That which has gone from your lips you shall keep and perform, for you voluntarily vowed to the LORD your God what you have promised with your mouth.

Cults & Supernatural

Ritual harlots, known as cultic prostitutes, were forbidden in Israel (Deut. 23:17). Sacred prostitution and sexual rituals, practiced in shrines by the Phoenicians, and probably also by the Canaanites, were thought to bring fertility to the land. The connection of prostitutes with religion and ritual is hinted at in the Bible, but no details are explained, and little is really known about it.

<sup>24</sup>“When you come into your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes at your pleasure, but you shall not put any in your container. <sup>25</sup>When you come into your neighbor’s standing grain, you may pluck the heads with your hand, but you shall not use a sickle on your neighbor’s standing grain.

Law Concerning Divorce

24 <sup>1</sup>“When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some uncleanness in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, <sup>2</sup>when she has departed from his house, and goes and becomes another man’s wife, <sup>3</sup>if the latter husband detests her and writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her as his wife, <sup>4</sup>then her former husband who divorced her must not take her back to be his wife after she has been defiled; for that is an abomination before the LORD, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>5</sup>“When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war or be charged with any business; he shall be free at home one year, and bring happiness to his wife whom he has taken.

<sup>6</sup>“No man shall take the lower or the upper millstone in pledge, for he takes one’s living in pledge.

<sup>7</sup>“If a man is found kidnapping any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and mistreats him or sells him, then that kidnapper shall die; and you shall put away the evil from among you.

<sup>8</sup>“Take heed in an outbreak of leprosy, that you carefully observe and do according to all that the priests, the Levites, shall teach you; just as I commanded them, so you shall be careful to do. <sup>9</sup>Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on the way when you came out of Egypt!

TAKING OFF THE SANDALS (DEUT. 25:5–10)

The countries of the Bible are warm and dry much of the year. Although shoes, covering the entire foot, are sometimes depicted in ancient pictures, sandals were the natural and more common foot covering for that climate. The simple act of removing a sandal carried symbolic meaning for ancient people.

Sandals were such personal items that they symbolically represented their owner in some legal transactions. In one type of business transaction, removal of the sandal confirmed an exchange of buying and selling. Such an exchange could even include the acquisition of a wife (Ruth 4:7–10). Yet a different legal transaction involved the breakdown of family and social obligations. A woman had a right to bear children to her deceased husband. If her brother-in-law refused her that right, she could publicly humiliate him, indicating such by removing his sandal (Deut. 25:7–10).

Sandals were also removed to symbolize the presence of holy ground. Because shoes tread through dust and dirt, they are symbolically dirty to Muslims; thus, they are taken off before entering holy places like mosques. This Muslim custom reflects the attitude that shoes, dirty as they are, should not desecrate holy places. This same attitude appears in the Old Testament. Both Moses before the burning bush (Ex. 3:5) and Joshua before the “Commander of the LORD’s army” (Josh. 5:15) were instructed to remove their sandals, for they stood on “holy ground.”

<sup>14</sup>“You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether one of your brethren or one of the aliens who is in your land within your gates. <sup>15</sup>Each day you shall give him his wages, and not let the sun go down on it, for he is poor and has set his heart on it; lest he cry out against you to the LORD, and it be sin to you.

<sup>17</sup>“You shall not pervert justice due the stranger or the fatherless, nor take a widow’s garment as a pledge. <sup>18</sup>But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I command you to do this thing.

<sup>19</sup>“When you reap your harvest in your field, and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. <sup>20</sup>When you beat your olive trees, you shall not go over the boughs again; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow. <sup>21</sup>When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow. <sup>22</sup>And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I command you to do this thing.

25 <sup>1</sup>“If there is a dispute between men, and they come to court, that the judges may judge them, and they justify the righteous and condemn the wicked, <sup>2</sup>then it shall be, if the wicked man deserves to be beaten, that the judge will cause him to lie down and be beaten in his presence, according to his guilt, with a certain number of blows. <sup>3</sup>Forty blows he may give him and no more, lest he should exceed this and beat him with many blows above these, and your brother be humiliated in your sight.

Marriage Duty of the Surviving Brother

<sup>5</sup>“If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the widow of the dead man shall not be married to a stranger outside the family; her husband’s brother shall go in to her, take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her. <sup>6</sup>And it shall be that the first-born son which she bears will succeed to the name of his dead brother, that his name may not be blotted out of Israel. <sup>7</sup>But if the man does not want to take his brother’s wife, then let his brother’s wife go up to the gate to the elders, and say, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to raise up a name to his brother in Israel; he will not perform the duty of my husband’s brother.’ <sup>8</sup>Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him. But if he stands firm and says, ‘I do not want to take her,’ <sup>9</sup>then his brother’s wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, remove his sandal from his foot, spit in his face, and answer and say, ‘So shall it be done to the man who will not build up his brother’s house.’

MIDDLE ASSYRIAN LAWS (DEUT. 25:11, 12)

A number of the laws in the Pentateuch have literary parallels in the law codes of Mesopotamia. These codes include the Laws of Eshnunna and the Code of Hammurabi. The Middle Assyrian laws, however, are closer in time and subject matter to the biblical laws than are the compilations of Eshnunna and Hammurabi.

The law of Deut. 25:11, 12 addresses the case of a woman who intervenes in a fight between her husband and another man. The punishment—cutting off her hand—seems by modern standards to be both harsh and crude. This biblical law, however, was not out of place in the culture of that ancient time.

One Middle Assyrian law offers a fairly close parallel to the Deuteronomy law: “If a woman injures the testicles of a man in a fight, one of her fingers shall be cut off.” The law establishes a more severe penalty if the man’s “second testicle becomes affected from the first” or if the woman “injures the second testicle (too).” The Assyrian document is partly broken and unreadable, but possibly indicates that the woman who damages both of a man’s testicles would have her eyes put out.

Such punishments are inappropriate in our legal systems today. Nevertheless, we can observe similarities between Israel’s laws recorded in the Bible and the laws of other ancient cultures, such as the Sumerians, Babylonians, Assyrians, and Hittites. These parallels illustrate a shared legal tradition that existed throughout the ancient Near East. Apparently, certain social norms were accepted by both Israel and the neighboring peoples.

<sup>10</sup>And his name shall be called in Israel, ‘The house of him who had his sandal removed.’

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>11</sup>“If two men fight together, and the wife of one draws near to rescue her husband from the hand of the one attacking him, and puts out her hand and seizes him by the genitals, <sup>12</sup>then you shall cut off her hand; your eye shall not pity her.

<sup>13</sup>“You shall not have in your bag differing weights, a heavy and a light. <sup>14</sup>You shall not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small. <sup>15</sup>You shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure, that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>16</sup>For all who do such things, all who behave unrighteously, are an abomination to the LORD your God.

Destroy the Amalekites

<sup>17</sup>“Remember what Amalek did to you on the way as you were coming out of Egypt, <sup>18</sup>how he met you on the way and attacked your rear ranks, all the stragglers at your rear, when you were tired and weary; and he did not fear God. <sup>19</sup>Therefore it shall be, when the LORD your God has given you rest from your enemies all around, in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, that you will blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You shall not forget.

Trade & Economics

Without a bureau of standards, uniformity in weights and measures was difficult to achieve (Deut. 25:13). On the local level it was not impossible. Hellenistic cities put up standard measuring tables in public places. One from Thasos is made of stone with two basins cut into it, providing standards of about 8 and 16 quarts.

Offerings of Firstfruits and Tithes

26 <sup>1</sup>“And it shall be, when you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you possess it and dwell in it, <sup>2</sup>that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground, which you shall bring from your land that the LORD your God is giving you, and put it in a basket and go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide. <sup>3</sup>And you shall go to the one who is priest in those days, and say to him, ‘I declare today to the LORD your<sup>a</sup> God that I have come to the country which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’

<sup>4</sup>“Then the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>And you shall answer and say before the LORD your God: ‘My father was a Syrian,<sup>a</sup> about to perish, and he went down to Egypt and dwelt there, few in number; and there he became a nation, great, mighty, and populous. <sup>6</sup>But the Egyptians mistreated us, afflicted us, and laid hard bondage on us. <sup>7</sup>Then we cried out to the LORD God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and looked on our affliction and our labor and our oppression. <sup>8</sup>So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm, with great terror and with signs and wonders. <sup>9</sup>He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, “a land flowing with milk and honey”;<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>and now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land which you, O LORD, have given me.’

“Then you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup>So you shall rejoice in every good thing which the LORD your God has given to you and your house, you and the Levite and the stranger who is among you.

<sup>12</sup>“When you have finished laying aside all the tithes of your increase in the third year—the year of tithing—and have given it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, so that they may eat within your gates and be filled, <sup>13</sup>then you shall say before the LORD your God: ‘I have removed the holy tithe from my house, and also have given them to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me; I have not transgressed Your commandments, nor have I forgotten them. <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten any of it when in mourning, nor have I removed any of it for an unclean use, nor given any of it for the dead. I have obeyed the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that You have commanded me. <sup>15</sup>Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the land which You have given us, just as You swore to our fathers, “a land flowing with milk and honey.”’<sup>a</sup>

A Special People of God

<sup>16</sup>“This day the LORD your God commands you to observe these statutes and judgments; therefore you shall be careful to observe them with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>17</sup>Today you have proclaimed the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments, and His judgments, and that you will obey His voice. <sup>18</sup>Also today the LORD has proclaimed you to be His special people, just as He promised you, that you should keep all His commandments, <sup>19</sup>and that He will set you high above all nations which He has made, in praise, in name, and in honor, and that you may be a holy people to the LORD your God, just as He has spoken.”

The Law Inscribed on Stones

27 <sup>1</sup>Now Moses, with the elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying: “Keep all the commandments which I command you today. <sup>2</sup>And it shall be, on the day when you cross over the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, that you shall set up for yourselves large stones, and whitewash them with lime. <sup>3</sup>You shall write on them all the words of this law, when you have crossed over, that you may enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, ‘a land flowing with milk and honey,’<sup>a</sup> just as the LORD God of your fathers promised you. <sup>4</sup>Therefore it shall be, when you have crossed over the Jordan, that on Mount Ebal you shall set up these stones, which I command you today, and you shall whitewash them with lime. <sup>5</sup>And there you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall not use an iron tool on them. <sup>6</sup>You shall build with whole stones the altar of the LORD your God, and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup>You shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>And you shall write very plainly on the stones all the words of this law.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, “Take heed and listen, O Israel: This day you have become the people of the LORD your God. <sup>10</sup>Therefore you shall obey the voice of the LORD your God, and observe His commandments and His statutes which I command you today.”

Curses Pronounced from Mount Ebal

<sup>14</sup>“And the Levites shall speak with a loud voice and say to all the men of Israel: <sup>15</sup>Cursed is the one who makes a carved or molded image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets it up in secret.’

“And all the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>16</sup>Cursed is the one who treats his father or his mother with contempt.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>17</sup>Cursed is the one who moves his neighbor’s landmark.’

<sup>18</sup>Cursed is the one who makes the blind to wander off the road.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>19</sup>Cursed is the one who perverts the justice due the stranger, the fatherless, and widow.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>20</sup>Cursed is the one who lies with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered his father’s bed.’

“And all the people shall say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>21</sup>Cursed is the one who lies with any kind of animal.'

"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'"

<sup>22</sup>Cursed is the one who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.'

<sup>23</sup>Cursed is the one who lies with his mother-in-law.'

<sup>24</sup>Cursed is the one who attacks his neighbor secretly.'

<sup>25</sup>Cursed is the one who takes a bribe to slay an innocent person.'

"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'"

<sup>26</sup>Cursed is the one who does not confirm all the words of this law by observing them.'

"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'"

Blessings on Obedience

28 <sup>1</sup>Now it shall come to pass, if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments which I command you today, that the LORD your God will set you high above all nations of the earth. <sup>2</sup>And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, because you obey the voice of the LORD your God:

<sup>3</sup>Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the country.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed shall be the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground and the increase of your herds, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will command the blessing on you in your storehouses and in all to which you set your hand, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. <sup>10</sup>Then all peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD will grant you plenty of goods, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground, in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will open to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be above only, and not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today, and are careful to observe them. <sup>14</sup>So you shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right or the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Curses on Disobedience

<sup>15</sup>But it shall come to pass, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments and His statutes which I command you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:

<sup>16</sup>Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the country.

<sup>18</sup>Cursed shall be the fruit of your body and the produce of your land, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks.

<sup>19</sup>Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, because of the wickedness of your doings in which you have forsaken Me. <sup>21</sup>The LORD will make the plague cling to you until He has consumed you from the land which you are going to possess. <sup>22</sup>The LORD will strike you with consumption, with fever, with inflammation, with severe burning fever, with the sword, with scorching, and with mildew; they shall pursue you until you perish. <sup>23</sup>And your heavens which are over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you shall be iron. <sup>24</sup>The LORD will change the rain of your land to powder and dust; from the heaven it shall come down on you until you are destroyed.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them; and you shall become troublesome to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26</sup>Your carcasses shall be food

Health & Medicine

In modern times the human reaction to trauma and distress has been made the object of scientific study. It is not a topic for every time or every situation. In Deut. 28:34 the Bible shows a seemingly modern awareness of how the mind is assaulted and damaged by cruelty, thus "driven mad."

THE CURSES OF DISOBEDIENCE (DEUT. 28:30–34)

The various commandments and statutes established in the Law of Moses were to be obeyed. The solemn message of Deut. 28:15–68 is that disobedience would not be tolerated in Israel. They could enjoy blessings from God, or they could experience curses: their carcasses eaten by birds (28:26); their bodies plagued by incurable diseases (28:27); their wives raped (28:30). The list of miseries goes on throughout Deut. 28.

Curses were a part of covenants in the ancient world, and were intended to enforce the stipulations of the covenant. What jars our modern concepts of God is Israel's belief that it was their deity who would cause these curses if they violated the covenant. Several times in Deuteronomy are the words, "The LORD will . . ." (28:20–22, 24, 25, etc.). Israel was not unique in these beliefs concerning covenant curses. The grave consequences for disobedience are formally similar to the consequences other peoples faced for breaking treaties with their monarchs.

Esarhaddon, king of Assyria (680–669 B.C.), required subject states to accept a treaty of fidelity to both Esarhaddon and his successor(s). The Vassal Treaties of Esarhaddon contain in explicit detail the consequences for breaking the oaths, and reflect traditional curses found in Mesopotamian texts for at least 1,000 years before Esarhaddon.

A selection of gods in the Assyrian pantheon were called upon to enact various curses (very similar to Deut. 28) upon a disobedient vassal and his heirs. For example: Nergal would extinguish the life of the vassal, along with bringing carnage and pestilence; Ishtar would break the bow of the vassal in battle; Ninurta would kill the vassal with his bow and feed his carcass to the birds; the god Sin would clothe the vassal with leprosy; and Shamash would cause the individual to walk about in darkness. Last, all of the gods listed on the tablet would work to turn the vassal's soil into iron, and turn the rain in the sky over his land into copper.

for all the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and no one shall frighten them away. <sup>27</sup>The LORD will strike you with the boils of Egypt, with tumors, with the scab, and with the itch, from which you cannot be healed. <sup>28</sup>The LORD will strike you with madness and blindness and confusion of heart. <sup>29</sup>And you shall grope at noonday, as a blind man gropes in darkness; you shall not prosper in your ways; you shall be only oppressed and plundered continually, and no one shall save you.

<sup>30</sup>"You shall betroth a wife, but another man shall lie with her; you shall build a house, but you shall not dwell in it; you shall plant a vineyard, but shall not gather its grapes. <sup>31</sup>Your ox shall be slaughtered before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it; your donkey shall be violently taken away from before you, and shall not be restored to you; your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have no one to rescue them. <sup>32</sup>Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people, and your eyes shall look and fail with longing for them all day long; and there shall be no strength in your hand. <sup>33</sup>A nation whom you have not known shall eat the fruit of your land and the produce of your labor, and you shall be only oppressed and crushed continually. <sup>34</sup>So you shall be driven mad because of the sight which your eyes see. <sup>35</sup>The LORD will strike you in the knees and on the legs with severe boils which cannot be healed, and from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

<sup>36</sup>"The LORD will bring you and the king whom you set over you to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods—wood and stone. <sup>37</sup>And you shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword among all nations where the LORD will drive you.

<sup>43</sup>"The alien who is among you shall rise higher and higher above you, and you shall come down lower and lower. <sup>44</sup>He shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.

<sup>45</sup>"Moreover all these curses shall come upon you and pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. <sup>46</sup>And they shall be upon you for a sign and a wonder, and on your descendants forever.

<sup>47</sup>"Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joy and gladness of heart, for the abundance of everything, <sup>48</sup>therefore you shall serve your enemies, whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in need of everything; and He will put a yoke of iron on your neck until He has destroyed you. <sup>49</sup>The LORD will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flies, a nation whose language you will not understand, <sup>50</sup>a nation of fierce countenance, which does not respect the elderly nor show favor to the young.<sup>51</sup> And they shall eat the increase of your livestock and the produce of your land, until you are destroyed; they shall not leave you grain or new wine or oil, or the increase of your cattle or the offspring of your flocks, until they have destroyed you.

<sup>52</sup>“They shall besiege you at all your gates until your high and fortified walls, in which you trust, come down throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you at all your gates throughout all your land which the LORD your God has given you.<sup>53</sup> You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you.<sup>54</sup> The sensitive and very refined man among you will be hostile toward his brother, toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the rest of his children whom he leaves behind,<sup>55</sup> so that he will not give any of them the flesh of his children whom he will eat, because he has nothing left in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you at all your gates.<sup>56</sup> The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because of her delicateness and sensitivity, will refuse<sup>a</sup> to the husband of her bosom, and to her son and her daughter,<sup>57</sup> her placenta which comes out from between her feet and her children whom she bears; for she will eat them secretly for lack of everything in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you at all your gates.

<sup>58</sup>“If you do not carefully observe all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awesome name, THE LORD YOUR GOD,<sup>59</sup> then the LORD will bring upon you and your descendants extraordinary plagues—great and prolonged plagues—and serious and prolonged sicknesses.<sup>60</sup> Moreover He will bring back on you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were afraid, and they shall cling to you.<sup>61</sup> Also every sickness and every plague, which is not written in this Book of the Law, will the LORD bring upon you until you are destroyed.<sup>62</sup> You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of heaven in multitude, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.<sup>63</sup> And it shall be, that just as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good and multiply you, so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you and bring you to nothing; and you shall be plucked from off the land which you go to possess.

<sup>64</sup>“Then the LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you shall serve other gods, which neither you nor your fathers have known—wood and stone.<sup>65</sup> And among those nations you shall find no rest, nor shall the sole of your foot have a resting place; but there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and anguish of soul.<sup>66</sup> Your life shall hang in doubt before you; you shall fear day and night, and have no assurance of life.<sup>67</sup> In the morning you shall say, ‘Oh, that it were evening!’ And at evening you shall say, ‘Oh, that it were morning!’ because of the fear which terrifies your heart, and because of the sight which your eyes see.

<sup>68</sup>“And the LORD will take you back to Egypt in ships, by the way of which I said to you, ‘You shall never see it again.’ And there you shall be offered for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you.”

TRANSITION

Moses' Final Words

Moses' final speech (29:1—33:29) contains various materials. In a final charge Moses reviews Israel's recent God-given victories over idolatrous nations (29:1–19) and predicts their future apostasy (29:20–29), but also God's restoration and cleansing (30:1–10). In light of all of this, Moses calls on them to choose life (30:11—31:6). The Song of Moses (ch. 32) and the blessing of Moses (ch. 33) complete this leader's words to his people.

The Covenant Renewed in Moab

29 :1 These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

<sup>2</sup>Now Moses called all Israel and said to them: “You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land—<sup>3</sup>the great trials which your eyes have seen, the signs, and those great wonders.<sup>4</sup> Yet the LORD has not given you a heart to perceive and eyes to see and ears to hear, to this very day.<sup>5</sup> And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet.<sup>6</sup> You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or similar drink, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.<sup>7</sup> And when you came to this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out against us to battle, and we conquered them.<sup>8</sup> We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>Therefore keep the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

<sup>10</sup>All of you stand today before the LORD your God: your leaders and your tribes and your elders and your officers, all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup>your little ones and your wives—also the stranger who is in your camp, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water—<sup>12</sup>that you may enter into covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath, which the LORD your God makes with you today, <sup>13</sup>that He may establish you today as a people for Himself, and that He may be God to you, just as He has spoken to you, and just as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>14</sup>I make this covenant and this oath, not with you alone, <sup>15</sup>but with him who stands here with us today before the LORD our God, as well as with him who is not here with us today <sup>16</sup>(for you know that we dwelt in the land of Egypt and that we came through the nations which you passed by, <sup>17</sup>and you saw their abominations and their idols which were among them—wood and stone and silver and gold); <sup>18</sup>so that there may not be among you man or woman or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations, and that there may not be among you a root bearing bitterness or wormwood; <sup>19</sup>and so it may not happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he blesses himself in his heart, saying, ‘I shall have peace, even though I follow the dictates<sup>a</sup> of my heart’—as though the drunkard could be included with the sober.

<sup>23</sup>‘The whole land is brimstone, salt, and burning; it is not sown, nor does it bear, nor does any grass grow there, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and His wrath.’ <sup>24</sup>All nations would say, ‘Why has the LORD done so to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?’ <sup>25</sup>Then people would say: ‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt; <sup>26</sup>for they went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods that they did not know and that He had not given to them. <sup>27</sup>Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against this land, to bring on it every curse that is written in this book. <sup>28</sup>And the LORD uprooted them from their land in anger, in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.’

<sup>29</sup>‘The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

The Blessing of Returning to God

30 <sup>1</sup>‘Now it shall come to pass, when all these things come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and you call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God drives you, <sup>2</sup>and you return to the LORD your God and obey His voice, according to all that I command you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>3</sup>that the LORD your God will bring you back from captivity, and have compassion on you, and gather you again from all the nations where the LORD your God has scattered you. <sup>4</sup>If any of you are driven out to the farthest parts under heaven, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there He will bring you. <sup>5</sup>Then the LORD your God will bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.

ADAPA MISSES OUT ON IMMORTALITY (DEUT. 30:11, 12)

The Accadian myth of Adapa was found on a cuneiform text in the library at Tell el-Amarna, the Egyptian capital during the time of Pharaoh Akhenaten (1352–1336 B.C.). The story was uncovered also in various sites of Mesopotamia, including Asshur and Nineveh. The text relates the various adventures of the hero, Adapa, a priest of Ea at Eridu, a city in southern Mesopotamia.

According to the incomplete account, Adapa's boat sinks because of the divine South Wind as he is procuring food for the shrine at Eridu. He subsequently breaks the wings of the South Wind, causing a dramatic change in the climate, and resulting in a mandatory visit by Adapa to the divine high council, headed by Anu, the king of the gods.

Adapa's god, Ea, counsels him to refuse food or drink from the gods, as mortals often would be given food causing death. He is asked to try to win the favor of Tammuz and Gizzida, the divine gatekeepers. During his audience with Anu, Adapa is unexpectedly offered the bread and water of life. Heeding Ea's counsel, Adapa rejects the food, which amuses Anu. Adapa is then returned to his home. Whether Anu and Ea had conspired to trick Adapa, or whether Ea was ignorant of what Anu would offer the priest is not known, as the text is not complete.

The myth has the purpose of showing why humans had not achieved immortality. In ancient thought there was a distinction between the divine realm and the human realm. In general, humans did not belong in heaven. This belief is reflected in Deut. 30:11, 12 where Moses assures the Israelites that God's commands are not in heaven, lest they need someone to "ascend into heaven" for them to retrieve the commands.

<sup>7</sup>"Also the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you. <sup>8</sup>And you will again obey the voice of the LORD and do all His commandments which I command you today. <sup>9</sup>The LORD your God will make you abound in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your land for good. For the LORD will again rejoice over you for good as He rejoiced over your fathers, <sup>10</sup>if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

The Choice of Life or Death

<sup>11</sup>"For this commandment which I command you today is not too mysterious for you, nor is it far off. <sup>12</sup>It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will ascend into heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?' <sup>13</sup>Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?' <sup>14</sup>But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it.

<sup>15</sup>"See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, <sup>16</sup>in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, that you may live and multiply; and the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you go to possess. <sup>17</sup>But if your heart turns away so that you do not hear, and are drawn away, and worship other gods and serve them, <sup>18</sup>I announce to you today that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to go in and possess. <sup>19</sup>I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live; <sup>20</sup>that you may love the LORD your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He is your life and the length of your days; and that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them."

Joshua the New Leader of Israel

31 <sup>1</sup>Then Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them: "I am one hundred and twenty years old today. I can no longer go out and come in. Also the LORD has said to me, 'You shall not cross over this Jordan.' <sup>3</sup>The LORD your God Himself crosses over before you; He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua himself crosses over before you, just as the LORD has said. <sup>4</sup>And the LORD will do to them as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites and their land, when He destroyed them. <sup>5</sup>The LORD will give them over to you, that you may do to them according to every commandment which I have commanded you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, He is the One who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you."

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses called Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and of good courage, for you must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall cause them to inherit it. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD, He is the One who goes before you. He will be with you, He will not leave you nor forsake you; do not fear nor be dismayed."

The Law to Be Read Every Seven Years

<sup>9</sup>So Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup>And Moses commanded them, saying: “At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time in the year of release, at the Feast of Tabernacles, <sup>11</sup>when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. <sup>12</sup>Gather the people together, men and women and little ones, and the stranger who is within your gates, that they may hear and that they may learn to fear the LORD your God and carefully observe all the words of this law, <sup>13</sup>and that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land which you cross the Jordan to possess.”

Prediction of Israel's Rebellion

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, the days approach when you must die; call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of meeting, that I may inaugurate him.”

So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>15</sup>Now the LORD appeared at the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood above the door of the tabernacle.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD said to Moses: “Behold, you will rest with your fathers; and this people will rise and play the harlot with the gods of the foreigners of the land, where they go to be among them, and they will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them. <sup>17</sup>Then My anger shall be aroused against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide My face from them, and they shall be devoured. And many evils and troubles shall befall them, so that they will say in that day, ‘Have not these evils come upon us because our God is not among us?’ <sup>18</sup>And I will surely hide My face in that day because of all the evil which they have done, in that they have turned to other gods.

put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for Me against the children of Israel. <sup>20</sup>When I have brought them to the land flowing with milk and honey, of which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and filled themselves and grown fat, then they will turn to other gods and serve them; and they will provoke Me and break My covenant. <sup>21</sup>Then it shall be, when many evils and troubles have come upon them, that this song will testify against them as a witness; for it will not be forgotten in the mouths of their descendants, for I know the inclination of their behavior today, even before I have brought them to the land of which I swore to give them.”

<sup>22</sup>Therefore Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel. <sup>23</sup>Then He inaugurated Joshua the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and of good courage; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land of which I swore to them, and I will be with you.”

<sup>24</sup>So it was, when Moses had completed writing the words of this law in a book, when they were finished, <sup>25</sup>that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying: <sup>26</sup>“Take this Book of the Law, and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there as a witness against you; <sup>27</sup>for I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. If today, while I am yet alive with you, you have been rebellious against the LORD, then how much more after my death? <sup>28</sup>Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them. <sup>29</sup>For I know that after my death you will become utterly corrupt, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And evil will befall you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands.”

The Song of Moses

<sup>30</sup>Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song until they were ended:

32 <sup>1</sup> “Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak;
And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.
<sup>2</sup> Let my teaching drop as the rain,
My speech distill as the dew,
As raindrops on the tender herb,
And as showers on the grass.
<sup>3</sup> For I proclaim the name of the LORD:
Ascribe greatness to our God.
<sup>4</sup> He is the Rock, His work is perfect;
For all His ways are justice,
A God of truth and without injustice;
Righteous and upright is He.

Arts & Literature

In general, poetry is easier than prose to memorize and to transmit orally—to “put it in their mouths” (Deut. 31:19). This is so because a poem focuses on its own words as well as on what it talks about. Furthermore, the typical formal features of poetry, such as rhyming and balanced lines, make it easier to recite complete sections of a composition.

5 “They have corrupted themselves;
They are not His children,
 Because of their blemish:
 A perverse and crooked generation.
 6 Do you thus deal with the LORD,
 O foolish and unwise people?
Is He not your Father, who bought you?
 Has He not made you and established you?
 7 “Remember the days of old,
 Consider the years of many generations.
 Ask your father, and he will show you;
 Your elders, and they will tell you:
 8 When the Most High divided their inheritance to the nations,
 When He separated the sons of Adam,
 He set the boundaries of the peoples
 According to the number of the children of Israel.
 9 For the LORD’s portion is His people;
 Jacob is the place of His inheritance.
 10 “He found him in a desert land
 And in the wasteland, a howling wilderness;
 He encircled him, He instructed him,
 He kept him as the apple of His eye.
 11 As an eagle stirs up its nest,
 Hovers over its young,
 Spreading out its wings, taking them up,
 Carrying them on its wings,
 12 So the LORD alone led him,
 And there was no foreign god with him.
 13 “He made him ride in the heights of the earth,
 That he might eat the produce of the fields;
 He made him draw honey from the rock,
 And oil from the flinty rock;
 14 Curds from the cattle, and milk of the flock,
 With fat of lambs;
 And rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats,
 With the choicest wheat;
 And you drank wine, the blood of the grapes.
 15 “But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked;
 You grew fat, you grew thick,
 You are obese!

Then he forsook God who made him,
 And scornfully esteemed the Rock of his salvation.
 16 They provoked Him to jealousy with foreign gods;
 With abominations they provoked Him
 to anger.
 17 They sacrificed to demons, not to God,
 To gods they did not know,
 To new gods, new arrivals
 That your fathers did not fear.
 18 Of the Rock who begot you, you are unmindful,
 And have forgotten the God who fathered you.
 19 “And when the LORD saw it, He spurned
them,
 Because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters.
 20 And He said: ‘I will hide My face from
 them,
 I will see what their end will be,
 For they are a perverse generation,
 Children in whom is no faith.
 21 They have provoked Me to jealousy by what is not God;
 They have moved Me to anger by their foolish idols.
 But I will provoke them to jealousy by those who are not a nation;
 I will move them to anger by a foolish nation.
 22 For a fire is kindled in My anger,
 And shall burn to the lowest hell;
 It shall consume the earth with her increase,
 And set on fire the foundations of the mountains.
 23 ‘I will heap disasters on them;
 I will spend My arrows on them.
 24 They shall be wasted with hunger,
 Devoured by pestilence and bitter destruction;
 I will also send against them the teeth
 of beasts,
 With the poison of serpents of the dust.
 The sword shall destroy outside;
There shall be terror within
 For the young man and virgin,
 The nursing child with the man of gray hairs.
 26 I would have said, “I will dash them in pieces,
 I will make the memory of them to cease from among men,”
 27 Had I not feared the wrath of the enemy,
 Lest their adversaries should misunderstand,

Plants & Animals

The ideas of strength and protection, both inherent in the image of an eagle’s wings, are combined in Deut. 32:11. The eagle displays strength and subtlety in the way it stays aloft in the wind. Secondly, wings were a traditional symbol of protection and refuge. Ancient Egyptian sculptures often have the wings of a falcon protecting a ruler or prince.

Lest they should say, “Our hand is high;
And it is not the LORD who has done all this.”’

- 28 “For they are a nation void of counsel,
Nor is there any understanding in them.
29 Oh, that they were wise, that they understood this,
That they would consider their latter end!
30 How could one chase a thousand,
And two put ten thousand to flight,
Unless their Rock had sold them,
And the LORD had surrendered them?
31 For their rock is not like our Rock, Even our enemies themselves being judges.
32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom
And of the fields of Gomorrah;
Their grapes are grapes of gall,
Their clusters are bitter.
33 Their wine is the poison of serpents,
And the cruel venom of cobras.
- 34 ‘Is this not laid up in store with Me,
Sealed up among My treasures?
35 Vengeance is Mine, and recompense;
Their foot shall slip in due time;
For the day of their calamity is at hand,
And the things to come hasten upon them.’
- 36 “For the LORD will judge His people
And have compassion on His servants,
When He sees that their power is gone,
And there is no one remaining, bond or free.
37 He will say: ‘Where are their gods,
The rock in which they sought refuge?
38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices,
And drank the wine of their drink offering?
Let them rise and help you,
And be your refuge.
- 39 ‘Now see that I, even I, am He,
And there is no God besides Me;
I kill and I make alive;
I wound and I heal;
Nor is there any who can deliver from
My hand.
40 For I raise My hand to heaven,
And say, “As I live forever,
41 If I whet My glittering sword,
And My hand takes hold on judgment,
I will render vengeance to My enemies,
And repay those who hate Me.

32:43 <sup>a</sup>A Dead Sea Scroll fragment adds And let all the gods (angels) worship Him (compare Septuagint and Hebrews 1:6).

32:44 <sup>a</sup>Hebrew Hoshea (compare Numbers 13:8, 16)

- 42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood,
And My sword shall devour flesh,
With the blood of the slain and the captives,
From the heads of the leaders of the enemy.”’

- 43 “Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people;<sup>a</sup>
For He will avenge the blood of His servants,
And render vengeance to His adversaries;
He will provide atonement for His land and
His people.”

<sup>44</sup>So Moses came with Joshua<sup>a</sup> the son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people. <sup>45</sup>Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, <sup>46</sup>and he said to them: “Set your hearts on all the words which I testify among you today, which you shall command your children to be careful to observe—all the words of this law. <sup>47</sup>For it is not a futile thing for you, because it is your life, and by this word you shall prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess.”

Moses to Die on Mount Nebo

<sup>48</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses that very same day, saying: <sup>49</sup>“Go up this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, across from Jericho; view the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel as a possession; <sup>50</sup>and die on the mountain which you ascend, and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people; <sup>51</sup>because you trespassed against Me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah Kadesh, in the Wilderness of Zin, because you did not hallow Me in the midst of the children of Israel. <sup>52</sup>Yet you shall see the land before you, though you shall not go there, into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel.”

Moses' Final Blessing on Israel

33 <sup>1</sup>Now this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. <sup>2</sup>And he said:

TIME CAPSULE		1259 to 1250 B.C.
1259	Egyptians and Hittites conclude a peace treaty
1250	Hittite letter mentions the iron blade of a dagger
1250	“Lion Gate” of Mycenae
1250	Sea battle between Cyprus and the Hittites
1250	Letter from King Hattusilis III shows Hittite skills in producing smelted iron

“The LORD came from Sinai,
And dawned on them from Seir;
He shone forth from Mount Paran,
And He came with ten thousands of saints;
From His right hand
Came a fiery law for them.

Yes, He loves the people;
All His saints are in Your hand;
They sit down at Your feet;
Everyone receives Your words.

Moses commanded a law for us,
A heritage of the congregation of Jacob.

And He was King in Jeshurun,
When the leaders of the people were gathered,
All the tribes of Israel together.

“Let Reuben live, and not die,
Nor let his men be few.”

<sup>7</sup>And this he said of Judah:

“Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah,
And bring him to his people;
Let his hands be sufficient for him,
And may You be a help against his enemies.”

<sup>8</sup>And of Levi he said:

“Let Your Thummim and Your Urim be with Your holy one,
Whom You tested at Massah,
And with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah,

Who says of his father and mother,
‘I have not seen them’;
Nor did he acknowledge his brothers,
Or know his own children;
For they have observed Your word
And kept Your covenant.

They shall teach Jacob Your judgments,
And Israel Your law.

They shall put incense before You,
And a whole burnt sacrifice on Your altar.
<sup>11</sup> Bless his substance, LORD,
And accept the work of his hands;
Strike the loins of those who rise against him,
And of those who hate him, that they rise not again.”

<sup>12</sup>Of Benjamin he said:

“The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him,
Who shelters him all the day long;
And he shall dwell between His shoulders.”

<sup>13</sup>And of Joseph he said:

“Blessed of the LORD is his land,
With the precious things of heaven, with the dew,
And the deep lying beneath,
<sup>14</sup> With the precious fruits of the sun,
With the precious produce of the months, <sup>15</sup> With the best things of the ancient mountains,
With the precious things of the everlasting
hills,
<sup>16</sup> With the precious things of the earth and its fullness,
And the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush.
Let the blessing come ‘on the head of Joseph,
And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.’<sup>a</sup>

<sup>17</sup> His glory is like a firstborn bull,
And his horns like the horns of the wild ox;
Together with them
He shall push the peoples
To the ends of the earth;
They are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
And they are the thousands of Manasseh.”

<sup>a</sup>33:16 “Genesis 49:26

Canaan as seen from Mount Nebo

<sup>18</sup>And of Zebulun he said:

“Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out,
And Issachar in your tents!
<sup>19</sup> They shall call the peoples to the mountain;
There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness;
For they shall partake of the abundance of the seas
And of treasures hidden in the sand.”

<sup>20</sup>And of Gad he said:

“Blessed is he who enlarges Gad;
He dwells as a lion,
And tears the arm and the crown of his head.
<sup>21</sup> He provided the first part for himself, Because a lawgiver’s portion was reserved
there.
He came with the heads of the people;
He administered the justice of the LORD,
And His judgments with Israel.”

<sup>22</sup>And of Dan he said:

“Dan is a lion’s whelp;
He shall leap from Bashan.”

<sup>23</sup>And of Naphtali he said:

“O Naphtali, satisfied with favor,
And full of the blessing of the LORD,
Possess the west and the south.”

<sup>24</sup>And of Asher he said:

“Asher is most blessed of sons;
Let him be favored by his brothers,
And let him dip his foot in oil.
<sup>25</sup> Your sandals shall be iron and bronze;
As your days, so shall your strength be.

<sup>26</sup> “There is no one like the God of Jeshurun,
Who rides the heavens to help you,
And in His excellency on the clouds.
<sup>27</sup> The eternal God is your refuge,
And underneath are the everlasting arms;
He will thrust out the enemy from before you,
And will say, ‘Destroy!’

<sup>28</sup> Then Israel shall dwell in safety,
The fountain of Jacob alone,
In a land of grain and new wine;
His heavens shall also drop dew.
<sup>29</sup> Happy are you, O Israel!
Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD,

The shield of your help
And the sword of your majesty!
Your enemies shall submit to you,
And you shall tread down their high places.”

TRANSITION

The Death of Moses

Though he could not enter, Moses was allowed to see the new land. He had been the great spokesman for God. There would be other prophets in Israel, but no one would ever hold the place of the man who led them out of Egypt to the Promised Land. As a crowning honor, he is called for the first time the name by which he is perhaps best remembered: “Moses the servant of the Lord” (Deut. 34:5).

Israel had reached the plains of Moab around either 1406 B.C. or 1235 B.C. (see “Moab: On the Doorstep of Canaan” at Num. 20:14). Moses began his speeches in the 11th month of this 40th year after the Israelites’ departure from Egypt (Deut. 1:3; see Num. 33:38). According to the chronological scheme of the Book of Joshua, the Israelites crossed the Jordan and celebrated Passover in the 1st month of the next year (Josh. 4:19; 5:10). Sometime during the intervening two months, Moses died at the age of 120 years (Deut. 34:7).

Moses Dies on Mount Nebo

34 :1 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is across from Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan, <sup>2</sup>all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, <sup>3</sup>the South, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.”

Beliefs & Ideas

The gods of Canaan and Mesopotamia, unlike the gods of Egypt, were in constant struggle and change. Over against them the Bible maintains the theme of the incomparability of the Lord (Deut. 33:26), even when the Lord’s power is expressed in a conventional symbol, such as riding on the clouds.

34:2 <sup>a</sup>That is, the Mediterranean

<sup>5</sup>So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth Peor; but no one knows his grave to this day. <sup>7</sup>Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes were not dim nor his natural vigor diminished. <sup>8</sup>And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days. So the days of weeping and mourning for Moses ended.

<sup>9</sup>Now Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him; so the children of Israel heeded him, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup>But since then there has not arisen in Israel a prophet like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, <sup>11</sup>in all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, before Pharaoh, before all his servants, and in all his land, <sup>12</sup>and by all that mighty power and all the great terror which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Teach Us to Number Our Days

Many of the psalms begin with a superscription associating that particular psalm with a specific historical person, usually David. Unfortunately the superscriptions do not settle questions of authorship because the terminology used in them is ambiguous. The Hebrew phrase of the superscriptions can be translated in various ways, possibly meaning “of David,” “to David,” “belonging to David,” or “by David.” Thus the Hebrew superscriptions do not necessarily refer to authorship, and scholars often differ on the precise dating of certain psalms.

The superscription of Ps. 90 describes this psalm as “A prayer of Moses the man of God.” Many scholars consider Ps. 90 to be a late composition that was associated with Moses long after his death. The psalm is placed here after Deuteronomy not to decide the questions of authorship, but rather to allow it to be read in the context of Moses, as intended by the superscription. By reading Ps. 90 shortly after other poetic speeches accredited to Moses (Deut. 32; 33; see 31:30; 32:44; 33:1), we can understand it as a final comment on Moses’ life and a prayer for God’s help in the coming struggles. See “The Book of Psalms” at Ps. 8.

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days!

<sup>15</sup> Make us glad according to the days in which You have afflicted us,
The years in which we have seen evil.
<sup>16</sup> Let Your work appear to Your servants,

THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN

Historians disagree as to when the Israelites left Egypt (see “The Exodus Begun” at Ex. 12:37). The same historians disagree as to when Israel arrived in Canaan. Some place the invasion at the end of the 15th century; others at the end of the 13th. Archaeological support has been claimed for both dates, such as evidence that Jericho was destroyed at this or that era. But assigning specific dates to physical remains is difficult, and, ultimately, archaeology has not solved the question.

What can be agreed on, from evidence both within and outside of the Bible, is that the conquest of Palestine was not the unstoppable, crushing tide of invaders that is sometimes pictured. Despite sweeping statements that Joshua conquered “the whole land” (e.g., Josh. 11:16, 23), there are also descriptions of the land that “remains . . . to be possessed” (e.g., Josh. 13:1–6). Some of the Israelite conquests appear to have been by peaceful assimilation of the native peoples into the Israelites’ own group, such as happened with the Gibeonites (Josh. 9).

The danger of such assimilation is that the Israelites’ faith would be mixed with the religious beliefs and practices of Canaan. The Canaanites recognized many deities, two of the more prominent ones being El, the great sky god, and his female consort Asherah. By the time of the conquest, the worship of El had been overshadowed by worship of a warrior storm god, Baal.

Canaanite worship practices included child sacrifice and fertility rites, often involving relations with cult prostitutes. Images of the gods were common in worship, as were the wooden poles or objects called “Asherim” after the goddess Asherah. Much of Israel’s religious history dealt with the conflict between worshipers of the one God of the Exodus and worshipers of these Canaanite deities.

The Book of Joshua

Although the Book of Joshua tells of Israel’s conquest of Canaan, it is not a typical war story: little space is given to accounts of actual fighting. Indeed, almost half of the book (chs. 13–21) details how the land would be divided between Israel’s twelve tribes. Clearly the focus is God’s fulfillment of His promise of land instead of on feats of arms.

God’s command that Israel destroy every creature living in the land (Josh. 6:17, 21) poses a difficult ethical issue. This command is moderated somewhat in Josh. 8:2 but is still understandably troubling to many readers. We should not minimize the ethical question, but should understand that the reason given for the command involves the abominable and idolatrous Canaanite lifestyle. God ordains this total destruction so that Israel would not adopt the religious practices of the Canaanites (see Deut. 20:16–18).

The book concludes on the same theme. In a covenant renewal ceremony (chs. 23; 24), Joshua demands that Israel choose whether they will follow God or the gods of Canaan.

Joshua

God’s Commission to Joshua

1:1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, it came to pass that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses’ assistant, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses. <sup>4</sup>From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your territory. <sup>5</sup>No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. <sup>7</sup>Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go. <sup>8</sup>This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. <sup>9</sup>Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

The Order to Cross the Jordan

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, <sup>11</sup>“Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.’”

<sup>12</sup>And to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh Joshua spoke, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God is giving you rest and is giving you this land.’ <sup>14</sup>Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan. But you shall pass before your brethren armed, all your mighty men of valor, and help them, <sup>15</sup>until the LORD has given your brethren rest, as He gave you, and they also have taken possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD’s servant gave you on this side of the Jordan toward the sunrise.”

<sup>16</sup>So they answered Joshua, saying, “All that you command us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. <sup>17</sup>Just as we heeded Moses in all things, so we will heed you. Only the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Whoever rebels against your command and does not heed your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage.”

Rahab Hides the Spies

2 <sup>1</sup>Now Joshua the son of Nun sent out two men from Acacia Grove<sup>a</sup> to spy secretly, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho.”

So they went, and came to the house of a harlot named Rahab, and lodged there. <sup>2</sup>And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men have come here tonight from the children of Israel to search out the country.”

<sup>3</sup>So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the country.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the woman took the two men and hid them. So she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from. <sup>5</sup>And it happened as the gate was being shut, when it was dark, that the men went out. Where the men went I do not know; pursue them quickly, for you may overtake them.” <sup>6</sup>(But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof.) <sup>7</sup>Then the men pursued them by the road to the Jordan, to the fords. And as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate.

<sup>8</sup>Now before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof, <sup>9</sup>and said to the men: “I know that the LORD has given you the land, that the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land are fainthearted because of you. <sup>10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup>And as soon as we heard these things, our hearts melted; neither did there remain any more courage in anyone because of you, for the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, I beg you, swear to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you also will show kindness to my father’s house, and give me a true token, <sup>13</sup>and spare my father, my mother, my brothers, my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.”

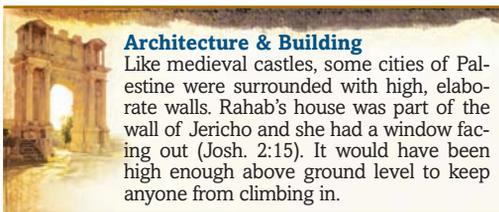

<sup>14</sup>So the men answered her, “Our lives for yours, if none of you tell this business of ours. And it shall be, when the LORD has given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you.”

<sup>15</sup>Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall; she dwelt on the wall. <sup>16</sup>And she said to them, “Get to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you. Hide there three days, until the pursuers have returned. Afterward you may go your way.”

<sup>17</sup>So the men said to her: “We will be blameless of this oath of yours which you have made us swear, <sup>18</sup>unless, when we come into the land, you bind this line of scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and unless you bring your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father’s household to your own home. <sup>19</sup>So it shall be that whoever goes outside the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be on his own head, and we will be guiltless. And whoever is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head if a hand is laid on him. <sup>20</sup>And if you tell this business of ours, then we will be free from your oath which you made us swear.”

<sup>21</sup>Then she said, “According to your words, so be it.” And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet cord in the window.

<sup>22</sup>They departed and went to the mountain, and stayed there three days until the pursuers returned. The pursuers sought them all along the way, but did not find them. <sup>23</sup>So the two men returned, descended from the mountain, and crossed over; and they came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all that had befallen them. <sup>24</sup>And they

Architecture & Building

Like medieval castles, some cities of Palestine were surrounded with high, elaborate walls. Rahab’s house was part of the wall of Jericho and she had a window facing out (Josh. 2:15). It would have been high enough above ground level to keep anyone from climbing in.

said to Joshua, “Truly the LORD has delivered all the land into our hands, for indeed all the inhabitants of the country are fainthearted because of us.”

Israel Crosses the Jordan

3 <sup>1</sup>Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and they set out from Acacia Grove<sup>a</sup> and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they crossed over. <sup>2</sup>So it was, after three days, that the officers went through the camp; <sup>3</sup>and they commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests, the Levites, bearing it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it. <sup>4</sup>Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Do not come near it, that you may know the way by which you must go, for you have not passed this way before.”

<sup>5</sup>And Joshua said to the people, “Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you.” <sup>6</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, “Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over before the people.”

So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. <sup>8</sup>You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you have come to the edge of the water of the Jordan, you shall stand in the Jordan.’”

<sup>9</sup>So Joshua said to the children of Israel, “Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God.” <sup>10</sup>And Joshua said, “By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites: <sup>11</sup>Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over before you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from every tribe. <sup>13</sup>And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, the waters that come down from upstream, and they shall stand as a heap.”

<sup>14</sup>So it was, when the people set out from their camp to cross over the Jordan, with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people, <sup>15</sup>and as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks during the whole time of harvest), <sup>16</sup>that the waters which came down from upstream stood still, and rose in a heap very far away at Adam, the city that is beside Zaretan. So the waters that went down into the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, failed, and were cut off; and the people crossed over opposite Jericho. <sup>17</sup>Then the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan; and all Israel crossed over on dry ground, until all the people had crossed completely over the Jordan.

Beliefs & Ideas

The ark of the covenant resembles in some ways furniture found in both ancient Egypt and Palestine. Probably the ark represented the footstool of God’s throne. Although by design it was portable (Josh. 3:6), it was not a charm or talisman that could guarantee the favor of God for those who possessed it or took it into battle.

The Memorial Stones

4 <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed over the Jordan, that the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from every tribe, <sup>3</sup>and command them, saying, ‘Take for yourselves twelve stones from here, out of the midst of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet stood firm. You shall carry them over with you and leave them in the lodging place where you lodge tonight.’”

<sup>4</sup>Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the children of Israel, one man from every tribe; <sup>5</sup>and Joshua said to them: “Cross over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each one of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, <sup>6</sup>that this may be a sign among you when your children ask in time to come, saying, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’ <sup>7</sup>Then you shall answer them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.”

<sup>8</sup>And the children of Israel did so, just as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the midst of the Jordan, as the LORD had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. <sup>9</sup>Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day.

3:1 <sup>a</sup>Hebrew Shittim

CIRCUMCISED WITH FLINT KNIVES (JOSH. 5:3)

Long before humans learned how to write or even make cooking vessels from clay, they discovered that flint, a kind of stone, could be split into smaller sharp and, thus, more useable pieces. Often large stones, called cores, were struck with other stones, or sometimes short sticks were placed on the worker's chest and pressed onto the core. Eventually, small pieces were split off of the larger cores.

A variety of tools were created with this method. The most common creation was a long narrow blade used for a knife. Other tools created were scrapers used to remove the flesh from hides, drills for poking holes, and knives. One of the most unusual designs was a special crafted blade that was fitted on a curved wooden base, used as a sickle.

After the smaller pieces were forced from the core, they were sharpened by striking the edges with other flints. Flints can be sharper than scalpels. Modern surgeons have been known to use them in surgery.

In Gilgal, the Israelites' first camp after crossing the Jordan, this age-old tool, the flint knife, was used to perform the sacred ceremony of circumcision (Josh. 4:19; 5:2, 3). Such a tool was commonly available and would have been sharper than any other cutting tool.

<sup>10</sup>So the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and crossed over. <sup>11</sup>Then it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed over, that the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed over in the presence of the people. <sup>12</sup>And the men of Reuben, the men of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them. <sup>13</sup>About forty thousand prepared for war crossed over before the LORD for battle, to the plains of Jericho. <sup>14</sup>On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they had feared Moses, all the days of his life.

<sup>19</sup>Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.

<sup>20</sup>And those twelve stones which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal. <sup>21</sup>Then he spoke to the children of Israel, saying: “When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, ‘What are these stones?’ <sup>22</sup>then you shall let your children know, saying, ‘Israel crossed over this Jordan on dry land’; <sup>23</sup>for the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed over, <sup>24</sup>that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty, that you may fear the LORD your God forever.”

The Second Generation Circumcised

5 <sup>1</sup>So it was, when all the kings of the Amorites who were on the west side of the Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel until we<sup>a</sup> had crossed over, that their heart melted; and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the children of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives for yourself, and circumcise the sons of Israel again the second time.” <sup>3</sup>So Joshua made flint knives for himself, and circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: All the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way, after they had come out of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>For all the people who came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the

Beliefs & Ideas

The symbolism of removing the shoes in a holy place (Josh. 5:15) is followed today in Islamic mosques, where shoes may not be worn. In the 19th century A.D. it was required to be barefoot before the Emperor of Ethiopia. Perhaps shoes seem to represent the uncleanness of the workaday world.

wilderness, on the way as they came out of Egypt, had not been circumcised. <sup>6</sup>For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people who were men of war, who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD—to whom the LORD swore that He would not show them the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers that He would give us, “a land flowing with milk and honey.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>Then Joshua circumcised their sons whom He raised up in their place; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

<sup>8</sup>So it was, when they had finished circumcising all the people, that they stayed in their places in the camp till they were healed. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.” Therefore the name of the place is called Gilgal<sup>a</sup> to this day.

<sup>10</sup>Now the children of Israel camped in Gilgal, and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight on the plains of Jericho. <sup>11</sup>And they ate of the produce of the land on the day after the Passover, unleavened bread and parched grain, on the very same day. <sup>12</sup>Then the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten the produce of the land; and the children of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate the food of the land of Canaan that year.

The Commander of the Army of the Lord

<sup>13</sup>And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, a Man stood opposite him with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, “Are You for us or for our adversaries?”

5:6 <sup>a</sup>Exodus 3:8    5:9 <sup>a</sup>Literally Rolling

<sup>14</sup>So He said, “No, but as Commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.”

And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and said to Him, “What does my Lord say to His servant?”

<sup>15</sup>Then the Commander of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, “Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand is holy.” And Joshua did so.

TRANSITION

Conquering the Canaanite Cities

The detailed accounts in chs. 1–5 of the preparation, the Jordan crossing, and the camp at Gilgal show Israel mobilized to enter the land. The crossing of the Jordan and the Passover celebration are dated in the 1st month (Josh. 4:19; 5:10), suggesting that Joshua readied the people in less than two months after Moses’ death. The conquest would have begun, then, around either 1405 B.C. or 1234 B.C. (see “The Death of Moses” at Deut. 34:1).

The conquest itself is described in three campaigns or stages: the thrust into central Canaan (Josh. 6:1–8:35), the southern campaign (9:1–10:43), and the northern campaign (11:1–15). The first stage relates the destruction of Jericho and Ai. Stages two and three present the long and complex military campaigns against coalitions of Canaanite cities.

The reader could easily assume that the whole operation took only a short time, whereas the process actually lasted several years. And even then the conquest was not complete (13:1). The campaigns are reported briefly in order to emphasize God’s giving, rather than Israel’s taking, the land. See “The Early Years of Conquest” at Josh. 14:6.

• Joshua 6:1–14:5

WHEN THE HEAVENS GO TO WAR (JOSH. 5:13–15)

Joshua met the Commander of God’s army, who spoke for God whom He served (Josh. 5:13–15). Being aware that he had, in effect, met God in this divine servant, Joshua’s reaction was to bow down and worship the heavenly being. The Commander’s instructions for Joshua to remove his sandals reminds us of the same command to Moses at the burning bush (Ex. 3:5).

That heaven should have its own army would not have seemed strange in the ancient world. While there were specific gods and goddesses of warfare, entire armies of gods could be found in the mythology of the ancient Near East, serving the desires of their superior gods. Mesopotamian myths of the 2nd and 1st millenniums B.C. describe heavenly armies waging war against both divine and human enemies. In the Babylonian epic, Enuma Elish, the god Marduk conquers the army of the goddess Tiamat.

Human wars were fought under the direction of the deities of the land over which a king reigned. The ancients believed that wars were not just between human armies, but also between heavenly armies. The patron deities of the rival states had their own armies to back their people.

Joshua believed that he would not be fighting alone. Egyptian letters from the Amarna period (c. 1360–1333 B.C.) reflect the belief that the king of Egypt went to war as part of a divine army. In a similar fashion, Joshua, having been asked by God to take the Promised Land, met his heavenly counterpart. The notification “I have now come” (Josh. 5:14) informed Joshua that the human conquest of the land was only a part of the real action. Crucial events of the battle would take place in heaven.

Joshua

The Destruction of Jericho

6:1 Now Jericho was securely shut up because of the children of Israel; none went out, and none came in. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua: “See! I have given Jericho into your hand, its king, and the mighty men of valor. <sup>3</sup>You shall march around the city, all you men of war; you shall go all around the city once. This you shall do six days. <sup>4</sup>And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark. But the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. <sup>5</sup>It shall come to pass, when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, that all the people shall shout with a great shout; then the wall of the city will fall down flat. And the people shall go up every man straight before him.”

<sup>6</sup>Then Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD.” <sup>7</sup>And he said to the people, “Proceed, and march around the city, and let him who is armed advance before the ark of the LORD.”

<sup>8</sup>So it was, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the LORD advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. <sup>9</sup>The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets. <sup>10</sup>Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, “You shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, nor shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, ‘Shout!’ Then you shall shout.” <sup>11</sup>So he had the ark of the LORD circle the city, going around it once. Then they came into the camp and lodged in the camp.

<sup>12</sup>And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Then seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually and blew with the trumpets. And the armed men went before them. But the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets. <sup>14</sup>And the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. So they did six days.

<sup>15</sup>But it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. On that day only they marched around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup>And the seventh time it happened, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: “Shout, for the LORD has given you the city! <sup>17</sup>Now the city shall be doomed by the LORD to destruction, it and all who are in it. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. <sup>18</sup>And you, by all means abstain from the accursed things, lest you become accursed when you take of the accursed things, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. <sup>19</sup>But all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are consecrated to the LORD; they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.”

<sup>20</sup>So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. <sup>21</sup>And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

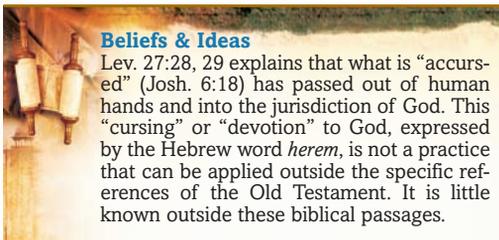

<sup>22</sup>But Joshua had said to the two men who had spied out the country, “Go into the harlot’s house, and from there bring out the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her.” <sup>23</sup>And the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. So they brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Israel. <sup>24</sup>But they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua spared Rahab the harlot, her father’s household, and all that she had. So she dwells in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

<sup>27</sup>So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout all the country.

Defeat at Ai

7 <sup>1</sup>But the children of Israel committed a trespass regarding the accursed things, for

Beliefs & Ideas

Lev. 27:28, 29 explains that what is “accursed” (Josh. 6:18) has passed out of human hands and into the jurisdiction of God. This “cursing” or “devotion” to God, expressed by the Hebrew word herem, is not a practice that can be applied outside the specific references of the Old Testament. It is little known outside these biblical passages.

ACCURSED AND UNDER THE BAN (JOSH. 7:1)

All of the inhabitants of Jericho, humans and animals, were killed as a sacrifice to God. They were “doomed by the LORD to destruction” (Josh. 6:17). In addition, all of Jericho’s property was placed off limits to the Israelites and destroyed, except for items of iron, bronze, silver and gold, which went into the sacred treasury (6:18, 19). All of these things—people, property, valuables—were considered “accursed.” The Hebrew word translated “accursed” referred to things that were completely destroyed or set apart for sacred use.

Accursed things were given to God. Of course, the items were not given to God physically, but rather by being totally destroyed or dedicated to sacred use. They were kept from the Israelites. They were for them “accursed” items. By not taking these items for themselves, the Israelites were acknowledging that such things belonged to God. God was the real conqueror of the city. Jericho was a kind of “tithes,” the first city conquered in the Promised Land. Its possessions, therefore, belonged to God.

Achan’s sin (Josh. 7:1) was that he took a garment from Jericho, even though he knew that everything in Jericho had been dedicated to God. He thus stole from God. By taking an “accursed” item, he himself became cursed.

This same Hebrew word for “accursed” is translated “the curse” in Is. 43:28. Israel (Jacob) would be given “to the curse.” The Israelites had sinned against God, and would now themselves be dedicated to Him through their coming destruction.

Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi,<sup>a</sup> the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed things; so the anger of the LORD burned against the children of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, “Go up and spy out the country.” So the men went up and spied out Ai. <sup>3</sup>And they returned to Joshua and said to him, “Do not let all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai. Do not weary all the people there, for the people of Ai are few.” <sup>4</sup>So about three thousand men went up there from the people, but they fled before the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup>And the men of Ai struck down about thirty-six men, for they chased them from before the gate as far as Shebarim, and struck them down on the descent; therefore the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

<sup>6</sup>Then Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads. <sup>7</sup>And Joshua said, “Alas, Lord GOD, why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all—to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Oh, that we had been content, and dwelt on the other side of the Jordan! <sup>8</sup>O Lord, what shall I say when Israel turns its back before its enemies? <sup>9</sup>For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear it, and surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will You do for Your great name?”

The Sin of Achan

<sup>10</sup>So the LORD said to Joshua: “Get up! Why do you lie thus on your face? <sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. For they have even taken some of the accursed things, and have both stolen and deceived; and they have also put it among their own stuff. <sup>12</sup>Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you. <sup>13</sup>Get up, sanctify the people, and say, ‘Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the LORD God of Israel: “There is an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you.” <sup>14</sup>In the morning therefore you shall be brought according to your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which the LORD takes shall come according to families; and the family which the LORD takes shall come by households; and the household which the LORD takes shall come man by man. <sup>15</sup>Then it shall be that he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.’”

7:1 <sup>a</sup>Called Zimri in 1 Chronicles 2:6

<sup>16</sup>So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel by their tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken. <sup>17</sup>He brought the clan of Judah, and he took the family of the Zarhites; and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man, and Zabdi was taken. <sup>18</sup>Then he brought his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

<sup>19</sup>Now Joshua said to Achan, “My son, I beg you, give glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession to Him, and tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me.”

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver under it. <sup>23</sup>And they took them from the midst of the tent, brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the garment, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had, and they brought them to the Valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day.” So all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

<sup>26</sup>Then they raised over him a great heap of stones, still there to this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Achor<sup>a</sup> to this day.

The Fall of Ai

8 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Joshua: “Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land. <sup>2</sup>And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king. Only its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it.”

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor and sent them away by night. <sup>4</sup>And he commanded them, saying: “Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready. <sup>5</sup>Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city; and it will come about, when they come out against us as at the first, that we shall flee before them. <sup>6</sup>For they will come out after us till we have drawn them from the city, for they will say, ‘They are fleeing before us as at the first.’ Therefore we will flee before them. <sup>7</sup>Then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. <sup>8</sup>And it will be, when you have taken the city, that you shall set the city on fire. According to the commandment of the LORD you shall do. See, I have commanded you.”

<sup>9</sup>Joshua therefore sent them out; and they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people. <sup>10</sup>Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. <sup>11</sup>And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near; and they came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai. Now a valley lay between them and Ai. <sup>12</sup>So he took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. <sup>13</sup>And when they had set the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

<sup>14</sup>Now it happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose early and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.<sup>15</sup> And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.<sup>16</sup> So all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue them. And they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city.<sup>17</sup> There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. So they left the city open and pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.” And Joshua stretched out the spear that was in his hand toward the city.<sup>19</sup> So those in ambush arose quickly out of their place; they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and took it, and hurried to set the city on fire.<sup>20</sup> And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended to heaven. So they had no power to flee this way or that way, and the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.

<sup>21</sup> Now when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.<sup>22</sup> Then the others came out of the city against them; so they were caught in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they struck them down, so that they let none of them remain or escape.<sup>23</sup> But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup> And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they pursued them, and when they all had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.<sup>25</sup> So it was that all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand—all the people of Ai.<sup>26</sup> For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.<sup>27</sup> Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as booty for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua.<sup>28</sup> So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever, a desolation to this day.<sup>29</sup> And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raise over it a great heap of stones that remains to this day.

Joshua Renews the Covenant

<sup>30</sup> Now Joshua built an altar to the LORD God of Israel in Mount Ebal,<sup>31</sup> as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses: “an altar of whole stones over which no man has wielded an iron tool.”<sup>32</sup> And they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.<sup>33</sup> And there, in the presence of the children of Israel, he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.<sup>34</sup> Then all Israel, with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as he who was born among them. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.<sup>35</sup> And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and the cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law.<sup>36</sup> There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the strangers who were living among them.

The Treaty with the Gibeonites

9<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass when all the kings who were on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the lowland and in all the coasts of the Great Sea toward Lebanon—the Hittite, the

The Conquest of Canaan (Central and Southern Campaigns)

From the camp at Gilgal, Joshua launched two campaigns. Jericho fell in the central campaign, which continued with an ambush of Bethel and Ai. Joshua launched the southern campaign against the Amorites assembled near Gibeon, and continued the assault all the way to Debir.

GILGAL, PLACE OF COVENANT (JOSH. 9:6)

Gilgal is a special holy place in the biblical stories. It was there that the newly arrived Israelites were circumcised. This act reestablished them as God's chosen people (Josh. 4:19; 5:7) and was supposed to prepare them spiritually for their conquest of Canaan. Gilgal was also where they celebrated their first Passover in the Promised Land (5:10). The "camp at Gilgal" (9:6) served as the Israelites' base of operations during their early military activities (Josh. 10:6, 7, 15, 43).

It is not surprising that Gilgal became a cultic center. At a later time both Samuel and Saul name Gilgal as a place where one went to offer sacrifices (1 Sam. 10:8; 15:21). Understandably, Saul used Gilgal as a place to intensify nationalistic feelings and loyalty (1 Sam. 11:14, 15). It was there that Saul was made king of Israel.

Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—heard about it,<sup>2</sup> that they gathered together to fight with Joshua and Israel with one accord.

<sup>3</sup>But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, <sup>4</sup>they worked craftily, and went and pretended to be ambassadors. And they took old sacks on their donkeys, old wineskins torn and mended, <sup>5</sup>old and patched sandals on their feet, and old garments on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry and moldy. <sup>6</sup>And they went to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country; now therefore, make a covenant with us."

<sup>7</sup>Then the men of Israel said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you dwell among us; so how can we make a covenant with you?"

<sup>8</sup>But they said to Joshua, "We are your servants."

And Joshua said to them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?"

<sup>9</sup>So they said to him: "From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard of His fame, and all that He did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup>and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan—to Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroath. <sup>11</sup>Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, "Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; now therefore, make a covenant with us."'

<sup>12</sup>This bread of ours we took hot for our provision from our houses on the day we departed to come to you. But now look, it is dry and moldy. <sup>13</sup>And these wineskins which we filled were new, and see, they are torn; and these our garments and our sandals have become old because of the very long journey."

<sup>14</sup>Then the men of Israel took some of their provisions; but they did not ask counsel of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>So Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them to let them live; and the rulers of the congregation swore to them.

<sup>16</sup>And it happened at the end of three days, after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors who dwelt near them. <sup>17</sup>Then the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kirjath Jearim. <sup>18</sup>But the children of Israel did not attack them, because the rulers of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation complained against the rulers.

<sup>19</sup>Then all the rulers said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel; now therefore, we may not touch them. <sup>20</sup>This we will do to them: We will let them live, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to them." <sup>21</sup>And the rulers said to them, "Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for all the congregation, as the rulers had promised them."

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, "Why have you deceived us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' when you dwell near us? <sup>23</sup>Now therefore, you are cursed, and none of you shall be freed from being slaves—woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."

<sup>24</sup>So they answered Joshua and said, "Because your servants were clearly told that the LORD your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore we were very much afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing. <sup>25</sup>And now, here we are, in your hands; do with us as it seems good and right to do to us." <sup>26</sup>So he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they did not kill them. <sup>27</sup>And that day Joshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, in the place which He would choose, even to this day.

The Sun Stands Still

10 <sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it—as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king—and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, <sup>2</sup>that they feared greatly, because Gibeon

WHEN GOD LISTENED TO A MAN (JOSH. 10:12, 13)

Joshua's prayer, "Sun, stand still over Gibeon; And Moon, in the Valley of Aijalon" (Josh. 10:12), seems to request that somehow God stop the sun or perform some other miraculous heavenly event to lengthen the day. Joshua did not pray late in the evening: the sun "over Gibeon" would be in the east, while the moon "in the Valley of Aijalon" would be in the west. This positioning of the sun and moon indicates early morning, and for Joshua to utter a request for a longer day at that time of day seems unusual.

Joshua's asking the sun and moon to "stand still" (10:12) is a request typical of celestial omen texts from Mesopotamia. These texts are concerned with the 1st day of the full moon which came at the middle of the month and was observable by the location of the sun and moon in the early morning on opposite horizons. In Mesopotamian omen texts the sun and moon are asked to "wait" on each other, so that they would be on their respective horizons on the 14th day of the month.

When this positioning occurred, it was seen by the Mesopotamians as a sign of good fortune. For them it indicated that their calculations were accurate, that there would be exactly 30 days in the month, and that the days themselves would be full-length. On the other hand, when the sun and moon were on their respective horizons on any other day, it was considered a bad omen.

The position of the sun in the east (Gibeon) and moon in the west (Valley of Aijalon) suggests that this event occurred near the middle of the month. Joshua may be asking God to allow the sun and moon to "stand still" (10:12) or wait for each other so that they would be on their horizons on a day other than the 14th day of the month. That would cause the Canaanites to believe that that day was an evil day for fighting and give the Israelites the upper hand before the battle began. What made this occasion memorable is that "the LORD heeded the voice of a man" (10:14). God listened to Joshua, and the sun and moon were positioned for Israel's advantage—"the LORD fought for Israel."

was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. <sup>3</sup>Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Come up to me and help me, that we may attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel." <sup>5</sup>Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they and all their armies, and camped before Gibeon and made war against it.

<sup>6</sup>And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Do not forsake your servants; come up to us quickly, save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains have gathered together against us."

<sup>7</sup>So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hand; not a man of them shall stand before you." <sup>9</sup>Joshua therefore came upon them suddenly, having marched all night from Gilgal. <sup>10</sup>So the LORD routed them before Israel, killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, chased them along the road that goes to Beth Horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, as they fled before Israel and were on the descent of Beth Horon, that the LORD cast down large hailstones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than the children of Israel killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel:

"Sun, stand still over Gibeon;
And Moon, in the Valley of Aijalon."

<sup>13</sup> So the sun stood still,
And the moon stopped,
Till the people had revenge
Upon their enemies.

Is this not written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day. <sup>14</sup>And there has been no day like that, before it or after it, that the LORD heeded the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

<sup>15</sup>Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Amorite Kings Executed

<sup>16</sup>But these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in a cave at Makkedah. <sup>17</sup>And it was told Joshua, saying, "The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah."

<sup>18</sup>So Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them.” <sup>19</sup>And do not stay there yourselves, but pursue your enemies, and attack their rear guard. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand.” <sup>20</sup>Then it happened, while Joshua and the children of Israel made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they had finished, that those who escaped entered fortified cities. <sup>21</sup>And all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace.

No one moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings to me from the cave.” <sup>23</sup>And they did so, and brought out those five kings to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

<sup>24</sup>So it was, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” And they drew near and put their feet on their necks. <sup>25</sup>Then Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight.” <sup>26</sup>And afterward Joshua struck them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees; and they were hanging on the trees until evening. <sup>27</sup>So it was at the time of the going down of the sun that Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, cast them into the cave where they had been hidden, and laid large stones against the cave’s mouth, which remain until this very day.

Culture & Society

Hanging was not a way of putting someone to death, but a way of exposing the bodies of those executed (Josh. 10:26). The Law of Moses did not permit exposure past nightfall, but in many societies up to medieval times corpses were left exposed for days or weeks. The Romans exposed thousands of crucified Jews outside the walls of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

Conquest of the Southland

<sup>28</sup>On that day Joshua took Makkedah, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them<sup>a</sup>—all the people who were in it. He let none remain. He also did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup>Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah; and they fought against Libnah. <sup>30</sup>And the LORD also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel; he struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword. He let none remain in it, but did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish; and they encamped against it and fought against it. <sup>32</sup>And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah. <sup>33</sup>Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he left him none remaining.

<sup>34</sup>From Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it and fought against it. <sup>35</sup>They took it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; all the people who were in it he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup>So Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it. <sup>37</sup>And they took it and struck it with the edge of the sword—its king, all its cities, and all the people who were in it; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, but utterly destroyed it and all the people who were in it.

<sup>38</sup>Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and they fought against it. <sup>39</sup>And he took it and its king and all its cities; they struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed all the people who were in it. He left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had done also to Libnah and its king.

<sup>40</sup>So Joshua conquered all the land: the mountain country and the South<sup>a</sup> and the lowland and the wilderness slopes, and all their kings; he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded. <sup>41</sup>And Joshua conquered them from Kadesh Barnea as far as Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even as far as Gibeon. <sup>42</sup>All these kings and their land Joshua took at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. <sup>43</sup>Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Northern Conquest

11 <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor heard these things, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph, <sup>2</sup>and to the kings who were from the north, in the mountains, in the plain south of Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west,<sup>3</sup> to the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite in the mountains, and the Hivite below Hermon in the land of Mizpah.<sup>4</sup> So they went out, they and all their armies with them, as many people as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots.<sup>5</sup> And when all these kings had met together, they came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

<sup>6</sup>But the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow about this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.”<sup>7</sup> So Joshua and all the people of war with him came against them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and they attacked them.<sup>8</sup> And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who defeated them and chased them to Greater Sidon, to the Brook Misrephoth,<sup>a</sup> and to the Valley of Mizpah eastward; they attacked them until they left none of them remaining.<sup>9</sup> So Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

<sup>10</sup>Joshua turned back at that time and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor was formerly the head of all those kingdoms.<sup>11</sup> And they struck all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them. There was none left breathing. Then he burned Hazor with fire.

<sup>12</sup>So all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took and struck with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.<sup>13</sup> But as for the cities that stood on their mounds,<sup>a</sup> Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only, which Joshua burned.<sup>14</sup> And all the spoil of these cities and the livestock, the children of Israel took as booty for themselves; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, and they left none breathing.<sup>15</sup> As the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Plants & Animals

Before about 950 B.C. horses were not used for cavalry in battle, but for pulling chariots. To hamstring a horse is to cripple it by cutting the large tendon in the back of its leg (Josh. 11:6). The destroyed equipment of an enemy is an eloquent sign of their defeat, since they no longer control their means of fighting.

Summary of Joshua's Conquests

<sup>23</sup>So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. Then the land rested from war.

The Conquest of Canaan (Northern Campaign)

A large coalition of kings gathered at the waters of Merom to fight against Joshua. In a surprise attack, Joshua's armies drove the forces back, some toward Tyre and Sidon, others toward Kedes. Joshua divided his forces, destroying Hazor along the way.

THE SEA PEOPLES SETTLE IN PHILISTIA (JOSH. 13:2, 3)

The Philistines were a people group whose origins are not clearly known. New Kingdom Egyptian sources from the 13th and 12th centuries B.C. mention them as one of the Sea Peoples who unsuccessfully invaded Egypt. The inscriptions of Pharaoh Merenptah (1213–1203 B.C.) report that when the Libyans attacked Egypt, there were “foreigners from the sea” fighting within the ranks of the Libyan armies. Egyptian descriptions of Pharaoh Ramesses’ battles against the Sea Peoples list the Philistines among the opponents.

Some scholars believe that the Sea People groups came from the western regions of the Mediterranean and Aegean Seas—from Greece and Crete. Cities, regions and empires fell to these seaborne raiders: Cyprus, north Syria, the Hittite Empire, Ugarit. The Sea Peoples continued down the eastern Mediterranean coastal areas toward Canaan until Egypt’s Ramesses III (1184–1153 B.C.) stopped their advance in 1175 B.C.

Ramesses did not win decisively. Later Egyptian sources record the settlement of some of the Sea Peoples in southern Palestine, which was in the Egyptian sphere of influence. The group called “Philistines” organized a confederation of five major cities: Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. The Sea Peoples’ invasion spawned a new culture in Palestine, one that the Israelites would experience as “Gazites, Ashdodites, Ashkelonites, Gittites, Ekronites” (Josh. 13:3).

The Kings Conquered by Moses

12 <sup>1</sup>These are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed on the other side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the eastern Jordan plain: <sup>2</sup>One king was Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon and ruled half of Gilead, from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, from the middle of that river, even as far as the River Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites, <sup>3</sup>and the eastern Jordan plain from the Sea of Chinneroth as far as the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), the road to Beth Jeshimoth, and southward below the slopes of Pisgah. <sup>4</sup>The other king was Og king of Bashan and his territory, who was of the remnant of the giants, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, <sup>5</sup>and reigned over Mount Hermon, over Salcah, over all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and over half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

<sup>6</sup>These Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel had conquered; and Moses the servant of the LORD had given it as a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

The Kings Conquered by Joshua

<sup>7</sup>And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel conquered on this side of the Jordan, on the west, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon as far as Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions, <sup>8</sup>in the mountain country, in the lowlands, in the Jordan plain, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the South—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the

Remaining Land to Be Conquered

13 <sup>1</sup>Now Joshua was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: “You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed. <sup>2</sup>This is the land that yet remains: all the territory of the Philistines and all that of the Geshurites, <sup>3</sup>from Sihor, which is east of Egypt, as far as the border of Ekron northward (which is counted as Canaanite); the five lords of the Philistines—the Gazites, the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites; <sup>4</sup>from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites; <sup>5</sup>the land of the Gebalites,<sup>a</sup> and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath; <sup>6</sup>all the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon as far as the Brook Misrephoth,<sup>a</sup> and all the Sidonians—they I will drive out from before the children of Israel; only divide it by lot to Israel as an inheritance, as I have commanded you. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh.”

The Land Divided East of the Jordan

<sup>8</sup>With the other half-tribe the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses had given them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD had given them: <sup>9</sup>from Aroer which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and the town that is in the midst of the ravine, and all the plain of Medeba as far as Dibon; <sup>10</sup>all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the children of Ammon; <sup>11</sup>Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salcah; <sup>12</sup>all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants; for Moses had defeated and cast out these.

<sup>13</sup>Nevertheless the children of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maachathites, but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

<sup>14</sup>Only to the tribe of Levi he had given no inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as He said to them.

The Land of Reuben

<sup>15</sup>And Moses had given to the tribe of the children of Reuben an inheritance according to their families. <sup>16</sup>Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the ravine, and all the plain by Medeba; <sup>17</sup>Heshbon and all its cities that are in the plain: Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, <sup>18</sup>Jahaza, Kedemoth, Mephaath, <sup>19</sup>Kirjathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the mountain of the valley, <sup>20</sup>Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth— <sup>21</sup>all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses had struck with the princes of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, who were princes of Sihon dwelling in the country. <sup>22</sup>The children of Israel also killed with the sword Balaam the son of Beor, the soothsayer, among those who were killed by them. <sup>23</sup>And the border of the children of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Gad

<sup>24</sup>Moses also had given an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad according to their families. <sup>25</sup>Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites as far as Aroer, which is before Rabbah, <sup>26</sup>and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir, <sup>27</sup>and in the valley Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as its border, as far as the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth, on the other side of the Jordan eastward. <sup>28</sup>This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Half the Tribe of Manasseh (East)

<sup>29</sup>Moses also had given an inheritance to half the tribe of Manasseh; it was for half the tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families: <sup>30</sup>Their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, sixty cities; <sup>31</sup>half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir according to their families.

<sup>32</sup>These are the areas which Moses had distributed as an inheritance in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward. <sup>33</sup>But to the tribe of Levi Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as He had said to them.

The Land Divided West of the Jordan

14 <sup>1</sup>These are the areas which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed as an inheritance to them. <sup>2</sup>Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe. <sup>3</sup>For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe on the other side of the Jordan; but to the Levites he had given no inheritance among them. <sup>4</sup>For the children of Joseph were two tribes: Manasseh and Ephraim. And they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for their livestock and their property. <sup>5</sup>As the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; and they divided the land.

TRANSITION

The Early Years of Conquest

The tradition in Josh. 14 emphasizes God's blessings to faithful Caleb. He was 40 years old when Moses sent him, along with the others, to spy out the land (Josh. 14:7). That event, recorded in Num. 13:1–6, is located in the 2nd year of the Exodus, either 1445 or 1274 B.C. (see "The Book of Numbers" at Num. 1:1).

Now Caleb had reached the age of 85 (Josh. 14:10). The passing time of 45 years suggests a date of around 1400 or 1229 B.C. This point in the conquest of Canaan was possibly 6 years after Israel's arrival on the plains of Moab in 1406 or 1235 B.C. (see "Moab: On the Doorstep of Canaan" at Num. 20:14).

The listing of Caleb's age is not meant to pinpoint calendar years. Rather, the example of Caleb is important for chs. 13–24 which narrate the distribution of the tribal territories and Joshua's final charge to the tribes. With Caleb we see both faithfulness to God and fulfillment of God's promises. The first inheritance of land would go to one who had been faithful. Furthermore, the granting of that inheritance would fulfill the promise made long before at the beginning of the Exodus (Num. 14:24).

• Joshua 14:6—24:33

Joshua

Caleb Inherits Hebron

14 :6 Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal. And Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him: "You know the word which the LORD said to Moses the man of God concerning you and me in Kadesh Barnea. <sup>7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back word to him as it was in my heart. <sup>8</sup>Nevertheless my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, but I wholly followed the LORD my God. <sup>9</sup>So Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land where your foot has trodden shall be your inheritance and your children's forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.' <sup>10</sup>And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years, ever since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while Israel wandered in the wilderness; and now, here I am this day, eighty-five years old. <sup>11</sup>As yet I am as strong this day as on the day that Moses sent me; just as my strength was then, so now is my strength for war, both for going out and for coming in. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, give me this mountain of which the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and that the cities were great and fortified. It may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall be able to drive them out as the LORD said."

<sup>13</sup>And Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as an inheritance. <sup>14</sup>Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And the name of Hebron formerly was Kirjath Arba (Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim).

Then the land had rest from war.

The Land of Judah

15 <sup>1</sup>So this was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families: The border of Edom at the Wilderness of Zin southward was the extreme southern boundary. <sup>2</sup>And their southern border began at the shore of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward. <sup>3</sup>Then it went out to the southern side of the Ascent of Akrabbim, passed along to Zin, ascended on the south side of Kadesh Barnea, passed along to Hezron, went up to Adar, and went around to Karkaa. <sup>4</sup>From there it passed toward Azmon and went out to the Brook of Egypt; and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your southern border.

The Wilderness of Zin

And the border on the northern quarter begin at the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup>The border went up to Beth Hoglah and passed north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. <sup>7</sup>Then the border went up toward Debir from the Valley of Achor, and it turned northward toward Gilgal, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley. The border continued toward the waters of En Shemesh and ended at En Rogel. <sup>8</sup>And the border went up by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom to the southern slope of the Jebusite city (which is Jerusalem). The border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley of Rephaim<sup>a</sup> northward. <sup>9</sup>Then the border went around from the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and extended to the cities of Mount Ephron. And the border went around to Baalah (which is Kirjath Jearim). <sup>10</sup>Then the border turned westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (which is Chesalon), went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed on to Timnah. <sup>11</sup>And the border went out to the side of Ekron northward. Then the border went around to Shicron, passed along to Mount Baalah, and extended to Jabneel; and the border ended at the sea.

Culture & Society

Arba is reported to be the ancestor of the people, or tribe, of the Anakim (Josh. 14:15; 15:13). Similarly the nomadic Arabs, or Bedouin, are known by the name of a distant ancestor. For example, the name “Beni Amir” means the “sons of Amir.” These names do not mean that a genealogy can be traced back to a certain person, but that a tribe associates itself with a certain famous name.

Caleb Occupies Hebron and Debir

<sup>13</sup>Now to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a share among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, namely, Kirjath Arba, which is Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak). <sup>14</sup>Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak from there: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi, the children of Anak. <sup>15</sup>Then he went up from there to the inhabitants of Debir (formerly the name of Debir was Kirjath Sepher).

<sup>16</sup>And Caleb said, “He who attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as wife.” <sup>17</sup>So Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife. <sup>18</sup>Now it was so, when she came to him, that she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. So she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?” <sup>19</sup>She answered, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water.” So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

The Cities of Judah

MERENPTAH, THE SUBDUER OF GEZER (JOSH. 16:10)

Gezer was a major city in central Palestine, strategically located in the hills between the mountains and the coast. As the Israelites made incursions into Canaan, they were unable to occupy Gezer, and it remained a Canaanite-controlled city (Josh. 16:10; Judg. 1:29). The Canaanites of Gezer were not so fortunate in facing the pharaohs of Egypt, though.

In the days before Israel's monarchy, two different pharaohs waged victorious campaigns against Gezer. Thutmose III claims to have captured the city in his first campaign around 1458 B.C. Gezer is one of over 100 city names on Thutmose's victory list inscribed on the walls of the temple of Amon at Karnak. Yet it was another pharaoh—Merenptah—who became known for his victory over Gezer.

Merenptah (also spelled Merneptah) succeeded the great builder Ramesses II to become the fourth king of Egypt's 19th Dynasty (c. 1213–1203 B.C.). This monarch appears to have kept the borders of the Egyptian empire intact. Early in his reign (1210 B.C.) he subdued the city of Gezer, and obtained the title, "Subduer of Gezer." Merenptah claims credit for Gezer's destruction in the Israel Stele, a victory inscription that also mentions the vanquishing of "Israel."

If there is any connection between the Gezer campaign and the boast against Israel in the stele, it is not known. "Israel" may simply have been loosely included in a list of Palestinian names. There is no evidence that Merenptah actually campaigned against Israel itself.

Although Israel could not conquer Gezer in Joshua's time, the city would later come to the Israelites through yet another Egyptian pharaoh. Some think that Siamun (978–959 B.C.) is the unnamed pharaoh of 1 Kin. 9:16 who captured Gezer and gave it to Israel's king Solomon as a wedding present.

<sup>63</sup>As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Ephraim and West Manasseh

The Land of Ephraim

<sup>6</sup>And the border went out toward the sea on the north side of Michmethath; then the border went around eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed by it on the east of Janohah. <sup>7</sup>Then it went down from Janohah to Ataroth and Naarah,<sup>a</sup> reached to Jericho, and came out at the Jordan.

<sup>10</sup>And they did not drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites to this day and have become forced laborers.

The Other Half-Tribe of Manasseh (West)

17 <sup>1</sup>There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph: namely for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war; therefore he was given Gilead and Bashan. <sup>2</sup>And there was a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer,<sup>a</sup> the children of Helek, the children of Asriel, the children of Shechem, the children of Hopher, and the children of Shemida; these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

<sup>3</sup>But Zelophehad the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup>And they came near before Eleazar the priest, before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers." Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers. <sup>5</sup>Ten shares fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup>because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons; and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

and the border went along south to the inhabitants of En Tappuah. <sup>8</sup>Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup>And the border descended to the Brook Kanah, southward to the brook. These cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook; and it ended at the sea.

<sup>10</sup>Southward it was Ephraim's, northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was its border. Manasseh's territory was adjoining Asher on the north and Issachar on the east. <sup>11</sup>And in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth Shean and its towns, Ibleam and its towns, the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of En Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns—three hilly regions. <sup>12</sup>Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities, but the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land. <sup>13</sup>And it happened, when the children of Israel grew strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

More Land for Ephraim and Manasseh

<sup>14</sup>Then the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, “Why have you given us only one lot and one share to inherit, since we are a great people, inasmuch as the LORD has blessed us until now?”

<sup>15</sup>So Joshua answered them, “If you are a great people, then go up to the forest country and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the giants, since the mountains of Ephraim are too confined for you.”

<sup>16</sup>But the children of Joseph said, “The mountain country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are of Beth Shean and its towns and those who are of the Valley of Jezreel.”

<sup>17</sup>And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—saying, “You are a great people and have great power; you shall not have only one lot, <sup>18</sup>but the mountain country shall be yours. Although it is wooded, you shall cut it down, and its farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots and are strong.”

The Remainder of the Land Divided

18 <sup>1</sup>Now the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of meeting there. And the land was subdued before them. <sup>2</sup>But there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance.

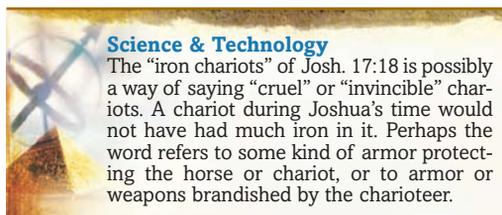

<sup>3</sup>Then Joshua said to the children of Israel: “How long will you neglect to go and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers has given you? <sup>4</sup>Pick out from among you three men for each tribe, and I will send them; they shall rise and go through the land, survey it according to their inheritance, and come back to me. <sup>5</sup>And they shall divide it into seven parts. Judah shall remain in their territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall remain in their territory on the north. <sup>6</sup>You shall therefore survey the land in seven parts and bring the survey here to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. <sup>7</sup>But the Levites have no part among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the men arose to go away; and Joshua charged those who went to survey the land, saying, “Go, walk through the land, survey it, and come back to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.” <sup>9</sup>So the men went, passed through the land, and wrote the survey in a book in seven parts by cities; and they came to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh. <sup>10</sup>Then Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

The Land of Benjamin

<sup>14</sup>Then the border extended around the west side to the south, from the hill that lies before

Science & Technology

The “iron chariots” of Josh. 17:18 is possibly a way of saying “cruel” or “invincible” chariots. A chariot during Joshua’s time would not have had much iron in it. Perhaps the word refers to some kind of armor protecting the horse or chariot, or to armor or weapons brandished by the charioteer.

JEBUS, CITY OF THE JEBUSITES (JOSH. 18:28)

In Josh. 18:21–28 the biblical writer lists the cities that made up the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin. For one of those cities he adds an identification in parentheses: Jebus (which is Jerusalem). Jebus was the pre-Israelite name for Jerusalem, capital city of Israel. The inhabitants of Jebus, the Jebusites, are listed as one of the Canaanite tribes who dwelt in the region of central Palestine (Ex. 33:2). Some scholars believe that they were a non-Semitic people, possibly related to the Hurrians.

The name “Jebus” is not mentioned in any source outside of the Bible. The city’s Hebrew name, Jerusalem, is found in the Egyptian Execration Texts (19th to 18th centuries B.C.) and in the documents from Tell el-Amarna in Egypt (14th to 13th centuries B.C.). Such evidence suggests that the city’s name had been Jerusalem for several centuries.

Much remains unknown about Jebus. We do not know whether the Jebusites received their name from the city Jebus, or whether Jebus was named after the Jebusites who dwelt there. When the name was changed to Jebus is not known, nor whether, at some point, the city could have been called by both names. It is possible that David restored the earlier name, Jerusalem, when he became king of Israel and captured the city from the Jebusites (c. 1003 B.C.; 2 Sam. 5:6, 7).

Beth Horon southward; and it ended at Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the west side.

<sup>15</sup>The south side began at the end of Kirjath Jearim, and the border extended on the west and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoth. <sup>16</sup>Then the border came down to the end of the mountain that lies before the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is in the Valley of the Rephaim<sup>a</sup> on the north, descended to the Valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite city on the south, and descended to En Rogel. <sup>17</sup>And it went around from the north, went out to En Shemesh, and extended toward Geliloth, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. <sup>18</sup>Then it passed along toward the north side of Arabah,<sup>a</sup> and went down to Arabah. <sup>19</sup>And the border passed along to the north side of Beth Hoglah; then the border ended at the north bay at the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the southern boundary.

<sup>20</sup>The Jordan was its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to its boundaries all around, according to their families.

Simeon’s Inheritance with Judah

The Land of Zebulun

<sup>10</sup>The third lot came out for the children of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid. <sup>11</sup>Their border went toward the west and to Maralah, went to Dabbasheth, and extended along the brook that is east of Jokneam. <sup>12</sup>Then from Sarid it went eastward toward the sunrise along the border of Chisloth Tabor, and went out toward Daberath, bypassing Japhia. <sup>13</sup>And from there it passed along on the east of Gath Hopher, toward Eth Kazin, and extended to Rimmon, which borders on Neah. <sup>14</sup>Then the border went around it on the north side of Hannathon, and it ended in the Valley of Jiphthah El. <sup>15</sup>Included were Kattath, Nahallal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages. <sup>16</sup>This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The Land of Issachar

<sup>17</sup>The fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.

18:16 <sup>a</sup>Literally Giants 18:18 <sup>a</sup>Or Beth Arabah (compare 15:6 and 18:22)

The Land of Asher

The Land of Naphtali

The Land of Dan

Joshua's Inheritance

<sup>49</sup>When they had made an end of dividing the land as an inheritance according to their borders, the children of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>50</sup>According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked for, Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim; and he built the city and dwelt in it.

<sup>51</sup>These were the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel

Cities of Refuge

The cities of refuge were established at strategic locations to provide a place of sanctuary for those who had killed someone unintentionally. There they remained until either being judged innocent by the congregation or until the death of the current high priest. Only then could they return to their original home without fear of reprisal.

19:28 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; a few Hebrew manuscripts read Abdon (compare 21:30 and 1 Chronicles 6:74).

SUMERIAN CITIES OF REFUGE (JOSH. 20:1-9)

When Israel entered Canaan, they appointed six locations to be “cities of refuge” (Josh. 20:2; Num. 35:13, 14). These cities were intended to stop the emergence of blood feuds, since the custom of blood revenge was long-standing (see Gen. 9:6). They were places where someone who had killed another by accident (Josh. 20:3) could go in order to escape the quick revenge of the dead person’s family. These cities were not places where justice could be avoided, but places where further bloodshed could be prevented while an investigation took place (20:6).

Other Near Eastern peoples besides Israel provided places of refuge for its fugitives. A Sumerian incantation hymn dedicates a temple to the god Ninurta “on the battlefield by the cities of all the countries.” The temple is described as the “house of refuge, wide house of the protective deity.” As described in the Sumerian hymn, this house of refuge functioned as a “far-off ship moored in a foreign land” for the person who was confined to it. It was designated for “that person who in his own village, any man could cut him down.”

The Sumerian text does not explicitly describe the reasons why the individual would need refuge in the temple of Ninurta. In contrast, the Israelite laws do specify what constituted an unintentional or accidental homicide (Num. 35:22, 23; Deut. 19:4, 5). Both the Sumerians and Israelites believed that their gods offered protection to certain persons. Ninurta is called “the protective deity,” and Moses establishes the cities of refuge at the command of Yahweh (Num. 35:9-11). Both cultures knew that a place of refuge was needed to curb uncontrollable blood feuds.

divided as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

The Cities of Refuge

20 <sup>1</sup>The LORD also spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying: ‘Appoint for yourselves cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses, <sup>3</sup>that the slayer who kills a person accidentally or unintentionally may flee there; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. <sup>4</sup>And when he flees to one of those cities, and stands at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declares his case in the hearing of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city as one of them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them. <sup>5</sup>Then if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor unintentionally, but did not hate him beforehand. <sup>6</sup>And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the slayer may return and come to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.’”

<sup>7</sup>So they appointed Kedesh in Galilee, in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron) in the mountains of Judah. <sup>8</sup>And on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness on the plain, from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwelt among them, that whoever killed a person accidentally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the congregation.

Cities of the Levites

21 <sup>1</sup>Then the heads of the fathers’ houses of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers’ houses of the tribes of the children of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, “The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for our livestock.” <sup>3</sup>So the children of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their common-lands:

<sup>4</sup>Now the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Judah, from the tribe of Simeon, and from the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>5</sup>The rest of the children of Kohath had ten cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>6</sup>And the children of Gershon had thirteen cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

<sup>7</sup>The children of Merari according to their families had twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.

<sup>8</sup>And the children of Israel gave these cities with their common-lands by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

was the father of Anak), which is Hebron, in the mountains of Judah, with the common-land surrounding it.<sup>12</sup> But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

<sup>27</sup> Also to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, from the other half-tribe of Manasseh, they gave Golan in Bashan with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), and Be Eshterah with its common-land: two cities;<sup>28</sup> and from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its common-land, Daberath with its common-land,<sup>29</sup> Jarmuth with its common-land, and En Gannim with its common-land: four cities;<sup>30</sup> and from the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its common-land, Abdon with its common-land,<sup>31</sup> Helkath with its common-land, and Rehob with its common-land: four cities;<sup>32</sup> and from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Hammoth Dor with its common-land, and Kartan with its common-land: three cities.<sup>33</sup> All the cities of the Gershonites ac-ording to their families were thirteen cities with their common-lands.

Geography & Environment

It is notoriously difficult to estimate the size of ancient populations for the cities inhabited by the Israelites (Josh. 21:43). Archaeological evidence suggests that the population of Palestine in the 14th century B.C. was not greater than 250,000 in all. The site of ancient Jericho is only eight and one-half acres in size, and most cities had fewer than 1,000 inhabitants.

The Promise Fulfilled

<sup>43</sup> So the LORD gave to Israel all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it.<sup>44</sup> The LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood against them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.<sup>45</sup> Not a word failed of any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

Eastern Tribes Return to Their Lands

22 <sup>1</sup> Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh,<sup>2</sup> and said to them: “You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.<sup>3</sup> You have not left your brethren these many days, up to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.<sup>4</sup> And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brethren, as He promised them; now therefore,

THE LITERATURE OF UGARIT

Writings of “the Canaanites” (Josh. 24:11) were discovered in Syria at Ras Shamra, known by its ancient name Ugarit. The Canaanite texts include myths, epics, and legends written in a unique alphabetic script, now called Ugaritic.

Ugaritic Legends and Myths

Legend of Keret	Named for its major character, Keret, king of Hubur. Much of this story contains advice from El, the head of the gods, to Keret on where to find a new wife.
Legend of Aqhat	The story of King Aqhat, who is the son of Daniel. The goddess Anath has Aqhat killed in order to obtain his beautiful bow for her arsenal. The father Daniel buries his son and mourns for a 7-year period.
Baal-Anath Cycle	Various episodes describe cosmic battles between the divine forces of barrenness and productivity, sterility and fertility. The victor in these wars is sometimes Baal, sometimes Yam. Baal’s consort, the goddess Anath, fights against Yam and Mot.

return and go to your tents and to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan. <sup>5</sup>But take careful heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.” <sup>6</sup>So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

<sup>7</sup>Now to half the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the other half of it Joshua gave a possession among their brethren on this side of the Jordan, westward. And indeed, when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, <sup>8</sup>and spoke to them, saying, “Return with much riches to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with bronze, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.”

and departed from the children of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

An Altar by the Jordan

<sup>13</sup>Then the children of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, <sup>14</sup>and with him ten rulers, one ruler each from the chief house of every tribe of Israel; and each one was the head of the house of his father among the divisions<sup>a</sup> of Israel. <sup>15</sup>Then they came to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD: ‘What treachery is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built for yourselves an altar, that you might rebel this day against the LORD? <sup>17</sup>Is the iniquity of Peor not enough for us, from which we are not cleansed till this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,<sup>18</sup> but that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And it shall be, if you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.<sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, if the land of your possession is unclean, then cross over to the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD's tabernacle stands, and take possession among us; but do not rebel against the LORD, nor rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God.<sup>20</sup> Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity?'

<sup>21</sup>Then the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the divisions<sup>a</sup> of Israel: <sup>22</sup>'The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, He knows, and let Israel itself know—if it is in rebellion, or if in treachery against the LORD, do not save us this day.<sup>23</sup> If we have built ourselves an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer on it burnt offerings or grain offerings, or if to offer peace offerings on it, let the LORD Himself require an account.<sup>24</sup> But in fact we have done it for fear, for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your descendants may speak to our descendants, saying, "What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?"<sup>25</sup> For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between you and us, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no part in the LORD.'" So your descendants would make our descendants cease fearing the LORD.'<sup>26</sup> Therefore we said, 'Let us now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice,<sup>27</sup> but that it may be a witness between you and us and our generations after us, that we may perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your descendants may not say to our descendants in time to come, "You have no part in the LORD."'

<sup>28</sup>Therefore we said that it will be, when they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, 'Here is the replica of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, though not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between you and us.'<sup>29</sup> Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn from following the LORD this day, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for grain offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His tabernacle."

<sup>32</sup>And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the rulers, returned from the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought back word to them.<sup>33</sup> So the thing pleased the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God; they spoke no more of going against them in battle, to destroy the land where the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

Joshua's Farewell Address

23 <sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass, a long time after the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua was old, advanced in age.<sup>2</sup> And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them:

22:21 <sup>a</sup>Literally thousands 22:30 <sup>a</sup>Literally thousands

THE BROTHERS AND THE MOON GOD (JOSH. 24:2)

Joshua reminded the people that their ancestors once lived in the region of the Euphrates River, where they “served other gods” (Josh. 24:2). The specific ancestors named are Terah and his two sons, Abraham and Nahor. In this ancestral family we witness a split, with one son continuing in his father’s faith, while the other son pursued a new faith.

Terah lived at Ur in southern Mesopotamia. He moved about 600 miles north to Haran in northern Mesopotamia (Gen. 11:31), taking with him his son Abraham, Sarai (Abraham’s wife), and Lot (Terah’s grandson). Terah’s other son, Nahor, is not reported to have made the journey to Haran at this time. Neither did Nahor take his brother Abraham’s journey of faith to believe in the God Yahweh.

Who were the “other gods” (Josh. 24:2) that Terah and Nahor worshiped? Since these individuals were associated with the cities of Ur and Haran, it is likely that one of the “other gods” was Sin, the Mesopotamian moon god. Both Ur and Haran were centers for the worship of this lunar deity. The main temples at Haran and at Ur were dedicated to Sin. Living in the religious culture of these cities, Terah’s family, being polytheists, were probably moon worshippers.

The brothers Abraham and Nahor took different directions of faith, and their respective decisions influenced their offspring. The participants in property agreements of ancient times often sealed their agreements by invoking the gods of their ancestors. In such an agreement, Laban, the descendant of Nahor, swore by his ancestor’s gods, while Jacob swore by Yahweh, the God of his father Isaac and grandfather Abraham (Gen. 31:53).

“I am old, advanced in age. <sup>3</sup>You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the LORD your God is He who has fought for you. <sup>4</sup>See, I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea westward. <sup>5</sup>And the LORD your God will expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight. So you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you. <sup>6</sup>Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, lest you turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left, <sup>7</sup>and lest you go among these nations, these who remain among you. You shall not make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause anyone to swear by them; you shall not serve them nor bow down to them, <sup>8</sup>but you shall hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day. <sup>9</sup>For the LORD has driven out from before you great and strong nations; but as for you, no one has been able to stand against you to this day. <sup>10</sup>One man of you shall chase a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, as He promised you. <sup>11</sup>Therefore take careful heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God. <sup>12</sup>Or else, if indeed you do go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations—these that remain among you—and make marriages with them, and go in to them and they to you, <sup>13</sup>know for certain that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>14</sup>“Behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass for you; not one word of them has failed. <sup>15</sup>Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all the good things have come upon you which the LORD your God promised you, so the LORD will bring upon you all harmful things, until He has destroyed you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>16</sup>When you have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed down to them, then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He has given you.”

The Covenant at Shechem

24 <sup>1</sup>Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup>And Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘Your fathers,

THE COVENANT RENEWED AT SHECHEM (JOSH. 24:15)

The ancient fortified city of Shechem was the first capital of the northern kingdom of Israel. Its name means “shoulder,” probably because the city was built mainly on the slope, or shoulder, of Mount Ebal. Shechem was an important city long before the Israelites occupied Canaan. The city has been destroyed and rebuilt several times through the centuries.

Shechem is first mentioned in connection with Abraham’s journey into the land of Canaan. When Abraham eventually came to Shechem, the Lord appeared to him and announced that this was the land He would give to Abraham’s descendants. Because of this incident, Shechem is an important place in the religious history of the Hebrew people.

After the Israelites conquered Canaan under the leadership of Joshua, an altar was built at Shechem. Its building was accompanied by a covenant ceremony in obedience to the command of Moses, given earlier in Deuteronomy 27:12–13. Because Shechem was situated between Mount Ebal and Mount Gerizim, this covenant ceremony took on a symbolic meaning. To this day Mount Gerizim is forested, while Mount Ebal is barren. Thus the blessings of faithfully keeping the covenant were proclaimed from Mount Gerizim, while the curses of breaking the covenant were proclaimed from Mount Ebal.

At the close of his life, Joshua gathered the tribes of Israel at Shechem (Josh. 24:1). Here he reviewed God’s gracious dealings with Israel and performed a covenant-renewing ceremony on behalf of the nation. He closed his speech with his famous statement, “Choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve . . . but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD” (Josh. 24:15).

including Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, dwelt on the other side of the River<sup>6</sup> in old times; and they served other gods. <sup>3</sup>Then I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River, led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and gave him Isaac. <sup>4</sup>To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I gave the mountains of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Also I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to what I did among them. Afterward I brought you out.

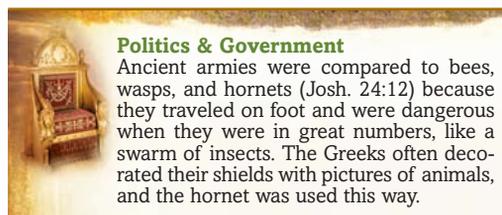

<sup>6</sup>Then I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea. <sup>7</sup>So they cried out to the LORD; and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, brought the sea upon them, and covered them. And your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you dwelt in the wilderness a long time. <sup>8</sup>And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you. <sup>9</sup>Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose to make war against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you. <sup>10</sup>But I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he continued to bless you. So I delivered you out of his hand. <sup>11</sup>Then you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho fought against you—also the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I delivered them into your hand. <sup>12</sup>I sent the hornet before you which drove them out from before you, also the two kings of the Amorites, but not with your sword or with your bow. <sup>13</sup>I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you dwell in them; you eat of the vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.’

<sup>14</sup>“Now therefore, fear the LORD, serve Him in sincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River and in Egypt. Serve the LORD! <sup>15</sup>And if it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”

<sup>16</sup>So the people answered and said: “Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; <sup>17</sup>for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went and among all the people through whom we passed. <sup>18</sup>And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, including the Amorites who dwell in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God.”

<sup>19</sup>But Joshua said to the people, “You cannot serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous

Politics & Government

Ancient armies were compared to bees, wasps, and hornets (Josh. 24:12) because they traveled on foot and were dangerous when they were in great numbers, like a swarm of insects. The Greeks often decorated their shields with pictures of animals, and the hornet was used this way.

24:2 <sup>6</sup>Hebrew Nahar, the Euphrates, and so in verses 3, 14, and 15

God; He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. <sup>20</sup>If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and consume you, after He has done you good.”

<sup>21</sup>And the people said to Joshua, “No, but we will serve the LORD!”

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD for yourselves, to serve Him.”

And they said, “We are witnesses!”

<sup>23</sup>“Now therefore,” he said, “put away the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD God of Israel.”

<sup>24</sup>And the people said to Joshua, “The LORD our God we will serve, and His voice we will obey!”

<sup>25</sup>So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

<sup>26</sup>Then Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God. And he took a large stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD. <sup>27</sup>And Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be a witness to us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us. It shall therefore be a witness to you, lest you deny your God.” <sup>28</sup>So Joshua let the people depart, each to his own inheritance.

Death of Joshua and Eleazar

<sup>29</sup>Now it came to pass after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred and ten years old. <sup>30</sup>And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Serah, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.

<sup>31</sup>Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had known all the works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

<sup>32</sup>The bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel had brought up out of Egypt, they buried at Shechem, in the plot of ground which Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for one hundred pieces of silver, and which had become an inheritance of the children of Joseph.

<sup>33</sup>And Eleazar the son of Aaron died. They buried him in a hill belonging to Phinehas his son, which was given to him in the mountains of Ephraim.

FROM TRIBES TO A NATION

A sweep of events marks Israel's rise from a loose confederation of tribes to a great kingdom.

The conquest of Canaan under Joshua is pictured as a united effort by the Israelite people. Yet because of natural boundaries and local concerns, Israel became an increasingly fragmented people. This was a time when international power in the ancient world was at a low ebb. Still Israel was barely surviving against such relatively insignificant peoples as the Moabites, Midianites, and Amalekites. The Israelite tribes were struggling to find a foothold in the new land.

Israel's story makes a transition, however, from the loose-knit group of tribes to a highly organized monarchy. The tribes that were governed by divinely selected judges eventually became a kingdom ruled by a dynasty also chosen under divine guidance. This story is told through a dramatic sweep of events that produced the most powerful empire in the ancient Middle East, in the golden age under the leadership of David and Solomon.

ARCHAEOLOGY AND THE PAST

Archaeological excavations reveal that such Canaanite cities as Bethel or Beth Shemesh were flourishing urban cultures. Houses were well built, with paved floors, and cities had public drainage systems and fortified walls. Sophisticated pottery, art, jewelry, and statues of gods are found in large numbers. The pottery and other goods discovered suggest that trade with Syria, Egypt, and the Aegean flourished. Stone bowls from ancient Egypt were found in the ruins, attesting to a trade in "antiques."

Archaeology offers a different picture of Israelite settlements during this period. Towns appeared in the hill country for the first time, including such places as Shiloh, Mizpah, and Gibeah, among others. The houses were built of stones stacked together, with no attempt to shape the stones to fit, and with no mortar to hold them together. Art and pottery were crude, and there are almost no signs of trade. This picture fits with that in the Book of Judges: the Israelites were poor, oppressed, and threatened by the superior cultures of their new neighbors; they were barely clinging to existence.

The transition from judges to kings can be seen in archaeology. Gibeah, Saul's fortress, has been excavated, revealing a two-story building, well built, with at least one watchtower. A higher quality pottery was found there, and—most important—an iron plowpoint. Israel was beginning to use iron. Yet it was David who "prepared iron in abundance" (1 Chr. 22:3) for the construction of a temple. All the iron fastenings that David stored up made the building of Solomon's temple possible. Iron nails held longer and tighter than those of bronze.

While David began various building projects in Jerusalem (2 Sam. 5:9, 11), very little has been uncovered by archaeologists. Excavations at Jerusalem do show an ingenious water system through which David's soldiers may have climbed to capture the city, when it was known as Jebus (2 Sam. 5:8). The situation changes, however, with David's son Solomon. Several archaeological finds lend support to the biblical picture of Solomon as Israel's first great builder.

Solomon was a trader in chariots and horses, buying chariots in Egypt and selling them farther north and east. Chariot cities built by Solomon include Megiddo, Hazor, and Gezer. All of these cities show evidence of fortifications dating to Solomon's time, particularly the six-chambered gates that were common in Solomon's building enterprises.

Excavations at Ezion Geber, on the Gulf of Aqaba, have uncovered the remains of a metal industry, apparently worked by slaves. Solomon controlled the mines of the Sinai and had a monopoly on the metal industry of his day. It was from these mines, most likely, that the great bronze doors and other metal trappings of the temple came. Ezion Geber was also a seaport, from which Solomon's ships went on trading expeditions to Africa every third year (1 Kin. 10:22). Some archaeological evidence of the spice trade with Arabia suggests that the famous queen of Sheba visited Solomon as much for economic reasons as to hear his wisdom.

Solomon's most significant building project was the temple and royal palace. The plan of Solomon's temple, as described in the Bible, is similar to plans of other temples in Canaan and Phoenicia. In fact, a temple dedicated to Yahweh has been excavated near the city of Arad in the Negev. It was part of a royal fortress from the time of Solomon, and differs from the Jerusalem temple mainly in having a broad room, rather than the long holy place. The 20-year temple-palace enterprise (2 Chr. 8:1) was impressive testimony that Israel had made the transition from tribes to a great nation.

THE PEOPLES AND GROUPS

Much of Israel's history reflects the relative strength and weakness of Egypt and the empires of Mesopotamia. These major empires were weak during the reigns of David and Solomon, allowing both kings to expand their Israelite kingdoms. Yet other peoples interacted with Israel during the settlement and kingdom period.

The Sea Peoples were a great migration of seaborne groups coming out of Greece and the regions around the Aegean Sea. They overran ancient civilizations in Troy, Cyprus, and Asia Minor. They attacked Egypt by both land and sea, and Pharaoh Ramesses III (1184–1153 B.C.), while preventing their advance into Egypt, did allow them to settle in Egyptian strongholds on the Palestine coast. One of the Sea Peoples, the Philistines, controlled much of Palestine, and only under King David were the Israelites able to compete with and ultimately defeat the Philistines.

The Canaanites were a highly cultured people in the land when Israel arrived, with superiority in areas of building, art, trade, and economics. But their most important threat to Israel was in the area of religion. A nomadic people trying to settle in the land must have found it almost impossible not to think the gods of the Canaanites were powerful indeed, giving the Canaanite people such wealth and power. The documents found at Ugarit (Ras Shamra) include many of the myths, rituals, hymns, and prayers of the Canaanites.

The Arameans were the various tribes and kingdoms located in southern Syria, just northeast of Canaan. Cushan-Rishathaim, an unknown king from the early days of the judges (Judg. 3:8, 10), is sometimes identified as an Aramean. More definite references to Arameans (or Syrians), though, come from the time of David. Aram often refers to Aram-Damascus, the state whose capital was Damascus. David eventually conquered an alliance of Arameans from Damascus and from Zobah, an Aramean kingdom north of Damascus ruled by King Hadadezer (2 Sam. 8:3–8). Damascus regained its independence from Israel during Solomon's reign (1 Kin. 11:23–25).

Several nomadic or seminomadic groups raided the settled lands from time to time. The Amalekites are mentioned only in the Bible. The Midianites threatened Israel during the era of the judges and were opposed by Israel's judge Gideon (Judg. 6–8). What made such raids successful was the domestication of the camel, which freed travelers (and raiders) to range farther afield into the deserts. By David's reign these raiding groups were no longer serious threats.

THE BIBLICAL LITERATURE

Biblical books which relate Israel's transition to a kingdom include Judges, Ruth, 1 and 2 Samuel, 1 Chronicles, and parts of 1 Kings and 2 Chronicles. These books are a special kind of history: they not only give data about the past, but they try to explain what the data mean and how God was active in the history of the people. Judges is a collection of narratives about tribal heroes and heroines in the period between the death of Joshua and the time of Samuel. Ruth is about a foreign woman through whom God works to bring forth King David. 1 and 2 Samuel report the end of the judges and the rise of the monarchy in Israel. They include the lives of Samuel, Saul, and David.

The histories of Samuel, Kings, and Chronicles report the golden age of monarchy under David and Solomon. Many of Israel's writings were associated with these great kings. Traditionally, more of the Psalms were ascribed to David than to any other person. The glory years of Solomon are reflected in the love songs of the Song of Solomon, in the collections of sayings on the good life in Proverbs, and in the ultimate questions of life and death covered in Ecclesiastes.

A TRIBAL CONFEDERATION IN ISRAEL

Having established at least a foothold in the land of Canaan, Israel now organized itself into a loose confederation of independent tribes. The link connecting these clans was their God. The tribes celebrated common religious festivals at the shrine where the ark of the covenant was kept. The shrine was movable, but it was most often located at Gilgal and Shiloh.

The tribal confederation had military purposes as well. When an outside people invaded, the clans were to join in a holy war. Some leader would take the initiative and summon the tribes to battle. These leaders, for the most part, we call the judges.

The judges led makeshift armies, but they did not have to face the forces of the major empires. Through most of the period of the judges, Egypt and the countries of Mesopotamia were weak and preoccupied with internal problems. The wars of the Book of Judges are waged against unconquered Canaanites and such small neighboring nations as Edom, Midian, and Ammon.

Toward the end of the Late Bronze Age (1500–1200 B.C.), though, a new group began to arrive in the land of Canaan, evidently from across the Mediterranean. They had war chariots and knew how to use iron, giving them a military advantage over the Israelites, who only had bronze. These seaborne bands, called the Sea Peoples, settled the fertile land along the southern coast. Among these peoples was the group called by the name “Philistines.”

The presence of the Philistines helps to explain why the tribe of Dan, to whom Joshua allotted the Philistine coastland, never conquered any of its portion. Despite the uneven efforts of the Danite judge Samson, the tribe of Dan ultimately left the coast and found itself a new homeland far to the north (Judg. 18:1).

The Book of Judges

The brief introduction of the Book of Judges (Judg. 1:1–2:6) again makes clear that the Israelite invasion of Canaan was incomplete. The major portion of the book (3:7–16:31) focuses on the judges, the men and women by whom God delivered His people from oppressors. Though the judges were usually military leaders, they also exercised administrative duties, and some of them are not reported to have led armies at all (such as the “minor judges”; cf. Judg. 10:1–5; 12:8–15).

By the end of the book, the confederacy appears ready to collapse. The tribes had never been entirely unified either in worship or war. Four of them, Reuben, Gad (Gilead), Dan, and Asher, seem not to have responded to Deborah’s summons to assist the other tribes in battle (Judg. 5:16, 17). By the latter stages of the judges’ period, the tribes had fallen into idolatry and civil war. The refrain of the final chapters—“In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes” (17:6; 21:25)—points ahead to 1 Samuel and the beginning of the monarchy.

The Continuing Conquest of Canaan

1:1 Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass that the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, “Who shall be first to go up for us against the Canaanites to fight against them?”

<sup>3</sup>So Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me to my allotted territory, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I will likewise go with you to your allotted territory.” And Simeon went with him. <sup>4</sup>Then Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they killed ten thousand men at Bezek. <sup>5</sup>And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fought against him; and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites. <sup>6</sup>Then Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes. <sup>7</sup>And Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to gather scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has repaid me.” Then they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

<sup>12</sup>Then Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife.” <sup>13</sup>And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife. <sup>14</sup>Now it happened, when she came to him, that she urged him<sup>a</sup> to ask her father for a field. And she dismounted

1:9 <sup>a</sup>Hebrew Negev, and so throughout this book

1:14 <sup>a</sup>Septuagint and Vulgate read he urged her.

ARAD IN THE INSCRIPTIONS (JUDG. 1:16)

The southern region of Judah, a dry wilderness area, was known as “the Negev” (translated “the South” in Judg. 1:16). Arad was a Canaanite town in the Negev, thus the writer of Judges employs the description “in the South near Arad.” The site of Arad was a large fortified town during the Early Bronze Age (c. 3000 B.C.) and showed extensive trade connections with Old Kingdom Egypt. This Arad was destroyed about 2700 B.C.

Another Arad emerged later during the Iron Age (c. 1200–600 B.C.), as is known from various inscriptions. Pieces of broken pottery (called by the Greek name ostraca) were used as inexpensive writing material, being inscribed with pen and ink. The name “Arad” appears on these pottery fragments or potsherds, as well as being mentioned in the records of Shishak, the Egyptian pharaoh (945–924 B.C.).

Over 200 ostraca have been found at the site of Arad. One inscription mentions a “House of Yahweh,” using the personal name of Israel’s God. This shrine or temple has in fact been found, containing a number of stone altars.

The inscriptions also list a number of Hebrew names of priestly families. The most prominent name is that of a particular “Eliashib,” who held a leadership position. The common name “Eliashib” appears often in the Old Testament (1 Chr. 3:24; 24:12; Ezra 10:6, 24, 27; Neh. 3:1), although none are the same person as the Arad Eliashib.

Pharaoh Shishak claims to have captured Arad during a raid of Palestine in 925 B.C. An inscription on the walls of the temple of Karnak, listing over 150 towns which Shishak captured, includes the citadel of Arad. Archaeological excavations show that Arad was destroyed by fire during Shishak’s time.

from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?” <sup>15</sup>So she said to him, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water.”

And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

<sup>16</sup>Now the children of the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up from the City of Palms with the children of Judah into the Wilderness of Judah, which lies in the South near Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. <sup>17</sup>And Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they attacked the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah. <sup>18</sup>Also Judah took Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory. <sup>19</sup>So the LORD was with Judah. And they drove out the mountaineers, but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the lowland, because they had chariots of iron. <sup>20</sup>And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said. Then he expelled from there the three sons of Anak. <sup>21</sup>But the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; so the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

Science & Technology

Chariots were lightweight vehicles used for carrying warriors into battle, or for supporting a bowman or spearman. The iron chariot (Judg. 1:19) possibly had iron reinforcement of some parts. Chariots were useful only on relatively flat terrain. They had wheels about 3 feet in diameter and 6 feet apart.

<sup>22</sup>And the house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. <sup>23</sup>So the house of Joseph sent men to spy out Bethel. —(The name of the city was formerly Luz.) <sup>24</sup>And when the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him, “Please show us the entrance to the city, and we will show you mercy.” <sup>25</sup>So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go. <sup>26</sup>And the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.

Incomplete Conquest of the Land

<sup>27</sup>However, Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; for the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land. <sup>28</sup>And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites under tribute, but did not completely drive them out.

<sup>29</sup>Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; so the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

<sup>30</sup>Nor did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or the inhabitants of Nahalol; so the Canaanites dwelt among them, and were put under tribute.

<sup>31</sup>Nor did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob. <sup>32</sup>So the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

<sup>33</sup>Nor did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but they dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were put under tribute to them.

<sup>34</sup>And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountains, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley; <sup>35</sup>and the Amorites were determined to dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalvim;<sup>a</sup> yet when the strength of the house of Joseph became greater, they were put under tribute.

<sup>36</sup>Now the boundary of the Amorites was from the Ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela, and upward.

Israel's Disobedience

2 <sup>1</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: "I led you up from Egypt and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you. <sup>2</sup>And you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this? <sup>3</sup>Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be thorns in your side,<sup>a</sup> and their gods shall be a snare to you.'" <sup>4</sup>So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.

<sup>5</sup>Then they called the name of that place Bochim;<sup>a</sup> and they sacrificed there to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And when Joshua had dismissed the people, the children of Israel went each to his own inheritance to possess the land.

Death of Joshua

<sup>7</sup>So the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD which He had done for Israel. <sup>8</sup>Now Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died when he was one hundred and ten years old. <sup>9</sup>And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Heres, in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash. <sup>10</sup>When all that generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation arose after them who did not know the LORD nor the work which He had done for Israel.

Israel's Unfaithfulness

<sup>11</sup>Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals; <sup>12</sup>and they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; and they followed other gods from among the gods of the people who were all around them, and they bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>13</sup>They forsook the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel. So He delivered them into the hands of plunderers who despoiled them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies. <sup>15</sup>Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for calamity, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn to them. And they were greatly distressed.

<sup>16</sup>Nevertheless, the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who plundered them. <sup>17</sup>Yet they would not listen to their judges, but they played the harlot with other gods, and bowed down to them. They turned quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do so. <sup>18</sup>And when the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the

ORGANIZING A PANTHEON OF MANY GODS (JUDG. 2:11–13)

When the Israelites “served the Baals” (Judg. 2:11), they were buying into the mythological structure of the universe understood by the local culture. The gods of the religious world of Syria-Palestine were formed into a four-level hierarchy not unlike a small, localized bureaucracy.

The highest authorities of the Canaanite universe were the deities El and Asherah, the parents of all the other gods. They were the actual rulers of the cosmos and the final court of appeal for both gods and humans. As highest rulers, they assigned each of their offspring responsibility for specific tasks in governing the world.

The second level of deities was an especially rowdy group, as the myths recovered from Ugarit demonstrate. These gods were the powers behind the forces of nature, the political fates of cities and empires, and even behind abstractions, such as justice. Very powerful, they ordered the universe, promoted the welfare of their worshipers, and advanced themselves against other deities. Conflicting interests of their divine wills explained for devotees why the world did not always operate as it ought.

A third level of gods served as craftsmen and artisans for the higher deities. As specialists in the professions their expertise was unsurpassed. They might contradict and even argue with higher-level gods when ordered to do things they themselves knew to be folly. While they obeyed orders, they were not averse to mocking their superiors for the inferior knowledge those gods had of the work at hand.

At the bottom level of the divine hierarchy were the messenger deities—the angels. They were the slave labor of the Canaanite heaven. The position of any of the higher deities in the four-level bureaucracy was determined by El and Asherah and could be changed at any time, particularly for misuse of authority.

Israel’s temptation to “try out” some of these deities sometimes was too great (Judg. 2:12). Besides Asherah (3:7), they knew of second-level gods and goddesses, such as Baal (3:7) and Anath (3:31). The idol that Hezekiah called Nehushtan (2 Kin. 18:4) represents a healing deity of the third level.

hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them.<sup>19</sup> And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they reverted and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, by following other gods, to serve them and bow down to them. They did not cease from their own doings nor from their stubborn way.

<sup>20</sup>Then the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He said, “Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not heeded My voice, <sup>21</sup>I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died, <sup>22</sup>so that through them I may test Israel, whether they will keep the ways of the LORD, to walk in them as their fathers kept them, or not.”<sup>23</sup> Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out immediately; nor did He deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

The Nations Remaining in the Land

3 <sup>1</sup>Now these are the nations which the LORD left, that He might test Israel by them, that is, all who had not known any of the wars in Canaan <sup>2</sup>(this was only so that the generations of the children of Israel might be taught to know war, at least those who had not formerly known it), <sup>3</sup>namely, five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath. <sup>4</sup>And they were left, that He might test Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

TRANSITION

How Long Was the Era of the Judges?

After Joshua’s death conditions changed quickly for the Israelite tribes. Their experiences are described in Judg. 2:11—3:6 as a recurring cycle of apostasy, oppression, supplication, and deliverance. The collection of stories in 3:7—16:31 reports the exploits of Israel’s judges during 7 cycles of oppression and deliverance. Despite many attempts, scholars have not been able to determine the length of time represented in these stories.

The book provides various numbers for the years of the judges’ period. Three types of chronological information indicate the number of years (1) that Israel was oppressed (e.g., Judg. 3:8), (2) that Israel had peace following a deliverance (e.g., Judg. 3:11), and (3) that particular individuals served as judge (e.g., Judg. 10:2). When tabulated, the total of these years is 410, but this figure does not necessarily represent the length of this period. Interpreting the numbers is complicated by the possibility of overlapping time periods and of symbolic numbers.

It was common to list periods chronologically which were either contemporaneous or overlapping. Since most of the judges were confined to particular tribes or regions, it is reasonable to assume considerable overlapping of the periods and events. The report that in one period Israel was oppressed by both Philistia and Ammon (Judg. 10:7) could suggest that Jephthah and Samson may have been living and working at the same time.

Many of the numbers in the Book of Judges may be symbolic, rather than chronological. Twelve judges are mentioned, although a detailed account is given for only six. While there were possibly many more judges than these, the number 12 speaks in symbolic fashion of the whole of an era. The same is true for the 7 cycles of oppression and deliverance, with 7 also depicting a sense of completeness. Also the duration of leadership ascribed to many of the judges is in units or multiples of 40, a number frequently denoting a generation of unspecified length.

An exact, precise dating of the judges' period will remain unknown. No references to contemporary events of this period are available. The figure of 300 years in Judg. 11:26 represents a period from Israel's victory over King Sihon of Heshbon (Num. 21:25, 26) to Jephthah's speech, but is difficult to coordinate with other evidence. All that can be said with certainty is that the period of Israel's judges stretches from the entry into Canaan (around 1406 or 1235 B.C.) until the establishment of the monarchy with Saul (around 1050 or 1020 B.C.).

• Judges 3:7—21:25

Judges
Othniel

3:7 So the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. They forgot the LORD their God, and served the Baals and Asherahs.<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years. <sup>9</sup>When the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the children of Israel, who delivered them: Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. <sup>10</sup>The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-Rishathaim. <sup>11</sup>So the land had rest for forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

<sup>12</sup>And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Then he gathered to himself the people of Ammon and Amalek, went and defeated Israel, and took possession of the City of Palms. <sup>14</sup>So the children of Israel served Eglon king of Moab eighteen years.

<sup>15</sup>But when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them: Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man. By him the children of Israel sent tribute to Eglon king of Moab. <sup>16</sup>Now Ehud made himself a dagger (it was double-edged and a cubit in length) and fastened it under his clothes on his right thigh. <sup>17</sup>So he brought the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. (Now Eglon was a very fat man.) <sup>18</sup>And when he had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who had carried the tribute. <sup>19</sup>But he himself turned back from the stone images that were at Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

He said, "Keep silence!" And all who attended him went out from him.

<sup>20</sup>So Ehud came to him (now he was sitting upstairs in his cool private chamber). Then Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." So he arose from his seat. <sup>21</sup>Then Ehud reached with his left hand, took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly. <sup>22</sup>Even the hilt went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the dagger out of his belly; and his entrails came out. <sup>23</sup>Then Ehud went out through the porch and shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

<sup>24</sup>When he had gone out, Eglon's<sup>a</sup> servants came to look, and to their surprise, the doors of the upper room were locked. So they said, "He is probably attending to his needs in the cool chamber." <sup>25</sup>So they waited till they were embarrassed, and still he had not opened the doors of the upper room. Therefore they took the key and opened them. And there was their master, fallen dead on the floor.

<sup>26</sup>But Ehud had escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the stone images and escaped to Seirah. <sup>27</sup>And it happened, when he arrived,

ANATH, GODDESS OF WAR (JUDG. 3:31)

The judge Shamgar was known as “the son of Anath” (Judg. 3:31). Anath was the name of the Syro-Palestinian goddess of war, and it is not certain whether “Anath” in the judge’s name refers to a location, a traditional family name, or the goddess herself. Regardless, it is noteworthy that the Bible, in recording the judge’s military victory, has kept the goddess’s name unchanged.

Anath is well known from the documents discovered at Ugarit. Daughter of the supreme god El, she was indulged by her father to the point of being spoiled. As a goddess Anath was greedy, self-consumed, ruthless, and violent. In a vivid symbol of the mayhem of war, she is described as crushing soldiers like grapes and draping herself with pieces of their corpses while she is in her own home. When she wanted something, she used violent brute force to attain it, without regard for the morality of the action.

Because of the close relationship of Anath with the storm god Baal, she is referred to either as Baal’s sister or spouse. As his partner, Anath rescues him from the predicaments into which he rather stupidly entangled himself. In one case the goddess even killed Mot, the god of death, to reclaim Baal from the netherworld. Clearly dangerous to humans and deities, Anath’s loyalty to Baal appears to remain constant.

The ruler of any city or nation considered it of great importance to have Anath’s protection as the goddess of war. She is described in the Ugaritic texts as nursing the future king of the city in his youth. This was a way of saying that the heir to the throne was brought up properly to defend the area; that is, to be a warrior. The association of her name with Shamgar’s may, in fact, have something to do with his status as such a leader and warrior.

that he blew the trumpet in the mountains of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mountains; and he led them. <sup>28</sup>Then he said to them, “Follow me, for the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand.” So they went down after him, seized the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross over. <sup>29</sup>And at that time they killed about ten thousand men of Moab, all stout men of valor; not a man escaped. <sup>30</sup>So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.

Shamgar

<sup>31</sup>After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad; and he also delivered Israel.

Deborah

4 <sup>1</sup>When Ehud was dead, the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>So the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth Hagoyim. <sup>3</sup>And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD; for Jabin had nine hundred chariots of iron, and for twenty years he had harshly oppressed the children of Israel.

she would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim. And the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. <sup>6</sup>Then she sent and called for Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, “Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded, ‘Go and deploy troops at Mount Tabor; take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun; <sup>7</sup>and against you I will deploy Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his multitude at the River Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hand?’”

<sup>8</sup>And Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go!”

<sup>9</sup>So she said, “I will surely go with you; nevertheless there will be no glory for you in the journey you are taking, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup>And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; he went up with ten thousand men under his command, <sup>11</sup>and Deborah went up with him.

<sup>11</sup>Now Heber the Kenite, of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had separated himself from the Kenites and pitched his tent near the terebinth tree at Zaanaim, which is beside Kedesh.

<sup>12</sup>And they reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup>So Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth Hagoyim to the River Kishon.

<sup>14</sup>Then Deborah said to Barak, “Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera

Science & Technology

The chariot was the main offensive weapon of the armies of that time (Judg. 4:3). It carried a soldier with a bow. As the famous paintings of Tutankhamun illustrate, archers could shoot from a chariot while it was moving at full speed. If they had compound bows, they could shoot beyond the range of ordinary bows.

4:10 <sup>a</sup>Literally at his feet into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him. <sup>15</sup>And the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot. <sup>16</sup>But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth Hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was left.

<sup>17</sup>However, Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. <sup>18</sup>And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not fear." And when he had turned aside with her into the tent, she covered him with a blanket.

<sup>19</sup>Then he said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a jug of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him. <sup>20</sup>And he said to her, "Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and inquires of you, and says, 'Is there any man here?' you shall say, 'No.'"

<sup>21</sup>Then Jael, Heber's wife, took a tent peg and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground; for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. <sup>22</sup>And then, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, I will show you the man whom you seek." And when he went into her tent, there lay Sisera, dead with the peg in his temple.

<sup>23</sup>So on that day God subdued Jabin king of Canaan in the presence of the children of Israel. <sup>24</sup>And the hand of the children of Israel grew stronger and stronger against Jabin king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

Daily Life & Customs

Jael treated Sisera like a guest (Judg. 4:18). Her tent and her blanket were symbols of the protection he would enjoy through the laws of hospitality. The Kenites, to whom Jael's husband belonged, however, were a seminomadic tribe which was generally favorable to the Israelites (4:17). In a choice between conflicting loyalties, Jael rejected the relations established with Hazor by her husband, and killed Hazor's general Sisera.

The Song of Deborah

5 <sup>1</sup>Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:

2 "When leaders lead in Israel,
When the people willingly offer themselves,
Bless the LORD!

3 "Hear, O kings! Give ear, O princes!
I, even I, will sing to the LORD;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 "LORD, when You went out from Seir,
When You marched from the field of Edom,
The earth trembled and the heavens poured,
The clouds also poured water;
5 The mountains gushed before the LORD,
This Sinai, before the LORD God of Israel.

6 "In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath,
In the days of Jael,
The highways were deserted,
And the travelers walked along the byways.
7 Village life ceased, it ceased in Israel,
Until I, Deborah, arose,
Arose a mother in Israel.

8 They chose new gods;
Then there was war in the gates;
Not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.

9 My heart is with the rulers of Israel
Who offered themselves willingly with the people.
Bless the LORD!

10 "Speak, you who ride on white donkeys,
Who sit in judges' attire,
And who walk along the road.

11 Far from the noise of the archers, among the watering places,
There they shall recount the righteous acts of the LORD,
The righteous acts for His villagers in Israel;
Then the people of the LORD shall go down to the gates.

12 "Awake, awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, sing a song!
Arise, Barak, and lead your captives away,
O son of Abinoam!

THE CYCLES OF THE JUDGES (PART 1)

The history of Israel's judges is told in two parts. An introduction (Judg. 2:11—3:6) describes a recurring cycle of apostasy, oppression, supplication, and deliverance. The numbers given for the years of oppression and deliverance may be symbolic or, if actual, may represent overlapping time periods. Part 1 (Judg. 3:7—10:5) covers seven judges and the king of Shechem.

Beliefs & Ideas

Many people considered the stars to rule human affairs, either directly or as signs of divine powers. When the stars had turned against Sisera (Judg. 5:20), it meant that God ruled over all other powers, however they may be conceived. It seems also that God stirred up the Kishon River against Sisera's chariots.

- 19 “The kings came and fought,
Then the kings of Canaan fought
In Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo;
They took no spoils of silver.
- 20 They fought from the heavens;
The stars from their courses fought against Sisera.
- 21 The torrent of Kishon swept them away,
That ancient torrent, the torrent of Kishon.
O my soul, march on in strength!
Then the horses' hooves pounded,
The galloping, galloping of his steeds.
- 22 ‘Curse Meroz,’ said the angel<sup>c</sup> of the LORD, ‘Curse its inhabitants bitterly,
Because they did not come to the help of the LORD,

Blessed is she among women in tents.
- 25 He asked for water, she gave milk;
She brought out cream in a lordly bowl.
- 26 She stretched her hand to the tent peg,
Her right hand to the workmen's hammer;
She pounded Sisera, she pierced his head,
She split and struck through his temple.

THE ERA OF THE JUDGES (EARLY EXODUS)

28 “The mother of Sisera looked through the window,
And cried out through the lattice,
‘Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why tarries the clatter of his chariots?’

29 Her wisest ladies answered her,
Yes, she answered herself,

30 ‘Are they not finding and dividing the spoil:
To every man a girl or two;
For Sisera, plunder of dyed garments,
Plunder of garments embroidered and dyed,
Two pieces of dyed embroidery for the neck of the looter?’

31 “Thus let all Your enemies perish, O LORD!
But let those who love Him be like the sun
When it comes out in full strength.”

So the land had rest for forty years.

Midianites Oppress Israel

6<sup>1</sup>Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years, <sup>2</sup>and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites, the children of Israel made for themselves the dens, the caves, and the strongholds which are in the mountains. <sup>3</sup>So it was, whenever Israel had sown, Midianites would come up; also Amalekites and the people of the East would come up against them. <sup>4</sup>Then they would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor donkey. <sup>5</sup>For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were without number; and they would enter the land to destroy it. <sup>6</sup>So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD because of the Midianites, <sup>8</sup>that the LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the house of bondage; <sup>9</sup>and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup>Also I said to you, “I am the LORD your God; do not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.” But you have not obeyed My voice.’”

Gideon

<sup>11</sup>Now the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup>And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, “The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor!”

<sup>13</sup>Gideon said to Him, “O my lord,<sup>a</sup> if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD turned to him and said, “Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have I not sent you?”

<sup>15</sup>So he said to Him, “O my Lord,<sup>a</sup> how can I save Israel? Indeed my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.”

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD said to him, “Surely I will be with you, and you shall defeat the Midianites as one man.”

<sup>17</sup>Then he said to Him, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, then show me a sign that it is You who talk with me. <sup>18</sup>Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come to You and bring out my offering and set it before You.”

BAAL, GOD OF STORMS (JUDG. 6:25–32)

Of all the deities of Canaan, the Israelites were most drawn to Baal. Gideon's family had been devotees of the god (Judg. 6:25). So, when Gideon turned to worship God as the only God, he broke with the family tradition.

In Hebrew, "Baal" is the title "lord." This title was given to the storm god Hadad, who is widely known from Syria, Mesopotamia, and Egypt through inscriptions dating from the mid-3rd millennium to the last century B.C. Usually Hadad was simply called "Baal" and was understood to be the god of storms.

Since Baal brought rain, he was also credited with bringing the annual crops which were dependent on the rain. The gifts of rain and crops were so important that there were many sites devoted to the worship of Baal, each using the local version of the god's name.

In the Ugaritic myths Baal is portrayed as a mighty, lustful, and ambitious deity, but also as a god with decidedly more muscles than brains. His worshipers clearly enjoyed a good story about Baal charging into a situation through sheer bravado only to discover too late that it was a really dumb thing to do. Baal relied primarily on his sister Anath to rescue him from these difficulties of his own making, though others, such as Kothar-and-Hasis (a skilled artisan deity), Shapshu (the sun goddess), Asherah and El (rulers of the pantheon), helped him as well.

The seriousness with which some Israelites took their devotion to Baal is seen in their desire to kill Gideon for tearing down Baal's altar (Judg. 6:28–30). Joash, however, defends his son Gideon by making the deciding point: However entertaining the stories about Baal may be, if he is a god, he should be able to plead for himself. Thus Gideon is given the nickname "Jerubbaal," meaning "let Baal plead" (6:31, 32).

And He said, "I will wait until you come back."

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought them out to Him under the terebinth tree and presented them.

<sup>20</sup>The Angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And he did so.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in His hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the Angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

<sup>22</sup>Now Gideon perceived that He was the Angel of the LORD. So Gideon said, "Alas, O Lord GOD! For I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face."

<sup>23</sup>Then the LORD said to him, "Peace be with you; do not fear, you shall not die." <sup>24</sup>So Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it The-LORD-Is-Peace.<sup>a</sup> To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>25</sup>Now it came to pass the same night that the LORD said to him, "Take your father's young bull, the second bull of seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the wooden image<sup>a</sup> that is beside it; <sup>26</sup>and build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this rock in the proper arrangement, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the image which you shall cut down." <sup>27</sup>So Gideon took ten men from among his servants and did as the LORD had said to him. But because he feared his father's household and the men of the city too much to do it by day, he did it by night.

Gideon Destroys the Altar of Baal

<sup>28</sup>And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, there was the altar of Baal, torn down; and the wooden image that was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was being offered on the altar which had been built. <sup>29</sup>So they said to one another, "Who has done this thing?" And when they had inquired and asked, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing." <sup>30</sup>Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has torn down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the wooden image that was beside it."

<sup>31</sup>But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Would you plead for Baal? Would you save him? Let the one who would plead for him be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead for himself, because his altar has been torn down!" <sup>32</sup>Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal,<sup>a</sup> saying, "Let Baal plead against him, because he has torn down his altar."

<sup>33</sup>Then all the Midianites and Amalekites, the people of the East, gathered together; and they crossed over and encamped in the Valley of Jezreel. <sup>34</sup>But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon; then he blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites gathered behind him. <sup>35</sup>And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, who also gathered behind him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

The Sign of the Fleece

<sup>36</sup>So Gideon said to God, "If You will save Israel by my hand as You have said— <sup>37</sup>look, I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said.”<sup>38</sup> And it was so. When he rose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece together, he wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water.<sup>39</sup> Then Gideon said to God, “Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just once more: Let me test, I pray, just once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, but on all the ground let there be dew.”<sup>40</sup> And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, but there was dew on all the ground.

Gideon's Valiant Three Hundred

7<sup>1</sup> Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the well of Harod, so that the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

<sup>2</sup> And the LORD said to Gideon, “The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel claim glory for itself against Me, saying, ‘My own hand has saved me.’<sup>3</sup> Now therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, ‘Whoever is fearful and afraid, let him turn and depart at once from Mount Gilead.’” And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD said to Gideon, “The people are still too many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. Then it will be, that of whom I say to you, ‘This one shall go with you,’ the same shall go with you; and of whomever I say to you, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ the same shall not go.”<sup>5</sup> So he brought the people down to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, “Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set apart by himself; likewise everyone who gets down on his knees to drink.”<sup>6</sup> And the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water.<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD said to Gideon, “By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, every man to his place.”<sup>8</sup> So the people took provisions and their trumpets in their hands. And he sent away all the rest of Israel, every man to his tent, and retained those three hundred men. Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

<sup>9</sup> It happened on the same night that the LORD said to him, “Arise, go down against the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand.”<sup>10</sup> But if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant,<sup>11</sup> and you shall hear what they say; and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp.” Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outpost of the armed men who were in the camp.<sup>12</sup> Now the Midianites and Amalekites, all the people of the East, were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the seashore in multitude.

<sup>13</sup> And when Gideon had come, there was a man telling a dream to his companion. He said, “I have had a dream: To my surprise, a loaf of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian; it came to a tent and struck it so that it fell and overturned, and the tent collapsed.”

<sup>14</sup> Then his companion answered and said, “This is nothing else but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel! Into his hand God has delivered Midian and the whole camp.”

<sup>15</sup> And so it was, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel, and said, “Arise, for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand.”<sup>16</sup> Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet into every man’s hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers.<sup>17</sup> And he

Gideon's Campaign

The Angel of the Lord appeared to Gideon in Ophrah, instructing him to rally the Israelites against the Midianites. With only 300 men Gideon left Harod and descended upon the sleeping armies just north of Mt. Moreh. He pursued the Midianites through Succoth and Penuel, finally capturing the Midianite kings in Karkor.

said to them, “Look at me and do likewise; watch, and when I come to the edge of the camp you shall do as I do.<sup>18</sup> When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets on every side of the whole camp, and say, ‘The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!’”

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outpost of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just as they had posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands.<sup>20</sup> Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers—they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing—and they cried, “The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!”<sup>21</sup> And every man stood in his place all around the camp; and the whole army ran and cried out and fled.<sup>22</sup> When the three hundred blew the trumpets, the LORD set every man’s sword against his companion throughout the whole camp; and the army fled to Beth Acacia,<sup>4</sup> toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath.

<sup>24</sup>Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the mountains of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites, and seize from them the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.” Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and seized the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.<sup>25</sup> And they captured two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued Midian and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan.

Gideon Subdues the Midianites

8 Now the men of Ephraim said to him, “Why have you done this to us by not calling us when you went to fight with the Midianites?” And they reprimanded him sharply.

<sup>2</sup>So he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? <sup>3</sup>God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And what was

I able to do in comparison with you?” Then their anger toward him subsided when he said that.

<sup>4</sup>When Gideon came to the Jordan, he and the three hundred men who were with him crossed over, exhausted but still in pursuit.<sup>5</sup> Then he said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.”

<sup>6</sup>And the leaders of Succoth said, “Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?”

<sup>7</sup>So Gideon said, “For this cause, when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers!”<sup>8</sup> Then he went up from there to Penuel and spoke to them in the same way. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.<sup>9</sup> So he also spoke to the men of Penuel, saying, “When I come back in peace, I will tear down this tower!”

<sup>10</sup>Now Zebah and Zalmunna were at Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand, all who were left of all the army of the people of the East; for one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword had fallen.<sup>11</sup> Then Gideon went up by the road of those who dwell in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah; and he attacked the army while the camp felt secure.<sup>12</sup> When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them; and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the whole army.

<sup>13</sup>Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle, from the Ascent of Heres.<sup>14</sup> And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth and interrogated him; and he wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.<sup>15</sup> Then he came to the men of Succoth and said, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you ridiculed me, saying, ‘Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your weary men?’”<sup>16</sup> And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.<sup>17</sup> Then he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

<sup>18</sup>And he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?”

So they answered, “As you are, so were they; each one resembled the son of a king.”

<sup>19</sup>Then he said, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you.”<sup>20</sup> And he said to Jether his firstborn, “Rise, kill them!” But the youth would not draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

Culture & Society

Fighting was largely hand to hand in ancient warfare, and a conventional part of battle was the warrior’s boast (Judg. 8:9). Boasts and taunts of heroes are common in the Iliad, from about 850 B.C. In his Commentaries, Julius Caesar recorded several heroic sayings that affected the course of battle.

TOWERS OF SAFETY (JUDG. 8:9, 17)

Towers were a standard feature of ancient cities. Often a city wall would be punctuated with regularly placed towers. Such towers were widened spaces in the wall where a larger number of defenders could withstand attackers attempting to gain entry. Towers allowed city residents to watch the other parts of the walls from a slightly forward position. They also provided a somewhat flanking position against attackers trying to scale or undermine the walls.

Towers were also built on hilltops. These served as watchtowers to detect approaching enemies or as signaling places for communication between larger communities.

Families also constructed towers for personal safety and storage of farming implements. Such towers have been found with the full range of household artifacts, symbolizing their domestic usefulness.

Citizens of smaller communities could not afford to build strong walls to protect their villages. They sometimes built one strong, tall building, a tower, to which they could flee in times of distress. Especially for smaller communities, the time investment for building towers was great, which made a tower a valuable prize of the citizenry.

Gideon was so distressed at the lack of support his effort received from the people of Penuel that he punished them by tearing down their tower (Judg. 8:8, 9, 17). They were left vulnerable and stripped of what must have been an object of community pride. Such a punishment would have been long remembered.

<sup>21</sup>So Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Rise yourself, and kill us; for as a man is, so is his strength.” So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments that were on their camels’ necks.

Gideon’s Ephod

<sup>22</sup>Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us, both you and your son, and your grandson also; for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian.”

<sup>23</sup>But Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you.” <sup>24</sup>Then Gideon said to them, “I would like to make a request of you, that each of you would give me the earrings from his plunder.” For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.

<sup>25</sup>So they answered, “We will gladly give them.” And they spread out a garment, and each man threw into it the earrings from his plunder. <sup>26</sup>Now the weight of the gold earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold, besides the crescent ornaments, pendants, and purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were around their camels’ necks. <sup>27</sup>Then Gideon made it into an ephod and set it up in his city, Ophrah. And all Israel played the harlot with it there. It became a snare to Gideon and to his house.

<sup>28</sup>Thus Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted their heads no more. And the country was quiet for forty years in the days of Gideon.

Death of Gideon

<sup>29</sup>Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house. <sup>30</sup>Gideon had seventy sons who were his own offspring, for he had many wives. <sup>31</sup>And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech. <sup>32</sup>Now Gideon the son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>33</sup>So it was, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel again played the harlot with the Baals, and made Baal-Berith their god. <sup>34</sup>Thus the children of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side; <sup>35</sup>nor did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (Gideon) in accordance with the good he had done for Israel.

Abimelech’s Conspiracy

9 <sup>1</sup>Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother’s brothers, and spoke with them and with all the family of the house of his mother’s father, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Please speak in the hearing of all the men of Shechem: ‘Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal reign over you, or that one reign over you?’ Remember that I am your own flesh and bone.”

<sup>3</sup>And his mother’s brothers spoke all these words concerning him in the hearing of all the men of Shechem; and their heart was inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, “He is our brother.” <sup>4</sup>So they gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men; and they followed him. <sup>5</sup>Then he went to his father’s house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself. <sup>6</sup>And all the men of Shechem gathered together, all of Beth Millo, and they went and made Abimelech king beside the terebinth tree at the pillar that was in Shechem.

The Parable of the Trees

<sup>7</sup>Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and cried out. And he said to them:

SHECHEM IN THE AMARNA LETTERS (JUDG. 9:6–31)

Nearly 400 cuneiform tablets (mostly letters) were found in Egypt at Tell el-Amarna (ancient Akhetaten) in the “office-house of the Pharaoh.” These texts, called the Amarna letters, cover about a 30-year period (c. 1360–1333 B.C.) during the reigns of pharaohs Amen-hotep III and Akhenaten. Most of the letters are written in Accadian, an East Semitic tongue that was the international language during this period.

Descriptions of Canaan in the Amarna letters fit well with the biblical portrayal. The land was politically decentralized, divided into separate, politically organized communities settled around larger cities and surrounding villages. The most prominent of these city-states were Gezer, Shechem, and Hazor. Some sites named in the Bible for this period, such as Hebron, Jericho, and Ai, are not mentioned in the Amarna letters. Jerusalem, however, is depicted as a modest city, and relatively unimportant.

The city of Shechem which is described for Abimelech’s time (Judg. 9) bears similarity to the Canaanite town described in the Amarna letters. The Shechem of the Amarna letters has city lords and a mayor. Similarly, the city lords of Judg. 9, called the “men of Shechem,” exercise the power to make Abimelech king (9:6), then later challenge his rule (9:23). The mayor who administered Shechem’s affairs on behalf of King Abimelech was the city magistrate Zebul (9:30, 31).

The Amarna letters provide important information about the social and political world of Palestine during the era of Israel’s judges. Often mentioned are the Habiru, roving bands of mercenaries, who are named in the Amarna letters as employed by Shechem. Similarly, a band of Habiru hired by the “men of Shechem” in Judg. 9 are represented as “Gaal and his brothers” (9:26, 41).

“Listen to me, you men of Shechem,
That God may listen to you!

8 “The trees once went forth to anoint a king over them.

And they said to the olive tree,
‘Reign over us!’

9 But the olive tree said to them,
‘Should I cease giving my oil,
With which they honor God and men,
And go to sway over trees?’

10 “Then the trees said to the fig tree,
‘You come and reign over us!’

11 But the fig tree said to them, ‘Should I cease my sweetness and my good fruit,

And go to sway over trees?’

12 “Then the trees said to the vine,
‘You come and reign over us!’

13 But the vine said to them,
‘Should I cease my new wine,
Which cheers both God and men,
And go to sway over trees?’

14 “Then all the trees said to the bramble,
‘You come and reign over us!’

15 And the bramble said to the trees,
‘If in truth you anoint me as king
over you,
Then come and take shelter in my shade;
But if not, let fire come out of the bramble
And devour the cedars of Lebanon!’

16“Now therefore, if you have acted in truth and sincerity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him as he deserves—

17for my father fought for you, risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian; 18but you have risen up against my father’s house this day, and killed his seventy sons on one stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother— 19if then you have acted in truth and sincerity with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you. 20But if not, let fire come from Abimelech and devour the men of Shechem and Beth Millo; and let fire come from the men of Shechem and from Beth Millo and devour Abimelech!” 21And Jotham ran away and fled; and he went to Beer and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

Downfall of Abimelech

22After Abimelech had reigned over Israel three years, 23God sent a spirit of ill will between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech, 24that the crime done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be settled and their blood be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who aided him in the killing of his brothers. 25And the men of Shechem set men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was told Abimelech.

26Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. 27So they went out into the fields, and gathered grapes from their vineyards and trod them, and made merry. And they went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech. 28Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve

THE OLD-TIME BREAD MACHINE (JUDG. 9:53)

Before flour was available in stores, individuals produced their own flour. After harvest, the grain was gathered in specially prepared areas for threshing. In this process the seed heads were broken from the stalks. Then the seeds were thrown into the air to allow the remaining bits of stalk, which were lighter, to blow away.

The milling process, the final step, was accomplished by grinding the grain between two basalt stones. The bottom millstone most often had an outside edge to keep the flour from falling to the ground. The most common shapes for the “upper millstone” (Judg. 9:53) were either round or loaf-shaped.

Pairs of round millstones were custom fitted to each other. Both stones had a center hole and a protruding “collar” around the hole to keep the millstones aligned. The upper millstone also had one hole drilled on its outer edge. After the grain was placed between the two millstones, a small stick was inserted in the hole of the upper millstone and was used to slowly turn the upper millstone on the lower millstone, crushing the grain in the process.

Loaf-shaped upper millstones, with rounded tops and flat bottoms, were less complex in design but more effective in use. The grain was placed on the flat lower millstone, then, using two hands, the upper millstone was pushed back and forth crushing the grain.

Small basalt bowls and pestles, not unlike those used by pharmacists, were also used for grinding small amounts of grain. Though producing less flour than millstones, they were also less tiring to use, when only small amounts of flour were needed.

Millstones were part of everyday life for people of Old Testament times. Archaeologists find many samples of millstones wherever they dig. Judging from the many broken pieces found, millstones were easily broken and frequently discarded.

Any upper millstone weighed enough to produce a serious injury, if not death, when dropped from a high place. In the case of Abimelech (Judg. 9:53, 54) that is exactly what happened. He died because a household appliance was dropped on his head.

him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him? <sup>29</sup>If only this people were under my authority!<sup>a</sup> Then I would remove Abimelech.” So he<sup>b</sup> said to Abimelech, “Increase your army and come out!”

<sup>30</sup>When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was aroused. <sup>31</sup>And he sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, “Take note! Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and here they are, fortifying the city against you. <sup>32</sup>Now therefore, get up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field. <sup>33</sup>And it shall be, as soon as the sun is up in the morning, that you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you may then do to them as you find opportunity.”

<sup>34</sup>So Abimelech and all the people who were with him rose by night, and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies. <sup>35</sup>When Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance to the city gate, Abimelech and the people who were with him rose from lying in wait. <sup>36</sup>And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul,

“Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!”

But Zebul said to him, “You see the shadows of the mountains as if they were men.”

<sup>37</sup>So Gaal spoke again and said, “See, people are coming down from the center of the land, and another company is coming from the Diviners’<sup>c</sup> Terebinth Tree.”

<sup>38</sup>Then Zebul said to him, “Where indeed is your mouth now, with which you said, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ Are not these the people whom you despised? Go out, if you will, and fight with them now.”

<sup>39</sup>So Gaal went out, leading the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. <sup>40</sup>And Abimelech chased him, and he fled from him; and many fell wounded, to the very entrance of the gate. <sup>41</sup>Then Abimelech dwelt at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they would not dwell in Shechem.

<sup>42</sup>And it came about on the next day that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech. <sup>43</sup>So he took his people, divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field. And he looked, and there were the people, coming out of the city; and he rose against them and attacked them. <sup>44</sup>Then Abimelech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city; and the other two companies rushed upon all who were in the fields and killed them. <sup>45</sup>So Abimelech fought against the city all that day; he took the city and killed the people who were in it; and he demolished the city and sowed it with salt.

<sup>46</sup>Now when all the men of the tower of Shechem had heard that, they entered the stronghold of the temple of the god Berith. <sup>47</sup>And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together. <sup>48</sup>Then Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him. And Abimelech took an ax in his hand and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder; then he said to the people who were with him, “What you have seen me do, make haste and do as I have done.” <sup>49</sup>So each of the people likewise cut down his own bough and followed Abimelech, put them against the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire above them, so that all the people of the tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.

<sup>50</sup>Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he encamped against Thebez and took it. <sup>51</sup>But there was a strong tower in the city, and all the men and women—all the people of the city—fled there and shut themselves in; then they went up to the top of the tower. <sup>52</sup>So Abimelech came as far as the tower and fought against it; and he drew near the door of the tower to burn it with fire. <sup>53</sup>But a certain woman dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech’s head and crushed his skull. <sup>54</sup>Then he called quickly to the young man, his armorbearer, and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, ‘A woman killed him.’” So his young man thrust him through, and he died. <sup>55</sup>And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed, every man to his place.

<sup>56</sup>Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers. <sup>57</sup>And all the evil of the men of Shechem God returned on their own heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

Tola

10 <sup>1</sup>After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in the mountains of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>He judged Israel twenty-three years; and he died and was buried in Shamir.

Jair

<sup>3</sup>After him arose Jair, a Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years. <sup>4</sup>Now he had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys; they also had thirty towns, which are called “Havoth Jair”<sup>a</sup> to this day, which are in the land of Gilead. <sup>5</sup>And Jair died and was buried in Camon.

Israel Oppressed Again

<sup>6</sup>Then the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD and did not serve Him. <sup>7</sup>So the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the people of Ammon. <sup>8</sup>From that year they harassed and oppressed the children of Israel for eighteen years—all the children of Israel who were on the other side of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, in Gilead. <sup>9</sup>Moreover the people of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah also, against

WORSHIPING YOUR NEIGHBORS’ GODS (JUDG. 10:6–16)

In the laws of Deuteronomy the Israelites were forbidden to worship the gods of the neighboring peoples (Deut. 6:14, 15). Yet as they settled in the new land, they took up the worship of the local deities, such as “the Baals and the Ashtoreths” (Judg. 10:6). The singular names “Baal” and “Ashtoreth” referred to widely revered deities. However, the plural “Baals” would seem to point generally to many various local male deities. Similarly, the plural “Ashtoreths” would signify all the local goddesses.

The popular belief of the ancient Near East was that particular deities owned particular sections of land. When people moved from one area to another, they were expected to worship the gods of their new area. They had to respect the local deity in order to be blessed by that deity.

By worshipping the Baals and Ashtoreths of Canaan, the Israelites were following the normal religious traditions of their day. They would have learned from the indigenous population that these gods were the owners of this land, and needed to be worshiped in order to prosper there. Thus the culture of the time made it difficult for many Israelites to ignore the gods of their new locality.

The Baals and Ashtoreths are only two examples of Israel turning away from God to the local deities. They are reported to have followed after gods from many areas, including Syria, Sidon, Moab, Ammon, and Philistia (Judg. 10:6). When eventually they cried, “we have . . . forsaken our God” (10:10), possibly they realized that they were His people no matter where they existed, and their obedience was to be toward Him alone. They must “put away the foreign gods” (10:16).

THE CYCLES OF THE JUDGES (PART 2)

Part 2 of the history of Israel's judges (Judg. 10:17—15:20) covers five more judges. The introduction (Judg. 10:6–16) depicts the Israelites as more and more indiscriminating in their worship of pagan gods.

Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was severely distressed.

<sup>10</sup>And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against You, because we have both forsaken our God and served the Baals!"

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD said to the children of Israel, "Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites and from the people of Ammon and from the Philistines? <sup>12</sup>Also the Sidonians and Amalekites and Maonites<sup>a</sup> oppressed you; and you cried out to Me, and I delivered you from their hand. <sup>13</sup>Yet you have forsaken Me and served other gods. Therefore I will deliver you no more. <sup>14</sup>Go and cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in your time of distress."

<sup>15</sup>And the children of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned! Do to us whatever seems best to You; only deliver us this day, we pray." <sup>16</sup>So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD. And His soul could no longer endure the misery of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Then the people of Ammon gathered together and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled together and encamped in Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, "Who is the man who will begin the fight against the people of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

Jephthah

11 <sup>1</sup>Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, but he was the son of a harlot; and Gilead begot Jephthah. <sup>2</sup>Gilead's wife bore sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out, and said to him, "You shall have no inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman." <sup>3</sup>Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob; and worthless men banded together with Jephthah and went out raiding with him.

<sup>4</sup>It came to pass after a time that the people of Ammon made war against Israel. <sup>5</sup>And so it was, when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup>Then they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, that we may fight against the people of Ammon."

<sup>7</sup>So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me, and expel me from my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?"

<sup>8</sup>And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is why we have turned again to you now, that you may go with us and fight against the people of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

<sup>9</sup>So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back home to fight against the people of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them to me, shall I be your head?"

<sup>10</sup>And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will be a witness between us, if we do not do according to your words." <sup>11</sup>Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

GODS' LANDS, GODS' PEOPLES (JUDG. 11:24)

People of ancient cultures believed that the gods owned territory and could give it to whomever they wished. The gods also took care of particular peoples. When any ruler went out to battle, he proclaimed that he was fighting alongside his god or gods. The outcome of the battle was in the hands of the gods who were leading the kings. These two notions—gods giving lands and gods protecting their people—collide when two deities, Chemosh and Yahweh, are thought to possess the same land (Judg. 11:24).

Jephthah explained to the king of Ammon how Israel came to control the land which it was then inhabiting. The long explanation (Judg. 11:14–28) describes the entrance of Israel into the Promised Land. Jephthah's theological language was familiar throughout the ancient Near East. The God of Israel actually took the land from other gods and gave it to Israel.

Chemosh was the national god of Moab (Num. 21:22), but apparently was worshiped also by the Ammonites. The disagreement between Jephthah and the Ammonite king centered on what territory Chemosh had given the Ammonites (Judg. 11:24). The Ammonites claimed that they should have the land held by Israel, but Jephthah argues that both nations had received their lands from their gods and should accept what the gods had given them. The land really belonged to the gods, and not to the people who lived there.

The issue of land ownership, according to Jephthah, was already decided and the outcome of any battle was already decided. Israel had not broken faith with either Yahweh or the Ammonites. The land that Israel possessed was given to them by Yahweh, not to the Ammonites by Chemosh.

<sup>12</sup>Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, saying, "What do you have against me, that you have come to fight against me in my land?"

<sup>13</sup>And the king of the people of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore, restore those lands peaceably."

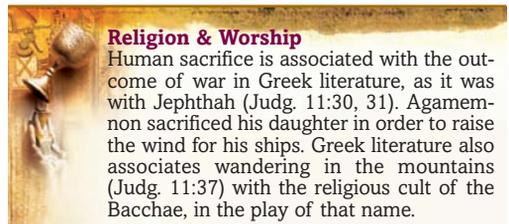

<sup>14</sup>So Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, <sup>15</sup>and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: 'Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the people of Ammon; <sup>16</sup>for when Israel came up from Egypt, they walked through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea and came to Kadesh. <sup>17</sup>Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, "Please let me pass through your land." But the king of Edom would not heed. And in like manner they sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained in Kadesh. <sup>18</sup>And they went along through the wilderness and bypassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab, came to the east side of the land of Moab, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon. But they did not enter the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. <sup>19</sup>Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, "Please let us pass through your land into our place." <sup>20</sup>But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them. Thus Israel gained possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country. <sup>22</sup>They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup>And now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel; should you then possess it? <sup>24</sup>Will you not possess whatever Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever the LORD our God takes possession of before us, we will possess. <sup>25</sup>And now, are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel? Did he ever fight against them? <sup>26</sup>While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time? <sup>27</sup>Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you wronged me by fighting against me. May the LORD, the Judge, render judgment this day between the children of Israel and the people of Ammon.'" <sup>28</sup>However, the king of the people of Ammon did not heed the words which Jephthah sent him.

Jephthah's Vow and Victory

<sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead; and from Mizpah of Gilead he advanced toward the people of Ammon. <sup>30</sup>And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If You will indeed deliver the people of Ammon into my hands, <sup>31</sup>then it will be that whatever comes out

Religion & Worship

Human sacrifice is associated with the outcome of war in Greek literature, as it was with Jephthah (Judg. 11:30, 31). Agamemnon sacrificed his daughter in order to raise the wind for his ships. Greek literature also associates wandering in the mountains (Judg. 11:37) with the religious cult of the Bacchae, in the play of that name.

of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the people of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering."

<sup>32</sup>So Jephthah advanced toward the people of Ammon to fight against them, and the LORD delivered them into his hands. <sup>33</sup>And he defeated them from Aroer as far as Minnith—twenty cities—and to Abel Keramim,<sup>a</sup> with a very great slaughter. Thus the people of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

Jephthah's Daughter

<sup>34</sup>When Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, there was his daughter, coming out to meet him with timbrels and dancing; and she was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter. <sup>35</sup>And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low! You are among those who trouble me! For I have given my word to the LORD, and I cannot go back on it."

<sup>36</sup>So she said to him, "My father, if you have given your word to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, because the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the people of Ammon." <sup>37</sup>Then she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me: let me alone for two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains and bewail my virginity, my friends and I."

<sup>38</sup>So he said, "Go." And he sent her away for two months; and she went with her friends, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains. <sup>39</sup>And it was so at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he carried out his vow with her which he had vowed. She knew no man.

And it became a custom in Israel <sup>40</sup>that the daughters of Israel went four days each year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

11:33 <sup>a</sup>Literally Plain of Vineyards

Jephthah's Conflict with Ephraim

12 <sup>1</sup>Then the men of Ephraim gathered together, crossed over toward Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the people of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you with fire!"

<sup>2</sup>And Jephthah said to them, "My people and I were in a great struggle with the people of Ammon; and when I called you, you did not deliver me out of their hands. <sup>3</sup>So when I saw that you would not deliver me, I took my life in my hands and crossed over against the people of Ammon; and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?" <sup>4</sup>Now Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites and among the Manassites." <sup>5</sup>The Gileadites seized the fords of the Jordan before the Ephraimites arrived. And when any Ephraimite who escaped said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No," <sup>6</sup>then they would say to him, "Then say, 'Shibboleth!'" And he would say, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it right. Then they would take him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. There fell at that time forty-two thousand Ephraimites.

<sup>7</sup>And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried among the cities of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

<sup>8</sup>After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. <sup>9</sup>He had thirty sons. And he gave away thirty daughters in marriage, and brought in thirty daughters from elsewhere for his sons. He judged Israel seven years. <sup>10</sup>Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

ISRAEL'S SOUTHERN DRAWL (JUDG. 12:6)

Jephthah the Gileadite was the successful leader who enabled the Israelites east of the Jordan to defeat the antagonistic Ammonites (Judg. 11:4–33). As a result of Jephthah's activities, however, the tribe of Ephraim, which occupied the west side of the Jordan rift, and the Gileadites, who lived on the other side, came to war (12:1–4). In this war the pronunciation of one word could keep a man alive.

The word "Shibboleth" offers a rare opportunity to witness the sectional tensions that existed among the Israelites. The Old Testament accounts about a lineage that descended from one father can give the impression that the Israelites were afterwards a uniform nation. Jephthah, however, knew that there were distinct differences among the Israelite tribes. The most important, for this battle account, is that they were often so isolated from each other that at least one of the tribes developed its own Hebrew dialect.

It seems that the members of the central hill country tribe of Ephraim could not make a "sh" sound and, instead, pronounced an "s." Their attempts to say "Shibboleth" inevitably sounded as "Sibboleth" (12:6). Their effort, as they approached Jephthah's men, to hide themselves by claiming to be part of his troops failed. The impostors were exposed by their language.

This small glimpse into the everyday life of the Israelites shows us that some of them "talked funny." We can only wonder what other geographical differences may have existed among them.

<sup>11</sup>After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel ten years. <sup>12</sup>And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

<sup>13</sup>After him, Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel. <sup>14</sup>He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Israel eight years. <sup>15</sup>Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mountains of the Amalekites.

The Birth of Samson

13 <sup>1</sup>Again the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.

<sup>2</sup>Now there was a certain man from Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had no children. <sup>3</sup>And the Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Indeed now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and bear a son. <sup>4</sup>Now therefore, please be careful not to drink wine or similar drink, and not to eat anything unclean. <sup>5</sup>For behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. And no razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.”

<sup>6</sup>So the woman came and told her husband, saying, “A Man of God came to me, and His countenance was like the countenance of the Angel of God, very awesome; but I did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name. <sup>7</sup>And He said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. Now drink no wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.’”

<sup>8</sup>Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, and said, “O my Lord, please let the Man of God whom You sent come to us again and teach us what we shall do for the child who will be born.”

<sup>9</sup>And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her. <sup>10</sup>Then the woman ran in haste and told her husband, and said to him, “Look, the Man who came to me the other day has just now appeared to me!”

<sup>11</sup>So Manoah arose and followed his wife. When he came to the Man, he said to Him, “Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?”

And He said, “I am.”

<sup>12</sup>Manoah said, “Now let Your words come to pass! What will be the boy’s rule of life, and his work?”

<sup>13</sup>So the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful. <sup>14</sup>She may not eat anything that comes from the vine, nor may she drink wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean. All that I commanded her let her observe.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain You, and we will prepare a young goat for You.”

<sup>16</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain Me, I will not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD.” (For Manoah did not know He was the Angel of the LORD.)

<sup>17</sup>Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “What is Your name, that when Your words come to pass we may honor You?”

<sup>18</sup>And the Angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask My name, seeing it is wonderful?”

<sup>19</sup>So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, and offered it upon the rock to the LORD. And He did a wondrous thing while Manoah and his wife looked on— <sup>20</sup>it happened as the flame went up toward heaven from the altar—the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar! When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell on their faces to the ground. <sup>21</sup>When the Angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and his wife, then Manoah knew that He was the Angel of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>And Manoah said to his wife, “We shall surely die, because we have seen God!”

<sup>23</sup>But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor would He have told us such things as these at this time.”

<sup>24</sup>So the woman bore a son and called his name Samson; and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him. <sup>25</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD began to move upon him at Mahaneh Dan<sup>a</sup> between Zorah and Eshtaoi.

Beliefs & Ideas

The name of a person was considered as a key to their favor or influence. Often its meaning or possible associations expressed an essential truth about the person. Revealing a name meant offering a degree of intimacy. The name of a divine power gives a human being a way of calling on that power (Judg. 13:18).

13:25 <sup>a</sup>Literally Camp of Dan (compare 18:12)

THE ERA OF THE JUDGES (LATE EXODUS)

Samson's Philistine Wife

14 Now Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup>So he went up and told his father and mother, saying, "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines; now therefore, get her for me as a wife."

<sup>3</sup>Then his father and mother said to him, "Is there no woman among the daughters of your brethren, or among all my people, that you must go and get a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?"

And Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she pleases me well."

<sup>4</sup>But his father and mother did not know that it was of the LORD—that He was seeking an occasion to move against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

<sup>5</sup>So Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came to the vineyards of Timnah.

Now to his surprise, a young lion came roaring against him. <sup>6</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion apart as one would have torn apart a young goat, though he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

<sup>7</sup>Then he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well. <sup>8</sup>After some time, when he returned to get her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the carcass of the lion. <sup>9</sup>He took some of it in his hands and went along, eating. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they also ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

<sup>10</sup>So his father went down to the woman. And Samson gave a feast there, for young men used to do so. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

<sup>12</sup>Then Samson said to them, "Let me pose a riddle to you. If you can correctly solve and explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. <sup>13</sup>But if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing."

And they said to him, "Pose your riddle, that we may hear it."

<sup>14</sup>So he said to them:

"Out of the eater came something to eat,
And out of the strong came something sweet."

Now for three days they could not explain the riddle.

<sup>15</sup>But it came to pass on the seventh<sup>a</sup> day that they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband, that he may explain the riddle to us, or else we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us in order to take what is ours? Is that not so?"

<sup>16</sup>Then Samson's wife wept on him, and said, "You only hate me! You do not love me! You have posed a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not explained it to me."

And he said to her, "Look, I have not explained it to my father or my mother; so should I explain it to you?" <sup>17</sup>Now she had wept on him the seven days while their feast lasted. And it happened on the seventh day that he told her, because she pressed him so much. Then she explained the riddle to the sons of her people. <sup>18</sup>So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down:

Arts & Literature
Traditionally riddles were important tests of someone's wisdom, insight, and skill. In some cases a riddle was offered as a test whose outcome was of far-reaching importance, if not life and death. Though Samson was marrying a Philistine woman, relations between Israelites and Philistines were strained. The Philistines were serious about finding the answer to Samson's riddle (Judg. 14:14).

14:15 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint and Syriac read fourth.

“What is sweeter than honey?
And what is stronger than a lion?”

And he said to them:

“If you had not plowed with my heifer,
You would not have solved my riddle!”

<sup>19</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men, took their apparel, and gave the changes of clothing to those who had explained the riddle. So his anger was aroused, and he went back up to his father’s house. <sup>20</sup>And Samson’s wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

Samson Defeats the Philistines

15 <sup>1</sup>After a while, in the time of wheat harvest, it happened that Samson visited his wife with a young goat. And he said, “Let me go in to my wife, into her room.” But her father would not permit him to go in.

<sup>2</sup>Her father said, “I really thought that you thoroughly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please, take her instead.”

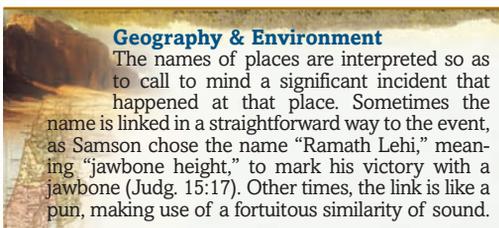

<sup>3</sup>And Samson said to them, “This time I shall be blameless regarding the Philistines if I harm them!” <sup>4</sup>Then Samson went and caught three hundred foxes; and he took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails. <sup>5</sup>When he had set the torches on fire, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Philistines said, “Who has done this?”

And they answered, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion.” So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.

<sup>7</sup>Samson said to them, “Since you would do a thing like this, I will surely take revenge on you, and after that I will cease.” <sup>8</sup>So he attacked them hip and thigh with a great slaughter; then he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

Geography & Environment

The names of places are interpreted so as to call to mind a significant incident that happened at that place. Sometimes the name is linked in a straightforward way to the event, as Samson chose the name “Ramath Lehi,” meaning “jawbone height,” to mark his victory with a jawbone (Judg. 15:17). Other times, the link is like a pun, making use of a fortuitous similarity of sound.

<sup>10</sup>And the men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?”

So they answered, “We have come up to arrest Samson, to do to him as he has done to us.”

<sup>11</sup>Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines rule over us? What is this you have done to us?”

And he said to them, “As they did to me, so I have done to them.”

<sup>12</sup>But they said to him, “We have come down to arrest you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines.”

Then Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves.”

<sup>13</sup>So they spoke to him, saying, “No, but we will tie you securely and deliver you into their hand; but we will surely not kill you.” And they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

<sup>14</sup>When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting against him. Then the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him; and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds broke loose from his hands. <sup>15</sup>He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it. <sup>16</sup>Then Samson said:

“With the jawbone of a donkey,
Heaps upon heaps,
With the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men!”

<sup>17</sup>And so it was, when he had finished speaking, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place Ramath Lehi.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Then he became very thirsty; so he cried out to the LORD and said, “You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant; and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?” <sup>19</sup>So God split the hollow place that is in Lehi,<sup>a</sup> and water came out, and he drank; and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore he called its name En Hakkore,<sup>b</sup> which is in Lehi to this day. <sup>20</sup>And he judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Samson and Delilah

16 <sup>1</sup>Now Samson went to Gaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her. <sup>2</sup>When the Gazites were told, “Samson has come here!” they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, “In the morning, when it is daylight,

SAMSON THE NAZIRITE (JUDG. 16:17)

Besides his extraordinary physical strength and his spectacular wildness of character, Samson had one other unique distinction: he was a Nazirite (Judg. 16:17). The word “Nazirite” means one who is consecrated (or separated or devoted) to something. More specifically, a Nazirite was one who had taken a vow “to the LORD” (Num. 6:2).

The peculiarities of the Nazirite vow were defined by very clear parameters. Nazirites were to avoid any produce from grapevines: juice, fresh grapes and raisins (Num. 6:3, 4). In addition, they were not to cut their hair (Num. 6:5) or come in contact with a dead body, even if it was a close relative (Num. 6:6, 7).

The Nazirite vow was considered very solemn, not something to be taken lightly. Indeed the Samson stories open with an angel telling Samson’s mother that her child would be a Nazirite from his birth and instructing her on the details of the Nazirite lifestyle (Judg. 13:3–5). Even Samson’s mother was to keep herself from grapevine produce and food considered unclean (13:13, 14).

While Samson is the only Old Testament person specifically identified as a Nazirite, it is likely that many prophets were also Nazirites. The prophet Amos mentions prophets and Nazirites together (Amos 2:11, 12), and Samuel is an example of someone who was both. His mother Hannah made a vow that Samuel’s hair would never be cut (1 Sam. 1:11). The Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Old Testament) adds to 1 Sam. 1:11 that Samuel would also abstain from grape juice. While not specifically said to be a Nazirite, it seems likely that, since Samuel followed the Nazirite rules, he was a Nazirite.

we will kill him.”<sup>3</sup> And Samson lay low till midnight; then he arose at midnight, took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

<sup>4</sup>Afterward it happened that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. <sup>5</sup>And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, “Entice him, and find out where his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and every one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver.”

<sup>6</sup>So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me where your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you.”

<sup>7</sup>And Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man.”

<sup>8</sup>So the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, and she bound him with them. <sup>9</sup>Now men were lying in wait, staying with her in the room. And she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he broke the bowstrings as a strand of yarn breaks when it touches fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

<sup>10</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, “Look, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please tell me what you may be bound with.”

<sup>11</sup>So he said to her, “If they bind me securely with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man.”

<sup>12</sup>Therefore Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And men were lying in wait, staying in the room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

<sup>13</sup>Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me what you may be bound with.”

And he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head into the web of the loom”—

<sup>14</sup>So she wove it tightly with the batten of the loom, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the batten and the web from the loom.

<sup>15</sup>Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies.” <sup>16</sup>And it came to pass, when she pestered him daily with her words and pressed him, so that his soul was vexed to death, <sup>17</sup>that he told her all his heart, and said to her, “No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.”

<sup>18</sup>When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up once more, for he has told me all his heart.” So the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hand. <sup>19</sup>Then she lulled him to sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him,<sup>a</sup> and his strength left him. <sup>20</sup>And she said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” So he awoke from his sleep, and said, “I will go out as before, at other times, and shake myself free!” But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

16:19 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint reads he began to be weak.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Philistines took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. They bound him with bronze fetters, and he became a grinder in the prison. <sup>22</sup>However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaven.

Samson Dies with the Philistines

<sup>23</sup>Now the lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice. And they said:

“Our god has delivered into our hands
Samson our enemy!”

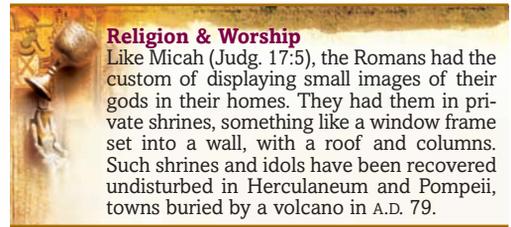

<sup>24</sup>When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said:

“Our god has delivered into our hands our enemy,
The destroyer of our land,
And the one who multiplied our dead.”

<sup>25</sup>So it happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, “Call for Samson, that he may perform for us.” So they called for Samson from the prison, and he performed for them. And they stationed him between the pillars. <sup>26</sup>Then Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, “Let me feel the pillars which support the temple, so that I can lean on them.” <sup>27</sup>Now the temple was full of men and women. All the lords of the Philistines were there—about three thousand men and women on the roof watching while Samson performed.

<sup>28</sup>Then Samson called to the LORD, saying, “O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray! Strengthen me, I pray, just this once, O God, that I may with one blow take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes!” <sup>29</sup>And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars which supported the temple, and he braced himself against them, one on his right and the other on his left. <sup>30</sup>Then Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” And he pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his life.

<sup>31</sup>And his brothers and all his father’s household came down and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel twenty years.

Religion & Worship

Like Micah (Judg. 17:5), the Romans had the custom of displaying small images of their gods in their homes. They had them in private shrines, something like a window frame set into a wall, with a roof and columns. Such shrines and idols have been recovered undisturbed in Herculaneum and Pompeii, towns buried by a volcano in A.D. 79.

Micah's Idolatry

17 <sup>1</sup>Now there was a man from the mountains of Ephraim, whose name was Micah. <sup>2</sup>And he said to his mother, “The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you, and on which you put a curse, even saying it in my ears—here is the silver with me; I took it.”

And his mother said, “May you be blessed by the LORD, my son!” <sup>3</sup>So when he had returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, “I had wholly dedicated the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son, to make a carved image and a molded image; now therefore, I will return it to you.” <sup>4</sup>Thus he returned the silver to his mother. Then his mother took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to the silversmith, and he made it into a carved image and a molded image; and they were in the house of Micah.

<sup>5</sup>The man Micah had a shrine, and made an ephod and household idols;<sup>a</sup> and he consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. <sup>6</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

<sup>7</sup>Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah; he was a Levite, and was staying there. <sup>8</sup>The man departed from the city of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find a place. Then he

THE HOUSEHOLD GODS OF NUZI (JUDG. 17:5; 18:14, 20)

Nuzi was an administrative center in the ancient land of Arraphé. It became prominent in the latter half of the 2nd millennium B.C. as part of the Hurrian kingdom of Mitanni. Over 3,500 cuneiform texts have been discovered at the site. These texts, written in a Hurrian style of Accadian, illuminate many social, legal, and religious customs of northern Mesopotamia around the 15th century B.C.

Many of these customs find parallels in the Old Testament. Servants were adopted by childless couples at Nuzi. As in the case of Abram's adopted servant Eliezer (Gen. 15:2, 3), the adopted servant at Nuzi became an heir to the foster parents' estate. Another Nuzi custom allows for a childless wife to furnish her husband with a handmaid as a concubine. As with Sarai and Hagar (Gen. 16:1, 2), the wife was entitled to treat the concubine's offspring as her own. A natural son born after a child by a handmaiden nevertheless became the primary heir, as it was with Ishmael and Isaac (Gen. 21:9–14).

The Nuzi texts reveal that household gods, called teraphim (Hos. 3:4), were a significant part of family life. Possession of these small household deities implied headship of the family. In the traditional line of inheritance, the eldest son normally received the family gods, as well as the largest share of the family property. Property inheritance possibly explains Rachel's stealing of her father Laban's household gods (Gen. 31:19).

The household gods of the Ephraimite Micah also resemble those of Nuzi. Archaeological evidence from Nuzi suggests that houses had their own shrines, as did Micah (Judg. 17:5). A Nuzi court case concerns the loss of the family gods to someone outside of the family. Micah experienced the same misfortune (Judg. 18:14–17).

came to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.<sup>9</sup> And Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?"

So he said to him, "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am on my way to find a place to stay."

<sup>10</sup>Micah said to him, "Dwell with me, and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver per year, a suit of clothes, and your sustenance." So the Levite went in.<sup>11</sup> Then the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man became like one of his sons to him.<sup>12</sup> So Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and lived in the house of Micah.<sup>13</sup> Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since I have a Levite as priest!"

The Danites Adopt Micah's Idolatry

18 <sup>1</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to dwell in; for until that day their inheritance among the tribes of Israel had not fallen to them.<sup>2</sup> So the children of Dan sent five men of their family from their territory, men of valor from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and search it. They said to them, "Go, search the land." So they went to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.<sup>3</sup> While they were at the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite. They turned aside and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What do you have here?"

<sup>4</sup>He said to them, "Thus and so Micah did for me. He has hired me, and I have become his priest."

<sup>5</sup>So they said to him, "Please inquire of God, that we may know whether the journey on which we go will be prosperous."

<sup>6</sup>And the priest said to them, "Go in peace. The presence of the LORD be with you on your way."

<sup>7</sup>So the five men departed and went to Laish. They saw the people who were there, how they dwelt safely, in the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. There were no rulers in the land who might put them to shame for anything. They were far from the Sidonians, and they had no ties with anyone.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Then the spies came back to their brethren at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brethren said to them, "What is your report?"

<sup>9</sup>So they said, "Arise, let us go up against them. For we have seen the land, and indeed it is very good. Would you do nothing? Do not hesitate to go, and enter to possess the land.<sup>10</sup> When you go, you will come to a secure people and a large land. For God has given it into your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth."

<sup>11</sup>And six hundred men of the family of the Danites went from there, from Zorah and Eshtaol, armed with weapons of war.<sup>12</sup> Then they went up and encamped in Kirjath Jearim in Judah. (Therefore they call that place Mahaneh Dan<sup>a</sup> to this day. There it is, west of Kirjath Jearim.)<sup>13</sup> And they passed from there to the mountains of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

<sup>14</sup>Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their brethren, "Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod, household idols, a carved image, and a molded image? Now therefore, consider what you should do."<sup>15</sup> So they turned aside there, and came to the house of the young Levite man—to the house of Micah—and greeted him. <sup>16</sup>The six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. <sup>17</sup>Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up. Entering there, they took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image. The priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were armed with weapons of war.

<sup>18</sup>When these went into Micah's house and took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

<sup>19</sup>And they said to him, "Be quiet, put your hand over your mouth, and come with us; be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest to the household of one man, or that you be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?" <sup>20</sup>So the priest's heart was glad; and he took the ephod, the household idols, and the carved image, and took his place among the people.

<sup>21</sup>Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them. <sup>22</sup>When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan. <sup>23</sup>And they called out to the children of Dan. So they turned around and said to Micah, "What ails you, that you have gathered such a company?"

<sup>24</sup>So he said, "You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and you have gone away. Now what more do I have? How can you say to me, 'What ails you?'"

<sup>25</sup>And the children of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry men fall upon you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household!" <sup>26</sup>Then the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

Danites Settle in Laish

<sup>27</sup>So they took the things Micah had made, and the priest who had belonged to him, and went to Laish, to a people quiet and secure; and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire. <sup>28</sup>There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no ties with anyone. It was in the valley that belongs to Beth Rehob. So they rebuilt the city and dwelt there. <sup>29</sup>And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However, the name of the city formerly was Laish.

<sup>30</sup>Then the children of Dan set up for themselves the carved image; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh,<sup>a</sup> and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land. <sup>31</sup>So they set up for themselves Micah's carved image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

The Levite's Concubine

19 <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite staying in the remote mountains of Ephraim. He took for himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah. <sup>2</sup>But his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there four whole months. <sup>3</sup>Then her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her and bring her back, having his servant and a couple of donkeys with him. So she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young woman saw him, he was glad to meet him. <sup>4</sup>Now his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there.

<sup>5</sup>Then it came to pass on the fourth day that they arose early in the morning, and he stood to depart; but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way."

<sup>6</sup>So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the young woman's father said to the man, "Please be content to stay all night, and let your heart be merry." <sup>7</sup>And when the man stood to depart, his father-in-law urged him; so he lodged there again. <sup>8</sup>Then he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart, but the young woman's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they delayed until afternoon; and both of them ate.

<sup>9</sup>And when the man stood to depart—he and his concubine and his servant—his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, the day is now drawing toward evening; please spend the night. See, the day is coming to an end; lodge here, that your heart may be merry. Tomorrow go your way early, so that you may get home."

<sup>10</sup>However, the man was not willing to spend that night; so he rose and departed, and came opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). With him were the two saddled donkeys; his concubine was also with him. <sup>11</sup>They were near Jebus, and the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and lodge in it."

18:30 <sup>a</sup>Septuagint and Vulgate read Moses.

THEY WASHED THEIR FEET (JUDG. 19:21)

Footwashing was an expression of hospitality extended to guests of ancient Near Eastern homes. People traveling dusty roads needed to wash their feet for comfort and cleanliness. Guests were often offered water and vessels for washing their own feet. Such hospitality is described in Judg. 19:17–21 when a traveler and his two servants lodge with an old man in Gibeah. Footwashing could also be performed by a servant (Luke 7:44).

Customs varied. The earliest practice was to pour water over the guest's feet, while later practice used a basin. A portable footbath found at Samaria had a raised area in the middle to support the foot. In the town of Tell Beit Mirsim, identified with Debir (Josh. 10:38), archaeologists discovered built-in washing basins in rooms surrounding the court by one gate. The basins suggested that these rooms were part of the city's guesthouse.

<sup>12</sup>But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside here into a city of foreigners, who are not of the children of Israel; we will go on to Gibeah." <sup>13</sup>So he said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah." <sup>14</sup>And they passed by and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. <sup>15</sup>They turned aside there to go in to lodge in Gibeah. And when he went in, he sat down in the open square of the city, for no one would take them into his house to spend the night.

<sup>16</sup>Just then an old man came in from his work in the field at evening, who also was from the mountains of Ephraim; he was staying in Gibeah, whereas the men of the place were Benjamites. <sup>17</sup>And when he raised his eyes, he saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

<sup>18</sup>So he said to him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah toward the remote mountains of Ephraim; I am from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; now I am going to the house of the LORD. But there is no one who will take me into his house, <sup>19</sup>although we have both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, for your female servant, and for the young man who is with your servant; there is no lack of anything."

<sup>20</sup>And the old man said, "Peace be with you! However, let all your needs be my responsibility; only do not spend the night in the open square." <sup>21</sup>So he brought him into his house, and gave fodder to the donkeys. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Gibeah's Crime

<sup>22</sup>As they were enjoying themselves, suddenly certain men of the city, perverted men,<sup>a</sup> surrounded the house and beat on the door. They spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, "Bring out the man who came to your house, that we may know him carnally!"

<sup>23</sup>But the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brethren! I beg you, do not act so wickedly! Seeing this man has come into my house, do not commit this outrage. <sup>24</sup>Look, here is my virgin daughter and the man's<sup>a</sup> concubine; let me bring them out now. Humble them, and do with them as you please; but to this man do not do such a vile thing!" <sup>25</sup>But the men would not heed him. So the man took his concubine and brought her out to them. And they knew her and abused her all night until morning; and when the day began to break, they let her go.

<sup>26</sup>Then the woman came as the day was dawning, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.

<sup>27</sup>When her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold. <sup>28</sup>And he said to her, "Get up and let us be going." But there was no answer. So the man lifted her onto the donkey; and the man got up and went to his place.

<sup>29</sup>When he entered his house he took a knife, laid hold of his concubine, and divided her into twelve pieces, limb by limb,<sup>a</sup> and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel. <sup>30</sup>And so it was that all who saw it said, "No such deed has

Culture & Society

In the traditional culture of the bedouin, or the nomadic Arabs, the "Law of the Tent" occupies a special place. Anyone who physically enters the tent of another person enjoys sanctuary there, and the owner will suffer extreme shame if any harm comes to his guest. The threatened sexual abuse of a guest by the citizens of Gibeah would have been an "outrage" (Judg. 19:22, 23).

been done or seen from the day that the children of Israel came up from the land of Egypt until this day. Consider it, confer, and speak up!”

Israel's War with the Benjamites

20 <sup>1</sup>So all the children of Israel came out, from Dan to Beersheba, as well as from the land of Gilead, and the congregation gathered together as one man before the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup>And the leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot soldiers who drew the sword. <sup>3</sup>(Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.)

Then the children of Israel said, “Tell us, how did this wicked deed happen?”

<sup>4</sup>So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, “My concubine and I went into Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin, to spend the night. <sup>5</sup>And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me, but instead they ravished my concubine so that she died. <sup>6</sup>So I took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of the inheritance of Israel, because they committed lewdness and outrage in Israel. <sup>7</sup>Look! All of you are children of Israel; give your advice and counsel here and now!”

<sup>8</sup>So all the people arose as one man, saying, “None of us will go to his tent, nor will any turn back to his house; <sup>9</sup>but now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: We will go up against it by lot. <sup>10</sup>We will take ten men out of every hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, a hundred out of every thousand, and a thousand out of every ten thousand, to make provisions for the people, that when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may repay all the vileness that they have done in Israel.” <sup>11</sup>So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united together as one man.

<sup>12</sup>Then the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What is this wickedness that has occurred among you? <sup>13</sup>Now therefore, deliver up the men, the perverted men<sup>a</sup> who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and remove the evil from Israel!” But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brethren, the children of Israel. <sup>14</sup>Instead, the children of Benjamin gathered together from their cities to Gibeah, to go to battle against the children of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And from their cities at that time the children of Benjamin numbered twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered seven hundred select men. <sup>16</sup>Among all this people were seven hundred select men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair's breadth and not miss. <sup>17</sup>Now besides Benjamin, the men of Israel numbered four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were men of war.

<sup>18</sup>Then the children of Israel arose and went up to the house of God<sup>a</sup> to inquire of God. They said, “Which of us shall go up first to battle against the children of Benjamin?”

The LORD said, “Judah first!”

<sup>19</sup>So the children of Israel rose in the morning and encamped against Gibeah. <sup>20</sup>And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in battle array to fight against them at Gibeah. <sup>21</sup>Then the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and on that day cut down to the ground twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites. <sup>22</sup>And the people, that is, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and again formed the battle line at the place where they had put themselves in array on the first day. <sup>23</sup>Then the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, “Shall I again draw near for battle against the children of my brother Benjamin?”

And the LORD said, “Go up against him.”

<sup>24</sup>So the children of Israel approached the children of Benjamin on the second day. <sup>25</sup>And Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah on the second day, and cut down to the ground eighteen thousand more of the children of Israel; all these drew the sword.

<sup>26</sup>Then all the children of Israel, that is, all the people, went up and came to the house of God<sup>a</sup> and wept. They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>27</sup>So the children of Israel inquired of the LORD (the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>28</sup>and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, “Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?”

And the LORD said, “Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.”

But the children of Israel said, “Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways.” <sup>33</sup>So all the men of Israel rose from their place and put themselves in battle array at Baal Tamar. Then Israel’s men in ambush burst forth from their position in the plain of Geba. <sup>34</sup>And ten thousand select men from all Israel came against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce. But the Benjamites<sup>a</sup> did not know that disaster was upon them. <sup>35</sup>The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel. And the children of Israel destroyed that day twenty-five thousand one hundred Benjamites; all these drew the sword.

<sup>36</sup>So the children of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel had given ground to the Benjamites, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah. <sup>37</sup>And the men in ambush quickly rushed upon Gibeah; the men in ambush spread out and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword. <sup>38</sup>Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise up from the city, <sup>39</sup>whereupon the men of Israel would turn in battle. Now Benjamin had begun to strike and kill about thirty of the men of Israel. For they said, “Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle.” <sup>40</sup>But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and there was the whole city going up in smoke to heaven. <sup>41</sup>And when the men of Israel turned back, the men of Benjamin panicked, for they saw that disaster had come upon them. <sup>42</sup>Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and whoever came out of the cities they destroyed in their midst. <sup>43</sup>They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them, and easily trampled them down as far as the front of Gibeah toward the east. <sup>44</sup>And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all these were men of valor. <sup>45</sup>Then they<sup>a</sup> turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; and they cut down five thousand of them on the highways. Then they pursued them relentlessly up to Gidom, and killed two thousand of them. <sup>46</sup>So all who fell of Benjamin that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all these were men of valor.

<sup>47</sup>But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed at the rock of Rimmon for four months. <sup>48</sup>And the men of Israel turned back against the children of Benjamin, and struck them down with the edge of the sword—from every city, men and beasts, all who were found. They also set fire to all the cities they came to.

Wives Provided for the Benjamites

21 <sup>1</sup>Now the men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah, saying, “None of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife.” <sup>2</sup>Then the people came to the house of God,<sup>a</sup> and remained there before God till evening. They lifted up their voices and wept bitterly, <sup>3</sup>and said, “O LORD God of Israel, why has this come to pass in Israel, that today there should be one tribe missing in Israel?”

<sup>4</sup>So it was, on the next morning, that the people rose early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. <sup>5</sup>The children of Israel said, “Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up with the assembly to the LORD?” For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who had not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, “He shall surely be put to death.” <sup>6</sup>And the children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, “One tribe is cut off from Israel today. <sup>7</sup>What shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them our daughters as wives?”

<sup>8</sup>And they said, “What one is there from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to Mizpah to the LORD?” And, in fact, no one had come to the camp from Jabesh Gilead to the assembly. <sup>9</sup>For when the people were counted, indeed, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead was there. <sup>10</sup>So the congregation sent out there twelve thousand of their most valiant men, and commanded them, saying, “Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, including the women and children. <sup>11</sup>And this is the thing that you shall do: You shall

THE ISRAEL STELE OF MERENPTAH (JUDG. 21:25)

The Israel Stele was a monument set up by Pharaoh Merenptah of Egypt in the 5th year of his reign (c. 1208 B.C.), commemorating his victories in Palestine. The monument describes a clash between Egyptians and some Israelites, which is the first known mention of Israel from a source outside of the Bible.

Israel is depicted on the monument as “laid waste, his seed is not.” The entirety of Palestine is described as conquered and controlled by the Egyptian monarch. Some scholars think that the name “Israel,” as it appears in the stele, constitutes a people group, not a land. They suggest that Israel was not yet settled in Palestine, but rather, would have just left Egypt.

The text of the stele is not easily understood, so it is impossible to determine how long Israel had been in the land at the time Merenptah campaigned in Palestine. The Israel Stele does offer evidence that Israel was recognized as a people in Palestine around 1208 B.C. That the Egyptians did not know Israel as a nation or land fits with the description found in the Book of Judges: “In those days there was no king in Israel” (Judg. 21:25).

utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has known a man intimately.”<sup>12</sup>So they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man intimately; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup>Then the whole congregation sent word to the children of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon, and announced peace to them. <sup>14</sup>So Benjamin came back at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead; and yet they had not found enough for them.

<sup>15</sup>And the people grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a void in the tribes of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>Then the elders of the congregation said, “What shall we do for wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?” <sup>17</sup>And they said, “There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe may not be destroyed from Israel.” <sup>18</sup>However, we cannot give them wives from our daughters, for the children of Israel have sworn an oath, saying, ‘Cursed be the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.’” <sup>19</sup>Then they said, “In fact, there is a yearly feast of the LORD in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.”

<sup>20</sup>Therefore they instructed the children of Benjamin, saying, “Go, lie in wait in the vineyards, <sup>21</sup>and watch; and just when the daughters of Shiloh come out to perform their dances, then come out from the vineyards, and every man catch a wife for himself from the daughters of Shiloh; then go to the land of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup>Then it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, that we will say to them,

‘Be kind to them for our sakes, because we did not take a wife for any of them in the war; for it is not as though you have given the women to them at this time, making yourselves guilty of your oath.’”

<sup>23</sup>And the children of Benjamin did so; they took enough wives for their number from those who danced, whom they caught. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and they rebuilt the cities and dwelt in them. <sup>24</sup>So the children of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family; they went out from there, every man to his inheritance.

<sup>25</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

The Book of Ruth

The Book of Judges, like many histories, presents only the wars and battles of its time. The Book of Ruth deals with what average people were doing between those wars. It describes a stable society, governed by wise elders, in which the laws of the covenant are respected and kept. For instance, the law demanded that if a man died before his wife had borne him children, his nearest male relative should marry the widow and raise up an heir to the one who had died (Deut. 25:5–10). Under this law Ruth eventually marries Boaz.

The book also pictures more peaceful relations with Israel's neighbors than does Judges. Naomi moves back and forth between Israel and Moab, and her sons take Moabite wives. This intermarriage alone is surprising, but even more startling is that the mixed marriage of Ruth and Boaz is blessed by God and produces Israel's greatest king, King David (Ruth 4:18–22).

Elimelech's Family Goes to Moab

1:1 Now it came to pass, in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem, Judah, went to dwell in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. <sup>2</sup>The name of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion—Ephrathites of Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to the country of Moab and remained there. <sup>3</sup>Then Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons. <sup>4</sup>Now they took wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years. <sup>5</sup>Then both Mahlon and Chilion also died; so the woman survived her two sons and her husband.

Naomi Returns with Ruth

<sup>6</sup>Then she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had visited His people by giving them bread. <sup>7</sup>Therefore she went out from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. <sup>8</sup>And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each to her mother's house. The LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me. <sup>9</sup>The LORD grant that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband."

So she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept. <sup>10</sup>And they said to her, "Surely we will return with you to your people."

<sup>11</sup>But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? <sup>12</sup>Turn back, my daughters, go—for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, if I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons, <sup>13</sup>would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD has gone out against me!"

<sup>14</sup>Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

<sup>15</sup>And she said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law."

<sup>16</sup>But Ruth said:

"Entreat me not to leave you,
Or to turn back from following after you;
For wherever you go, I will go;
And wherever you lodge, I will lodge;
Your people shall be my people,
And your God, my God.

<sup>17</sup> Where you die, I will die,
And there will I be buried.
The LORD do so to me, and more also,
If anything but death parts you and me."

<sup>18</sup>When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped speaking to her.

<sup>19</sup>Now the two of them went until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that all the city was excited because of them; and the women said, "Is this Naomi?"

<sup>20</sup>But she said to them, "Do not call me Naomi;<sup>a</sup> call me Mara,<sup>b</sup> for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. <sup>21</sup>I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

<sup>22</sup>So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabite her daughter-in-law with her, who returned from the country of Moab. Now they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

Ruth Meets Boaz

2 <sup>1</sup>There was a relative of Naomi's husband, a man of great wealth, of the family of Elimelech. His name was Boaz. <sup>2</sup>So Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Please let me go to the field, and glean heads of grain after him in whose sight I may find favor."

And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

<sup>3</sup>Then she left, and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup>Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you!"

And they answered him, "The LORD bless you!"

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

<sup>6</sup>So the servant who was in charge of the reapers answered and said, "It is the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab. <sup>7</sup>And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came and has continued from morning until now, though she rested a little in the house."

NAOMI'S CLOSE RELATIVE (RUTH 2:20)

Naomi recognizes God's kindness in the person of Boaz, who is one of her "close relatives" (Ruth 2:20). The Hebrew word goel, translated "close relative," means "to redeem." Such relatives were redeemers because they had a legal obligation under the Law of Moses to redeem or buy back the property of destitute relatives from foreclosure (Lev. 25:25).

The close relative could redeem various types of obligations through a monetary payment. Individuals could reclaim their land or house. An indentured servant could be redeemed from servitude. A religious offering could be reclaimed. Yet some redemptions were not made with a sum of money. The closest male relative of a murdered Israelite was a "blood redeemer." This "avenger of blood" (2 Sam. 14:11) was required to avenge the blood of the dead kinsman with the life of the murderer.

The closest adult male relative of a deceased person was required to assure the economic welfare of the deceased's kin. In this case, the legal custom of the close relative was very similar to another legal custom—the levirate marriage. The close relative was to continue the name of his deceased male relative by legally acquiring the dead man's wife (Deut. 25:5, 6). The children of the new union then inherited the property of the deceased—the former husband.

Naomi hoped that Boaz would accept his dual responsibility as her close relative. One responsibility was to redeem Naomi's land, which she had sold in her destitute condition (Ruth 4:3, 4). Yet a second responsibility was to marry Naomi's daughter-in-law Ruth, continuing the name of Ruth's dead husband (4:5).

<sup>8</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, "You will listen, my daughter, will you not? Do not go to glean in another field, nor go from here, but stay close by my young women. <sup>9</sup>Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn."

<sup>10</sup>So she fell on her face, bowed down to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?"

<sup>11</sup>And Boaz answered and said to her, "It has been fully reported to me, all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before. <sup>12</sup>The LORD repay your work, and a full reward be given you by the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

<sup>13</sup>Then she said, "Let me find favor in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me, and have spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not like one of your maidservants."

<sup>14</sup>Now Boaz said to her at mealtime, "Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar." So she sat beside the reapers, and he passed parched grain to her; and she ate and was satisfied, and kept some back.

<sup>15</sup>And when she rose up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her. <sup>16</sup>Also let grain from the bundles fall purposely for her; leave it that she may glean, and do not rebuke her."

<sup>17</sup>So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley. <sup>18</sup>Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. So she brought out and gave to her what she had kept back after she had been satisfied.

<sup>19</sup>And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be the one who took notice of you."

So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz."

<sup>20</sup>Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he of the LORD, who has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead!" And Naomi said to her, "This man is a relation of ours, one of our close relatives."

<sup>21</sup>Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also said to me, 'You shall stay close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.'"

<sup>22</sup>And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that people do not meet you in any other field." <sup>23</sup>So she stayed close by the young women of Boaz, to glean until the end of barley harvest and wheat harvest; and she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Ruth's Redemption Assured

3 <sup>1</sup>Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, shall I not seek security for you, that it may be well with you? <sup>2</sup>Now Boaz, whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. <sup>3</sup>Therefore wash yourself and anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup>Then it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies; and you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lie down; and he will tell you what you should do.”

<sup>5</sup>And she said to her, “All that you say to me I will do.”

<sup>6</sup>So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law instructed her. <sup>7</sup>And after Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was cheerful, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.

<sup>8</sup>Now it happened at midnight that the man was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet. <sup>9</sup>And he said, “Who are you?”

So she answered, “I am Ruth, your maidservant. Take your maidservant under your wing,<sup>a</sup> for you are a close relative.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said, “Blessed are you of the LORD, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich. <sup>11</sup>And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request, for all the people of my town know that you are a virtuous woman. <sup>12</sup>Now it is true that I am a close relative; however, there is a relative closer than I. <sup>13</sup>Stay this night, and in the morning it shall be that if he will perform the duty of a close relative for you—good; let him do it. But if he does not want to perform the duty for you, then I will perform the duty for you, as the LORD lives! Lie down until morning.”

<sup>14</sup>So she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, “Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.” <sup>15</sup>Also he said, “Bring the shawl that is on you and hold it.” And when she held it, he measured six ephahs of barley, and laid it on her. Then she<sup>a</sup> went into the city.

<sup>16</sup>When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, “Is that you, my daughter?”

Then she told her all that the man had done for her. <sup>17</sup>And she said, “These six ephahs of barley he gave me; for he said to me, ‘Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.’”

<sup>18</sup>Then she said, “Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter this day.”

Boaz Redeems Ruth

4 <sup>1</sup>Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there; and behold, the close relative of whom Boaz had spoken came by. So Boaz said, “Come aside, friend,<sup>a</sup> sit down here.” So he came aside and sat down. <sup>2</sup>And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down. <sup>3</sup>Then he said to the close relative, “Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, sold the piece of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech. <sup>4</sup>And I thought to inform you, saying, ‘Buy it back in the presence of the inhabitants and the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you<sup>a</sup> will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; for there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am next after you.’”

And he said, “I will redeem it.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also buy it from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to perpetuate<sup>a</sup> the name of the dead through his inheritance.”

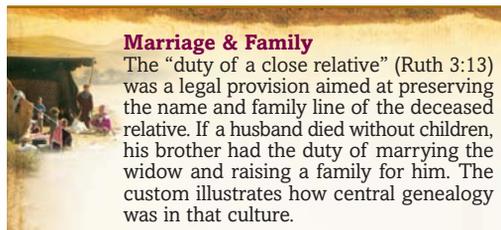

<sup>6</sup>And the close relative said, “I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. You redeem my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”

<sup>7</sup>Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm anything: one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was a confirmation in Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the close relative said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself.” So he took off his sandal.

Marriage & Family

The “duty of a close relative” (Ruth 3:13) was a legal provision aimed at preserving the name and family line of the deceased relative. If a husband died without children, his brother had the duty of marrying the widow and raising a family for him. The custom illustrates how central genealogy was in that culture.

3:9 <sup>a</sup>Or Spread the corner of your garment over your maidservant 3:15 <sup>a</sup>Many Hebrew manuscripts, Syriac, and Vulgate read she; Masoretic Text, Septuagint, and Targum read he. 4:1 <sup>a</sup>Hebrew peloni almoni; literally so and so 4:4 <sup>a</sup>Following many Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate; Masoretic Text reads he. 4:5 <sup>a</sup>Literally raise up

LEVIRATE MARRIAGE AND SANDAL CEREMONY (RUTH 4:1–10)

Levir is the Latin word for “brother-in-law.” The levirate marriage is described in the legal text of Deut. 25:5–10. If a man died without leaving a male heir, his widow was to marry within the husband’s family. Moreover, the husband’s brother (i.e., the widow’s brother-in-law) was required to perform the duty of the levir, that is, marry the woman and produce a son.

Preserving the family line was important in Israel. The levirate marriage was linked to laws of inheritance, so any offspring from the husband’s brother were considered children of the deceased. The firstborn son would take the name of the dead former husband.

If the brother-in-law refused to perform the levir’s duty, the woman was to perform the ceremony of the removal of his sandal (Deut. 25:8–10). A woman had a right to bear children to her deceased husband. If her brother-in-law refused her that right, she could publicly humiliate him. She was then allowed to marry outside of the family.

The primary purpose of the levirate marriage law was to protect the widow and help compensate the deceased husband’s family for their personal loss. In Naomi’s case, since she was beyond childbearing age, the levirate marriage would be to her widowed daughter-in-law Ruth. Naomi’s closest relative was not willing to assume this obligation (Ruth 4:6). Perhaps he considered that if he had a son by Ruth who became his only surviving heir, all of his property would belong to the family of Elimelech, Naomi’s deceased husband.

In the sandal ceremony of Ruth 4:6–8 there seems to be no disdain for the relative who declined to perform the duty of the levir. The significance of taking off the sandal seems to imply the passing of one’s legal rights to another. Boaz thus gained the right to clear the property against any future claims, and to marry Ruth (4:9, 10).

<sup>9</sup>And Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech’s, and all that was Chilion’s and Mahlon’s, from the hand of Naomi. <sup>10</sup>Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, I have acquired as my wife, to perpetuate the name of the dead through his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brethren and from his position at the gate.” You are witnesses this day.”

<sup>11</sup>And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, “We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the house of Israel; and may you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem. <sup>12</sup>May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring which the LORD will give you from this young woman.”

TRANSITION

From Turbulence to Rest

The story of Ruth takes place in the latter part of the judges’ period (“in the days when the judges ruled,” Ruth 1:1). Its rural setting and wholesome yet believable characters provide stark contrast to the violence and chaos of those days when “there was no king in Israel” (Judg. 21:25).

The genealogy at the end of the book (Ruth 4:18–22) reveals that the characters of this story are none other than the great-grandparents of King David. This story of faithfulness and family solidarity not only contrasts to the turbulence of the judges’ period, but points forward to the reign of David (1010–970 B.C.)—to a time when Israel would have “rest on every side” (1 Kin. 5:4).

4:13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife; and when he went in to her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son. <sup>14</sup>Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a close relative; and may his name be famous in Israel! <sup>15</sup>And may he be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.” <sup>16</sup>Then Naomi took the child and laid him on her bosom, and became a nurse to him. <sup>17</sup>Also the neighbor women gave him a name, saying, “There is a son born to Naomi.” And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

The Books of 1 and 2 Samuel

The books of Judges and Ruth point toward the beginning of an Israelite monarchy; in the books of Samuel the monarchy takes shape. In general terms, 1 Samuel tells of the beginning of the kingdom to the end of the reign of the first king, Saul. Then 2 Samuel is devoted to the career of David, Israel's second, and greatest, king.

But 1 Samuel begins not with a king, but with the imposing figure of Samuel. Samuel is priest and prophet and judge, indeed everything except king. It is from Samuel that the people seek a king. It is Samuel whom God sends to anoint first Saul, then David. It is Samuel who announces God's rejection of Saul (ch. 15), and when Saul's kingdom totters, it is from Samuel's ghost that Saul seeks advice (ch. 28).

The books of Samuel never identify an author, and may have been constructed from several different sources. For instance, the history from 2 Sam. 9 to 1 Kin. 2 gives such intimate detail of the inner workings of David's court that many have called it an independent eyewitness account. If so, it has been connected with other, more general, historical sources to form the present books.

The Family of Elkanah

1:1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of the mountains of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu,<sup>a</sup> the son of Tohu,<sup>b</sup> the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. <sup>2</sup>And he had two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>3</sup>This man went up from his city yearly to worship and sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. Also the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there. <sup>4</sup>And whenever the time came for Elkanah to make an offering, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>But to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, although the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>6</sup>And her rival also provoked her severely, to make her miserable, because the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>7</sup>So it was, year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, that she provoked her; therefore she wept and did not eat.

Hannah's Vow

<sup>8</sup>Then Elkanah her husband said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? And why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

<sup>9</sup>So Hannah arose after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the tabernacle<sup>a</sup> of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD and wept in anguish. <sup>11</sup>Then she made a vow and said, “O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your maidservant and remember me, and not forget Your maidservant, but will give Your maidservant a male child, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall come upon his head.”

<sup>15</sup>But Hannah answered and said, “No, my lord, I am a woman of sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor intoxicating drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Do not consider your maidservant a wicked woman,<sup>a</sup> for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief I have spoken until now.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Eli answered and said, “Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant your petition which you have asked of Him.”

<sup>18</sup>And she said, “Let your maidservant find favor in your sight.” So the woman went her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

Marriage & Family

Polygamy has flourished where women have occupied a low station in society. Israelites, such as Elkanah (1 Sam. 1:2), who had several wives were following the culture of that time. The rivalry of the wives was related to their desire for children, and was marked by jealousy, struggle, taunts, and scheming (1:6). Historically, the church has consistently opposed polygamy and seldom made even temporary concessions to it.

RITUAL FOR AN AUDIENCE WITH GOD (1 SAM. 1:8–18)

In the ancient Near East people believed that the gods would appear to you if you went to a sacred site. Worshipers followed a ritual that included a sacrifice, a meal dedicated to the god, and a prayer of petition, then spent the night in the holy place. Often the deity appeared to the worshiper in a dream (see 1 Kin. 3:5), but sometimes through the priests or a direct vision.

According to a text from about 2150 B.C., Gudea, king of Lagash, slept at the site of a proposed shrine. Gudea asked permission of the god Ningirsu to build a temple for the deity at that site. Ningirsu appeared to Gudea in a dream, giving him not only permission to build, but also the plans for the building itself. Other examples of this kind of prayer are found in Mesopotamia, Asia Minor, Egypt, Phoenicia, and the Greco-Roman world (including the epics of Homer).

Each year Elkanah and his wife Hannah visited the holy place at Shiloh (1 Sam. 1:3, 7). Hannah came to the sanctuary of Yahweh at Shiloh, where her husband Elkanah made a sacrifice for her (1:4, 5). After eating what was possibly a meal dedicated to Yahweh, Hannah made her prayer of petition (1:9–11). She was answered by Eli, God's priest, in God's name, and her request was granted in the birth of Samuel (1:20).

Samuel Is Born and Dedicated

<sup>19</sup>Then they rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, and returned and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her. <sup>20</sup>So it came to pass in the process of time that Hannah conceived and bore a son, and called his name Samuel,<sup>a</sup> saying, "Because I have asked for him from the LORD."

<sup>21</sup>Now the man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow. <sup>22</sup>But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will take him, that he may appear before the LORD and remain there forever."

<sup>23</sup>So Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him. Only let the LORD establish His<sup>a</sup> word." Then the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

Hannah's Prayer

2 <sup>1</sup>And Hannah prayed and said:

"My heart rejoices in the LORD;
My horn<sup>a</sup> is exalted in the LORD.
I smile at my enemies,
Because I rejoice in Your salvation.

<sup>2</sup> "No one is holy like the LORD,
For there is none besides You,
Nor is there any rock like our God.

<sup>3</sup> "Talk no more so very proudly;
Let no arrogance come from your mouth,
For the LORD is the God of knowledge;
And by Him actions are weighed.

<sup>4</sup> "The bows of the mighty men are broken,
And those who stumbled are girded with strength.

<sup>5</sup> Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread,
And the hungry have ceased to hunger.
Even the barren has borne seven,
And she who has many children has become feeble.

<sup>6</sup> "The LORD kills and makes alive;
He brings down to the grave and brings up.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD makes poor and makes rich;
He brings low and lifts up.

<sup>8</sup> He raises the poor from the dust
And lifts the beggar from the ash heap,
To set them among princes
And make them inherit the throne of glory.

"For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's,
And He has set the world upon them.

<sup>9</sup> He will guard the feet of His saints,
But the wicked shall be silent in darkness.

"For by strength no man shall prevail.

<sup>10</sup> The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken in pieces;
From heaven He will thunder against them.
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth.

"He will give strength to His king,
And exalt the horn of His anointed."

<sup>11</sup>Then Elkanah went to his house at Ramah. But the child ministered to the LORD before Eli the priest.

The Wicked Sons of Eli

<sup>12</sup>Now the sons of Eli were corrupt;<sup>a</sup> they did not know the LORD. <sup>13</sup>And the priests' custom with the people was that when any man offered a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged fleshhook in his hand while the meat was boiling. <sup>14</sup>Then he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; and the priest would take for himself all that the fleshhook brought up. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there. <sup>15</sup>Also, before they burned the fat, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who sacrificed, "Give meat for roasting to the priest, for he will not take boiled meat from you, but raw."

<sup>16</sup>And if the man said to him, "They should really burn the fat first; then you may take as much as your heart desires," he would then answer him, "No, but you must give it now; and if not, I will take it by force."

<sup>17</sup>Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD, for men abhorred the offering of the LORD.

Samuel's Childhood Ministry

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

Prophecy Against Eli's Household

<sup>22</sup>Now Eli was very old; and he heard everything his sons did to all Israel,<sup>a</sup> and how they lay with the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. <sup>23</sup>So he said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people. <sup>24</sup>No, my sons! For it is not a good report that I hear. You make the LORD's people transgress. <sup>25</sup>If one man sins against another, God will judge him. But if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?" Nevertheless they did not heed the voice of their father, because the LORD desired to kill them.

<sup>26</sup>And the child Samuel grew in stature, and in favor both with the LORD and men.

<sup>27</sup>Then a man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house? <sup>28</sup>Did I not choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod before Me? And did I not give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire? <sup>29</sup>Why do you kick at My sacrifice and My offering which I have commanded in My dwelling place, and honor your sons more than Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people?' <sup>30</sup>Therefore the LORD God of Israel says: 'I said indeed that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever.' But now the LORD says: 'Far be it from Me; for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed. <sup>31</sup>Behold, the days are coming that I will cut off your arm and the arm of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your house. <sup>32</sup>And you will see an enemy in My dwelling place, despite all the good which God does for Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house forever. <sup>33</sup>But any of your men whom I do not cut off from My altar shall consume your eyes and grieve your heart. And all the descendants of your house shall die in the flower of their age. <sup>34</sup>Now this shall be a sign to you that will come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die, both of them. <sup>35</sup>Then I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who shall do according to what is in My heart and in My mind. I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before My anointed forever. <sup>36</sup>And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and say, 'Please, put me in one of the priestly positions, that I may eat a piece of bread.'"

Samuel's First Prophecy

3 Now the boy Samuel ministered to the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no widespread revelation. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass at that time, while Eli was lying down in his place, and when his eyes had begun to grow so dim that he could not see, <sup>3</sup>and before the lamp of God went out in the tabernacle<sup>a</sup> of the LORD where the ark of God was, and while Samuel was lying down, <sup>4</sup>that the LORD called Samuel. And he answered, “Here I am!” <sup>5</sup>So he ran to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.”

And he said, “I did not call; lie down again.” And he went and lay down.

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD called yet again, “Samuel!”

So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” He answered, “I did not call, my son; lie down again.” <sup>7</sup>(Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him.)

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. So he arose and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you did call me.”

Then Eli perceived that the LORD had called the boy. <sup>9</sup>Therefore Eli said to Samuel, “Go, lie down; and it shall be, if He calls you, that you must say, ‘Speak, LORD, for Your servant hears.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

<sup>10</sup>Now the LORD came and stood and called as at other times, “Samuel! Samuel!”

And Samuel answered, “Speak, for Your servant hears.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Samuel: “Behold, I will do something in Israel at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle. <sup>12</sup>In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. <sup>13</sup>For I have told him that I will judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knows, because his sons made themselves vile, and he did not restrain them. <sup>14</sup>And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever.”

<sup>15</sup>So Samuel lay down until morning,<sup>a</sup> and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell Eli the vision. <sup>16</sup>Then Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son!”

He answered, “Here I am.”

<sup>17</sup>And he said, “What is the word that the LORD spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that He said to you.” <sup>18</sup>Then Samuel told him everything, and hid nothing from him. And he said, “It is the LORD. Let Him do what seems good to Him.”

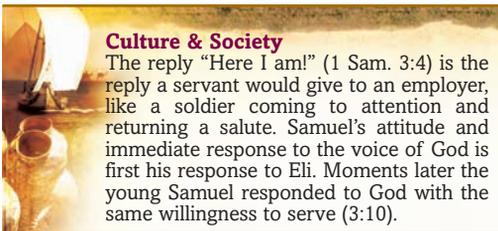

<sup>19</sup>So Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. <sup>20</sup>And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel had been established as a prophet of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>Then the LORD appeared again in Shiloh. For the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

4 <sup>1</sup>And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.<sup>a</sup>

The Ark of God Captured

Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines, and encamped beside Ebenezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek. <sup>2</sup>Then the Philistines put themselves in battle array against Israel. And when they joined battle, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field. <sup>3</sup>And when the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh to us, that when it comes among us it may save us from the hand of our enemies.” <sup>4</sup>So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who dwells between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>5</sup>And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted so loudly that the earth shook. <sup>6</sup>Now when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, “What does the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?” Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. <sup>7</sup>So the Philistines were afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp!” And they said, “Woe to us! For such a thing has never happened before. <sup>8</sup>Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup>Be strong and conduct yourselves like men, you Philistines, that you do not become servants of the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Conduct yourselves like men, and fight!”

Culture & Society

The reply “Here I am!” (1 Sam. 3:4) is the reply a servant would give to an employer, like a soldier coming to attention and returning a salute. Samuel’s attitude and immediate response to the voice of God is first his response to Eli. Moments later the young Samuel responded to God with the same willingness to serve (3:10).

<sup>10</sup>So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and every man fled to his tent. There was a very great slaughter, and there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers. <sup>11</sup>Also the ark of God was captured; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

Death of Eli

<sup>16</sup>Then the man said to Eli, “I am he who came from the battle. And I fled today from the battle line.”

And he said, “What happened, my son?”

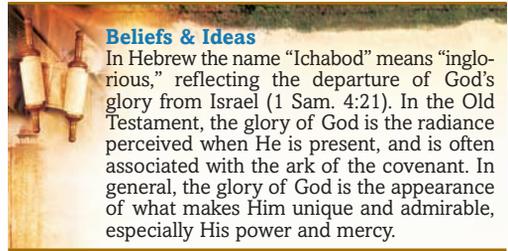

<sup>17</sup>So the messenger answered and said, “Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and the ark of God has been captured.”

<sup>18</sup>Then it happened, when he made mention of the ark of God, that Eli fell off the seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck was broken and he died, for the man was old and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

Ichabod

<sup>19</sup>Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas’ wife, was with child, due to be delivered; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth, for her labor pains came upon her. <sup>20</sup>And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, “Do not fear, for you have borne a son.” But she did not answer, nor did she regard it. <sup>21</sup>Then she named the child Ichabod,<sup>a</sup> saying, “The glory has departed from Israel!” because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup>And she said, “The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured.”

Beliefs & Ideas

In Hebrew the name “Ichabod” means “inglorious,” reflecting the departure of God’s glory from Israel (1 Sam. 4:21). In the Old Testament, the glory of God is the radiance perceived when He is present, and is often associated with the ark of the covenant. In general, the glory of God is the appearance of what makes Him unique and admirable, especially His power and mercy.

The Philistines and the Ark

5 <sup>1</sup>Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup>When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon<sup>a</sup> and set it by Dagon. <sup>3</sup>And when the people of Ashdod arose early in the morning, there was Dagon, fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and set it in its place again. <sup>4</sup>And when they arose early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. The head of Dagon and both the palms of its hands were broken off on the threshold; only Dagon’s torso<sup>a</sup> was left of it. <sup>5</sup>Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor any who come into Dagon’s house tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

The Ministry of Samuel

At Shiloh God called Samuel to be His servant and prophet. Samuel called on Israel to put away their Baals and Ashtoreths, and to face judgment at Mizpah. Following Saul’s defeat of the Ammonites, the people gathered at Gilgal where Samuel renewed the kingdom covenant with Israel and established Saul as king.

DAGON BREAKS BEFORE GOD (1 SAM. 5:1–5)

The Philistine community at Ashdod adopted one of the most widely worshiped gods arising from the middle Euphrates region. Dagon was known as a deity at two of the Philistine's five principal cities: Gaza (Judg. 16:21, 23) and Ashdod (1 Sam. 5:1–5). Dagon's temple at Ashdod still existed as late as the Hellenistic period (2nd century B.C.), when the city was known as Azotus (1 Macc. 10:83, 84).

The worship of Dagon is first recorded in the records of Sargon of Accad (c. 2350 B.C.), long before the time of the Philistines. The central temple of the cult was situated at Terqa, located just below the junction of the Habor and Euphrates rivers. Dagon was the patron deity of the territory governed from this city.

A lack of narrative materials makes it difficult to describe Dagon. The most reasonable theory—that he is the deity of grain—was suggested by Philo of Byblos, a 2nd-century A.D. Greek historian. The Hebrew noun dagan simply means “grain,” and the central place of grain in the diet of all the cultures of the area might explain the popularity of the deity. A less likely, yet popular, theory connects Dagon to fish (Hebrew dag means “fish”).

The Mari tablets (c. 1813–1760 B.C.) describe the activities of Dagon. As a ruling god, he led his people in warfare, provided for the fertility of the land and populace, protected the territory from human and divine encroachment, and took special care of the royal family. More interestingly, Dagon kept contact with his people by means of prophetic communication. Professional and nonprofessional prophets would report the will of the deity through those whom the god seized for such communication.

By Samuel's time the cult of Dagon had spread throughout Mesopotamia, Syria, and Palestine. Following ancient practice, a victorious Philistine city would bring booty taken from Israel's deity and place it before the image of their own deity. The breaking of Dagon's image in the presence of the ark of God (1 Sam. 5:3, 4) demonstrated the power Israel's God had over the Philistines' Dagon.

6But the hand of the LORD was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and He ravaged them and struck them with tumors,<sup>a</sup> both Ashdod and its territory. 7And when the men of Ashdod saw how it was, they said, “The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is harsh toward us and Dagon our god.” 8Therefore they sent and gathered to themselves all the lords of the Philistines, and said, “What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?”

And they answered, “Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried away to Gath.” So they carried the ark of the God of Israel away. 9So it was, after they had carried it away, that the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction; and He struck the men of the city, both small and great, and tumors broke out on them.

10Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. So it was, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, “They have brought the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people!” 11So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, “Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go back to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people.” For there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. 12And the men who did not die were stricken with the tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

The Ark Returned to Israel

6<sup>1</sup>Now the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months. 2And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it to its place.”

3So they said, “If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty; but by all means return it to Him with a trespass offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you.”

4Then they said, “What is the trespass offering which we shall return to Him?”

They answered, “Five golden tumors and five golden rats, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines. For the same plague was on all of you and on your lords. 5Therefore you shall make images of your tumors and images of your rats that ravage the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will lighten His hand from you, from your gods, and from your land. 6Why then do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He did mighty things among them, did they not let the people go, that they might depart? 7Now therefore, make a new cart, take two milk cows which have never been yoked, and hitch the cows to the cart; and take their calves home, away from them. 8Then take the ark of the LORD and set it on the cart; and put the articles of gold which you are returning to Him as a trespass offering in a chest by its side. Then send it away, and let it go. 9And watch: if it goes up the road to its own territory, to Beth Shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we shall know that it is not His hand that struck us—it happened to us by chance.”

5:6 <sup>a</sup>Probably bubonic plague. Septuagint and Vulgate add here And in the midst of their land rats sprang up, and there was a great death panic in the city.

<sup>10</sup>Then the men did so; they took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. <sup>11</sup>And they set the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the chest with the gold rats and the images of their tumors. <sup>12</sup>Then the cows headed straight for the road to Beth Shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right hand or the left. And the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh.

<sup>13</sup>Now the people of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. <sup>14</sup>Then the cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there; a large stone was there. So they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the chest that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone. Then the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices the same day to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>So when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

<sup>17</sup>These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned as a trespass offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron; <sup>18</sup>and the golden rats, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and country villages, even as far as the large stone of Abel on which they set the ark of the LORD, which stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

6:19 <sup>a</sup>Or He struck seventy men of the people and fifty oxen of a man

<sup>19</sup>Then He struck the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck fifty thousand and seventy men<sup>a</sup> of the people, and the people lamented because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter.

The Ark at Kirjath Jearim

<sup>20</sup>And the men of Beth Shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? And to whom shall it go up from us?” <sup>21</sup>So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up with you.”

TRANSITION

Samuel's Public Ministry

After the ark was returned from Philistine territory, it was taken to Kirjath Jearim (1 Sam. 7:1, 2). There it would remain for 20 years while Israel lamented under Philistine control (7:2). After these years, Samuel would begin what is recorded in 7:3–17 as his first public ministry.

The chronological comment of 7:2 is one of a few such statements in 1 and 2 Samuel (see 1 Sam. 6:1; 2 Sam. 2:10, 11; 5:4, 5). Unfortunately, none of them allows us to establish dates for any of the primary events of this period. We do know that Samuel was an old man at the time he presented Saul as king in 1050 or 1020 B.C. (1 Sam. 8:1, 5; 10:24; see “When Did Saul Become King?” at 1 Sam. 13:1).

TESTING THE PRESENCE OF GOD (1 SAM. 6:1–9)

The Philistine reaction to the capture of the ark of God shows much about the theology of that ancient time. People believed that the deities behind the armies were the real military forces in a battle; the defeat of an enemy's army was also the defeat of the enemy's god. Because the Philistines had defeated the Israelite armies, they believed that their god Dagon was stronger than Yahweh, God of Israel. So they placed Yahweh's ark in Dagon's temple (1 Sam. 5:2).

The result was a plague (5:6) and a big embarrassment (5:4). The Philistines in Ashdod, Gath, and Ekron were defeated by Israel's God without the aid of human armies (5:6–10). Another ancient thought was that good or bad fortune could result from a sacred object. At first the Philistines believed that the plague was caused by the ark itself (5:10, 11). Though not certain that Israel's God was really behind these events, they decided to return the ark to the Israelites.

Before sending the ark out, the Philistines checked with their priests and diviners (6:2), a standard practice in the ancient Near East. Before any activity, official or mundane, worshipers inquired of the gods whether the action would be a good thing. The unexpected answer: send back the ark, along with gold images of tumors and rats, all in honor of Yahweh, God of Israel. Seeking cures, petitioners used models of disease as offerings to deities of healing. The objects served as a form of imitative magic, while the gold was a gift to the god.

Still not certain that Israel's God was really behind their problems, the Philistines set up a test. They yoked cows having calves (and untrained as draft animals) to the ark. If the cows turned back to their calves, as would be natural, so that the ark went nowhere, the Philistines would know the ark was no god, but just a gold-plated wooden box (6:9). The cows, of course, went where God directed them, and the Philistines witnessed a God who was more powerful than they (6:16).

the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

Samuel Judges Israel

<sup>2</sup>So it was that the ark remained in Kirjath Jearim a long time; it was there twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, "If you return to the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths<sup>a</sup> from among you, and prepare your hearts for the LORD, and serve Him only; and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines." <sup>4</sup>So the children of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtoreths,<sup>a</sup> and served the LORD only.

<sup>5</sup>And Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you." <sup>6</sup>So they gathered together at Mizpah, drew water, and poured it out before the LORD. And they fasted that day, and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the children of Israel at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup>Now when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel had gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard of it, they were afraid of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup>So the children of Israel said to Samuel, "Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines."

<sup>9</sup>And Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. Then Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him. <sup>10</sup>Now as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But the LORD thundered with a loud thunder upon the Philistines that day, and so confused them that they were overcome before Israel. <sup>11</sup>And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and drove them back as far as below Beth Car. <sup>12</sup>Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer,<sup>a</sup> saying, "Thus far the LORD has helped us."

<sup>13</sup>So the Philistines were subdued, and they did not come anymore into the territory of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. <sup>14</sup>Then the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel recovered its territory from the hands of the Philistines. Also there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15</sup>And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. <sup>16</sup>He went from year to year on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all those places. <sup>17</sup>But he always returned to Ramah, for his home was there. There he judged Israel, and there he built an altar to the LORD.

THE UNITED MONARCHY IN ISRAEL

In the larger scope of ancient Near Eastern history, no time was more propitious for Israel to establish a monarchy. No great empire existed that might challenge a new kingdom. Assyria, the dominant power in Mesopotamia, was going through a temporary, but lengthy, period of weakness. Egypt's powerful New Kingdom (1550–1069 B.C.) was ending, and Egypt would never again be as strong.

Israel's major rivals during the united monarchy were the smaller kingdoms around Palestine. Of these, the Philistines on the coastal plain remained the greatest threat. Indeed, it was the Philistine threat that led the people to call for a king, and their first king, Saul, died fighting the Philistines. Not until Saul's successor, David, was this enemy finally subdued (2 Sam. 5:25).

David's rise to power as king attained high points in two events. First was his capture of the Jebusite city, Jerusalem (2 Sam. 5:6, 7). The city was well suited to be the capital of David's united nation. Second was his defeat of the Philistines, which enabled him to extend his rule across the Jordan River into Edom, Moab, and Ammon, and north into Syria (2 Sam. 8).

By the reign of Solomon, David's son and successor, Israel's borders had expanded to their greatest extent ever. Solomon consolidated his father's modest empire. By means of diplomatic ties, especially with the merchant city of Tyre to the north, Solomon became very successful in international trade. Within Israel, he constructed a new kind of state. The loose confederacy of independent tribes was replaced by a highly organized central bureaucracy, including military conscription and forced labor. Even Israel's worship center changed, from a movable tent shrine to a permanent temple, with the king himself performing some sacred functions. Israel received what they had asked for in 1 Sam. 8:5: a king "like all the nations."

IS BEAUTY JUDGED BY THE NOSE? (1 SAM. 8:13)

Samuel warned the people that a future king would take their daughters “to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers” (1 Sam. 8:13). Actually, perfumers were highly prized professionals, including priests among their ranks (1 Chr. 9:30). They are mentioned in the literatures of Ebla, Egypt, Mesopotamia, and Ugarit.

Due to the dry dusty atmosphere of the Near East, it is not surprising that a regular coating of moisturizing perfumed oils was applied to the body, including the hair. In such treatments, not only was the body covered with a fragrant potion, but more often the oily perfume served as a cosmetic. It was probably in this sphere that Esther received a six-month treatment of myrrh (perhaps, as a sunblock or skin softener) and “perfumes” (Esth. 2:12).

Among the perfumes available in Bible times were calamus, cassia, cinnamon, bdellium, frankincense, galbanum, myrrh, nard, and saffron. Many of these items were imported from distant lands, like Arabia, Nepal, Sri Lanka, India, and Somaliland. They were transported by caravans on overland routes, like the traders who bought Joseph while traveling from Gilead on their way to Egypt (Gen. 37:25). Perfumes probably also were transported by ship.

Among the specific uses of perfumes were preparations for the dead. When King Asa died (869 B.C.), he was laid in a bed in his tomb that was “filled with spices and various ingredients prepared in a mixture of ointments” (2 Chr. 16:14).

The medicinal use of perfumes and oils required specialists who knew not only how and when to apply these remedies, but also what to apply. This made professional perfumers an important part of ancient societies. Feeling good certainly does “delight” one’s heart (Prov. 27:9).

Israel Asks for a King

Samuel’s sons, as Eli’s before him (1 Sam. 2:12–17), were not worthy of their father. In his old age Samuel had appointed his sons as judges, but nothing about their judging could be characterized as just (1 Sam. 8:1–3). The combination of Samuel’s advancing age and his sons’ corruption caused the people to seek a new type of leadership.

The people did not blame Samuel for his sons’ ways. Nevertheless, they were ready to replace their corrupt judges with a king, following the pattern of other nations (8:4, 5). Samuel cautioned them about seeking a king. The picture he gave them was typical of Near Eastern kings: oppressive, greedy, and self-serving (8:10–18).

• 1 Samuel 8:1–22

1 Samuel

8:1 Now it came to pass when Samuel was old that he made his sons judges over Israel. <sup>2</sup>The name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>But his sons did not walk in his ways; they turned aside after dishonest gain, took bribes, and perverted justice.

<sup>4</sup>Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, <sup>5</sup>and said to him, “Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.”

<sup>6</sup>But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” So Samuel prayed to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Samuel,

“Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them. <sup>8</sup>According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also. <sup>9</sup>Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king who will reign over them.”

<sup>10</sup>So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king. <sup>11</sup>And he said, “This will be the behavior of the king who will reign over you: He will take your sons and appoint them for his own chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots. <sup>12</sup>He will appoint captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. <sup>13</sup>He will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers. <sup>14</sup>And he will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants. <sup>15</sup>He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give it to his officers and servants. <sup>16</sup>And he will take your male servants, your female servants, your finest young men,<sup>a</sup> and your donkeys, and put them to his work. <sup>17</sup>He will take a tenth of your sheep. And you will be his servants. <sup>18</sup>And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not hear you in that day.”

<sup>19</sup>Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, “No, but we will have a king over us, <sup>20</sup>that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

8:16 <sup>a</sup>Septuagint reads cattle.

<sup>21</sup>And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the hearing of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>So the LORD said to Samuel, “Heed their voice, and make them a king.”

And Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Every man go to his city.”

Prophetic Account: Saul and David

The Bible contains two separate histories of the Israelite monarchy. The first is found in the books of Samuel and Kings, and the second in the books of Chronicles. Although the account in Chronicles is based on the earlier history of Samuel and Kings, and often quotes directly from it, the two accounts tell the history from very different perspectives.

These two differing views of Israel's history could be described as the “prophetic view” in Samuel/Kings and the “priestly view” in Chronicles. Whereas Samuel and Kings are especially interested in prophets and prophecy, Chronicles is much more concerned with the temple and its priests. Because of such clear differences, the two accounts will be presented separately in alternating presentations, labeled “Prophetic” (Samuel/Kings) and “Priestly” (Chronicles).

The prophetic account begins with the prophet Samuel's meeting with Saul, the man from the tribe of Benjamin who would become the first king. At that time, the Philistines along the Mediterranean seacoast dominated the scene, but Saul was well suited to command Israel. He proved this by leading a military campaign against Ammon (1 Sam. 11). In this battle, Saul behaves like one of the judges of earlier years and is consequently accepted by both northern and southern Israel.

The account of Saul's career is woven together with the rise to power of Israel's next king, David. Saul's last years were clouded by periods of depression and gloom. By the time the young David entered Saul's court with his soothing music (1 Sam. 16:19–23), he had already been anointed Saul's successor (16:1, 13).

Saul Chosen to Be King

9:1 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power. <sup>2</sup>And he had a choice and handsome son whose name was Saul. There was not a more handsome person than he among the children of Israel. From his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people.

<sup>3</sup>Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, “Please take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys.” <sup>4</sup>So he passed through the mountains of Ephraim and through the land of Shalisha, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

<sup>5</sup>When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, “Come, let us return, lest my father cease caring about the donkeys and become worried about us.”

<sup>6</sup>And he said to him, “Look now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honorable man; all that he says surely comes to pass. So let us go there; perhaps he can show us the way that we should go.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, “But look, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread in our vessels is all gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?”

<sup>8</sup>And the servant answered Saul again and said, “Look, I have here at hand one-fourth of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way.” <sup>9</sup>(Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he spoke thus: “Come, let us go to the seer”; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

<sup>10</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, “Well said; come, let us go.” So they went to the city where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup>As they went up the hill to the city, they met some young women going out to draw water, and said to them, “Is the seer here?”

<sup>12</sup>And they answered them and said, “Yes, there he is, just ahead of you. Hurry now; for today he came to this city, because there is a sacrifice of the people today on the high place. <sup>13</sup>As soon as you come into the city, you will surely find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now therefore, go up, for about this time you will find him.” <sup>14</sup>So they went up to the city. As they were coming into the city, there was Samuel, coming out toward them on his way up to the high place.

<sup>15</sup>Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear the day before Saul came, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him commander over My people Israel, that he may save My people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have looked upon My people, because their cry has come to Me.”

<sup>17</sup>So when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, “There he is, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall reign over My people.” <sup>18</sup>Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, “Please tell me, where is the seer's house?”

THE EVIL HIGH PLACES (1 SAM. 9:12)

High places were a regular part of religious life in Canaanite society. The Israelites were also attracted to these facilities, making them a common feature in their cities, both in Israel (2 Kin. 17:9) and in Judah (2 Kin. 23:5, 8).

The fullest description of a high place is of one near a city in the region of Zuph (1 Sam. 9:5). At this high place there was a hall large enough to hold at least 30 people (9:22), which was used, at least sometimes, as a place for eating (9:13). A cook was stationed there, which means the high place probably also had some type of kitchen and, presumably, storage rooms (9:23, 24). An altar was also present, allowing Samuel to attend a sacrifice at this high place (9:12).

Because of the word “high,” many have assumed that high places were necessarily built on isolated hills or mountaintops. Such is suggested by comments that worshipers “go up to” or “come down from” the high place (1 Sam. 9:13, 25). Nevertheless, high places were probably just as often built within the walls of cities. The location of high places is said to be “in the cities” (2 Kin. 23:5) or “at the gates” of a city (2 Kin. 23:8). That cities most often were built on hilltops could mean that the highest point of a city may have been reserved for a high place.

On the other hand, archaeologists have discovered figurines and other cult objects in and around raised platforms, not so prominently located within cities. Small rooms and cooking areas have been found associated with these raised platforms, which possibly were the “high places” of Old Testament cities, even though not located on hilltops.

Worship in high places was later condemned. Hezekiah is reported to have been a good king partly because, among other things, he “removed the high places” (2 Kin. 18:4). The details of what transpired at these sites is now lost. What is clear is that high places became centers for the worship of foreign gods, where the Israelites engaged in evil practices (Jer. 19:4, 5).

<sup>19</sup>Samuel answered Saul and said, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and tomorrow I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart. <sup>20</sup>But as for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not be anxious about them, for they have been found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you and on all your father’s house?”

<sup>21</sup>And Saul answered and said, “Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the tribe<sup>a</sup> of Benjamin? Why then do you speak like this to me?”

<sup>22</sup>Now Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and had them sit in the place of honor among those who were invited; there were about thirty persons. <sup>23</sup>And Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, ‘Set it apart.’” <sup>24</sup>So the cook took up the thigh with its upper part and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, “Here it is, what was kept back. It was set apart for you. Eat; for until this time it has been kept for you, since I said I invited the people.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>25</sup>When they had come down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on the top of the house.<sup>a</sup> <sup>26</sup>They arose early; and it was about the dawning of the day that Samuel called to Saul on the top of the house, saying, “Get up, that I may send you on your way.” And Saul arose, and both of them went outside, he and Samuel.

Saul Anointed King

<sup>27</sup>As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us.” And he went on. “But you stand here awhile, that I may announce to you the word of God.”

10 <sup>1</sup>Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him and said: “Is it not because the LORD has anointed you commander over His inheritance?<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>When you have departed from me today, you will find two men by Rachel’s tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, ‘The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. And now your father has ceased caring about the donkeys and is worrying about you, saying, ‘What shall I do about my son?’’ <sup>3</sup>Then you shall go on forward from there and come to the terebinth tree of Tabor. There three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine. <sup>4</sup>And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive from their hands. <sup>5</sup>After that you shall come to the hill of God where the Philistine garrison is. And it will happen, when you have come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with a stringed instrument, a

WHERE WAS RACHEL'S TOMB? (1 SAM. 10:2)

Where was Rachel buried—near Bethlehem or farther north near Ramah? The answer to that question is not easily answered, but the confusion is easy to explain.

Jacob's wife Rachel was the mother of four sons, Joseph and Benjamin, her own children, and Dan and Naphtali, born to Rachel through her servant Bilhah (Gen. 35:24, 25). In giving birth to Benjamin she died.

According to Genesis, her death and burial occurred just north of Bethlehem, which is identified with the older settlement of Ephrath (Gen. 35:19, 20; 48:7). Yet in 1 Samuel the tomb of Rachel is located north of Jerusalem in the "territory of Benjamin" (1 Sam. 10:2), probably somewhere between Gibeah and Ramah. The confusion about where Rachel was buried very likely has something to do with intertribal rivalry.

In the days of the Israelite monarchy, the main rivals for the throne pitted the tribes of Judah and Benjamin against each other. David was from the tribe of Judah, which is the primary reason that his first capital was in Hebron, a Judahite city (2 Sam. 2:1, 11). Saul was from the tribe of Benjamin, so his headquarters were located in Benjamite territory, in the city known as "Gibeah of Benjamin" (1 Sam. 13:2) and as "Gibeah of Saul" (1 Sam. 15:34).

The anomaly concerning Rachel's tomb was that the mother of the Benjamites was buried in the heart of Judahite territory, Benjamin's major rival. Of course, Rachel's burial occurred long before the land was divided among the tribes. It seems logical that after the Benjamites possessed their own territory, they either reinterred their mother (if her burial site was still known), or created a new memorial place, within the territory of Benjamin. They were certainly not likely to admit that their mother was buried in Judah near Bethlehem. Whether physically or not, her burial spot was moved to Benjamin.

tambourine, a flute, and a harp before them; and they will be prophesying. <sup>6</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man. <sup>7</sup>And let it be, when these signs come to you, that you do as the occasion demands; for God is with you. <sup>8</sup>You shall go down before me to Gilgal; and surely I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and make sacrifices of peace offerings. Seven days you shall wait, till I come to you and show you what you should do."

<sup>9</sup>So it was, when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, that God gave him another heart; and all those signs came to pass that day. <sup>10</sup>When they came there to the hill, there was a group of prophets to meet him; then the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, when all who knew him formerly saw that he indeed prophesied among the prophets, that the people said to one another, "What is this that has come upon the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?" <sup>12</sup>Then a man from there answered and said, "But who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb: "Is Saul also among the prophets?" <sup>13</sup>And when he had finished prophesying, he went to the high place.

<sup>14</sup>Then Saul's uncle said to him and his servant, "Where did you go?"

So he said, "To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Samuel."

<sup>15</sup>And Saul's uncle said, "Tell me, please, what Samuel said to you."

<sup>16</sup>So Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found." But about the matter of the kingdom, he did not tell him what Samuel had said.

Saul Proclaimed King

<sup>17</sup>Then Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah, <sup>18</sup>and said to the children of Israel, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all kingdoms and from those who oppressed you.' <sup>19</sup>But you have today rejected your God, who Himself saved you from all your adversities and your tribulations; and you have said to Him, 'No, set a king over us!' Now therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>20</sup>And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen. <sup>21</sup>When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was chosen. And Saul the son of Kish was chosen. But when they sought him, he could not be found. <sup>22</sup>Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, "Has the man come here yet?"

And the LORD answered, "There he is, hidden among the equipment."

<sup>23</sup>So they ran and brought him from there; and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders

Culture & Society

The prophets appear as religious ecstasies, living in groups or bands (1 Sam. 10:5). "Prophesying" in this context was a recognizable kind of abnormal behavior, like a trance. In Greek tradition also, the oracles of the gods were not delivered in a normal way. According to Heraclitus, the oracles were ambiguous, like riddles.

10:19 <sup>a</sup>Literally thousands upward. <sup>24</sup>And Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?”

So all the people shouted and said, “Long live the king!”

<sup>25</sup>Then Samuel explained to the people the behavior of royalty, and wrote it in a book and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. <sup>26</sup>And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and valiant men went with him, whose hearts God had touched. <sup>27</sup>But some rebels said, “How can this man save us?” So they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his peace.

Saul Saves Jabesh Gilead

11 <sup>1</sup>Then Nahash the Ammonite came up and encamped against Jabesh Gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you.”

<sup>2</sup>And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, “On this condition I will make a covenant with you, that I may put out all your right eyes, and bring reproach on all Israel.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the elders of Jabesh said to him, “Hold off for seven days, that we may send messengers to all the territory of Israel. And then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you.”

<sup>4</sup>So the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and told the news in the hearing of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices and wept. <sup>5</sup>Now there was Saul, coming behind the herd from the field; and Saul said, “What troubles the people, that they weep?” And they told him the words of the men of Jabesh. <sup>6</sup>Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard this news, and his anger was greatly aroused. <sup>7</sup>So he took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, “Whoever does not go out with Saul and Samuel to battle, so it shall be done to his oxen.”

And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent. <sup>8</sup>When he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. <sup>9</sup>And they said to the messengers who came, “Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh Gilead: ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have help.’” Then the messengers came and reported it to the men of Jabesh, and they were glad. <sup>10</sup>Therefore the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do with us whatever seems good to you.”

<sup>11</sup>So it was, on the next day, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and killed Ammonites until the heat of the day. And it happened that those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

<sup>12</sup>Then the people said to Samuel, “Who is he who said, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ Bring the men, that we may put them to death.”

<sup>13</sup>But Saul said, “Not a man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has accomplished salvation in Israel.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there.”

<sup>15</sup>So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they made sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

SAUL THE KING? (1 SAM. 11:14, 15)

Gilgal held special significance for the relationship between Israel and her God Yahweh. It was there that the Israelites renewed their covenant with Yahweh before entering the Promised Land (Josh. 5:10). It was also at Gilgal that Saul was made king (1 Sam. 11:15). Yet despite the coronation ritual and celebration, a question hung over the new king: What kind of kingdom did he really have?

His standing army was relatively small and divided into two units, both of which were stationed within Benjamin. Saul’s own tribal territory (1 Sam. 13:2). Even though Saul’s soldiers are described as “men of Israel” (13:2), one wonders if most of them were not from his own tribe of Benjamin.

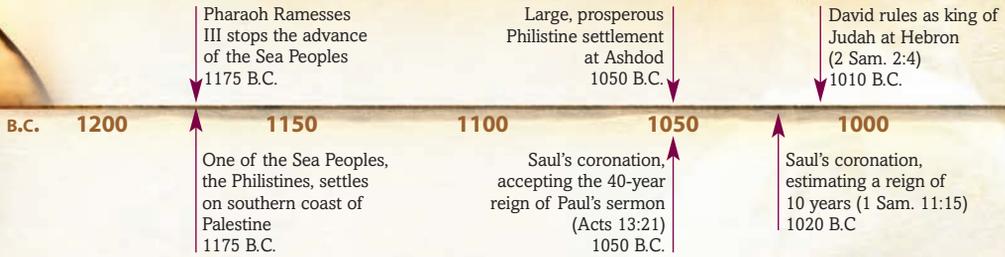

Before his coronation, Saul acted like a judge, calling together troops for a specific need (1 Sam. 11:7). Even though Samuel had already proclaimed Saul’s kingship, the king-to-be met with opposition and rejection (10:24–27).

It appears that Saul’s kingdom was an act of desperation on the part of the Israelites. The Ammonites were moving in on the tribes of Reuben and Gad (11:1–3), while the Philistines were controlling the heartland of Israel (13:3). The Israelites were ill prepared for war, lacking swords and spears, as well as a way to sharpen them, if they had them (13:19–22).

Saul’s reign was one of defense and struggle. He is pictured as spending much of his time chasing David. The Bible says nothing about any building activities. Saul spent all of his time building a kingdom, with no time to build a palace. While there was great rejoicing in Gilgal at Saul’s coronation (11:15), such things as palaces and royal cities would have to wait until the reign of his successor David.

Samuel's Address at Saul's Coronation

12 Now Samuel said to all Israel: "Indeed I have heeded your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. <sup>2</sup>And now here is the king, walking before you; and I am old and grayheaded, and look, my sons are with you. I have walked before you from my childhood to this day. <sup>3</sup>Here I am. Witness against me before the LORD and before His anointed: Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed, or from whose hand have I received any bribe with which to blind my eyes? I will restore it to you."

<sup>4</sup>And they said, "You have not cheated us or oppressed us, nor have you taken anything from any man's hand."

<sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand."

And they answered, "He is witness."

<sup>6</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who raised up Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did to you and your fathers: <sup>8</sup>When Jacob had gone into Egypt,<sup>a</sup> and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and made them dwell in this place. <sup>9</sup>And when they forgot the LORD their God, He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup>Then they cried out to the LORD, and said, 'We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD and served the Baals and Ashtoreths;<sup>a</sup> but now deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You.' <sup>11</sup>And the LORD sent Jerubbaal,<sup>a</sup> Bedan,<sup>b</sup> Jephthah, and Samuel,<sup>c</sup> and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you dwelt in safety. <sup>12</sup>And when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us,' when the LORD your God was your king.

<sup>13</sup>Now therefore, here is the king whom you have chosen and whom you have desired. And take note, the LORD has set a king over you. <sup>14</sup>If you fear the LORD and serve Him and obey His voice, and do not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and the king who reigns over you will continue following the LORD your God. <sup>15</sup>However, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

<sup>16</sup>Now therefore, stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes: <sup>17</sup>Is today not the wheat harvest? I will call to the LORD, and He will send thunder and rain, that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking a king for yourselves."

<sup>18</sup>So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

<sup>19</sup>And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking a king for ourselves."

<sup>20</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, "Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness; yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. <sup>21</sup>And do not turn aside; for then you would go after empty things which cannot profit or deliver, for they are nothing. <sup>22</sup>For the LORD will not forsake His people, for His great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you His people. <sup>23</sup>Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you; but I will teach you the good and the right way. <sup>24</sup>Only fear the LORD, and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for consider what great things He has done for you. <sup>25</sup>But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king.”

When Did Saul Become King?

The Hebrew text of 1 Sam. 13:1 is in disarray. It says that Saul was a year old when he began to reign and reigned for two years. The translators of the NKJV have made a plausible surmise at what the original may have been in 13:1. Unfortunately, we do not know how old Saul was when he began to reign, nor in what year he became king.

In Antioch Paul preached a sermon in which he appealed to Israel's history. He comments that Saul was king “for forty years” (Acts 13:21), a number mentioned also by the Jewish historian Josephus. Some accept this number as the length of Saul's reign and, counting backward 40 years from the supposed date when David became king (1010 B.C.), place Saul's coronation in 1050 B.C.

Other scholars understand the 40 years of Acts 13:21 to be a symbolic round number representing one generation. Rather than 40 years, they suggest a much shorter reign. To allow time for the several military campaigns waged by Saul, a reign of at least 10 years is supposed, and Saul's coronation is arbitrarily placed at about 1020 B.C.

The incompleteness of the Hebrew text in 1 Sam. 13:1 leaves us without exact information. What we can say is that Saul possibly became king sometime between 1050 and 1020 B.C.

Saul's Unlawful Sacrifice

13:1 Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the mountains of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent.

<sup>3</sup>And Jonathan attacked the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear!”

13:1 <sup>a</sup>The Hebrew is difficult (compare 2 Samuel 5:4; 2 Kings 14:2; see also 2 Samuel 2:10; Acts 13:21). 13:5 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text, Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate; Syriac and some manuscripts of the Septuagint read three. 13:15 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate add And the rest of the people went up after Saul to meet the people who fought against them, going from Gilgal to Gibeah in the hill of Benjamin.

<sup>4</sup>Now all Israel heard it said that Saul had attacked a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel had also become an abomination to the Philistines. And the people were called together to Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Philistines gathered together to fight with Israel, thirty<sup>a</sup> thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude. And they came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of Beth Aven. <sup>6</sup>When the men of Israel saw that they were in danger (for the people were distressed), then the people hid in caves, in thickets, in rocks, in holes, and in pits. <sup>7</sup>And some of the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead.

As for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. <sup>8</sup>Then he waited seven days, according to the time set by Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. <sup>9</sup>So Saul said, “Bring a burnt offering and peace offerings here to me.” And he offered the burnt offering. <sup>10</sup>Now it happened, as soon as he had finished presenting the burnt offering, that Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might greet him.

<sup>11</sup>And Samuel said, “What have you done?”

Saul said, “When I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered together at Michmash, <sup>12</sup>then I said, ‘The Philistines will now come down on me at Gilgal, and I have not made supplication to the LORD.’ Therefore I felt compelled, and offered a burnt offering.”

<sup>13</sup>And Samuel said to Saul, “You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you. For now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever. <sup>14</sup>But now your kingdom shall not continue. The LORD has sought for Himself a man after His own heart, and the LORD has commanded him to be commander over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin.<sup>a</sup> And Saul numbered the people present with him, about six hundred men.

No Weapons for the Army

<sup>16</sup>Saul, Jonathan his son, and the people present with them remained in Gibeah of Benjamin. But the Philistines encamped in Michmash. <sup>17</sup>Then raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned onto the road to Ophrah, to the land of Shual, <sup>18</sup>another company turned to the road to

FROM COPPER TO BRONZE TO IRON (1 SAM. 13:19–22)

The first metals used by humans were gold, silver, and copper. Gold and silver were too soft to be used for tools or weapons. Copper in its native form is also soft, although it was hammered into a harder form. However, sometime around 3500 B.C. ancient metalworkers discovered that copper hardened when alloyed with tin to produce bronze, or with zinc to produce brass.

The harder bronze was not only a better metal for producing tools, but also resulted in more effective weapons. During the Early Bronze Age, from about 2300 B.C., bronze swords and ax heads were produced by bronze-workers with increasing skill. Bronze instruments of warfare, such as the spear (2 Sam. 21:16), the bow (2 Sam. 22:35), and shield (2 Chr. 12:10), were still in use at the time of Israel's monarchy.

The next advance in metal technology came with the discovery of smelting to separate iron from its oxides. The ironworking process, which required fuel and heat, was slow to develop. Before 1200 B.C. iron was used mostly for jewelry and ceremonial weapons; however, there are a few examples of military use. An Accadian text from Nuzi in northern Mesopotamia, dating from about the 15th century B.C., gives evidence of a coat of scale armor, using iron scales, made for a horse. When the Israelites first arrived in Canaan, they were faced with the superiority of their opponents' iron-reinforced chariots (Judg. 1:19; 4:3).

Ironworking demanded the skill of a blacksmith. A letter of the Hittite king Hattusilis III, dating around 1250 B.C., shows that the Hittites had developed skills in the production of smelted iron. When Saul became Israel's king (1050 or 1020 B.C.), Philistine ironsmiths were able to control the actual working of iron in Canaan. They would sharpen the Hebrews' iron tools, but would not teach them to "make swords or spears" of iron (1 Sam. 13:19, 22).

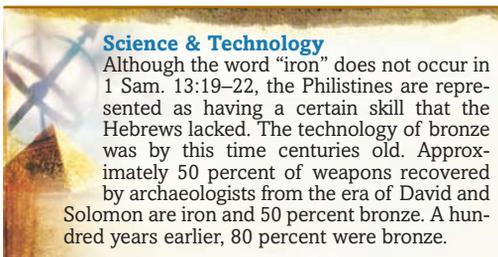

Beth Horon, and another company turned to the road of the border that overlooks the Valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup>Now there was no blacksmith to be found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears." <sup>20</sup>But all the Israelites would go down to the Philistines to sharpen each man's plowshare, his mattock, his ax, and his sickle; <sup>21</sup>and the charge for a sharpening was a pim<sup>a</sup> for the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks, and the axes, and to set the points of the goads. <sup>22</sup>So it came about, on the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan. But they were found with Saul and Jonathan his son.

Jonathan Defeats the Philistines

14 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man

Science & Technology

Although the word "iron" does not occur in 1 Sam. 13:19–22, the Philistines are represented as having a certain skill that the Hebrews lacked. The technology of bronze was by this time centuries old. Approximately 50 percent of weapons recovered by archaeologists from the era of David and Solomon are iron and 50 percent bronze. A hundred years earlier, 80 percent were bronze.

who bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side." But he did not tell his father. <sup>2</sup>And Saul was sitting in the outskirts of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron. The people who were with him were about six hundred men. <sup>3</sup>Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh, was wearing an ephod. But the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

<sup>4</sup>Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on one side and a sharp rock on the other side. And the name of one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>5</sup>The front of one faced northward opposite Michmash, and the other southward opposite Gibeah.

<sup>6</sup>Then Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will work for us. For nothing restrains the LORD from saving by many or by few."

<sup>7</sup>So his armorbearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Go then; here I am with you, according to your heart."

<sup>8</sup>Then Jonathan said, "Very well, let us cross over to these men, and we will show ourselves to them. <sup>9</sup>If they say thus to us, 'Wait until we come to you,' then we will stand still in our place and not go up to them. <sup>10</sup>But if they say thus, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up. For the LORD has delivered them into our hand, and this will be a sign to us."

13:21 <sup>a</sup>About two-thirds shekel weight

<sup>11</sup>So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, "Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden." <sup>12</sup>Then the men of the garrison called to Jonathan and his armor-bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will show you something."

Jonathan said to his armorbearer, "Come up after me, for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel." <sup>13</sup>And Jonathan climbed up on his hands and knees with his armorbearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan. And as he came after him, his armorbearer killed them. <sup>14</sup>That first slaughter which Jonathan and his armorbearer made was about twenty men within about half an acre of land."

<sup>15</sup>And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and the raiders also trembled; and the earth quaked, so that it was a very great trembling. <sup>16</sup>Now the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and there was the multitude, melting away; and they went here and there. <sup>17</sup>Then Saul said to the people who were with him, "Now call the roll and see who has gone from us." And when they had called the roll, surprisingly, Jonathan and his armorbearer were not there. <sup>18</sup>And Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark<sup>a</sup> of God here" (for at that time the ark<sup>b</sup> of God was with the children of Israel). <sup>19</sup>Now it happened, while Saul talked to the priest, that the noise which was in the camp of the Philistines continued to increase; so Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand." <sup>20</sup>Then Saul and all the people who were with him assembled, and they went to the battle; and indeed every man's sword was against his neighbor, and there was very great confusion. <sup>21</sup>Moreover the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before that time, who went up with them into the camp from the surrounding country, they also joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup>Like-wise all the men of Israel who had hidden in the mountains of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, they also followed hard after them in the battle. <sup>23</sup>So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle shifted to Beth Aven.

Saul's Rash Oath

<sup>24</sup>And the men of Israel were distressed that day, for Saul had placed the people under oath, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats any food until evening, before I have taken vengeance on my enemies." So none of the people tasted food. <sup>25</sup>Now all the people of the land came to a forest; and there was honey on the ground. <sup>26</sup>And when the people had come into the woods, there was the honey, dripping; but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. <sup>27</sup>But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; therefore he stretched out the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his countenance brightened. <sup>28</sup>Then one of the people said, "Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food this day.'" And the people were faint.

<sup>29</sup>But Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land. Look now, how my countenance has brightened because I tasted a little of this honey. <sup>30</sup>How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now would there not have been a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?"

<sup>31</sup>Now they had driven back the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. So the people were very faint. <sup>32</sup>And the people rushed on the spoil, and took sheep, oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood. <sup>33</sup>Then they told Saul, saying, "Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood!"

So he said, "You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone to me this day." <sup>34</sup>Then Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, 'Bring me here every man's ox and every man's sheep, slaughter them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.'" So every one of the people brought his ox with him that night, and slaughtered it there. <sup>35</sup>Then Saul built an altar to the LORD. This was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Now Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and plunder them until the morning light; and let us not leave a man of them."

And they said, "Do whatever seems good to you."

Then the priest said, "Let us draw near to God here."

<sup>37</sup>So Saul asked counsel of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But He did not answer him that day. <sup>38</sup>And Saul said, "Come over here, all you chiefs of the people, and know and see what this sin was today. <sup>39</sup>For as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But not a man among all the people answered him. <sup>40</sup>Then he said to all Israel, "You be on one side, and my son Jonathan and I will be on the other side."

14:14 <sup>a</sup>Literally half the area plowed by a yoke (of oxen in a day)

And the people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

<sup>41</sup>Therefore Saul said to the LORD God of Israel, “Give a perfect lot.”<sup>a</sup> So Saul and Jonathan were taken, but the people escaped. <sup>42</sup>And Saul said, “Cast lots between my son Jonathan and me.” So Jonathan was taken. <sup>43</sup>Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.”

And Jonathan told him, and said, “I only tasted a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand. So now I must die!”

<sup>44</sup>Saul answered, “God do so and more also; for you shall surely die, Jonathan.”

<sup>45</sup>But the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has accomplished this great deliverance in Israel? Certainly not! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day.” So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.

<sup>46</sup>Then Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

Saul's Continuing Wars

<sup>47</sup>So Saul established his sovereignty over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, against the people of Ammon, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he harassed them.<sup>a</sup> <sup>48</sup>And he gathered an army and attacked the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of those who plundered them.

<sup>49</sup>The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Jishui,<sup>a</sup> and Malchishua. And the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal. <sup>50</sup>The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. <sup>51</sup>Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup>Now there was fierce war with the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any strong man or any valiant man, he took him for himself.

Saul Spares King Agag

15 <sup>1</sup>Samuel also said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you king over His people,

Religion & Worship

Samuel repeats God's demand that Amalek be destroyed (1 Sam. 15:3). The term for this decree in Hebrew is herem, meaning “devoted” or “banned.” As a religious demand, it is absolute, although in fact the inhabitants of Canaan were not at any time entirely exterminated (Deut. 7:22; Judg. 1:27–36). Throughout history, many wars have had an obvious religious component.

over Israel. Now therefore, heed the voice of the words of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he ambushed him on the way when he came up from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Now go and attack Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’”

<sup>4</sup>So Saul gathered the people together and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men of Judah. <sup>5</sup>And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and lay in wait in the valley.

<sup>6</sup>Then Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, get down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them. For you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. <sup>7</sup>And Saul attacked the Amalekites, from Havilah all the way to Shur, which is east of Egypt. <sup>8</sup>He also took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. <sup>9</sup>But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and all that was good, and were unwilling to utterly destroy them. But everything despised and worthless, that they utterly destroyed.

Saul Rejected as King

<sup>10</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying, <sup>11</sup>“I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king, for he has turned back from following Me, and has not performed My commandments.” And it grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the LORD all night. <sup>12</sup>So when Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, it was told Samuel, saying, “Saul went to Carmel, and indeed, he set up a monument for himself; and he has gone on around, passed by, and gone down to Gilgal.” <sup>13</sup>Then Samuel went to Saul, and Saul said to him, “Blessed are you of the LORD! I have performed the commandment of the LORD.”

<sup>14</sup>But Samuel said, “What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?”

<sup>15</sup>And Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.”

14:41 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate read Why do You not answer Your servant today? If the injustice is with me or Jonathan my son, O LORD God of Israel, give proof; and if You say it is with Your people Israel, give holiness. 14:47 <sup>a</sup>Septuagint and Vulgate read prospered.

14:49 <sup>a</sup>Called Abinadab in 1 Chronicles 8:33 and 9:39

<sup>16</sup>Then Samuel said to Saul, “Be quiet! And I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night.” And he said to him, “Speak on.”

<sup>17</sup>So Samuel said, “When you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Israel? And did not the LORD anoint you king over Israel? <sup>18</sup>Now the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, ‘Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.’ <sup>19</sup>Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do evil in the sight of the LORD?”

<sup>20</sup>And Saul said to Samuel, “But I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>21</sup>But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal.”

<sup>22</sup>So Samuel said:

“Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,

As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams.

<sup>23</sup> For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft,
And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,

He also has rejected you from being king.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. <sup>25</sup>Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD.”

<sup>26</sup>But Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.”

<sup>27</sup>And as Samuel turned around to go away, Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore. <sup>28</sup>So Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you. <sup>29</sup>And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor relent. For He is not a man, that He should relent.”

<sup>30</sup>Then he said, “I have sinned; yet honor me now, please, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD your God.” <sup>31</sup>So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>Then Samuel said, “Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me.” So Agag came to him cautiously.

And Agag said, “Surely the bitterness of death is past.”

<sup>33</sup>But Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women.” And Samuel hacked Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup>Then Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup>And Samuel went no more to see Saul until the day of his death. Nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul, and the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

David Anointed King

16 <sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite. For I have provided Myself a king among his sons.”

<sup>2</sup>And Samuel said, “How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me.”

But the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you, and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’”

<sup>3</sup>Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; you shall anoint for Me the one I name to you.”

<sup>4</sup>So Samuel did what the LORD said, and went to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, “Do you come peaceably?”

<sup>5</sup>And he said, “Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice.” Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

<sup>6</sup>So it was, when they came, that he looked at Eliab and said, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is before Him!”

<sup>8</sup>So Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.” <sup>9</sup>Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.” <sup>10</sup>Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen these.” <sup>11</sup>And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all the young men here?” Then he said, “There remains yet the youngest, and there he is, keeping the sheep.”

And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him. For we will not sit down<sup>a</sup> till he comes here.” <sup>12</sup>So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with bright eyes, and good-looking. And the LORD said, “Arise, anoint him; for this is the one!” <sup>13</sup>Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

A Distressing Spirit Troubles Saul

<sup>14</sup>But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and a distressing spirit from the LORD troubled him. <sup>15</sup>And Saul’s servants said to him, “Surely, a distressing spirit from God is troubling you. <sup>16</sup>Let our master now command your servants, who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skillful player on the harp. And it shall be that he will play it with his hand when the distressing spirit from God is upon you, and you shall be well.”

<sup>17</sup>So Saul said to his servants, “Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me.”

<sup>18</sup>Then one of the servants answered and said, “Look, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a mighty man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a handsome person; and the LORD is with him.”

<sup>19</sup>Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, “Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.” <sup>20</sup>And Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a young goat, and sent them by his son David to Saul. <sup>21</sup>So David came to Saul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armorbearer. <sup>22</sup>Then Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Please let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight.” <sup>23</sup>And so it was, whenever the spirit from God was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

The Shepherd’s Psalm

Few of the psalms give any information about their historical context. Indeed, this is intentional: the psalms were designed for worship and were written to reflect the many different needs of many worshipers who would use them. The origination of the psalms in worship makes it difficult to place them in chronological order.

Although we cannot know exactly when Ps. 23 was composed, it is particularly appropriate to be read after 1 Sam. 16:14–23. With such a psalm the shepherd David might sing to his troubled, unstable king.

TRANSITION

David in Saul's Court

David's arrival in Saul's court as musician and armorbearer (1 Sam. 16:14–23) is followed immediately by a second arrival, this time as the boy slayer of the Philistine giant (1 Sam. 17). Though some details of these two accounts are puzzling, such as why Saul does not seem to recognize his own armorbearer (1 Sam. 17:55), the “two arrivals” are appropriate to David's character. He will always be remembered as both a great warrior, the lion of Judah, and as the sweet singer of Israel, the man after God's own heart.

Saul's and David's victories over the Philistines gave heart to Israel, but the Philistines continued pressing inland. Saul would spend the rest of his life at war with them. That strain, along with his jealousy of David's popularity, helped to overset an already troubled mind.

• 1 Samuel 17:1—19:17

David and Goliath

17:1 Now the Philistines gathered their armies together to battle, and were gathered at Sochoh, which belongs to Judah; they encamped between Sochoh and Azekah, in Ephes Dammim. <sup>2</sup>And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and they encamped in the Valley of Elah, and drew up in battle array against the Philistines. <sup>3</sup>The Philistines stood on a mountain on one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side, with a valley between them.

<sup>4</sup>And a champion went out from the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. <sup>5</sup>He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze. <sup>6</sup>And he had bronze armor on his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup>Now the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his iron spearhead weighed six hundred shekels; and a shield-bearer went before him. <sup>8</sup>Then he stood and cried out to the armies of Israel, and said to them, “Why have you come out to line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and you the servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. <sup>9</sup>If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us.” <sup>10</sup>And the Philistine said, “I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.” <sup>11</sup>When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

<sup>12</sup>Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse, and who had eight sons. And the man was old, advanced in years, in the days of Saul. <sup>13</sup>The three oldest sons of Jesse had gone to follow Saul to the battle. The names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. <sup>14</sup>David was the youngest. And the three oldest followed Saul. <sup>15</sup>But David occasionally went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

<sup>16</sup>And the Philistine drew near and presented himself forty days, morning and evening.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesse said to his son David, “Take now for your brothers an ephah of this dried grain and these ten loaves, and run to your brothers at the camp. <sup>18</sup>And carry these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers fare, and bring back news of them.” <sup>19</sup>Now Saul and they and all the men of Israel were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

<sup>20</sup>So David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, and took the things and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the camp as the army was going out to the

HOW BIG IS A GIANT? (1 SAM. 17:4)

The height reported for the Philistine Goliath, “six cubits and a span” (1 Sam. 17:4), indicates a very big man: approximately 9 feet, 9 inches tall. If such a height seems tall now, it was much taller in ancient times. Biblical people averaged about 5 feet in height, judging from skeletons uncovered by archaeologists.

Other Old Testament sources offer a different measurement for Goliath's height. Some manuscripts of the Septuagint (the Greek Old Testament) and one of the Samuel manuscripts from the Dead Sea Scrolls read “four cubits and a span” in 1 Sam. 17:4. This height—about 6 feet, 9 inches—would still make Goliath a giant for David's time. It is difficult to know what caused the differing numbers of six cubits (9 feet) and four cubits (6 feet).

Some scholars have noticed a possible explanation in the Hebrew text. The Hebrew words for “six hundred” (17:7), a few lines below the “six cubits” line, look very similar to the Hebrew words for “six cubits.” They suppose that the eye of an early copyist accidentally caught sight of “six hundred,” and the similarity of those words in Hebrew caused him to write “six” instead of “four” with “cubits.” In this way, “six cubits” may have replaced “four cubits,” making Goliath appear to be 9 feet, 9 inches tall, when he was still a giant at 6 feet, 6 inches.

It cannot be known which of these manuscripts preserves the original number. Nevertheless, the youth David (1 Sam. 17:33) faced an opponent who, at either height, was truly a giant among warriors of his day.

IS THE ARMOR TOO BIG, OR THE CROWN? (1 SAM. 17:38–40)

There was more to Saul's offer of the royal armor and sword to David than meets the eye (1 Sam. 17:38, 39). Positions of authority in the ancient world were marked by formal insignia, or by special clothing. Even more important, the ruler's weapon, usually a sword, was seen as a gift of the deities and a mark of their favor toward the bearer as the legitimate ruler.

So when Saul offered David his armor, he would have been understood by Israelite culture as offering David his own position as king of Israel. The transfer of clothing signified a transfer of status. Elsewhere in the Bible, Elijah called Elisha to replace him as God's primary prophet simply by throwing his mantle upon his successor (1 Kin. 19:19).

Saul's sword was the mark of his position as defender of Israel; when the sword was given to David, Saul's kingship went with it. But David could not wear the armor or the sword; he was not ready to rule, even though he already had the favor of God and the courage to defend Israel. By returning the military gear, David showed that he did not intend to replace Saul as king. He held to this position firmly, even later avoiding confrontation with Saul (1 Sam. 24:6, 7).

Eventually, however, David would be king. When Saul's son Jonathan covenanted with David, the transfer of clothing and armor was repeated, but with a different result (1 Sam. 18:1–4).

fight and shouting for the battle. <sup>21</sup>For Israel and the Philistines had drawn up in battle array, army against army. <sup>22</sup>And David left his supplies in the hand of the supply keeper, ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers. <sup>23</sup>Then as he talked with them, there was the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, coming up from the armies of the Philistines; and he spoke according to the same words. So David heard them. <sup>24</sup>And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him and were dreadfully afraid. <sup>25</sup>So the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel; and it shall be that the man who kills him the king will enrich with great riches, will give him his daughter, and give his father's house exemption from taxes in Israel."

<sup>26</sup>Then David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, "What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

<sup>27</sup>And the people answered him in this manner, saying, "So shall it be done for the man who kills him."

<sup>28</sup>Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger was aroused against David, and he said, "Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the insolence of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle."

<sup>29</sup>And David said, "What have I done now? Is there not a cause?" <sup>30</sup>Then he turned from him toward another and said the same thing; and these people answered him as the first ones did.

<sup>31</sup>Now when the words which David spoke were heard, they reported them to Saul; and he sent for him. <sup>32</sup>Then David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

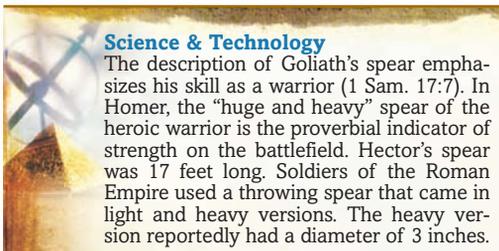

<sup>33</sup>And Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are a youth, and he a man of war from his youth."

<sup>34</sup>But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep his father's sheep, and when a lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock, <sup>35</sup>I went out after it and struck it, and delivered the lamb from its mouth; and when it arose against me, I caught it by its beard, and struck and killed it. <sup>36</sup>Your servant has killed both lion and bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God." <sup>37</sup>Moreover David said, "The LORD, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine."

And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you!"

<sup>38</sup>So Saul clothed David with his armor, and he put a bronze helmet on his head; he also clothed him with a coat of mail. <sup>39</sup>David fastened his sword to his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested them. And David said to Saul, "I cannot walk with these, for I have not tested them." So David took them off.

<sup>40</sup>Then he took his staff in his hand; and he chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag, in a pouch which he had, and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine. <sup>41</sup>So the

Science & Technology

The description of Goliath's spear emphasizes his skill as a warrior (1 Sam. 17:7). In Homer, the "huge and heavy" spear of the heroic warrior is the proverbial indicator of strength on the battlefield. Hector's spear was 17 feet long. Soldiers of the Roman Empire used a throwing spear that came in light and heavy versions. The heavy version reportedly had a diameter of 3 inches.

Philistine came, and began drawing near to David, and the man who bore the shield went before him. <sup>42</sup>And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he disdained him; for he was only a youth, ruddy and good-looking. <sup>43</sup>So the Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. <sup>44</sup>And the Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!”

<sup>45</sup>Then David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin. But I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. <sup>46</sup>This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you and take your head from you. And this day I will give the carcasses of the camp of the Philistines to the birds of the air and the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. <sup>47</sup>Then all this assembly shall know that the LORD does not save with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD’s, and He will give you into our hands.”

<sup>48</sup>So it was, when the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. <sup>49</sup>Then David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone; and he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead, so that the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth. <sup>50</sup>So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. But there was no sword in the hand of David. <sup>51</sup>Therefore David ran and stood over the Philistine, took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it.

And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. <sup>52</sup>Now the men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted, and pursued the Philistines as far as the entrance of the valley<sup>a</sup> and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell along the road to Shaaraim, even as far as Gath and Ekron. <sup>53</sup>Then the children of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their tents. <sup>54</sup>And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.

<sup>55</sup>When Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, “Abner, whose son is this youth?”

And Abner said, “As your soul lives, O king, I do not know.”

<sup>57</sup>Then, as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. <sup>58</sup>And Saul said to him, “Whose son are you, young man?”

So David answered, “I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.”

Saul Resents David

18 <sup>1</sup>Now when he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. <sup>2</sup>Saul took him that day, and would not let him go home to his father’s house anymore. <sup>3</sup>Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. <sup>4</sup>And Jonathan took off the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armor, even to his sword and his bow and his belt.

<sup>5</sup>So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and behaved wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul’s servants. <sup>6</sup>Now it had happened as they were coming

JONATHAN TRANSFERS CLAIM TO THE THRONE (1 SAM. 18:1–4)

After he killed Goliath, David became a member of Saul's court. Jonathan, Saul's son and heir, took an immediate liking to David and saw this new friend as an equal. This, as it turns out, was central to the rise of David to the throne.

When Saul had offered David his armor and sword (1 Sam. 17:38, 39), David returned them. Now Jonathan handed over to David his robe and his military gear, including his sword and bow (1 Sam. 18:4). As with Saul's offer, Jonathan's offer entailed more than the clothes.

With David's acceptance of the sword of Jonathan, David became who Jonathan was. David was now the heir apparent to the throne of Israel. Jonathan was already an acknowledged military leader by this time; David is described as still a young man (17:58). But in this action the already established heir, Jonathan, acknowledged that God's decision had been made: David was to rule rather than himself, and he was willing to step aside.

Both Saul and Jonathan knew what had happened with this transfer of royal insignia (1 Sam. 20:30, 31). Saul began sending out David to battles he had previously fought himself or had sent Jonathan to fight (18:5). After this time, in another indication of David's new status, Saul began to refer to David as "my son" (1 Sam. 24:16; 26:21).

home, when David was returning from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women had come out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments. <sup>7</sup>So the women sang as they danced, and said:

"Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands."

<sup>8</sup>Then Saul was very angry, and the saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed only thousands. Now what more can he have but the kingdom?" <sup>9</sup>So Saul eyed David from that day forward.

<sup>10</sup>And it happened on the next day that the distressing spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied inside the house. So David played music with his hand, as at other times; but there was a spear in Saul's hand. <sup>11</sup>And Saul cast the spear, for he said, "I will pin David to the wall!" But David escaped his presence twice.

<sup>12</sup>Now Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, but had departed from Saul. <sup>13</sup>Therefore Saul removed him from his presence, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people. <sup>14</sup>And David behaved wisely in all his ways, and the LORD was with him. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, when Saul saw that he behaved very wisely, he was afraid of him. <sup>16</sup>But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

Marriage & Family

The dowry or bride-price is a feature of traditional cultures. Sometimes the bride is accompanied by a gift from her father, and other times the prospective husband must give a gift to the father. Instead of a dowry, Saul requests that David present to him the tokens of a victory against their national enemy, the Philistines (1 Sam. 18:25).

David Marries Michal

<sup>17</sup>Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul thought, "Let my hand not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him."

<sup>18</sup>So David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?" <sup>19</sup>But it happened at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

<sup>20</sup>Now Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. <sup>21</sup>So Saul said, "I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, "You shall be my son-in-law today."

<sup>22</sup>And Saul commanded his servants, "Communicate with David secretly, and say, 'Look, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore, become the king's son-in-law.'"

<sup>23</sup>So Saul's servants spoke those words in the hearing of David. And David said, "Does it seem to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing I am a poor and lightly esteemed man?" <sup>24</sup>And the servants of Saul told him, saying, "In this manner David spoke."

<sup>25</sup>Then Saul said, "Thus you shall say to David: 'The king does not desire any dowry but one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king's enemies.'" But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. <sup>26</sup>So when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to become the king's son-in-law. Now the days had not expired; <sup>27</sup>therefore David arose and went, he and his men, and killed two hundred men of the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full count to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him Michal his daughter as a wife.

<sup>28</sup>Thus Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him; <sup>29</sup>and Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul became David's enemy continually. <sup>30</sup>Then the princes of the Philistines went out to war. And so it was, whenever they went out, that David behaved more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name became highly esteemed.

Saul Persecutes David

19 <sup>1</sup>Now Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill David; but Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted greatly in David. <sup>2</sup>So Jonathan told David, saying, "My father Saul seeks to kill you. Therefore please be on your guard until morning, and stay in a secret place and hide. <sup>3</sup>And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you. Then what I observe, I will tell you."

<sup>4</sup>Thus Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Let not the king sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you. <sup>5</sup>For he took his life in his hands and killed the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great deliverance for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?"

<sup>6</sup>So Saul heeded the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be killed." <sup>7</sup>Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things. So Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

<sup>8</sup>And there was war again; and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and struck them with a mighty blow, and they fled from him.

<sup>9</sup>Now the distressing spirit from the LORD came upon Saul as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand. And David was playing music with his hand. <sup>10</sup>Then Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away from Saul's presence; and he drove the spear into the wall. So David fled and escaped that night.

<sup>11</sup>Saul also sent messengers to David's house to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." <sup>12</sup>So Michal let David down through a window. And he went and fled and escaped. <sup>13</sup>And Michal took an image and laid it in the bed, put a cover of goats' hair for his head, and covered it with clothes. <sup>14</sup>So when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

<sup>15</sup>Then Saul sent the messengers back to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him." <sup>16</sup>And when the messengers had come in, there was the image in the bed, with a cover of goats' hair for his head. <sup>17</sup>Then Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this, and sent my enemy away, so that he has escaped?"

And Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?'"

While the language of the psalms themselves does not describe specific historical events, a few psalms have superscriptions that assign them to a particular historical context. These superscriptions are clearly separate from the actual psalm, and many scholars believe that they were added long after the original compositions.

Whether they were original to the psalms or were added later, the superscriptions do associate some psalms with specific events. They may indicate how certain psalms were understood or used by Israelites in worship and devotion. For that reason, psalms have been placed so as to preserve the associations of the superscriptions. Thus Ps. 59 was associated with Saul's attempt to capture David at his own house (1 Sam. 19:15).

Plants & Animals

In the ancient Near East most dogs were not pets but wild dogs. They made their presence known at night, when there was no traffic or crowds to keep them away (Ps. 59:14). Since they ate whatever they could find, their diet was unclean and could even include dead bodies or blood. Having paws, they were considered unclean for food or sacrifice (Lev. 11:27).

David Flees from Saul

As David's popularity grows, even within Saul's inner circle, so does Saul's jealousy. The break is inevitable; David flees. Although he is a fugitive, he somehow keeps his influential supporters, among whom are Samuel (1 Sam. 19:18), Jonathan (Saul's son and heir, 20:1–42), and the priest Ahimelech (21:1–9).

Ahimelech's son, Abiathar, became one of David's primary supporters. Many years later the Gospel of Mark would refer to the event described in 1 Sam. 21, but instead of mentioning Ahimelech, it would use the better known name of the son, Abiathar (Mark 2:23–28).

And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth. <sup>19</sup>Now it was told Saul, saying, “Take note, David is at Naioth in Ramah!” <sup>20</sup>Then Saul sent messengers to take David. And when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as leader over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. <sup>21</sup>And when Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. Then Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. <sup>22</sup>Then he also went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is at Sechu. So he asked, and said, “Where are Samuel and David?”

And someone said, “Indeed they are at Naioth in Ramah.” <sup>23</sup>So he went there to Naioth in Ramah. Then the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah. <sup>24</sup>And he also stripped off his clothes and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. ## MONTHS OF THE YEARLY CALENDAR (1 SAM. 20:5–24)

In Israel, the New Moon was an important festival. So important that Israelites expected this festival to continue in the new earth where all people will enjoy companionship with Yahweh (Is. 66:23).

The “New Moon” festival resulted from the practice of beginning a new month based on a new moon, the sighting of the first visible crescent of the moon. Virtually every society in the Near East marked their months by the new moon, Egypt being an exception. Since the actual amount of time occurring between new moons is more than 29 days, but less than 30 days, some months contained 29 days, and others 30. The time was determined by visual observation.

Most nations kept track of their years following an agricultural agenda with spring serving as the beginning of the year. The problem was that one year (12 months) of 29- or 30-day months quickly leads to a New Year’s day out-of-sync with spring (12 months x 29½ days = 354 days in a year). Thus, in Babylon, on an irregular basis a king would add a 13th month to the year to adjust the New Year’s day to the beginning of the spring season. By about 500 B.C. the Babylonians had worked out a regular 19-year cycle to regulate this correspondence.

How the problem was handled in Israel is not known. What is known is that very early in Israel’s history, the New Moon day had become a monthly religious festival (1 Sam. 20:5, 18, 24). The importance of this day is suggested by its description as a “solemn feast day” (Ps. 81:3), and the claim that the New Moon festival was a “statute for Israel” (81:4). No wonder the prophet Amos complained about those who waited anxiously for the New Moon day to pass, so they could return to their regular business (Amos 8:5).

either great or small without first telling me. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!”

<sup>3</sup>Then David took an oath again, and said, “Your father certainly knows that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said, ‘Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.’ But truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death.”

<sup>4</sup>So Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you yourself desire, I will do it for you.”

<sup>5</sup>And David said to Jonathan, “Indeed tomorrow is the New Moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king to eat. But let me go, that I may hide in the field until the third day at evening. <sup>6</sup>If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly asked permission of me that he might run over to Bethlehem, his city, for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.’ <sup>7</sup>If he says thus: ‘It is well,’ your servant will be safe. But if he is very angry, be sure that evil is determined by him. <sup>8</sup>Therefore you shall deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. Nevertheless, if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself, for why should you bring me to your father?”

<sup>9</sup>But Jonathan said, “Far be it from you! For if I knew certainly that evil was determined by my father to come upon you, then would I not tell you?”

<sup>10</sup>Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will tell me, or what if your father answers you roughly?”

<sup>11</sup>And Jonathan said to David, “Come, let us go out into the field.” So both of them went out into the field. <sup>12</sup>Then Jonathan said to David: “The LORD God of Israel is witness! When I have sounded out my father sometime tomorrow, or the third day, and indeed there is good toward David, and I do not send to you and tell you, <sup>13</sup>may the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan. But if it pleases my father to do you evil, then I will report it to you and send you away, that you may go in safety. And the LORD be with you as He has been with my father. <sup>14</sup>And you shall not only show me the kindness of the LORD while I still live, that I may not die; <sup>15</sup>but you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever, no, not when the LORD has cut off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth.” <sup>16</sup>So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, “Let the LORD require it at the hand of David’s enemies.”

<sup>17</sup>Now Jonathan again caused David to vow, because he loved him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul. <sup>18</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, “Tomorrow is the New Moon; and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. <sup>19</sup>And when you have stayed three days, go down quickly and come to the place where you hid on the day of the deed; and remain by the stone Ezel. <sup>20</sup>Then I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a target; <sup>21</sup>and there I will send a lad, saying, ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I expressly say to the lad, ‘Look, the arrows are on this side of you; get them and come’—then, as the LORD lives, there is safety for you and no

<sup>28</sup>So Jonathan answered Saul, “David earnestly asked permission of me to go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup>And he said, ‘Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me get away and see my brothers.’ Therefore he has not come to the king’s table.”

<sup>30</sup>Then Saul’s anger was aroused against Jonathan, and he said to him, “You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother’s nakedness? <sup>31</sup>For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Now therefore, send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die.”

<sup>32</sup>And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, “Why should he be killed? What has he done?” <sup>33</sup>Then Saul cast a spear at him to kill him, by which Jonathan knew that it was determined by his father to kill David.

<sup>34</sup>So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had treated him shamefully.

<sup>35</sup>And so it was, in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad was with him. <sup>36</sup>Then he said to his lad, “Now run, find the arrows which I shoot.” As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup>When the lad had come to the place where the arrow was which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried out after the lad and said, “Is not the arrow beyond you?” <sup>38</sup>And Jonathan cried out after the lad, “Make haste, hurry, do not delay!” So Jonathan’s lad gathered up the arrows and came back to his master. <sup>39</sup>But the lad did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew of the matter. <sup>40</sup>Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him, “Go, carry them to the city.”

<sup>41</sup>As soon as the lad had gone, David arose from a place toward the south, fell on his face to the ground, and bowed down three times. And they kissed one another; and they wept together, but David more so. <sup>42</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, since we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘May the LORD be between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants, forever.’” So he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

David and the Holy Bread

21 <sup>1</sup>Now David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech was afraid when he met David, and said to him, “Why are you alone, and no one is with you?”

<sup>2</sup>So David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has ordered me on some business, and said to me, ‘Do not let anyone know anything about the business on which I send you, or what I have commanded you.’ And I have directed my young men to such and such a place. <sup>3</sup>Now therefore, what have you on hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever can be found.”

<sup>4</sup>And the priest answered David and said, “There is no common bread on hand; but there is holy bread, if the young men have at least kept themselves from women.”

<sup>5</sup>Then David answered the priest, and said to him, “Truly, women have been kept from us about three days since I came out. And the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in effect common, even though it was consecrated in the vessel this day.”

<sup>6</sup>So the priest gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the showbread which had been taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day when it was taken away.

<sup>7</sup>Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD. And his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.

<sup>8</sup>And David said to Ahimelech, “Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king’s business required haste.”

<sup>9</sup>So the priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, there it is, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it. For there is no other except that one here.”

And David said, “There is none like it; give it to me.”

David Flees to Gath

<sup>10</sup>Then David arose and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath. <sup>11</sup>And the servants of Achish said to him, “Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of him to one another in dances, saying:

‘Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?’”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Now David took these words to heart, and was very much afraid of Achish the king of Gath. <sup>13</sup>So he changed his behavior before them, pretended madness in their hands, scratched on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva fall down on his beard. <sup>14</sup>Then Achish said to his servants, “Look, you see the man is insane. Why have you brought him to me? <sup>15</sup>Have I need of madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?”

Among the Philistines at Gath

Two psalms have superscriptions that associate them with David’s sojourn at Gath. The superscription to Ps. 56 remembers the time when the Philistines captured David. The superscription to Ps. 34 even mentions David’s pretended madness before the Philistine king.

The name of the Philistine king in Ps. 34 is Abimelech. In 1 Sam. 21:10–15 where this incident is reported, the king’s name is given as Achish. Possibly “Abimelech” was a title or throne name used for all kings of the Philistine regions. The city of Gerar, which was a Philistine city after about 1200 B.C., shows a King Abimelech in the patriarchal stories of Abraham (Gen. 20:2) and of his son Isaac (Gen. 26:1, where Abimelech is even called “king of the Philistines”). The name “Abimelech” is translated “my father, the king” or “father of the king,” an appropriate meaning for a throne name.

Prayer for Relief from Tormentors

To the Chief Musician. Set to “The Silent Dove in Distant Lands.”<sup>a</sup> A Michtam of David when the Philistines captured him in Gath.

Be merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up;
Fighting all day he oppresses me.
2 My enemies would hound me all day,
For there are many who fight against me,
O Most High.

3 Whenever I am afraid,
I will trust in You.
4 In God (I will praise His word),
In God I have put my trust;
I will not fear.
What can flesh do to me?

5 All day they twist my words;
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
6 They gather together,
They hide, they mark my steps,
When they lie in wait for my life.
7 Shall they escape by iniquity?
In anger cast down the peoples, O God!

8 You number my wanderings;
Put my tears into Your bottle;
Are they not in Your book?
9 When I cry out to You,
Then my enemies will turn back;
This I know, because God is for me.

ANGEL: MESSENGER AND PRESENCE OF GOD (Ps. 34:7)

Angels do the will of God. Both the Hebrew and Greek words for “angel” mean “messenger.” In the ancient Near East the divine realm was viewed in terms of the structure of human society, and angels were the lowest level of society—the slave messengers. These lowest denizens of heaven did only what they were commanded to do by their superiors.

While other ancient Near Eastern cultures believed in pantheons of gods, the official religion of Israel accepted no other divine beings than God, save the angels. The gods of the pantheons could disagree with and disobey the authoritative deities of their own divine hierarchy. The psalmists, though, knew of no disagreement in heaven, since God is in control of all divine beings (Ps. 89:6, 7). The angels do the work of heaven in harmony with the will of God.

In narratives of the Bible and of the texts from Ugarit (1400–1200 B.C.), divine messengers carry messages in the form of living letters. The messengers repeat word for word what they are told to report to other gods or to humans. In this way the message given by an angel in the name of another deity was indeed the very words of the deity who sent the messenger.

An angel of any given deity was so closely associated with the god as to represent the actual presence of the god. Thus, as Moses experienced at the burning bush (Ex. 3:2–4), to speak with an angel was actually to speak with the deity. The Bible presents a similar situation with the activity of angels. Since the messenger could do only as ordered by God, whatever an angel did in the name of God was done by God. So in Israel’s psalms, it is God who protects the faithful, even though the actual divine being standing guard is God’s angel (Ps. 34:7).

10 In God (I will praise His word),
In the LORD (I will praise His word),
11 In God I have put my trust;
I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?
12 Vows made to You are binding upon me,
O God;
I will render praises to You,
13 For You have delivered my soul from death.
Have You not kept my feet from falling,
That I may walk before God
In the light of the living?

PSALM 34The Happiness of Those Who Trust in God

A Psalm of David when he pretended madness before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

I will bless the LORD at all times;
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
2 My soul shall make its boast in the LORD;
The humble shall hear of it and be glad.
3 Oh, magnify the LORD with me,
And let us exalt His name together.
4 I sought the LORD, and He heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
5 They looked to Him and were radiant,
And their faces were not ashamed.
6 This poor man cried out, and the LORD heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.
7 The angel<sup>a</sup> of the LORD encamps all around those who fear Him,
And delivers them.
8 Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good;
Blessed is the man who trusts in Him!

9 Oh, fear the LORD, you His saints!
There is no want to those who fear Him.
10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger;
But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.
11 Come, you children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
12 Who is the man who desires life,
And loves many days, that he may see good?
13 Keep your tongue from evil,
And your lips from speaking deceit.
14 Depart from evil and do good;
Seek peace and pursue it.
15 The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
And His ears are open to their cry.
16 The face of the LORD is against those who do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
17 The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.
18 The LORD is near to those who have a broken heart,
And saves such as have a contrite spirit.
19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
But the LORD delivers him out of them all.
20 He guards all his bones;
Not one of them is broken.
21 Evil shall slay the wicked,
And those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.
22 The LORD redeems the soul of His servants,
And none of those who trust in Him shall be condemned.

Murder in the Holy Place

Saul's pursuit of David intensified, now involving actual murder. The time of Israel's tribal confederation, just before Saul was crowned king, was not very unified, but what unity there was came from Israel's common worship at the shrine where the ark of the covenant was kept. Reverence for the shrine continued, even after the confederation ended, and no sane Israelite would have dreamed of attacking that holy place or its priests. But Saul by this time could hardly be called sane.

1 Samuel

David's Four Hundred Men

22 :1 David therefore departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. So when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him. <sup>2</sup>And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him. So he became captain over them. And there were about four hundred men with him.

<sup>3</sup>Then David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come here with you, till I know what God will do for me." <sup>4</sup>So he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

<sup>5</sup>Now the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go to the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hereth.

Saul Murders the Priests

<sup>6</sup>When Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered—now Saul was staying in Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants standing about him— <sup>7</sup>then Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds? <sup>8</sup>All of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who reveals to me that my son has made a covenant with the son of Jesse; and there is not one of you who is sorry for me or reveals to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day."

<sup>9</sup>Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse going to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. <sup>10</sup>And he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>11</sup>So the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob. And they all came to the king. <sup>12</sup>And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub!"

He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

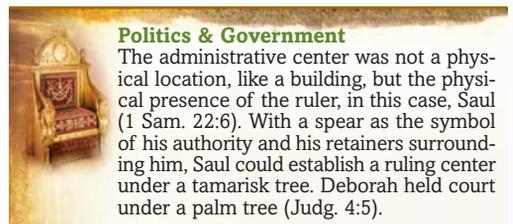

<sup>13</sup>Then Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day?"

<sup>14</sup>So Ahimelech answered the king and said, "And who among all your servants is as faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, who goes at your bidding, and is honorable in your house? <sup>15</sup>Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let not the king impute anything to his servant, or to any in the house of my father. For your servant knew nothing of all this, little or much."

<sup>16</sup>And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house!"

<sup>17</sup>Then the king said to the guards who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled and did not tell it to me." But the servants of the king would not lift their hands to strike the priests of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And the king said to Doeg, "You turn and kill the priests!" So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck the priests, and killed on that day eighty-five men who wore a linen ephod. <sup>19</sup>Also Nob, the city of the priests, he struck with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing infants, oxen and donkeys and sheep—with the edge of the sword.

<sup>20</sup>Now one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David. <sup>21</sup>And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the LORD's priests. <sup>22</sup>So David said to Abiathar, "I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father's house. <sup>23</sup>Stay with me; do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life, but with me you shall be safe."

Politics & Government

The administrative center was not a physical location, like a building, but the physical presence of the ruler, in this case, Saul (1 Sam. 22:6). With a spear as the symbol of his authority and his retainers surrounding him, Saul could establish a ruling center under a tamarisk tree. Deborah held court under a palm tree (Judg. 4:5).

TRANSITION

Doeg, the Evildoer

An important player in the massacre of the priests was Saul's servant Doeg. He was the one who informed Saul about the priest Ahimelech's dealings with David (1 Sam. 22:9, 10). When Saul's own guards refused to strike the Lord's priests, the Edomite Doeg did not hesitate to carry out the evil deed, killing 85 priests, as well as people in the city of Nob (22:18, 19).

It is not surprising that Israel would reflect upon this tragedy in a psalm. The superscription of Ps. 52 associates this psalm's thoughts on evil and wickedness with the evildoer Doeg.

TRANSITION

Seeking God's Guidance

In the ancient Near East, there were many ways of asking advice from the gods. Before battles, kings would consult with soothsayers and diviners to ensure divine favor. Mosaic law prohibited such divination (see Lev. 19:26), but even in Israel there were means of seeking a word from God. One of these evidently was the ephod that Abiathar the priest had brought to David's camp (1 Sam. 23:9–12).

In Exodus, the ephod refers to the linen apron worn by the high priest (Ex. 39:2–7). With Abiathar's ephod David would ask a yes-no question, and by some means that is not clear the ephod would reveal God's answer. The means is not important, in the end. The essential point is that David inquired of God, and God answered. Saul, by contrast, sought information from spies. When Saul did at last inquire of God, God would no longer answer (1 Sam. 28:6).

1 Samuel

David Saves the City of Keilah

23:1 Then they told David, saying, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are robbing the threshing floors."

<sup>2</sup>Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?"

And the LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines, and save Keilah."

<sup>3</sup>But David's men said to him, "Look, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"
<sup>4</sup>Then David inquired of the LORD once again.

And the LORD answered him and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah. For I will deliver the Philistines into your hand."
<sup>5</sup>And David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines, struck them with a mighty blow, and took away their livestock. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

<sup>6</sup>Now it happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, that he went down with an ephod in his hand.

<sup>7</sup>And Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah. So Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars."
<sup>8</sup>Then Saul called all the people together for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

<sup>9</sup>When David knew that Saul plotted evil against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here."
<sup>10</sup>Then David said, "O LORD God of Israel, Your servant has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake.
<sup>11</sup>Will the men of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant."

And the LORD said, "He will come down."

<sup>12</sup>Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?"

And the LORD said, "They will deliver you."

<sup>13</sup>So David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah and went wherever they could go. Then it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah; so he halted the expedition.

David in Wilderness Strongholds

<sup>14</sup>And David stayed in strongholds in the wilderness, and remained in the mountains in the Wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand. <sup>15</sup>So David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the Wilderness of Ziph in a forest.<sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup>Then Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David in the woods and strengthened his hand in God. <sup>17</sup>And he said to him, "Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. You shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. Even my father Saul knows that." <sup>18</sup>So the two of them made a covenant before the LORD. And David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his own house.

<sup>19</sup>Then the Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding with us in strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?" <sup>20</sup>Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand."

<sup>21</sup>And Saul said, "Blessed are you of the LORD, for you have compassion on me. <sup>22</sup>Please go and find out for sure, and see the place where his hideout is, and who has seen him there. For I am told he is very crafty. <sup>23</sup>See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides; and come back to me with certainty, and I will go with you. And it shall be, if he is in the land, that I will search for him throughout all the clans<sup>a</sup> of Judah."

<sup>24</sup>So they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the Wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon. <sup>25</sup>When Saul and his men went to seek him, they told David. Therefore he went down to the rock, and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued David in the Wilderness of Maon. <sup>26</sup>Then Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. So David made haste to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men were encircling David and his men to take them.

TRANSITION

David in the Wilderness

The "wilderness of Judah," mentioned in the superscription of Ps. 63, is the arid, rocky region along the western shore of the Dead Sea, southeast of Jerusalem. On the western edge of this wilderness area are the towns Ziph, Maon, and Carmel (not to be confused with Mount Carmel on the Mediterranean Sea). The town of En Gedi, sitting on the shore of the Dead Sea, is an oasis of the area.

Most of these places are mentioned in the account of David's flight from Saul (1 Sam. 23:13–29). The rugged terrain of the wilderness made it difficult for Saul to track David. Such terrain is reflected in the language of the psalmist who seeks God "in a dry and thirsty land" (Ps. 63:1).

PSALM 63

Joy in the Fellowship of God

A Psalm of David when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O God, You are my God;
Early will I seek You;
My soul thirsts for You;
My flesh longs for You
In a dry and thirsty land
Where there is no water.

<sup>2</sup> So I have looked for You in the sanctuary,
To see Your power and Your glory.

<sup>3</sup> Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise You.

<sup>4</sup> Thus I will bless You while I live;
I will lift up my hands in Your name.

<sup>5</sup> My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness,
And my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips.

<sup>6</sup> When I remember You on my bed,
I meditate on You in the night watches.

<sup>7</sup> Because You have been my help,
Therefore in the shadow of Your wings
I will rejoice.

- 8 My soul follows close behind You;
Your right hand upholds me.
- 9 But those who seek my life, to destroy it,
Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
- 10 They shall fall by the sword;
They shall be a portion for jackals.
- 11 But the king shall rejoice in God;
Everyone who swears by Him shall glory;
But the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

Hiding in the Caves

David is not the only illustrious refugee who has found haven among the caves and crags of the Judean wilderness. In later years such people as Herod the Great and the Jewish zealots who rebelled against the Roman Empire would hide there also. The many caves were particularly useful hiding places—the Dead Sea Scrolls lay undiscovered in some of these caves for hundreds of years.

David clearly made the most of the cave environment while avoiding Saul's pursuit. The supercriptions of two psalms—Ps. 57 and Ps. 142—associate these psalms' laments with the stressful circumstances surrounding David's days of hiding.

1 Samuel 24:1–22

David Spares Saul

24 :1 Now it happened, when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, “Take note! David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi.” <sup>2</sup>Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the Rocks of the Wild Goats. <sup>3</sup>So he came to the sheepfolds by the road, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to attend to his needs. (David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave.) <sup>4</sup>Then the men of David said to him, “This is the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it seems good to you.’” And David arose and secretly cut off a corner of Saul’s robe. <sup>5</sup>Now it happened afterward that David’s heart troubled him because he had cut Saul’s robe. <sup>6</sup>And he said to his men, “The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my master, the LORD’s anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.” <sup>7</sup>So David restrained his servants with these words, and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul got up from the cave and went on his way.

<sup>8</sup>David also arose afterward, went out of the cave, and called out to Saul, saying, “My lord the king!” And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed down. <sup>9</sup>And David said to Saul: “Why do you listen to the words of men who say, ‘Indeed David seeks your harm?’ <sup>10</sup>Look, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD delivered you today into my hand in the cave, and someone urged me to kill you. But my eye spared you, and I said, ‘I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD’s anointed.’ <sup>11</sup>Moreover, my father, see! Yes, see the corner of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the corner of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you hunt my life to take it. <sup>12</sup>Let the LORD judge between you and me, and let the LORD avenge me on you. But my hand shall not be against you. <sup>13</sup>As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Wickedness proceeds from the wicked.’ But my hand shall not be against you. <sup>14</sup>After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A flea? <sup>15</sup>Therefore let the LORD be judge, and judge between you and me, and see and plead my case, and deliver me out of your hand.”

<sup>16</sup>So it was, when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. <sup>17</sup>Then he said to David: “You are more righteous than I; for you have rewarded me with good, whereas I have rewarded you with evil. <sup>18</sup>And you have shown this day how you have dealt well with me; for when the LORD delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me. <sup>19</sup>For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him get away safely? Therefore may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day. <sup>20</sup>And now I know indeed that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. <sup>21</sup>Therefore swear now to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name from my father's house."

<sup>22</sup>So David swore to Saul. And Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

PSALM 57

Prayer for Safety from Enemies

*To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."<sup>a</sup>
A Michtam of David when he fled from Saul into the cave.*

Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me!
For my soul trusts in You;
And in the shadow of Your wings I will make my refuge,
Until these calamities have passed by.

2 I will cry out to God Most High,
To God who performs all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven and save me;
He reproaches the one who would swallow me up. Selah God shall send forth His mercy and His truth.

4 My soul is among lions;
I lie among the sons of men
Who are set on fire,
Whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let Your glory be above all the earth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps;
My soul is bowed down;
They have dug a pit before me;
Into the midst of it they themselves have fallen. Selah

7 My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise.

8 Awake, my glory!
Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.

9 I will praise You, O Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing to You among the nations.

10 For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens,
And Your truth unto the clouds.

11 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let Your glory be above all the earth.

PSALM 142

A Plea for Relief from Persecutors

A Contemplation<sup>a</sup> of David. A Prayer when he was in the cave.

I cry out to the LORD with my voice;
With my voice to the LORD I make my supplication.

2 I pour out my complaint before Him;
I declare before Him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
Then You knew my path.
In the way in which I walk
They have secretly set a snare for me.

4 Look on my right hand and see,
For there is no one who acknowledges me;
Refuge has failed me;
No one cares for my soul.

5 I cried out to You, O LORD:
I said, "You are my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.

6 Attend to my cry,
For I am brought very low;
Deliver me from my persecutors,
For they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison,
That I may praise Your name;
The righteous shall surround me,
For You shall deal bountifully with me."

What's in a Name?

Names in the Old Testament are often significant clues to interpretation. Hebrew names had meaning. For instance, according to a popular interpretation given in 1 Sam. 1:20, the name "Samuel" came from the Hebrew word meaning "to ask." Hannah named her son Samuel because she had "asked for him from the LORD."

In 1 Sam. 25 the wordplay is more obvious. The name "Nabal," in popular interpretation, meant literally "fool" or "folly" (1 Sam. 25:25). Nabal lives up to his name. Having refused to give David's men provisions, he ends up providing David with his own wife.

• 1 Samuel 25:1-44

1 Samuel

Death of Samuel

25:1 Then Samuel died; and the Israelites gathered together and lamented for him, and buried him at his home in Ramah. And David arose and went down to the Wilderness of Paran.<sup>a</sup>

David and the Wife of Nabal

<sup>2</sup>Now there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel, and the man was very rich. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>3</sup>The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. And she was a woman of good understanding and beautiful appearance; but the man was harsh and evil in his doings. He was of the house of Caleb.

<sup>4</sup>When David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep, <sup>5</sup>David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. <sup>6</sup>And thus you shall say to him who lives in prosperity: 'Peace be to you, peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!' <sup>7</sup>Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds were with us, and we did not hurt them, nor was there anything missing from them all the while they were in Carmel. <sup>8</sup>Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we come on a feast day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son David.' "

<sup>9</sup>So when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, and waited.

<sup>10</sup>Then Nabal answered David's servants, and said, "Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who break away each one from his master. <sup>11</sup>Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men when I do not know where they are from?"

<sup>12</sup>So David's young men turned on their heels and went back; and they came and told him all these words. <sup>13</sup>Then David said to his men, "Every man gird on his sword." So every man girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went with David, and two hundred stayed with the supplies.

<sup>14</sup>Now one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master; and he reviled them. <sup>15</sup>But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, nor did we miss anything as long as we accompanied them, when we were in the fields. <sup>16</sup>They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the time we were with them keeping the sheep. <sup>17</sup>Now therefore, know and consider what you will do, for harm is determined against our master and against all his household. For he is such a scoundrel<sup>a</sup> that one cannot speak to him."

<sup>18</sup>Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already dressed, five seahs of roasted grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys. <sup>19</sup>And she said to her servants, "Go on before me; see, I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

<sup>20</sup>So it was, as she rode on the donkey, that she went down under cover of the hill; and there were David and his men, coming down toward her, and she met them. <sup>21</sup>Now David had said, "Surely in vain I have protected all that this  fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belongs to him. And he has repaid me evil for good. <sup>22</sup>May God do so, and more also, to the enemies of David, if I leave one male of all who belong to him by morning light."

Figs were eaten fresh (2 Kin. 18:31), pressed into cakes (1 Sam. 25:18), and used as a poultice (Is. 38:21).

FROM THE POCKET OF A SLING (1 SAM. 25:29)

The most common image of a sling is that of the slingshot, a weapon built from a Y-shaped piece of wood. That is not what David used in his confrontation with Goliath (1 Sam. 17:40), nor what Abigail means by “the pocket of a sling” (1 Sam. 25:29).

The type of sling that David used was made from either leather or goat’s hair. This sling had two long, thin straps with a pouch or pocket in the middle. The stone would be placed in the pocket after which the two straps were held in the same hand and swung around in the air to gain velocity while the slinger took aim.

At the ready, the slinger released one strap from his hand, sending the stone flying with great speed toward the target. Some slings had a small loop on one of the straps that could be placed around a finger to reduce the chance of accidental release of the entire sling. Abigail’s well-chosen words, declaring that God would “sling out” David’s enemies as from a sling’s pocket (25:29), would communicate clearly to a king who had been a slinger himself.

she fell at his feet and said: “On me, my lord, on me let this iniquity be! And please let your maidservant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant. <sup>25</sup>Please, let not my lord regard this scoundrel Nabal. For as his name is, so is he: Nabal<sup>a</sup> is his name, and folly is with him! But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent. <sup>26</sup>Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, since the LORD has held you back from coming to bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now then, let your enemies and those who seek harm for my lord be as Nabal. <sup>27</sup>And now this present which your maidservant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord. <sup>28</sup>Please forgive the trespass of your maidservant. For the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil is not found in you throughout your days. <sup>29</sup>Yet a man has risen to pursue you and seek your life, but the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; and the lives of your enemies He shall sling out, as from the pocket of a sling. <sup>30</sup>And it shall come to pass, when the LORD has done for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you ruler over Israel, <sup>31</sup>that this will be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. But when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your maidservant.”

<sup>32</sup>Then David said to Abigail: “Blessed is the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me! <sup>33</sup>And blessed is your advice and blessed are you, because you have kept me this day from coming to bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand. <sup>34</sup>For indeed, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has kept me back from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely by morning light no males would have been left to Nabal!” <sup>35</sup>So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. See, I have heeded your voice and respected your person.”

<sup>36</sup>Now Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was, holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal’s heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; therefore she told him nothing, little or much, until morning light. <sup>37</sup>So it was, in the morning, when the wine had gone from Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became like a stone. <sup>38</sup>Then it happened, after about ten days, that the LORD struck Nabal, and he died.

<sup>39</sup>So when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept His servant from evil! For the LORD has returned the wickedness of Nabal on his own head.”

And David sent and proposed to Abigail, to take her as his wife. <sup>40</sup>When the servants of David had come to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her saying, “David sent us to you, to ask you to become his wife.”

<sup>41</sup>Then she arose, bowed her face to the earth, and said, “Here is your maidservant, a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.” <sup>42</sup>So Abigail rose in haste and rode on a donkey, attended by five of her maidens; and she followed the messengers of David, and became his wife. <sup>43</sup>David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, and so both of them were his wives.

<sup>44</sup>But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David’s wife, to Palti<sup>a</sup> the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

Food & Drink

Raisins and fig cakes are made by drying fruit, with the result being a concentration of sugar. This is naturally attractive to the taste, and it acts as a preservative. The absence of processed sugars made dried fruits more desirable (1 Sam. 25:18). Honey is another source of sugar and it too is prominent in the Bible as a symbol of prosperity.

Saul's Last Days

Saul was clearly aware that David would succeed him as king. This fear he had revealed early on to his son Jonathan (1 Sam. 20:30, 31). Later, in a unique encounter with the man who would become his successor, Saul extracted a promise that his family be spared the usual fate of the families of displaced dynasties (24:20, 21). David's inevitable kingship did mean that no reconciliation would be possible between Saul and David.

The last chapters of 1 Samuel (26:1—30:31) record David's activities during Saul's last years. When it became clear that Saul's hatred would not allow David to participate in the life of his people, David contemplated going over to the Philistines, a step he finally accepted (27:1–4). David would spend much of his exile among the Philistines at the town of Ziklag.

Saul received information on David's movements from informers, more than once from the residents of Ziph in the Judean wilderness (1 Sam. 23:19; 26:1). Saul did not receive any message from God, however. Faced with this silence, he resorted to necromancy, the summoning of the spirits of the dead (28:7–20). Though common in the ancient Near East, the practice was prohibited in Israel (see Lev. 19:31; 20:27).

In his efforts to escape Saul's grasp, David often hid in the deserted region east of Ziph, known as the Wilderness of Ziph (1 Sam. 23:14; 26:2). The people of Ziph remained loyal to Saul, and their messages to Gibeah telling him of David's whereabouts are remembered in the superscription of Ps. 54.

Answered Prayer for Deliverance from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments.<sup>a</sup> A Contemplation<sup>b</sup> of David when the Ziphites went and said to Saul, "Is David not hiding with us?"

- Save me, O God, by Your name,
And vindicate me by Your strength.
- 2 Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.
- 3 For strangers have risen up against me,
And oppressors have sought after my life;
They have not set God before them. Selah
- 4 Behold, God is my helper;
The Lord is with those who uphold my life.
- 5 He will repay my enemies for their evil.

David Spares Saul a Second Time

26:1 Now the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding in the hill of Hachilah, opposite Jeshimon?"<sup>2</sup> Then Saul arose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the Wilderness of Ziph.<sup>3</sup> And Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon, by the road. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.<sup>4</sup> David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had indeed come.

<sup>5</sup>So David arose and came to the place where Saul had encamped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army. Now Saul lay within the camp, with the people encamped all around him.<sup>6</sup> Then David answered, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother of Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?"

And Abishai said, "I will go down with you."

<sup>7</sup>So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and there Saul lay sleeping within the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. And Abner and the people lay all around him.<sup>8</sup> Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore, please, let me strike him at once with the spear, right to the earth; and I will not have to strike him a second time!"

<sup>9</sup>But David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; for who can stretch out his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?"<sup>10</sup> David said furthermore, "As the LORD lives, the LORD shall strike him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall go out to battle and perish."<sup>11</sup> The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed. But please, take now the spear and the jug of water that are by his head, and let us go."<sup>12</sup> So David took the spear and the jug of water by Saul's head, and they got away; and no man saw or knew it or awoke. For they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.

<sup>13</sup>Now David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off, a great distance

ROYAL CITIES OF THE PHILISTINE LORDS (1 SAM. 27:5)

The activities of the Philistines, as they settled in Canaan by the middle of the 12th century B.C., were centered on five cities: Ashdod, Ashkelon, Ekron, Gath, and Gaza (Josh. 13:3; 1 Sam. 6:17). These cities are all located in the southern coastal plain. It is natural that this region was selected by the Philistines, since they were part of a larger group of peoples called the Sea Peoples, all of whom came from coastal areas.

The fighting between the Philistines and the Israelites was in many ways a geographical struggle. The Philistines resided in the coastal plain, while the Israelites were the people of the central hill country. The Philistine encroachment into the hill country was so forceful that Israel was provoked into a change of leadership from the religious leader Samuel to the political and military leader Saul (1 Sam. 9:16).

While only five cities are specifically designated as Philistine, each of these royal cities oversaw the activities of nearby smaller towns or villages. Ziklag, which was given to David by the Philistine king Achish, was probably a vassal town to the Philistine royal city of Gath (1 Sam. 27:5, 6). In this way the sphere of the Philistine cities was much wider than might be supposed. Five Philistine lords ruled over the many country villages affiliated with the five royal cities (1 Sam. 8:18).

Philistine pottery appears in Canaan about the middle of the 12th century B.C. While centered in the coastal area, some pottery has also been found in the Shephelah (the foothills of the hill country) and even in the hill country. This should not be surprising, since Philistine military outposts spread to the very hometowns of both Saul and David (1 Sam. 14:1; 2 Sam. 23:14). The five Philistine cities sought to add subservient cities to their realm, but Saul, David, and their kinsmen, ardent opponents, stood in the way.

being between them. <sup>14</sup>And David called out to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Do you not answer, Abner?"

Then Abner answered and said, "Who are you, calling out to the king?"

<sup>15</sup>So David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king. <sup>16</sup>This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not guarded your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the jug of water that was by his head."

<sup>17</sup>Then Saul knew David's voice, and said, "Is that your voice, my son David?"

David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."

<sup>18</sup>And he said, "Why does my lord thus pursue his servant? For what have I done, or what evil is in my hand? <sup>19</sup>Now therefore, please, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out this day from sharing in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.' <sup>20</sup>So now, do not let my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD. For the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

<sup>21</sup>Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David. For I will harm you no more, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Indeed I have played the fool and erred exceedingly."

<sup>22</sup>And David answered and said, "Here is the king's spear. Let one of the young men come over and get it. <sup>23</sup>May the LORD repay every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed. <sup>24</sup>And indeed, as your life was valued much this day in my eyes, so let my life be valued much in the eyes of the LORD, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation."

<sup>25</sup>Then Saul said to David, "May you be blessed, my son David! You shall both do great things and also still prevail."

So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

David Allied with the Philistines

27 <sup>1</sup>And David said in his heart, "Now I shall perish someday by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape to the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me anymore in any part of Israel. So I shall escape out of his hand."

<sup>2</sup>Then David arose and went over with the six hundred men who were with him to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath. <sup>3</sup>So David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's widow. <sup>4</sup>And it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath; so he sought him no more.

<sup>5</sup>Then David said to Achish, "If I have now found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?" <sup>6</sup>So Achish gave him Ziklag that day. Therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day. <sup>7</sup>Now the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was one full year and four months.

A GUIDE FOR DIVINE WISDOM (1 SAM. 28:6)

In a revelation to Moses at Mount Sinai, God not only established Israel's priesthood, but also provided a means for direct communication between the priesthood and Himself. The vehicle for this communication was located on the "breastplate of judgment" (Ex. 28:29, 30), a decorative, square, linen piece that hung across the high priest's chest. It was attached to the priest's gown by two gold chains that were connected at the shoulders. On this breastplate were twelve stones inscribed with the names of the twelve Israelite tribes (Ex. 28:17–21). The most remarkable feature of the breastplate, however, was the two additional stones called the Urim and Thummim.

The Urim and Thummim were used to ask God specific questions. A leader with a question would go to the high priest, who would "inquire before the LORD" (Num. 27:21) for the questioner. Questions were formed so that a yes or no answer could be given (1 Sam. 23:9–12). Presumably, the appropriate stone glowed. In the stories of David, the Urim and Thummim stones are often indicated by the calling for "the ephod," the high priest's garment to which they were attached (1 Sam. 30:7, 8).

Saul's diminished relationship with his God is starkly underlined by his failure to receive a divine answer "either by dreams or by Urim or by the prophets" (1 Sam. 28:6, 15). The picture is of a desperate Saul being ignored by his deity. Eventually, Saul turned to witchcraft for guidance (1 Sam. 28:7).

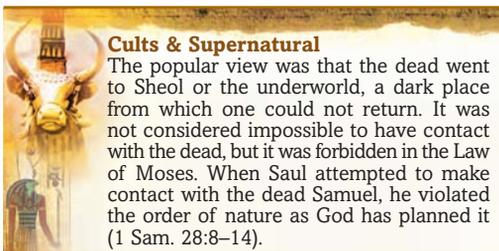

Obtaining answers from God via the Urim and Thummim seems to have ceased or at least become out of vogue after the time of David. From Solomon's reign until the Jews' return from Babylon, the Urim and Thummim are mentioned only by the governor of Judah (Ezra 2:63; Neh. 7:65). Whether they actually were used even at that time is questionable. The governor may have referred to the Urim and Thummim as a way of stalling would-be priests who lacked evidence of the proper priestly genealogy (Ezra 2:62).

For those nations were the inhabitants of the land from of old, as you go to Shur, even as far as the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>Whenever David attacked the land, he left neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the apparel, and returned and came to Achish. <sup>10</sup>Then Achish would say, "Where have you made a raid today?" And David would say, "Against the southern area of Judah, or against the southern area of the Jerahmeelites, or against the southern area of the Kenites." <sup>11</sup>David would save neither man nor woman alive, to bring news to Gath, saying, "Lest they should inform on us, saying, 'Thus David did.'" And thus was his behavior all the time he dwelt in the country of the Philistines. <sup>12</sup>So Achish believed David, saying, "He has made his people Israel utterly abhor him; therefore he will be my servant forever."

28 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened in those days that the Philistines gathered their armies together for war, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, "You assuredly know that you will go out with me to battle, you and your men."

<sup>2</sup>So David said to Achish, "Surely you know what your servant can do."

And Achish said to David, "Therefore I will make you one of my chief guardians forever."

Cults & Supernatural

The popular view was that the dead went to Sheol or the underworld, a dark place from which one could not return. It was not considered impossible to have contact with the dead, but it was forbidden in the Law of Moses. When Saul attempted to make contact with the dead Samuel, he violated the order of nature as God has planned it (1 Sam. 28:8–14).

Saul Consults a Medium

<sup>3</sup>Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had lamented for him and buried him in Ramah, in his own city. And Saul had put the mediums and the spiritists out of the land.

<sup>4</sup>Then the Philistines gathered together, and came and encamped at Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped at Gilboa. <sup>5</sup>When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. <sup>6</sup>And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim or by the prophets.

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul said to his servants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her."

And his servants said to him, "In fact, there is a woman who is a medium at En Dor."

<sup>8</sup>So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes, and he went, and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Please conduct a séance for me, and bring up for me the one I shall name to you."

<sup>9</sup>Then the woman said to him, "Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?"

<sup>10</sup>And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."

<sup>11</sup>Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?"

And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

<sup>12</sup>When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!"

<sup>13</sup>And the king said to her, “Do not be afraid. What did you see?”

And the woman said to Saul, “I saw a spirit<sup>a</sup> ascending out of the earth.”

<sup>14</sup>So he said to her, “What is his form?”

And she said, “An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a mantle.” And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed down.

<sup>15</sup>Now Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?”

And Saul answered, “I am deeply distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me and does not answer me anymore, neither by prophets nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may reveal to me what I should do.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Samuel said: “So why do you ask me, seeing the LORD has departed from you and has become your enemy? <sup>17</sup>And the LORD has done for Himself<sup>a</sup> as He spoke by me. For the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, David. <sup>18</sup>Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD nor execute His fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day. <sup>19</sup>Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.”

<sup>20</sup>Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, and was dreadfully afraid because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all day or all night.

<sup>21</sup>And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was severely troubled, and said to him, “Look, your maidservant has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hands and heeded the words which you spoke to me. <sup>22</sup>Now therefore, please, heed also the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a piece of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way.”

<sup>23</sup>But he refused and said, “I will not eat.”

So his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he heeded their voice. Then he arose from the ground and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup>Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she hastened to kill it. And she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it. <sup>25</sup>So she brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

The Philistines Reject David

29 <sup>1</sup>Then the Philistines gathered together all their armies at Aphek, and the Israelites encamped by a fountain which is in Jezreel. <sup>2</sup>And the lords of the Philistines passed in review by hundreds and by thousands, but David and his men passed in review at the rear with Achish. <sup>3</sup>Then the princes of the Philistines said, “What are these Hebrews doing here?”

And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, “Is this not David, the servant of Saul king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years? And to this day I have found no fault in him since he defected to me.”

<sup>4</sup>But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; so the princes of the Philistines said to him, “Make this fellow return, that he may go back to the place which you have appointed for him, and do not let him go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become our adversary. For with what could he reconcile himself to his master, if not with the heads of these men? <sup>5</sup>Is this not David, of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying:

‘Saul has slain his thousands,

<sup>6</sup>Then Achish called David and said to him, “Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. For to this day I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me. Nevertheless the lords do not favor you. <sup>7</sup>Therefore return now, and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines.”

<sup>8</sup>So David said to Achish, “But what have I done? And to this day what have you found in your servant as long as I have been with you, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?”

<sup>9</sup>Then Achish answered and said to David, “I know that you are as good in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless the princes of the Philistines have said, ‘He shall not go up with us to the battle.’ <sup>10</sup>Now therefore, rise early in the morning with your master’s servants who have come with you.<sup>a</sup> And as soon as you are up early in the morning and have light, depart.”

<sup>11</sup>So David and his men rose early to depart in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David’s Conflict with the Amalekites

BEDUINS AND THEIR CAMELS (1 SAM. 30:1–18)

The bedouins were pastoral nomads in western Asia in the 1st millennium B.C., who specialized in camel breeding. The camel was first domesticated in east and south Arabia in the 3rd millennium B.C. By the end of the Late Bronze Age (c. 1200 B.C.), the animal was used for transport and food in Syro-Palestine.

The first literary evidence of bedouin tribes comes from Assyrian royal inscriptions and reliefs (9th to 7th centuries B.C.). These tribes are described as large and combative, but subject to the Assyrian state. A thousand Arab bedouins were conscripted to fight along with Assyria at the battle of Qarqar against the Syro-Palestinian coalition (853 B.C.). The Assyrian king Tiglath-Pileser III (744–727 B.C.) was given 10,000 camels as tribute from the bedouins.

The first bedouin political state emerged in the 7th century B.C. According to Assyrian annals, it was a tribal confederacy centered in northern Arabia, led by the tribe of Qedar. These camel-breeding tribes are associated with the Ishmaelites, who were descended from Ishmael, the first son of Abraham (Gen. 16:15).

The camel allowed the pastoral nomads to travel greater distances, giving them the ability to penetrate the desert, away from politically organized communities. The Amalekites, whose attributes are similar in nature to the bedouin, seem to have traversed a large geographical region from the western Sinai to Arabia (1 Sam. 15:7). Their seasonal migrations as camel herders brought them into contact with other peoples, contact that sometimes became raiding opportunities. Some of the Amalekites who raided David's Ziklag were able to escape by fleeing on their camels (1 Sam. 30:1, 16, 17).

had taken captive the women and those who were there, from small to great; they did not kill anyone, but carried them away and went their way. <sup>3</sup>So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive. <sup>4</sup>Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep. <sup>5</sup>And David's two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had been taken captive. <sup>6</sup>Now David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup>Then David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, "Please bring the ephod here to me." And Abiathar brought the ephod to David. <sup>8</sup>So David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them?"

And He answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all."

<sup>9</sup>So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the Brook Besor, where those stayed who were left behind. <sup>10</sup>But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so weary that they could not cross the Brook Besor.

<sup>11</sup>Then they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread and he ate, and they let him drink water.

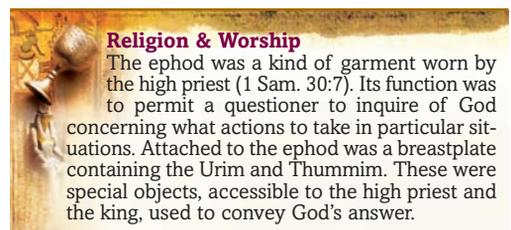

<sup>12</sup>And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. So when he had eaten, his strength came back to him; for he had eaten no bread nor drunk water for three days and three nights. <sup>13</sup>Then David said to him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?"

And he said, "I am a young man from Egypt, servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me behind, because three days ago I fell sick. <sup>14</sup>We made an invasion of the southern area of the Cherethites, in the territory which belongs to Judah, and of the southern area of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

<sup>15</sup>And David said to him, "Can you take me down to this troop?"

So he said, "Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will take you down to this troop."

<sup>16</sup>And when he had brought him down, there they were, spread out over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil which they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. <sup>17</sup>Then David attacked them from twilight until

Religion & Worship

The ephod was a kind of garment worn by the high priest (1 Sam. 30:7). Its function was to permit a questioner to inquire of God concerning what actions to take in particular situations. Attached to the ephod was a breastplate containing the Urim and Thummim. These were special objects, accessible to the high priest and the king, used to convey God's answer.

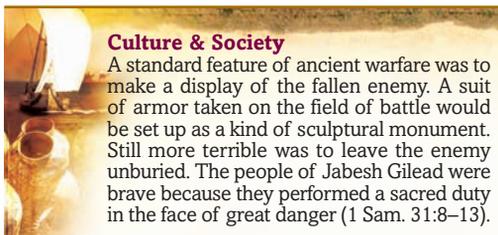

the evening of the next day. Not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.<sup>18</sup> So David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away, and David rescued his two wives.<sup>19</sup> And nothing of theirs was lacking, either small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything which they had taken from them; David recovered all.<sup>20</sup> Then David took all the flocks and herds they had driven before those other livestock, and said, “This is David’s spoil.”

<sup>21</sup> Now David came to the two hundred men who had been so weary that they could not follow David, whom they also had made to stay at the Brook Besor. So they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. And when David came near the people, he greeted them.<sup>22</sup> Then all the wicked and worthless men<sup>a</sup> of those who went with David answered and said, “Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except for every man’s wife and children, that they may lead them away and depart.”

<sup>23</sup> But David said, “My brethren, you shall not do so with what the LORD has given us, who has preserved us and delivered into our hand the troop that came against us.<sup>24</sup> For who will heed you in this matter? But as his part is who goes down to the battle, so shall his part be who stays by the supplies; they shall share alike.”<sup>25</sup> So it was, from that day forward; he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

<sup>26</sup> Now when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, “Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD”—<sup>27</sup> to those who were in Bethel, those who were in Ramoth of the South, those who were in Jattir,<sup>28</sup> those who were in Aroer, those who were in Siphmoth, those who were in Eshtemoa,<sup>29</sup> those who were in Rachal, those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, those who were in the cities of the Kenites,<sup>30</sup> those who were in Hormah, those who were in Chorashan,<sup>a</sup> those who were in Athach,<sup>31</sup> those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were accustomed to rove.

Culture & Society

A standard feature of ancient warfare was to make a display of the fallen enemy. A suit of armor taken on the field of battle would be set up as a kind of sculptural monument. Still more terrible was to leave the enemy unburied. The people of Jabesh Gilead were brave because they performed a sacred duty in the face of great danger (1 Sam. 31:8–13).

Israel's First King Is Dead

The final chapter of 1 Samuel depicts the sad end to a life of progressive alienation from God. Saul's rebellion was his own, but his defeat included other people as well. A last grim service (31:11–13) for the fallen king and his sons was performed in memory of Saul's deliverance of Jabesh Gilead many years before (see 1 Sam. 11). Israel's first king was dead, clearing the way for David's accession in about 1010 B.C.

The story of Saul's death continues from 1 Samuel to 2 Samuel without interruption. Modern sensitivities are repulsed at David's actions in 2 Sam. 1:1–16. Nonetheless, there is every reason to believe he was acting in integrity. Believing the Amalekite's report that he had killed Saul, David, far from rewarding the man, executed him for his wanton act (1:14–16). David himself had twice refused to kill Saul. He refused to allow his men to kill the king. Even if it would give him the throne, David would not approve the murder of his predecessor.

The Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

31 :1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.<sup>2</sup> Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.<sup>3</sup> The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was severely wounded by the archers.

<sup>4</sup> Then Saul said to his armorbearer, “Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and thrust me through and abuse me.”

But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.<sup>5</sup> And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword, and died with him.<sup>6</sup> So Saul, his three sons, his armorbearer, and all his men died together that same day.

<sup>7</sup> And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were on the other side of the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.<sup>8</sup> So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.<sup>9</sup> And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines, to proclaim it in the temple of their idols and among the people. <sup>10</sup>Then they put his armor in the temple of the Ashtoreths, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Now when the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all the valiant men arose and traveled all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh and burned them there. <sup>13</sup>Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

2 Samuel 1:1–27

The Report of Saul's Death

1 :1 Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag, <sup>2</sup>on the third day, behold, it happened that a man came from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dust on his head. So it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

<sup>3</sup>And David said to him, "Where have you come from?"

So he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

<sup>4</sup>Then David said to him, "How did the matter go? Please tell me."

And he answered, "The people have fled from the battle, many of the people are fallen and dead, and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also."

<sup>5</sup>So David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?"

<sup>6</sup>Then the young man who told him said, "As I happened by chance to be on Mount Gilboa, there was Saul, leaning on his spear; and indeed the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him. <sup>7</sup>Now when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.' <sup>8</sup>And he said to me, 'Who are you?' So I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.' <sup>9</sup>He said to me again, 'Please stand over me and kill me, for anguish has come upon me, but my life still remains in me.' <sup>10</sup>So I stood over him and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord."

<sup>11</sup>Therefore David took hold of his own clothes and tore them, and so did all the men who were with him. <sup>12</sup>And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son, for the people of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

<sup>13</sup>Then David said to the young man who told him, "Where are you from?"

And he answered, "I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite."

<sup>14</sup>So David said to him, "How was it you were not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?" <sup>15</sup>Then David called one of the young men and said, "Go near, and execute him!" And he struck him so that he died. <sup>16</sup>So David said to him, "Your blood is on your own head, for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have killed the LORD's anointed.'"

The Song of the Bow

<sup>17</sup>Then David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son, <sup>18</sup>and he told them to teach the children of Judah the Song of the Bow; indeed it is written in the Book of Jasher:

- 19 "The beauty of Israel is slain on your high places!
How the mighty have fallen!
Tell it not in Gath,
Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon—
Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.
- 21 "O mountains of Gilboa,
Let there be no dew nor rain upon you,
Nor fields of offerings.
For the shield of the mighty is cast away there!
The shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.
- 22 From the blood of the slain,
From the fat of the mighty,
The bow of Jonathan did not turn back,
And the sword of Saul did not return empty.
- 23 "Saul and Jonathan were beloved and pleasant in their lives,
And in their death they were not divided;
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.
- 24 "O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet, with luxury;
Who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.
- 25 "How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan was slain in your high places.
I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan;
You have been very pleasant to me;
Your love to me was wonderful,
Surpassing the love of women.
- 27 "How the mighty have fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!"

Deliverance from Saul

The superscription to Ps. 18 is not very specific. It associates the psalm with a time when David celebrated deliverance, especially deliverance from Saul. Since no reconciliation with Saul took place before he died, it makes some sense to read this psalm in the context of Saul's death.

This psalm also appears, with only minor changes, in 2 Sam. 22. There, although 2 Sam. 22:1 still notes David's deliverance from Saul, the song refers to a wider range of enemies.

• Psalm 18

PSALM 18*God the Sovereign Savior

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said:

I will love You, O LORD, my strength.
<sup>2</sup> The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;
 My God, my strength, in whom I will trust;
 My shield and the horn of my salvation,
 my stronghold.
<sup>3</sup> I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
 So shall I be saved from my enemies.
<sup>4</sup> The pangs of death surrounded me,
 And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
<sup>5</sup> The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me;
 The snares of death confronted me.
<sup>6</sup> In my distress I called upon the LORD,
 And cried out to my God;
 He heard my voice from His temple,
 And my cry came before Him, even to His ears.
<sup>7</sup> Then the earth shook and trembled;
 The foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken,
 Because He was angry.
<sup>8</sup> Smoke went up from His nostrils,
 And devouring fire from His mouth;
 Coals were kindled by it.
<sup>9</sup> He bowed the heavens also, and came down
 With darkness under His feet.
<sup>10</sup> And He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
 He flew upon the wings of the wind.

<sup>11</sup> He made darkness His secret place;
 His canopy around Him was dark waters
 And thick clouds of the skies.
<sup>12</sup> From the brightness before Him,
 His thick clouds passed with hailstones and coals of fire.
<sup>13</sup> The LORD thundered from heaven,
 And the Most High uttered His voice,
 Hailstones and coals of fire.<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup> He sent out His arrows and scattered the foe,
 Lightnings in abundance, and He vanquished them.
<sup>15</sup> Then the channels of the sea were seen,
 The foundations of the world were uncovered
 At Your rebuke, O LORD,
 At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.
<sup>16</sup> He sent from above, He took me;
 He drew me out of many waters.
<sup>17</sup> He delivered me from my strong enemy,
 From those who hated me,
 For they were too strong for me.
<sup>18</sup> They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
 But the LORD was my support.
<sup>19</sup> He also brought me out into a broad place;
 He delivered me because He delighted in me.
<sup>20</sup> The LORD rewarded me according to my
 righteousness;
 According to the cleanness of my hands
 He has recompensed me.
<sup>21</sup> For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
 And have not wickedly departed from my God.
<sup>22</sup> For all His judgments were before me,
 And I did not put away His statutes from me.
<sup>23</sup> I was also blameless before Him,
 And I kept myself from my iniquity.
<sup>24</sup> Therefore the LORD has recompensed me
 according to my righteousness,
 According to the cleanness of my hands
 in His sight.

Beliefs & Ideas

God's appearance at Mount Sinai when Moses received the law was marked by thunder, lightning, earthquake, and smoke. The phenomena of earthquake, volcano, and thunderstorm came together (Ex. 19:16–19). The Canaanites regarded their god Baal as the ruler of storms, and in Greek literature Zeus is called the "cloud gatherer." The display of natural power was considered a sign of divine power (Ps. 18:7).

18:13 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; a few Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint omit Hailstones and coals of fire.

25 With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful;
With a blameless man You will show
Yourself blameless;

26 With the pure You will show Yourself
pure;
And with the devious You will show
Yourself shrewd.

27 For You will save the humble people,
But will bring down haughty looks.

28 For You will light my lamp;
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by You I can run against a troop,
By my God I can leap over a wall.

30 As for God, His way is perfect;
The word of the LORD is proven;
He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

31 For who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?

32 It is God who arms me with strength,
And makes my way perfect.

33 He makes my feet like the feet of deer,
And sets me on my high places.

34 He teaches my hands to make war,
So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

35 You have also given me the shield of
Your salvation;
Your right hand has held me up,
Your gentleness has made me great.

36 You enlarged my path under me,
So my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued my enemies and overtaken
them;
Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.

38 I have wounded them,
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen under my feet.

39 For You have armed me with strength for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

40 You have also given me the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.
They cried out, but there was none to save;
Even to the LORD, but He did not answer
them.

42 Then I beat them as fine as the dust before the wind;
I cast them out like dirt in the streets.

43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people;
You have made me the head of the nations;
A people I have not known shall serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me they obey me;
The foreigners submit to me.

45 The foreigners fade away,
And come frightened from their hideouts.

46 The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God who avenges me,
And subdues the peoples under me;

48 He delivers me from my enemies.
You also lift me up above those who rise against me;

You have delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the Gentiles,
And sing praises to Your name.

50 Great deliverance He gives to His king,
And shows mercy to His anointed,
To David and his descendants forevermore.

Who Will Succeed Saul as King?

Most ancient Near Eastern kingdoms had established dynasties in which successive rulers came from the same family. The practice of dynastic succession meant that when a king died, his eldest son normally reigned in his place. The exceptions were those rather frequent cases when a powerful general seized control for himself.

But dynastic succession was foreign to Israel. During the earlier tribal confederacy, the judges had been inspired specifically for times of crisis, and their inspiration was not transferred to their sons. When Gideon was asked to reign, he refused, saying, "I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you" (Judg. 8:23).

When Israel's first king died, the question of succession became crucial. Some favored a dynastic succession, placing Saul's son Ishbosheth on the throne (2 Sam. 2:8–10). Others, perhaps remembering the pattern of the judges, preferred to crown the man who had shown himself most able, David (2 Sam. 2:10, 11).

In addition, both Ishbosheth and David had ambitious generals. Abner, who was commander of Saul's army, as well as a cousin of Saul, naturally supported Ishbosheth to succeed his father as king. In the same way, Joab, commander of David's army and the son of David's sister Zeruijah, was a powerful element in David's campaign for the throne. In the ensuing years of civil war, the plots and maneuverings of these generals became extremely significant.

Equally significant are the brief lists in 2 Sam. 3:2–5 and 5:13–16 of the sons born to David. The question of royal succession would apply to the next generation as well. David's first and third sons, Amnon and Absalom (3:2, 3), would prove themselves unworthy of the throne and be eliminated (2 Sam. 13–18). Two other sons, Adonijah (3:4) and Solomon (5:14), would later challenge each other for their father's throne (1 Kin. 1; 2).

2 Samuel

David Anointed King of Judah

2:1 It happened after this that David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up to any of the cities of Judah?"

And the LORD said to him, "Go up."

David said, "Where shall I go up?"

And He said, "To Hebron."

<sup>2</sup>So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. <sup>3</sup>And David brought up the men who were with him, every man with his household. So they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

<sup>4</sup>Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul."

<sup>5</sup>So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, "You are blessed of the LORD, for you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him. <sup>6</sup>And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, let your hands be strengthened, and be valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

Ishbosheth Made King of Israel

<sup>8</sup>But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, took Ishbosheth<sup>a</sup> the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim; <sup>9</sup>and he made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israel. <sup>10</sup>Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Judah followed David. <sup>11</sup>And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

Israel and Judah at War

<sup>12</sup>Now Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>And Joab the son of Zeruijah, and the servants of David, went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. So they sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool. <sup>14</sup>Then Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men now arise and compete before us."

And Joab said, "Let them arise."

<sup>15</sup>So they arose and went over by number, twelve from Benjamin, followers of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David. <sup>16</sup>And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that

In the hand-to-hand combat of the nomad, the final stage was to seize the opponent and deliver the fatal blow (2 Sam. 2:16). The fighting match between Saul's and David's warriors illustrates a particular technique of fighting. The contest displays a social idea of combat in which the number of contestants is fixed and the fighting is by arrangement (2:14, 15).

THE SORT-OF WIFE (2 SAM. 3:7)

The word “concubine” is difficult to define for people of western culture since there is no analogous relationship in Western European society. In the ancient Near East a concubine was a woman who had legal status within a family and who shared the sexual attentions of the husband, while having somewhat lesser authority than a wife. The presence of concubines in a household was openly acknowledged without any pejorative implication (2 Sam. 19:5). In other words, they were accepted like other family members. The sons of a concubine were treated as heirs, though with, perhaps, somewhat lesser status (Gen. 25:6).

For one to take another man’s concubine was seen as usurping the husband’s authority. This was especially true of a king’s concubines. To gain possession of a king’s harem was to gain title to the king’s throne. After David became king, he took possession of Saul’s concubines (2 Sam. 12:8). When Absalom usurped his father David’s rule of Jerusalem, one of his first acts to publicly claim royal authority was to establish sexual relations with David’s concubines (2 Sam. 16:21, 22).

After Saul died, his son Ishbosheth struggled to secure his position as Saul’s successor. There were battles between Ishbosheth’s Israel and David’s Judah (2 Sam. 3:6). In light of Ishbosheth’s shaky kingship, it is quite natural that he would be alarmed at the possibility of anyone, especially the army commander Abner, having relations with Saul’s concubine, Rizpah (3:7).

place was called the Field of Sharp Swords,<sup>a</sup> which is in Gibeon. <sup>17</sup>So there was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

<sup>18</sup>Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel was as fleet of foot as a wild gazelle. <sup>19</sup>So Asahel pursued Abner, and in going he did not turn to the right hand or to the left from following Abner.

<sup>20</sup>Then Abner looked behind him and said, “Are you Asahel?”

He answered, “I am.”

<sup>21</sup>And Abner said to him, “Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men and take his armor for yourself.” But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. <sup>22</sup>So Abner said again to Asahel, “Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I face your brother Joab?” <sup>23</sup>However, he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner struck him in the stomach with the blunt end of the spear, so that the spear came out of his back; and he fell down there and died on the spot. So it was that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

<sup>24</sup>Joab and Abishai also pursued Abner. And the sun was going down when they came to the hill of Ammah, which is before Giah by the road to the Wilderness of Gibeon. <sup>25</sup>Now the children of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became a unit, and took their stand on top of a hill. <sup>26</sup>Then Abner called to Joab and said, “Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the latter end? How long will it be then until you tell the people to return from pursuing their brethren?”

<sup>27</sup>And Joab said, “As God lives, unless you had spoken, surely then by morning all the people would have given up pursuing their brethren.”

<sup>28</sup>So Joab blew a trumpet; and all the people stood still and did not pursue Israel anymore, nor did they fight anymore. <sup>29</sup>Then Abner and his men went on all that night through the plain, crossed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron; and they came to Mahanaim.

<sup>30</sup>So Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David’s servants nineteen men and Asahel. <sup>31</sup>But the servants of David had struck down, of Benjamin and Abner’s men, three hundred and sixty men who died. <sup>32</sup>Then they took up Asahel and buried him in his father’s tomb, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at daybreak.

3 <sup>1</sup>Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David grew stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

Sons of David

<sup>2</sup>Sons were born to David in Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; <sup>3</sup>his second, Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur; <sup>4</sup>the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; <sup>5</sup>and the sixth, Ithream, by David’s wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Joins Forces with David

<sup>6</sup>Now it was so, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was strengthening his hold on the house of Saul.

<sup>7</sup>And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. So Ishbosheth said to Abner, “Why have you gone in to my father’s concubine?”

<sup>8</sup>Then Abner became very angry at the words of Ishbosheth, and said, “Am I a dog’s head that belongs to Judah? Today I show loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman?” <sup>9</sup>May God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not do for David as the LORD has sworn to him— <sup>10</sup>to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beersheba.” <sup>11</sup>And he could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

<sup>12</sup>Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to David, saying, “Whose is the land?” saying also, “Make your covenant with me, and indeed my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel to you.”

<sup>13</sup>And David said, “Good, I will make a covenant with you. But one thing I require of you: you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul’s daughter, when you come to see my face.” <sup>14</sup>So David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul’s son, saying, “Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.” <sup>15</sup>And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Paltiel<sup>a</sup> the son of Laish. <sup>16</sup>Then her husband went along with her to Bahurim, weeping behind her. So Abner said to him, “Go, return!” And he returned.

<sup>17</sup>Now Abner had communicated with the elders of Israel, saying, “In time past you were seeking for David to be king over you. <sup>18</sup>Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant David, I<sup>a</sup> will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and the hand of all their enemies.’” <sup>19</sup>And Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin. Then Abner also went to speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and the whole house of Benjamin.

<sup>20</sup>So Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him. <sup>21</sup>Then Abner said to David, “I will arise and go, and gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

Joab Murders Abner

<sup>22</sup>At that moment the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. <sup>23</sup>When Joab and all the troops that were with him had come, they told Joab, saying, “Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he sent him away, and he has gone in peace.” <sup>24</sup>Then Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Look, Abner came to you; why is it that you sent him away, and he has already gone?” <sup>25</sup>Surely you realize that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing.”

<sup>26</sup>And when Joab had gone from David’s presence, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it. <sup>27</sup>Now when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately, and there stabbed him in the stomach, so that he died for the blood of Asahel his brother.

<sup>28</sup>Afterward, when David heard it, he said, “My kingdom and I are guiltless before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner. <sup>29</sup>Let it rest on the head of Joab and on all his father’s house; and let there never fail to be in the house of Joab one who has a discharge or is a leper, who leans on a staff or falls by the sword, or who lacks bread.” <sup>30</sup>So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

David’s Mourning for Abner

<sup>31</sup>Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes, gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn for Abner.” And King David followed the coffin. <sup>32</sup>So they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept. <sup>33</sup>And the king sang a lament over Abner and said:

“Should Abner die as a fool dies?

<sup>34</sup> Your hands were not bound
Nor your feet put into fetters;
As a man falls before wicked men,
so you fell.”

Then all the people wept over him again.

<sup>35</sup>And when all the people came to persuade David to eat food while it was still day, David

Before the monarchy there was a long-standing custom of blood revenge. The “blood avenger” would avenge the death of a relative by killing the relative’s slayer (Josh. 20:3). Blood vengeance was not allowed, however, for persons killed in battle (2 Sam. 2:21–23). Joab ignores this exception and avenges his younger brother Asahel’s death by killing Abner (2 Sam. 3:27).

took an oath, saying, “God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else till the sun goes down!”<sup>36</sup> Now all the people took note of it, and it pleased them, since whatever the king did pleased all the people.<sup>37</sup> For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the king’s intent to kill Abner the son of Ner.<sup>38</sup> Then the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?”<sup>39</sup> And I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruah, are too harsh for me. The LORD shall repay the evildoer according to his wickedness.”

Ishbosheth Is Murdered

4<sup>1</sup> When Saul’s son<sup>a</sup> heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost heart, and all Israel was troubled.<sup>2</sup> Now Saul’s son had two men who were captains of troops. The name of one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin. (For Beeroth also was part of Benjamin,<sup>3</sup> because the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been sojourners there until this day.)

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan, Saul’s son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel; and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened, as she made haste to flee, that he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Then the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out and came at about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, who was lying on his bed at noon.<sup>6</sup> And they came there, all the way into the house, as though to get wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.<sup>7</sup> For when they came into the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedroom; then they struck him and killed him, beheaded him and took his head, and were all night escaping through the plain.<sup>8</sup> And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, “Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul your enemy, who sought your life; and the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and his descendants.”

<sup>9</sup> But David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all adversity,<sup>10</sup> when someone told me, saying, ‘Look, Saul is dead,’ thinking to have brought good news, I arrested him and had him executed in Ziklag—the one who thought I would give him a reward for his news.<sup>11</sup> How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous person in his own house on his bed? Therefore, shall I not now require his blood at your hand and remove you from the earth?”<sup>12</sup> So David commanded his young men, and they executed them, cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

When Did David Become King?

The exact dates of David’s kingship are unknown. In fact, exact dates for Israel’s first three kings—Saul, David, Solomon—are not known (see “When Did Saul Become King?” at 1 Sam. 13:1). The text of 2 Samuel records that David reigned first over Judah for 7½ years at Hebron, then over Israel and Judah for 33 years at Jerusalem. These figures are rounded to a total reign of 40 years (2 Sam. 5:4, 5). However, an absolute date for when David began to rule is lacking.

David’s reign could be estimated backward from his son Solomon, but Solomon’s dates too are uncertain. Like Saul and David, Solomon also is reported to have reigned 40 years (1 Kin. 11:42). However, the 40-year figure given for Saul, David, and Solomon could be a symbolic round number representing the length of a generation. In addition, we are not sure how long Solomon ruled as a coregent with his father (1 Kin. 1:32–35; 2:1, 10).

If we accept that any dates for David are only approximate, his reign can be figured by starting from Solomon’s son Rehoboam. The beginning of Rehoboam’s rule over Judah can be placed at 930 B.C. Counting backward 40 years would date Solomon’s reign from 970 to 930 B.C. Backing up another 40 years would place the beginning of David’s rule in Judah at about 1010 B.C. and in Jerusalem at about 1003 B.C.

David Reigns over All Israel

5<sup>1</sup> Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and spoke, saying, “Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.<sup>2</sup> Also, in time past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over Israel.’”<sup>3</sup> Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel.<sup>4</sup> David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.<sup>5</sup> In

UP THE JEBUSITE WATER SHAFT (2 SAM. 5:8)

The City of David was built on a hill over the Gihon spring, the main water source for the Jerusalem area (2 Chr. 32:30). Before David conquered the city, a people called the Jebusites lived there and dug a shaft down to the spring, which flowed from the mountain's base.

This water shaft was the key to the long-lived freedom of the Jebusites (Josh. 15:63). It gave the city's inhabitants access to water, even when enemies surrounded them. That plus the steep mountain on which the city was built made the city nearly impossible to conquer.

The digging of the Jebusite shaft was no easy task. In fact, the Jebusites actually first dug a tunnel that after some time had to be abandoned. Their second attempt produced two descending steps and one horizontal step before finally reaching water level. Once there, the Jebusites tunneled an additional 65 feet to the mouth of the spring.

David discovered the Jebusite shaft and realized that it was the easiest and least-expected way for his soldiers to enter Jerusalem. By climbing up the shaft (the same shaft still visible to visitors today), David and his men conquered the Jebusites and gained a new capital city (2 Sam. 5:8, 9).

Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

The Conquest of Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup>And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "You shall not come in here; but the blind and the lame will repel you," thinking, "David cannot come in here."<sup>7</sup>Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

<sup>8</sup>Now David said on that day, "Whoever climbs up by way of the water shaft and defeats the Jebusites (the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul), he shall be chief and captain."<sup>a</sup> Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."

<sup>9</sup>Then David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the City of David. And David built all around from the Millo<sup>a</sup> and inward. <sup>10</sup>So David went on and became great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons. And they built David a house. <sup>12</sup>So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted His kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

The Philistines Defeated

<sup>17</sup>Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went down to the stronghold. <sup>18</sup>The Philistines also went and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>19</sup>So David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?"

And the LORD said to David, "Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand."

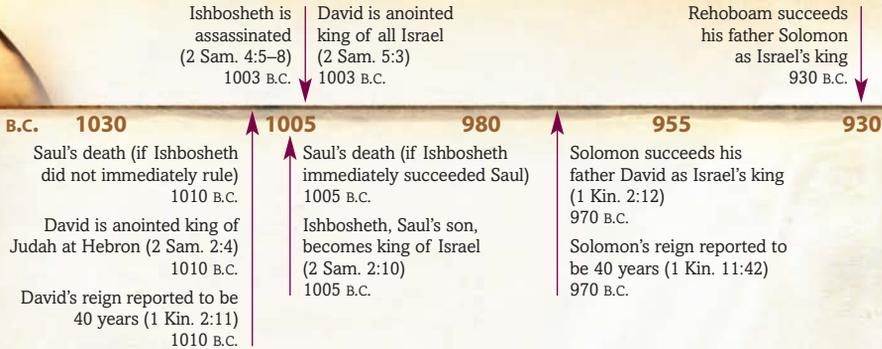

<sup>20</sup>So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>And they left their images there, and David and his men carried them away.

<sup>22</sup>Then the Philistines went up once again and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>23</sup>Therefore David inquired of the LORD, and He said, "You shall not go up; circle around behind them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees. <sup>24</sup>And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall advance quickly. For then the LORD will go out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines." <sup>25</sup>And David did so, as the LORD commanded him; and he drove back the Philistines from Geba<sup>a</sup> as far as Gezer.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

6 <sup>1</sup>Again David gathered all the choice men of Israel, thirty thousand. <sup>2</sup>And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, whose name is called by the Name,<sup>a</sup> the LORD of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubim. <sup>3</sup>So they set the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>And

THE FIRST KINGS OF ISRAEL

they brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill, accompanying the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark. <sup>5</sup>Then David and all the house of Israel played music before the LORD on all kinds of instruments of fir wood, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on sistrums, and on cymbals.

<sup>6</sup>And when they came to Nachon's threshing floor, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled. <sup>7</sup>Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his error; and he died there by the ark of God. <sup>8</sup>And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; and he called the name of the place Perez Uzzah<sup>a</sup> to this day.

<sup>9</sup>David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?" <sup>10</sup>So David would not move the ark of the LORD with him into the City of David; but David took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. <sup>11</sup>The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months. And the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and all his household.

<sup>12</sup>Now it was told King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with gladness. <sup>13</sup>And so it was, when those bearing the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, that he sacrificed oxen and fatted sheep. <sup>14</sup>Then David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was wearing a linen ephod. <sup>15</sup>So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

<sup>16</sup>Now as the ark of the LORD came into the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David leaping and whirling before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart. <sup>17</sup>So they brought the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And when David had finished offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. <sup>19</sup>Then he distributed among all the people, among the whole multitude of Israel, both the women and the men, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed, everyone to his house.

<sup>20</sup>Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious was the king of Israel today, uncovering himself today in the eyes of the maids of his servants, as one of the base fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

<sup>21</sup>So David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me instead of your father and all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore I will play music before the LORD. <sup>22</sup>And I will be even more undignified than this, and will be humble in my own sight. But as for the maidservants of whom you have spoken, by them I will be held in honor."

<sup>23</sup>Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

Agriculture & Herding

David is one of several shepherds who eventually became great leaders (2 Sam. 7:8). Amos was called to be a prophet while he was tending sheep (Amos 7:14).

Moses noticed the burning bush when he was "tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law" (Ex. 3:1). One of Greece's earliest poets, Hesiod (c. 700 B.C.) received his call to write poetry while he was a shepherd on Mount Helicon.

God's Covenant with David

7<sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass when the king was dwelling in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around, <sup>2</sup>that the king said to Nathan the prophet, “See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells inside tent curtains.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Nathan said to the king, “Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you.”

<sup>4</sup>But it happened that night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying, <sup>5</sup>“Go and tell My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Would you build a house for Me to dwell in? <sup>6</sup>For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought the children of Israel up from Egypt, even to this day, but have moved about in a tent and in a tabernacle. <sup>7</sup>Wherever I have moved about with all the children of Israel, have I ever spoken a word to anyone from the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ”’

<sup>8</sup>Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel. <sup>9</sup>And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth. <sup>10</sup>Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously, <sup>11</sup>since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD tells you that He will make you a house.”’

<sup>12</sup>“When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>13</sup>He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. <sup>14</sup>I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men. <sup>15</sup>But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you. <sup>16</sup>And your house and your kingdom shall be established forever before you.”’

<sup>17</sup>According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David's Thanksgiving to God

<sup>18</sup>Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: “Who am I, O Lord GOD?”

And what is my house, that You have brought me this far? <sup>19</sup>And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O Lord GOD; and You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come. Is this the manner of man, O Lord GOD? <sup>20</sup>Now what more can David say to You? For You, Lord GOD, know Your servant. <sup>21</sup>For Your word's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things, to make Your servant know them. <sup>22</sup>Therefore You are great, O Lord GOD. For there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>23</sup>And who is like Your people, like Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for Himself a name—and to do for Yourself great and awesome deeds for Your land—before Your people whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, the nations, and their gods? <sup>24</sup>For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their God.

<sup>25</sup>“Now, O LORD God, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, establish it forever and do as You have said. <sup>26</sup>So let Your name be magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel.’ And let the house of Your servant David be established before You. <sup>27</sup>For You, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed this to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house.’ Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray this prayer to You.

<sup>28</sup>“And now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are true, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant. <sup>29</sup>Now therefore, let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You, O Lord GOD, have spoken it, and with Your blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed forever.”’

The Books of Chronicles

While Chronicles has a different emphasis than Samuel and Kings, the Chronicler is able to use a good deal of those earlier books. In fact, Chronicles often quotes the other histories, especially Kings. But Chronicles also extends farther in time. Whereas Kings ends during the Babylonian exile, Chronicles concludes with the Persian king Cyrus's proclamation that allowed the exiled Jews to return to Jerusalem. See “Prophetic Account: Saul and David” at 1 Sam. 9:1.

Although the books of Chronicles are especially concerned with the monarchy, they begin much earlier, with Adam. In the historical shorthand of genealogies of 1 Chr. 1—9, the Chronicler covers the time span between Adam and King Saul (and a good deal beyond Saul). These genealogical lists actually go as far as the postexilic period and provide an important backdrop for that era (see “Priestly Genealogies” at 1 Chr. 1:1).

The final genealogy (1 Chr. 9:35–44), however, covers Saul’s family and introduces the narrative of his tragic death in 1 Chr. 10. Within the list are what was probably the original names of Saul’s son (Esh-Baal, 9:39) and grandson (Merib-Baal, 9:40). The prophetic story of Saul’s family in 2 Samuel consistently spells these names as Ishbosheth (2 Sam. 2:8) and Mephibosheth (2 Sam. 4:4). The author of Samuel replaced the name of the Canaanite god Baal with bosheth, the Hebrew word for “shame.”

The Family of King Saul

<sup>44</sup>And Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

Priestly Account: Saul and David

The books of Chronicles cover the same historical time period as the books of Samuel and Kings, but they do so very differently. The author of Chronicles, often called “the Chronicler,” wrote at a later time and with a different purpose, and thus omitted episodes that would detract from that purpose. Saul is allotted very little space, and the Chronicler consistently ignores the civil war between the houses of Saul and David. Only Saul’s ignominious end is recorded (1 Chr. 10) as background to David’s rise to the throne.

The Chronicler is mainly interested in Davidic kingship, Jerusalem, and the temple. In Chronicles, David is above all the devout founder of the Jerusalem temple. Perhaps for this reason, he is consistently presented in a positive light. In telling David’s story, the Chronicler emphasizes the king’s concern for the ark of the covenant and for his capital at Jerusalem (1 Chr. 13; 15). Both the ark and the capital are prerequisites for the temple.

Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

10:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul’s sons. <sup>3</sup>The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers. <sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to his armorbearer, “Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me.” But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died. <sup>6</sup>So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together. <sup>7</sup>And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; then the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

<sup>8</sup>So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among the people. <sup>10</sup>Then they put his armor in the temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

<sup>11</sup>And when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all the valiant men arose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

<sup>13</sup>So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had committed against the LORD, because he did not keep the word of the LORD, and also because he consulted a medium for guidance. <sup>14</sup>But he did not inquire of the LORD; therefore He killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

David Made King over All Israel

11:1 Then all Israel came together to David at Hebron, saying, “Indeed we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>Also, in time past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD your God

WHAT WAS THE MILLO? (1 CHR. 11:8)

David's building of the Millo was considered by the biblical writers to be one of this king's major accomplishments. Likewise his son Solomon was known for significant building activities, including the temple, Solomon's palace, the wall of Jerusalem, the rebuilding of the cities of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer, as well as the Millo (1 Kin. 9:15). The building of the Millo was certainly seen as a major building feat. Unfortunately, the biblical writers never describe what the Millo was.

The Millo is first associated with David; therefore, we can assume that the Millo was located in the City of David (1 Chr. 11:8). The later account of the Millo's rebuilding by King Hezekiah (715–686 B.C.) specifies this location (2 Chr. 32:5). Whatever the Millo was, it appears to have been a major construction project.

Archaeological excavations in the City of David discovered terraces built on its steep eastern slope. These terraces served as retaining walls for the buildings constructed above. This innovative support structure was probably what Jerusalemites knew as “the Millo.”

A fortification or citadel near Jerusalem, the Millo may have been a solid tower full of earth or a bastion strengthening a weak point in the wall.

said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over My people Israel.’”

<sup>3</sup>Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

The City of David

<sup>4</sup>And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. <sup>5</sup>But the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You shall not come in here!” Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David). <sup>6</sup>Now David said, “Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain.” And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief. <sup>7</sup>Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David. <sup>8</sup>And he built the city around it, from the Millo<sup>a</sup> to the surrounding area. Joab repaired the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup>So David went on and became great, and the LORD of hosts was with him.

The Mighty Men of David

<sup>10</sup>Now these were the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, chief of the captains;<sup>a</sup> he had lifted up his spear against three hundred, killed by him at one time.

<sup>12</sup>After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men. <sup>13</sup>He was with David at Pasdammin. Now there the Philistines were gathered for battle, and there was a piece of ground full of barley. So the people fled from the Philistines. <sup>14</sup>But they stationed themselves in the middle of that field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

<sup>15</sup>Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>16</sup>David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup>And David said with longing, “Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!” <sup>18</sup>So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the

In the ancient world, the proper disposition of the bodies of the dead was of extreme importance (1 Chr. 10:11, 12). In the Greek tragedy Antigone, the lead character, Antigone, decides against the law of the state that she must provide a decent burial for her brother. She makes this choice of divine law over human law, even though she knows that the penalty for doing what is right is death.

LORD. <sup>19</sup>And he said, “Far be it from me, O my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For at the risk of their lives they brought it.” Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

<sup>20</sup>Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of another three.<sup>a</sup> He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three. <sup>21</sup>Of the three he was more honored than the other two men. Therefore he became their captain. However he did not attain to the first three.

<sup>22</sup>Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day. <sup>23</sup>And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great height, five cubits tall. In the Egyptian’s hand there was a spear like a weaver’s beam; and he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>24</sup>These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men. <sup>25</sup>Indeed he was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

David the Fugitive

Chronicles makes no mention of Saul’s opposition to David’s rise to kingship (see “Priestly Account: Saul and David” at 1 Chr. 10:1). But in 1 Chr. 12, in material not found in the prophetic account, the Chronicler does describe the days before David was king when he was pursued by Saul in the wilderness. During this time David had established his stronghold and military headquarters at Ziklag in the extreme south of Judah (12:1, 8, 16).

The Chronicler’s account emphasizes the support that gathered around David. Even some of Saul’s own kinsmen from the tribe of Benjamin came to David’s aid (12:2). Even men from two of the northern tribes, Gad (12:8–15) and Manasseh (12:19–22), came. This description of David’s fugitive days shows that the support he had then had culminated in the joy and celebration now surrounding his coronation as king of all Israel. All the mighty warriors and all Israelites now came to Hebron “to turn over the kingdom of Saul” to David (12:23–40).

The Growth of David’s Army

12:1 Now these were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the war, <sup>2</sup>armed with bows, using both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows with the bow. They were of Benjamin, Saul’s brethren.

<sup>3</sup>The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite; <sup>4</sup>Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederahtite; <sup>5</sup>Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite; <sup>6</sup>Elkanah, Jishiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites; <sup>7</sup>and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

<sup>8</sup>Some Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions,

<sup>16</sup>Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold. <sup>17</sup>And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, “If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look and bring judgment.” <sup>18</sup>Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said:

“We are yours, O David;
We are on your side, O son of Jesse!
Peace, peace to you,
And peace to your helpers!
For your God helps you.”

So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

<sup>19</sup>And some from Manasseh defected to David when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by agreement, saying, “He may defect to his master Saul and endanger our heads.” <sup>20</sup>When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>And they helped David against the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and they were captains in the army. <sup>22</sup>For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

David's Army at Hebron

<sup>23</sup>Now these were the numbers of the divisions that were equipped for war, and came to David at Hebron to turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD: <sup>24</sup>of the sons of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for war; <sup>25</sup>of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor fit for war, seven thousand one hundred; <sup>26</sup>of the sons of Levi four thousand six hundred; <sup>27</sup>Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred; <sup>28</sup>Zadok, a young man, and from his father's house twenty-two captains; <sup>29</sup>of the sons of Benjamin, relatives of Saul, three thousand (until then the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul); <sup>30</sup>of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men throughout their father's house; <sup>31</sup>of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king; <sup>32</sup>of the sons of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command; <sup>33</sup>of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, stouthearted men who could keep ranks; <sup>34</sup>of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear; <sup>35</sup>of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred; <sup>36</sup>of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand; <sup>37</sup>of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.

<sup>38</sup>All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king. <sup>39</sup>And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them. <sup>40</sup>Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen—provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

PELESETS, PHILISTINES, AND PALESTINE (1 CHR. 14:8)

The name “Sea Peoples” was coined by the Egyptians to denote groups of people that migrated to Canaan beginning at the end of the 13th century B.C. They came to the Near East in two major waves, traveling along the coast via Asia Minor and Canaan before reaching Egypt.

At the mortuary temple of Ramesses III, Medinet Habu, graphic pictures of the Sea Peoples were incised in the temple walls. These pictures provide an Egyptian view of what the Sea Peoples looked like, the kind of ships they used, their weapons, and how they dressed. The text that goes with the pictures even records the names of the individual subgroups. Although most of the names are unfamiliar, like the Denyen, Thekel, Shekelesh, Sherden, and Weshesh, one group—the Pelesets—are known in the Bible as “the Philistines” (1 Chr. 14:8).

Ramesses III also described how the Sea Peoples devastated the nations that were in their path. Nations like the Hittites and major cities like Ugarit collapsed after the Sea Peoples passed their way. The Sea Peoples’ manner of travel was by ship and on foot. Those who sailed along the coast were supported by those who followed along coastal roads. Some of the Sea Peoples seem to have settled newly conquered territory as others pressed on toward Egypt.

According to Ramesses III, in Egypt they met their match. He stopped their advance, then settled them on the coast of Canaan. Why the Sea Peoples began their epic migration is not known. It has been suggested that famine in their homelands or the force of other peoples made them begin their trek. Whatever the cause, one of their groups, the Pelesets (Philistines), so dominated the history of the coastal regions of Canaan that their name became the name of the region—Palestine.

of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common-lands, that they may gather together to us; <sup>3</sup>and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul.” <sup>4</sup>Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

<sup>5</sup>So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor in Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim. <sup>6</sup>And David and all Israel went up to Baalah,<sup>a</sup> to Kirjath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who dwells between the cherubim, where His name is proclaimed. <sup>7</sup>So they carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. <sup>8</sup>Then David and all Israel played music before God with all their might, with singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets.

<sup>9</sup>And when they came to Chidon’s<sup>a</sup> threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled. <sup>10</sup>Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzza, and He struck him because he put his hand to the ark; and he died there before God. <sup>11</sup>And David became angry because of the LORD’s outbreak against Uzza; therefore that place is called Perez Uzza<sup>a</sup> to this day. <sup>12</sup>David was afraid of God that day, saying, “How can I bring the ark of God to me?”

<sup>13</sup>So David would not move the ark with him into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. <sup>14</sup>The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that he had.

David Established at Jerusalem

14 <sup>1</sup>Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house. <sup>2</sup>So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

The Philistines Defeated

<sup>8</sup>Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went out against them. <sup>9</sup>Then the Philistines went and made a raid on the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>10</sup>And David inquired of God,

Arts & Literature

The ancient world had wind, percussion, and stringed instruments. The main instruments of the Israelites seem to have been small harps and percussion instruments, not including drums (1 Chr. 13:8). The percussion instruments include the metal rattle called a sistrum that was a favorite in Egypt. The titles of the psalms probably include some names of musical tunes.

13:6 <sup>a</sup>Called Baal Judah in 2 Samuel 6:2 13:9 <sup>a</sup>Called Nachon in 2 Samuel 6:6 13:11 <sup>a</sup>Literally Outburst Against Uzza saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?”

The LORD said to him, “Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand.”

<sup>11</sup>So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, “God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water.” Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>And when they left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

<sup>13</sup>Then the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley. <sup>14</sup>Therefore David inquired again of God, and God said to him, “You shall not go up after them; circle around them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees. <sup>15</sup>And it shall be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines.” <sup>16</sup>So David did as God commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as Gezer. <sup>17</sup>Then the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

15 <sup>1</sup>David built houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it. <sup>2</sup>Then David said, “No one may carry the ark of God but the Levites, for the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God and to minister before Him forever.” <sup>3</sup>And David gathered all Israel together at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it. <sup>4</sup>Then David assembled the children of Aaron and the Levites: <sup>5</sup>of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his brethren; <sup>6</sup>of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brethren; <sup>7</sup>of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and one hundred and thirty of his brethren; <sup>8</sup>of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and two hundred of his brethren; <sup>9</sup>of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty of his brethren; <sup>10</sup>of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brethren.

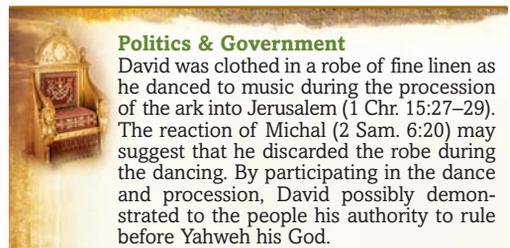

<sup>11</sup>And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab. <sup>12</sup>He said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers’ houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it. <sup>13</sup>For because you did not do it the first time, the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not consult Him about the proper order.”

<sup>14</sup>So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders, by its poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy. <sup>17</sup>So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; <sup>18</sup>and with them their brethren of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben,<sup>a</sup> Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers; <sup>19</sup>the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze; <sup>20</sup>Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with strings according to Alamoth; <sup>21</sup>Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, to direct with harps on the Sheminith; <sup>22</sup>Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was instructor in charge of the music, because he was skillful; <sup>23</sup>Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark; <sup>24</sup>Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah, doorkeepers for the ark.

<sup>25</sup>So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with joy. <sup>26</sup>And so it was, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams. <sup>27</sup>David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the music master with the singers. David also wore a linen ephod. <sup>28</sup>Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets and with cymbals, making music with stringed instruments and harps.

Politics & Government

David was clothed in a robe of fine linen as he danced to music during the procession of the ark into Jerusalem (1 Chr. 15:27–29). The reaction of Michal (2 Sam. 6:20) may suggest that he discarded the robe during the dancing. By participating in the dance and procession, David possibly demonstrated to the people his authority to rule before Yahweh his God.

14:11 <sup>a</sup>Literally Master of Breakthroughs 15:18 <sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text and Vulgate; Septuagint omits Ben.

<sup>29</sup>And it happened, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, that Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David whirling and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

TRANSITION

The Book of Psalms

The psalms, almost without exception, are difficult to tie to a specific historical context. They are the worship songs of Israel and are intended to apply to the needs of all worshippers across time. Some psalms do have historical superscriptions that make it possible to associate them with specific events, but these make up only about ten percent of all the psalms.

The rest of the psalms must follow some other criteria by which to read them within the history of Israel. One criterion is to place the psalms ascribed to David (or Solomon or Moses) during the life of that person (see "Teach Us to Number Our Days" at Ps. 90). A second criterion is to place psalms according to their type.

While there are various classifications of psalm types, two prominent types are hymns and laments. Hymns are songs of praise to God, and laments are appeals for God's help in times of trouble. In the Bible, the psalms are arranged in five distinct books (perhaps to parallel the five books of the Pentateuch). In general, the movement through the five books progresses from lament (in the early books) to praise (in the fifth book).

There was joy and shouting and music as David and Israel moved the ark to Jerusalem (1 Chr. 15:25–28). Such a setting favors the reading of psalms that are hymns of praise, and which are ascribed to David. Several psalms (Ps. 8; 19; 29; 32; 65; 68; 103; 108; 138) are appropriate for the context of David's joyous entry into Jerusalem before the ark. A psalm of thanksgiving, such as Ps. 32, expresses gratitude to God for deliverance. The joy that accompanies God's deliverance could also reflect the joy of the ark event.

PSALM 8

The Glory of the LORD in Creation

To the Chief Musician. On the instrument of Gath.<sup>a</sup>
A Psalm of David.

OLORD, our Lord,
How excellent is Your name in all the earth,
Who have set Your glory above the heavens!

<sup>2</sup> Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have ordained strength,
Because of Your enemies,

That You may silence the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>3</sup> When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which You have ordained,

<sup>4</sup> What is man that You are mindful of him,
And the son of man that You visit him?

<sup>5</sup> For You have made him a little lower than the angels,<sup>a</sup>
And You have crowned him with glory and honor.

<sup>6</sup> You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands;

You have put all things under his feet,
<sup>7</sup> All sheep and oxen—

Even the beasts of the field,

<sup>8</sup> The birds of the air,
And the fish of the sea

That pass through the paths of the seas.

<sup>9</sup> O LORD, our Lord,
How excellent is Your name in all the earth!

Religion & Worship

The sun illustrates God's energy and power, and it is linked with a bridegroom as representing natural life in its bloom (Ps. 19:4, 5). Some ancient peoples worshiped the sun. The Egyptian pharaoh Akhenaten (1352–1336 B.C.) tried to make the sun god the only deity in Egypt's state religion, but his successors reversed his innovation as soon as he died.

STORM GOD IMAGERY (Ps. 29:3–9)

Hymns offering praise for deities in the ancient Near East often used common language, even though the hymns praised different gods. For example, Ps. 29 glorifies Yahweh as a storm god, using language very similar to the descriptions in the Ugaritic texts of the Canaanite and Phoenician god Baal.

Phrases like “voice of the LORD” (or “voice of Yahweh”; 29:5) and “voice of Baal” are common Semitic language. They refer to thunder as the sound of a god’s speech, whether that deity was a storm god or not. The thunder or voice announced both the power and the presence of the deity. All of nature and of humanity was affected by the sound and reverberation of the approaching god.

Place names in Ps. 29 describe a geography north of Israel. “Lebanon and Sirion” (29:6) are mountain ranges of Phoenicia. The “many waters” (29:3) appear to picture the Mediterranean Sea. The Wilderness of Kadesh (29:8) possibly refers to the Kadesh on the Orontes River in Syria. A hymn composed for a Phoenician deity, such as Baal, would most likely refer to these same places. Possibly Ps. 29 adapts Phoenician language, describing a storm passing eastward from the waters of the Mediterranean, across Lebanon, and over the land through the wilderness.

And rejoices like a strong man to run its race.

6 Its rising is from one end of heaven,
And its circuit to the other end;
And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul;
The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple;

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart;
The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes;

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever;
The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold,
Yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them Your servant is warned,
And in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors?
Cleanse me from secret faults.
13 Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins;
Let them not have dominion over me.
Then I shall be blameless,
And I shall be innocent of great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable in Your sight,
O LORD, my strength and my Redeemer.

PSALM 29

Praise to God in His Holiness and Majesty

A Psalm of David.

Give unto the LORD, O you mighty ones,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
2 Give unto the LORD the glory due to His name;
Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
The God of glory thunders;
The LORD is over many waters.
4 The voice of the LORD is powerful;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars,
Yes, the LORD splinters the cedars of Lebanon.
6 He makes them also skip like a calf,
Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.
7 The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
The LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.
9 The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth,
And strips the forests bare;
And in His temple everyone says, “Glory!”

10 The LORD sat enthroned at the Flood,
And the LORD sits as King forever.
11 The LORD will give strength to His people;
The LORD will bless His people with peace.

KING OF THE UNIVERSE (Ps. 29:10, 11)

The last two verses of Ps. 29 are a classic ending for hymns in the ancient world. They define Yahweh as the God who rules above all other gods. Cultures that believed in pantheons of many gods commonly honored one deity as the ruler of all the others. While the official religion of Israel considered Yahweh to be the only God, hymns could reflect Yahweh's power over the gods of popular religion.

The heavenly throne room is pictured much like the throne room of a human ruler. The king sat upon a throne raised above all others in the reception hall. Similarly, the psalmist describes Yahweh as King, sitting above "the Flood" forever (29:10). For ancient people the Flood meant the waters of chaos which still surround the created order. The waters of chaos were terrifying; they were the waters unleashed in the Flood. But as long as God reigns, He keeps them in check.

The power which is described in Ps. 29 as belonging to Yahweh is also given to God's people (29:11). Just as rulers empower people who live under their rule, so the Israelites, God's chosen people, are promised the strength of Yahweh. The psalm ends with a sense of order, kept for the benefit of Israel.

PSALM 32The Joy of Forgiveness

A Psalm of David. A Contemplation.<sup>a</sup>

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.

<sup>2</sup> Blessed is the man to whom the LORD does not impute iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no deceit.

<sup>3</sup> When I kept silent, my bones grew old
Through my groaning all the day long.
<sup>4</sup> For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me;
My vitality was turned into the drought of summer. Selah

<sup>5</sup> I acknowledged my sin to You,
And my iniquity I have not hidden.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
And You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

<sup>6</sup> For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You
In a time when You may be found;
Surely in a flood of great waters
They shall not come near him.
<sup>7</sup> You are my hiding place;
You shall preserve me from trouble;
You shall surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

<sup>8</sup> I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will guide you with My eye.
<sup>9</sup> Do not be like the horse or like the mule,
Which have no understanding,
Which must be harnessed with bit and bridle,
Else they will not come near you.

<sup>10</sup> Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
But he who trusts in the LORD, mercy shall surround him.

<sup>11</sup> Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous;
And shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

PSALM 65Praise to God for His Salvation and Providence

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song

Praise is awaiting You, O God, in Zion;
And to You the vow shall be performed.

<sup>2</sup> O You who hear prayer,
To You all flesh will come.
<sup>3</sup> Iniquities prevail against me;
As for our transgressions,
You will provide atonement for them.

<sup>4</sup> Blessed is the man You choose,
And cause to approach You,
That he may dwell in Your courts.
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house,
Of Your holy temple.

<sup>5</sup> By awesome deeds in righteousness You will answer us,
O God of our salvation,
You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
And of the far-off seas;

<sup>6</sup> Who established the mountains by His strength,

Being clothed with power;
<sup>7</sup> You who still the noise of the seas,
The noise of their waves,
And the tumult of the peoples.

<sup>8</sup> They also who dwell in the farthest parts are afraid of Your signs;
You make the outgoings of the morning and evening rejoice.

<sup>a</sup>32:title <sup>a</sup>Hebrew Maschil

9 You visit the earth and water it,
You greatly enrich it;
The river of God is full of water;
You provide their grain,
For so You have prepared it.
10 You water its ridges abundantly,
You settle its furrows;
You make it soft with showers,
You bless its growth.
11 You crown the year with Your goodness,
And Your paths drip with abundance.
12 They drop on the pastures of the wilderness,
And the little hills rejoice on every side.
13 The pastures are clothed with flocks;
The valleys also are covered with grain;
They shout for joy, they also sing.

Geography & Environment

The seasons of Palestine are more accurately called wet and dry than winter and summer. There are two rainy seasons each year. However, the variation of rain from year to year is great, and the population was continually reminded of their dependence on the heavens (Ps. 65:9). With no refrigeration and little distant transportation of food, the products of the earth and the cycles of gardening were known to everyone.

PSALM 68

The Glory of God in His Goodness to Israel

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song

Let God arise,
Let His enemies be scattered;
Let those also who hate Him flee before Him.
2 As smoke is driven away,
So drive them away;
As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
3 But let the righteous be glad;
Let them rejoice before God;
Yes, let them rejoice exceedingly.
4 Sing to God, sing praises to His name;
Extol Him who rides on the clouds,<sup>a</sup>
By His name YAH,
And rejoice before Him.
5 A father of the fatherless, a defender of widows,
Is God in His holy habitation.

6 God sets the solitary in families;
He brings out those who are bound into prosperity;
But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.
7 O God, when You went out before Your people,
When You marched through the wilderness, Selah
8 The earth shook;
The heavens also dropped rain at the presence of God;
Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
9 You, O God, sent a plentiful rain,
Whereby You confirmed Your inheritance,
When it was weary.
10 Your congregation dwelt in it;
You, O God, provided from Your goodness for the poor.
11 The Lord gave the word;
Great was the company of those who proclaimed it:
12 “Kings of armies flee, they flee,
And she who remains at home divides the spoil.
13 Though you lie down among the sheepfolds,
You will be like the wings of a dove covered with silver,
And her feathers with yellow gold.”
14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it,
It was white as snow in Zalmon.
15 A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan;
A mountain of many peaks is the mountain of Bashan.
16 Why do you fume with envy, you mountains of many peaks?
This is the mountain which God desires to dwell in;
Yes, the LORD will dwell in it forever.
17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand,
Even thousands of thousands;
The Lord is among them as in Sinai, in the Holy Place.

Geography & Environment

Zalmon is evidently a mountain in Bashan, but is not positively identified (Ps. 68:14). Bashan was east of the Sea of Galilee and reached as far as Mount Hermon, the highest mountain in Palestine. Usually there is snow on Mount Hermon, and its beauty is proverbial. The very striking poetic imagery of Ps. 68 sometimes presents difficulties for interpretation.

68:4 <sup>a</sup>Masoretic Text reads deserts; Targum reads heavens (compare verse 34 and Isaiah 19:1).

KINGDOMS OF SYRIA AND PALESTINE

Syria refers to the region north of Palestine, which was associated with the city-state of Damascus. In ancient times Syria was known as Aram. Since Syria and Palestine rarely knew political unity, various kingdoms inhabited these regions.

Kingdom	Approximate Period	Important Rulers
Ebla	2400–2250 B.C.	Igris-Halam, Irkab-Damu
Alalakh	1800–1400 B.C.	Yamhad, Yarim-Lim, Idrimi
Ugarit	1400–1180 B.C.	Niqmaddu II
Sea Peoples	1200–1050 B.C..	Seafaring peoples including the Philistines
Aram-Damascus	1050–732 B.C.	Rezon, Hadad-ezer (Ben-Hadad), Hazael
Phoenicia	1050–340 B.C.	Hiram I, Ethbaal I
United Israel	1050 (or 1020)–930 B.C.	Saul, David, Solomon
Israel	930–722 B.C.	Jeroboam I, Ahab, Jehu
Judah	930–586 B.C.	Rehoboam, Hezekiah, Josiah

PSALM 103

Praise for the LORD's Mercies

A Psalm of David.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
 And all that is within me, bless His holy name!
 2 Bless the LORD, O my soul,
 And forget not all His benefits:
 3 Who forgives all your iniquities,
 Who heals all your diseases,
 4 Who redeems your life from destruction,
 Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies,
 5 Who satisfies your mouth with good things,
 So that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 The LORD executes righteousness
 And justice for all who are oppressed.
 7 He made known His ways to Moses,
 His acts to the children of Israel.
 8 The LORD is merciful and gracious,
 Slow to anger, and abounding in mercy.
 9 He will not always strive with us,
 Nor will He keep His anger forever.
 10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins,
 Nor punished us according to our iniquities.

11 For as the heavens are high above the earth,
 So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him;
 12 As far as the east is from the west,
 So far has He removed our transgressions from us.
 13 As a father pities his children,
 So the LORD pities those who fear Him.

103:16 "Compare Job 7:10

14 For He knows our frame;
 He remembers that we are dust.

15 As for man, his days are like grass;
 As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
 16 For the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
 And its place remembers it no more.<sup>a</sup>
 17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting
 On those who fear Him,
 And His righteousness to children's children,
 18 To such as keep His covenant,
 And to those who remember His commandments to do them.

19 The LORD has established His throne in heaven,
 And His kingdom rules over all.

20 Bless the LORD, you His angels,
 Who excel in strength, who do His word,
 Heeding the voice of His word.
 21 Bless the LORD, all you His hosts,
You ministers of His, who do His pleasure.
 22 Bless the LORD, all His works,
 In all places of His dominion.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

PSALM 108

Assurance of God's Victory over Enemies

A Song. A Psalm of David.

O God, my heart is steadfast;
 I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.
 2 Awake, lute and harp!
 I will awaken the dawn.

WHEN GOD IS ANGRY (Ps. 103:8, 9)

Stilling the gods' anger is a common theme in ancient Near Eastern literature. An Accadian epic text from at least the 8th century B.C. in Mesopotamia is The Epic of Erra, a narrative poem about the chief deity Marduk; his protagonist, the god Erra; and Erra's advisor, the god Ishum. The anger displayed by Erra can be contrasted with the anger that characterizes Yahweh in the Old Testament.

At one point in the Accadian poem, Erra becomes enraged and decides to ravage countries and their populations. Ishum pacifies him and a remnant escapes. Erra recognizes his blunder in attacking the divine leadership of Marduk and his subjects—humankind. Thus, Erra praises Ishum for his rational calm in the face of Erra's great rage.

Although this text shares a common literary theme with the Bible, the incipient polytheism of the text betrays a marked difference from the monotheism of Israel. The anger of various ancient Near Eastern deities had to be restrained, usually by other deities who intervened on behalf of humans. In contrast, Israel understood that there were no other gods who could intervene when Yahweh was angry. Yet Yahweh restrains His own anger. The psalmist declares that Yahweh is "slow to anger" and will not "keep His anger forever" (Ps. 103:8, 9).

Ancient Near Eastern gods often became angry for petty reasons. The god Erra makes mistakes and allows his anger to get the best of him. The God of Israel neither makes a mistake nor becomes so infuriated that He loses control. Anger is not a basic part of Yahweh's personality; rather, He is "merciful and gracious" (Ps. 103:8).

3 I will praise You, O LORD, among the peoples,
And I will sing praises to You among the nations.
4 For Your mercy is great above the heavens,
And Your truth reaches to the clouds.
5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
And Your glory above all the earth;
6 That Your beloved may be delivered,
Save with Your right hand, and hear me.
7 God has spoken in His holiness:
“I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
And measure out the Valley of Succoth.
8 Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the helmet for My head;
Judah is My lawgiver.
9 Moab is My washpot;
Over Edom I will cast My shoe;
Over Philistia I will triumph.”
10 Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
11 Is it not You, O God, who cast us off?
And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?
12 Give us help from trouble,
For the help of man is useless.
13 Through God we will do valiantly,
For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.<sup>a</sup>

PSALM 138

The LORD's Goodness to the Faithful

A Psalm of David.

I will praise You with my whole heart;
Before the gods I will sing praises to You.
2 I will worship toward Your holy temple,
And praise Your name
For Your lovingkindness and Your truth;
For You have magnified Your word above all Your name.
3 In the day when I cried out, You answered
me,
And made me bold with strength in my soul.
4 All the kings of the earth shall praise You,
O LORD,
When they hear the words of Your mouth.
5 Yes, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
For great is the glory of the LORD.
6 Though the LORD is on high,
Yet He regards the lowly;
But the proud He knows from afar.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me;
You will stretch out Your hand
Against the wrath of my enemies,
And Your right hand will save me.
8 The LORD will perfect that which concerns
me;
Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever;
Do not forsake the works of Your hands.

Music in the Temple

One aspect of the Chronicler's emphasis on the temple is his interest in the different priestly duties, particularly in the musical service. In the genealogical introduction to 1 Chronicles (1 Chr. 1:1—9:34), more space is given to the Levitical musicians than to some entire tribes (see 6:31–48 and “Priestly Genealogies” at 1 Chr. 1:1).

The prophetic account in 2 Sam. 6:12–19 mentions the sound of music when the ark was brought to Jerusalem. The Chronicler, however, provides much more detail about that music and stresses the role of the Levites in this event. There were Levites carrying the ark, as well as singing and playing instruments (1 Chr. 15:2, 15, 16, 28). Once the ark was in Jerusalem, David began to organize the service of the Jerusalem sanctuary. One of his first actions was to appoint the Levitical musicians and their three leaders: Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun (1 Chr. 16:37, 41, 42; see 2 Chr. 5:12).

The Ark Placed in the Tabernacle

16:1 So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. <sup>2</sup>And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.

<sup>4</sup>And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD God of Israel: <sup>5</sup>Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-Edom: Jeiel with stringed instruments and harps, but Asaph made music with cymbals; <sup>6</sup>Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests

David's Song of Thanksgiving

<sup>7</sup>On that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brethren, to thank the LORD:

8 Oh, give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the peoples!
9 Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
Talk of all His wondrous works!
10 Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek
the LORD!
11 Seek the LORD and His strength;
Seek His face evermore!
12 Remember His marvelous works which
He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,
13 O seed of Israel His servant,
You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!
14 He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
15 Remember His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded, for a
thousand generations,
16 The covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac,
17 And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant,
18 Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance,"
19 When you were few in number,
Indeed very few, and strangers in it.
20 When they went from one nation to another,
And from one kingdom to another people,
21 He permitted no man to do them wrong;
Yes, He rebuked kings for their sakes,
22 Saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm."<sup>a</sup>
23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth;
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
24 Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.

25 For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised;
He is also to be feared above all gods.
26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.
27 Honor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and gladness are in His place.
28 Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.
29 Give to the LORD the glory due His name;
Bring an offering, and come before Him.
Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!
30 Tremble before Him, all the earth.
The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be moved.
31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."
32 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.
33 Then the trees of the woods shall rejoice
before the LORD,
For He is coming to judge the earth.<sup>a</sup>
34 Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.<sup>a</sup>
35 And say, "Save us, O God of our salvation;
Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
To triumph in Your praise."
36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!<sup>a</sup>

THERE ARE GODS AND THEN THERE IS GOD (Ps. 96:5)

Hymns of praise in the ancient Near East often declared the god being praised to be superior to all other gods. The Bible occasionally uses that kind of language, but more often goes beyond it and says that Yahweh is the only God.

One way of dismissing other gods was to say they were only statues. The supposed “gods of the peoples” are nothing more than the inanimate idols themselves (Ps. 96:5). Yahweh is declared the true deity because only He created the world—“the LORD made the heavens” (96:5). All other gods are impotent and unworthy of adoration; they should be ignored. People who could mistake stone, metal, or wood for a real god are foolish.

A second way of dismissing other gods was to leave open the possibility they existed, yet maintain that they had no serious power and therefore were not to be taken seriously. The prophet Jeremiah, for example, says that other gods did not create the world and will therefore cease to exist (Jer. 10:11). Their insignificance is stressed by their being placed lower than Yahweh in divine authority.

In this way, the Hebrew poets were able to adapt the usual language of Near Eastern hymns into the worship of Yahweh. To Israel and Judah only Yahweh mattered. The other deities either did not exist or were so meaningless that whether they existed was irrelevant. Yahweh was “to be feared above all gods” (Ps. 96:4).

Regular Worship Maintained

<sup>37</sup>So he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as every day’s work required; <sup>38</sup>and Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gatekeepers; <sup>39</sup>and Zadok the priest and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place that was at Gibeon, <sup>40</sup>to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD which He commanded Israel; <sup>41</sup>and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His mercy endures forever; <sup>42</sup>and with them Heman and Jeduthun, to sound aloud with trumpets and cymbals and the musical instruments of God. Now the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.

<sup>43</sup>Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

TRANSITION

Psalms of the Musicians

When the ark was placed in the tabernacle, David gave a psalm to the Levitical singers under Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun to perform (1 Chr. 16:1, 7–36). The various sections of this psalm also appear in three independent psalms: Ps. 96; 105; 106. (1 Chr. 16:8–22 = Ps. 105:1–15; 1 Chr. 16:23–33 = Ps. 96:1–13; 1 Chr. 16:34–36 = Ps. 106:1, 47, 48.)

The names of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun appear in the superscriptions of several psalms. Two psalms (Ps. 39; 62) are identified as being by David and given by name to Jeduthun. Another psalm (Ps. 77) is ascribed to Asaph, but given to Jeduthun. Many other psalms are ascribed to Asaph (Ps. 50; 73–83) and one (Ps. 88) to Heman.

PSALM 105

The Eternal Faithfulness of the LORD

Oh, give thanks to the LORD!
 Call upon His name;
 Make known His deeds among the peoples!
 2 Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
 Talk of all His wondrous works!
 3 Glory in His holy name;
 Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek
 the LORD!
 4 Seek the LORD and His strength;
 Seek His face evermore!
 5 Remember His marvelous works which
 He has done,
 His wonders, and the judgments of His
 mouth,
 6 O seed of Abraham His servant,
 You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

7 He is the LORD our God;
 His judgments are in all the earth.
 8 He remembers His covenant forever,
 The word which He commanded, for a
 thousand generations,
 9 The covenant which He made with Abraham,
 And His oath to Isaac,
 10 And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
 To Israel as an everlasting covenant,
 11 Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan
 As the allotment of your inheritance,"
 12 When they were few in number,
 Indeed very few, and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another,
 From one kingdom to another people,
 14 He permitted no one to do them wrong;
 Yes, He rebuked kings for their sakes,
 15 Saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones,
 And do My prophets no harm."

16 Moreover He called for a famine in the land;
 He destroyed all the provision of bread.
 17 He sent a man before them—
 Joseph—who was sold as a slave.
 18 They hurt his feet with fetters,
 He was laid in irons.
 19 Until the time that his word came to pass,
 The word of the LORD tested him.
 20 The king sent and released him,
 The ruler of the people let him go free.
 21 He made him lord of his house,
 And ruler of all his possessions,
 22 To bind his princes at his pleasure,
 And teach his elders wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt,
 And Jacob dwelt in the land of Ham.
 24 He increased His people greatly,
 And made them stronger than their enemies.
 25 He turned their heart to hate His people,
 To deal craftily with His servants.

26 He sent Moses His servant,
And Aaron whom He had chosen.
 27 They performed His signs among them,
 And wonders in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark;
 And they did not rebel against His word.
 29 He turned their waters into blood,
 And killed their fish.
 30 Their land abounded with frogs,
Even in the chambers of their kings.
 31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
And lice in all their territory.
 32 He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.
 33 He struck their vines also, and their fig trees,
 And splintered the trees of their territory.
 34 He spoke, and locusts came,
 Young locusts without number,
 35 And ate up all the vegetation in their land,
 And devoured the fruit of their ground.
 36 He also destroyed all the firstborn in their land,
 The first of all their strength.

37 He also brought them out with silver and gold,
 And there was none feeble among His tribes.
 38 Egypt was glad when they departed,
 For the fear of them had fallen upon them.
 39 He spread a cloud for a covering,
 And fire to give light in the night.
 40 The people asked, and He brought quail,
 And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
 41 He opened the rock, and water gushed out;
 It ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For He remembered His holy promise,
And Abraham His servant.
 43 He brought out His people with joy,
 His chosen ones with gladness.
 44 He gave them the lands of the Gentiles,
 And they inherited the labor of the nations,
 45 That they might observe His statutes
 And keep His laws.

Praise the LORD!

PSALM 106

Joy in Forgiveness of Israel's Sins

Praise the LORD!

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD?
Who can declare all His praise?

3 Blessed are those who keep justice,
And he who does<sup>a</sup> righteousness at all times!

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favor
You have toward Your people.
Oh, visit me with Your salvation,
5 That I may see the benefit of Your chosen ones,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of
Your nation,
That I may glory with Your inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity,
We have done wickedly.
7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand
Your wonders;
They did not remember the multitude of Your mercies,
But rebelled by the sea—the Red Sea.

8 Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake,
That He might make His mighty power known.
9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it dried up;
So He led them through the depths,
As through the wilderness.
10 He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
11 The waters covered their enemies;
There was not one of them left.
12 Then they believed His words;
They sang His praise.

13 They soon forgot His works;
They did not wait for His counsel,
14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,
And tested God in the desert.
15 And He gave them their request,
But sent leanness into their soul.

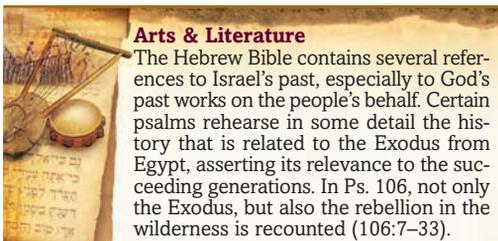

16 When they envied Moses in the camp,
And Aaron the saint of the LORD,
17 The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan,
And covered the faction of Abiram.
18 A fire was kindled in their company;
The flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb,
And worshiped the molded image.
20 Thus they changed their glory
Into the image of an ox that eats grass.
21 They forgot God their Savior,
Who had done great things in Egypt,
22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
Awesome things by the Red Sea.
23 Therefore He said that He would destroy
them,
Had not Moses His chosen one stood before
Him in the breach,
To turn away His wrath, lest He destroy
them.

24 Then they despised the pleasant land;
They did not believe His word,
25 But complained in their tents,
And did not heed the voice of the LORD.
26 Therefore He raised His hand in an oath against them,
To overthrow them in the wilderness, 27 To overthrow their descendants among the nations,
And to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also to Baal of Peor,
And ate sacrifices made to the dead.
29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds,
And the plague broke out among them.
30 Then Phinehas stood up and intervened,
And the plague was stopped.
31 And that was accounted to him for righteousness
To all generations forevermore.

32 They angered Him also at the waters of strife,<sup>a</sup>
So that it went ill with Moses on account of them;

Arts & Literature

The Hebrew Bible contains several references to Israel's past, especially to God's past works on the people's behalf. Certain psalms rehearse in some detail the history that is related to the Exodus from Egypt, asserting its relevance to the succeeding generations. In Ps. 106, not only the Exodus, but also the rebellion in the wilderness is recounted (106:7–33).

106:3 <sup>a</sup>Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read those who do. 106:32 <sup>a</sup>Or Meribah

WORSHIPING ANCESTORS AS GODS (Ps. 106:28)

The deification of ancestors was common throughout the ancient world. The mythological texts from Ugarit (1400–1200 B.C.) make reference to “rulers” in the netherworld who formerly had been monarchs in the human realm. These deceased humans were treated as minor deities, having religious feasts held in their honor. Even in ancient Palestine, the excavations of graves have sometimes uncovered tubes built into the ground so that communication and food could be delivered to the deceased.

Ancestor worship is not common in the Bible. There is one Canaanite practice mentioned, however, by which famous or important dead persons had become deities of the underworld. The psalmist reports that the Israelites “ate sacrifices made to the dead” (Ps. 106:28). The practice is associated with the “Baal of Peor” incident, indicating that the Israelites encountered the custom as they moved toward the Promised Land.

The Law of Moses made it unacceptable to treat any human as a god, whether living or dead (Ex. 20:2; Deut. 26:14). The Israelites who engaged in the regional religious belief of eating sacrifices for the dead were considered to have turned away from the one true God and “provoked Him to anger” (Ps. 106:29). To honor the memory of one’s ancestors was desirable, but such honor must not pass over into worship.

33 Because they rebelled against His Spirit,
So that he spoke rashly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the peoples, Concerning whom the LORD had commanded them,
35 But they mingled with the Gentiles
And learned their works;
36 They served their idols,
Which became a snare to them.
37 They even sacrificed their sons
And their daughters to demons,
38 And shed innocent blood,
The blood of their sons and daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
And the land was polluted with blood.
39 Thus they were defiled by their own works,
And played the harlot by their own deeds.

40 Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people,
So that He abhorred His own inheritance.
41 And He gave them into the hand of the Gentiles,
And those who hated them ruled over
them.
42 Their enemies also oppressed them,
And they were brought into subjection
under their hand.
43 Many times He delivered them;
But they rebelled in their counsel,
And were brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless He regarded their affliction,
When He heard their cry;
45 And for their sake He remembered His covenant,
And relented according to the multitude of His mercies.
46 He also made them to be pitied
By all those who carried them away captive.

47 Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
To triumph in Your praise.

48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!
And let all the people say, “Amen!”

Praise the LORD!

PSALM 39

Prayer for Wisdom and Forgiveness

*To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun.
A Psalm of David.*

I said, “I will guard my ways,
Lest I sin with my tongue;
I will restrain my mouth with a muzzle,
While the wicked are before me.”

2 I was mute with silence,
I held my peace even from good;
And my sorrow was stirred up.

3 My heart was hot within me;
While I was musing, the fire burned.
Then I spoke with my tongue:

4 “LORD, make me to know my end,
And what is the measure of my days,
That I may know how frail I am.”

5 Indeed, You have made my days as handbreadths,
And my age is as nothing before You;
Certainly every man at his best state is but vapor. Selah

6 Surely every man walks about like a shadow;
Surely they busy themselves in vain;
He heaps up riches,
And does not know who will gather them.

7 “And now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in You.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions;
Do not make me the reproach of the foolish.
9 I was mute, I did not open my mouth,
Because it was You who did it.
10 Remove Your plague from me;
I am consumed by the blow of Your hand.
11 When with rebukes You correct man for iniquity,
You make his beauty melt away like a moth;
Surely every man is vapor. Selah

12 “Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And give ear to my cry;
Do not be silent at my tears;
For I am a stranger with You,
A sojourner, as all my fathers were.
13 Remove Your gaze from me, that I may regain strength,
Before I go away and am no more.”

PSALM 62

A Calm Resolve to Wait for the Salvation of God

*To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun.
A Psalm of David.*

Truly my soul silently waits for God;
From Him comes my salvation.
2 He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;
I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will you attack a man?
You shall be slain, all of you,
Like a leaning wall and a tottering fence.
4 They only consult to cast him down from his high position;
They delight in lies;
They bless with their mouth,
But they curse inwardly. Selah

5 My soul, wait silently for God alone,
For my expectation is from Him.
6 He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;
I shall not be moved.

Religion & Worship

When food, whether meat or vegetable, was offered in sacrifice, there was a natural suggestion that the worshiper was providing sustenance for the god or gods being worshiped. In the Old Testament sacrifices were required by Israel's God. Yet the Psalms reveal a sharp polemic against any such misinterpretation of the sacrifices. Yahweh declares, “If I were hungry, I would not tell you” (Ps. 50:12).

7 In God is my salvation and my glory;
The rock of my strength,
And my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in Him at all times, you people;
Pour out your heart before Him;
God is a refuge for us. Selah

9 Surely men of low degree are a vapor,
Men of high degree are a lie;
If they are weighed on the scales,
They are altogether lighter than vapor.
10 Do not trust in oppression,
Nor vainly hope in robbery;
If riches increase,
Do not set your heart on them.

11 God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this:
That power belongs to God.
12 Also to You, O Lord, belongs mercy;
For You render to each one according to his work.

PSALM 50

God the Righteous Judge

A Psalm of Asaph.

The Mighty One, God the LORD,
Has spoken and called the earth
From the rising of the sun to its going down.
2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God will shine forth.
3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent;
A fire shall devour before Him,
And it shall be very tempestuous all around Him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above,
And to the earth, that He may judge His people:
5 “Gather My saints together to Me,
Those who have made a covenant with Me
by sacrifice.”
6 Let the heavens declare His righteousness,
For God Himself is Judge. Selah

7 “Hear, O My people, and I will speak,
O Israel, and I will testify against you;
I am God, your God!
8 I will not rebuke you for your sacrifices
Or your burnt offerings,
Which are continually before Me.
9 I will not take a bull from your house,
Nor goats out of your folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is Mine,
 And the cattle on a thousand hills.
 11 I know all the birds of the mountains,
 And the wild beasts of the field are Mine.
 12 “If I were hungry, I would not tell you;
 For the world is Mine, and all its fullness.
 13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
 Or drink the blood of goats?
 14 Offer to God thanksgiving,
 And pay your vows to the Most High.
 15 Call upon Me in the day of trouble;
 I will deliver you, and you shall glorify Me.”
 16 But to the wicked God says:
 “What right have you to declare My statutes,
 Or take My covenant in your mouth,
 17 Seeing you hate instruction
 And cast My words behind you?
 18 When you saw a thief, you consented<sup>a</sup> with
 him,
 And have been a partaker with adulterers.
 19 You give your mouth to evil,
 And your tongue frames deceit.
 20 You sit and speak against your brother;
 You slander your own mother’s son.
 21 These things you have done, and I kept silent;
 You thought that I was altogether like you;
 But I will rebuke you,
 And set them in order before your eyes.
 22 “Now consider this, you who forget God,
 Lest I tear you in pieces,
 And there be none to deliver:
 23 Whoever offers praise glorifies Me;
 And to him who orders his conduct aright
 I will show the salvation of God.”

PSALM 73

The Tragedy of the Wicked, and the Blessedness of Trust in God

A Psalm of Asaph.

Truly God is good to Israel,
 To such as are pure in heart.
 2 But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled;
 My steps had nearly slipped.
 3 For I was envious of the boastful,
 When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
 4 For there are no pangs in their death,
 But their strength is firm.

5 They are not in trouble as other men,
 Nor are they plagued like other men.
 6 Therefore pride serves as their necklace;
 Violence covers them like a garment.
 7 Their eyes bulge<sup>a</sup> with abundance;
 They have more than heart could wish.
 8 They scoff and speak wickedly concerning oppression;
 They speak loftily.
 9 They set their mouth against the heavens,
 And their tongue walks through the earth.
 10 Therefore his people return here,
 And waters of a full cup are drained by them.
 11 And they say, “How does God know?
 And is there knowledge in the Most High?”
 12 Behold, these are the ungodly,
 Who are always at ease;
 They increase in riches.
 13 Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain,
 And washed my hands in innocence.
 14 For all day long I have been plagued,
 And chastened every morning.
 15 If I had said, “I will speak thus,” Behold, I would have been untrue to the generation of Your children.
 16 When I thought how to understand this,
 It was too painful for me—
 17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God;
 Then I understood their end.
 18 Surely You set them in slippery places;
 You cast them down to destruction.
 19 Oh, how they are brought to desolation, as in a moment!
 They are utterly consumed with terrors.
 20 As a dream when one awakes,
 So, Lord, when You awake,
 You shall despise their image.
 21 Thus my heart was grieved,
 And I was vexed in my mind.
 22 I was so foolish and ignorant;
 I was like a beast before You.
 23 Nevertheless I am continually with You;
 You hold me by my right hand.

Culture & Society

Standards of physical beauty have a natural and a social component. In many cultures fat is praised, presumably because it is a sign of wealth to have enough to eat. The psalm writer’s judgment concerning prosperity is influenced by moral considerations of the pride, arrogance, and cruelty that wealth seems to encourage. The prosperity of wicked persons is transitory, no more permanent than a dream (Ps. 73:3, 19, 20).

50:18 <sup>a</sup>Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read ran.
 73:7 <sup>a</sup>Targum reads face bulges; Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read iniquity bulges.

24 You will guide me with Your counsel,
And afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but You?
And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You.

26 My flesh and my heart fail;
But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

27 For indeed, those who are far from You shall perish;
You have destroyed all those who desert
You for harlotry.

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God;
I have put my trust in the Lord GOD,
That I may declare all Your works.

PSALM 74

A Plea for Relief from Oppressors

A Contemplation<sup>a</sup> of Asaph.

O God, why have You cast us off forever?
Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

2 Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,
The tribe of Your inheritance, which You have redeemed—
This Mount Zion where You have dwelt.

3 Lift up Your feet to the perpetual desolations.
The enemy has damaged everything in the sanctuary.

4 Your enemies roar in the midst of Your meeting place;
They set up their banners for signs.
5 They seem like men who lift up
Axes among the thick trees.
6 And now they break down its carved work,
all at once,
With axes and hammers.

7 They have set fire to Your sanctuary;
They have defiled the dwelling place of
Your name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts,
“Let us destroy them altogether.”
They have burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.

9 We do not see our signs;
There is no longer any prophet;
Nor is there any among us who knows how long.

10 O God, how long will the adversary reproach?
Will the enemy blaspheme Your name
forever?

11 Why do You withdraw Your hand, even
Your right hand?
Take it out of Your bosom and destroy
them.

12 For God is my King from of old, Working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 You divided the sea by Your strength;
You broke the heads of the sea serpents in the waters.

14 You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces,
And gave him as food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 You broke open the fountain and the flood;
You dried up mighty rivers.

16 The day is Yours, the night also is Yours;
You have prepared the light and the sun.

17 You have set all the borders of the earth;
You have made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy has reproached, O LORD,
And that a foolish people has blasphemed
Your name.

19 Oh, do not deliver the life of Your turtledove to the wild beast!
Do not forget the life of Your poor forever.

20 Have respect to the covenant;
For the dark places of the earth are full of the haunts of cruelty.

21 Oh, do not let the oppressed return ashamed!
Let the poor and needy praise Your name.

22 Arise, O God, plead Your own cause;
Remember how the foolish man reproaches
You daily.

23 Do not forget the voice of Your enemies;
The tumult of those who rise up against
You increases continually.

Thanksgiving for God's Righteous Judgment

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."<sup>a</sup>
A Psalm of Asaph. A Song

We give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks!
For Your wondrous works declare that
Your name is near.

2 "When I choose the proper time,
I will judge uprightly.
3 The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved;
I set up its pillars firmly. Selah

4 "I said to the boastful, 'Do not deal boastfully,'
And to the wicked, 'Do not lift up the horn.
5 Do not lift up your horn on high;
Do not speak with a stiff neck.' "

6 For exaltation comes neither from the east
Nor from the west nor from the south.

7 But God is the Judge:
He puts down one,
And exalts another.

8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
And the wine is red;
It is fully mixed, and He pours it out;
Surely its dregs shall all the wicked of the earth
Drain and drink down.

9 But I will declare forever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 "All the horns of the wicked I will also cut off,
But the horns of the righteous shall be exalted."

The Majesty of God in Judgment

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.<sup>a</sup>
A Psalm of Asaph. A Song

In Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.
2 In Salem<sup>a</sup> also is His tabernacle,
And His dwelling place in Zion.
3 There He broke the arrows of the bow,
The shield and sword of battle. Selah

4 You are more glorious and excellent
Than the mountains of prey.

5 The stouthearted were plundered;
They have sunk into their sleep;
And none of the mighty men have found the use of their hands.
6 At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both the chariot and horse were cast into a dead sleep.

7 You, Yourself, are to be feared;
And who may stand in Your presence
When once You are angry?
8 You caused judgment to be heard from heaven;
The earth feared and was still,
9 When God arose to judgment,
To deliver all the oppressed of the earth. Selah

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise
You;
With the remainder of wrath You shall gird Yourself.

11 Make vows to the LORD your God, and pay
them;
Let all who are around Him bring presents to Him who ought to be feared.
12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes;
He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun.
A Psalm of Asaph.

I cried out to God with my voice—
To God with my voice;
And He gave ear to me.
2 In the day of my trouble I sought
the Lord;
My hand was stretched out in the night without ceasing;
My soul refused to be comforted.
3 I remembered God, and was troubled;
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah

4 You hold my eyelids open;
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
5 I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
6 I call to remembrance my song in the

PSALM 78

God's Kindness to Rebellious IsraelA Contemplation<sup>a</sup> of Asaph.*

Give ear, O my people, to my law;
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
2 I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings of old,
3 Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.
4 We will not hide them from their children, Telling to the generation to come the praises
of the LORD,
And His strength and His wonderful works that He has done.

5 For He established a testimony in Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,
Which He commanded our fathers,
That they should make them known to
their children;
6 That the generation to come might know
them,
The children who would be born,
That they may arise and declare them to
their children,
7 That they may set their hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,
But keep His commandments;
8 And may not be like their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation that did not set its heart aright,
And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.
10 They did not keep the covenant of God;
They refused to walk in His law,
11 And forgot His works
And His wonders that He had shown them.

12 Marvelous things He did in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
13 He divided the sea and caused them to pass through;

<sup>a</sup>Hebrew Maschil

- And He made the waters stand up like a heap.
 14 In the daytime also He led them with the cloud,
 And all the night with a light of fire.
 15 He split the rocks in the wilderness,
 And gave them drink in abundance like the depths.
 16 He also brought streams out of the rock,
 And caused waters to run down like rivers.
- 17 But they sinned even more against Him
 By rebelling against the Most High in the wilderness.
 18 And they tested God in their heart
 By asking for the food of their fancy.
 19 Yes, they spoke against God:
 They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?"
 20 Behold, He struck the rock,
 So that the waters gushed out,
 And the streams overflowed.
 Can He give bread also?
 Can He provide meat for His people?"
- 21 Therefore the LORD heard this and was furious;
 So a fire was kindled against Jacob,
 And anger also came up against Israel,
 22 Because they did not believe in God,
 And did not trust in His salvation.
 23 Yet He had commanded the clouds above,
 And opened the doors of heaven,
 24 Had rained down manna on them to eat,
 And given them of the bread of heaven.
 25 Men ate angels' food;
 He sent them food to the full.
- 26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heavens;
 And by His power He brought in the south wind.
 27 He also rained meat on them like the dust,
 Feathered fowl like the sand of the seas;
 28 And He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
 All around their dwellings.
 29 So they ate and were well filled,
 For He gave them their own desire.
 30 They were not deprived of their craving;
 But while their food was still in their mouths,
 31 The wrath of God came against them,
 And slew the stoutest of them,
 And struck down the choice men of Israel.
- 32 In spite of this they still sinned,
 And did not believe in His wondrous works.
- 33 Therefore their days He consumed in futility,
 And their years in fear.
- 34 When He slew them, then they sought Him;
 And they returned and sought earnestly for God.
 35 Then they remembered that God was their rock,
 And the Most High God their Redeemer.
 36 Nevertheless they flattered Him with their mouth,
 And they lied to Him with their tongue;
 37 For their heart was not steadfast with Him,
 Nor were they faithful in His covenant.
 38 But He, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity,
 And did not destroy them.
 Yes, many a time He turned His anger away,
 And did not stir up all His wrath;
 39 For He remembered that they were but flesh,
 A breath that passes away and does not come again.
- 40 How often they provoked Him in the wilderness,
 And grieved Him in the desert!
 41 Yes, again and again they tempted God,
 And limited the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They did not remember His power:
 The day when He redeemed them from the enemy,
 43 When He worked His signs in Egypt,
 And His wonders in the field of Zoan;
 44 Turned their rivers into blood,
 And their streams, that they could not drink.
 45 He sent swarms of flies among them, which devoured them,
 And frogs, which destroyed them.
 46 He also gave their crops to the caterpillar,
 And their labor to the locust.
 47 He destroyed their vines with hail,
 And their sycamore trees with frost.
 48 He also gave up their cattle to the hail,
 And their flocks to fiery lightning.
 49 He cast on them the fierceness of His anger,
 Wrath, indignation, and trouble,
 By sending angels of destruction among them.
- 50 He made a path for His anger;
 He did not spare their soul from death,
 But gave their life over to the plague,
 51 And destroyed all the firstborn in Egypt,
 The first of their strength in the tents of Ham.
 52 But He made His own people go forth like sheep,
 And guided them in the wilderness like a flock;

53 And He led them on safely, so that they did not fear;
But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
54 And He brought them to His holy border,
This mountain which His right hand had acquired.
55 He also drove out the nations before them,
Allotted them an inheritance by survey,
And made the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tested and provoked the Most High God,
And did not keep His testimonies,
57 But turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers;
They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
58 For they provoked Him to anger with their high places,
And moved Him to jealousy with their carved images.
59 When God heard this, He was furious,
And greatly abhorred Israel,
60 So that He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
The tent He had placed among men,
61 And delivered His strength into captivity,
And His glory into the enemy's hand.
62 He also gave His people over to the sword,
And was furious with His inheritance.
63 The fire consumed their young men,
And their maidens were not given in marriage.
64 Their priests fell by the sword,
And their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,
Like a mighty man who shouts because of wine.
66 And He beat back His enemies;
He put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover He rejected the tent of Joseph,
And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim,
68 But chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion which He loved.
69 And He built His sanctuary like the heights,
Like the earth which He has established forever.

Beliefs & Ideas

Like David (Ps. 78:70), the prophet Amos received the call of God while he was tending sheep (Amos 7:14, 15). The Greek poet Hesiod, a contemporary of Homer, relates how he heard the divine call to be a poet while he was shepherding. The gift of writing poetry was not given to all and was not to be refused when offered.

70 He also chose David His servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds;
71 From following the ewes that had young
He brought him,
To shepherd Jacob His people,
And Israel His inheritance.
72 So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart,
And guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

PSALM 79

A Dirge and a Prayer for Israel, Destroyed by Enemies

A Psalm of Asaph.

O God, the nations have come into Your inheritance;
Your holy temple they have defiled;
They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
2 The dead bodies of Your servants
They have given as food for the birds of the heavens,
The flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth.
3 Their blood they have shed like water
all around Jerusalem,
And there was no one to bury them.
4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
A scorn and derision to those who are around us.

5 How long, LORD?
Will You be angry forever?
Will Your jealousy burn like fire?
6 Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You,
And on the kingdoms that do not call on
Your name.
7 For they have devoured Jacob,
And laid waste his dwelling place.

8 Oh, do not remember former iniquities against us!
Let Your tender mercies come speedily to meet us,
For we have been brought very low.
9 Help us, O God of our salvation,
For the glory of Your name;
And deliver us, and provide atonement for our sins,
For Your name's sake!
10 Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Let there be known among the nations in our sight

CHERUBIM, THE DIVINE GUARDIANS (Ps. 80:1)

The religious and royal art of ancient Near Eastern civilizations shows a number of winged, mythological creatures being depicted as composites of several different animals. These supernatural beings appear as guardians for thrones, gateways, palaces, and temples, as well as serving as stands for the images of deities.

The cherubim of the Bible are representatives of these creatures. They acted as guardians of the garden of Eden (Gen. 3:24); they formed the moving throne of God (Ezek. 1—3); their likenesses were molded at the top of the ark of the covenant (Ex. 25:18). In the Most Holy Place of Solomon's temple were two large cherubim, and images of cherubim were carved into the temple walls by order of Solomon (1 Kin. 6:23–29). Clearly, the artistic representation of the cherubim was associated with the worship of God in Jerusalem.

Cherubim are always described in the Bible as having wings, but we lack a full description of their appearance. From similar creatures found in the art of Phoenicia, Mesopotamia, and even in the Samaritan ivory fragments (not to mention Egyptian sphinxes), cherubim appear to have animal bodies with human heads and a pair of wings extending from the shoulders. While human heads appear on all examples, as well as wings, the bodies may be those of lions or bulls or a combination of both. Phoenician artistic examples exist from the 2nd millennium B.C. through the biblical period, so it is possible that the figures carved in the Jerusalem temple were designed by Phoenician craftsmen based on their understanding of such figures.

In religious art cherubim formed mounts, guardians, or companions of the deities, but did not represent the gods themselves. Likewise, the cherubim in Solomon's temple were not intended to be images of God, but were displayed to demonstrate the holiness of the sanctuary and the majesty of the deity worshiped there. Ps. 80:1 reflects the place where God's presence was most revered: in the temple, dwelling between the cherubim of the mercy seat (see Num. 7:89).

The avenging of the blood of Your servants which has been shed.

- 11 Let the groaning of the prisoner come before You;
According to the greatness of Your power
Preserve those who are appointed to die;
- 12 And return to our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom
Their reproach with which they have reproached You, O Lord.
- 13 So we, Your people and sheep of Your pasture,
Will give You thanks forever;
We will show forth Your praise to all generations.

Prayer for Israel's Restoration

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies."<sup>a</sup>
A Testimony<sup>b</sup> of Asaph. A Psalm.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
You who lead Joseph like a flock;
You who dwell between the cherubim, shine forth!

- 2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh,
Stir up Your strength,
And come and save us!
- 3 Restore us, O God;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!
- 4 O LORD God of hosts,
How long will You be angry
Against the prayer of Your people?
5 You have fed them with the bread of tears,
And given them tears to drink in great measure.
- 6 You have made us a strife to our neighbors,
And our enemies laugh among themselves.
- 7 Restore us, O God of hosts;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!
- 8 You have brought a vine out of Egypt;
You have cast out the nations, and planted it.
- 9 You prepared room for it,
And caused it to take deep root,
And it filled the land.
- 10 The hills were covered with its shadow,
And the mighty cedars with its boughs.
- 11 She sent out her boughs to the Sea,<sup>a</sup>
And her branches to the River.<sup>b</sup>

WHEN GODS GO BAD (Ps. 82:1)

Among the psalms, Ps. 82 uniquely offers the only reference to Yahweh taking direct control of the world from the heavenly beings. These “gods,” who previously controlled the world under Yahweh’s authority, had perpetuated injustice to the poor (82:2–4).

The scene of Yahweh among the gods resembles the assembly of Canaanite gods in the Ugaritic myths (c. 1400–1200 B.C.). At Ugarit the gods were answerable to El, head of the pantheon, for their behavior. The lesser gods were responsible for keeping order in the universe, supposedly working together to run the cosmos according to El’s plan. If they did not, El could remove them from power or even condemn them to death.

The psalmist’s “congregation of the mighty” (82:1) appears to have originally referred to the heavenly council. The “mighty” were “gods, . . . children of the Most High” (82:6). They have been interpreted to be either angels or judges.

In this psalm Yahweh condemns the “mighty” gods or judges. They were supposed to defend the powerless, but instead condoned the wicked behavior of the powerful. Because the heavenly powers have acted improperly, knowledge and order have collapsed, and the cosmos hovers on the edge of a return to chaos (82:5).

Instead of justice and order, the gods or judges have created injustice and chaos. Yahweh, who gave them their power in the beginning, now condemns them to death (82:6, 7). The congregation sings praises to God for taking over sole rule of the universe (82:8). Like the god El of the Ugaritic texts, Yahweh is the principal figure, whose justice and order can no longer be thwarted by lesser gods.

- 12 Why have You broken down her hedges,
So that all who pass by the way pluck

- 14 Return, we beseech You, O God of

PSALM 81*An Appeal for Israel’s Repentance

To the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath.<sup>a</sup>
A Psalm of Asaph.

- Sing aloud to God our strength;
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.
- 2 Raise a song and strike the timbrel,
The pleasant harp with the lute.

- 3 Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our solemn feast day.
- 4 For this is a statute for Israel,
A law of the God of Jacob.
- 5 This He established in Joseph as a testimony,
When He went throughout the land of Egypt,
Where I heard a language I did not understand.
- 6 “I removed his shoulder from the burden;
His hands were freed from the baskets.
- 7 You called in trouble, and I delivered you;
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah
- 8 “Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you!
O Israel, if you will listen to Me!
9 There shall be no foreign god among you;
Nor shall you worship any foreign god.
10 I am the LORD your God,
Who brought you out of the land of Egypt;
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- 11 “But My people would not heed My voice,
And Israel would have none of Me.
12 So I gave them over to their own stubborn heart,
To walk in their own counsels.
- 13 “Oh, that My people would listen to Me,
That Israel would walk in My ways!
14 I would soon subdue their enemies,
And turn My hand against their adversaries.

81:title <sup>a</sup>Hebrew Al Gittith

AN ARABIAN TRIBAL CONFEDERACY (Ps. 83:6)

The name “Ishmael” became the representative name for the entire tribe of Ishmaelites. Ishmael was the son of Abraham by Sarah’s maid, Hagar (Gen. 16:15). The twelve sons of Ishmael are well known, both in the Bible (Gen. 25:12–16) and in sources outside of the Bible. It is not certain whether these sources are speaking about the same group or groups, or if the sources refer to different groups. The psalmist was aware of one group of “Ishmaelites” (Ps. 83:6) that were enemies of Israel.

The Ishmaelites were the first known power from the central Arabian desert. An Ishmaelite tribal confederacy reached its greatest power during the Late Assyrian period. The first reference to them comes from the 8th-century B.C. records of Tiglath-Pileser III, describing his campaigns in Syria. The Ishmaelites sent tribute of camels to this Assyrian king after his campaign against them in 738 B.C. Again in 733 B.C. they paid tribute of camels, incense, and spices to Tiglath-Pileser. Another Assyrian king, Sargon II received tribute from a variety of Ishmaelite tribes in 716 B.C.

The Ishmaelite tribes evidently lived along the trade routes used to transport incense and controlled the trade of incense and aromatic goods. Assyrian attempts to create vassal states in northern Arabia were unsuccessful. The annals of the Assyrian king Ashurbanipal (668–627 B.C.) offer much description of Ishmaelite tribes that were encroaching upon Assyrian territory.

The term “Ishmaelite” disappeared at the end of the 7th century B.C. Many of the splinter tribes, however, continued to exist, including the Arab tribes in central Arabia.

- 15 The haters of the LORD would pretend submission to Him,
But their fate would endure forever.
16 He would have fed them also with the finest of wheat;
And with honey from the rock I would have satisfied you.”

A Plea for Justice

A Psalm of Asaph.

- God stands in the congregation of the mighty;
He judges among the gods.<sup>a</sup>
2 How long will you judge unjustly,
And show partiality to the wicked? Selah
3 Defend the poor and fatherless;
Do justice to the afflicted and needy.
4 Deliver the poor and needy;
Free them from the hand of the wicked.
5 They do not know, nor do they understand;
They walk about in darkness;
All the foundations of the earth are unstable.
6 I said, “You are gods,<sup>a</sup>
And all of you are children of the Most High.
7 But you shall die like men,
And fall like one of the princes.”
8 Arise, O God, judge the earth;
For You shall inherit all nations.

PSALM 83

Prayer to Frustrate Conspiracy Against Israel

A Song A Psalm of Asaph.

- Do not keep silent, O God!
Do not hold Your peace,
And do not be still, O God!
2 For behold, Your enemies make a tumult;
And those who hate You have lifted up their head.
3 They have taken crafty counsel against
Your people,
And consulted together against Your sheltered ones.
4 They have said, “Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation,
That the name of Israel may be remembered no more.”
5 For they have consulted together with one consent;
They form a confederacy against You:
6 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
Moab and the Hagrites;
7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek;
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;
8 Assyria also has joined with them;
They have helped the children of Lot. Selah
9 Deal with them as with Midian,
As with Sisera,
As with Jabin at the Brook Kishon,
10 Who perished at En Dor,
Who became as refuse on the earth.
11 Make their nobles like Oreb and like Zeeb,
Yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,

12 Who said, "Let us take for ourselves
The pastures of God for a possession."
13 O my God, make them like the whirling dust,
Like the chaff before the wind!
14 As the fire burns the woods,
And as the flame sets the mountains on fire,
15 So pursue them with Your tempest,
And frighten them with Your storm.
16 Fill their faces with shame,
That they may seek Your name, O LORD.
17 Let them be confounded and dismayed
forever;
Yes, let them be put to shame and perish,
18 That they may know that You, whose name alone is the LORD,
Are the Most High over all the earth.

PSALM 88

A Prayer for Help in Despondency

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.
To the Chief Musician. Set to "Mahalath Leannoth."
A Contemplation<sup>a</sup> of Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD, God of my salvation,
I have cried out day and night before You.
2 Let my prayer come before You;
Incline Your ear to my cry.
3 For my soul is full of troubles,
And my life draws near to the grave.
4 I am counted with those who go down to the pit;
I am like a man who has no strength,
5 Adrift among the dead,
Like the slain who lie in the grave,
Whom You remember no more,
And who are cut off from Your hand.
6 You have laid me in the lowest pit,
In darkness, in the depths.
7 Your wrath lies heavy upon me,
And You have afflicted me with all
Your waves. Selah
8 You have put away my acquaintances far from me;
You have made me an abomination to them;
I am shut up, and I cannot get out;
9 My eye wastes away because of affliction.
LORD, I have called daily upon You;
I have stretched out my hands to You.
10 Will You work wonders for the dead?
Shall the dead arise and praise You? Selah 11 Shall Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave?

Or Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?
12 Shall Your wonders be known in the dark?
And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
13 But to You I have cried out, O LORD,
And in the morning my prayer comes before You.
14 LORD, why do You cast off my soul?
Why do You hide Your face from me?
15 I have been afflicted and ready to die from my youth;
I suffer Your terrors;
I am distraught.
16 Your fierce wrath has gone over me;
Your terrors have cut me off.
17 They came around me all day long like water;
They engulfed me altogether.
18 Loved one and friend You have put far from me,
And my acquaintances into darkness.

A Desire to Build the Temple

The Chronicler shows David establishing everything about the temple except the temple itself. One reason David could not build the temple was because he was a man of war, who had shed blood (1 Chr. 22:8; 28:1–3). However, in 2 Sam. 7 and 1 Chr. 17 a more basic reason is given: during all the years of the tribal confederation, God's ark had been in a movable shrine. He had never been restricted to a single site. David, while establishing the new patterns of kingship, would nevertheless respect the old covenant traditions, one of which was the tabernacle.

• 1 Chronicles 17:1–27

1 Chronicles

God's Covenant with David

17 :1 Now it came to pass, when David was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains."

<sup>2</sup>Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

<sup>3</sup>But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Go and tell My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not build Me a house to dwell in. <sup>5</sup>For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up

Israel, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.<sup>6</sup> Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ”<sup>7</sup> Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel. <sup>8</sup>And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth. <sup>9</sup>Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously, <sup>10</sup>since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build you a house.”<sup>11</sup> And it shall be, when your days are fulfilled, when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>12</sup>He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. <sup>13</sup>I will be his Father, and he shall be My son; and I will not take My mercy away from him, as I took it from him who was before you. <sup>14</sup>And I will establish him in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever.” ’ ”

<sup>15</sup>According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>16</sup>Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: “Who am I, O LORD God? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far? <sup>17</sup>And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O God; and You have also spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the rank of a man of high degree, O LORD God. <sup>18</sup>What more can David say to You for the honor of Your servant? For You know Your servant. <sup>19</sup>O LORD, for Your servant’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. <sup>20</sup>O LORD, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>21</sup>And who is like Your people Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people—to make for Yourself a name by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt? <sup>22</sup>For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their God.

<sup>23</sup>“And now, O LORD, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, let it be established forever, and do as You have said. <sup>24</sup>So let it be established, that Your name may be magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel’s God.’ And let the house of Your servant David be established before You. <sup>25</sup>For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You. <sup>26</sup>And now, LORD, You are God, and have promised this goodness to Your servant. <sup>27</sup>Now You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You have blessed it, O LORD, and it shall be blessed forever.”

Prophetic Account: David’s Reign

When Saul died, the Philistines must have assumed that their victory over Israel was complete. The government of Ishbosheth, Saul’s son, had virtually no power, and David’s rule over Judah was probably condoned by the Philistines. After all, David had been living in their land, and they considered him their man.

If those were the Philistines’ assumptions, they were wrong. Within an astonishingly brief time, David had constructed an impressive empire. First, he drove the Philistines from Israelite territory (2 Sam. 5). Then, responding to an insult from Ammon, he sent his armies across the Jordan. By the time he was done, he had defeated the Ammonites, several Aramean (Syrian) kingdoms, Moab, and Edom (2 Sam. 8; 10). He was aided, no doubt, by the decline of the empires of Egypt and Mesopotamia, but his achievements are still impressive, by any standards.

In typical fashion, though, the biblical history pays scant attention to such feats of arms. Instead, the text focuses on David’s behavior while his armies were off at war—especially on his affair with Bathsheba. This incident and its aftermath forms the heart of what is often called the “Succession Document” (2 Sam. 9—1 Kin. 2). The history of the “Succession Document” gives a unified and very detailed record of events in David’s court up until Solomon, the son of Bathsheba, was crowned David’s successor.

HADADEZER FALLS TO KING DAVID (2 SAM. 8:3)

Hadadezer was the Aramean king defeated by David. As the “king of Zobah” (2 Sam. 8:3, 5), Hadadezer ruled a territory assumed to be north of Damascus in Syria. It is possible, however, that Hadadezer also controlled territory “beyond the River,” meaning beyond the Euphrates (2 Sam. 10:16). Aramean tribes were being used as mercenaries by the Ammonites against Israel, and Hadadezer appears to have commanded several mercenary troops.

Scholars are not certain whether David fought against Hadadezer one, two, or even three times. The various battle reports in Scripture could refer to different battles or to the same battle. At some point, the Arameans became subject to David (10:19).

Hadadezer has not been identified in presently known sources outside of the Bible. He should not be confused with his namesake Hadad-ezer, the later king of Damascus who was part of the coalition opposing Shalmaneser III at the battle of Qarqar in 853 B.C.

<sup>2</sup>Then he defeated Moab. Forcing them down to the ground, he measured them off with a line. With two lines he measured off those to be put to death, and with one full line those to be kept alive. So the Moabites became David’s servants, and brought tribute.

<sup>3</sup>David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his territory at the River Euphrates. <sup>4</sup>David took from him one thousand chariots, seven hundred<sup>a</sup> horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David hamstringed all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

<sup>5</sup>When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians. <sup>6</sup>Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David’s servants, and brought tribute. So the LORD preserved David wherever he went. <sup>7</sup>And David took the shields of gold that had belonged to the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>Also from Bethah<sup>a</sup> and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a large amount of bronze.

<sup>9</sup>When Toi<sup>a</sup> king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer, <sup>10</sup>then Toi sent Joram<sup>a</sup> his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi); and Joram brought with him articles of silver, articles of gold, and articles of bronze. <sup>11</sup>King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the nations which he had subdued— <sup>12</sup>from Syria,<sup>a</sup> from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, from Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

<sup>13</sup>And David made himself a name when he returned from killing eighteen thousand Syrians<sup>a</sup> in the Valley of Salt. <sup>14</sup>He also put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David’s servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David’s Administration

<sup>15</sup>So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered judgment and justice to all his people. <sup>16</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; <sup>17</sup>Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Seraiah<sup>a</sup> was the scribe; <sup>18</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David’s sons were chief ministers.

David’s Kindness to Mephibosheth

9 <sup>1</sup>Now David said, “Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan’s sake?”

<sup>2</sup>And there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba. So when they had called him to David, the king said to him, “Are you Ziba?”

He said, “At your service!”

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said, “Is there not still someone of the house of Saul, to whom I may show the kindness of God?”

And Ziba said to the king, “There is still a son of Jonathan who is lame in his feet.”

<sup>4</sup>So the king said to him, “Where is he?”

And Ziba said to the king, “Indeed he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo Debar.”

<sup>5</sup>Then King David sent and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar.

<sup>6</sup>Now when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, had come to David, he fell on his face and prostrated himself. Then David said, “Mephibosheth?”

And he answered, “Here is your servant!”

<sup>7</sup>So David said to him, “Do not fear, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father’s sake, and will restore to you all the land of

You Dirty Dead Dog! (2 Sam. 9:8)

The dog was the earliest domesticated animal, providing companionship for humans. Yet, in the Bible, the term “dog” is often applied figuratively to worthless or wicked persons. The profit from the sale of a dog was compared to the price of a prostitute and neither was supposed to be donated to the sanctuary because both dogs and prostitutes were “an abomination” to Israel’s God (Deut. 23:18).

In important ways, dogs and pigs were thought by ancient people to be alike. Both were scavengers and both ran wild, if not controlled. In some ancient Near Eastern societies dogs and pigs were associated with or substituted for each other in religious rituals. Interestingly enough, the part dogs or pigs played in these rituals was as agents for cleansing, with impurities and disease being transferred from the human to the animal.

The Law of Moses contained various dietary laws. Food restrictions permitted the eating of “clean” animals, while forbidding the eating of “unclean” animals. The distinction of which animals were clean and which were not clean is detailed in Lev. 11. Both the pig and the dog, by the criteria of Leviticus (11:7, 27), would be unclean.

When Mephibosheth called himself a “dead dog” (2 Sam. 9:8), he was lowering himself to the lowest possible realm. Not only did he liken himself to an unclean scavenger (Ex. 22:31; 1 Kin. 14:11), but he portrayed himself as a dog in its worse possible state—death. The Levitical rule was that a dead dog (or any dead unclean animal) should not be touched. If it was touched, even accidentally, it made the one who touched it “unclean until evening” (Lev. 11:24, 25).

As a verbal sign of humility, Mephibosheth could have said nothing more to King David to show the differences in their positions. David was the king, while Mephibosheth, Saul’s grandson, was a dead dog.

Saul your grandfather; and you shall eat bread at my table continually.”

<sup>8</sup>Then he bowed himself, and said, “What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I?”

<sup>9</sup>And the king called to Ziba, Saul’s servant, and said to him, “I have given to your master’s son all that belonged to Saul and to all his house.

<sup>10</sup>You therefore, and your sons and your servants, shall work the land for him, and you shall bring in the harvest, that your master’s son may have food to eat. But Mephibosheth your master’s son shall eat bread at my table always.” Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

<sup>11</sup>Then Ziba said to the king, “According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so will your servant do.”

“As for Mephibosheth,” said the king, “he shall eat at my table<sup>a</sup> like one of the king’s sons.”

<sup>12</sup>Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Micha. And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth. <sup>13</sup>So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the king’s table. And he was lame in both his feet.

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

10 <sup>1</sup>It happened after this that the king of the people of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup>Then David said, “I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me.”

So David sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David’s servants came into the land of the people of Ammon. <sup>3</sup>And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, “Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?”

<sup>4</sup>Therefore Hanun took David’s servants, shaved off half of their beards, cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup>When they told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, “Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return.”

<sup>6</sup>When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, the people of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand foot soldiers; and from the king of Maacah one thousand men, and from Ish-Tob twelve thousand men. <sup>7</sup>Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. <sup>8</sup>Then

Culture & Society

Israelites regarded a man’s beard as a mark of his worth and status. To have it forcibly removed or disfigured was not just a question of appearances, but a mark of defeat. Since a leader was personally responsible for his followers, the humiliation of David’s servants was a humiliation for him as well (2 Sam. 10:4–6).

9:11 <sup>a</sup>Septuagint reads David’s table.

the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array at the entrance of the gate. And the Syrians of Zoba, Beth Rehob, Ish-Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

<sup>9</sup>When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of Israel's best and put them in battle array against the Syrians. <sup>10</sup>And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, that he might set them in battle array against the people of Ammon. <sup>11</sup>Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. <sup>12</sup>Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight."

<sup>13</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him. <sup>14</sup>When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai, and entered the city. So Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered together. <sup>16</sup>Then Hadadezer<sup>a</sup> sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River,<sup>b</sup> and they came to Helam. And Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them. <sup>17</sup>When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in battle array against David and fought with him. <sup>18</sup>Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen of the Syrians, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, who died there. <sup>19</sup>And when all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer<sup>a</sup> saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the people of Ammon anymore.

David, Bathsheba, and Uriah

11 <sup>1</sup>It happened in the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the people of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Then it happened one evening that David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to behold. <sup>3</sup>So David sent and inquired about the woman. And someone said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?" <sup>4</sup>Then David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her, for she was cleansed from her impurity; and she returned to her house. <sup>5</sup>And the woman conceived; so she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

<sup>6</sup>Then David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup>When Uriah had come to him, David asked how Joab was doing, and how the people were doing, and how the war prospered. <sup>8</sup>And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." So Uriah departed from the king's house, and a gift of food from the king followed him. <sup>9</sup>But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. <sup>10</sup>So when they told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Did you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

<sup>11</sup>And Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are dwelling in tents, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open fields. Shall I then go to my house to eat and drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing."

<sup>12</sup>Then David said to Uriah, "Wait here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next. <sup>13</sup>Now when David called him, he ate and drank before him; and he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

<sup>14</sup>In the morning it happened that David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah. <sup>15</sup>And he wrote in the letter, saying, "Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck down and die." <sup>16</sup>So it was, while Joab besieged the city, that he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew there were valiant men. <sup>17</sup>Then the men of the

<sup>18</sup>Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war, <sup>19</sup>and charged the messenger, saying, “When you have finished telling the matters of the war to the king, <sup>20</sup>if it happens that the king’s wrath rises, and he says to you: ‘Why did you approach so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?’ <sup>21</sup>Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth?<sup>a</sup> Was it not a woman who cast a piece of a millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you go near the wall?’—then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.’”

<sup>22</sup>So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab had sent by him. <sup>23</sup>And the messenger said to David, “Surely the men prevailed against us and came out to us in the field; then we drove them back as far as the entrance of the gate. <sup>24</sup>The archers shot from the wall at your servants; and some of the king’s servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.”

<sup>25</sup>Then David said to the messenger, “Thus you shall say to Joab: ‘Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city, and overthrow it.’ So encourage him.”

<sup>26</sup>When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. <sup>27</sup>And when her mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

Nathan’s Parable and David’s Confession

12 <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and said to him: “There were two men in one city, one rich and the other poor. <sup>2</sup>The rich man had exceedingly many flocks and herds. <sup>3</sup>But the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished; and it grew up together with him and with his children. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup and lay in his bosom; and it was like a daughter to him. <sup>4</sup>And a traveler came to the rich man, who refused to take from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare one for the wayfaring man who had come to him; but he took the poor man’s lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him.”

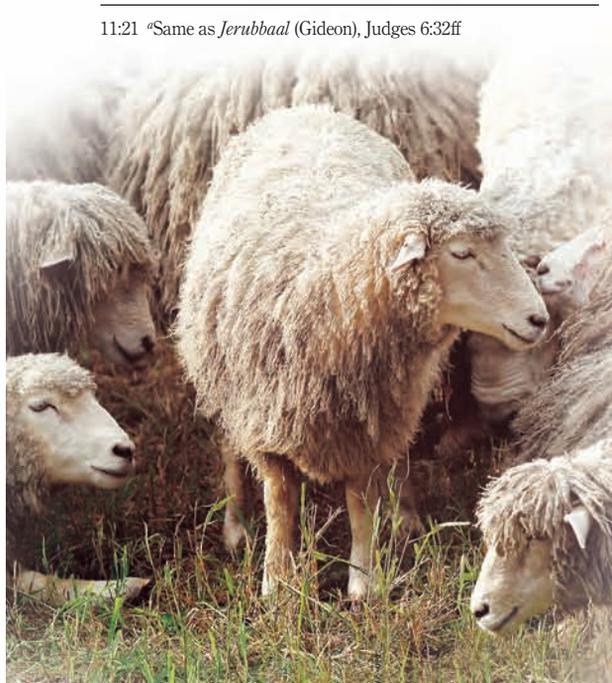

<sup>5</sup>So David’s anger was greatly aroused against the man, and he said to Nathan, “As the LORD lives, the man who has done this shall surely die! <sup>6</sup>And he shall restore fourfold for the lamb, because he did this thing and because he had no pity.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Nathan said to David, “You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel: ‘I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul. <sup>8</sup>I gave you your master’s house and your master’s wives into your keeping, and gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if that had been too little, I also would have given you much more! <sup>9</sup>Why have you despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in His sight? You have killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword; you have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the people of Ammon. <sup>10</sup>Now therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.’ <sup>11</sup>Thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will raise up adversity against you from your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. <sup>12</sup>For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, before the sun.’”

And Nathan said to David, “The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die. <sup>14</sup>However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die.” <sup>15</sup>Then Nathan departed to his house.

Nathan confronted David with his double sin by likening David to the rich man with “many flocks and herds” in the parable of the one little ewe lamb.

Create in Me a Clean Heart

No psalm is more clearly tied to a historical context than Ps. 51. Not only is its superscription unusually explicit, but there are even internal echoes within the psalm (cf. Ps. 51:4 and 2 Sam. 12:13). Many scholars argue that this psalm was actually composed long after David. Regardless of the question of authorship, however, there can be little doubt that Ps. 51 is meant to be read in light of David's adultery with Bathsheba and murder of her husband (2 Sam. 11; 12).

The Sons of David

Counting the children named in Scripture, David fathered 19 sons and 1 daughter. His six oldest sons (listed in 2 Sam. 3:2–5) were all born in Hebron, all with different mothers. The eldest, and therefore the logical choice to reign after David, was Amnon. The second, Chileab, is never mentioned again and may have died young. Third was Absalom, and fourth was Adonijah.

None of the four eldest sons would succeed David on Israel's throne. That honor would fall to a much younger son, just born and by that token the least likely to reign: Solomon, the son of Bathsheba. When reading of the complicated interactions between these sons, we should always remember where they stood in line to the throne. It is certain that the sons themselves never forgot.

RABBAH, CAPITAL OF THE AMMONITES (2 SAM. 12:26)

The Ammonites inhabited the mountainous area in Transjordan directly east of Jerusalem. Their capital was at Rabbah, which was also known as “Rabbah of the people of Ammon” (Deut. 3:11). The city is designated a “royal city,” meaning that a king resided there (2 Sam. 12:26). Since this Ammonite royal city was only about 40 miles from Jerusalem, Israel’s capital city, King David had to capture Rabbah in order to control the region for Israel. This he eventually did, assuming the Ammonite king’s crown for himself (12:29, 30).

Rabbah has one of the most impressive natural settings. Its L-shaped citadel sits high above the center of modern Amman, Jordan. Because of extensive building in later times, principally in Roman and Byzantine periods, much of the city from David’s time has not been uncovered. Nevertheless, Rabbah’s natural defensive position is obvious.

When Joab, David’s general, captured the city, he was careful to send word to David that he had not only captured the city but also its water source (12:27). In the area of the citadel archaeologists have discovered a large underground cistern. Dated by nearby structures, it appears to be the main water source from the time when Joab besieged the city. Some think that a fortified citadel protected the Ammonite king’s royal residence as well as the water supply. If so, then Joab was indicating to David that Israel’s army had broken down Ammon’s strongest defenses.

ground. But he would not, nor did he eat food with them.<sup>18</sup> Then on the seventh day it came to pass that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, “Indeed, while the child was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not heed our voice. How can we tell him that the child is dead? He may do some harm!”

<sup>19</sup>When David saw that his servants were whispering, David perceived that the child was dead. Therefore David said to his servants, “Is the child dead?”

And they said, “He is dead.”

<sup>20</sup>So David arose from the ground, washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he went to his own house; and when he requested, they set food before him, and he ate.<sup>21</sup> Then his servants said to him, “What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child died, you arose and ate food.”

<sup>22</sup>And he said, “While the child was alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, ‘Who can tell whether the LORD<sup>a</sup> will be gracious to me, that the child may live?’<sup>23</sup> But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.”

Solomon Is Born

Rabbah Is Captured

<sup>26</sup>Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the people of Ammon, and took the royal city.<sup>27</sup> And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, “I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city’s water supply.<sup>28</sup> Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called after my name.”<sup>29</sup> So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, fought against it, and took it.<sup>30</sup> Then he took their king’s crown from his head. Its weight was a talent of gold, with precious stones. And it was set on David’s head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.<sup>31</sup> And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws and iron picks and iron axes, and made them cross over to the brick works. So he did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Amnon and Tamar

13 <sup>1</sup>After this Absalom the son of David had a lovely sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.<sup>2</sup> Amnon was so distressed over his sister Tamar that he became sick; for she was a virgin. And it was improper for Amnon to do anything to her.<sup>3</sup> But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David’s brother. Now Jonadab was a very crafty man.<sup>4</sup> And he said to him, “Why are you, the king’s son, becoming thinner day after day? Will you not tell me?”

Amnon said to him, “I love Tamar, my brother Absalom’s sister.”

<sup>5</sup>So Jonadab said to him, “Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat it from her hand.’”<sup>6</sup> Then Amnon lay down and pretended

ASHES OF SORROW (2 SAM. 13:19)

People of biblical times often figuratively expressed their feelings. One way this was done was by joining their feelings to an unusual striking act. For example, accidentally tearing a favorite article of clothing would make some people angry, sad, or frustrated. But in Bible times distraught people sometimes tore their clothes in a dramatic expression of their feelings. We should remember that long before the industrial revolution every piece of clothing was handmade. This only reinforces how much sorrow a person must have felt to tear a garment, especially if it was a precious one.

Tamar's tragic story is one of a sister being sexually violated by her brother Amnon, even though she pled with him that "no such thing should be done in Israel" (2 Sam. 13:12). In disgrace she tore her robe, a special possession as indicated by its description as "of many colors." In addition, she put "ashes on her head" (2 Sam. 13:19).

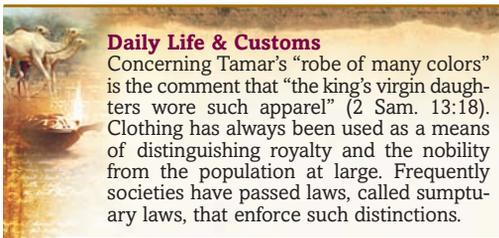

In the cooking process the usual endeavor was to remain clean, meaning to keep the ashes in the firepit and not on one's person. Ashes were refuse and dirty. Tamar, like other ancient persons (Esth. 4:1; Job 2:8; Dan. 9:3), covered herself with ashes by putting them on her head. By tearing her beautiful robe and covering her head in ashes, Tamar expressed, even better than with words, how distraught she was.

to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let Tamar my sister come and make a couple of cakes for me in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

<sup>7</sup>And David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Now go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him." <sup>8</sup>So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. Then she took flour and kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. <sup>9</sup>And she took the pan and placed them out before him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said, "Have everyone go out from me." And they all went out from him. <sup>10</sup>Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them to Amnon her brother in the bedroom. <sup>11</sup>Now when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

<sup>12</sup>But she answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me, for no such thing should be done in Israel. Do not do this disgraceful thing! <sup>13</sup>And I, where could I take my shame? And as for you, you would be like one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you." <sup>14</sup>However, he would not heed her voice; and being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.

<sup>15</sup>Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Arise, be gone!"

Daily Life & Customs

Concerning Tamar's "robe of many colors" is the comment that "the king's virgin daughters wore such apparel" (2 Sam. 13:18). Clothing has always been used as a means of distinguishing royalty and the nobility from the population at large. Frequently societies have passed laws, called sumptuary laws, that enforce such distinctions.

<sup>16</sup>So she said to him, "No, indeed! This evil of sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me."

But he would not listen to her. <sup>17</sup>Then he called his servant who attended him, and said, "Here! Put this woman out, away from me, and bolt the door behind her." <sup>18</sup>Now she had on a robe of many colors, for the king's virgin daughters wore such apparel. And his servant put her out and bolted the door behind her.

<sup>19</sup>Then Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her robe of many colors that was on her, and laid her hand on her head and went away crying bitterly. <sup>20</sup>And Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this thing to heart." So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

<sup>21</sup>But when King David heard of all these things, he was very angry. <sup>22</sup>And Absalom spoke to his brother Amnon neither good nor bad. For Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

Absalom Murders Amnon

<sup>23</sup>And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim; so Absalom invited all the king's sons. <sup>24</sup>Then Absalom came to the king and said, "Kindly note, your servant has sheep-shearers; please, let the king and his servants go with your servant."

<sup>25</sup>But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be a burden to you." Then he urged him, but he would not go; and he blessed him.

<sup>26</sup>Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us."

And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?" <sup>27</sup>But Absalom urged him; so he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

ABSALOM'S CRIME AND RISE TO POWER

Chronological notes in the Book of 2 Samuel trace the quick rise of Absalom as he attempts to take the kingship from his father by force.

Passing Years	Event
	Amnon defiles his half sister Tamar (2 Sam. 13:1–22)
2 years later	Absalom has his brother Amnon killed (2 Sam. 13:23–29) Absalom banished to Geshur for 3 years (2 Sam. 13:37–39)
3 years later	Absalom returns to Jerusalem (2 Sam. 14:21–24) Absalom dwells in Jerusalem for 2 years (2 Sam. 14:28)
2 years later	Absalom burns Joab's field (2 Sam. 14:29–32) Absalom courts the men of Israel for 4 years (2 Sam. 15:1–6)
4 years later	Absalom goes to Hebron to declare himself king (2 Sam. 15:7–12)

The Hebrew Old Testament reads “40 years” in 2 Sam. 15:7. Yet David's entire reign was only 40 years long (1 Kin. 2:11). The chronological difficulty is solved if we read “4 years” in 2 Sam. 15:7, as do the Septuagint (Greek Old Testament), Syriac manuscripts, and the historian Josephus.

<sup>28</sup>Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, “Watch now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon!’ then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and valiant.” <sup>29</sup>So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and each one got on his mule and fled.

<sup>30</sup>And it came to pass, while they were on the way, that news came to David, saying, “Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and not one of them is left!” <sup>31</sup>So the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn. <sup>32</sup>Then Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, “Let not my lord suppose they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for only Amnon is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup>Now therefore, let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead. For only Amnon is dead.”

Absalom Flees to Geshur

<sup>34</sup>Then Absalom fled. And the young man who was keeping watch lifted his eyes and looked, and there, many people were coming from the road on the hillside behind him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>35</sup>And Jonadab said to the king, “Look, the king's sons are coming; as your servant said, so it is.” <sup>36</sup>So it was, as soon as he had finished speaking, that the king's sons indeed came, and they lifted up their voice and wept. Also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly.

<sup>37</sup>But Absalom fled and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day. <sup>38</sup>So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years. <sup>39</sup>And King David<sup>a</sup> longed to go to<sup>b</sup> Absalom. For he had been comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead.

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

14 <sup>1</sup>So Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was concerned about Absalom. <sup>2</sup>And Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her, “Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel; do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning a long time for the dead. <sup>3</sup>Go to the king and speak to him in this manner.” So Joab put the words in her mouth.

<sup>4</sup>And when the woman of Tekoa spoke<sup>a</sup> to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself, and said, “Help, O king!”

<sup>5</sup>Then the king said to her, “What troubles you?”

And she answered, “Indeed I am a widow, my husband is dead. <sup>6</sup>Now your maidservant had two sons; and the two fought with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him. <sup>7</sup>And now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, and they said, ‘Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may execute him for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also.’ So they would extinguish my ember that is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the earth.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the king said to the woman, “Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you.”

<sup>9</sup>And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, “My lord, O king, let the iniquity be on me and on my father’s house, and the king and his throne be guiltless.”

<sup>10</sup>So the king said, “Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you anymore.”

<sup>11</sup>Then she said, “Please let the king remember the LORD your God, and do not permit the avenger of blood to destroy anymore, lest they destroy my son.”

And he said, “As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”

<sup>12</sup>Therefore the woman said, “Please, let your maidservant speak another word to my lord the king.”

And he said, “Say on.”

<sup>13</sup>So the woman said: “Why then have you schemed such a thing against the people of God? For the king speaks this thing as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring his banished one home again. <sup>14</sup>For we will surely die and become like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away a life; but He devises means, so that His banished ones are not expelled from Him. <sup>15</sup>Now therefore, I have come to speak of this thing to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. And your maidservant said, ‘I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his maidservant. <sup>16</sup>For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.’ <sup>17</sup>Your maidservant said, ‘The word of my lord the king will now be comforting; for as the angel of God, so is my lord the king in discerning good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you.’”

<sup>18</sup>Then the king answered and said to the woman, “Please do not hide from me anything that I ask you.”

And the woman said, “Please, let my lord the king speak.”

<sup>19</sup>So the king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” And the woman answered and said, “As you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant. <sup>20</sup>To bring about this change of affairs your servant Joab has done this thing; but my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of the angel of God, to know everything that is in the earth.”

<sup>21</sup>And the king said to Joab, “All right, I have granted this thing. Go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself, and thanked the king. And Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has fulfilled the request of his servant.” <sup>23</sup>So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>And the king said, “Let him return to his own house, but do not let him see my face.” So Absalom returned to his own house, but did not see the king’s face.

David Forgives Absalom

<sup>25</sup>Now in all Israel there was no one who was praised as much as Absalom for his good looks. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. <sup>26</sup>And when he cut the hair of his head—at the end of every year he cut it because it was heavy on him—when he cut it, he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels according to the king’s standard. <sup>27</sup>To Absalom were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a woman of beautiful appearance.

<sup>28</sup>And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, but did not see the king’s face. <sup>29</sup>Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. And when he sent again the second time, he would not come. <sup>30</sup>So he said to his servants, “See, Joab’s field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire.” And Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joab arose and came to Absalom’s house, and said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”

<sup>32</sup>And Absalom answered Joab, “Look, I sent to you, saying, ‘Come here, so that I may send you to the king, to say, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still.’” Now therefore, let me see the king’s face; but if there is iniquity in me, let him execute me.”

<sup>33</sup>So Joab went to the king and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king. Then the king kissed Absalom.

Absalom Subverts the Nation

David’s advancing years and his preoccupation with war and his family problems may have delayed the administration of justice. In this Absalom saw the opportunity to work his way into the good graces of the people of Israel, eventually building a conspiracy to become king himself (2 Sam. 15:1–6, 10–12). When David received word of this conspiracy, however, he did not delay. His hasty departure from the city to escape Absalom may have been in part to save Jerusalem from siege and possible damage.

A chronological note in 2 Sam. 15:7 suggests that 40 years passed before Absalom made his move in Hebron. However, since David’s entire reign is reported to have been 40 years (1 Kin. 2:11), we should probably read “4 years” in 2 Sam. 15:7, as does the Septuagint (the Greek Old Testament), Syriac manuscripts, and the Jewish historian Josephus (see footnote at 2 Sam. 15:7).

Absalom’s Treason

15 <sup>1</sup>After this it happened that Absalom provided himself with chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him. <sup>2</sup>Now Absalom would rise early and stand beside the way to the gate. So it was, whenever anyone who had a lawsuit came to the king for a decision, that Absalom would call to him and say, “What city are you from?” And he would say, “Your servant is from such and such a tribe of Israel.” <sup>3</sup>Then Absalom would say to him, “Look, your case is good and right; but there is no deputy of the king to hear you.” <sup>4</sup>Moreover Absalom would say, “Oh, that I were made judge in the land, and everyone who has any suit or cause would come to me; then I would give him justice.” <sup>5</sup>And so it was, whenever anyone came near to bow down to him, that he would put out his hand and take him and kiss him. <sup>6</sup>In this manner Absalom acted toward all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Now it came to pass after forty<sup>a</sup> years that Absalom said to the king, “Please, let me go to Hebron and pay the vow which I made to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>For your servant took a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Syria, saying, ‘If the LORD indeed brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.’”

<sup>9</sup>And the king said to him, “Go in peace.” So he arose and went to Hebron.

<sup>10</sup>Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, ‘Absalom reigns in Hebron!’” <sup>11</sup>And with Absalom went two hundred men invited from Jerusalem, and they went along innocently and did not know anything. <sup>12</sup>Then Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David’s counselor, from his city—from Giloh—while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy grew strong, for the people with Absalom continually increased in number.

David Escapes from Jerusalem

<sup>13</sup>Now a messenger came to David, saying, “The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom.”

<sup>14</sup>So David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, “Arise, and let us flee, or we shall not escape from Absalom. Make haste to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring disaster upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword.”

<sup>15</sup>And the king’s servants said to the king, “We are your servants, ready to do whatever my lord the king commands.” <sup>16</sup>Then the king went out with all his household after him. But the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house. <sup>17</sup>And the king went out with all the people after him, and stopped at the outskirts. <sup>18</sup>Then all his servants passed before him; and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had followed him from Gath, passed before the king.

<sup>19</sup>Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why are you also going with us? Return and remain with the king. For you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own place. <sup>20</sup>In fact, you

Politics & Government

The Cherethites and Pelethites were professional soldiers working for King David (2 Sam. 15:18). Their names are often taken to mean that they came from Crete and from Palestine. The advantage of mercenary soldiers is that they are not torn by local loyalties, but the related disadvantage is that their loyalty may become nothing more than money.

GITTITES FIGHT WITH DAVID (2 SAM. 15:18)

Gath was one of the five principal Philistine cities and was the closest to Judahite territory (1 Sam. 17:52). According to the report of the Book of Joshua, Gath was formerly inhabited by a race of giants called the Anakim (Josh. 11:22), and it was the home of the giant Goliath whom David killed (1 Sam. 17:4).

David of Israel had personal connections with Gath. While Saul was king of Israel, David had sought asylum by fleeing to Gath, where he was received by the city's king, Achish (1 Sam. 27:2). Later, when David became king of Israel himself, he regularly employed soldiers from Gath (known as "the Gittites") in his army (2 Sam. 15:18). In addition to 600 Gittite mercenaries under the command of Ittai the Gittite (2 Sam. 18:2), David also employed Obed-Edom the Gittite (2 Sam. 6:10).

Employing foreign mercenaries, or whole contingents of foreign troops, in one's army was fairly common in the ancient Near East. The Assyrian king Tiglath-Pileser III (744–727 B.C.) used archers and shield-bearing troops from both Syria and Elam. Thus it is not surprising that David would use foreign auxiliaries, such as the Gittites, in his own armies.

came only yesterday. Should I make you wander up and down with us today, since I go I know not where? Return, and take your brethren back. Mercy and truth be with you."

<sup>21</sup>But Ittai answered the king and said, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also your servant will be."

<sup>22</sup>So David said to Ittai, "Go, and cross over." Then Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones who were with him crossed over. <sup>23</sup>And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people crossed over. The king himself also crossed over the Brook Kidron, and all the people crossed over toward the way of the wilderness.

<sup>24</sup>There was Zadok also, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar went up until all the people had finished crossing over from the city. <sup>25</sup>Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, He will bring me back and show me both it and His dwelling place. <sup>26</sup>But if He says thus: 'I have no delight in you,' here I am, let Him do to me as seems good to Him." <sup>27</sup>The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. <sup>28</sup>See, I will wait in the plains of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me." <sup>29</sup>Therefore Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem. And they remained there.

<sup>30</sup>So David went up by the Ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered and went barefoot. And all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went up. <sup>31</sup>Then someone told David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O LORD, I pray, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!"

<sup>32</sup>Now it happened when David had come to the top of the mountain, where he worshiped

God—there was Hushai the Archite coming to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head. <sup>33</sup>David said to him, "If you go on with me, then you will become a burden to me. <sup>34</sup>But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; as I was your father's servant previously, so I will now also be your servant,' then you may defeat the counsel of Ahithophel for me. <sup>35</sup>And do you not have Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? Therefore it will be that whatever you hear from the king's house, you shall tell to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. <sup>36</sup>Indeed they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send me everything you hear."

<sup>37</sup>So Hushai, David's friend, went into the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

A Prayer in Time of Darkness

As he fled Jerusalem, David sent the ark of the covenant back into the city. He was convinced that if God favored his cause, he would return and see it again (2 Sam. 15:24–26). Such trust in God's care is a proper setting in which to read Ps. 3. The superscription of the psalm associates this lament with David's flight from his own son.

David Flees Jerusalem

Although David had gone to considerable trouble to unite the land of Israel, the tribal distinctions remained. Of all the tribes, the one that resented David most was the tribe of Benjamin, Saul's tribe. As David fled his stronghold in Jerusalem, seemingly deposed, he personally encountered Benjamite hostility. Shimei, a kinsman of Saul, wrongly blamed David for the misfortunes of Saul's last days (2 Sam. 16:5–8).

Mephibosheth's Servant

16:1 When David was a little past the top of the mountain, there was Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth, who met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, one hundred summer fruits, and a skin of wine. <sup>2</sup>And the king said to Ziba, “What do you mean to do with these?”

So Ziba said, “The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who are faint in the wilderness to drink.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said, “And where is your master's son?”

And Ziba said to the king, “Indeed he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.’”

16:12 <sup>a</sup>Following Kethib, Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate; Qere reads my eyes; Targum reads tears of my eyes.

And Ziba said, “I humbly bow before you, that I may find favor in your sight, my lord, O king!”

Shimei Curses David

<sup>5</sup>Now when King David came to Bahurim, there was a man from the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei the son of Gera, coming from there. He came out, cursing continuously as he came. <sup>6</sup>And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David. And all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. <sup>7</sup>Also Shimei said thus when he cursed: “Come out! Come out! You bloodthirsty man, you rogue! <sup>8</sup>The LORD has brought upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. So now you are caught in your own evil, because you are a bloodthirsty man!”

<sup>9</sup>Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please, let me go over and take off his head!”

<sup>10</sup>But the king said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD has said to him, ‘Curse David.’ Who then shall say, ‘Why have you done so?’”

<sup>11</sup>And David said to Abishai and all his servants, “See how my son who came from my own body seeks my life. How much more now may this Benjamite? Let him alone, and let him curse; for so the LORD has ordered him. <sup>12</sup>It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction,<sup>a</sup> and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing this day.” <sup>13</sup>And as David and his men went along the road, Shimei went along the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, threw stones at him and kicked up dust. <sup>14</sup>Now the king and all the people who were with him became weary; so they refreshed themselves there.

Persecution from a Benjamite

The superscription to Ps. 7 does not identify a specific time. Nor does it identify “Cush, a Benjamite,” who is mentioned only here in the Bible. Nevertheless, the reference to the insults of this Benjamite Cush corresponds rather neatly with the insults of the Benjamite Shimei in 2 Sam. 16. The content of Ps. 7 suggests that Cush was an enemy of David; his affiliation with the tribe of Benjamin makes it likely he followed Saul. Whenever and whatever this unknown Cush spoke, the lament of Ps. 7 makes increasingly clear the rivalry between Saul's tribe and David's tribe of Judah.

Prayer and Praise for Deliverance from Enemies

A Meditation<sup>a</sup> of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

- O LORD my God, in You I put my trust;
Save me from all those who persecute me;
And deliver me,
2 Lest they tear me like a lion,
Rending me in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
- 3 O LORD my God, if I have done this:
If there is iniquity in my hands,
4 If I have repaid evil to him who was at peace with me,
Or have plundered my enemy without cause,
5 Let the enemy pursue me and overtake me;
Yes, let him trample my life to the earth,
And lay my honor in the dust. Selah
- 6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; Lift Yourself up because of the rage of my enemies;
7 Rise up for me<sup>a</sup> to the judgment You have commanded!
So the congregation of the peoples shall surround You;
8 For their sakes, therefore, return on high.
The LORD shall judge the peoples;
Judge me, O LORD, according to my
righteousness,
And according to my integrity within me.
- 9 Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end,
But establish the just;
For the righteous God tests the hearts and minds.
- 10 My defense is of God,
Who saves the upright in heart.
- 11 God is a just judge,
And God is angry with the wicked every day.
- 12 If he does not turn back,
He will sharpen His sword;

Beliefs & Ideas

The bow and arrow was the most effective long-range weapon until the introduction of firearms. In Homer's Iliad, divine arrows fall on the Greeks when Apollo wishes to punish them for disrespect. The arrows bring sickness and death. Similarly, arrows also appear in the Bible as appropriate symbols of wounding, suffering, and death. If they come from God, they are His judgment (Ps. 7:13).

- 13 He bends His bow and makes it ready.
He also prepares for Himself instruments of death;
He makes His arrows into fiery shafts.
- 14 Behold, the wicked brings forth iniquity;
Yes, he conceives trouble and brings forth falsehood.
- 15 He made a pit and dug it out,
And has fallen into the ditch which he made.
- 16 His trouble shall return upon his own head,
And his violent dealing shall come down on his own crown.
- 17 I will praise the LORD according to His
righteousness,
And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

TRANSITION*Who Will Be Captain?

In the ancient Near East, the captain of the army was extremely powerful, almost on a level with the king himself. Indeed, when a king was overthrown, the captain of the army was generally involved. In this period when first Absalom took over Jerusalem as king (2 Sam. 16:15, 16), and then David returned to the city as king (2 Sam. 19:15), two captains—Joab and Amasa—vied for control of the army.

Amasa was a cousin of Joab, and both men were nephews of David (1 Chr. 2:13–17). Although earlier defending Absalom (2 Sam. 14:1–24), Joab went into exile with the king, to whom was his first loyalty. When Absalom entered Jerusalem, he installed Amasa as captain in place of Joab (2 Sam. 17:25; 18:1, 2).

David's captain, Joab, is one of the most complex figures in the Bible. On the one hand he seems to be fiercely loyal to David, but on the other hand he repeatedly acts on his own initiative, even against David's express wishes. His conduct in the battle against Absalom is the best example of Joab's independent nature (2 Sam. 18:5, 14).

Returning to the throne, David sought to heal the wounds of war. He forgave Absalom's captain, Amasa, and made him captain in place of Joab (2 Sam. 19:11–13). David may have blamed Joab for the death of Absalom as well as for the earlier murder of Abner (2 Sam. 3:27). But Joab, though loyal to David, was also brutally single-minded in his determination to lead David's armies, and he destroyed yet another rival (2 Sam. 20:8–10).

2 Samuel

The Advice of Ahithophel

16:15 Meanwhile Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him. <sup>16</sup>And so it was, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

<sup>17</sup>So Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

<sup>18</sup>And Hushai said to Absalom, "No, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be, and with him I will remain. <sup>19</sup>"Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence."

<sup>20</sup>Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give advice as to what we should do."

<sup>21</sup>And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong." <sup>22</sup>So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

<sup>23</sup>Now the advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the advice of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17:1 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Now let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight. <sup>2</sup>I will come upon him while he is weary and weak, and make him afraid. And all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike only the king. <sup>3</sup>Then I will bring back all the people to you. When all return except the man whom you seek, all the people will be at peace." <sup>4</sup>And the saying pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

The Advice of Hushai

<sup>5</sup>Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he says too." <sup>6</sup>And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Shall we do as he says? If not, speak up."

<sup>7</sup>So Hushai said to Absalom: "The advice that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time. <sup>8</sup>For," said Hushai, "you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are enraged in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not camp with the people. <sup>9</sup>Surely by now he is hidden in some pit, or in some other place. And it will be, when some of them are overthrown at the first, that whoever hears it will say, 'There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.' <sup>10</sup>And even he who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt completely. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men. <sup>11</sup>Therefore I advise that all Israel be fully gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person. <sup>12</sup>So we will come upon him in some place where he may be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And of him and all the men who are with him there shall not be left so much as one. <sup>13</sup>Moreover, if he has withdrawn into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city; and we will pull it into the river, until there is not one small stone found there."

<sup>14</sup>So Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than the advice of Ahithophel." For the LORD had purposed to defeat the good advice of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring disaster on Absalom.

Hushai Warns David to Escape

<sup>15</sup>Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Thus and so Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and so I have advised. <sup>16</sup>Now therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, 'Do not spend this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily cross over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.'" <sup>17</sup>Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed at En Rogel, for they dared not be seen coming into the city; so a female servant would come and tell them, and they would go and tell King David. <sup>18</sup>Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom. But both of them went away quickly and came to a man's house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down into it. <sup>19</sup>Then the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground grain on it; and the thing was not known. <sup>20</sup>And when Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

So the woman said to them, "They have gone over the water brook."

And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>Now it came to pass, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well and went and told King David, and said to David, "Arise and cross over the water quickly. For thus has Ahithophel advised against you." <sup>22</sup>So David and all the people who were with him arose and crossed over the Jordan. By morning light not one of them was left who had not gone over the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup>Now when Ahithophel saw that his advice was not followed, he saddled a donkey, and arose and went home to his house, to his city. Then he put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died; and he was buried in his father's tomb.

<sup>24</sup>Then David went to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. <sup>25</sup>And Absalom made Amasa captain of the army instead of Joab. This Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Jithra,<sup>a</sup> an Israelite,<sup>b</sup> who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother. <sup>26</sup>So Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

<sup>27</sup>Now it happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the people of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim, <sup>28</sup>brought beds and basins, earthen vessels and wheat, barley and flour, parched grain and beans, lentils and parched seeds, <sup>29</sup>honey and curds, sheep and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him to eat. For they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

Absalom's Defeat and Death

18 <sup>1</sup>And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. <sup>2</sup>Then David sent out one third of the people under the hand of Joab, one third under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I also will surely go out with you myself."

<sup>3</sup>But the people answered, "You shall not go out! For if we flee away, they will not care about us; nor if half of us die, will they care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us now. For you are now more help to us in the city."

<sup>4</sup>Then the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. <sup>5</sup>Now the king had commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains orders concerning Absalom.

<sup>6</sup>So the people went out into the field of battle against Israel. And the battle was in the woods of Ephraim. <sup>7</sup>The people of Israel were overthrown there before the servants of David, and a great slaughter of twenty thousand took place there that day. <sup>8</sup>For the battle there was scattered over the face of the whole countryside, and the woods devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

<sup>9</sup>Then Absalom met the servants of David. Absalom rode on a mule. The mule went under the thick boughs of a great terebinth tree, and his head caught in the terebinth; so he was left hanging between heaven and earth. And the mule which was under him went on. <sup>10</sup>Now a certain man saw it and told Joab, and said, "I just saw Absalom hanging in a terebinth tree!"

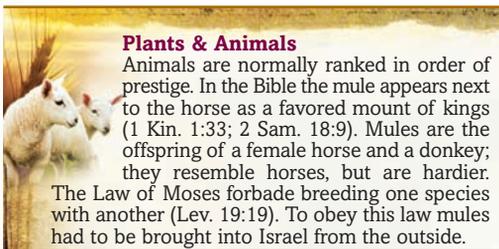

<sup>11</sup>So Joab said to the man who told him, "You just saw him! And why did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten shekels of silver and a belt."

<sup>12</sup>But the man said to Joab, "Though I were to receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king's son. For in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Beware lest anyone touch the young man Absalom!'<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>Otherwise I would have dealt falsely against my own life. For there is nothing hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me."

<sup>14</sup>Then Joab said, "I cannot linger with you." And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through Absalom's heart, while he was still alive in the midst of the terebinth tree. <sup>15</sup>And ten young men who bore Joab's armor surrounded Absalom, and struck and killed him.

<sup>16</sup>So Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel. For Joab held back the people. <sup>17</sup>And they took Absalom and cast him into a large pit in the woods, and laid a very large heap of stones over him. Then all Israel fled, everyone to his tent.

<sup>18</sup>Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up a pillar for himself, which is in the King's Valley. For he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance." He called the pillar after his own name. And to this day it is called Absalom's Monument.

Plants & Animals

Animals are normally ranked in order of prestige. In the Bible the mule appears next to the horse as a favored mount of kings (1 Kin. 1:33; 2 Sam. 18:9). Mules are the offspring of a female horse and a donkey; they resemble horses, but are hardier.

The Law of Moses forbade breeding one species with another (Lev. 19:19). To obey this law mules had to be brought into Israel from the outside.

17:25 "Spelled Jether in 1 Chronicles 2:17 and elsewhere

<sup>a</sup>Following Masoretic Text, some manuscripts of the Septuagint, and Targum; some manuscripts of the Septuagint read Ishmaelite (compare 1 Chronicles 2:17); Vulgate reads of Jezebel.

18:12 "The ancient versions read 'Protect the young man Absalom for me!'

ABSALOM'S MONUMENT (2 SAM. 18:18)

Absalom wanted to be king in his father's place but ended his life under an obscure terebinth tree (2 Sam. 18:14, 15). He did not even have a son to carry on his name. In the end, he had no kingdom and no heir.

During his lifetime Absalom reflected on his lack of a son to remember him. Apparently, all three sons born to Absalom must have died early in life (2 Sam. 14:27). Without a male heir, Absalom decided to erect a monument in one of the most traveled valleys. Thus, as people walked through the "King's Valley" (also called the Kidron Valley), they would see his monument and remember Absalom (2 Sam. 18:18).

Today, visitors to modern Jerusalem can see "the Tomb of Absalom" in the Kidron Valley. While that is the tomb's popular name, it has no real connection to Absalom. The monument called the Tomb of Absalom was actually built during the Roman period (37 B.C.–A.D. 325), almost 1,000 years after the time of Absalom. Even the monument that Absalom himself built as a memorial to his life has been forgotten.

The mausoleum erroneously called Absalom's Monument, located in the Kidron Valley east of Jerusalem, was built centuries after Absalom's death.

David Hears of Absalom's Death

<sup>19</sup>Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me run now and take the news to the king, how the LORD has avenged him of his enemies."

<sup>20</sup>And Joab said to him, "You shall not take the news this day, for you shall take the news another day. But today you shall take no news, because the king's son is dead." <sup>21</sup>Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." So the Cushite bowed himself to Joab and ran.

<sup>22</sup>And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, "But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite."

So Joab said, "Why will you run, my son, since you have no news ready?"

<sup>23</sup>"But whatever happens," he said, "let me run."

So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup>Now David was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate, to the wall, lifted his eyes and looked, and there was a man, running alone. <sup>25</sup>Then the watchman cried out and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." And he came rapidly and drew near.

<sup>26</sup>Then the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "There is another man, running alone!"

And the king said, "He also brings news."

<sup>27</sup>So the watchman said, "I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok."

And the king said, "He is a good man, and comes with good news."

<sup>28</sup>So Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, "All is well!" Then he bowed down with his face to the earth before the king, and said, "Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king!"

Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant and me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I did not know what it was about."

<sup>30</sup>And the king said, "Turn aside and stand here." So he turned aside and stood still.

<sup>31</sup>Just then the Cushite came, and the Cushite said, "There is good news, my lord the king! For the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose against you."

<sup>32</sup>And the king said to the Cushite, "Is the young man Absalom safe?"

So the Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do harm, be like that young man!"

David's Mourning for Absalom

<sup>33</sup>Then the king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept. And as he went, he said thus: "O my son Absalom—my son, my son Absalom—if only I had died in your place! O Absalom my son, my son!"

19 <sup>1</sup>And Joab was told, "Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom." <sup>2</sup>So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people. For the people heard it said that day, “The king is grieved for his son.”<sup>3</sup> And the people stole back into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.<sup>4</sup> But the king covered his face, and the king cried out with a loud voice, “O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!”

<sup>5</sup>Then Joab came into the house to the king, and said, “Today you have disgraced all your servants who today have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines,<sup>6</sup> in that you love your enemies and hate your friends. For you have declared today that you regard neither princes nor servants; for today I perceive that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would have pleased you well.<sup>7</sup> Now therefore, arise, go out and speak comfort to your servants. For I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, not one will stay with you this night. And that will be worse for you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now.”<sup>8</sup> Then the king arose and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, “There is the king, sitting in the gate.” So all the people came before the king.

For everyone of Israel had fled to his tent.

David Returns to Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup>Now all the people were in a dispute throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king saved us from the hand of our enemies, he delivered us from the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled from the land because of Absalom.<sup>10</sup> But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now therefore, why do you say nothing about bringing back the king?”
